Members of the clergy who were retiring at this session of annual conference were invited to stand for recognition. Persons receiving their first appointment as local pastors in all categories were invited to the platform to be recognized by the members. Bishop Lewis asked the historic questions of those persons who were to be ordained. Candidates for commissioning, ordination, recognition of orders and transfer into the conference from other denominations were presented and approved. Appropriate recognition was given to all persons being received into a new relationship with the annual conference at the current session.

All Minute Questions were passed with the required majorities. Rev. Hall thanked the Board of Ordained Ministry and Rev. Meredith McNabb, Director of Clergy Excellence.

SECTION III — Apportionment ProceduresA. APPORTIONMENT FORMULA:

- All Apportionments except for the Active Clergy Health Benefits
Apportionments are calculated using the last year of available statistics of each local church (i.e. 2018 apportionments are calculated using 2016 statistics). The formula is based on total net paid expenses which are the total expenditures of the church minus expenditures for benevolent causes, apportionments, capital improvements, and payments on loans and mortgages. The apportionments for each church are sent to each district based on decimal calculations from the formula below:

Individual Church Net Paid/Total of all Conference Churches Net Paid = Church Decimal

- Active Clergy Health Benefits Apportionment Formula

The costs of the active clergy health benefits will be apportioned using a two-tier calculation. The first tier will consist of a fixed dollar amount ($5,000) per health plan eligible clergy based upon the July 1, 2017 appointment list. The remaining costs after the tier one calculation will be apportioned to the churches based upon total clergy (regardless of classification) compensation (salary plus accountable reimbursement) paid by a church divided by the total clergy compensation paid in the last year of available statistics (2016 for 2018 apportionments).

- The district then passes the apportionments on to the local church according to recommendations developed by the district superintendents and the district stewards.
- The Council on Finance and Administration, in consultation with the Church Development Team and Cabinet, has the authority to set a policy for apportioning newly chartered churches, Legacy churches, and 2nd sites of chartered churches.
 - Effective January 1, 2016, the policy will be to phase in the apportionments for new chartered churches over a five year period with the first year beginning at 20% and increasing 20% for each subsequent year until the church is at 100%.
 - Effective January 1, 2016, for a Legacy church as determined by the Church Development Team and the Cabinet, the district superintendent may present a projected budget of expenses to be used in the Legacy church's apportionment calculation for the first 18 months of its classification as a Legacy church.
 - Effective January 1, 2016 for a 2nd site (satellite & multi-site) locations that are recognized as new faith communities by the Church Development Team and the Cabinet, the existing chartered church may exclude direct expenses of the second site from the apportionment calculation based upon the following schedule:

43-54 months	80%
55-66 months	60%
67-78 months	40%
79-90 months	20%
 - Effective January 1, 2017, for a Renewal church location as determined by the Church Development Team and the Cabinet, the existing chartered church will be treated in the same manner as a newly chartered church.

B. REPORTING GUIDELINES:

- District superintendents will report the apportioned amounts for each church to the Conference treasurer and the apportioned amounts will be shown on the monthly Treasurer's report sent to each church.
- Apportionments are to be calculated and distributed annually rather than on a quadrennial basis.
- The Annual Conference will raise World Service funds only through contributions from the local churches. CFA urges that district superintendents, pastors, and local church leaders seek to fully implement Section 812 of the 2016 Discipline.

C. IMPORTANCE OF WORLD SERVICE:

- The importance of World Service to the life of the Church is lifted up to the Annual Conference. "The World Service Fund is basic in the financial program of The United Methodist Church. The World Service apportionment represents the minimum needs of the general agencies of the Church. Payment in full of these apportionments by local churches and annual conferences is the first benevolent responsibility of the Church.” (Section 812 of the 2016 Discipline).

SECTION IV - Annual Conference Special Offerings

Annual Conference offerings provide important and life-giving support for key Conference programs. The following are recommended for approval for 2018:

- United Methodist Family Services. It is recommended that December be designated as United Methodist Family Services Month and that each church promote an offering during this time for this purpose.
- Virginia United Methodist Homes Samaritan Fund. It is recommended that the period between Mother’s Day and Father’s Day be designated in support of the Virginia United Methodist Homes Samaritan Fund, and that local church offerings collected during that period be dedicated to this ministry.
- Heart Havens. It is recommended that February be designated as Heart Havens Month and that each church promote an offering during this time for this purpose.
- Annual Conference Offering. CFA recommends continued support for this important offering.

SECTION V - Policies

A. DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT’S FUND

Overall Policies for the Fund:

- In compliance with the Book of Discipline, the current salaries and expenses for district superintendents (DS), and those under special appointment, will be published in the Conference Journal with each DS’s salary individually calculated and assigned each year as part of the appointive process, using the following criteria:
 - Each District Superintendent’s salary shall be $88,000, except those who were appointed at a higher salary prior to 7/1/2012. Those “grandfathered” will continue at their existing salaries while completing their appointment.
 - Each year, the annual salaries of the District Superintendents are to be recommended by CFA to the Annual Conference.
 - CFA also administers salary-related expenses, to include such items as pensions, supplemental benefits, travel by voucher, continuing education, and other Cabinet-related expenses.
 - The total cost of salaries and related expenses apportioned to Districts are to be based on the current approved decimal system (upon recommendation of CFA).
 - All other District Superintendent’s costs, such as housing, district office expenses and staff, are to be paid at the district level.

Recommendations for 2018:

- The District Superintendents’ salaries will stay the same for 2018.

B. TRAVEL & MEETING EXPENSES

Board and Agency members and staff engaged in Conference business are provided and are to be managed as follows:

- The mileage reimbursement rate is set at 35 cents for Conference staff and the IRS reimbursement rate for volunteers (currently 14 cents) serving boards and agencies of the Conference.
- Meals are to be reimbursed at actual costs, but not to exceed $20 per 24-hour period. (Breakfast on the date of departure from home/office is not accepted; dinner on the date of return is not accepted, except when the arrival to home/office is after 7 p.m.).

- Reimbursement for daily room charges is set at $100, if the travel incurred extends to a period over three hours prior to the starting time of 10 a.m. on the day of the meeting.
- Spouse expenses are not part of allowable expenses.
- To encourage stewardship in this area, CFA suggests: (1) that advance reading materials be provided for study prior to meetings; and (2) that there be use of teleconferencing, where feasible.

C. INDIVIDUAL EXPENSES FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Provided for and managed as follows:

- Each charge is responsible for the expenses of both the clergy and lay members (including diaconal ministers) from that charge to the annual conference, working out its own plan of compensating for actual expenses.
- Persons not covered through local church appointment shall receive annual conference reimbursement not to exceed $170 a night for mileage, meals and lodging; the Conference treasurer shall reimburse the claimant through voucher of approved expenses. Coverage under this section extends to:
 - (a) retired clergy who retired with pension under one of the Disciplinary options and who are not serving full-time;
 - (b) clergy on medical leave;
 - (c) clergy on sabbatical leave who are members of the Virginia Annual Conference;
 - (d) retired diaconal ministers who served at least eight years in the Virginia Conference and who are granted a retired relationship by the Conference;
 - (e) persons expecting their first appointment;
 - (f) members of the conference who have been appointed to attend a theological school;

 - (j) those on loan to other annual conferences, whose expenses are not otherwise provided for; and
 - (k) clergy returning from an approved leave of absence receiving local church pastoral appointments.
- Each district is responsible for the expenses of its district superintendent, youth members and members-at-large.
- Each board, agency or committee is responsible for the expenses of its chairpersons, if that person is not a clergy or lay member whose costs are covered by their charge or district.

D. CONFERENCE RESERVE FUNDS

Policies on the Maintenance of Reserve Fund Levels:

- The Council monitors the Conference Reserves to ensure the ability to cover future contingencies including,
 - a) Reserve funds for emergencies and catastrophic needs related to the maintenance of Conference property held by the Conference trustees, and include: (1) Virginia United Methodist Center; (2) Wesley Foundation buildings; and (3) the Episcopal residence. [The total value of these properties is estimated at more than $15 million.]
 - b) Reserve funds for cash flow purposes.
 - c) Reserve funds for economic and financial downturns.
- The Council has set the following target for Conference Reserve Funds:

Core Reserves:

A. 20% of the Conference Budget that closes to reserves	$ 1,530,000
a. 401 – Conference Mission and Ministries
b. 402 – Conference Services
c. 403 – District Superintendents' Fund
d. 404 – Equitable Compensation Fund
B. 15% of Invested Assets	601,500

Additional Reserves:

A. Non-budgeted negative balance in Debt Service (mortgage)	346,000
	$ 2,714,000

At December 31, 2016 the Annual Conference had reserves greater than the target amount.

- Consistent with approved Annual Conference policies (effective January 1992), the use of investment income is authorized to maintain reserve levels. (At the discretion of CFA, excesses may be used to: (1) meet shortfalls in Conference benevolences; (2) meet shortfalls in Conference Services; and/or (3) reduce apportionments from the Annual Conference to local churches.
- Reserve funds in the amount of $300,000 are available to cover actions emerging from Annual Conference vote, emergencies, support of advances for campaigns, and potential liabilities of the Conference
- Of the amounts reserved: (1) up to $50,000 is available for emergency needs of the Common Table, with the approval of CFA; and (2) up to $100,000 may be allocated by CFA between sessions of Annual Conference, as deemed necessary
- The status of Conference reserves at the end of the prior actual year is to be reviewed each year by CFA and included in the Treasurer's Report to the Annual Conference Session.

E. PASTOR RELOCATION TRANSITION FUND

1. By action of the June 2003 Annual Conference, CFA has established Pastor Relocation Transition Fund and has provided funding through the Conference Services apportionment.
2. Churches/charges which are served by fulltime clergy appointed to their charge as pastor may request reimbursement on the following schedule for an incoming pastor, if the previous pastor served two years or less in the appointment to their charge:
 - One-year appointment – Seventy-five percent of the verified moving expenses up to a maximum of $3,000 reimbursement.
 - Two-year appointment – Fifty percent of the verified moving expenses up to a maximum of $2,000 reimbursement.
3. No moving expenses will be reimbursed that are not in compliance with the Virginia Annual Conference Guidelines for Moving Expenses as printed in the Journal of the Virginia Annual Conference.
4. Payment will be made at the end of the year based on a pro-rata share of the apportionment receipts from the churches.

F. CONFERENCE JOURNAL

The 2017 Journal is to be made available by posting on the Virginia Conference website (www.vaumc.org) as a PDF file. It will be available as a CD or printed copy upon request at a cost of $10 for the CD and $25 for the print version. Requests for printed copies must be made by August 1 of the calendar year, and payment must be made at the time the order is placed. Only a small quantity of Journals will be printed and distributed in compliance with the Book of Discipline (606.2), to district offices, Conference staff, and those purchasing copies before the August 1 deadline.

G. CONFERENCE PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE

It is recommended that the Conference-Provided Publications Committee be continued, composed of the following: (1) the Director of Connectional Ministries; (2) Conference Treasurer; (3) the Journal Editor; and (4) the Conference Director of Communications, who will serve as the convener of the committee. The Committee may convene at any time at the request of any committee member as long as a majority of the committee members are present. [The committee oversees the production and publication of the conference Journal and other such publications and mailings that are appropriate to keeping the conference members linked to the business of the Annual Conference.]

H. CLERGY DIRECTORY

One copy of the Directory of the Ministry is to be mailed to all Virginia Conference clergy (active and retired, including lay pastors and diaconal ministers). An updated version of the directory is available on the Conference website as a pdf file.

I. AUDIT REPORTS

J. IRS REGULATIONS

CFA reminds all church and/or charge treasurers to comply with the IRS regulations.

K. REQUESTS FOR BUDGET FUNDING

CFA recommends that all groups requesting funding from CFA submit requests for budget funding to CFA by January 15 of the year the request is being made. This will allow the requests to be reviewed by CFA in sufficient time for consideration at the Annual Conference Session the following June.

SECTION VI – A Church in Mission

We are a Church in Mission and a three-pronged focus of teaching, communication, and recognition enriches us as a Conference and as Christians. With it, we are able to share and learn further what it means to enter into the vision and share concerns with many people. But more importantly, it sets out a focus throughout our Conference on the value and importance of the unique connectional relationship we have as United Methodists.

Our charter has already been defined for us and it is set out in Scripture: “Just as in the human body, though it is made up of many parts, is a single unit, because of these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ.” (1 Corinthians 12:12). And that body is composed of all of God’s children, including the rich and poor, found and lost, and secure and dispossessed. For as Jesus said, “Truly, I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.” (Matthew 25:40).

As part of that body, we are called to serve our brothers and sisters in mission throughout the connection. Because of our covenant with God and with each other, it is our goal to fund the basic missional witness of the United Methodist Church.

We have much to be proud of as a Conference, as we live out the full meaning of the Stewardship of the Gospel. Our connectional giving — the important life blood of the work we all do together — is a reflection of the great commitment that Virginia United Methodists have to the mission and ministry work of our Lord. The budgets we draw up, while important, are more than a series of numbers. They reveal the very character of the people who build them, support them, and act through them. They are Christ’s work in the world, put into a plan for receiving and spending — collective understandings of commitments to fulfilling ministries and mission priorities. It’s no small thing we do individually, when collectively we are making such big impacts beyond our church doors.

The Stewardship of our Conference is part of our response to the needs we know about, as well as those not yet seen. Seeing the need, then doing what Jesus would do. That’s true Stewardship! It’s our faith in action!

Betty Forbes, President

SECTION VII – CFA RECOMMENDATION

The Council on Finance and Administration moves that the Annual Conference authorize the Board of Trustees of the Virginia Annual Conference to sell the Conference-owned land adjacent to the Virginia United Methodist Assembly Center in Blackstone Virginia at an appropriate time as determined by the Board of Trustees.

The Equitable Compensation Commission continues to provide financial aid to those churches requiring supplementation to strengthen their ministries in the communities in which they are located and to provide minimum salary or salary supplementation for the pastors. Equitable Compensation support in the amount of $170,048 was provided to 31 charges in 2016. A schedule of salary supplementation appropriations for 2016 has been provided to the conference secretary for publication in the Journal.

There were 10 charges receiving salary supplementation in 2015 that did not require salary support by the end of 2016. These are Bowling Green Charge (Fredericksburg), Brookneal (Lynchburg), Cumberland (Farmville), Galloway (Arlington), Montross (Fredericksburg), Nottoway-Lunenburg (Farmville), Olyer's Chapel-Rehoboth Cooperative Parrish (Danville), Southview (Charlottesville), St Paul (Roanoke), and Twin Lakes Charge (Lynchburg). These charges and their superintendents are commended for their success in providing a ministry in the communities they serve that has enabled them to grow spiritually in their stewardship.

District Superintendents and charges setting salaries for 2018 that may require supplementation are advised that the "floor" must come from sources other than the Commission on Equitable Compensation.

The Conference Average Compensation (CAC) for 2018 is $63,199 which is an increase of 0.2% percent from 2017. The Commission considered Minimum Compensation and the Floor Schedule for 2018 and recommends the changes as outlined below.

Independent Auditors' Report

Council on Finance and Administration
The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church
Glen Allen, Virginia

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church (a division of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2016, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2016, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Adoption of New Accounting Standard

As discussed in Note 2 to the financial statements, The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference adopted Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2015-07, Fair Value Measurement (Topic 820): Disclosure for Investments in Certain Entities That Calculated Net Asset Value per Share (or its Equivalent) in fiscal year 2016. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church Notes to the Financial Statements

Notes to the Financial Statements

1. Organization and Nature of Activities

The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church (Central Treasury) is a division within the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church (Conference). Central Treasury receives and disburses, in accordance with the actions of the Conference, remittances from local church treasurers for all duly authorized general, jurisdictional, Conference, and district causes. It also implements administrative and fiscal policies and procedures as directed by the Council of Finance and Administration.

The purpose of the Council on Finance and Administration is to develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures and management services for the Annual Conference.

The purpose of the Conference is to coordinate the relationship between the general program boards and commissions and the conference, districts, and Virginia United Methodist churches.

These financial statements include only the accounts of the Central Treasury and are not intended to present the financial position and results of the whole Conference.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The financial statements report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets and permanently restricted net assets. The financial statements report amounts separately by class of net assets as follows:

Unrestricted net assets are free of donor-imposed restrictions. Unrestricted net assets may be designated for specific purposes by action of the Council on Finance and Administration or may otherwise be limited by contractual agreements with outside parties.

Temporarily restricted amounts are those which are stipulated by donors for specific operating purposes or future periods.

Permanently restricted amounts are restricted to investments in perpetuity, the income from which is expendable in accordance with the conditions of each specific donation.

Revenues and support are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets unless use of the related assets is limited by donor-imposed restrictions. Expenses are reported as decreases in unrestricted net assets. Gains and losses on investments and other assets or liabilities are reported as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets unless their use is restricted by explicit donor-imposed stipulation or by law. Expirations of temporary restrictions on net assets (i.e., the donor stipulated purposes have been fulfilled and/or the stipulated time period has elapsed) are reported as reclassifications between the applicable classes of net assets.

The Central Treasury has no permanently restricted net assets as of December 31, 2016.

The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expense during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents includes items such as short-term, highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less at the date of purchase.

Investments

All investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values are valued at fair value as determined by the investment management firm holding the assets. Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Unrealized gains and losses are recognized in the period in which they occur. Interest and dividends are recognized in the period earned, and realized gains or losses on securities are recorded in the period of sale.

Accounts receivables and bad debts

Accounts receivable are reported at their estimated realizable value, net of an estimated allowance for doubtful accounts. The allowance is based on management's estimate of the amount of receivables that will actually be collected. It is the Central Treasury's policy to charge off uncollectable accounts receivable when management determines the receivable will not be collected. As of December 31, 2016, management determined that no allowance was necessary.

Loans receivable

Loans receivable are stated at their principal amount outstanding less the related allowance for loan losses and are collateralized by buildings and land. Interest rates on loans are subject to review and adjustment on a periodic basis.

Allowance of loan losses

The allowance for doubtful loans is maintained at a level that, in management's judgment, is adequate to absorb probable loan losses. The amount is based upon an analysis of the loan portfolio by management including, but not limited to, review of the collectability of the loan portfolio, adverse situations that may affect the borrower's ability to repay, estimated value of any underlying collateral and prevailing economic conditions. The analysis is also based on a periodic review of payments and other factors based on the Company's historical experiences. To date, no loans have been in arrears or default and no loan has required modification to acclimate to a borrower's adverse circumstances or ability to repay. This process is based on estimates and ultimate losses may vary from current estimates. As changes in estimates occur, adjustments to the level of the allowance are recorded in the provision for loan losses in the period in which they become known. In addition, the net realizable value of the property serving as collateral for delinquent loans will be assessed on an annual basis.

A loan is considered impaired when, based upon current information and events, it is probable that the Company will be unable to collect all amounts due according to the contractual terms of the loan agreement. Loans are classified as delinquent when payments are 30 days overdue. Loans will continue to accrue interest when a loan is delinquent; however, all accrued interest may be included in the allowance for doubtful loans. Payments for delinquent or impaired loans are treated as a payment of interest due until all accrued interest has been paid. Interest income on delinquent loans is recognized according to the original amortization schedule (accrual method). The accrual of interest income is discontinued when, in management's judgment, the scheduled interest may not be collectible within the stated term of the loan. Interest income is recognized on a cash basis for loans classified as nonaccrual loans, with subsequent payments applied first to interest and fees, if any, and then to principal. Loans classified as nonaccrual loans are returned to accrual status when all the principal and interest amounts contractually due are brought current and future payments are reasonably assured. At December 31, 2016, the Company has no loans it considered impaired. At December 31, 2016, the Central Treasury has no loans it considered impaired. As a result, management has elected not to record an allowance for loan losses.

The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost or the estimates fair value at the date of contribution. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over estimated useful lives as follows:

Building and improvements	15 - 40 years
Equipment and furniture	5 - 7 years
Computer equipment and software	3 - 5 years

Maintenance, repairs, and minor renewals are expensed when incurred. When property and equipment are sold or otherwise disposed of, the asset account and related accumulated depreciation account are relieved, and any gain or loss is included in the current year's operations.

The Central Treasury reviews its long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to undiscounted expected cash flows. Future events could cause the Central Treasury to conclude that impairment indicators exist and that long-lived assets may be impaired. To date, no impairment losses have been recorded.

Recognition of contributions

Contributions are recorded at their estimated fair value when the donor makes a promise to give that is, in substance, unconditional. Contributions that are restricted by the donor are reported as increases in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets depending on the nature of the restrictions. When a restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets.

Income taxes

The Central Treasury is a division of the Conference, which is a not-for-profit organization and is exempt from federal and state income taxes under Internal Revenue Code, Section 501(c)(3) and the tax statutes of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements.

Advertising costs

Advertising costs are expensed when incurred. Advertising costs were $11,905 for 2016.

Concentration

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Central Treasury to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of investments and cash. The Central Treasury places its investments and its cash and cash equivalents with creditworthy institutions and diversifies its holdings among entities, thereby limiting the amount of credit exposure to any one entity. As of December 31, 2016, the Central Treasury has $1,539,157 of cash deposits in excess of federally insured limits being held by a federally insured financial depository institution.

The Central Treasury's investments, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit and overall market volatility risks. In addition, due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the statement of financial position.

New accounting pronouncements

On May 1, 2015, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2015-07, Fair Value Measurement (Topic 820) – Disclosures for Investments in Certain Entities That Calculate Net Asset Value per Share (or its Equivalent). The amendments in ASU 2015-07 remove the requirement to categorize within the fair value hierarchy all investments for which fair value is measured using the NAV per share practical expedient. Instead, the amounts measured using the NAV per share (or its equivalent) must be provided to permit reconciliation of the fair value hierarchy to the amounts presented in the statement of financial position. The Central Treasury has elected to adopt ASU 2015-07 and has removed all investments from the fair value hierarchy for which fair value is measured using the NAV per share practical expedient.

Subsequent events

In preparing these financial statements, the Central Treasury has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through October 11, 2017, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Investments held by these entities are valued at prices which approximate fair value. The fair value of certain investments in the underlying entities, which may include private placements and other securities for which values are not readily available, are determined in good faith by the investment advisors of the respective entities and may not reflect amounts that could be realized upon immediate sale, nor amounts that may be ultimately realized. Net asset valuations are provided daily, monthly, or quarterly by these entities. Appreciation of investments in these entities is net of all allocations to the investment advisors.

4. Funds Held by United Methodist Church

Funds held by United Methodist Church is comprised of funds collected to establish an education fund named the Francis Asbury Fund. The United Methodist Church, through its General Board of Higher Education, controls the investments and directs the use of the funds, which are used primarily for extending Francis Asbury Educational Loans to qualifying United Methodist students. At December 31, 2016, the fund had loans outstanding of $523,364. Loan terms require payment of principal and interest (at 4%) within six years of graduation or withdrawal.

CRSP and CPP are defined contribution plans which currently encourage a one percent employee contribution and call for a 16.4 percent employer contribution (12 percent for CRSP and 4.4 percent for CPP). The contribution is limited to approximately $66,300 of employee wages. CRSP and CPP pension expense for the Central Treasury amounted to approximately $376,000 and for the year ended December 31, 2016.

Conference lay employees are eligible for pension coverage under the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP). IX. REPORTS OF CONFERENCE BOARDS AND AGENCIES

[Editor's Note: The following reports are reprinted from the 2017 Book of Reports. To find actions taken or changes made in the reports, refer to Section IV. DAILY PROCEEDINGS of this Journal. The report from the Council on Finance and Administration will be found in Section VIII. FINANCIAL REPORTS of this Journal.]

COMMITTEE ON RULES

This year, the work of the Rules Committee has been many small projects. The first of these projects was to consider a proposal in regards to the nomination form for delegates to General and Jurisdictional conferences. The Rules Committee was in favor of and is requesting the following to be added to the reverse side of both Lay and Clergy nomination forms:

Those who consent to or desire nomination are asked to commit to the following expectations:

- 1) Pray for God's guidance in decision-making;
- 2) Commit the time needed to read and study the issues;
- 3) Attend the meetings of the Virginia Conference delegation; and
- 4) Attend the General and Jurisdictional Conference as needed.

Dependent upon choices in housing, food, and transportation, delegates may expect to spend an additional $250- $1,500 during the two-week General Conference-over and above the reimbursement.

Dependent upon choices in housing and meals, delegates may expect to spend an additional $100-$500 during the three days of the SEJ Conference-over and above the reimbursement.

(link will be provided here for more information on conference website)

Please contact the Heads of the previous delegation, lay and clergy, for additional information.

In addition to this project, there were some changes for conference relationships within the Virginia Conference this past year. First, it was recognized that though the Virginia United Methodist Assembly Center, Inc. has been a major part of this conference's history, this entity no longer exists and thus needs to be taken out of the Standing Rules as an administrative agency of the Annual Conference. Also, the Common Table voted last spring to restructure the Board of Communications and our Rules Committee has worked with them to account for their new structure. Also, the Rules Committee is recommending, with the approval of Common Table, the addition of the "Professional Association of United Methodist Secretaries" to the Administrative Agencies of the Annual Conference.

And onto some general maintenance of our Standing Rules. In the 2015 Book of Reports, in the Committee on Rules Report, it was recommended and passed that we change the speaking allotment times in section II.B.3. for delegates to speak to two minutes. There were other places in our current Standing Rules that also needed to be changed to be uniform throughout the Standing Rules with this change. Therefore, the Rules Committee is seeking to make those necessary changes to concur with the action of the previous annual conference. In addition, the Rules Committee is recommending that all speakers, including the signer of the resolution, be given two minutes to address the resolution.

Also, because within The United Methodist Church districts have many differing names for differing boards and agencies, for ease of reading the Standing Rules, the Rules Committee has recommended the placing of asterisks in VI.C to mean "Designates or equivalent body."

And finally, Members of the Rules Committee reviewed and updated the disciplinary references based on the 2016 Book of Discipline.

CABINET

The Virginia Conference Cabinet seeks to equip the clergy and laity to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. The 16 district superintendents strive to live into the role of chief missional strategists. The cabinet is in constant prayer asking God to lead us in our conference to be more effective and fruitful in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

The past year called each of us to a time of transition as we said “thank you and farewell” to Bishop Cho and “hello and welcome” to Bishop Lewis. It is an exciting time in the life of the conference and I invite you to celebrate with us the examples of vitality and fruitfulness that is happening in our districts:

Arlington District: Our vision is to come alongside churches in the District with contextual revitalization and excellent training of clergy and laity. Our new church planting continues with Vine Church launching a satellite congregation at Graham Rd UMC; and Floris UMC initiating an online satellite beginning July 1, 2017. Existing churches are also multiplying with Korean United Methodist Church of Greater Washington sending close to 100 of their members to join the Caucasian Chesterbrook UMC; and sending their lead pastor, Young Bong Kim to revitalize their Centreville campus, now an independent new church start with 200 in worship renamed KUMC of Koinonia. The Arlington District partnered with the Alexandria District to start Next Level Innovations, which invests in a disciplined two to three year process to help them move “to the next level” of vitality. Our first cohort began with 6 churches in the fall of 2016, and we have obtained funding for two more cohorts of 8-10 churches each. Central UMC received approval from Arlington County for their innovative plan to replace their existing church (right next to the Ballston Metro in a “walkable urban” community) with an 8 story building containing a new church, space for a preschool, and a mix of affordable and market-rate apartments.

The laity and clergy of the Alexandria District welcomed Bishop Sharma Lewis for a “Chat and Chew,” a great day of worship, conversation and fellowship on January 28, 2017, at Grace UMC in Manassas. Three churches (Fairlington, Old Bridge, and St. Matthew’s) participated with three churches from the Arlington District in a pilot program for church revitalization called “Next Level Innovations.” In the coming year, plans are to expand the number of churches in this in-depth process to build on our churches’ strengths. At this annual conference, we expect to launch at least two new faith communities as multi-sites of our fastest-growing congregations.

The Charlottesville District is continuing to raise funds for the C’ville Apt. Project which will be providing apartments for people with a developmental disability partnering with Heart Havens. We hosted a prayer event with Rev. Terry Teykl. The Lay Servant ministry work area held two training events. We supported Emmanuel Youth Mission in El Salvador.

The churches and people of the Danville District are learning how to identify and participate in contextualized ministries, for the transformation of lives and communities we serve. We are building flexible and responsive approaches to our shared efforts. Clergy/Lay teams are formed and sent throughout the District to provide resources for mission, ministry and vital discipleship.

On the Eastern Shore District, events led by Rev. Laura Martin and Shane Claiborne spurred attention to the district theme of Ministry with the Poor. Una Familia, a tutoring program for Latino children, grew to 5 congregations, including two Episcopal churches. Camp Occohannock on the Bay is in the midst of a capital campaign to upgrade its facilities for ministry.

The Elizabeth River District is working hard to equip the laity and clergy to reach new people by getting out into the community. We have provided excellent training events through our clergy meetings and district-wide training for laity and clergy. Many churches are experiencing new vitality in their congregation especially as they reach out into their communities and get to know new people.

The Farmville District celebrates an increase in giving to our apportionments (Conference 95% and District 97.7%) in 2016. As the chief missional strategist, I listen and pay attention to our leaders, give the work back to the leaders who draw on their own strength and communicate hope and encouragement to them. Vitality and fruitfulness are present in several more congregations according to the Equipping Vital Congregation goals of disciples in worship, disciples making new disciples, disciples growing in their faith, disciples engaged in mission and disciples sharing their resources for mission. We are living into our new vision “being passionate about leading, listening and loving all people to build up the Kingdom.”

The most recent development for the Fredericksburg District was an action taken at a March 4th Called District Conference in which we voted to change our district name to the Rappahannock River District (R.R.). We made this change for three reasons. We desired a name that reflected a better representation of the 13 geographic regions of our district; we wanted a name that would be a tribute to the American Indian persons who are natives to the land; and the Rappahannock River flows through the entirety of our geographic area. While our name has changed, we continue to engage in ministry through our four-part vision foci. Our district continues several vital ministries. We are in our fourth year of an International Mission Partnership with the El Salvador Evangelical Methodist Church. We are in the fourth year of mission and community ministries through The Heartwood Center. The children’s summer and holiday food ministry of the Heartwood Center began serving 97 children in two locations. This year we are facilitating an expended ministry that serves more than 400 children in locations all across the western and southern areas of our district. We have also taken the bold step of establishing a store front mission ministry called Crossroads Mission Center in the Central Garage area on our district. The Crossroads Mission Center provides Messy Church worship, outreach ministries, and special seasonal ministries. Last, but not least, we are also exploring locations where we can establish new faith communities.

The Harrisonburg District is hard at work building “Mission Central”. This will be a 5,000 square foot building that will house our clothing ministry. Last year we distributed clothing to more than 3,000 children and gave away many thousands of diapers. We hope this ministry will grow into a clothing closet for adults and a food pantry plus house a social worker who will work individually with folks in need. Aisle 7 started out of Verona UMC and is now worshipping every Sunday morning a different crowd of people who wouldn’t normally go to church. It is open seven days a week as a community center. Aisle 7 is a store front with a café, classrooms and meeting space for everyone. There are computers to use, a coffee shop and space to hang out. Many groups are using the space and the community is excited to have a center. We have UVMIM teams going everywhere. These teams are helping in Lumberton, N.C., Waverly and Forest, Va. and in several places in West Virginia as well as local projects. Our churches are involved in a backpacks ministry in almost every school in the district. Many of our churches have food pantries and many work with community food pantries.

The churches on the James River District continue to focus on God’s vision of, “Disciples Making Disciples,” as we strive for the revitalization of existing churches and the formation of new faith communities. The recovery work from last year’s devastating tornado in Waverly has brought new life and revival to both church and community. Although UMCOR has completed their work, we are continuing to host mission teams in the newly remodeled Dendron Mission Center to continue helping low-income families. The churches on the district stepped up apportionment payments for 2016 and many of our small/mid-size churches saw increases in worship and small groups. A new task force has been created to study the possibility of a new faith community in Windsor and we hope to begin two new house churches. We are excited that the campus ministry at Virginia State Univ. is becoming a Wesley Foundation which will be the first at one of the state’s historically black colleges.

The Lynchburg District is in the process of discerning how to best structure our mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. We envision equipping clergy, training laity, resourcing congregations, engaging in ministry with the poor, offering conflict transformation, and caring for the property entrusted to us. We are using our six geographical clusters to deepen relationships among clergy and create connections for congregations to partner in ministry. The district office is located in the Park View Community Center, home to nine ministries and agencies serving our neighbors in one of the poorest communities in Central Virginia.

Like the James River that moves through our midst, God's goodness continues to flow through the Richmond District! We continue to celebrate the work of Shalom Farms, as it moves to a larger farm to meet the growing need for fresh food and produce for those in need in our Richmond area. We are kicking off a new adventure at our Pace Center, on the campus of VCU in downtown Richmond. In conjunction with the Fredericksburg and Charlottesville districts, we celebrate Westview on the James with its increasing enrollment and many opportunities to offer Christ in a beautiful outdoor setting. And as always, our churches continue to seek our Lord, seek his ministry, and multiply his risen grace for God's kingdom. We look forward to another year of this abundant grace flowing through the Richmond District!

Equipping clergy and laity centered the Roanoke District's work this year. The Clergy Summit reflected on the recent General and Jurisdictional Conferences and welcomed Carol Draper from the Conference Treasurer's Office for a work session on statistics, "Stories by Number". Over 400 lay and clergy leaders have participated in a variety of programs sponsored by the The District Common Table including: a day with Jacob Armstrong, author of The New Adapters: Shaping Ideas to Fit Your Congregation; a second group cohort of How to Reach New People; Plowpoint's "Choosing the Faithful Path"; the annual District Leadership Event; and Staff-Pastor/Parish Training. For the first time, twenty "Social Media" communications grants were awarded to local congregations.

Reflecting a year of open-heartedness for Christ, Staunton District churches sent mission crews to redress tornado damage in Waverly and flood-caused devastation in neighboring Greenbrier Co. WV, and gathered thousands of pounds of supplies to further this work. In July, we were blessed to send a Youth mission team of more than 30 persons to Raleigh NC, comprised almost equally of African-American, Latino and Anglo youth from six local churches. In September, we were greatly honored to receive an early visit from our new Bishop, who preached the 150th anniversary of Augusta Street UMC (Staunton). That same month, a collaborative ministry hosted by Wayne Hills UMC (Waynesboro) was launched: The Secret Boutique (which has served more than 70 youth to date) provides a "clothes-shopping experience" for low-income teens, and aims to build relationships between clients and active UM Youth. As the Conference year drew to a close, many of our churches were already responding to a District-wide challenge to think "outside the box" in order to invest in their communities via life-transforming missions. To God be the glory.

The Winchester District participated in the 250th anniversary of the Old Stone Church in Leesburg. OSC is the first Methodist-owned property in America. The WD hosted the Rev. Jorge Acevedo in a two day event for laity and clergy designed to enable churches of all sizes to be vital and fruitful. A second cohort of churches participated in Jim Griffith's, Reaching New People and the first cohort of laity and clergy were trained in Plowpoint's "Choosing the Faithful Path. The WD continued its Haiti Initiative by sending three UVMIM teams.

The York River District celebrated its 6th anniversary as a new district with multi-racial, multi-ethnic and multi-cultural worship during the District Conference. By the leadership of the Superintendency Committee, District Youth Ministry Advisory Team was formed to develop and strengthen the ministry with youth. The District Board of Missions continued partnering with the churches and agencies to support their local, regional, national, and international missions. Various trainings and workshops were offered for clergy and laity to enhance their spiritual development and ministry excellence. Clergy peer learning groups continued to be formed to cultivate mutual support and accountability. Twenty churches have become Prayer Covenant Congregations. In 2016, the people of the York River District welcomed 496 new members, including 304 by profession of faith, and gave over 2.4 million dollars through apportionments and other benevolence.

The district superintendents remain grateful to our Extended Cabinet members: Rev. Marc Brown, Warren Harper, Rev. Mark Ogren, David Dommisie, and Rev. Meredith McNabb for their valuable ministry and guidance. We are also grateful to Rev. Tom Joyce, the bishop's assistant, and Mrs. Terri Biggins, the bishop's administrative assistant for their dedicated and constant support of us all.

Since Bishop Lewis has seen fit to make no cabinet changes this year, each of us commitment ourselves anew to the role of district superintendence and look forward to the journey with our new bishop all to the glory of God.

— Larry Thompson, Winchester DS, Dean of the Cabinet

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION COMMISSION

The Equitable Compensation Commission continues to provide financial aid to those churches requiring supplementation to strengthen their ministries in the communities in which they are located and to provide minimum salary or salary supplementation for the pastors. Equitable Compensation support in the amount of $170,048 was provided to 31 charges in 2016. A schedule of salary supplementation appropriations for 2016 has been provided to the conference secretary for publication in the Journal.

There were 10 charges receiving salary supplementation in 2015 that did not require salary support by the end of 2016. These are Bowling Green Charge (Fredericksburg), Brookneal (Lynchburg), Cumberland (Farmville), Galloway (Arlington), Montross (Fredericksburg), Nottoway-Lunenburg (Farmville), Olyer's Chapel-Rehoboth Cooperative Parrish (Danville), Southview (Charlottesville), St Paul (Roanoke), and Twin Lakes Charge (Lynchburg). These charges and their superintendents are commended for their success in providing a ministry in the communities they serve that has enabled them to grow spiritually in their stewardship.

District Superintendents and charges setting salaries for 2018 that may require supplementation are advised that the "floor" must come from sources other than the Commission on Equitable Compensation.

The Conference Average Compensation (CAC) for 2018 is $63,199 which is an increase of 0.2 percent from 2017. The Commission considered Minimum Compensation and the Floor Schedule for 2018 and recommends the changes as outlined below.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. The Equitable Compensation Fund apportionment for 2018 be $350,000.

VIRGINIA UNITED METHODIST PENSIONS, INC.Section I: Reports*Report 1: Role & Responsibilities of Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc.

The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church directs each annual conference to establish a conference board of pension, auxiliary to Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath), to have charge of the interests and work of providing for and contributing to the support, relief, assistance, and pensioning of clergy and their families, other church workers and lay employees of The United Methodist Church, its institutions, organizations and agencies within each annual conference except as otherwise provided for by Wespath.

On June 22, 1965, the Virginia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church (VAUMC) established and incorporated the Virginia Methodist Pensions, Incorporation, (subsequently renamed on February 2, 1971 to Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc., or "VUMPI,") as its conference board of pension.

VUMPI, in conjunction with Wespath, develops and administers the numerous employee pension and benefit plans sponsored by the Virginia Conference. Some plans are employer-paid, while others are voluntary and 100 percent participant-paid:

Report 2: Funding Wespath Plans

As noted in Report 1 above, VUMPI administers several Wespath programs for the benefit of Virginia Conference clergy. The funding requirements associated with the various programs are determined by Wespath, and VUMPI assumes the responsibility for raising the funds necessary to meet those obligations.

Wespath has calculated the Virginia Conference's 2018 required funding obligation associated with the Pre-82 pension program's unfunded liability. That funding obligation is based on the Virginia Conference's total projected liability and asset values as of January 1, 2016. Due to the combined impact of weaker than expected investment market performance in 2015 and the adoption of a new mortality table reflecting improved projected participant longevity, the required Pre-82 funding obligation in 2018 is approximately 3.5 times the 2017 Pre-82 funding obligation.

The impact of weaker than expected investment market performance and the adoption of a new mortality table had a similar impact on all annual conferences with an unfunded Pre-82 pension liability. Recognizing the potential adverse impact of significantly higher Pre-82 funding obligations in 2018, Wespath has instituted a Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) premium redirection program in 2018 and 2019. Wespath's expectation is that annual conferences will continue to bill local churches and other salary paying units for CPP program participants in 2018, but will redirect the proceeds toward the Pre-82 pension liability.

VUMPI intends to proceed in accordance with Wespath's expectations, and recommends that the Virginia Conference approve the continuation of the current CPP billing methodology, as is detailed in Recommendation 4 below. One of VUMPI's strategic objectives is minimizing the volatility in clergy benefits apportionments, and the CPP premium redirection enables VUMPI to maintain a stable Pre-82 pension apportionment recommendation. In the absence of the CPP premium redirection, VUMPI would face a funding obligation that exceeds the recommended 2018 Pre-82 apportionment by over $1 million, and would likely need to consider a significant increase in the Pre-82 apportionment amount.

Report 3: Virginia Conference-Sponsored Health Plans

VUMPI administers health plans for full time clergy of the Virginia Conference, as well as retired clergy who meet eligibility requirements based on years of ministry in the Virginia Conference. Details of the Conference-sponsored health plans follow:

Active Clergy Health Plans

Health plans made available to clergy serving in full time appointments in the Virginia Conference include a Preferred Provider Organization (PPO) plan, a Health Maintenance Organization Point of Service (HMO) plan, and the Clergy Managed Care Plan (CMCP), which pairs a plan with a relatively higher deductible with a Health Reimbursement Account that is funded by VUMPI.

The majority of the cost of the health plans made available to Virginia Conference clergy is funded through a Conference apportionment, as described in Recommendation 1. The remainder of the cost of the plans is funded by participant contributions, as described in Recommendation 2.

Retired Clergy Health Plans

VUMPI administers health plans for eligible retired clergy of the Virginia Conference. The eligibility requirements include a minimum of ten consecutive years of full time ministry in the Virginia Conference immediately prior to retirement. As is detailed in recommendation 2, clergy having ten or more consecutive years of ministry who go on approved leave or are appointed to an Extension Ministry may freeze their years of service by paying the Retiree Health Plan Monthly Access Fee.

Plans made available to eligible retirees are coordinated with Medicare eligibility. Specific plans for retirees who are not yet eligible for Medicare and the program for Medicare-eligible clergy are described below:

Conference-sponsored health plan for pre-Medicare-eligible retirees: retirees who are eligible to enroll in the Conference-sponsored retired clergy health plan but who are not yet eligible to enroll in Medicare may enroll in the self funded PPO plan administered by VUMPI. Pre-Medicare-eligible retirees may also enroll in the self funded dental insurance program made available to active clergy. The majority of the cost of the health plans made available to Virginia Conference clergy is funded through a Conference apportionment, as described in Recommendation 1. The remainder of the cost of the plans is funded by participant contributions, as described in Recommendation 2.

Conference-sponsored health plan for Medicare-eligible retirees: retirees who are eligible to enroll in the Conference-sponsored retired clergy health plan and who are also enrolled in Medicare have two options for retiree medical coverage.

The first option is the Group Plan, which is a group Medicare Advantage plan created specifically for Virginia Conference retirees. The Group Plan integrates the retiree's Medicare benefit and includes prescription drug coverage. The majority of the cost of the Group Plan is funded through a Conference apportionment, as described in Recommendation 1. The remainder of the cost of the plans is funded by participant contributions, as described in Recommendation 2.

The second option made available to eligible retirees who are enrolled in Medicare is the Connector option. Under the Connector option, Medicare-eligible retirees are able to select any Medicare Supplement plan or Medicare Advantage plan, and any Part D prescription drug plan, offered by United Healthcare. The Conference will provide funding through a Retiree Reimbursement Account ("RRA"), and those funds can be used to partially or fully offset the cost of the coverage elected through the Connector. The RRA funding made available to retirees who elect coverage through the Connector option is funded through a Conference apportionment, as described in Recommendation 1. The remainder of the cost of the elected health plan coverage, if any, is paid by the retiree directly to United Healthcare.

Report 4: Pension Plan Structure

There are four components to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP):

- A. Ministers Reserve Pension Fund (Pre-82) for service and benefits accrued on and/or prior to December 31, 1981.
- B. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) for service and benefits accrued on and/or after January 1, 1982 through December 31, 2006.
- C. Clergy Retirement Security Program - Defined Benefit Plan (CRSP-DB) for service and benefits accrued on and/or after January 1, 2007.
- D. Clergy Retirement Security Program - Defined Contribution Plan (CRSP-DC) for service and benefits accrued on and/or after January 1, 2007.

Wespath refers to plans A – C above as defined benefit (“DB”) pension plans. That is, each year an eligible clergy member of the Virginia Conference served/serves and received/receives pension credit, the applicable plan will pay a certain benefit, or “defined” monthly income during retirement. Hence, the term “defined benefit.” Defined benefit plans do not maintain participant account balances since the employer, or in our case, Wespath, has the responsibility to manage the funds in a manner sufficient to pay the monthly defined benefit.

Simultaneous to Wespath calculating each participant’s defined benefit, it calculates each annual conference’s cost to provide these defined benefits. Wespath bills each annual conference the amount due. Each annual conference, or in our case, VUMPI, then in-turn bills and apportions our local churches for the cost of these plans.

In addition to these defined benefit plans, annual conferences provide their clergy pension benefits from the CRSP-DC, a defined contribution (“DC”) plan. Each year an eligible clergy member of the Virginia Conference serves and receives pension credit, the Virginia Conference determines how much pension contribution each clergy participant will receive in his/her pension account. Hence, the term defined contribution. VUMPI bills local churches for the required amount of pension contribution, then in-turn, makes monthly contributions into the clergy CRSP-DC accounts.

Report 5: Welfare Plans Structure

The welfare plans made available to Virginia Conference clergy include the Comprehensive Protection Plan (“CPP”) sponsored by Wespath, as well as supplemental benefits sponsored independently by VUMPI.

The CPP disability benefits are as follows:

- For Clergy disabled on or after Jan. 1, 2002, the CPP disability benefit equals 70 percent of Plan Compensation, with compensation capped at 200 percent of the DAC.
- For Clergy disabled prior to Jan. 1, 2002, they will continue to receive the same CPP disability benefit per the plan document in-force at the time their disability claim originated.

The following generally describes the death benefit amounts payable under the CPP to eligible participants and their beneficiaries:

Active Participant Death Benefits: payable upon the death of an eligible active CPP participant, as follows:

- Participant: $50,000, payable in 12 monthly installments or one lump sum
- Spouse of active participant: 20% of DAC in the year of death
- Surviving spouse of active participant: 15% of DAC in the year of death
- Child of active participant: 10% of DAC in the year of death
- Annual surviving spouse annuity benefit of 20% of DAC, less the annuity benefit payable from CRSP and other Church-related sources
- Annual surviving child benefit of 10% of DAC, payable in 12 monthly installments (for those age 17 and younger; benefits are paid through the month in which the child attains age 18)
- Annual surviving child educational benefit up to 20% of DAC, payable in equal installments (for those age 18 through 24 and attending school full-time)

Retired Participant Death Benefits: to be eligible for death benefits in retirement, a clergyperson must have been covered in CPP for a specified number of years. The 2012 General Conference approved a change to the CPP program which increases the length of service requirement for retirees. Retirees with 25 or more years of enrollment in CPP are eligible for the death benefits in retirement, and the eligibility criteria for those with fewer than 25 years in CPP is phased in with one-year increments, as detailed in the table below:

Retirement Year	CPP Enrollment Requirement for Death Benefit Eligibility
2013	6 of last 10 years
2014	7 of last 10 years
2015	8 of last 11 years
2016	9 of last 12 years
2017	10 of last 13 years
2018	11 of last 14 years
2019+	12 of last 15 years

The death benefit amounts associated with retired participants are detailed in the table below:

Plan Provision	Clergy Who Retired Before Jan. 1, 2013	Clergy Who Retire Jan. 1, 2013 or Later
Death of retired participant	30% of DAC in the year of death	$20,400
Death of retiree's spouse	20% of DAC in the year of death	$15,300
Death of retiree's surviving spouse	15% of DAC in the year of death	$10,200
Death of retiree's child	10% of DAC in the year of death	$8,160
Annual surviving child benefit, payable in 12 monthly installments	10% of DAC	10% of DAC
Annual surviving child educational benefit, payable in installments	20% of DAC	20% of DAC

The Conference Supplemental Death Benefit for active eligible clergy under episcopal appointment, and who are enrolled in CPP, is $25,000. The Conference Supplemental Death Benefit is payable in addition to the CPP death benefit. During retirement, a $5,000 Conference Supplemental Death Benefit will be payable to CPP participants, in addition to the CPP death benefit. The beneficiary will receive the Conference Supplemental Death Benefit payable in one lump sum. The Conference pays the entire cost of this Supplemental Death Benefit.

In combination, the CPP and Conference Supplemental Death Benefit provide total death benefits as follows:

- $75,000 to beneficiaries of active clergy participants
- 30% of the DAC + $5,000 (or $25,400 for those retiring January 1, 2013 or later) to beneficiaries of retired clergy participants

Gift Benefit

VUMPI currently elects to provide a one time $1,500 gift at the time of retirement or disability (once awarded disability benefits under the Comprehensive Protection Plan) to each clergyperson who has served at least 10 years of service in a full-time Virginia Annual Conference episcopal appointment in the Virginia Conference with pension credit. Further, a gift to the family of each clergyperson meeting the eligibility criteria above who dies in active service is paid in the same amount as the gift to retired or disabled clergypersons.

Report 6: Denominational Average Compensation

Several of the pension and welfare plans incorporate the Denominational Average Compensation ("DAC") into the formula for determining the plan benefit. The formula VUMPI uses for funding those plans relies on the DAC, as well.

As reported by Wespeth, the DAC is projected to increase from 2017 to 2018 as follows:

Denominational Average Compensation
2017	$68,876
2018	$70,202

Report 7: VUMPI Financial Reserve Strategy

The health benefit plans administered by VUMPI for the benefit of active clergy in the Virginia Conference are self-funded health plans. Because VUMPI assumes the financial liability associated with payment of medical claims under the terms of those plans, VUMPI maintains a financial reserve recognizing the potential for claims which exceed the funding made available through apportionments and participant contributions. VUMPI's financial reserve also supports the projected financial liability associated with the health plans made available to retired Virginia Conference clergy, as well as pension funding and other financial obligations.

In 2014, the VUMPI Board of Directors approved a financial reserve strategy that is primarily intended to mitigate the burden of clergy benefits apportionments on Virginia Conference churches. Under the terms of the strategy, the VUMPI Board of Directors identified a portion of VUMPI's financial reserve that has been dedicated to the unfunded liability associated with the Pre-82 pension apportionment. The strategy is specifically intended to reduce the volatility in the Pre-82 pension apportionment. Reserve funds that have been dedicated under this strategy for the 2018 through 2021 period amount to over $6.6 million.

Section II: Recommendations for Annual Conference Approval

Recommendation 1: 2018 Pension and Health Plan Apportionment Recommendations

For 2018, VUMPI recommends a total Clergy Benefit Apportionment of $16,770,000. This total includes funding for the Pre-82 pension, the Active Clergy Health Plan (which includes health care coverage for eligible clergy on medical leave and widowed spouses of active clergy) and the Retired Clergy Health Plan. The apportionment total is allocated among these components as follows:

Clergy Benefits Apportionment Recommendations - 2018
Active Clergy Health	$ 9,710,000
Retired Clergy Health	6,060,000
Pension Liability Assessment – Pre-82	1,000,000
Total Clergy Benefit Apportionments	$ 16,770,000

VUMPI recommends the above Active Clergy Health and Retired Clergy Health apportionments as part of its broad strategy focused on maintaining adequate health plans for Virginia Conference active and retired clergy, while moderating the financial impact on local churches and individual participants to the extent possible.

VUMPI will continue to bill Conference-responsible salary-paying-units (such as Extension Ministries) in 2018. The amount billed will be $11,671 for each eligible clergyperson, plus their applicable Participant Contributions for active clergy as noted in Recommendation 2: 2018 Participant Contribution Recommendations.

The Pension Liability Assessment associated with the Pre-1982 pension program is calculated by Wespath, and is partially based on the projected funding liability that VUMPI is required to meet in 2018. Changes in each year's assessment are driven by multiple factors, including actual and projected investment earnings on pension assets held on behalf of the Virginia Conference at Wespath. Based on input from multiple entities, including the Virginia Conference Treasurer and the Virginia Conference Council on Finance & Administration, the recommended Pre-82 pension apportionment in 2018 is $1 million. As is noted in Report 2 above, Wespath's CPP premium redirection program enables VUMPI to recommend a flat apportionment to fund the 2018 Pre-82 pension liability, in spite of an actual funding obligation in excess of $2 million.

Recommendation 2: 2018 Participant Contribution Recommendations

A key component of VUMPI's strategy is the administration of clergy health plans which provide sufficient and affordable health care coverage. VUMPI works closely with consultants and advisors to construct plan designs which are designed for long term financial sustainability, while optimizing both coverage and costs for enrolled clergy and their families. VUMPI is recommending no increase in participant contributions, resulting in the following monthly participant contribution rates for 2018:

Active Clergy:

Medical				Dental
	HMO	PPO	CMCP		Core	Major
Individual	$113	$102	$90	Individual	$13	$34
Family	$351	$318	$294	Family	$56	$105

Note: active clergy have the opportunity to earn a $15 reduction in Individual contribution rate or $30 reduction in Family contribution rate through participation in the Virginia Conference wellness program.

Clergy on Voluntary Leave and Sabbatical:

Medical			Dental
	HMO	PPO		Core	Major
Individual	$687	$626	Individual	$31	$60
Family	$1,852	$1,659	Family	$58	$131

Clergy on Medical Leave with CPP Benefits & Under Age 65 Surviving Spouses of Clergy

Medical ($500 deductible)		Dental
	PPO		Core	Major
Individual	$112	Individual	$13	$34
Family	$180	Family	$56	$105

Clergy Retired Under §358.2.a (With Twenty Years of Service) or §358.3 (Prior to Age 62 With Fewer Than Thirty Years of Service)

Medical ($1,000 deductible)
	PPO
Individual	$626
Family	$1659

Dental
	Core	Major
Individual	$31	$60
Family	$58	$131

Retired Clergy Under Age 65 – Retired Under §358.1, §358.2b, §358.2c, or §358.3

Individual Tier - Personal Monthly Contributions
Years of Service	PPO	Dental Core	Dental Major
10-14	$698	$31	$60
15-19	$567	$31	$60
20-24	$433	$31	$60
25-29	$301	$31	$60
30+	$167	$31	$60

Family Tier - Personal Monthly Contributions
Years of Service	PPO	Dental Core	Dental Major
10-14	$1,607	$58	$131
15-19	$1,301	$58	$131
20-24	$995	$58	$131
25-29	$690	$58	$131
30+	$381	$58	$131

Under the Conference-sponsored medical plan for Medicare-eligible retirees of the Virginia Conference, there will continue to be two coverage options, as described below.

Group Plan Option: The group plan is a group Medicare Advantage plan. The group plan has a required participant contribution based on full time years of service in the Virginia Conference. The recommended 2018 participant contributions for the group plan coverage option are as follows:

Medicare-eligible Retirees - Monthly Personal Contributions
Years of Service	Individual	Family
10-14	$375	$750
15-19	$310	$620
20-24	$245	$490
30+	$115	$230

Connector Option: The Connector option allows qualifying clergy to select any available Medicare Supplement or Medicare Advantage plan, and any Part D prescription drug plan, offered by United Healthcare. Retirees electing coverage through this option receive Retiree Reimbursement Account (“RRA”) funding, which can be used to offset the cost of the selected coverage. VUMPI recommends 2018 monthly RRA funding based on qualifying years of Virginia Conference service as follows:

Connector Option - Monthly RRA Funding
Years of Service	Retiree Only	Retiree and Spouse
20-24	$150	$300
25-29	$200	$400
30+	$250	$500

The monthly RRA funding amounts will be prorated for qualifying retirees and/or spouses of qualifying retirees who gain Medicare eligibility or otherwise gain eligibility for retiree coverage within a calendar year. Any RRA funds remaining at the end of a calendar year will roll over into the subsequent year for use by the enrolled retiree and/or spouse for qualifying medical expenses.

General Virginia Conference Health Plan Information

Virginia Conference clergy members earn a year of service towards his or her Total Years of VAUMC Service as indicated in the coverage options above for each year that Virginia Annual Conference health plan eligibility is met.

For participants enrolled in the Anthem health plans, either as active clergy or as a retiree not yet eligible for Medicare, plan selections will be made during the open enrollment period in the fall of 2017. If an eligible clergy person does not elect coverage options during the annual open enrollment period, the default enrollment option is the prior year's plan selections (except for Flexible Spending Account or Dependent Care Spending Account contributions), and enrollees will be subject to the associated individual personal contribution rates.

If not selected during the open enrollment period, no Flexible Spending Account contributions can be made during 2018, in accordance with federal laws.

All who are eligible to enroll in a Virginia Conference health plan are strongly encouraged to participate in online open enrollment in the fall of 2017. Details will be distributed through normal annual open enrollment means.

Eligibility for the Conference-sponsored retiree medical plans requires a minimum of ten consecutive years of full time ministry in the Virginia Conference immediately prior to retirement. Virginia Conference clergy on approved leave or serving in an Extension Ministry appointment do not earn additional years of service toward retiree health plan eligibility while on approved leave or appointed to the Extension Ministry, and such leave or Extension Ministry appointment would reflect an interruption of the consecutive years of full time ministry required for retiree health plan eligibility. However, clergy having at least ten consecutive years of full time ministry in the Virginia Conference prior to going on approved leave or taking an Extension Ministry appointment are able to "freeze" their years of service until they retire or until they return to an appointment within the Virginia Conference. Clergy desiring to freeze their years of service under this provision are required to pay a Clergy Retiree Health Plan Monthly Access Fee, which will be billed monthly by the VUMPI office. As part of the recommended participant contributions for 2018, VUMPI recommends that the Clergy Retiree Health Plan Monthly Access Fee remain at $20 per month for 2018.

Recommendation 3: 2018 Pre-82 Pension Past Service Rate

The Pre-82 pension provides a benefit to all eligible clergy who have served in the Virginia Conference prior to 1982. This program pays the greater of the following:

- An annual benefit equal to the Past Service Rate (PSR) times years of pre-1982 service, or
- An annuity amount based upon the participant's cash balance in his or her Defined Benefit Service Money Account

The Virginia Annual Conference establishes the PSR each year. For 2018, VUMPI recommends that the PSR be increased from $564 to $565.

Recommendation 4: 2018 CRSP/CPP/Supplemental Plan Funding Recommendations

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)

The 2018 CRSP Contribution from the local churches and/or salary-paying-units for each appointed eligible clergy member under episcopal appointment at that location shall be:

- For the Defined Contribution component of CRSP: Plan Compensation (base salary plus housing allowance or parsonage rate in accordance with the Internal Revenue Service), times 3%.
- For the Defined Benefit component of CRSP: Plan Compensation (base salary plus housing allowance or parsonage rate in accordance with the Internal Revenue Service, up to 135% of the Denominational Average Compensation ("DAC")) times 9%.

Local churches and salary-paying units are to make their monthly CRSP payments to VUMPI.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

The 2018 CPP contribution from the local churches and/or salary-paying-units for each appointed eligible full time clergy member under episcopal appointment at that location shall be:

Plan Compensation (base salary plus housing allowance or parsonage rate in accordance with the Internal Revenue Service, up to 200% of the Denominational Average Compensation) times 4.4%.

Local churches and salary-paying units are to make their monthly CPP payments to VUMPI.

If, for any reason, CPP contributions are more than 30 days in arrears, participation in the CPP is suspended. If contributions are more than six consecutive months in arrears, participation in the CPP is terminated. For terminated participants, readmission into the CPP requires payment of seven months of contributions and submission of medical statement of good health.

Erroneously enrolled clergy who are ineligible to participate in the CPP have no right to benefits under the CPP. Eligible clergy who have not been properly enrolled in the CPP have no rights under the CPP until after proper enrollment.

Recommendation 5: 2018 Comprehensive Funding Plan

The 2012 Book of Discipline ¶ 1506.6 requires that each annual conference develop, adopt and implement a formal comprehensive funding plan for funding all of its benefit obligations. The funding plan shall be submitted annually to Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) for review and be approved annually by the annual conference, following the receipt and inclusion of a favorable written opinion from Wespath. This document is only a summary of the information contained in the actual signed funding plan and does not contain all the information required for a comprehensive view of the conference's benefit obligations. You may request the full contents of the 2018 comprehensive benefit funding plan from the VUMPI office.

CLERGY RETIREMENT SECURITY PROGRAM (CRSP)

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement program providing lifetime income and account flexibility designed for those who serve as clergy of The United Methodist Church. The program is designed to provide participants with one portion of their overall retirement benefits. CRSP replaced the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) effective January 1, 2007, which had previously replaced the Pre 82 Plan for service rendered prior to January 1, 1982.

CRSP consists of both a defined benefit (DB) plan, which provides a monthly benefit at retirement based upon years of credited service to The United Methodist Church, and a defined contribution (DC) plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the annual conferences.

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP DB) annuities' total liability as of January 1, 2016, is $(1,422,046,473), while total plan assets are $1,530,170,830, resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 108%. The Virginia Conference portion of the liability is 4.0401% and the 2018 contribution is $4,590,440. Additionally, General Conference 2012 approved a change to CRSP that provides each annual conference the discretion to determine whether to cover three quarter and/or half time clergy. The Virginia Conference has elected to cover clergy serving 50%+ under CRSP effective January 1, 2018.

Effective January 1, 2014, the CRSP DC plan was reduced from a 3% to a 2% of plan compensation non matching contribution. Clergy can earn up to an additional 1% CRSP DC contribution by contributing at least 1% of their plan compensation to UMPIP; therefore, if a participant contributes at least 1% of plan compensation to UMPIP, the individual will receive a contribution of 3% to CRSP DC. The 2018 CRSP DC contribution is anticipated to be $1,614,963.

MINISTERIAL PENSION PLAN (MPP)

The Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) annuities' total liability as of January 1, 2016 is $(3,422,875,264), while total plan assets are $3,600,174,516, resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 105%. There is no required contribution for 2018. The Virginia Conference's percentage of the total liability is 3.2819%. Future MPP annuitants have a total account balance of $3,787,199,647 and the Virginia Conference's portion of that balance is $137,653,799 or 3.63% of the total.

Supplement Three to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP), provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church from 1982 through 2006. MPP is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement plan. MPP requires that exactly 65% of the account balance must be annuitized when the funds are to be distributed. The remainder may be rolled over to UMPIP, another qualified plan or an IRA, or it may be paid in a lump sum.

PRE-1982 PLAN

Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Pre 82 Plan, provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church prior to 1982. The Pre 82 Plan was replaced by MPP effective January 1, 1982. If a clergy person retires within the Conference (and does not terminate), the minimum benefit payable is based on two factors:

The number of years of service with pension credit is multiplied by the Past Service Rate (PSR), and the product is the minimum annual benefit payable to those clergy eligible for Pre 82 Plan benefits. In certain situations, the benefit received from the Pre 82 plan may vary based on the applicability of what is referred to as Defined Benefit Service Money (DBSM), which is the defined contribution feature of the Pre 82 Plan. At the time that a participant retires, the DBSM account is converted to a life based benefit and, at that point, the clergy's benefit is the greater of the PSR or DBSM benefit. If the conference increases the PSR, the clergy's benefit is recalculated; but the DBSM based benefit does not change.

The 2018 PSR recommended to the Virginia Conference will be $565, representing a $1 increase from the 2017 rate. The contingent annuitant percentage is recommended to remain at the 70% level.

ACTIVE HEALTH BENEFIT PROGRAM

The Virginia Conference sponsors a self funded health benefit program for full time active clergy. The total cost of the program for 2018 is anticipated to be $12,766,000, which will be funded primarily by apportionments and health plan participant contributions.

POST-RETIREMENT MEDICAL BENEFIT PROGRAM (PRM)

The Virginia Conference currently sponsors a Group Medicare Advantage plan for Medicare-eligible retirees, with optional RRA funding for the purchase of individual supplemental plans through a retiree medical exchange. The projected annual plan benefit cost for 2018 (subsidies, RRAs, claims or premiums) is $7,140,694.

COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN (CPP)

The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) provides death, long term disability and other welfare benefits for eligible clergy of The United Methodist Church and their families. It is an Internal Revenue Code 414(e) "church plan" funded by plan sponsor insurance premiums. Generally, clergy are eligible to participate in CPP if they satisfy the eligibility requirements, including full time appointment with plan compensation of at least 25% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). Plan sponsors may elect to cover participants with three quarter time appointments and/or to continue to cover clergy who, due to certain leaves or appointments, are not otherwise eligible to continue coverage.

For 2018, the Virginia Conference has an expected required contribution to the Comprehensive Protection Plan of $0, due to Wespath's CPP premium redirection.

UNITED METHODIST PERSONAL INVESTMENT PLAN (UMPIP) FOR LAY AND CLERGY

The United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) defined contribution retirement savings plan for clergy and lay employees of The United Methodist Church and affiliated organizations. Participants may make before tax, Roth and/or after tax contributions through payroll deductions. Participant contributions, various optional plan sponsor contributions and investment earnings comprise the individual's retirement account balance.

OTHER CONFERENCE BENEFIT OBLIGATIONS: DEFINED CONTRIBUTION (DC) TYPE

The Virginia currently offers a supplemental life insurance benefit that supplements the CPP life insurance benefit. The estimated contribution for 2018 is $230,000.

CONCLUSION

The 2018 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan and this summary document incorporates, to the best of our understanding, the Virginia Conference's obligations and funding requirements of the benefits provided to the clergy and laity of the Virginia Conference.

Recommendation 6: 2018 Housing Allowance/Exclusion

Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired, Disabled, or Former Clergypersons of the Virginia Conference

The Virginia Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, terminated, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons");

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as an appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension, severance, or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from Wespath Benefits and Investments, during the period January 1, 2018 through December 31, 2018 by each active, retired, terminated, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from Wespath and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespath plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such an active, retired, terminated, or disabled Clergyperson's pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal (and, in most cases, state) income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2), and regulations thereunder, to the least of: (a) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (b) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (c) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Each clergyperson or former clergyperson is urged to consult with his or her own tax advisor to determine what deferred compensation is eligible to be claimed as a housing allowance exclusion.

COMMON TABLE FOR CHURCH VITALITY

The mission of the Virginia Annual Conference is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by equipping its local churches for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church; all to the glory of God.

Guided by this mission, The Common Table for Church Vitality coordinates and prioritizes the program ministries of the Virginia Conference. The conference program agencies that relate to Common Table are Board of Church and Society, Church Development Team, Board of Discipleship, Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries, Board of Laity, and Missional Ministries. The conference administrative agencies that relate to Common Table are Board of Communications, Commission on Disabilities, Commission on Ethnic Minority Concerns and Advocacy, and Commission on Status and Role of Women. Through the work of these agencies, the churches of the Virginia Conference are connected in ministries throughout the state and the world. As it coordinates and prioritizes the ministries of the Virginia Conference, Common Table continues to emphasize alignment toward leadership development of both laity and clergy. The desired result of this emphasis is the formation of new faith communities and the strengthening of existing congregations that has been the focus of the Virginia Annual Conference since the approval of All Things New in 2008.

Included among the significant ministries made possible through the connection of the Virginia Conference are:

- This alignment has resulted in the formation of 22 new Anglo and 20 new Ethnic faith communities since 2008 and the participation of over 500 Virginia Conference congregations in renewal ministry offerings.
- Disaster response through the construction of new homes and restoration of damaged homes that resulted from tornado and flooding. This work is in its second year of ministry and will continue into the upcoming year through the disaster response coordination of our conference and the ongoing generous mission response of many of our conference's churches through financial support and volunteer in mission teams.
- Launch of FOCUS 2020 pilot ministry for best practices and coaching for nine African American congregations in the conference.
- In excess of 70 persons from the Virginia Conference participating in Convocation for Pastors of Black Churches.
- Initiatives of Hope partnerships in Brazil, Cambodia, and Mozambique.
- Volunteer in Mission training and support of local church VIM teams.
- Virginia and International Advance Specials.
- Lay Servant Academy training and support of additional district level training
- Oversight of the mission and ministry of the 13 campus ministries related to and supported by the Virginia Conference.
- Communications support for local church communicators.
- Technical support of annual conference sessions.
- Monitoring and training for inclusion by our conference commissions.
- Voices of Youth Mission Tour.
- United Methodist Day at General Assembly.
- Peacemaking in the Holy Land.
- Bishop's Convocation on Prayer.
- Co-sponsorship with the Beard Center on Aging at Lynchburg College to equip local congregations in "Faithful Aging."
- Conference Youth Retreats.
- Sponsorship of Academy for Spiritual Formation for the first time in the Virginia Conference.

For a full listing of ministries made possible through the program agencies and commissions of the Virginia Conference, I invite you to review each report that is included as part of the complete report of Common Table. Common Table for Church Vitality expresses appreciation for the ministry of the Connectional Ministries staff who provide leadership and support for these ministries. There was one change in the Connectional Ministries staff this year with the approval of Madeline Pillow as the Director of Communications.

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The United Methodist Book of Discipline (§629) specifies the purpose of the Conference Board of Church and Society. The Conference Board is to help the conference, districts and congregations employ our Social Principles to connect our faith communities to the world around us. This work is both individual and societal. We are called to invite faithful disciples of Christ to lead the church prayerfully into the world. We have organized our board to follow the issues raised by our United Methodist Bishop's letter: "God's Renewed Creation: Call to Hope and Action." In this 2009 letter, our bishops raised virtually the same issues, as did Catholic Pope Francis in 2015, namely that the world is awash in 1. Violence, 2. Environmental Destruction, and 3. Poverty.

Following the need to address these three interconnected disasters, we have organized three work areas: 1. Peace and Non-Violence, 2. Caretakers of God's Creation, and 3. Eradicating Poverty/Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries.

The Conference Board promotes the Peace with Justice Sunday Special Offering, one of the six Church-wide offerings that The United Methodist General Conference asks of each local church. In 2015, only 98 of our churches gave to this Special Offering, but their giving has allowed the conference to fund key ministries within the conference. We expect the 2017 total will show more churches taking the offering. One half of the offering stays in the annual conference.

We recently funded:

1. Scholarships for participants to join the Conference Board of Church and Society study trip to Israel and Palestine. We have now led two trips to Israel/Palestine to study peacemaking in the Holy Land.
2. Remember and Recommit: A program of racial reconciliation and study of race relations by two Richmond churches.

The deadline for conference Peace with Justice Grant proposals each year is Jan. 30.

The Board's Caretakers of God's Creation work area has begun a program of district workshops to help churches become "Green Churches". The Caretakers are also working to help congregations divest of stocks of thermal coal companies as required by the resolution voted on at conference in 2015. They are promoting <http://fossilfreefunds.org/> a project of As You Sow, a corporate responsibility program. The fossilfreefunds.org tool makes it very easy to evaluate your portfolio for all kinds of fossil fuel investments. Caretakers also co-sponsored the National Caretakers of God's Creation Climate Justice Conference held at Mt. Olivet United Methodist Church in Arlington. Each year, Caretakers awards a conference church, the Green Church of the Year award. This year's award is going to Fairlington United Methodist Church in Alexandria for its work developing a program of Spirituality in Nature that has been holding monthly worship and nature explorations in natural areas near the church. Caretakers is also working on the issues related to fracking of shale deposits to release natural gas and is submitting a resolution proposing further work related to fracking at this annual conference meeting.

The Peace and Non-violence Work Area is giving continued leadership to persons interested in peace in the Middle East. Our resolution to General Conference to establish a denomination wide taskforce on the Middle East passed and we have been consulting with the General Board of Church and Society on how to proceed with the taskforce. The Peace and Non-violence Work Area is also working to fight gun violence and to promote care of veterans. The work area is proposing two resolutions to annual conference:

1. Compassionate Support for Members of the Armed Forces, Veterans and Their Families Suffering from Post-Traumatic Stress and Moral Injury and
2. A Resolution on Travel to the Holy Land.

The Eradicating Poverty Work Area is working on planning our program for mentoring youth based on the resolution passed at the 2016 annual conference. It also is exploring how to implement the Annual Conference resolution on implementing the banning the "box" which allows prospective employers to choose to not interview persons who have served their time for crimes and are now trying to become employed. We celebrate that the Virginia state government no longer discriminates in job applicants based on an employee's past criminal convictions, but many private employers still ask potential applicants to check the box saying whether they have any criminal convictions.

This year was the 25th anniversary of United Methodist Day at the General Assembly. We partner with the Virginia Interfaith Center on Public Policy to hold the United Methodist Day at the General Assembly. Each year, United Methodist Day at the General Assembly is held on the first Thursday in February. We hold this event jointly with the United Methodist Women and the Conference Legislative Network. We are pleased that in the first year of her tenure, Bishop Lewis has been a key participant in this event and her presence helped stop the weakening of Virginia's rules for Temporary Assistance to Needy Families. We look forward to Bishop Lewis helping to lead the event in future years. Our annual conference luncheon speaker this year will be Kim Bobo, the executive director of the Interfaith Center for Public Policy. We hope that many members of the annual conference will join us for an excellent speech by Ms. Bobo of how we can truly make the "world, our parish" in Virginia.

VIRGINIA UNITED METHODIST COMMUNICATIONS, INC.

The mission of Virginia United Methodist Communications, Inc. is to assist faith communities in communications and related technologies, empowering their mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

The Board of Communications continues to seek ways to live out its mission by supporting our Conference and its local churches. One of the most direct ways we do this is through our Annual Conference training event. In June 2016 we hosted a brand new training about social media. We are excited to return to Annual Conference in 2017 with more training for our local churches. Members of the Board and the Communications staff are also available to hold special trainings at District Training Events or for individual churches. Please contact the Conference Communications office for more information.

In August 2016, after nine years of serving our Conference, Linda Rhodes, Director of Conference Communications, stepped into the wonderful world of retirement. We appreciate all the service and dedication that Linda gave our Conference and our Board over the years and we wish her much peace and joy (and beautiful flowers as she pursues Master Gardening) in retirement.

After a four month interim, our board was very excited to welcome Madeline Pillow, Advocate Editor, as the new Director of Communications in January of 2017. Serving both the role of director and editor is a very large task, and we plan to offer Madeline much support as she navigates this new combined role.

Having established a local church communicators group in 2016, we continue to find ways to support the ministry of communications within our local churches. Currently we host a local church communicator's Facebook group, and we hope to offer a large group event sometime over the coming year.

We have spent a lot of the last year studying our organization and how we can most effectively complete our work and continue to seek new ways to be in ministry. As we continue to live into our current reality, we look forward to new ways to serve.

Last but not least, our board also enjoys supporting the operations of Annual Conference. We help to provide camera operators with appropriate training, help on the tech desk, provide daily Conference news updates and photography and staff our VA Conference Communications display where conference attendees can access communication resources as well as order Conference DVDs and subscribe to the Virginia Advocate, our conference magazine.

Do you subscribe to the Virginia Advocate? If not, you should! Be sure to visit us at the display. If you tell us you read this in the Book of Reports, we may even have a special gift for you!

The Board of Communications continues to look for new ways to support the work of our local churches. Please feel free to reach out to us either through the Conference staff or through the Conference website.

—Keri L. B. Marston, President

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

The Directing Board of the Board of Discipleship continues its work toward offering resources for the churches of the Annual Conference. Our Regional Directors will begin working closely with the Cabinet Clusters of District Superintendents and District Lay Leaders to determine the needs of the local churches throughout the Annual Conference. We have been working toward Best Practices information that can be available to any and all local churches about Discipleship, Fruitfulness, Growth, etc. We have been in contact with various groups to facilitate discussion about resources that can be used to promote and develop Discipleship and Growth particularly in small and mid-size churches especially in rural and urban ministries.

After a series of learning we will shortly have available a web site center with "Best Practices" in the area of Discipleship. Local churches will be able to find resources including books, programs, and consulting sources to assist them in their efforts to be fruitful. Regional Directors are compiling lists of Clergy and Laity in areas of Vital Congregations, Five Practices, etc. so that local churches will have consulting resources without the prohibitive cost that generally keeps smaller to mid-size churches from these resources. We are working closely with the Cabinet to develop our own leaders through training and agreement with top name organizations with proven records of transformation. Areas will include church assessment, From Membership to Discipleship, Vital Congregation areas, etc.

The Board of Discipleship this year has worked closely with Cokesbury and has awarded churches scholarships towards the use of the Covenant Bible Study. The Board has also awarded scholarships to the Academy for Spiritual Formation. There continues to be money available for two more persons accepted to that program. Each year the Board of Discipleship awards one youth, one laity and one Clergy the Denman Evangelism award. Beginning this year the Board will be awarding a local congregation the One Matters award for recognition of turn around success in growth, professions of faith and fruitfulness.

Each year we endorse candidates to be a General Evangelist in the United Methodist Church and this year with great acknowledgement of his work we endorse Greg West (Chaplain of Wesleyan College) as a General Evangelist. We also participate in the Christian Education Sunday and while an offering is no longer collected, use funds from prior offerings for scholarship and grant requests for Education in our local churches, districts and conference. We work closely with the Office of Bishop by facilitating conference wide activities like the Bishops Convocation of Prayer and have offered assistance for the Conference Day of Prayer and Week of Prayer for the Praying Forward Campaign. Members of the Board continually work with the Conference Staff and Cabinet in areas of Discipleship and have participated in the Mid-Size and Small Church Initiatives. The Board of Discipleship continues to work with Discipleship Circles and has trained facilitators to work with groups that desire to use this effective tool.

Older Adult Council

The Older Adult Council is responding to an increasing recognition of the needs of local congregations to respond in ministry to, for, by and with older adults. With the Baby Boom generation rapidly aging into older adulthood, it is essential we recognize the changing and increasing needs. Older adults in our churches are an enormous resource. Often that resource goes unappreciated for the value for the building of the kingdom. The Council's programs are designed to equip and engage. Presentations on Spiritual Legacy, Liturgical Dance, Olde Time Revival, and Experiencing God are available and have been offered around the Conference for District Training events and United Methodist Women District Leadership events. Council members are working in co-sponsorship with the Beard Center on Aging at Lynchburg College to equip local congregations in “Faithful Aging.”

Center for Next Generation Ministries (Formerly known as Ministries with Young People)

Over the years, as Conference level ministries have evolved, so have the ways in which we have referred to them. This has been no different in the case of the office I have the privilege of serving. Throughout the years, and based primarily on staff configuration, we have been called “Age Level Ministries,” “Life Span Ministries,” “Children, Youth, Young Adults and Singles Ministries” (we later dropped “Singles” and added “Higher Education”), and for the last few years we have been called “Ministries w/ Young People.” We began using the latter after downsizing staff from three positions to one.

In March of 2016, we began an initiative which involved launching a team that would imagine what the big picture of Ministries w/ Young People could look like within our unique context. At the same time we hoped to align with the priority stated in the All Things document, to focus on leadership development. After a year of work, I’m pleased to report that we have developed a Ministry Action Plan that aligns us with conference ministries, while giving us clarity of purpose. Our stated mission is “to raise up next generation spiritual leaders to follow Jesus Christ into the world.” We’ve identified three strategic steps to help us carry this mission out: Connect (opportunities that identify, gather, and discover leaders), Equip (opportunities that resource, train, coach, and develop leaders), and Send (opportunities whereby leaders are mobilized and commissioned to live out their call). Furthermore, we sought approval from the Common Table for Church Vitality to rename this area of ministry as a way to better describe our purpose. So “Ministries With Young People” is now called “Next Generation Ministries.”

Lastly, we have realized that in order to carry out ministries with such a wide demographic, and in such a large conference, we would have to multiply our efforts by launching area-specific teams. To that end, in October of 2016 we launched a Campus Minister Operational Team in partnership with BHECM, and we are currently getting ready to launch a Children’s Ministry Operational Team in the Fall. We’re grateful for the ways God has blessed this work and allowed us to identify leaders to join us in the journey.

For more information on Next Generation Ministries, or if you would like to find ways to get involved, contact us at 804-521-1139, or email us at nextgen@vaumc.org.

Conference Council on Youth Ministries

The last year for Conference Council on Youth Ministries has been fruitful.

During our September council meeting, we enjoyed meeting with several campus ministers from across the Conference. We learned about opportunities on their campuses and ways we could get involved if we go to college. Our Saturday morning during the council meeting was spent working on a service project at Camp Overlook.

As a council, we supported the Office of Ministries with Young People to facilitate the VAUMC Fall Retreats. The theme was CALLED 2016: Just Move. It was our pleasure to learn more about the Just Water campaign; several local Just Water events organized by youth have been sparked from this initiative.

Throughout the year, young people across the Conference raised Youth Service Funds. This money was gathered in several ways: local church initiatives, district fundraisers, collections gathered at Conference Youth Retreats, and other opportunities. Any person, group or church can join CCYM in raising these funds. If interested, we would be glad to help!

Our March council meeting focused on discernment and Youth Service Fund Grant review. The Office of Clergy Excellence led us through discernment activities to help us discover our call and learn more about how we can breathe life into these calls. We had $20,000 to distribute for Youth Service Fund grants and we received over 20 applications.

Youth Service Fund Grants are intended for ministries done BY youth and FOR youth. The hope is that organizations receiving funds will use the dollars as seed money and establish self-sufficient ministries. As self-sufficiency is the goal, repeat grant applications are not always approved.

In conclusion, we are thankful for the opportunity to help organizations engaging with young people to make disciples of Jesus Christ who WILL transform the world in the coming year and beyond.

CONFERENCE MISSIONAL MINISTRIES BOARD

The Missional Discipleship and Engagement Team includes the inter-related work of several Conference Committees: Disaster Response, Initiatives of Hope, Volunteers in Mission and Voices of Youth.

Disaster Response - The Virginia Annual Conference has been actively engaged in Disaster Response and Recovery operations and ministry during 2016. On February 24th nine tornados crossed Virginia, three of which caused major damage and loss of life in three very different Virginia communities. Following our initial response and relief efforts, the VAUMC began Long Term Recovery in the James River District (Waverly), Farmville District (Appomattox) and Fredericksburg District (Tappahannock). During this period, 893 volunteers formed 69 teams and worked 18,769 hours to help the survivors of these storms recover. That is valued at $490,000 in volunteer service. In Waverly we have repaired 13 homes with one pending, in Appomattox we have repaired five homes are in progress of repairing five more but we also have finished one new construction and have two more in progress and three pending! In Tappahannock we had eight homes to work on, we have completed six and have one pending and one new construction in progress.. This has only been possible with your volunteer efforts and your financial gifts. Hurricane Matthew hit us on October 8th. On October 15th our Early Response Teams were requested by the City of Virginia Beach and deployed within 24 hours. Under the leadership of Michele Michaelian our VAUMC ERT Coordinator/Trainer, 265 ERT and other volunteers worked 1,930 hours during the relief phase, contacting over 150 survivors and providing direct service to over 80. There were over 5000 families affected by Hurricane Mathew, FEMA data shows us that there a minimum of 500 families with unmet needs and of those we can expect to have contact with as many as 200 of those survivors. Our Long Term Recovery ministry is fully engaged in the Elizabeth River District and we are currently doing recovery operations in 12 homes with another 23 already pending. Even as we have been working hard to provide support and recovery to the survivors of these events, we have continued with our training of ERT members as well as Spiritual and Emotional Care Team members which increases our capacity and capability to respond and recover from these terrible storms. We have been the lead voluntary agency in both of these long term recovery efforts. This would not be possible without the care and support of our congregations within the VAUMC. There are 1,176 churches in the VAUMC and 374 have made a financial donation to the Disaster Response Advance Special #5037. That's 31% of our congregations. If you have donated thank you so much, your gifts have allowed us to be the hands and feet of Christ to the survivors. If you have not yet donated, please consider a financial gift and/or signing up to volunteer to work for the many survivors that are waiting. Thank you all for what you have done, what you are doing and what you will do in the future to support this important and vital ministry and mission. The survivors are looking and waiting for us to help; and we will be there with your prayers, presence, gifts and service.

— Rev. Bob Pihlcrantz, Conference Disaster Response Coordinator

Initiatives of Hope (IOH) mission is to increase awareness of and generate increased participation in partnership-in-mission opportunities in identified countries or local and national missional ministries. Our overseas connections are currently with Brazil, Mozambique and Cambodia. Rev. David Vaughn chairs the Brazilian Initiative. Volunteer in Mission (VIM) teams to Brazil in 2017 include: 1. Shenandoah University Spring Break Medical Boat Trip in March, 2017; 2. VA Conference Youth/Young Adult team in July, 2017 coordinated by Paulo Lopes; 3. Senior Adult Learning/Serving team in Fall, 2017 led by Dot & Dan Ivey. Brazilian Bishop Adriel Maia will visit Mission Encounter 2017 in July. The Brazilian Methodist Church continues to grow and values their mutual relationship with Virginia United Methodists. Juanita Csontos chairs the Cambodian and led a team a very successful VA Conference VIM team there in January of 2017 which met in various district churches for teaching and learning seminars. Cambodia is appreciative of support provided to all their programs that help develop local church leaders and support sustainable agriculture/livelihood projects and rural health. Rev. Glenn Rowley traveled to Vietnam and IOH will be entertaining further development of relationship with the Vietnam Methodist Church. Our primary ministry in Mozambique is supporting lay and clergy leadership and training. Annandale UMC will send a VIM team there in May, 2017 to work in Cambine and Chicuke. Assistance has been sent to help with clean up from winter floods. Cyclones in February 2017 have inflicted serious damage and assistance will be provided and possibly a VIM team in the spring. IOH is continuing to learn and exploring new initiatives and relationships with Native Americans. Forrest White, UMVIM Coordinator and Long-Term recovery Manager keeps committee updated on team training and need for funding recovery projects on the Eastern Shore and Norfolk area.

— Judy Fender, Chair

Volunteers In Mission (UMVIM) coordinated by Forrest White, offered eight team leader trainings with 107 trained; and 6 team leader recertification trainings with 29 trained during 2016. In November, we reduced the cost of team leader training from $55 to $35 per person and the cost of recertification training from $25 to no cost. We had 59 UMVIM teams from Virginia Conference Churches and a team from Ferrum College (with a VIM trained team leader) serve in one of the three areas affected by the February 2016 tornado outbreak, where the Conference has established Long Term Recovery ministry. The Facebook page, (<https://www.facebook.com/VirginiaUMVIM>) continues to be a place for inspiration, information, and connection. Team leaders are invited to share the specifics about their trip: i.e. church or district sending the team, location and ministry project particulars by emailing the conference UMVIM Coordinator who will post to the Facebook page. Others are invited to pray for the team and those they'll be serving. Teams looking for additional information are invited to "recruit" via the Facebook page. Our prayer is that we truly embrace and live the UMVIM mission statement based on 1 John 3:18 -- "Christian Love In Action."

Voices of Youth (VOY), coordinated by Ryan Brown, has as its mission statement: "Fill your mind with truth, your heart with love, your life with service." We are a group of youth and adults who have a passion for music and mission and combine those two gifts into a unique service experience.

The Missional Connections Team includes the work of mission contexts and relationships; mission education, interpretation and resources; and health and relief connections.

Mrs. Anne Klotz, Missionary Itineration Coordinator, has facilitated connections and visits for many missionaries with their covenant churches during the past year. Under the new Global Mission Fellows program to engage young persons in short term mission ministry, the Conference hosted one fellow in 2016, and anticipates more placements.

Mission Encounter, is a cooperative school offered by the Conference Missional Ministries Board and the United Methodist Women to help us understand God's work in our world and our involvement as United Methodists. Mission Encounter 2017 will be offered July 28-29 at Bon Air UMC in Chesterfield. Topics for this year: Climate Justice, Living as a Covenant Community, The Missionary Conferences of the UMC in the US (Red Bird, Oklahoma & Alaska).

Conference Committee on Mission Personnel (CCMP), chaired by The Rev. Joanne Maughlin, guides and mentors interested persons through the application and discernment process for mission service. Applicants can access the Personnel Information Form (PIF—Application for Missionary Service) and other application materials from the Virginia Conference web site under Ministries - Center for Justice and Missional Excellence - Committee on Mission Personnel (CCMP) - Related Documentation. All completed application materials should be sent to the Virginia Conference Committee on Mission Personnel, % The Virginia Conference Center for Justice and Missional Excellence, P. O. Box 5606, Glen Allen, VA 23058, NOT to the General Board of Global Ministries.

Health and Relief Initiative, led by Katie St. Germain, is responding to the focus on health and wellness ministries by developing a series of videos that churches can use as outreach to their local communities. At this time in which we are divided as a society, we are hoping to use health as a unifier; we hope to equip churches to be wellness resources for their communities. The videos are topic based presentations which have an individual, a congregational, and a Missional focus. Our first video in production is Disaster Response. We will be exploring other topics such as food security, exercise, and clean water. We anticipate having them available early next year.

PARTNERSHIP REPORTS

Heart Havens

Throughout 2016, Heart Havens continued its mission of empowering adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities to live and thrive in a safe and nurturing environment. The people we support participated in all sorts of wonderful things during the year, including Special Olympics, community theater, Venture Scouts, and so much more. We are so thankful for the support we receive from our VAUMC friends; you make this empowerment possible!

We continued to operate group homes across the Conference in 2016. However, after much prayer and deliberation, we found it necessary to close the Morrison home in Newport News. The gentlemen who lived in that home had reached the point of needing more intensive medical supports than Heart Havens could provide, and needed to move to a higher level of care. Because of the changes to the Medicaid Waiver program, we were unable to fill the vacancies in the home as the other gentlemen moved out.

Heart Havens was born out of listening; it was listening to the needs and desires of people with a developmental disability and their families that led to each of our group homes. We've never stopped listening to our stakeholders, and what we're learning now is that families are looking for more individualized means of support. To this end, Heart Havens is in the process of establishing programs for in-home services and supported apartments. These programs are absolutely in keeping with our mission of empowerment; Heart Havens has always been about people, not houses.

We continued to strengthen our connections with congregations and small groups throughout the Conference. We were pleased to share our message of empowerment at over 50 different churches, small groups, and events. Additionally, we welcomed many volunteers from local churches. These volunteers blessed us by raking leaves, painting, or simply having fellowship with the people we support. The theme for Heart Havens Month 2016 was "A Place at the Table," and was themed around Communion and celebrating the fact that all God's children have a place at the Communion table. For the first time, we provided many worship resources, and these were well received.

We were proud to honor Jim Green from the Winchester District as our 2016 Brian Manwiller "In HIS Grip" Award winner. Jim was unable to join us at Annual Conference, so we took the award to him and held a reception at our Saratoga home in Winchester in Jim's honor. Jim was a tireless advocate for Heart Havens from the very beginning, and was very active with the Winchester District UMM in planning fundraisers for Heart Havens.

With your continued support, Heart Havens can continue to empower people with a developmental disability to live vibrant, happy lives with as much independence as possible. We invite you as the church to continue to advocate for Heart Havens and for people with a developmental disability. After all, we're all part of the body of Christ!

United Methodist Family Services of Virginia (UMFS)

For well over a century, United Methodist Family Services has had a legacy of empowering children and families. From the Virginia Conference Orphanage of 1900, to the Virginia Methodist Children's Home of the 1950's, to the present day state-wide agency bringing hope and healing to the whole family, UMFS has partnered with churches and church members to live out their mission. Today we are unwavering champions for high-risk children and families across Virginia, collaborating with communities to help them reach their full potential by providing foster care and adoption services, residential treatment services, and school-based services for kids with special needs.

With regional centers in Richmond, Northern Virginia, Tidewater, Fredericksburg, South Hill and Lynchburg; intensive treatment centers in Richmond and Centreville; and offices in Farmville, Charlottesville, Roanoke, Tazewell, and Loudon counties, our reach is across the Conference. We are dedicated to creating a world where caring, opportunity and generosity are passed on from generation to generation, empowering all children to contribute to society as engaged citizens. Through our five core values, we believe relationships are our building blocks, passion unleashes greatness, collaboration multiplies impact, and we always start with strengths and relentlessly pursue solutions. We are truly transforming the lives of children and families across the Commonwealth.

Since 1900, the churches of the Virginia Conference have partnered with us to be an advocate for high-risk children and families. Our most recent initiative in collaboration with local churches has been in the Richmond area through partnership with The Open Table. The Open Table is a national movement to transform poverty through community by bringing together local church groups of volunteers that make a year-long commitment to act—through relationship—as a team of life specialists, encouragers, and advocates. Over the course of a year, the Table works together with an individual or family in poverty to set goals, foster accountability, and implement a plan to create change. Plans are underway to extend this partnership with The Open Table movement beyond Richmond in the coming year.

Our 60 church partners are ministering in their communities by recruiting and supporting foster and adoptive families; serving as mentors and tutors; conducting work projects and special events; providing transportation for children and families; and donating countless gifts-in-kind. Our church partners, our Child Champion Councils and the UMFS Auxiliary are a critical resource to the children and families we serve. The members of these partnering groups are tireless advocates for our ministry in their districts and local churches throughout the Conference. Our relationship with the United Methodist Church is vital for us to achieve our mission.

We are grateful for the support of the Virginia Conference and for your partnership with us as an unwavering champion for high-risk children and families. It is because of your support that we are able to help children and families reach their full potential! We value our Virginia Annual Conference connection and feel privileged to be a part of the ministry of the United Methodist Church. Together we can continue to empower children and families to reach their full potential.

Virginia United Methodist Homes, Inc.

Much has changed in the fields of aging and senior living since Bishop William Walter Peele led the Virginia Conference in responding to repeated requests to establish a “Home for the Aged” in 1944. Today’s options for community living could never have been imagined when The Hermitage in Richmond opened its doors in 1949. For almost 70 years, Virginia United Methodist Homes, Inc. (VUMH) has been a leader and innovator in developing and providing communities, services and programs to meet the needs of older persons. With the support, hard work and dedication of our board, volunteers and team members, VUMH has grown from that first “Home for the Aged” to providing quality services to enhance the lives of nearly 1,300 people in our seven communities.

Our efforts to improve quality and engage residents continued during this past conference year. A few of our significant accomplishments reflecting our culture change efforts include:

- New construction of our first health services households at WindsorMeade of Williamsburg;
- Planning and initial work on a dining services expansion at Cedarfield;
- Construction of a new country kitchen in our health care neighborhood at the Hermitage in Roanoke; and,
- Our Richmond, Alexandria, Onancock and Norfolk communities all working diligently to move from our traditional health care model to person centered neighborhoods.

Much work has been undertaken to reflect upon the statement of our mission, vision, core values and goals. This work will create a strategic framework which reflects our commitment to safeguard a resident-driven culture; continuously update and maintain safe, secure and appealing communities; create forward thinking programs; and strengthen our engagement with local churches and community partners. One particular example of a strengthened partnership during this year has been our collaboration with the Beard Center on Aging at Lynchburg College to sponsor the first statewide Faithful Aging Conference. Several local churches, districts and the Conference Older Adult Ministries Council were also involved in planning and hosting this event.

Since 1948, the Samaritan Program, the heart of the mission at VUMH, has provided benevolent assistance to residents who outlive their finances. Traditionally, VUMH has recognized the ten local congregations across the Virginia Annual Conference with the highest level of giving each year to the Samaritan Program. During 2016, we were privileged to recognize the following congregations as Samaritan Award Churches:

- Westover Hills (Richmond District)
- Reveille (Richmond District)
- Fairmount (Richmond District)
- Fairfax (Alexandria District)
- Sydenstricker (Alexandria District)
- Trinity (Richmond District)
- Williamsburg (York River District)
- Greene Memorial (Roanoke District)
- Main Street - Emporia (James River District)
- Lawrence Memorial (Roanoke District)

The Innkeeper Award honors and offers appreciation to congregations of the Annual Conference for exemplary support of the mission of VUMH with older adults. Local Community Guilds select the churches based upon both the financial stewardship and volunteer service of members of the congregation. In 2016, Innkeeper Awards were presented to:

- Mount Pleasant (Roanoke District)
- Forest Grove (Richmond District)

Recognizing that the senior housing market and needs of future residents will continue to change drastically, more than two years ago we began to explore our current and future residents’ perceptions of our communities. We learned that many adult children searching for a new home for their parents, as well as many potential residents in the earliest stage of planning for their future moves, found words in our current name that were unappealing. People do not want to move to “The Home” or to have the wonderful residence they live in referred to as part of “the Homes.” Many current and future customers assumed you had to be a United Methodist to live at our communities. Some called and learn that our doors and hearts are open to all, but many others moved on to other options because they believed our name excluded them. With the blessings and encouragements of residents, team and board members, we began to search for a new aspirational way to describe our mission that will serve us for a new generation. We will have more to share about this during the session and at our display at the Annual Conference.

VUMH is committed to honoring our heritage and building upon our strong foundation as we grow into something even greater. Thank you for your continued generosity in support of the Samaritan Program, for the countless hours of volunteer service for the benefit of our residents, and for the ongoing advocacy you provide for those who are aging in your congregations and in the greater community.

2017 RECOMMENDATIONS From Virginia United Methodist Homes, Inc.

Wesley Housing Development Corporation

Wesley Housing's mission is to preserve, develop, own, and operate affordable housing and sustain quality communities for low- and moderate-income families and individuals who might otherwise face homelessness. Since 1974, for over four decades, we have served over 25,000 residents in the Washington DC metropolitan area. We currently manage 21 properties (more than 2,100 residents) in Alexandria, Arlington, Manassas, Fairfax County, and the District. We also manage four Community Resource Centers (CRCs) and five special needs Resident Services Centers that offer a full range of crucially needed programs and services to support children, adults, seniors, those with chronic disease as well as those with disabilities to regain their dignity and renew their lives.

Real Estate Development Projects

- Union on Queen, formerly Pierce Queen Apartments (Arlington): The recently completed Arlington County project marks the preservation and renovation of two garden apartment buildings and construction of a 12-story residential tower, resulting in a total of 193 total units with 78 affordable apartments. Project construction was completed in November 2016 and the property began to accept residents in December. All 78 affordable apartments have been leased. A grand opening celebration is being planned for April 2017.
- The Fallstead at Lewinsville Center, formerly Lewinsville Senior Residences (McLean): Wesley Housing is renovating and expanding the McLean property from 22 to 82 units of affordable, independent housing for low-income seniors. The Fairfax County Board of Supervisors approved an agreement with Wesley Housing who is partnering with Hamel Builders on the project. A groundbreaking ceremony took place in September 2016 and construction is now well underway.
- Renovations-Wexford Manor Apartments (Falls Church/Fairfax County): Critically needed renovations are being made in two phases to this 74-unit community. All interior renovations are complete for Phase I and residents moved back into their apartments in January. Exterior renovations for Phase I are still underway, and the expansion of the Community Resource Center and Phase II will commence in the coming weeks.
- Culpepper Garden (Arlington): Wesley Housing was selected to lead the preservation of this landmark seniors' community. The existing 204 affordable units will undergo improvements. The project includes upgrades to the community space, the apartments, and the extensive grounds. The closing and start of the construction are scheduled for Summer 2017.
- Brookland Place (Washington, DC): In November 2016, Wesley acquired its first property in the District of Columbia, Brookland Place. The property, comprised of 80 rental units and located near Catholic University and two Metro stations, was acquired in partnership with the tenant association through the District's Tenant Opportunity to Purchase Act (TOPA). In addition to overall property management by Wesley Property Management Company, Wesley is actively engaging residents in its Housing Stability Initiative.

Resident Services & Volunteers

- Housing Stability Initiative: Every month, approximately 200 adults take advantage of housing stability and eviction prevention programs such as resume and job search skills training, computer training, crisis intervention, referrals to community resources, and financial literacy and household budgeting. In 2015, 754 households accessed our services, including 249 children in youth programs and 52 adults who found first-time or better employment.
- Thirty-two Wesley Housing families, including 155 children, enjoyed a special holiday because of hundreds of volunteers who participated in our 2015 Adopt-A-Family program. St. John's UMC again donated space for volunteers who worked to sort and wrap Adopt-A-Family gifts as well as the donations from Toys for Tots. During the holiday season, Wesley distributed quality food items to 400 families, as well as sponsored a flu shot clinic.
- In 2015, 540 volunteers served Wesley Housing and its residents.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRIES

Partnering for Success:

Approaching Campus Ministry as an Emerging Mission Frontier

Campus ministries are one of the most important strategic mission fields in the world today. The idea that campus ministries are just a faith based student organization or a carryover from high school youth fellowship is an understanding best suited for the past. We have the largest college-going generation of all time, international student enrollment is at an all-time high and we are entering a post-Christian culture. While Higher Education students make up 16.1% of our national population, they grow up to be leaders in every sphere and their impact on the world far exceeds their numbers. To meet this challenge, our campus ministries must prepare for the new generation of students by undergoing an intentional process of deep change, shifting from a traditional approach to a missional approach. The traditional ministry focuses on building large groups, while a missional approach adds the perspective of reaching and transforming large campuses. We need to invest our time, energy and resources in comprehensive campus-saturating strategies — why? There are huge segments of the campus population we will never see at our weekly large group meetings

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries oversees the mission and ministry of the 13 campus ministries related to and supported by the Virginia Conference. As such, the board's role is to partner with local boards and campus ministers to assist in this transformation and to ensure their success. To meet this challenge the following changes have been made this academic year (2016-2017):

- The BHECM has been restructured to include committees/teams that can directly partner with local boards and campus ministers. We added a local board assessment committee, a technology committee, and ministry resource team. These complement the existing property managers and finance committees.
- Campus Ministry Funding has been changed to a grants based system to provide consistency and equity, to empower local boards, and to establish a system of accountability that can be linked to campus ministry effectiveness
- All Campus Ministry Reports now relate to overall effectiveness. Criteria have been established to clarify what exceeds, meets and does not meet expectations.
- The Campus Ministry System (metrics) has been revised to produce data that will assist local boards, campus ministers and student leadership teams evaluate progress and trends, examine where additional resources are needed, and provide a tool for dialogue (what works, what doesn't and why).
- To support local boards, a revised handbook has been published and a local board resources/training web site was established.
- To support our newly appointed campus ministers, the Director of Ministries with Young People, Paulo Lopes, established a leadership incubator where participants are supported and encouraged to develop their competencies and leave with a new plan to reach students and to transform campuses. Our newly appointed campus ministers are Drew Ensiz (ARISE at George Mason University), Forrest Teague (United Campus Ministries at Christopher Newport University) and Katie Gooch (Pace Center at Virginia Commonwealth University).

As stated in individual campus ministry reports, we strive to be “a dynamic, diverse demonstration of God’s creative and inviting love” expressed through the ministries of seven Wesley Foundations, six ecumenical campus ministries and six chaplains at United Methodist educational institutions in Virginia. These campus ministries touch the lives of tens of thousands of students with invitations and opportunities “to explore, engage and embody an active faith in God.” In varied ways appropriate to each campus ministry context, God is worshipped, faith is explored, communities and people are served and lives are changed — all in the name and through the power of Jesus Christ. We invite you to read the stories shared by each of our campus ministries in this Book of Reports. Further, we invite you to pray for the continued fruitfulness of Higher Education ministries.

– Rob Lough, President

The Wesley Foundation at Longwood University & Hampden-Sydney College

The Wesley Foundation is a full-time campus ministry program, active in many ministry settings. Our weekly Tuesday Night Dinner and Worship is a very popular ministry and has grown considerably this year. Students are invited to enjoy a home-cooked meal prepared by local churches and may stay for the Worship that follows. The worship time is designed to be contemporary and interactive. There is time in our Tuesday night schedule for small group discussion and prayer. Here are some of the feelings of students that attend the Wesley Campus Ministry. Andrew Landis, senior at Longwood University “Wesley is a fun place to be on Tuesday nights where you feel welcomed and at home. Where you get fed both physically and spiritually”. We also have weekly student-led Bible studies and men’s and women’s small groups that meet on campus. On Hampden-Sydney’s campus we have a late-night men’s bible study led by the campus minister. Praise and worship are important parts of our community and come in a variety of forms and settings. There are many opportunities for service and mission work (Habitat for Humanity, annual mission trips, Faces Food bank, and other local outreach). Our Student Center is a comfortable, air-condition setting where one may pray & study, laugh & love, play & grow. The Wesley Foundation is a place for “good clean fun,” individual pastoral care, conversation, and spiritual direction. Our students often provide “people resources” for local churches with their service, musical talents, and even their fellowship. They also assist with local District and Conference youth events as well as participate in worship in area churches when invited. All this is made possible by generous District support, a strong Local Board of Directors, a core of Student leaders and a vital partnership with the Campus Ministry Team at Farmville UMC.

The Wesley Foundation Student Center is a busy place! Along with regular Wesley events, various campus, church, and community groups use our facilities for their meeting needs. For the last several years the Wesley Foundation student center has been the location of the AA/NA Christmas and New Year Marathon. Members of the AA/NA community gather over a 24-hour period on Christmas and New Year for mutual support and encouragement. We house the District Office, a Prayer Chapel, a game room, a great living room with big screen TV/DVD, and a large kitchen with plenty of coffee and other light refreshments. This year we have taken advantage of the several resources of Longwood University. The Longwood Design Lab has worked on the design of a new logo for our campus ministry. We have also been working with the Longwood Small Business Center to use our logo in the “Branding” of our ministry to provide a consistent image across the board. Within the office, we have hired a part-time office assistant to help with financial accounts, data entry, social media and connections with students, and coordination of events. We also have a new venture with an internship through the Business Department. The internship will be focused mainly on property management. It will involve after-hours availability for residents, developing work orders for apartment maintenance, overview and work on the current leases, maintenance of a building use calendar, maintenance schedule for the facilities, and over-all knowledge of the property and its function. It is a great opportunity to build another bridge between Wesley and the local college campus. All of these things exemplify the reasons students come each week excited about sharing the love of God and learning together. They are not only welcomed into our building, which certainly is “a place to belong,” but they are ready and capable of going out and spreading God’s love to those on campus and in the community around them.

Over Spring Break a team of six students and four adults traveled to Groveland, FL to work on a gleanings mission with the Society of St. Andrews “Harvest of Hope”. We worked with two other college groups from UVA and NC State in gleanings of oranges and cabbages that will be distributed to local food banks in the central Florida area. A total of 1,800 pounds of oranges and 36,000 pounds of cabbages were gleaned during three days. We also learned about how hunger has impacted our nation on many levels. The team also worked at a local food bank in Orlando called Second Harvest. We learned about the work of the food bank in the area as well as helped to repack donated food items into boxes for distribution.

The spring break mission ties in well with an upcoming project with “Rise Against Hunger” in which we will package over 30,000 meals to distribute to impoverished areas around the world. Our goal is to raise $10,000.00 to do this.

– Rich Meiser, Director

The Wesley Foundation at UVA

If I had to capture the expression of this year's ministry in three words, it would be these: Love your neighbor. We began the fall semester with an overnight retreat called "24 Hours of Community," focused on loving our neighbor, but we had no idea then how often we would come back to this mandate as we struggled to live out our faith together.

The morning after our national presidential election, a scared and angry student texted me to say, "I'm having an extremely hard time loving my neighbors this morning because now I'm afraid I'm the one who's blinded by fear and hate. In need of guidance." After a cup of coffee and some prayer, I sent out word inviting students to gather that evening for Pizza and Prayer, to talk and pray together, regardless of how they had voted or how they were feeling about the election. The invitation was to bring their whole selves to the gathering and included this sentence: "No matter who you are, we will call you neighbor and extend the hand of love."

Incidents of hate speech, especially towards those in our community who are Jewish, Muslim, Black, or LGBTQ, have been on the rise this year, even here at UVA. Among the blessings of our UMC campus ministry are the relationships we have developed over time with our neighbors in the university community, including hosting the LGBTQ student group in our building and traveling on interfaith spring break service trips with our Jewish friends from Hillel. One of our challenges this year has been to raise our voices and to reach out even more broadly in solidarity and support with these neighbors, including publishing multiple public statements condemning hate speech and supporting our neighbors under attack, and publicizing and pushing ourselves to attend events sponsored by other student groups, like The Black Monologues, to listen and learn from the stories of students who have very different experiences of the UVA community than many of us do. As campus minister, I have worked with the interfaith United Ministries clergy group to develop relationships and better support for all students in our community, and I was one of the leaders in an interfaith worship service commemorating Charlottesville's first "Liberation & Freedom Day," celebrating the day in 1865 when 52% of the local population began to be freed from slavery at last.

With our neighbors at Wesley Memorial UMC, we helped host the PACEM homeless shelter for men. Along with our Presbyterian campus ministry friends, we traveled to the Fluvanna Correctional Center for Women, to lead worship for our neighbors there. We volunteered doing maintenance on the Appalachian Trail and with the Virginia Institute of Autism during their 5k race, cheering on our neighbors with special needs.

In March we hosted Virginia Conference pastor and writer Jason Micheli (Cancer is Funny) as part of the Virginia Festival of the Book, in partnership with the School of Nursing and the Compassionate Care Center at UVA. We also helped bring author Sue Klebold (mother of one of the shooters at Columbine) to the Festival, in partnership with several other university and community neighbors focused on mental health.

As you know, we have also been engaged in our Building a Foundation for the Future capital campaign, which has raised $805,000 in gifts and pledges so far! We completed "phase one" last summer and will begin "phase two" this summer, as we continue to work towards our total fundraising goal and the end of the campaign. It's not too late to make or increase a contribution to support this effort – or to view our video: wesleyatuva.org/ccvideo.

As we gather weekly for meals and conversation, for worship and Communion, and in times of prayer and small group sharing, we ask God to nourish our spirits and our strength for the hard and holy work of loving our neighbors – especially when they seem difficult to love or understand. And we ask God to guide us and transform us to be the neighbors we are created and called to be. Thank you for sending us to be in ministry and mission – to be loving neighbors – in this place and at this important time, both in the life of these students and in the life of the world.

– Rev. Deborah Lewis, Campus Minister & Director

The Pace Center for Campus and Community Ministries (The Wesley Foundation at VCU)

Paul writes in 2 Corinthians 9:11 "You will be made rich in every way so that you can be generous in every way. Such generosity produces thanksgiving to God through us." (CEB) The Pace Center has been made rich in so many ways! We are located at the heart of VCU's campus – surrounded by dorms and Monroe Park. Our building has large windows that let God's sunlight stream in and constantly remind us of the mission field outside our walls. Our beautiful sanctuary, large kitchen, and fellowship hall have a rich history of hospitality and openness. We have support and dedication from local churches throughout the Richmond District. And we have a Gospel that proclaims God's love and grace. It is hard to not walk into Pace and feel overwhelmed by God's blessing. The question is – how can Pace share its gifts generously, so to produce thanksgiving to God?

Since 2015, The Pace Center has been going through a transition which included a decision by its Board and the Board of Higher Education to put the ministry on pause. This pause has allowed Pace to step back and appreciate the many blessings and opportunities God has laid upon its doors. It has allowed leadership to make significant repairs to the building and to take steps to make Pace more financially stable. Now Pace's leadership is tasked with discerning the difficult but exciting question – What is God calling Pace to do with its many gifts? How are we called to reach out to the students, faculty, and staff of VCU's community in a way which will produce thanksgiving to God?

The more we ask this question, the more we find that God's blessings upon Pace never cease. Potential opportunities have already begun to emerge including partnering with VCU's student food pantry, housing an ongoing faculty Bible Study, and connecting with student groups focused on social enterprise and ministry with Indigenous communities (Highland Support Project). God is surely at work in this place! We are aiming to open our doors once again in the fall of 2017. As we continue to discern how to build a community of faith that embodies God's Kingdom, we invite you to pray with us, send us names of VCU students, faculty, and staff, and share with us the gifts God has given you!

– Katie B. Gooch, Director and Campus Minister

Wesley at Virginia Tech

Campus Ministry is constantly changing; new students each year, the landscape of the campus, student leadership, and much more. This constant change is what makes campus ministry so exciting, yet also so challenging. If you remain static and unbending, then you will find that students and the environment in which you do ministry will pass you by and you are left wondering where to go. Therefore, it is vital that in campus ministry you keep re-focusing and remaining flexible while also keeping centered in the Triune God and what makes your campus ministry unique. In one word, campus ministry is all about visioning. At Wesley at Virginia Tech, we love to sing the song "Be Thou My Vision." We believe that if we keep our vision on God our Creator, in Christ Jesus our Redeemer, and through the power of the Holy Spirit, then we will continue to build the Kingdom of God here on earth.

We are in a season at Virginia Tech where we are trying to discern what is next for our ministry. In order to stay in front of the change, we are in the midst of a strategic plan/vision for the next 5 to 10 years. We know that part of what makes Wesley at Virginia Tech so special is our sense of community and that is where we are to start, but we also know that what makes Wesley such a vibrant community is needed by more students. Over the past two years we have deeply considered what makes Wesley unique and what Wesley needs to be for the students at Virginia Tech in the coming years. This process is tedious, but we feel well worth it. We hope that our vision will be about growing in our love of God and neighbor, while extending that love to more people.

One of our students recently wrote, “Normally we focus on numbers. How many people are we reaching? How can we get more people in the door? How can we get more involved? But numbers aren’t everything. We are re-centering and refocusing. Focusing on relationships, embodying our motto, “Love Out Loud”, and discerning what our path should be in the future. It doesn’t really matter if we get 300 people to come to our Welcome Week events if we can’t capture them with meaningful relationships, and provide them with a place to be loved while they figure out the craziness of their future. This year many of our students have been more intentional in what they do, what they say, and how they connect with people in order to show God’s love and be in ministry with those around them in ways that uplift God and their peers.” – Kelsey R.

Even though our process of discerning our vision is not complete, we do know that we want to continue to be a vital and vibrant community that will “Love Out Loud” in everything we do. This past year we have seen an increase in our Discipleship ministry area; Communities of Grace (small groups) are creating a deeper spirituality in our students to do exactly what Kelsey spoke about above, Bible Study continues to develop students love for God, and prayer is at the center of everything we do. Our Worship ministry remains a foundational part of our ministry; our worship service, which is now 4 years old, continues to grow in all areas, Wesley Singers, led by Rev. Leigh Anne Taylor, is a mainstay for our students, and we lead retreats for the Roanoke District at Wesley and the Fusion Retreat at Eagle Eyrie for youth in our conference. The Mission ministry is always a passion for our community as we still have the food pantry for college students (209 Manna Ministries), weekend build days, collecting cake mixes for the Montgomery County Christmas store, Operation Christmas Child, Matthew 25: 35 Concert, Relay 4 Life, Big Event, and, of course, our Spring Break Mission trip which is always incredible! The Fellowship ministry is probably the easiest to do at Wesley because community and relationship building is ingrained in Wesley’s DNA, but we always strive to create an environment where students can grow in their love for one another. Finally, our Outreach ministry continues to be at the forefront of our ministry as we seek to invite students to be a part of the wonderful ministry we have.

These fundamental aspects of our ministry are developing leaders that will carry the vision of the Church into the world. We look forward to the ways God is calling Wesley to continue to adapt and change our vision to enable us to grow in all these aspects of our ministry. We desire to be ahead of the change so that we can be the best possible witness to God’s love on our campus, in our community, and in the world. We, however, want stories like this to remain the norm:

“Going to a large university fresh out of high school felt daunting. Fortunately, I was welcomed with open arms by the Wesley community at Virginia Tech. Upon move in, I already had people from Wesley knocking on my door to check on me and give me a goody bag. The hospitality I felt when I first arrived continued the entire four years that I spent there. Wesley provided me with a place to call home away from home. I had doors that were always open to me, arms ready to embrace me, and opportunities to help me grow. The amazing thing is Wesley has been that home for students for generations and will continue be for generations to come. I can tell you without a doubt in my mind that being a part of Wesley has changed my life and shaped me in my call to ministry.”

– Emily T.

So, what’s next? We are open to the Spirit’s leading, but one thing is for sure – we will keep God as our vision so that others will see in us the love of God in all that we do.

– Bret Gresham, Director

The William and Mary Wesley Foundation

This year has been another amazing year of ministry at Wesley. The numbers of students, their passionate commitment to following Jesus, as well as our mission and ministry, are all strong. Our campus ministry community continues to lead the way, as our vision statement says, “Through following Jesus, we embrace God’s radical hospitality towards all.” Not only are the students involved in Wesley aware of the grace and love that is embodied here, other students and the college recognize it as well. The students are following Jesus and leading the way.

Speaking of leading the way, our new Leadership Team took office in January. They are Jen Peek, President; Leah Griffith, Devotions; Erin Kitchens, Discipleship; Kate Sandberg, Communications; and Sarah Grace Frary, Kathryn Weilacher, and Matt Brown, Fellowship. This group of dedicated, passionate students leads the way in the focus and direction to our entire ministry. This spring semester, we are building on the momentum from our powerful fall focus on Faith and Social Justice for our theme of Hope and.... Thus, each Sunday night Large Group focuses on a different ways that hope can impact our faith and our lives. Our Bible Study, as well as our Faith and Fellowship events, has the same themes.

Students are coordinating our partnerships with local churches in mission and ministry, as our connections with Williamsburg and Wellspring continue to be strong. Nothing exemplifies this better than the Exam Break that we have at the end of each semester, led by the Williamsburg UMC United Methodist Men. We have over 200 students coming to the Wesley House to share in over 450 cookies, gallons of hot chocolate, water, coffee, and lemonade. In addition, we have folks from all three churches and the community bring 8-10 dogs to help relieve the stress of finals. In addition, we are also partnering with Williamsburg UMC in their respite and homeless shelter ministries, as well as their new community kitchen.

Wesley has also begun two new initiatives this year. First, is an outreach to international students and scholars on campus. We are focusing our outreach on building relationships and meeting the needs of these students, especially during the breaks, when they are the most isolated, providing meals and times to come together. As the relationships grow, the ministry will grow as well. Second, Wesley is partnering with the Virginia Peninsula Regional Jail to provide activities for the persons incarcerated there. We look forward to all the opportunities for embodying the love and grace of God than we can even imagine now.

Our partnerships with other campus ministries and student groups in events, service, mission, and ministry continue to grow. Already this year, Wesley has partnered with the Lutheran, Presbyterian, Baptist, and Episcopal campus ministries, as well as the Muslim Student Association from hosting speakers, to partnering in events, to joining together in service projects. Furthermore, Wesley continues meet the very real needs of students in crisis on campus. Finally, Wesley continues each semester to coordinate a service day at Shalom Farms and an interfaith worship service for the entire campus community.

It continues to be a joy and a privilege to serve with the students and board of The Wesley Foundation, as the students actively follow Jesus and embody God's radical hospitality for persons on campus, locally, regionally, and beyond.

RISE

The RISE Community has experienced a tremendous amount of transition throughout the past year. We sold and moved out of our previous property on South Mason Street, and we worshipped in seven different locations as we waited for construction on our new space to begin. We have learned a tremendous amount about ourselves and about God, and we are extremely excited to see what the future holds as we move into a renovated space that will offer much needed stability and room to dream and seek to mend God's Creation together. Now, we'd like to introduce you to our two (new-ish) College Ministry Leaders, Nathan and Sarandon.

My Name is Nathan Scarborough, and I am the Campus Ministries Inreach Leader at RISE. RISE has been enormously important to me over the past year and I expect it will continue to be for a long time to come. I started coming to RISE at a point in my life when I was going through a great deal of change theologically, and I needed a safe space to wrestle with questions without being given quick, cookie cutter answers that were becoming increasingly problematic and unsatisfying. After spending quite some time hearing about RISE from a friend, I finally decided to check them out at their Ash Wednesday service, and I left feeling like I had finally found a church that my wife and I could call home.

I have found that RISE is special for so many reasons. One of the things that sticks out most to me is the vulnerability, humility, and deep honesty of the Pastor, Amanda Garber. She and other leaders are willing to ask really difficult questions, both of the theological nature, and otherwise. I truly cannot express how greatly I value this in RISE. RISE is also very involved in the community with ministries such as Love packs, which feeds children over the weekend who rely on school meals for food during the week, and RISE and Shine, which provides hygiene items for those who wouldn't otherwise be able to afford them. Our Stop Hunger Now event in January drew hundreds of students and was a beautiful sight. We also provide a meal and social gathering space for college students every week called Breakfast for Dinner Club. I've spent time with numerous college students this year, and I'm excited to say that a number of them are connecting with the larger RISE community. I am also incredibly excited for the future of RISE.

Construction has begun on our new space, and the future is full of hope. So, all of this to say that RISE is a vital part of my own life, and a vital part of the community. For some in the Harrisonburg area it is the only church they feel safe attending, and we all need and deserve a place where we can seek the God who loves us as we journey, struggle and are transformed in community.

My name is Sarandon Smith and I'm a junior at Bridgewater College studying Fine Arts. I came to RISE after moving to Harrisonburg and beginning my search for a welcoming, diverse faith community. I have been regularly attending RISE since September of 2016, and two weeks ago I began serving as the College Outreach Team Leader. What drew me to RISE was the unconditional acceptance, and knowing that I have space to explore and develop my beliefs and relationship with God, without having to fit my faith into a box. I come from a diverse faith background, and it was important for me to be in a community that allowed me to live through my own faith journey. What really kept me coming back though was the unique vulnerability that is fostered in the RISE community. I have never been part of a faith community where I felt I didn't need to "save face" or pretend that things were OK. Being able to step into worship, truly as I am, knowing that I am loved as I come has been more of a blessing than I could have imagined.

Because of this experience I have gladly stepped into the role of College Outreach Team Leader, because I know there are many more young people who are thirsting for a community like RISE where they are welcomed as they are and supported as they grow. RISE has several outreach systems established, including muffin mania, meet and feed, and Breakfast for Dinner Club which is new but growing faster than we can keep up with. We are also working on developing new programs for the next academic year that will reach further out into the surrounding college community. I couldn't be more excited about the work that RISE is doing in the college community, and I am so grateful and incredibly blessed to be part of it and watch it grow!

IGNITE

IGNITE had quite a year in 2016.

We were certain of our vision: IGNITE people's hearts to change the city. But more importantly, we became certain of how we would achieve that vision: we would be a church that initially connected with people not through worship, but through missions.

James Monroe Elementary School was one of the first and most important places that we began to serve. We adopted a third grade class and committed to volunteer twice each month. We created events that allow us to build relationships with the children, while also adding to their education. Our experience was so positive that we decided to move up with the kids we had served in the previous school year. Thus, we moved from adopting one class in the third grade to all three classes of the fourth grade. And instead of volunteering twice a month, we chose to volunteer each week. This proved to be incredibly successful. We now had more opportunities to build relationships with the children, and more opportunities for volunteers to serve. By the end of the year, we had as many as 12 volunteers per class on a given Friday.

Small Groups were another area where we saw growth in 2016. At the beginning of the year, we had one small group: a weekly Monday Night Dinner Group. However, in the fall, we were able to expand to three groups. We continued the Monday Night Diner Group and added the James Monroe volunteer group, and a Young Women's Group.

This was a critical step for us in the process of discipling the students and young people who connected with IGNITE. While we knew that people could experience God in our volunteer opportunities, we also knew that there needed to be a place for them to deepen their faith. Small groups would be one opportunity for this. Worship would be another.

After over a year of waiting, God finally made it clear that summer 2016 was the appropriate time for us to begin worship services. However, because of the energy and resources required for each worship service, we sensed God telling us to start worshipping only once a month, rather than weekly. This way, we would not be pulled away from our primary focus of serving.

Worship proved quite successful. Each month, we were filling the room and beginning to have conversations about where we might go if we outgrew the space. Our highlight, however, was in September, when we baptized 3 people and had several commitments to Christ.

In fact, over the past year, we have seen many people make decisions for Christ. So far, 14 people have either begun or renewed their relationship with Jesus. This is in addition to the four people we have baptized, and the two student leaders who have gone into full-time ministry.

Much of this excitement occurred in the fall, as we began a new school year. We watched our numbers increase dramatically. In fact, we grew so much in the fall that we were reaching more students in a week than we had over the course of 3 months the previous year.

A large part of our growth came once we opened our food pantry. In August, we started IGNITE Pantry in partnership with ODU. It is a food pantry made available to the students, faculty, and staff of ODU. Quickly, the pantry grew beyond our expectations. Within a few months, we were averaging around 15-25 families each week, and 15 volunteers. Many of these volunteers also become involved in other ministries at IGNITE. In fact, we gained so many new volunteers through IGNITE Pantry that in just the first two months of the semester, we have had more volunteers than the previous six months combined.

IGNITE is poised to end the year on a strong note, and begin 2017 even stronger. God is continuing to surprise us by opening doors that allow us to impact lives in ways we never imagined. And we can't wait to see what's next.

Arise Campus Ministry at George Mason University

This year has been a very exciting, and transformative year at George Mason University (GMU). Last spring (2016), it was determined that Arise Campus Ministry ought to go through a full academic year of discernment in order to minister more effectively to the students at GMU. In this year of prayerful discernment the Holy Spirit has been moving amongst the leaders, board members and the students at Arise. Our staff and volunteers are finding ways of engaging in discussions with students, faculty members and other groups on campus to discover areas in which Arise can truly be an inclusive and unique voice at George Mason. Our wonderful board members have been meeting, and continue to meet, with local church leaders from the various denominations supporting Arise. These meetings have created additional avenues that we can be in mission together to share the Good News of Jesus Christ and God's love for all persons. We have formed a launch team of nine, and been meeting regularly to seek God's vision for the ministry in the fall. We continue to be open to God's guidance, and ask for your prayers as we continue to seek what God's vision is for the ministry.

While this academic year has been focused on the fall 2017 launch, there is still amazing ministry happening at GMU. Arise has launched two different small groups and have seen both groups bring in new members. These groups pray for one another, have lively discussions about faith, and are developing future leaders. We are seeing students developing a deeper understanding of the ways God is moving in their lives and it has been exciting seeing them respond to God's grace. The students are excited about small groups, inviting their friends to be a part of the ministry, and getting involved in worship in local faith congregations.

Serving others has also been an important part of our year. In the fall, we hosted a Stop Hunger Now event and saw over 15,000 meals go to the people of Haiti. We have also collaborated with others to help those in our local community. Our students hosted an evening Hypothermia Shelter in March, partnered with local congregations to feed the hungry and have served those who have housing needs in April.

We are so excited at what God is doing currently at GMU, and what God is inviting us to do in the future. We also want to officially thank all of the churches who support Arise, the volunteers who pour their time and resources into our students, the board members who selflessly serve and the students who continue to invest in our ministry. Please keep up to date with everything happening at Arise Campus Ministry through our website and various social media accounts. I thank you for your continued support and for your prayers for all of the Virginia UMC campus ministries throughout the state. I humbly submit this report and am always

The Campus Christian Community at the University of Mary Washington

The Campus Christian Community (CCC) is an ecumenical campus ministry that ministers to the University of Mary Washington in Fredericksburg, VA. We have had an exciting year this year and it has been a joy to watch our students grow and the leaders develop into a team. One of the highlights of the year has been a new partnership that was created by students at the CCC with the Boys and Girls Club here; each week a group of students goes to spend time with the youth tutoring and playing games. Each week our students share where they have seen God that week and it almost always highlights the time spent with these youth. Talking about "God moments" has been something that we are trying this year and it has been fruitful in having conversations about faith amongst the students in the CCC in order to prepare them to talk about their faith with others outside of our group. Another new thing that we have been doing this year is finding new and creative ways to reach out to students with whom we may not normally interact. One of the most popular ways that we have done this is through our Paint Night events. Once a semester, we host a night where we have a preset design and students can come and paint them with assistance from our artists. These have been very popular and have been a great access point for new people who may have been uncomfortable coming to something else first. We have also moved some of our events to campus, providing a familiar location for doing something new for students. We have re-envisioned some of our standard programs after some dreaming and investment on the part of our student leaders. We have been working to make sure that everything we do falls in line with our mission statement and has intentionality behind it, as opposed to in the past when the focus was filling in all of the holes in the calendar.

We are excited about returning the New Jersey this year for our mission trip in May. We will again be working on Hurricane Sandy recovery work. Even though it has been several years since the storm, there is still a lot of work in the area. The CCC students have developed a relationship with the community and have enjoyed working alongside people there to be a positive change there.

After a several year hiatus, we have started back up with a monthly newsletter, the CCC Correspondence, in order to share with our supporters and alumni about what is happening around the CCC. You can check it out on our website at www.campuschristiancommunity.com.

FLOW (United Campus Ministries at Virginia State University)

The year 2016 was indeed a blessed one for UCM FLOW! In our first full year of a partnership with Ettrick United Methodist Church, we continued to witness the move of God through our Lord Jesus Christ in a mighty way!! The church continues to host weekly worship services at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. We are thankful for a host of blessings resulting from this historic ministry partnership and are excited about the following highlights from the year!

- As Virginia State University welcomed Dr. Makola Abdullah, 14th President of the university on February 1, 2016, United Campus Ministries "drafted" the president to play with campus minister, Rev. Delano Douglas and eight students on the first UCM FLOW intramural basketball team, Witness! After a slow start to the season, Witness went on the advance to the league's final four, falling three points short of playing for the championship! For the season, Dr. Abdullah and Rev. Douglas were the only faculty and staff members to play in the league with and against the students! In the fall of 2016, Dr. Abdullah also played with the first ever Witness flag football team.
- In May of 2016, the Ettrick United Methodist Church was featured as the location of the chapel in the filming of the motion picture Burning Sands. Virginia State University was the primary site for this production which was released on March 10, 2017 through Netflix. The church was blessed with an honorarium from the project for use of the facility for filming and as a location for holding and feeding the cast.
- The second annual Village of Ettrick Fair was held on October 1, 2016 from 12 noon to 3 p.m. More than 200 members of the community was on hand to enjoy hamburgers, hot dogs, chips, and drinks as they connected with support agencies in the area. We were blessed to celebrate the restoration of the historic Summerseat building in our town and to have local talent on hand to provide entertainment for the community! The Thomas Dale High School Football Cheerleading Squad performed stunts and cheers for the community and the Ettrick Elementary School Music Department, under the leadership of Music Teacher Mrs. Sara Davis performed the soundtrack of their summer rendition of the Wizard of Oz!
- In October 2016, The Rev. Delano Douglas and The Rev. Dorothy McNeer O'Quinn, pastor of Highland United Methodist Church and chairperson of UCM FLOW's Board of Directors
- VSU students continued to grow in their support of the Ettrick United Methodist Church through volunteerism and offerings through the 2:00 pm services. On several occasions in July, September, and October, students assisted with cleaning and demolition projects in the basement as part of ongoing efforts to renovate the fellowship hall working with church members to haul the refuse to the GCA dumpsters at Virginia State University. Offering totals for the calendar year amounted to $4,600.00. We praise God for the increase!

Some of our ministries that we have engaged in over the years have transformed to accommodate the evolving needs of our campus community! Our Wednesday night Bible Studies previously held in the cafeteria at 6 p.m. shifted to a new location with a new schedule! Soul Food Bible Study is now FLOW Bible Study and is held on Wednesdays at two different times for multiple audiences at 12 noon and 5 p.m. Our praise team, Avodah rehearses on Mondays and Wednesdays at 7 p.m. with our performing arts ministry Chara following at 9 p.m. Our Praise and Worship team coordinator, Ms. Constance McLaughlin hosts a devotional period in between the two sessions at 8:30 p.m. Our Lilly Endowment Grant supported Oikonomia student leadership ministry experienced another great year with its second class concluding in the spring and its third class beginning in the fall!

Special thanks to the Virginia Conference, the James River District, Ettrick United Methodist Church and Highland United Methodist Church in Colonial Heights for supporting us in our ministry! May God continue to bless every church, campus ministry, and extension ministry in our connection!!

Dorothy McNeer O'Quinn, Board Chairperson

United Campus Ministries (UCM) @ CNU

This year has been a year of Change for UCM. We had an interim campus minister for the fall semester and I just came on in the spring semester. I am a recent graduate from Virginia Wesleyan College and have lived in the Hampton Roads area my entire life. I got the call to ministry from the Lord my junior year of college and the Lord has put me in positions to serve him since. He has given me the chance to serve as a local pastor and now reach students at Christopher Newport. I am excited to come in with a new vision and see how God continues to impact the campus and how UCM can be a part of it. I am still very new so my main focus is on building relationships with students, faculty, staff, and local churches. Here is my vision for UCM and what has been happening lately.

- We continue to meet Thursday nights at 7pm and are currently going through 1 Peter with our students that average about 3 per meeting. We also partner with the Lutheran ministry so John Ericson and I switch off on who leads each week.
- Many connections with students are being made, I am on campus every day that I can. The reputation and face of UCM is changing in a good way. It used to be an unknown among other ministries as to what they were and believed. I have been able to reach out to other ministries and show who I am and explain what UCM and where we are missionally.
- My vision for UCM is one that is much more mission oriented and personal. To long we have thought students will just come to us. We need to go to them wherever they are. No matter who they are, what they look like, background, we must go to them all. Starting with a few solid students and pouring into them and growing them so that they impact everyone they meet on campus, that is the goal.
- As a way to help do outreach but also to help grow us closer together we have started game nights. These are either held on Friday or Saturday night, we play board games, eat home cooked meals, and usually end up in great conversation. What is even better is that it is held off campus at either my house or a board members house.

We are hoping that with the progress and stability now in place at UCM we can take off hard into the Fall '17 semester. Growth has been slow but growth is still growth and we know that even Jesus's ministry started with only a few and those few changed the world. I am looking forward to a full year at CNU and what the Lord is going to continue doing. There is seriously something amazing happening on this campus. So we are very thankful for the continued support of the conference, especially through prayer. We seek to have more unity and support through all ministries of the Lord.

Wesley-Westminster Foundation at Norfolk State University

The Wesley-Westminster Foundation (WWF) at Norfolk State University is the 2015-2016 NSU Program of the Year. College officials presented this award during an awards ceremony. Our ministry received college-wide recognition and a plaque for our outstanding service to the college and the community. WWF Campus Ministry is an ecumenical ministry of the United Methodist and Presbyterian Churches seeking to impact the College, the Community, and the Current Culture with Christian Principles, Open Hearts and Open Minds. It is our mission to provide a safe place to explore and to experience one's faith, while offering a respectful and non-threatening environment of love, service to others and learning. Our goal is to Friendship, fellowship and faith are enhanced at The Foundation House, where we offer a place of refuge. In essence, we are family and support our student's matriculation, boasting 100 percent graduation of all students who participate in our ministry. Students enjoy a space to grow and to develop their faith. Bible Study, Prayer, Small Groups and weekly meals are offered. We worship and work together. On Mondays we share in Monday Night Fire Worship. Wednesday evenings include Bible Study and group fellowship. Our Signature Bible Study, Thirsty Thursday is held weekly and is a time when we study together and provide a meal to all present. In our growing together several of us attended the District Christian Education Training Day as well as attending worship together. Our choir is often asked to sing and was featured at the Martin Luther King Celebration Service at Great Bridge Presbyterian Church. As a family, we support one another and seek to strengthen our Christian walk.

Yearly, we engage in a Spiritual Growth Retreat known as our Faith Enhancement Retreat where we spend a weekend together engaged in formational therapy with a trained therapist. It is our goal to grow together and to strengthen those with whom we come in contact. We collaborate with other campus ministries and hope to involve them in our future retreats. Periodically, we continue to host No Strings Attached Bible Study and fellowships for students to interact socially. Following these studies we often create avenues to provide tokens of appreciation to faculty, staff and sometimes students as well. As a group we adopted a foreign student and collected toiletries and other needed items to support this student.

Once again, Family Weekend was a huge success. This year we had more than 40 students and their parents present. We provided the music, led worship and offered the sermon for this Inspirational Service for the college. The WWF Choir sang for the first Faith Partners Network Fund-raising Basket Ball Game. As the Campus Ministry Director I was asked to participate in this game along with other area pastors. My team won. The Faith Partners Network raised more than $17,000 for the athletics department of Norfolk State University. Additionally, as a member of the Faith Partners Network, I was asked to chair the Speaker's Bureau Committee and provide leadership in this area.

Campus Ministry Week is a blessing and always reaches many students on campus. This week of worship includes, panel discussions, concerts, worship through the arts and outreach. We concluded this week with our Annual Benefit Banquet, which was held on campus this year in our University Ballroom. We continue to participate as a ministry team in Homecoming Activities, Spring Fest, Faith Fairs, all Organization Fairs and other events hosted by the college.

Lay Servant Ministries, led by David Bailey have had a year of fruitful ministry. David and the District Directors continue to implement our new structure reflective of The Discipline 2012 and 2016 requirements. In an effort to spread our teaching abilities, "On Demand Learning for Laity" has been a great success. We met the goals set by a team of dedicated individuals to feed those Lay Servants needing Advanced Courses by the end of 2016 for Lay Speaking certification. This is an exciting time for our ministry.

The Lay Servant Academy led by Beth Christian and her dedicated team created a weekend of learning and fellowship at 4H Educational Conference Center at Smith Mountain Lake with approximately 150 attending including teaching staff the first week in April.

We have celebrated the leadership of three District Lay Leaders whose terms have ended on the board. Gene Mims, Kathy Lutman and Iris Smith have greatly enhanced their respective district ministries. We thank them all. With sadness we also say good bye to Beth Christian and thank her for tireless hours as Co - Director of Lay Servant Ministries. Additionally we thank Joyce Winston, UMW President and Jeff Hall, UMM President for jobs well done. In addition we have celebrated new faces joining the board. Bishop Sharma D. Lewis challenged us last September 2016 to make disciples of Jesus Christ as we welcomed her into our Virginia Annual Conference as our new Episcopal Leader. Since last November I and my wife Sandy have accompanied her to her famous Chat and Chews in all 16 districts. Our new bishop is not new to Virginia any longer but one of us. I cherish her partnership with the laity.

– Warren R. Harper, Conference Lay Leader

UNITED METHODIST MEN

The Virginia UM Men's key initiatives in 2016 were to recruit UM Men District Leadership; find a new site for our annual spiritual weekend (Randolph-Macon College); and establish a new vision statement, values, and goals. The UMM are excited about our future under the leadership and support of our new Bishop.

The UMM conducted a spirit-driven retreat in late September 2016 facilitated by Jim Boesch, GCUMM, and established the following:

Vision: Men Building God's Kingdom led by the Holy Spirit through Christian Fellowship

Values: Service, Excitement (passion), Teamwork

2017-2020 Goals

- In support of our District Superintendents, re-establish District Level UMM organizations in six Districts and strengthen them in the other ten using partnerships and by nurturing our "mustard seeds" (strong, faith-filled fellowships and clusters)
- Prepare men for service:
 - Train new officers using electronic resources.
 - Mentor replacements by going out two by two.
 - Encourage Men's Bible studies and daily prayer at all fellowships
 - Conduct project oriented events to attract Late Boomers, Gen Xers and Millennials
 - Integrate all men into servant leadership and fellowship in God's Kingdom (increase proportion of men under 50 in leadership to 25%).
 - Increase enrollment in Men's Ministry training by 25%.
- Reach new men and their families:
 - Establish fifteen new scout troops conference-wide
 - Introduce ourselves to one new person every week while being prepared to share our witness
- Connect with other Conference agencies and boards:

- Preventing Domestic Violence initiative jointly w/ UMW.
- Increase Chartering and Every Man Shares membership by ten percent.
- Revitalize service to Heart Havens, Prison/Jail Ministry, Hunger Relief, Camp Rainbow, Wesleyan Building Brothers, All God's Children, Scouting, Prayer Advocacy, etc., increasing UMM participation by 20%.
- Holy Spirit led Christian Fellowship:
 - Revitalize our annual spiritual weekend and our annual leadership meeting focusing on attracting new men (20% increase over 2 years).
 - Assign sixteen men to be prayer advocates for their Districts.

Ongoing ministries

Wesleyan Building Brothers (WBB): WBB has been endorsed by the GCUM Men as an independent ministry of discipleship providing leadership training for spiritual fatherhood. Four hundred thirty-two men have completed the training in Virginia. We are expanding into the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Conferences, and into Cuba, during 2017.

Men's Ministry: Three certified Men's Ministry Specialists are engaged in training and support activities offering Understanding Men's Ministry and other courses around the Conference.

Scouting: We serve over 16,000 youth with over 9,000 adult volunteer leaders. Scouting is a key element to our strategy to reach new people since half of scouting families do not have church homes. Since over half (634 out of 1,167) of our churches are small congregations with fewer than fifty members, our focus is on helping churches grow through scouting. About 340 churches currently support scouting.

Prayer Advocacy: Our vision is to: Pray Daily to God on behalf of the World Wide Church. Our goal is to advocate prayer as Holy Dialog with God that needs to occur daily in each man's life leading to pursuit, engagement, and faith in action.

Heart Havens: UMM support the intellectually disabled through fund raising, community events involving residents, and providing volunteer maintenance and repair to group homes.

Camp Rainbow Connection: This is a week-long respite camp held once in July and once in August for individuals with intellectual disabilities.

Prison Ministries: UMM provides volunteer support to: Disciple Bible Outreach Ministry (DBOM) which provides the thirty-two week Disciple Series to prisoners; Good News Jail Ministry serving inmates in Virginia's County and City Jails; Kairos which provides an Emmaus Walk experience for inmates of Virginia's Correctional Institutions; and GraceInside, a ministry supporting Prison Chaplains.

Hunger Relief: The Society of St. Andrew with the help of our UMM volunteers have provided an estimated 1.2 million servings of food through July of 2017.

All God's Children: In 2017 Virginia will have three different summer camps with thirty kids each week. This ministry serves the children of incarcerated adults.

Young Men's Ministry: In coordination with the SEJ Conference we have established this ministry to explore ways to integrate and grow participation by late Boomers, Gen Xers, and Millennials.

Our values of teamwork, passion, and service mirror Bishop Sharma Lewis' exhortation from 2 Tim 1:6-7 and the UMM motto from James 1:22. Our goals clearly identify the challenges that lie ahead as we work to fulfill our vision of building God's Kingdom. You may visit our website VACUMM.ORG for updates and postings.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

From the beginning, United Methodist Women has focused on ministries with women, children and youth. Our entire program and organization focuses on mission. Our five Mission Initiatives are providing opportunities to grow spiritually, equipping women and girls to be leaders, providing transformative educational experience, organizing for growth and flexibility, and working for justice through service and advocacy.

United Methodist Women is the women's mission organization of The United Methodist Church, putting faith, hope, and love into action on behalf of women, children, and youth in the United States and internationally. We are a creative, supportive community of women organized around the Purpose, which is "to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ" and "to expand concepts of mission by participation in the global ministries of the church."

Throughout our nearly 150 year history, United Methodist Women and its predecessor organizations brought women together in small groups to grow in faith, learn about their own needs and potential, learn about others, and organize and raise funds so that we could reach out to marginalized neighbors in our local communities and around the world.

United Methodist Women offers several opportunities to grow spiritually to women by attending retreats. Each spring a UMW Spiritual Life Retreat is held that brings together 150-175 women from all over the conference. On April 28-30th, the retreat theme was the "Spirituality of Relationships" with the Rev. Dr. Denise Honeycutt as the retreat leader.

The second opportunity for spiritual growth is for the young women of our conference. Held in September each year is our Young Women's Retreat and is always a great opportunity for young women between the ages of 18-40 to come together for worship, music, sharing, and crafts around a theme. We had 33 in attendance last year. The event's date is September 15-16, 2017 at the Blessings Lodge at Camp Overlook in the beautiful mountains of Keezletown, VA. The retreat leader will be Rev. Devon Earle speaking on the theme "Encountering God in Everyday Life: Nurturing Your Relationship with God through Spiritual Practices".

One of our Church's best kept secrets is its Mission Encounter Event held each summer. This is an event shared by Virginia United Methodist Church and United Methodist Women and is for everyone, clergy, laity, youth and children. The dates for the event for 2017 are July 28-29 at Bon Air UMC in Richmond. Our website vaumw.com has registration forms.

UMW Annual Meeting in October is always a time for celebration. In October 2016 we honored our outgoing President, Joyce Winston, who holds such a special place in all our hearts for her four years of service as our President.

United Methodist Women around the Virginia Conference are putting their faith, hope, and love in action. We would love to have more women join us in our mission!

CHURCH DEVELOPMENT TEAM

The Church Development Team has been working hard to fulfill its mission to assist in creating New Faith Communities and supporting the work of vitality in existing churches under the All Things New Plan. Below you will find CDT's activities toward this work.

The Five Talent Academy continues to offer training opportunities related to worship, financial stewardship, discipleship, evangelism, and ministry with the poor. We also continue to offer these events via web-based simulcast to regional locations throughout Virginia.

The Equipping Planter team directs the invitation, discernment, and training of planters of new faith communities for the Virginia Conference. Those who are interested in planting engage in a process of discernment as to each person's gifts for this unique ministry. The first stage is the Church Leadership Institute, which is held annually each fall. We had more than 50 participants this past October. Some who attend this event decide that they wish to explore this call more deeply. These prepare a self-reflective paper and are interviewed by members of our Church Development Team. Summaries of these interviews are given to the cabinet, to help inform their appointment of planters of new faith communities. Once appointed, church planters attend a boot camp during the summer of their appointment, and coaches are assigned to help guide their ministry.

The New Faith Community subgroup of the CDT continues to help create a culture of excellence, fruitfulness and vitality in the area of new faith community development in our conference. This year we have continued to resource and encourage recently initiated new faith communities, local churches, district Boards of Mission and their equivalents, the Cabinet and others in our conference to live out the "All Things New" strategy through the planting of new faith communities. In addition to resourcing our conference in the area of new faith community development, the New Faith Community subgroup also receives, reviews and makes recommendations to the CDT and the Common Table regarding funding for new faith community development proposals. This year we received multiple proposals that were reviewed and given careful consideration. We remain prayerful and excited about the future of new faith community development within our conference.

The CDT deeply appreciates our working partnerships with the Cabinet and Conference Finance and Administration as we have negotiated conference policy regarding legacy congregations, adoptions and church planting mergers.

The Church Development Team partners with the Large, Medium and Small Church leadership teams. These teams offer training events both for pastors who have just moved (Just in Time trainings) as well as training for clergy and laity in order to increase vitality.

All Things New Capital Campaign

In June of 2008, The Virginia Annual Conference adopted a core strategy to renew our existing churches and to create new faith communities that is called All Things New. One central component of this strategy was to have a capital campaign that would raise funds to help "make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world".

The giving for All Things New Capital Campaign was started in December of 2009 and the last donation was received in January of 2017. Between 2009 to 2017, the Virginia Conference received $2,016,255 for this effort to renew our existing churches and to create new faith communities.

Over the last eight years the Church Development Team has granted this money to a variety of ministries focusing on leadership development at the local church, district and annual conference levels. At the local church level funds were primarily used to strengthen ethnic minority ministries. Money was granted to Latino ministries, second generation Korean and African immigrant ministries for additional staffing. In some cases, funds were used to secure gifted clergy leadership for African-American congregations. Through a grant to districts, churches have been trained in Phil Maynard's Shift ministry and a new strategic church consultation, Next Level Invocations has been developed. At the conference level, funds have supported a pilot program in partnership with West Ohio Conference, Missional Church Consultation Initiative. The funds have been used to offer Virginia Focus 2020 and Fresh Expressions training, as well as subsidizing travel on the Korea immersion for conference church planters. In addition, funds have been used to help create a culture of invitation in the Virginia Conference through a district coordinated workshop called, "How to Reach New People" where over 300 churches were trained between 2011-2016.

In conversations with church leaders and district superintendents, the CDT regularly receives feedback about how All Things New funds have contributed to new ministries and greater church vitality. Though money raised through this campaign has now been completely disbursed, the ministry of All Things New continues through the fruit of the investment in ministries described above and through the Church Extension appointment.

We would like to thank Mark Ogren, Ellen Heatwole and Pat Hickman for their efforts that help make All Things New in the Virginia Conference.

– Melissa Dunlap, CDT Chair

COMMISSION ON DISABILITIES

The Commission on Disabilities (COD) continues to meet 3 times annually. We continue to improve ways we can be advocates for the disabled in the Virginia Conference.

In 2016 we approved six grants totaling $4,000 for churches and organizations to improve accessibility. This is an increase over previous years as we have promoted this opportunity more.

At the 2016 annual conference, we surveyed the attendees to know the need for accessible rooms at annual conference so to better provide information to the conference attendees about their availability.

In 2015 we created three committees to better focus on the needs of the conference. In Feb 2017, we consolidated to two committees:

- Education, Programs, Accessibility, and Advocacy
- Grants, Finance, Monitoring, and Nominations

Our primary focus is on Education and we continue to search for new ways to enlighten the members of the conference about accessibility and how to interact with disabled persons and incorporate them into the church community as equal partners. An effort is underway now to improve our literature and disseminate the same to all churches.

We look forward to sharing a program for ramp building to empower churches to build their own ramps, where they have capable people.

– Shaun Smith, Chairperson

COMMISSION ON ETHNIC MINORITY CONCERNS AND ADVOCACY

The commission has continued in its mission: to serve as a prophetic voice for the full and equal participation of ethnic and racial constituents into the total life and mission of the Virginia Annual Conference (its churches, boards and agencies, and institutional and connectional structures) by educating, advocating, and holding to account God's church to inclusivity as God's intended design for all structures and processes, towards the work of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world in word and deed.

We encourage all members of the Virginia Annual Conference to remain prayerful and continue the great work God has allowed us to be a part of. With God's help and the great work of our former Bishop Young Jin Cho and our New Bishop Sharma Lewis we are hopeful that Virginia will be a lead conference in inclusiveness and racial justice.

We are indebted to the following ethnic agencies:

- African-American Ministries
- Hispanic/Latino Ministries
- Immigration Work Group
- Asian-American Ministries
- Native American Ministries
- Black Methodists for Church Renewal (BMCR), Inc.
- VA FOCUS 2020
- MARCHA
- Ghanaian Church

for the work these groups are doing within our conference. We would like to highlight the Asian-American Ministries for their annual gathering that has become a model for ethnic groups within our conference. We give thanks for Bishop Lewis leading the largest delegation from Virginia to the Convocation for Pastors of Black Churches. This year CEMCA seeks to partner with other focus groups within our conference to increase our minoring of boards and organizations to help highlight the inclusive efforts that are being witnessed in our conference.

With your help, prayers and support, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we look forward to continuing the work of living more fully into this vision.

– Gary Miller, Lori Segovia, Co-Chairs

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

The Commission on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW) encourages participation of women in the full life of the United Methodist church. To further this mission, COSROW collects data on the participation of women, minorities, youth and young adults, and persons with disabilities in the leadership roles of the church. Data collection continues at Annual Conference 2017.

Data collection at Annual Conference 2016 continues to suggest women are encouraged to participate, yet we still have work to do. During the planned worship services, men and women are both involved at a relatively equal rate. This modelling of women in leadership has a massive impact, encouraging our congregants to recognize women have an important and active role in the church.

Further challenges remain in the plenary and business portions of the annual conference. Women's level of active participation continues to be lower than men's level of active participation. Likewise, the same pattern emerges for racial and ethnic minority participation compared to that of those of Caucasian descent, and youth and young adults relative to adults. The proportion of persons of disability participating is negligible.

We who serve the Virginia Conference still have work to do. We encourage women, racial and ethnic minorities, young people, and persons with disabilities to be active stakeholders in the life of the United Methodist church. Our churches must welcome all God's children in the leadership of their churches. This includes, but is not limited to, welcoming women as pastors in all churches in the Virginia Conference, encouraging women to be lead pastors in large membership churches, and encouraging women to serve as leaders in committees, such as Finance and Trustees. Women, racial and ethnic minorities, young people, and persons with disabilities have gifts and talents. They make significant contributions to the life of the church. Any artificial limits on these persons deny the church body the blessings that God has bestowed on this Conference.

We are called to make disciples of all nations. To make all feel welcome, all need to be visible and active in the life of the church. Let us strive to become the church for and of all persons.

In 2016-2017, two members attended national training with the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women in Nashville, Tennessee. Our event, "For Such a Time as This," a listening post to share women's experiences was held at Chamberlayne Heights UMC on February 11, 2017. Like us on Facebook for news, events, and updates at "Commission on the Status and Role of Women – VA United Methodist Conference."

GRACEINSIDE (FORMERLY CHAPLAIN SERVICE PRISON MINISTRY OF VIRGINIA)

This word of thanks to a chaplain was made possible by YOUR generous support of GraceInside. Listen in:

“I have great admiration for and gratitude to you for being a loving and caring shepherd who has guided me continuously through my ‘wilderness’ experience. I have been in a time of great testing since September. Being able to meet with you, as well as share fellowship with the Worship Leadership Team, has kept my faith intact. Although I know God will not test me beyond what I can bear, I am finding this period to be the most difficult I have ever experienced... I thank God for you.”

Because of your support, GraceInside provides 31 chaplains to 35 institutions housing 30,000 incarcerated men and women. Because of you, these children of God have the opportunity to experience spiritual support through worship, Bible studies, support groups and individual pastoral care. Because of you, stories like the above are not uncommon. Prison can be a time of great testing – and great growth. With the proper care and guidance, women and men can not only change their lives, but have their lives saved as well.

Addiction related offenses remain the number one reason for incarceration. Men and women arrive in prison broken, angry, often having been abused, and struggling with how and where God might be in their lives. Because of you, GraceInside’s chaplains are present to provide that loving Christian guidance so many need.

Yet, the biggest challenge GraceInside’s chaplains face is the need for more time to minister among their congregations. One institution with a 30-hour-a-week chaplain has over 1,350 men - with waiting lists to attend worship! Ninety percent of men and ninety-eight percent of women will return to the community at some point. GraceInside’s chaplains are desperate to ensure that when they do get out, they take the love of Jesus Christ with them. In so doing, they not only transform their own lives, but the lives of their children, families and communities.

With your help, we can increase the hours GraceInside chaplains serve the incarcerated. More time equals more ministry: more love of Jesus, more healing, more grace and more hope. On behalf of those GraceInside serves, thank you for doing your part to honor Jesus command to “visit those in prison.” For when grace is on the inside, everyone wins.

INDUSTRIAL & COMMERCIAL MINISTRIES

Searching for a way to make a difference in the lives of others? Want to serve in the mission field right within your own community? You might want to explore the possibility of becoming an ICM Chaplain.

Since 1972 ICM-Industrial & Commercial Ministries has been training and placing men and women, clergy and laity, to be “a caring presence” as ICM Chaplains at different workplace settings. These men and women, all volunteers, give up to four hours a week at their assigned facility, right within their own community, reaching working men and women, available to provide counseling, guidance, assistance and referral service to the employees for personal needs, upon request.

ICM Chaplains are Christian men and women, active members of their church, believing that there is a mission field outside the walls of a church within their own communities. Many of our ICM Chaplains are United Methodist and several serve as members of our National ICM Board and Chapter Leaders within local ICM chapters.

Our financial support come from individuals, churches and some of the facilities that have allowed the placement of ICM Chaplains. Biggest fundraiser is ICM Labor Day Offering held on Sunday before Labor Day.

Many of the founders of ICM were Methodist and their prayers asked God that ICM would make a difference in the lives of those in the workplace. The workplace has changed, but the needs of people have not. Our prayers today are that ICM might remain “a caring presence” sharing God’s love for all.

SOCIETY OF ST. ANDREW

Over the last 38 years, the Virginia Conference has been a critical partner in the work of the Society of St. Andrew. In that time, you’ve helped SoSA grow from a home-based intentional Christian community to a nation-wide gleaning and food recovery network that has engaged more than a half million volunteers in simple hands-on service to feed hungry neighbors. Thank you for being part of this ministry from its inception, for sharing with us a vision for a world without hunger, in which faith and stewardship meet God’s abundance—and good food is shared with people in greatest need every day.

In 2016, 289 congregations of the Virginia Conference provided financial support to the Society of St. Andrew. Forty-eight congregations and more than 1,000 Virginia United Methodists took part in “crop drops” or field gleaning. A potato drop, partially funded by a grant from the Virginia United Methodist Foundation, engaged Annual Conference attendees from every district in service to feed hungry people in the Roanoke Valley.

Through the Virginia Gleaning Network, the Potato & Produce Project, and SoSA’s Harvest of Hope mission work-camp program in 2016, 209 feeding agencies (soup kitchens, shelters, emergency food assistance programs, food pantries, and large food banks) across the state received more than 3,875,000 pounds of nourishing food to share with their clients—providing more than 11.6 million servings of health and hope to our hungry brothers and sisters. This is work made possible because you care.

Nationwide, 27.6 million pounds of food (82.8 million servings) reached millions of hungry Americans in 2016 through the work of the Society of St. Andrew, through crops donated by more than 1,000 farmers/producers and through the gleaning and volunteer efforts of 32,700+ individuals. The Board of Directors has instituted an ambitious strategic plan, that calls for nearly doubling that quantity of food shared over the next three years. We are actively working to build the capacity in both funding and partnerships with farmers and feeding agencies, to expand into new areas over the next few years. United Methodist congregations, across the United States, will be integral to SoSA’s growth, and the Virginia

Conference has paved the way for relationships that now extend across the continent.

At the end of 2016, the Society of St. Andrew's second Executive Director, Steven M. (Mike) Waldmann, retired after 22 years of service to the organization. The Board of Directors selected Lynette Johnson, of Buena Vista, as SoSA's new Executive Director, effective January 1, 2017. Johnson had previously served as a Regional Director for Tennessee and Alabama and as Church Relations Director for SoSA.

The Society of St. Andrew's mission fields are just that, fields and orchards. The need for volunteers throughout the year is great, and the opportunities are plentiful. Congregations that partner with SoSA have found the partnerships transformative, spurring deeper faith, greater support for local missions, and an abiding concern for those our Savior called "the least of these."

— Lynette Johnson, Executive Director

VIRGINIA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

"At a time like this, when a large part of the world is in turmoil, the work of a council of churches becomes more significant than ever."
The Rev Henry Lee Robison, Jr, 1st Executive Secretary VCC 1945

These words of Rev. Henry Robison seem even more prophetic today as we face challenges on all fronts. The year 2016 was dominated by a very rancorous political campaign and election. With the nation evenly split and passion running high it has created a very tumultuous season that continues even now after the inauguration of a new president. We continue to face difficult economic times as we adjust to the significant drop in funding of recent years. Your council remains strong, albeit on very fragile financial footing, and is seeking ways to respond during these exciting yet chaotic times.

At our Annual Meeting in 2016 our council president, the Rev. Dr. John Myers, of the Eastern Association, Southern Conference, UCC called for a strategic planning retreat in May of this year to articulate the mission and vision of the Council in this new century and to prepare for a transition of leadership in 2018. At our executives retreat in December the Council was asked to prepare a statement for release on the use of the Death Penalty in Virginia. The statement was drafted and released ahead of the execution of Ricky Gray and was signed by twelve of our judicatory executives.

The Council continues to work closely with our Armenian Orthodox brothers and sister assisting in the introduction of their new priest Rev. Fr. Tatev Terteryan. Over the course of the year we have worked with the Virginia Synod ELCA and Bishop Mauney in efforts to reduce childhood hunger within the Commonwealth. The Council continues to support LARCUM, the National Workshop on Christian Unity, and The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, as well as other expressions of ecumenism within the Commonwealth. Rev John Myers' challenge to the denominations is bringing renewal, excitement and technology to the way the Council relates and functions. This challenge has brought new excitement and energy to the Council as we discern God's call in the 21st Century. We also play an enlarging role in Interfaith Dialogues, including our long-standing dialogue in Richmond involving five of our judicatory executives, including Bishop Lewis, three Rabbis, and two Imams.

We continue to stand with our Native American brothers and sisters of the six Virginia Tribes as they continue to seek federal recognition we are now in our 18th year of this effort. Our partnership with the VICPP and the Virginia Catholic Conference helps give voice to our shared concerns for justice on the floor of the General Assembly. Our Rural Family Development Program continues to serve children in Caroline County through the Head Start Program.

Jesus prayed "that all may be one so that the world may believe" (John 17). The Apostle Paul reminds us we may not all look alike, but we need each other, and together we comprise one body. When we come together through the Virginia Council of Churches, we provide a common voice that becomes believable in the midst of turmoil and change that the Lord God is one.

The Rev. Dr. John Myers – President

The Rev. Lauren Ramseur – Vice President

Ms. Cathy Griffin – Treasurer

Mr. Edward Rossmoore – Secretary

VIRGINIA INTERFAITH CENTER FOR PUBLIC POLICY (VICPP)

The Virginia Interfaith Center for Public Policy is pleased to partner with the United Methodist Church in Virginia. We partner with UMC congregations and other people of faith to bring a faithful witness to the General Assembly and advocate economic and racial justice throughout the Commonwealth. Below is a description of the key work done on issues in 2016 (and a few of the results from the General Assembly in January-February, 2017).

ISSUES

Criminal Justice Reform/Driver's Licenses: One out of six Virginia drivers have had their licenses suspended for not paying court fines and fees. Many have called this practice Virginia's "debtor's prison." Essentially, poor people lose their licenses because they are poor and can't pay the debts. In most communities in Virginia, it is hard to get or keep a job without a license, and so poor people get trapped into poverty.

VICPP educated people of faith and elected leaders about how important this issue was to poor people and that Virginia needed to change its policies. VICPP encouraged the lead House sponsor to introduce a bill and then VICPP engaged its members in advocating with the Courts of Justice Committees that heard the bills. Several good bills passed the General Assembly and will reduce the number of people who lose their licenses for unpaid court fines and fees.

Fair Wages/Wage Theft: VICPP made some great strides in positioning itself as a leader on wage theft in 2016. VICPP convened a Wage Theft Taskforce, composed of some of the top experts in the state. The Taskforce met to outline general plans and then met with the Secretary of Labor and Industries (DOLI) and staff from the Department of Commerce.

In 2014, the Governor created a Misclassification Taskforce with great fanfare. Misclassification is when an employer calls a worker an independent contractor when the person is really an employee. This is one of the most common forms of wage theft. It not only hurts workers, denying them overtime, unemployment, workers compensation, employer-side of payroll taxes and other labor protections, but it robs the government of needed revenue. A JLARC committee said Virginia loses more than $26 million in revenue by not cracking down on misclassification. This taskforce met three times in 2015 and did not meet once in 2016. VICPP advocated with the Commerce Department and the Governor to get this Taskforce moving again. The Taskforce is scheduled to meet in March, 2017 and has begun doing some joint taskforce investigations.

During the General Assembly, VICPP volunteers met with Delegates and Senators about the issue of wage theft. In 2017, VICPP will be working to improve both the Minimum Wage and the Payment of Wages bill and will seek sponsors for bills for the 2018 General Assembly. These state laws are very poor. The laws have no overtime provision, no “right of private action” (ability to take a case to court), no protection against retaliation, and exclude every category of work that was historically held by African Americans (farm work, domestic work, ticket takers, shoe shine boys, and so forth).

The Richmond VICPP chapter is partnering the Mayor’s Office of Community Wealth Building to develop a Living Wage Certification program. As this program develops, other chapters may build programs as well. The program identifies, honors and promotes business that pay living wages.

Healthcare: VICPP was the leading grassroots advocacy organization in 2016 supporting expanding health care for low-income families. As David Beckman, President of Bread for the World said, “Health and hunger are inextricably linked.” VICPP produced a Congregational Toolkit, organized a press conference in the Capitol, organized dozens of meetings with Delegates and Senators, organized people to work on city/town/country resolutions calling on the General Assembly to expand healthcare and provided a faith voice on the issue. In this year’s General Assembly VICPP supported efforts to expand healthcare for mental health and substance abuse services in Virginia. Several strong bills were approved this year.

Protecting Immigrants and Muslims: Given the uptick in hate crimes against immigrants, Muslims and Jews, VICPP stepped up its work to create circles of protection. VICPP began supporting the creation of Rapid Response Networks and providing congregations information about being a sanctuary. VICPP helped sponsor many unity events that have drawn significant crowds. VICPP was a lead witness opposing the anti-immigrant and anti-refugee bills introduced into the 2017 General Assembly.

Stopping TANF cuts: In the 2017 General Assembly, proposals were made to reduce the length of time people could get TANF (public assistance) from 24 months to 12 months and the lifetime limits from 60 months to 24 months. United Methodist Day at the General Assembly happened right before this bill came to the floor. United Methodist talked with most legislators about this issue and helped defeat it on the floor.

ORGANIZING

Faith Advocacy Partners: VICPP developed a new Faith Advocacy Partners program as a means of strengthening its ties with congregations. For more information, visit www.virginiainterfaithcenter.org.

Witness at the Capitol: VICPP recruited a team of volunteers to serve as Witnesses at the Capitol. These volunteers met with legislators, spoke in committee hearings and offered a presence to the faith Community. Two Methodists, Rev. Pat Shipley and Mr. Warren Hottle, participated in the program.

Campus Outreach: VICPP reached out to many faculty and student groups at faith-based colleges. VICPP began building ties with the five Methodist colleges in the state.

Day for All People: VICPP’s annual advocacy days in both 2016 and 2017 were well attended and positive events. Mark your calendar for Tuesday, January 23, 2018.

Chapters: VICPP reconnected with all its chapter leaders, held an annual chapter leader retreat and organized monthly chapter calls to engage and deepen ties between the Center and its volunteers around the state.

If you would like to get involved personally, as a congregation or in your community with VICPP and its issues, please sign up on the VICPP website at www.virginiainterfaithcenter.org. If you have specific questions and requests, email Kim@virginiainterfaithcenter.org.

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

The Committee on Episcopacy is responsible for the review and evaluation of the resident bishop as required by the Book of Discipline. The committee welcomed Bishop Sharma Lewis following her election and assignment at the Southeast Jurisdictional Conference. In meetings this year we oriented new members to the responsibilities and processes of the committee. We have met with Bishop Lewis and heard her plans to meet members of the Virginia Annual Conference and engage them in dialogue. Bishop Lewis is taking intentional steps to discern both a vision and priorities for the years ahead with laity and clergy. In her first year she has held meetings on every district as well as with clergy from small, medium and large churches and many other organizations in the Annual Conference. We are grateful for her prayerful leadership and her desire to hear from the members of the Annual Conference as she leads us.

– Rev. Tom Berlin, Chair

Episcopal Residence Committee

The Book of Discipline (§638, 4.) states: It shall be the responsibility of the Episcopal Residence Committee: a) To make recommendations to the annual conference(s) regarding the purchase or sale of an episcopal residence.

When the current Episcopal residence was built in Hanover County, it was predicated on future development of the area but that has not happened. It was believed that improvements would be made to roads and lighting and building of some shopping areas. In fact, because of zoning restrictions Hanover County has not fostered development of the area. There have been no new houses built in the development where the Episcopal residence is located, nor are any contemplated any time soon.

We looked at the distinctive needs of the Episcopal office in the practice of ministry and felt that the current residence will not meet these needs in such a way as to fully realize the vitality of any bishop among us and within our larger Connection.

It is the intention of this recommendation that this purchase and sale be as cost-neutral as reasonably possible. The current residence has been appraised for $475,000. It has been determined that an appropriate replacement for the current residence could be readily obtained with little or no net cost to the Annual Conference, after the sale of the current residence.

Therefore, we submit the following recommendation:

That the Episcopal Residence Committee find an appropriate residence in a different location to be purchased as an Episcopal Residence and that the Trustees be authorized to sell the current residence and purchase one identified by the Episcopal Residence Committee. To fund this new purchase, CFA is authorized to spend no more than $500,000 on the new residence out of Reserves and is additionally requested to appropriate an amount not to exceed $50,000 out of Reserves to be used, if needed, in the acquisition of and transition to a new residence. The Reserve will be replenished by the sale of the current residence, with all profits from the sale of the current residence additionally placed in reserves.

– Shirley Cauffman, Chair; Rev. Steven Summers, CFA and Kathy Lutman, Trustees

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

The impact of General Conference in May 2016 brings fresh and revised opportunities of purpose, and function to the Virginia Board of Ordained Ministry (BOM). With an already strong organizational structure in place, the BOM continues to enable disciples of Jesus Christ to become effective clergy and certified lay professionals as it assists these persons in the areas of call, development, and collegial support. Since the publication of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2016, the BOM has begun to implement these new directives into its established structured processes. One specific matter that the BOM and the Cabinet will address in the near future is the new in-depth assessment process that will occur every eight years for clergy. The plan is to be developed and initiated no later than January 1, 2020.

A few members of the BOM leadership attended the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry's "Board of Ordained Ministry Quadrennial Training Event" in Chicago in early October 2016.

From this training, the BOM inaugurated three new "core values" to guide the Board in its ministry for 2017-2020.

Whole Person – In working with candidates and clergy, the whole person is considered, including their theological knowledge, emotional intelligence, practical skill and cultural competency.

A Changing World – Effective ministry leadership is needed in the pulpit and far beyond it: Christ is present—and our witness is needed—in and for a rapidly changing world.

Spiritual Discernment – The Holy Spirit is at work in the BOM's practice of discernment; being prepared, being prayerful, and being healthy all help the Spirit to move among us.

The work of the board includes sponsoring the annual Licensing School for all first-time appointees, support for the Orders of Deacon and Elders, and the Fellowship of Associate Members and Local Pastors. Other endeavors involve examining persons seeking credentialing as ministers, interviewing United Methodists and those of other denominations who wish to transfer to the Virginia Conference, offering two Candidacy Summits for those who desire to learn more about pursuing ministry leadership in the Virginia Conference through the candidacy process, interviewing clergy seeking retirement status, reviewing requests for appointments beyond the church (extension), traveling to eight seminaries to visit Virginia students and others who have an interest in possibly serving in Virginia, awarding service loans and scholarships to seminary students, training District Committees on Ordained Ministry, providing continuing education assistance to clergy, guiding and directing provisional members on their journey to ordination, promoting and encouraging lay professional certification, developing essential ethics training for clergy, giving assistance to clergy on medical leave, and concentrating on conference relationship matters that come before the board.

Other supportive efforts include the board's promotion of the Calling 21 Intern Program, now in its 11th year to connect college students and local church ministries and foster vocational discernment. This summer there will be six Calling 21 interns serving in various church settings around the Conference. They are: David Anderson (Braddock St UMC, W), Liam Fairfax (Belmont UMC, Rd), Sarah Hutchinson (St. Luke's UMC, YR), Julianna Smith (Warwick Memorial UMC, YR), Emily Stallings (Culpeper UMC, C), Katie Wax (Franktown UMC, ES)

The Clergy Effectiveness Team is in the planning stage for a Cohort III (2017-2018) of the Virginia Clergy Leadership Program. This program helps clergy to be radically and profoundly open to the transformational power of God in their lives and their practice of ministry. Applications are available now.

Shenandoah University and Randolph-Macon College will offer this summer a Youth Theology Institute which encourages young people to examine theological traditions, to probe contemporary issues, and how their faith journey calls them to lives of service to others.

In some measure the work of the BOM begins in the local church. It is often through the local church where an individual receives an awareness from God to begin the journey of discernment for clergy ministry. And at some point the journey may travel through the Board of Ordained Ministry for the Virginia Conference. Thank you, Virginia Conference for your encouragement to those whom God may use in clergy servant leadership in the days and years ahead.

Finally, the BOM wishes to thank the Center for Clergy Excellence (Meredith McNabb, Director, Lindsey Baynham, Associate Director for Call, Candidacy and Discernment, and Kristen Seibert, Executive Assistant) for their committed support to the Board of Ordained Ministry throughout the year.

John Hall, Chair

CONFERENCE TRUSTEES

The Virginia Conference Board of Trustees held their two regularly scheduled meetings in September and March. In addition, we held a special meeting in December via conference call.

In addition to our normal work dealing with the real property of closed and abandoned churches, the Board continued its involvement with the VUMAC property by having three members of the Trustees on the VUMAC Board. That process has involved extended meetings and conference calls to assist in handling and resolution of VUMAC issues. It is our sincere hope that, as of Annual Conference, the sale of the Blackstone property will be complete.

The Board has also been involved with issues pertaining to the Episcopal Residence. We anticipate that quite a bit of time will be expended in the coming year contingent upon Annual Conference action.

Over the past many years, the Board has been expertly supported by Benham Black, our attorney and counsel, on both Board of Trustees and Annual Conference matters. With his retirement, the Board appointed a search committee, which was tasked with finding a replacement for our long time legal counsel Benham Black. We are happy to report that the law firm of LeClair Ryan has been retained to represent the Board of Trustees going forward. The Board feels that LeClair Ryan, with its numerous offices throughout the state of Virginia, will be able to provide the services needed by the Board in the future. We welcome Andrew White and Katja Hill and look forward to working with them in the future. We would again like to thank Benham for his long-time service to this work and wish him the best in the future.

During the past year and a half, a major family emergency continued to draw me away from some of the management work needed to lead the Board. The Board extends a special thank you to our Vice President, Kathy Lutman, who has stepped in so effectively to help me and the Board out during this time.

– Carl Moravitz, President

Beginning in 2019 and beyond, the above dates represent Annual Conference convening on a Thursday and concluding on Saturday as set by Bishop Sharma D. Lewis.

THE BISHOPS' FOUNDATION

The Bishops' Foundation provides for leadership development of both laity and clergy in the areas of evangelism, spiritual formation, preaching, and congregational leadership in the Wesleyan Spirit. In 2011, by conference action, three predecessor organizations – the Goodson Foundation for Preaching, the Stockton Endowment for Evangelism, and the Pennel Wesleyan Heritage Foundation – merged and formed the assets of the Bishops' Foundation into a corporation. The foundation is led by a board of directors (five clergy and four laity) nominated by the Cabinet. Endowment funds are invested with the Virginia UM Foundation. In 2014, the foundation was dissolved as a corporation and is now a board reporting to the annual conference.

As an event-sponsoring or co-sponsoring organization that supports the training of both laity and clergy, the foundation supported the following 2017 events: Spiritual Formation Academy and the 5 Talent Academy on Evangelism. The foundation produced and distributed The Bishops of the Bishops' Foundation commemorative document written by the Rev. Alex Joyner to recognize and inform the conference of the Bishops' Foundations.

The board remains interested in addressing any gaps that may exist in current conference ministry programming to foster opportunities for young adult laity and clergy to help the church in reaching all generations. Grant application forms can be found on the conference website under the tab for the Bishop. See "The Bishops' Foundation".

UNITED METHODIST-RELATED SCHOOLS

Ferrum College

The 2016-2017 academic year at Ferrum College has been a time of change, transition, and transformation as I became the 11th President of Ferrum beginning in August 2016. I am delighted that my journey through life has provided me with this incredible opportunity to lead a liberal arts college nestled in the beautiful foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains. My wife, Nicole Gelfert, and I are in awe of the magnificent mountains and lakes surrounding Ferrum, and we have been blessed to meet a multitude of the Ferrum Family as we traveled throughout the state of Virginia and further beyond. We have been personally touched by the remarkable stories of alumni whose lives have been changed forever due to the care and concern they were given by the faculty and staff at this amazing institution. Ferrum has become our treasured home, and we are now strongly connected to the place, the people, and the unique culture of the campus community.

I have truly enjoyed my first year at Ferrum, and I look forward to continuing to work together with our Ferrum Friends to preserve our mission of providing an outstanding education for deserving students and to enhance the growth and prosperity we envision for Ferrum's future. We are thankful for the assistance of so many friends in The United Methodist Church and for the tremendous help of The United Methodist Women who have been a significant part of Ferrum's history since the early days of the Ferrum Training School.

As we look back in Ferrum's history and remember the special people who have worked together to make Ferrum the great institution it is today, it is important to note the passing of a greatly revered and beloved Ferrum leader, former Ferrum College president Dr. Joseph Hart. I was honored to attend the Celebration of Life service in early January and hear about the many contributions he made to the Ferrum campus community through his life of service to higher education.

Jan Nicholson Angle, our Dean of the Chapel, has begun her fourth year of service to the campus. The Chapel continues to be the hub for regular weekly worship services with music by our student-based Praise Team under the direction of Eugene Hacker, Applications Systems Specialist for the College. Vaughn Chapel is also used as space for classes, special activities, campus-wide gatherings, and annual services such as the Martin Luther King, Jr. Day Celebration in January and The Virginia Conference United Methodist Women's Day at Ferrum in June.

Rev. Dr. Nicholson Angle directs the Office of Spiritual Life which offers various opportunities for spiritual formation and growth for students and staff. Our annual Praise on the Patio attracted nearly 200 students with our Ferrum College Praise Band debut and over 20 local churches who welcomed and connected with our campus community. Fall Semester saw over 100 students gathering for our first Ferrum College FCA Field of Faith event with featured speaker Dave Gittings, FCA VA Tech Football Chaplain and Director of Campus Ministry. In addition to our regular small group Bible and Topic studies, 13 students embraced putting their faith in action by participating in Alternative Fall/Spring Break Work Teams. Ferrum College students, faculty, and staff work teams were the first Virginia Based United Methodist affiliated college teams to volunteer with The Virginia Conference United Methodist Volunteers in Mission Disaster Recovery efforts in Waverly and Virginia Beach, Virginia. Living out "Not Self, But Others," these teams assisted three families affected by the EF-1 tornado that ripped through Waverly, Virginia, in February 2016 and Hurricane Matthew that devastated the Virginia coast in October 2016.

Please feel free to contact my office if you would be interested in having me speak during your Sunday morning worship service or at a special meeting at your church. We appreciate your continued prayers for our faculty, staff, students and Board members. We will work together to make this journey for our students an exciting and rewarding adventure, and we will continue to strengthen our college and our mission so that Ferrum will thrive today, tomorrow, and always.

— Jody Spooner, President

Randolph College

During 2016, Randolph College celebrated 125 years of rich history as Randolph-Macon Woman's College and the now coeducational Randolph College. While much has changed over those years, our commitment to the liberal arts has remained steadfast. Today, Randolph stands as an institution that teaches our students to be their best original self. Through strong programs in the creative arts, the sciences, and sustainability, among others, Randolph students leave our community ready to make a difference in the world.

This has been another strong year for the College. Enrollment remained approximately 700 students and giving by alumnae, alumni, and friends, such as the Conference, reached its highest total in our history, buoyed by a $7.82 million bequest from Laura Maud Battle Winstead '50 and her husband Emerson Clarence Winstead.

We continue to make improvements to our campus. Our focus in recent years has been renovating our campus infrastructure. We now have an updated electrical grid and have completed year one of a three year project to add two satellite boilers to each building in order to eventually close our central boiler. So far, generous donors have contributed nearly $6 million to this effort. These projects have helped in our sustainability efforts, which were also strengthened by the certification of the recently renovated Wright Hall as a LEED silver building. We were also pleased to complete the third and final phase of our dining hall renovations, which included renovations in portions of the kitchen area. We also made it easier for guests to locate the facility by creating a new entrance that features a beautiful water fountain. Work has also begun on converting a historic home just outside the main campus into our new admission welcome center, which is slated to open in the summer of 2017.

U.S. News and World Report, Forbes, The Princeton Review, and The Washington Monthly, among other ranking guides, continue to name Randolph a "best college." These accolades are a testament to our outstanding faculty. We are delighted to provide this quality education at an affordable cost, many times lower than the cost of a public university. This is made possible through the generous institutional grants the College provides to students, totaling over $14.3 million last year. Randolph remains steadfast in its desire to provide an outstanding, affordable education.

We are grateful for the work our college chaplain, Rev. Jennifer Moore, is doing to strengthen the opportunities for spiritual development of our students, which are only made possible through your support. In February, we opened a campus labyrinth, and the Rev. Moore has used this as an opportunity to provide ways for students to engage spiritually. We remain thankful for the strong relationship that exists between the College and the Conference. We were delighted to host the district and our new superintendent on campus in December. We also remain thankful for the leadership the Rev. John Peters provides as our connection to the Conference. Most of all, we thank the members of the Conference for their ongoing support of Randolph College. Your contributions help us to fulfill our mission of preparing students to engage the world critically and creatively, live and work honorably, and experience life abundantly.

— Bradley W. Bateman, President

Randolph-Macon Academy

At Randolph-Macon Academy, we are particularly mindful of both our blessings and our roots in the United Methodist Church as we celebrate the 125th anniversary of our founding in 1892. The excellent work by our chaplain, Joshua Orndorff, has resulted in the growth and revitalization of our chapel programs that outpaces anything in the last few decades.

Under Chaplain Orndorff's direction, we have weekly Bible studies for both the Middle School students and the Upper School students enrolled at Randolph-Macon Academy. In the spring of 2016, 15 students received Confirmation; it was the first such ceremony held on campus in at least a dozen years. As part of their faith walk, these students, along with others on campus, teamed up with Teens Opposing Poverty and took a trip into DC to feed the homeless. They also attended a two-day retreat at Camp Overlook, an event that was supported by several R-MA staff members. During this school year, Chaplain Orndorff has worked with the local Catholic Church to arrange Confirmation classes for six of our Catholic students, and coordinated with Front Royal United Methodist Church to begin a second Confirmation class for another fourteen students. This group will receive their Confirmation during a chapel service scheduled for Sunday, April 30, 2017, as part of our 125th Anniversary Founder's Weekend.

Our commitment to community service remains strong. Chaplain Orndorff arranged for students to participate in Kelsey's Big Give this past fall, a program in which the students and local church members planted gardens and assisted with various home clean-up projects and renovations around Warren County. Our Middle School Interact Club has worked hard to assist community and international organizations, help provide food for the needy, and clean up the roads outside of our campus. We also have several groups on campus that regularly hold bake sales and “poetry slam” events to raise funds for international causes.

We have been blessed with a talented faculty who are eager to share their gifts with our students, resulting in many accomplishments. Our band took first place in the “Military School Band” category at both the Firefighters’ Parade and the Grand Feature Parade at the Apple Blossom Festival last May. Our 2016 graduating class earned over $5.1 million in college scholarship offers, with three of our students being offered the opportunity to enter the Echols Scholar program at the University of Virginia. Perhaps most notably, however, was that a special chorus made up of members of our praise team, chorus, and drama department was selected to perform at the United Methodist General Conference held in Oregon last May. It was indeed a high honor to be selected, and we are thankful that God provided the right talent at the right time, and also provided some generous hearts to help fund the trip.

We invite everyone to come celebrate our 125th Anniversary with us during 2017. We will have events throughout the year that will be open to the general public. In celebrating our history and heritage, however, we are mindful that we need to continue to move forward and grow. To that end, we are examining ourselves with the assistance of outside consultants, and we welcome your prayers that throughout this year, God would reveal the path He would have us follow.

Thank you for your continued prayers and your financial support, which allow us to help students soar.

– Brigadier General David C. Wesley, USAF, Retired, President

Randolph-Macon College

Founded in 1830, Randolph-Macon College is a selective, co-educational, nationally ranked liberal arts college located in Ashland, Virginia, just minutes north of Richmond and 90 miles south of Washington, D.C. The College achieves its mission of “developing the minds and character of each student” by balancing rigorous academics in 54 areas of study with individualized attention between our exceptional faculty and students. The student-faculty ratio is 12:1 and the average class size is 16 students. The College has an outstanding reputation for academics, national and international internships, study abroad programs and undergraduate research opportunities.

Now in our 187th year, the college is larger and more diverse than at any time in history, having experienced a significant 26% growth in our student body in recent years. The 2016-17 academic year opened with 1,446 students from 25 states, the District of Columbia, and 24 countries. Of these students, 46% are male and 53% are female. In addition, 19% are minorities, and 40% are Presidential Scholars, R-MC’s signature scholarship that recognizes students who demonstrate the highest levels of academic achievement and leadership.

Our outstanding faculty has been recognized for its achievements on countless fronts, including superior teaching, research, and mentorship, creating personalized education for students both inside and outside of the classroom.

The Edge Career Center is focused on preparing our students for careers and post graduate success. Faculty serve as mentors and offer important advising, linking valuable liberal arts education with important career and post-graduate success strategies and life skills. The Edge focuses on providing students with tools that build a “competitive advantage” in career and post-graduate environments. The success of this program is reflected in the college’s tagline, Building Extraordinary Futures.

The Edge also offers Boot Camp, a signature two-day, off-campus immersion program where students learn to identify their career passions, tell their story and hone their interview and communication skills to prepare for success after college. The weekend is devoted to helping students develop their own elevator speech and “brand,” learn how to communicate with confidence, and identify their strengths and capabilities—all with the help of world-class speakers, interviewers and mentors, including R-MC alumni.

R-MC’s January Term (J-Term) is a four-week session in which students can study abroad and immerse themselves in other cultures, conduct a regional, national or international internship, or take an on-campus course in a specific area of interest. In January 2017, 1,316 students participated in J-Term.

January Term internships provide unique opportunities, and this year, over 125 students interned across the country and around the world. Our students experienced internships at organizations as exciting and diverse as Yellowstone National Park in Wyoming, the National Aquarium in Baltimore, a church in Okinawa, Japan, a title company in Houston, the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts in Richmond, and the United States Congress.

In addition, 115 students participated in study/travel courses during J-Term 2017, traveling to Wroxton, England; Dublin, Ireland; Paris, France; Australia and New Zealand; Japan; and Cambodia, a new destination for R-MC.

One of the flagship programs at Randolph-Macon is the Schapiro Undergraduate Research Fellowship program (SURF), an endowment to support scholarly undergraduate research by students in all disciplines. SURF allows students the opportunity to conduct original research, under the guidance of a faculty member, and to be paid a stipend. Many students present their findings at academic and professional conferences both nationally and internationally. Now in its 21st year, SURF has funded research opportunities for over 600 students.

R-MC offers a Four-Year Degree Guarantee, which pledges in writing that freshmen who meet all necessary requirements will graduate within four calendar years. If not, Randolph-Macon will waive tuition costs for R-MC courses needed to complete the degree.

This year, Randolph-Macon is commemorating its 50th anniversary of desegregation by highlighting the events that led to this historical moment and honoring the pioneers who led efforts to achieve equality at the College. The College continues to integrate the value of diversity into the fabric of campus life. Through a wide range of student organizations and multicultural programs, Randolph-Macon seeks to build a community that upholds the inherent worth of individuals in an atmosphere of mutual respect, trust, and civility.

In 2015, R-MC completed its enormously successful Building Extraordinary campaign with over $125 million raised from 12,129 alumni and friends. For two years in a row, 40% of our alumni have given back to the College, making us 14th in the country in alumni loyalty. And, the College has experienced a campus renaissance in recent years, with over $80 million spent on eight new and renovated facilities in the past six years.

With an anticipated completion this summer, the new science building will connect to the Copley Science Center. This three-story, 30,000-square-foot facility, with state-of-the-art teaching laboratories, plus classrooms and faculty offices, will also house the biology, environmental science/geology, and chemistry departments. Additionally, a new observatory will be constructed to replace the existing Keeble observatory.

The A. Purnell Bailey Pre-Ministerial Scholarship Program was established in 2004 to support students who express an interest in ordained ministry in the Christian tradition. A limited number of select students are awarded this scholarship each year and receive half-tuition for the first two years and full tuition for the junior and senior years. Additionally the program includes weekly mentoring, two internships in ministry settings, and support selecting and applying to theology school. We have recently received a grant to create a Leadership in Ministry experience much like our existing Career Boot Camp Program. Pre-ministerial students will have four experiences off campus (including visits to Candler School of Theology, Duke Divinity School, and Wesley Theological Seminary) to help in their professional development as they prepare for ministry.

Summer 2017 marks the beginning of two new summer programs for high school students offered at Randolph-Macon. Pathways to Science invites rising sophomore Hispanic girls to campus July 23-28 to meet scientists and explore STEM related activities. Convergence is an 11-day event, June 22-July 2, inviting high school students to explore the many ways that faith and science come together. The event will include faculty lectures, hands-on experiences on the James River and at Shalom Farms, and an opportunity to create resources to help other high school students explore the topics that the group engages this summer.

Student outreach through community service continues to be an important aspect of a Randolph-Macon College education. In 2015-16, Randolph-Macon students logged more than 27,400 volunteer hours and donated $49,897.71 to various causes through their student organizations. The SERVE program (Students Engaged in Responsible Volunteer Experiences), in the Office of Student Life, is an integral part of Randolph-Macon's community engagement and leadership initiatives. R-MC coordinates dynamic opportunities for service and service-learning to help students explore the root causes and contexts of social needs through connections with the greater community. Students are actively engaged with groups such as Habitat for Humanity and the American Cancer Society Relay for Life. There are two signature events each year, The Big Event in the fall and Macon a Difference Day in April. These campus-wide community-service initiatives bring together the college's clubs, organizations and academic and administrative departments to volunteer their time and energy for environmental projects and other needs in the surrounding communities.

At Randolph-Macon College, students bond with their peers, faculty mentors and alumni to build meaningful relationships that last a lifetime.

– Alan B. Rashkind, Chairman

Shenandoah University

Our vision statement says, "Shenandoah University will be highly valued for a campus culture of compassion, responsibility, advocacy and justice which graduates are inspired to replicate in communities beyond Shenandoah." While our students are present on campus for 16 weeks twice annually, we are also excited to welcome other groups to experience Shenandoah's culture. Each year we are thrilled to welcome high school students participating in the Shenandoah University Youth Theology Institute, college students participating in Calling21, and so many other groups. Our United Methodist affiliation and partnership is a vital part of creating communities and our campus culture.

As I write this report, we are accepting nominations, recommendations, and applications for the 2017 Shenandoah University Youth Theology Institute (SUYTI). Without you, this would not be possible. Shenandoah partnered with Wesley Theological Seminary, the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church, and the Lilly Endowment to create the SUYTI. We believe in this valuable opportunity to develop young leaders for our Church and world! I challenge you to identify rising high school sophomores, juniors and seniors who will benefit from a two-week youth theology institute in which they learn from faculty of Shenandoah University and Wesley Theological Seminary, participate in small groups, and explore faith and vocation in rural and urban environments. Please send the names of prospective students to spirituallife@su.edu and we will work to help these students strengthen their knowledge, faith, and leadership. In July we were also excited to welcome the Rev. Colleen Hallagan Preuninger to Shenandoah University as the director of the SUYTI. As an ordained United Methodist elder from the Upper New York Annual Conference, Colleen came to us from Syracuse University. Now she is with the real SU!

Students engage weekly with worship arts leadership and planning through the Office of Spiritual Life at Shenandoah University. They plan, implement and assess elements of worship services in dance and movement, liturgical writing and reading, and musical and theatrical embodiments of the Gospel through a theologically informed lens at our chapel services. As an additional result, many students bring these processes and products to their home churches. At the 2016 Virginia Annual Conference, Joy Chappell, dance major and religion minor in the class of 2016, used liturgical dance to lead our conference in worship. Additionally, current students Amy Robertson, Andrew Dietz, Zach Hubbard, Max Stribula, Daniel Kelly and others led music for the Virginia Annual Conference in 2016. Alumni who participated in Spiritual Life's worship arts serve among the clergy of Virginia and Greater New Jersey Annual Conferences and as worship leaders in many states including Florida, Georgia, Maryland, New York, and Virginia.

Nearly 90 college students have attended Annual Conference, explored God's call upon their lives, and discerned their life in ministry through Calling21! Nineteen of those students have been from Shenandoah University, with the rest joining us from many other institutions as far away as Iowa and as close as Virginia. Calling21 is another partnership with the Virginia Annual Conference and another way to educate and inspire a new generation of leaders for the Church and the world. Interns who have completed the program move forward to replicate compassionate communities far beyond Shenandoah.

In May 2016, Shenandoah University took 12 students from its Faith Seeking Justice Christian Leadership Program to General Conference in Portland, Oregon, to observe and participate in the process that organizes our denomination. Additionally, Shenandoah's Harambee Gospel Choir auditioned and was accepted to sing at two events at General Conference. In total, 32 Shenandoah students learned about, led, and invested in our denomination at General Conference!

This year, the Faith Seeking Justice program actively studied justice while advocating for it as well. In October, they traveled once again to Taizé, France to experience a community that exemplifies a culture of compassion, responsibility, advocacy, and peace with justice. This January they took to the road once again. This time they traveled to Richmond to participate in the Day for All People, a gathering of faith communities from around the state at the Virginia General Assembly to advocate for justice and organize for a bigger impact.

How else can we partner with the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church to create communities of compassion, responsibility, advocacy and justice? Whatever the future holds, we are excited to walk together with you as we make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world!

Virginia Wesleyan College

Virginia Wesleyan College hosted the visiting committee of the University Senate of the United Methodist Church in November 2016 and reviewed all the ways in which we define ourselves as a United Methodist-related institution. We were proud to receive official notification in February of our 10-year reaffirmation of affiliation with The United Methodist Church. Virginia Wesleyan College is a community of faith, learning and service, and we are very grateful for this notification of reaffirmation of affiliation. Underlying all that we do is a deep commitment to the United Methodist tradition of education. Our mission takes inspiration from that heritage, preparing students for global citizenry, service to their communities, personal and professional leadership, and lives of continual learning and meaning.

Building on our excellent academic and co-curricular reputation, we also earned an unqualified report of reaffirmation of accreditation—no reports, no follow-up required—for the next 10 years by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC). That's an exceptional, rare "report card" coveted by any college or university.

SACSCOC also approved Virginia Wesleyan as a Level III institution in December 2016, enabling the College to offer the master's degree as the highest degree. The College will soon expand its academic program to include a traditionally delivered Master of Arts in Education (summer 2017), an online Master of Business Administration (fall 2017), and online degree-completion programs at the undergraduate level (fall 2017). The addition of these programs marks a pivotal moment in Virginia Wesleyan's history and underscores our reputation and competitiveness as a leader in American higher education.

Last fall, Virginia Wesleyan announced the development of the Batten Honors College, which will provide a transformative experience for high-achieving students and offer full-tuition scholarships to an eventual cohort of 80 Batten Fellows. It will equip students with the knowledge, skills, and attitudes of an ethical, thoughtful, and influential global citizen who understands the complexity of contemporary society, our interdependence with the natural world, and the interrelatedness of society, culture, economics, and the environment. The first cohort of the Batten Honors College will begin in fall 2017.

Construction is 80 percent complete on the 40,000-square-foot Greer Environmental Sciences Center, scheduled for completion in summer 2017. It will provide unprecedented opportunities for students in state-of-the-art instructional and laboratory facilities and foster regional collaboration with organizations such as the Chesapeake Bay Foundation's Brock Environmental Center, the Virginia Aquarium and the Virginia Institute for Marine Science (VIMS). The Greer Environmental Sciences Center will feature sophisticated indoor and outdoor learning spaces that embody "science on display" and promote hands-on experiences, interactive learning and interdisciplinary research.

We also broke ground in December 2016 for a joint partnership facility with the YMCA of South Hampton Roads. As a college growing and reaching out to the community for new collaborative opportunities, we are especially honored to join the YMCA. The "Frank Blocker Youth Center" will serve the Y's well-respected programs and Virginia Wesleyan's expanding academic and conference needs.

Another important facility that will benefit the entire institution and the community is the new Goode Fine and Performing Arts Center. Virginia Wesleyan's rich program of cultural events, performances, lectures, presentations, exhibits, and concerts will benefit from a new, fully equipped home where the arts will continue to flourish on our campus. The arts are essential to the liberal education experience, and our programs in art, music, and theatre enrich not only our campus community but the wider service area of the institution.

As our College continues to grow and mature, we'll seek to further strengthen and expand our connection to the United Methodist Church and ministry in higher education. I am confident that this institution will embrace new opportunities and make exceptional contributions to all who look to us for leadership. From its first days into the present and beyond, Virginia Wesleyan has been in partnership with the Church—our United Methodist heritage is strong, influential, and growing.

ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED MINISTERS AND SPOUSES (ARMS)

ARMS is an association of retired clergy, spouses, and surviving spouses in the Virginia Conference that promotes fellowship, encouragement, support, learning, and sharing. ARMS provides a voice for retirees by facilitating vital connections with each other and the church. All retired clergy, spouses, and surviving spouses are members of ARMS.

The main ARMS event has traditionally been an annual fall retreat. The keynote speaker for our 2016 retreat was Bishop Tim Whitaker, who gave us a look at the Early Church Fathers. As usual, the retreat also featured great worship, inspiring music, and wonderful fellowship. Leigh Anne Taylor, Minister of Music at Blacksburg UMC, led a highly participatory music program at the retreat. Our next retreat is scheduled for October 11 and 12th at Eagle Eyrie. Retreat brochures are available at the ARMS Display Table, the Retiree Banquet, and from VUMAC. Rev. Larry Jent will be our key note speaker.

We also look forward to our Annual ARMS Retirees Banquet where we have the opportunity to present and congratulate our new clergy and their spouses who retired that after at Annual Conference.

Retired clergy and spouses are encouraged to stay in touch through the ARMS newsletter To Arms and electronically through the conference Retiree Net.

PREACHERS' RELIEF SOCIETY

Since it was first chartered in 1870 by the state of North Carolina when the Virginia Conference extended into that state (It was chartered in Virginia in 1884), the Preachers' Relief Society has been providing grants to clergy families facing financial emergencies. During 2016 the Society assisted three families. It was glad to assist these, but it is also glad that only three needed to apply for help, the lowest number in recent memory.

At the annual meeting of the Society in November, K. Dane Mills retired as treasurer of the Society and indicated that he would retire as a director at the 2017 annual conference. Unexpectedly Dane died in February. Dane was dedicated to the work of the Society. He not only served as treasurer and as a member of the executive committee but provided legal counsel when needed. All of us who worked with him not only appreciated his dedication and the thoughtful input he brought to issues, but are thankful for the privilege of having known and served with him.

Larry Field who served for many years as financial advisor to the Society retired at the end of 2015. Much of the financial growth and stability of the Society can be attributed to Larry's good advice. We are indebted to him. Donald R. Watson has taken his place. Those wishing to contribute to the work of the Society may contact him at dwatson@bbtscottstringfellow.com or may contact our treasurer, the Rev. Robert F. Cofield, Jr.

at bcfield2@hotmail.com. Those needing assistance should apply through their district superintendent.

The current directors of the Society are: Robert T. Casey, president; Edward Lilly, vice-president; James R. Bergdoll, secretary; Robert F. Cofield, Jr., treasurer; Robert N. Baker, III; Sallye Bowen; Katherine Kidwell; and Harold E. White, Sr.

RETIRED CLERGY HOUSING CORPORATION

The Retired Clergy Housing Corporation (RCHC) was founded in 1932 and for many years was known as the Home Corporation. The purpose of the Retired Clergy Housing Corporation is to provide housing for needy retired clergy of the Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, for their widows, widowers and dependent children.

RCHC owns 21 single family homes throughout the Commonwealth that are made available to eligible retired clergy persons at an affordable monthly fee. The RCHC is an independent not-for profit corporation with a board of directors made up of clergy and lay persons. In July of 2016, RCHC contracted with Virginia United Methodist Homes, Inc. to provide day to day management services to RCHC. For the past year the board of directors has been actively involved in updating by-laws, policies and procedures to ensure the future of the organization.

—Rev. Charles Wickham, Chairperson

VIRGINIA UNITED METHODIST HOUSING DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

The Virginia United Methodist Housing Development Corporation (“VUMHDC”) is a covenant partner with the Virginia Annual Conference with the mission to offer affordable housing to the disabled, moderate income, and senior population. The goal of VUMHDC is to build or purchase at least one new facility a year. We are pledged to maintain alignment of our program with the Virginia Conference as we continue this mission.

The Housing Corporation is the full owner of 18 projects and a partial owner in another 20 affordable housing efforts. In total, VUMHDC has over 2000 apartment units across the conference with an approximate value of $50,000,000. We reached this achievement without receiving financial support from the Annual Conference for construction, maintenance, or ongoing development. VUMHDC is funded entirely through project proceeds, HUD grants, tax credits, community partnerships, and revitalization money. Annual financial records are filed with the Conference Treasurer’s office.

We wish to honor our founding president, the Reverend Robert Regan, who served as president of the board of directors from 1975-2010. And we honor our recent past president, Dr. Julius (“Mal”) Malinowski. Mal joined the Board of Directors in 2008 and upon the retirement of Rev. Regan was elected president of the corporation. Mal was instrumental in the life and work of the Corporation until his retiring in November 2016. The board wishes to express our thanks to Mal Malinowski for his leadership and direction.

The board recently elected our third president in our 42-year history, Lawrence B. (“Larry”) Dickenson, a member and lay leader of Raleigh Court UMC in Roanoke. Larry has taken leadership with gusto. He will lead VUMHDC with deliberate direction and transparency as it enters into the next phase of service.

In this conference year, we expect to begin a comprehensive renovation of a facility in Staunton, provide targeted upgrades for two other projects, begin a partnership with the James River District to develop an affordable housing project which will hold a new church start in Windsor, and shepherd our existing properties keeping to the mission of VUMHDC.

—James G. O’Quinn, D.Min., Vice President VUMHDC

THE UNITED METHODIST CREDIT UNION

John Wesley was among the first to organize financial cooperatives among the faithful in the Methodist movement and it is in the spirit of Wesley that in 1952 a group of Virginia clergy established our credit union to pool their financial resources to help each other. As we celebrate 65 years of service in 2017, our name has changed to The United Methodist Credit Union and we are now serving other United Methodist Conferences including: North Carolina, Virginia, Western North Carolina, West Virginia and Baltimore-Washington (churches and organizations).

We are a full service financial institution and we operate solely to serve the financial needs of our member owners. Our all volunteer board of directors is comprised of a cross section of lay and clergy. We help our members by providing quality financial products and services, including savings and checking accounts, loans, Visa rewards credit cards, online services and resources to assist our members with personal financial management. We offer SnapLoan, an educational line of credit for college and seminary students. We partner with conference churches to establish Jubilee Assistance Funds; a program that assists churches with short term loans to help their church members who may be experiencing a financial emergency. We are partnered with a financial services firm that can assist our members with college planning/529s, annuities, long term care and saving for retirement.

Our church loan program helps conference churches with the refinance of current loans, loans for parsonages, renovations, and vans and buses. We also offer project loans (up to $50,000 unsecured) and Visa rewards credit cards for church business.

Our goal is to be a primary resource for encouraging sound stewardship principles and helping United Methodist churches, individuals and institutions “to earn all they can and save all they can so they can give all they can” as servants of Christ in the world.

—Alvin J. Horton, Chair of the Board

VIRGINIA CHAPTER PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION OF UNITED METHODIST CHURCH SECRETARIES

The purpose of the Professional Association of United Methodist Church Secretaries (PAUMCS) is to provide a supportive base for the unity and fellowship of its members in order to provide individual growth, professional development, continuous education and spiritual enrichment. PAUMCS promotes and encourages the training and support of United Methodist church secretaries; serves as an advocate for emerging concerns that affect church secretaries; encourages and assists in the establishment of chapters of church secretaries and staff, within or across jurisdictional and annual conference boundaries, and assists in coordinating the program and work of these chapters.

Legislation was adopted at the 1988 General Conference which states that the General Conference of Finance and Administration (GCFA) has the authority and responsibility to provide guidance and consultation for continuing education of church secretaries, including establishment of professional standards, training and certification programs and to provide assistance to PAUMCS (2016 Book of Discipline, ¶807.18).

The Virginia Chapter of PAUMCS sponsors two meetings during the year: a one-day fall training event and an all-day spring retreat event. Members are persons presently or previously, full-time or part-time, paid or volunteer, engaged in administrative work in any local church or agency of The United Methodist Church.

Highlights of Virginia PAUMCS activities in 2016-2017 include a six-page mailing sent to the administrative staff of the 1,200 charges of the Virginia Conference and the fall "Experience Your Conference Connection" event held in November. This gathering featured Cheryl Edley-Worford, Director of the Virginia Conference UMC Center for Inclusivity and Lay Leadership Excellence. "Person-to-Person" was the title for our session. Led by Cheryl, we explored tools for living the abundant life we were designed for through developing healthy, loving relationships with God, self, and others.

Our spring training/retreat event was held at Fredericksburg UMC in late May, "Get Away From It All" was led by the Rev. Larry Davies and Fredericksburg District Superintendent Ted Smith. "Pastoral Transitions" included information to help us as Administrative Church Professionals to make healthy transitions as we find ourselves filled with both anticipation and sorrow for the preparation involved with ending relationships and new beginnings. Attendees also valued the networking and spiritual component of this time together.

VAPAUMCS is excited that the Committee on Rules is recommending to the 2017 Annual Conference that our organization now be recognized in the Virginia Conference Standing Rules as an Administrative Agency of the conference.

If you have administrative staff in your church, either paid or volunteer, we encourage you to help them become a part of Virginia PAUMCS for their professional growth, to the benefit of your church!

The Old Stone Church Foundation

The Old Stone Church Foundation was established by the Virginia Conference Historical Society in 1974 to be responsible for the care and preservation of Methodism's Old Stone Church site in Leesburg, the first Methodist owned property in America. Members of the foundation help support this mission and we are grateful for those who maintain their membership in the foundation year after year. Our Brick Prayer Garden continue to grow.

The annual meeting was held at Leesburg UMC on September 10, 2016. Board members elected were: Charles Williams, Lou Legard, Shirlita

West, Dennis Hanrahan, John Creamer, Ralph Carver, Michael Browder and James Roberts. It was an afternoon of celebration and contemplation at the historic Old Stone Church Site following our annual meeting. One hundred and thirty-two United Methodists from around the Virginia Conference — including our new bishop — Rev Sharma D Lewis — proudly marked the event of 250 years.

— Charles Williams, President

William Watters Foundation

The William Watters Foundation was established by the Virginia Conference Historical Society in 1996 to protect and preserve the small Adams-Wren-Watters cemetery in McLean, Virginia. William Watters, the first American born itinerant Methodist Minister, and his wife are buried there. The cemetery, a circular plot 90 feet in diameter and one-quarter acre in area, is located at 6430 Linway Terrace (off Old Dominion Drive) McLean, VA. It has been registered as the United Methodist Historical Site #7 since 1970.

David Todd, a member of Trinity UMC McLean, working on his Eagle Scout Project refurbished the wrought iron fence surrounding the obelisk.

William Watters now has a website thanks to Myra Lindsey. The address is: WattersFoundation@vaumc.org. The home page is: www.vaumc.org/williamwattersfoundation.

THE VIRGINIA UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION

“Serving God does make us very rich, if we are satisfied with what we have.

For we brought nothing into this world, so we can take nothing out ...

Command those who are rich with things of this world not to be proud, but to hope in God, not in their uncertain riches. God richly gives us everything to enjoy.

Tell them to do good, to be rich in doing good deeds, to be generous and ready to share.

By doing that, they will be saving a treasure for themselves as a strong foundation for the future.” — I Timothy 6:6-7, 17-19

Your perspective is the way you see something. If you think that toys corrupt children’s minds, then from your perspective a toy shop is an evil place.

Perspective has a Latin root meaning “look through” or “perceive”, and all the meanings of perspective have something to do with looking. If you observe the world from a dog’s perspective, you see through the dog’s eyes. In art, perspective gives your drawing the appearance of depth or distance. If we say someone “has perspective,” we mean she has a sensible outlook on life.

Our approach to finances and stewardship is also a matter of perspective. Living. Giving. Sharing. Saving. Our perspective is impacted by how we were raised, or how we view needs vs. wants, or how we choose to live and give, or how we perceive threats in society. Our perspective is never neutral, and is often shaped by events around us.

The Apostle Paul sought to give counsel to his ‘son in the Lord’, Timothy, about the importance of a proper perspective toward life and wealth, giving and saving. The thread of his advice was that “life is short”, “wealth is temporary and uncertain”, and “sharing creates a timeless impact.”

At the core of building endowments is the weaving of those thoughts together into a strong cord. An endowment is focused on the long haul — not the immediate need. An investment is planning for the future and setting aside to meet its uncertainties with wise planning. Its perspective is to create a resource that can feed the hungry for now and later or to minister hope and healing to coming generations — to leave a lasting legacy that continues its impact!

Over the past year, the Virginia United Methodist Foundation served churches and donors across the Conference in creating ministries for the future. Our perspective is governed by our mission statement: Stewarding Potential to build His kingdom! Our service to local churches is helping them think and discern about ministry into the future. Our service to individuals is focused how they can plan and prepare for future impact through their giving and saving. For each, it is quantifying their POTENTIAL and maximizing their STEWARDSHIP with a view toward God’s ultimate purpose! It may be ...

- A church who received a sizeable bequest and invited our staff to assist in discerning and strategizing what God was calling the church to do in mission — and how these new resources could be effective in opening doors and extending ministry.
- An investor who served their church through a major building project and made a significant gift of highly appreciated stock to fulfill a pledge commitment to support ministry in the coming year.
- A district that worked through the process of re-purposing and selling a church property. Then, following the sale, they sought counsel on how to steward those funds to develop new ministry initiatives in their district.
- A church who sold their parsonage and invested those funds with the Foundation, so that they could provide a housing allowance for their pastor.
- A couple who saved and invested carefully for years have now caught the vision of missional investing with the Development Company. Their investment helped reduce their church’s mortgage interest rate while they received increased fixed income to meet their monthly expenses.
- A grant through the Foundation that helps provide support for a skate park ministry outreach in one community and ‘on the job’ training program in another community — both with a focus on being the hands of Christ in providing services to needy and disadvantaged in their community.
- A couple who share a missional alignment with a UM agency created a personal endowment to benefit that ministry. Their heart perspective is to ‘do their giving while their living, so they’re knowing where it’s going.’

Each of these witness a perspective built on sacrifice and service with a goal toward Kingdom impact. Their potential is long-term and their strategy is stewarding to meet immediate needs and make an imprint on others through their planning and giving. The Virginia United Methodist Foundation exists to serve congregations and congregants in perceiving their potential impact – current and future – by leveraging their current resources.

Foundation assets continue to grow as services and staff expand to meet the needs of donors and churches. Since 2011, both the number of churches served and the assets managed have more than doubled!

Account Type	Count	Value as of 12/31/2016
Local church-related accounts	227	$37,365,197
Endowment	89	7,234,295
District and Agency funds	31	10,842,712
Foundation-controlled funds	3	592,551
Charitable Gift Annuities	45	532,777
Total	395	$56,034,755

Our vision is to sharpen our perspective while we strengthen our service in helping create lasting ministries through strategic planning, continuing education, capital campaigns and effective stewardship. The role of the Foundation is to educate and elevate the importance of charitable gift planning in endowing the church’s vision into the future. Our commitment is to live out our Core Values with a vision for relevant ministry that leaves a lasting legacy for generations to come. I am grateful for each fund – large and small – and each church relationship – urban or rural – where we serve as a fiduciary and assist in fulfilling their mission and vision.

Capture the potential for impact! Catch the wave of generosity! Create a fresh perspective for eternity!

Stewarding Potential to Build His Kingdom

In a past political campaign, one candidate’s appeal was: “It’s all about the economy, stupid!” People caught the rationale related to their feelings or perspective on forces and finances that appeared beyond their grasp.

A telescope helps to bring far away objects into perspective and become near, while a microscope makes the tiny become perceptible. Helping church leadership discern how to manage short-term assets and prepare for long-term loans requires different lens. At the core of managing time-based deposits is the need for liquidity and often an aversion to risk and volatility. By contrast, a church loan for a major capital expansion is often a long-term commitment based on envisioning its mission and ministry 10-20 years into the future. Both require clear vision on potential and purpose for both investment and expansion. It’s all about balancing perspective!

Over the past year, the Virginia United Methodist Development Company, LLC, has expanded its reach with loans to more than 20 churches across the Conference and impacted more than 16,000 Methodists. Thanks to 316 churches, agencies and individuals who have become investors in the Development Company, we have been able to make a difference by helping them with church extension loan financing. These churches are now saving more than $620,000 in debt service and, thereby, increasing their operational cash flow to enable them to expand their local ministry outreach!

Our impact can be seen with:

- Helping a church in the Farmville District with a short-term remodeling loan and a capital campaign to engage donors in their support.
- A re-finance loan for a church whose loan interest rate was the highest in the conference and was impeding their ability to maintain their budget or pay apportionments.
- Equipping a church in the Alexandria District to launch a comprehensive strategy for donor engagement to cover expanded ministry and reduce debt on their new building.
- A combo loan for a church in the Elizabeth River District who sought to re-finance a previous loan while planning for facility expansion with a multi-purpose community center.
- Initiating a capital campaign for a church in the Richmond District as they plan for a major facility expansion to reach their growing community

These are just a few of the examples of how your investments enable the Development Company to fulfill its mission: Stewarding Potential to build His kingdom! As a connectional ministry, our goal is to help local churches become effective stewards of the resources entrusted – both building and budget – and re-envision their impact in mission and ministry in their local community. Each loan has a unique story of connecting with their community and impacting lives as the hands and feet of Christ.

The Development Fund is a registered Offering with the Commonwealth of Virginia. Although investments are not insured, they are safeguarded through strict investment and lending policies, healthy collateral coverage on its loans and strong oversight by its board and competent staff. The Development Company offers construction loans with terms up to one year. Permanent loans with terms of five years and amortization up to 30 years are also available. Our purpose is to enable United Methodist investors to fund church capital improvement loans. Deposits continue to grow though not sufficient to meet the loan demand. Our continuing prayer for the coming year is increased participation in the deposits to help meet the loan demand! Thereby, our motto: United Methodists Investing to Impact Virginia!

In 2016, the Development Company realized significant growth in investments and loans. As of December 31:

Deposits	$19,337,566
Total Assets	$20,076,267
Total Outstanding Loans	$17,307,945
Loan Commitments for future	$5,375,000
Loan to Collateral Value	38.42%

Our focused perspective remains: Strengthening the local church to expand ministry in its community through effective planning and ongoing consultation as we manage assets and provide support to fulfill its enduring local mission!

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – I

On May 16, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 746 Yes, 56 No (Calendar Item 121, DCA p. 2106). It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In the 2012 Book of Discipline, Division One, add a new paragraph between current ¶¶ 5 and 6:

As the Holy Scripture reveals, both men and women are made in the image of God and, therefore, men and women are of equal value in the eyes of God. The United Methodist Church recognizes it is contrary to Scripture and to logic to say that God is male or female, as maleness and femaleness are characteristics of human bodies and cultures, not characteristics of the divine. The United Methodist Church acknowledges the long history of discrimination against women and girls. The United Methodist Church shall confront and seek to eliminate discrimination against women and girls, whether in organizations or in individuals, in every facet of its life and in society at large. The United Methodist Church shall work collaboratively with others to address concerns that threaten the cause of women's and girl's equality and well-being.

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, this would become the new ¶6, and the current ¶¶ 6-61 would be renumbered as ¶¶ 7-62.

AND

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – II

On May 20, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 509 Yes, 242 No (Calendar Item 429, DCA p. 2212). It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In the 2012 Book of Discipline, Division One, ¶4, Article IV, amend by deletion and addition as follows:

After "all persons" delete "without regard to race, color, national origin, status, or economic condition". After "because of race, color, national origin," delete "status," and add "ability". At the end of the paragraph, add "nor shall any member be denied access to an equal place in the life, worship, and governance of the Church because of race, color, gender, national origin, ability, age, marital status, or economic condition."

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 4 would read:

The United Methodist Church is part of the church universal, which is one Body in Christ. The United Methodist Church acknowledges that all persons are of sacred worth. All persons shall be eligible to attend its worship services, participate in its programs, receive the sacraments, upon baptism be admitted as baptized members, and upon taking vows declaring the Christian faith, become professing members in any local church in the connection. In the United Methodist church, no conference or other organizational unit of the Church shall be structured so as to exclude any member or any constituent body of the Church because of race, color, national origin, ability, or economic condition, nor shall any member be denied access to an equal place in the life, worship, and governance of the Church because of race, color, gender, national origin, ability, age, marital status, or economic condition.

In the 2012 Book of Discipline, Division Two, Section VI, ¶ 34, Article III, (2016 Book of Discipline, Division Two, Section VI, ¶ 34, Article III) amend by addition as follows:

After the first sentence, add, “Such elections shall include open nominations from the floor by the annual conference, and delegates shall be elected by a minimum of a simple majority of the ballots cast.”

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 34 would read:

The annual conference shall elect clergy and lay delegates to the General Conference and to its jurisdictional or central conference in the manner provided in this section, Articles IV and V. Such elections shall include open nominations from the floor by the annual conference, and delegates shall be elected by a minimum of a simple majority of the ballots cast. The persons first elected up to the number determined by the ratio for representation in the General Conference shall be representatives in that body. Additional delegates shall be elected to complete the number determined by the ratio for representation in the jurisdictional or central conference, who, together with those first elected as above, shall be delegates in the jurisdictional or central conference. The additional delegates to the jurisdictional or central conference shall in the order of their election be the reserve delegates to the General Conference. The annual conference shall also elect reserve clergy and lay delegates to the jurisdictional or central conference as it may deem desirable. These reserve clergy and lay delegates to the jurisdictional or central conferences may act as reserve delegates to the General Conference when it is evident that not enough reserve delegates are in attendance at the General Conference.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – IV

On May 20, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 621 Yes, 15 No (Calendar Item 468, DCA p. 2217). It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

To the end of the paragraph, add “provided that episcopal elections in central conferences shall be held at a regular, not an extra, session of the central conference, except in the case where an unexpected vacancy must be filled.”

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 46 would read:

The bishops shall be elected by the respective jurisdictional and central conferences and consecrated in the historic manner at such time and place as may be fixed by the General Conference for those elected by the jurisdictions and by each central conference for those elected by such central conference, provided that episcopal elections in central conferences shall be held at a regular, not an extra, session of the central conference, except in the case where an unexpected vacancy must be filled.

AND

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – V

On May 17, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 715 Yes, 79 No (Calendar Item 446, DCA p. 2214). It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In the 2012 Book of Discipline, Division Three, ¶ 50, Article VI, amend by addition, as follows:

After the last paragraph, add “These provisions shall not preclude that adoption by the General Conference of provisions for the Council of Bishops to hold its individual members accountable for their work, both as general superintendents and as presidents and residents in episcopal areas.”

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 50 would read:

The bishops, both active and retired, of The Evangelical United Brethren Church and of The Methodist Church at the time union is consummated shall be bishops of The United Methodist Church.

The bishops of The Methodist Church elected by the jurisdictions, the active bishops of The Evangelical United Brethren Church at the time of union, and bishops elected by the jurisdictions of The United Methodist Church shall have life tenure. Each bishop elected by a central conference of The Methodist Church shall have such tenure as the central conference electing him shall have determined.⁹⁴

The jurisdictional conference shall elect a standing committee on episcopacy to consist of one clergy and one lay delegate from each annual conference, on nomination of the annual conference delegation. The committee shall review the work of the bishops, pass on their character and official administration, and report to the jurisdictional conference its findings for such action as the conference may deem appropriate within its constitutional warrant of power. The committee shall recommend the assignments of the bishops to their respective residences for final action by the jurisdictional conference.

These provisions shall not preclude that adoption by the General Conference of provisions for the Council of Bishops to hold its individual members accountable for their work, both as general superintendents and as presidents and residents in episcopal areas.

RATIONALE FOR PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

The United Methodist Church Voted General Conference May 2016

- I. (New ¶ 6) The Constitution contains a paragraph on racial justice but not one on gender justice. The language of this petition is parallel to the language of Article 5 on racial justice already in our Constitution. It is an affirmation that, as part of our core foundational beliefs, this church will forever stand against any actions, organizations or individuals that discriminate or dehumanize women and girls anywhere on this planet.
- II. (¶ 4) Adding “gender” (meaning male and female) to the Constitution affirms and protects The United Methodist Church’s commitment to gender equity throughout our worldwide connection. “Gender” is the disciplinary term for fair treatment of women and men (e.g., ¶16). The addition of the proposed final clause allows gender-specific groups like United Methodist Women and United Methodist Men.
- III. (¶ 34) The provision in ¶ 13. Article I. 2, “Delegates shall be elected in a fair and open process by the annual conferences,” is unduly vague. The addition of this one sentence to paragraph 34 of The Book of Discipline helps clarify that General Conference delegates shall be elected by the body of annual conference instead of simply being appointed by the bishop. Bishops appointing delegates without delegates being properly elected has been a practice in some central conferences.
- IV. (¶ 46) As is the case for the jurisdictions, episcopal elections in the central conferences should be held in the regular sessions of those conferences, except when unexpected vacancies occur because of the death or early retirement of one or more bishops.
- V. (¶ 50) Judicial Decision 475 ruled unconstitutional the Council of Bishops holding its individual members accountable for their work, referencing ¶ 50 of the Constitution. This legislation follows Judicial Decision 1275 requirement of a legislative resolution from General Conference so the Council of Bishops may provide oversight of its members.

RESOLUTION 1

An Appropriate Restraint on Leadership

Total Number of Pages: 2

Suggested Title: An Appropriate Restraint on Leadership

Discipline Paragraphs: Discipline ¶ 244.3, Discipline ¶ 246 Preamble

General Church Budget Implications: None

Global Implications: Yes

WHEREAS, the book of Social Principles over the years has been changing the emphasis from describing basic principles to describing solutions – for example, P160.B has changed from being a fairly general statement on the principle of Energy Resources Utilization to one specifying the individual lifestyle that should be adopted to support it;

WHEREAS, there is always more than one solution that can be implemented to support a principle;

WHEREAS, depending on a person’s worldview the ranking of solutions will be different. Specifying one solution as “the” solution to be pursued instead of another becomes divisive;

WHEREAS, depending on viewpoints different solutions can be in conflict and cannot be supported by individuals even though the underlying principle is the common point of connection;

WHEREAS, the Merriam-Webster definition of loyal for students is “Loyal: having or showing complete and constant support for someone or something”;

WHEREAS, the current requirement in the Discipline of being loyal to the ethical standards can be in conflict with the exercise of conscience of an individual which then would preclude them from being able to hold a leadership position on the church council or be a member of the church charge conference;

THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Virginia Annual Conference recommend to General Conference a change to the Discipline in P244.3 from “are loyal to the ethical standards” to “strive to follow the principles”. Thus the paragraph would change from:

P244.3 Members of the church council or alternative structure shall be persons of genuine Christian character who love the church, are morally disciplined, are committed to the mandate of inclusiveness in the life of the church, are loyal to the ethical standards of The United Methodist Church set forth in the Social Principles, and are competent to administer its affairs. It shall include youth and young adult members chosen according to the same standards as adults. All persons with vote shall be members of the local church, except where central conference legislation provides otherwise. The pastor shall be the administrative officer and, as such, shall be an ex officio member of all conferences, boards, councils, commissions, committees, and task forces, unless otherwise restricted by the Discipline.

RESOLUTION 2

Annual Conference Resolution Process

WHEREAS, the Virginia Annual Conference uses the Resolution process to change conference policy, to propose policy changes to the General Conference, and to take a stand on public issues;

WHEREAS, clergy and laity use the Resolution Process to voice concerns, make proposals, and offer ideas to our Bishop and the Virginia Annual Conference;

WHEREAS, the publication of Resolutions in the Book of Reports and their disposition at annual conference have served these purposes for many years;

WHEREAS, Resolutions in written form are sent to all delegates about one month prior to conference and authors or representatives are given five minutes to speak to the conference, no equivalent written and verbal opportunity is given to delegates with an opposing view;

WHEREAS, there is little evidence that the current Resolution process contributes to making disciples of Jesus Christ or transforming the world;

WHEREAS, the existing Resolution process could be improved in the short run with technical solutions, solutions for the long run must have the flexibility to respond quickly to changing conditions and requirements;

WHEREAS, long-range, adaptive change is hard, the Resolution Process as it exists today does not provide useful tools, such as holy conferencing, finding common ground, and reaching consensus, that have the ability to lead us to common cause and united effort;

WHEREAS, the Resolution Process transforms our conference into a committee of more than 2000 voters that meets annually to conduct the conference’s business, an annual meeting is ill equipped to take action on time-sensitive, urgent matters arising throughout the year;

THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Virginia Annual Conference asks our Bishop to form a team with the mission of: 1) Developing a plan for resolving the concerns and proposals of the clergy and laity in this annual conference; 2) Ensuring the plan provides an opportunity to reach common ground and consensus through holy conferencing; 3) Providing for an optional extension of time beyond one year; 4) Providing for timely response to urgent matters; and 5) Promoting unity. This team is to present its findings and recommendations to the 2018 Virginia Annual Conference.

Compassionate support for members of the armed forces, veterans and their families suffering from post-traumatic stress and moral injury

WHEREAS, The United Methodist Church acknowledges; “When persons choose to serve in the armed forces, we support their right to adequate care for injuries suffered, and advocate for sufficient resources to meet their physical and mental health needs, both during and after their service. We are aware that we can become guilty both by military action and by conscientious objection, and that we all are dependent on God’s forgiveness.” (§ 164 I) and

WHEREAS, the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church profess the struggles for human dignity and social reform are in response to “God’s demand for love, mercy, and justice in the light of the Kingdom.” (§ 102), as well as, the Nurture and Mission of the Church, emphasizes “the nurturing and serving function of Christian fellowship in the Church” through a personal experience of conviction, nourished by a community faith. (§ 102) and

WHEREAS, we believe that suicide is not the way a human life should end and that a Christian perspective on suicide begins with an affirmation of faith that nothing, including suicide, separates us from the love of God (Romans 8:38-39). Therefore, we deplore the condemnation of people who complete suicide, and we consider unjust the stigma that so often falls on surviving family and friends. (§ 161 N) and

WHEREAS, data released by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs, in January of 2014, estimates that, during the course of their study, 22 US veterans per day were taking their own lives. The Department concluded that the rate of veteran’s suicide “are astronomically high and climbing” according to Jan Kemp, Veterans Affairs’ National Mental Health Director for Suicide Prevention, and

WHEREAS, in recent years there has been a spike among service members and veterans in the occurrence of Post-Traumatic Stress, in the past referred to as shell shock, battle fatigue or combat stress, stemming from experiences of severe trauma or life-threatening events. With this profound stress it is normal for the mind and body to react after such events, but this normal response becomes harmful when individuals feel trapped in a cycle anxiety, anger, and shame, disconnecting from relationships of family and community. and

WHEREAS, it is the responsibility of all who seek the Kingdom of God and Kinship of Christ to preserve the dignity of all persons without regard to religion, race, nationality, or gender, and seek to enhance the quality of life in the entire community of humankind thus fulfilling an obligation to God (Matthew 25:31-40).

THEREFORE, be it resolved, that the Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church, encourages, endorses and strives to equip congregations in providing open safe spaces for active duty service members, veterans and their families to share their stories and find sanctuary within the faith community, without condemnation, judgement or the obligation of contribution or confession of faith.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Virginia Conference will appoint a task force to discern the requirements for implementing training courses to teach qualified individuals in techniques of engaging service members, veterans and their families in an atmosphere of compassionate and productive dialogue.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Church commits itself to extending its pastoral ministry to members of the armed forces, veterans and their families by providing trained clergy and qualified lay leadership in cultivating and inaugurating care groups focused on spiritual formation and healing for those suffering with post-traumatic stress and moral injury, through God’s forgiving grace.

WHEREAS

1. Virginia Conference United Methodists become familiar with the contents of the Social Principles outlined above.
2. Virginia Conference United Methodists be intentional in engaging their faith principles, respectfully and constructively, in conversations and decisions about methods used by fossil fuel extracting industries, including hydro-fracturing.
3. We urge a moratorium on hydro-fracturing for gas and oil in Virginia until the environmental issues, damage to our water supplies, and local economic impacts can be further explored.
4. We further suggest that the churches in the Virginia Conference refrain from leasing their property for oil and gas fracking until safer methods of fracking gas and oil can be found.
5. We encourage dialogue within the church so that we can to educate ourselves about how oil and gas extraction from the earth by hydrofracturing affects God’s creation in communities where fracking could occur and in communities downstream from fracking sites.
6. We direct the conference Board of Church and Society to convene meetings on the issues raised by hydrofracturing in areas near the George Washington National Forest, areas between Richmond and Charlottesville, and the Northern Neck where hydrofracturing is proposed.

It nurtures, interprets and promotes the vision of the Conference, as well as the mandates of The Book of Discipline which relate to Conference work. The Common Table lives out the values of the Conference (stated below in I.B.) in its own work, and advocates for the presence and observance of those values in the work and ministry of the Conference.

VIRGINIA CONFERENCE GUIDELINES FOR MOVING EXPENSES

A charge, district, or conference agency receiving a new clergy shall be responsible for all his/her moving expenses under the following provisions:

1. A maximum weight limit as weighed in the van of 16,000 lbs. Charges for moving goods over 16,000 lbs shall be the responsibility of the clergy.
2. A maximum allowance for cartons and packing of $500.
3. A limit of $125 for piano handling.
4. Where there is a pastor's study at the church and extra stops must be made by the mover for loading and unloading books or office equipment, a maximum allowance of not more than $165.
5. Seminarian entering the Virginia Conference from outside the conference shall be entitled to the moving expenses listed above with the limitation that the maximum total reimbursement shall be $4000.
6. Clergy other than seminarians entering the Virginia Conference from outside the Conference shall be entitled to the moving expenses listed above with the limitation that mileage-based moving expenses shall be based on the distance from the appropriate boundary of the Conference to the place of appointment.
7. Insurance (replacement value equivalency) shall be provided by the receiving church/charge for personal injury or damage to clergy family property during the move. The matter of additional insurance on furnishings above that provided by the hauler shall be the responsibility of the persons moving.
8. If more economical, moves of less than 30 miles shall be arranged at the hourly rate.
9. The Cabinet will review annually the costs of moving and update the moving allowances as necessary.
10. All churches/charges should build a moving expense fund by annual appropriations for moving expenses regardless of which year the move may be expected to occur. The Cabinet strongly urges churches/charges to budget an amount equal to 1/6 of the most recent move.
11. All moving of clergy will be done professionally and in a responsible manner.
12. Clergy are expected to secure at least two estimates for comparison. Moving estimates must be submitted to the S/PPRC of the receiving church in a prompt manner. Clergy are expected to exercise reasonable standards of stewardship when determining what items to keep/move or dispose. Unless there are physical limitations all clergy are responsible for packing of books, linens and general household effects. The new relationship between clergy and receiving congregations has a much better chance of success if the clergy family avoids the appearance of entitlement.

13. Additional information on “moving tips” is posted on the conference website.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

1. The Philosophy of and the Purpose for the Equitable Compensation Program.
 - a. “Ordained ministers are called by God to a lifetime of servant leadership in specialized ministries among the people of God. Ordained ministers are called to interpret to the Church the needs, concerns, and hopes of the world and the promise of God for creation. Within these specialized ministries, deacons are called to ministries of Word, Service (§328), Compassion, and Justice and elders are called to ministries of Service, Word, Sacrament, and Order (§332). Through these distinctive functions, ordained ministers devote themselves wholly to the work of the Church and to the up building of the ministry of all Christians. They do this through the careful study of Scripture and its faithful interpretation; through effective proclamation of the gospel and responsible administration of the sacraments; through diligent pastoral leadership of their congregations for fruitful discipleship; and by following the guidance of the Holy Spirit in witnessing beyond the congregation in the local community and to the ends of the earth. The ordained ministry is defined by its faithful commitment to servant leadership following the example of Jesus Christ, by its passion for the hallowing of life, and by its concern to link all local ministries with the widest boundaries of the Christian community.” The Book of Discipline 2016 (§139)
 - b. “It is the purpose of the commission on equitable compensation to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference by: (a) recommending conference standards for pastoral support; (b) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (c) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations; (d) submitting an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference. For pastors receiving equitable compensation, once the base compensation supplementation has been paid by the annual conference, and the minimum base compensation and base compensation supplementation has been received by the pastor, the annual conference shall have no further financial obligation or responsibility to the pastor, the charge or anyone else regarding the pastor’s compensation.” The Book of Discipline 2016 (§625.2)
 - c. Assumption of the obligations of the itinerancy, required to be made at the time of admission into the Conference, put the church under the counter obligation of providing support for the entire ministry of the church. In view of the expectation which the church holds for its clergy in the area of professional separation and competence, it is incumbent upon the church to see that compensation is adequate for the professional and personal requirements of its clergy, and that they are determined and administered in a manner appropriate to a professional understanding of the ministerial vocation.
2. Types of Equitable Compensation Support.
 - a. Minimum Compensation Support: The commission annually proposes to the Annual Conference a schedule of minimum compensation for ministers by the various statuses of conference relationship and floor schedule to be met by the charge. In approving this schedule, the Conference guarantees each of its ministers a certain minimum compensation. Unless a minister voluntarily waives this right, he/she is entitled to an appointment where the compensation, including supplements from the conference, district, and other sources will be at least the minimum for his/her category.
 - b. Compensation supplementation is support provided to charges which require support in addition to that called for by the Minimum Compensation program. Such charges fall into two groups:
 - (1) Charges with part-time or retired pastors.
 - (2) Charges where there is a need for compensation higher than the minimum.
3. Money for the Equitable Compensation Fund.
 - a. The grants and administrative expenses of the commission are borne by the Equitable Compensation Fund.
 - b. Annually the commission estimates the amount needed for Equitable Compensation grants, and with the concurrence of the Council on Finance and Administration, recommends an amount to the Annual Conference to be apportioned to the districts and charges of the conference.
 - c. As set forth in The Book of Discipline 2016 (§622) “When the apportionments for bishops, district superintendents, conference claimants, and the Equitable Compensation Fund for the several districts and charges have been determined, payments made to the same in each pastoral charge shall be exactly proportional to the amount paid on the clergy base compensation. (§818.3) The treasurer or treasurers of each pastoral charge shall accordingly make proportional distribution of the funds raised in that charge for the support of the ordained ministry and shall remit monthly if practicable and quarterly at the latest the items for bishops, district superintendents, conference claimants, and the Equitable Compensation Fund to the proper treasurer or treasurers.”
4. For Equitable Compensation purposes, the term “compensation” includes the amounts of ministerial support designated as salary and accountable reimbursement.
5. The Minimum Compensation Schedule, including the Floor, shall be recommended by the commission and the schedule, as approved by the Annual Conference, shall be published in the conference Journal.
6. Eligibility for Minimum Compensation Support.
 - a. The clergy must be rendering full-time service, that is their efforts must fully satisfy the Disciplinary description of the office of the minister and they must, in the judgment of his/her district superintendent, be rendering full-time service to the charge to which they have been appointed as pastor or associate pastor.
 - b. The “floor” is the minimum the charge must pay (obtained from sources other than Equitable Compensation Fund) in order to be eligible to receive minimum salary support.

7. Eligibility for Salary Supplementation.
 - a. All charges are eligible with special considerations made for ethnic pastors serving ethnic ministries.
 - b. The application must be supported by a recommendation of the district superintendent.
 - c. The commission strongly discourages applications from charges whose compensation is above the Conference Average Compensation (CAC).
8. Charges receiving support from the Equitable Compensation Commission are encouraged to take steps regularly toward becoming self-supporting and toward the increasing of the total level of support of their ministers. The following actions should encourage these steps:
 - a. The district superintendents will annually review each application for Equitable Compensation aid with the appropriate charge conference.
 - b. Equitable Compensation aid to each full-time pastor will be reduced $1 for each $2 increase established and paid by the charge. When salary paid by the church exceeds the minimum applicable level the Equitable Compensation support will cease, unless the Equitable Compensation Commission waives this requirement under special circumstances.
9. How applications for aid are submitted.
 - a. All applications shall be submitted on forms provided by the commission.
 - b. Applications shall include the name and district of the charge, the number of churches on the charge, the name and ministerial category of the minister, a statement of whether the minister is serving full or part time, together with all amounts of ministerial support listed by source both for the period ending and the period beginning. The application shall state the total salary needed for the minister and the amount of aid necessary to obtain that total.
 - c. Applications shall be prepared, signed by the chair of the staff-parish relationship committee of the charge and the district superintendent.
 - d. A copy of the current church/charge budget must be submitted with the application along with a copy of the most recent audited financial statements.
 - e. Applications shall be submitted to the conference treasurer who shall provide each member of the commission with a copy of each application at least one week before the meeting at which the application will be considered.
 - f. Applications are generally submitted in February and May for support to begin on July 1st. Mid-appointment year requests are submitted by October 31st. The deadline for such applications is listed each year in the Conference Calendar.
10. How appropriations are made.
 - a. The Commission meets twice during the appointment-making process in conjunction with the Cabinet's schedule to review applications for Equitable Compensation Grants. The Commission also meets in November to review any mid-appointment year requests.
 - b. Requirements which a charge must meet in order to receive Minimum Compensation Support may be waived by a two-thirds vote of the commission.
 - c. Compensation Supplementation will be granted by action of the commission on recommendations of the district superintendent in the categories described in Paragraph 7.
11. Methods of Payment.
 - a. Minimum compensation support and supplementation will be paid through Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) by the conference treasurer to the charge receiving aid by the 10th day of each month.
 - b. If a charge fails to maintain a current status on Pension payments to VUMPI, the Conference Treasurer's Office shall send the Equitable Compensation Support directly to VUMPI until such arrearages are satisfied.
 - c. The commission chairperson shall keep the conference treasurer regularly informed as to the appropriations made by the commission and any changes in payments which may be necessary because of appointments or changes in ministerial status.

Updated 7/1/2016

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION GUIDELINES

The commission, at the request of the Bishop and the Cabinet, developed guidelines for requests, approval and time periods for supplementation provided by conference funds. It is felt that these guidelines will provide a uniform standard across the conference in support of the various charges that may require funds.

I. New Requests

A. New Growth Situation Request/New Churches

1. Request must be approved by the District Board of Church Location and Building.
2. Request with the written District Board of Church Location approval giving rational for the request should be received by the November Equitable Compensation meeting in order to be approved for the following appointment year.

3. Will be funded according to the following formula:

- 100% for first 18 months (e.g., July 2006 through Dec. 2007)
- 80% second full calendar year
- 60% third full calendar year
- continued reduction at 20% per year

B. New Mission/Ethnic Churches

1. Request must be approved by the District Board of Church Location and Building.

2. Request with the written District Board of Church Location approval giving rationale for the request should be received by the November Equitable Compensation meeting in order to be approved for the following appointment year.

3. Will be funded according to the following formula:

- 100% for first 30 months (e.g., July 2006 through Dec. 2008)
- 85% third full calendar year
- 70% fourth full calendar year
- continued reduction at 15% per year

It is suggested that if a new church or mission is not expected to be self-sufficient at the end of this time, that alternate funding sources be identified (i.e. district or sponsoring churches) while a new church is in the planning stages.

II. Ongoing Requests

All churches requesting Equitable Compensation assistance, who are presently receiving Equitable Compensation assistance, must have a yearly stewardship campaign, and submit Table I and II of the Year-End Reports, the Dec. 31 year-end treasurer's report and are asked to adhere to the following schedules:

A. Ongoing "Maintenance" churches

All churches in the "Maintenance Category" should make every attempt to be off Equitable Compensation at the end of five years. In order to do this, the commission asks that any request be reduced at least 20% from the present year's request as follows:

- 100% (present year)
- 80% second year
- 60% third year
- 40% fourth year
- 20% fifth year

If a church cannot adhere to this schedule, letters detailing the reasons must be submitted each year by the District Superintendent and the Church Council of the church/charge receiving Equitable Compensation assistance.

B. Ongoing Ethnic Minority/Mission Churches

All churches in the "Ethnic Minority/Mission Categories" should make every attempt to be off Equitable Compensation at the rate of 10% a year, whether by becoming self-sufficient or by developing new forms of funding. The suggested schedule is as follows:

- 100% (present year)
- 90% second year
- 80% third year
- Continued reduction at 10% per year

If a church cannot adhere to this schedule, letters detailing the reasons must be submitted each year by the District Superintendent and the Church Council of the church/charge receiving Equitable Compensation assistance.

MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR THE PARSONAGE

The 2012 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church states that the Church Council shall "review the recommendation of the committee on pastor-parish relations regarding provision of adequate housing for the pastor(s), and report the same to the charge conference for approval. Housing provisions shall comply with the annual conference housing policy and parsonage standards. Housing shall not be considered as part of compensation or remuneration." (§252.4e)

The Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee also has consultative power and responsibilities for the parsonage (§258.2g(16)). This committee is to consult with the Church Council to provide for "housing (which may be a church-owned parsonage or housing allowance in lieu of parsonage if in compliance with the policy of the annual conference)." This paragraph also includes these words: "The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the pastor's family as the property of the church and by the church as a place of privacy for the pastor's family. The committee will follow up to assure timely resolution of parsonage problems affecting the health of the pastor or pastor's family. The chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, the chairperson of the board of trustees, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to assure proper maintenance."

The Board of Trustees of the local church is charged with supervision, oversight and care of property, including the church-owned parsonage. The Charge Conference may assign some of these duties to the chair of a Parsonage Committee.

I. The House

A. Ownership: The parsonage is acquired and maintained by the charge, subject to the direction of the Charge Conference. The location, purchase, and/or building of a parsonage must be approved by the District Board of Church Location and Building. (§2544)

B. Title to Property: The parsonage property must be held by the charge Board of Trustees in trust for the use and occupancy of pastors in the United Methodist Church. (§2503.2)

C. Location: The parsonage of a station church should be located within the geographical parish of the church. The parsonage of a charge should be near the center of the charge and accessible to members. It should be convenient to a school, a shopping area, and church of the charge. Preferably parsonages should not be located immediately adjacent to the church, so that the pastor's family will be ensured reasonable privacy. Such location also facilitates resale.

D. Planning and Financing: The purchase or building plan must be approved by the Charge Conference after 10 days' notice of the meeting. The pastor, district superintendent, and the district Board of Church Location and Building must consent to the purchase. Provisions of the Book of Discipline must be observed. The sale or relocation must conform to guidelines in the Discipline.

E. Administration: The Discipline requires the Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee to see that the Trustees provide adequate and comfortable residence for the pastor and maintain its proper upkeep and furnishings. "The chairperson of the Trustees or the chairperson of the parsonage committee if one exists, the chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to ensure proper maintenance.” (§2533.4 and §258.2g(16)). The pastor’s family should be consulted in the selection of equipment, fixtures, and color schemes. (See Annual Review Inventory form). The Annual Review Inventory Report shall be submitted to the District Superintendent and will be reviewed by the Parsonages’ Support Committee.

The Trustees’ annual budget should be adequate to provide maintenance of the parsonage and necessary replacement of furnishings for which the Trustees have responsibility.

Since insurance carried by the church will not cover personal effects of the parsonage family, the family is urged to secure a tenant’s policy.

F. Inventory: A complete inventory of all furnishings, and equipment shall be maintained, one copy with the Pastor-Staff Parish Relations Committee and/or the Trustees, a second copy with the parsonage family, and a third copy for the district superintendent attached to the Annual Review Inventory. This inventory should include the purchase date of items listed, purchase price, and any major repair work done on each. Condition of furnishings at the time of the annual review should be noted. (See Parsonage Inventory Form)

II. House Arrangement and Equipment

A. Minimum Size: The living room shall measure at least 280 square feet; or living and dining room combination shall be 330 square feet. Bedrooms shall measure no less than 144 square feet each, with one not less than 168 square feet.

B. Rooms: The parsonage should have a minimum of seven rooms: at least three bedrooms with ample closet space in each, living room, dining room, kitchen, study (if not furnished outside the parsonage), at least 1½ baths, and ample dry storage space large enough for major pieces of furniture and large packing boxes. An additional bedroom, a family room, a utility room, and a garage are also desirable. If a pastor’s office is included, it should be on the first floor with an outside entrance or entry from front hall or both or on the terrace level with outside entry. Usual office furnishings, telephone, bookshelves, and a storage closet for supplies should be provided.

Newly constructed or newly purchased parsonages shall include on the ground floor level one room which could be used as a bedroom by a person with a handicapping condition, a fully accessible bathroom and laundry facilities. (§2533.6)

C. Housing Necessities:

- Central heating plant
- Complete insulation, including weather stripping, storm windows, ceiling, sidewall and floor insulation. Carpeting is desirable as a further means of insulation.
- Central air conditioning is desirable everywhere, and a necessity in some areas of the conference.
- Annual servicing of all heating and air conditioning equipment.
- At least one telephone jack on each floor.
- Dead bolt locks on all exterior doors.
- Smoke detectors and fire extinguishers.
- Housing must be maintained free of health hazards.
- Exterminator/pest control service and an annual termite inspection.
- All major appliances, including washer, dryer, stove, refrigerator, automatic hot water heater.
- Kitchen: sink, built-in cabinets, a storage or supply closet, counter work surfaces, adequate electrical outlets properly grounded. Where possible, a garbage disposal and dishwasher should be provided.
- At least one telephone permanently in the house.

D. Furnishings and Maintenance:

1. Provided by the Church/Charge:

- Furniture for the parsonage living room, foyer, dining room, and kitchen shall be provided. If a parsonage has more than three bedrooms, the church/charge shall provide furnishings for all bedrooms over three. All parsonage wall-to-wall floor coverings or rugs shall be furnished by the church/charge. Regular professional cleaning shall be the responsibility of the church/charge for all living spaces furnished by church/charge.
- Window shades or blinds shall be provided in all rooms. Window treatments, and the responsibility for their maintenance/cleaning, shall be provided for the living room, dining room, and foyer.
- Adequate light fixtures/lamps shall be provided for all living spaces furnished.

2. Provided by the Pastor:

- Furniture as desired for all rooms except living room, foyer, dining room, kitchen, and bedrooms more than three.
- Window treatments as desired for rooms other than living room, foyer and dining room, as well as their maintenance/cleaning.
- Bed, bath, and kitchen linens.
- Cookware, utensils, and small appliances.
- China, crystal/glassware, flatware.
- Additional accessories such as pictures, lamps, family pieces, etc. which personalize a home.

E. Exterior

- Trees and shrubbery should be provided where needed.
- Landscaping and normal fertilization shall be the responsibility of the church/charge.
- Cutting of the lawn and trimming of the shrubs is the responsibility of the residents.
- A lawn mower, adequate for the size of the lawn, shall be provided by the church/charge.
- A TV antenna or cable hook-up should be provided.

III. General Guidelines

- A. Privacy and Care: Since the parsonage is the home of the pastor and his/her family, their rights and privacy should be respected by the congregation. The occupants must ensure that the parsonage receives proper care.
- B. Gifts: A written statement should accompany any gift of furniture or furnishings, designating whether the gift is to permanently remain at the parsonage or is a personal gift to the pastor's family. Gifts shall be received without conditions and with right of refusal.
- C. Placement of Furniture: Use and placement of church-owned furnishings within the parsonage shall be at the discretion of the parsonage occupants.
- D. When a move occurs, refer to the "Policy at the Time of Change of Pastors" below.

POLICY AT THE TIME OF CHANGE OF PASTORS

- I. The Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee will supply to the district superintendent the list of people serving on the Local Church Parsonage Committee with the chairperson's address and telephone number.
- II. The district superintendent will contact the chairperson of the Local Church Parsonage Committee asking that the committee meet at the parsonage with the pastor, pastor's spouse (if applicable), and if requested by the district superintendent, a representative from the Parsonages Support Committee to inspect the parsonage, using the following guidelines:
 - A. Check complete inventory (see Inventory for Leaving the Parsonage).
 - B. Inspect each room for needed repairs, refurbishing, paint, etc. with attention to who is accountable beyond normal wear and tear.
 - C. Inspect electrical, heating, cooling, and plumbing systems..
 - D. Evaluate conditions of structure, inside and outside, including church-owned furnishings, appliances and systems.
 - E. Pastor shall provide information about condition of appliances and systems known only to occupant.

III. After parsonage inspection by the Local Church Parsonage Committee and the pastor:

- A. The Committee will:
 - Work with the Church Council to arrange for needed repairs, refurbishing, painting, etc.
 - Floors cleaned and waxed, rugs shampooed.
 - Keep the district superintendent informed concerning condition of the parsonage.
 - Inspect parsonage again nearer moving time.
 - Check the Parsonage Inventory with the parsonage family before their departure, and with the new parsonage family upon their arrival.
 - Have a representative of the Committee at the parsonage as the parsonage family moves.
 - Make necessary last minute corrections to the parsonage before the new family arrives.
 - Make sure that all utilities remain connected, the deposit for public utilities having been made by the church/charge.
 - B. The pastor will:
 - Leave the parsonage clean. The outgoing parsonage family is responsible for leaving the house and furnishings clean and in move-in condition. This means at least:
 - No items should be left in storage areas (attic, garage, basement, shed, closets, etc.)
 - Windows washed.
 - Refrigerator emptied and cleaned.
 - Bathrooms scrubbed.
 - Stoves and vent hoods thoroughly cleaned.
 - Fireplace cleaned.

 - The parsonage family shall leave for the successor: a list of whom to call in case of.....; how to fix.....; where to find.....; and a file of guarantees, operating instructions, manuals, etc..

IV. In those instances when a clergy moves out of a parsonage and leaves the house inadequately cleaned and/or damaged, and the parsonage requires work, the expense of which is clearly the responsibility of the outgoing clergy, then the expense for such cleaning/repair shall be billed to the outgoing minister.

- A. The Local Church Parsonage Committee and two members of the Parsonages Support Committee shall inspect the parsonage on moving day or as soon as possible and decide how much of the required cleaning/repair work, if any, is the responsibility of the outgoing pastor.
- B. The outgoing pastor shall be notified immediately by telephone and registered mail. The decision should be communicated to the pastor immediately, and if the pastor be deemed wholly or partially responsible, then the cleaning/repair bill should be sent to the outgoing pastor.
- C. If, after 30 days, this bill is not paid, or arrangements made to pay it, a second notice shall be sent. If, by the end of 45 days, the bill remains unpaid, a copy of the bill and the reasons for it shall be sent to the minister's current district superintendent for assistance in securing payment.

VIRGINIA CONFERENCE STATEMENT OF INVESTMENT POLICY

Introduction

The purpose of this Statement of Investment Objectives and Guidelines is to assist in the monitoring and supervision of the assets of the Virginia United Methodist Conference (“Conference”). The funds represent the Conference funds, Foundation funds, and the funds of various local churches.

- General Investment Principles
- Objectives
- Asset Allocation Guidelines
- Investment Manager Guidelines
- Investment Performance Objectives
- Performance Monitoring
- Investment Manager Responsibilities

Investment styles covered in this document include traditional investments (e.g., bonds, large cap growth and value equity) but do not include alternative investments (e.g., hedge funds, private equity, timberland).

General Investment Principles

- The funds shall be invested with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person would use in the investment of a Foundation of like character and with like aims.
- Investments shall be so diversified so as to minimize the risk of large losses.
- The trustees may employ one or more investment managers of varying styles and philosophies to attain their objectives.
- Cash is to be employed productively at all times by investment in short-term cash equivalents to provide safety, liquidity, and return.

Investment Management Policy

- Preservation of Capital - Consistent with their respective investment styles and philosophies, investment managers should make reasonable efforts to preserve capital, understanding that losses may occur in individual securities.
- Risk Aversion - Understanding that risk is present in all types of securities and investment styles, the trustees recognize that some risk is necessary to produce long-term investment results that are sufficient to meet the stated investment objectives. However, the investment managers are to make reasonable efforts to control risk, and will be evaluated regularly to ensure that that risk assumed is commensurate with the given investment style and objectives.
- Adherence to Investment Discipline - Investment managers are expected to adhere to the investment management styles for which they were hired. Managers will be evaluated regularly for adherence to investment discipline.

Objectives

The primary objective for the funds is to achieve an average annual net rate of return of CPI + 5.5%. The investment horizon of the funds is fairly long-term in nature. However, the trustees are sensitive to severe short-term losses in the funds on an absolute and relative basis.

Social Responsibility

As defined in the 2008 Book of Discipline the Council on Finance and Administration (“Council”) shall develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures, and management services for the Annual Conference including

- Policies governing the investment of Conference funds (except for pension funds) whether in debt or equity, short-term or long-term instruments, with the aim of maximizing funds available for mission in a manner consistent with the preservation of capital and with the Social Principles of the Church. A statement of such policies shall be presented in the conference Journal.
- Authorizing the Conference Treasurer to invest in funds in accordance with policies’ and procedures established by the Council. A listing of securities held shall be printed annually in the conference Journal.

Investment Manager Guidelines

Note: The investment manager guidelines pertain to separately manager accounts. In the case of mutual funds or commingled funds, the guidelines are outlined in the fund’s prospectus or offering memorandum.

General Guidelines

Restricted Transaction

- Purchasing of securities on margin or speculative short sales.
- Borrowing of money.
- Pledging, mortgaging, or hypothecating of any securities except for loans of securities that are fully collateralized.
- Purchase of the securities of the investment managers, its parent, or its affiliates.
- Purchase or sale of futures or options for speculation or leverage.
- Purchase or sale of commodities, commodity contracts, or illiquid interest in real estate or mortgages.
- Socially Responsible Investments - It shall be the policy of The United Methodist Church that all general boards and agencies, including the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and all administrative agencies and institutions, including hospitals, homes, educational institutions, Annual Conferences, foundations, and local churches, shall, in the investment of money, make a conscious effort to invest in institutions, companies, corporations, or funds whose practices are consistent with the goals outlined in the Social Principles; and shall endeavor to avoid instruments that appear likely, directly or indirectly, to support racial discrimination, violation of human rights, sweatshop or forced labor, gambling, or the production of nuclear armaments, alcoholic beverages or tobacco, or companies dealing in pornography. The boards and agencies are to give careful consideration to shareholder advocacy, including advocacy of corporate disinvestment.

Diversification

Investment managers are responsible for achieving a level of diversification in their portfolio that is prudent and consistently applied. Concentrations in individual securities, industries and economic sectors should not be so high as to subject the overall portfolio to undue risk.

Liquidity

When purchasing a security to place in a portfolio, it is expected that each manager will consider their aggregate holdings among all of their accounts to ensure that their total position in the security will not be so large as to inhibit rapid liquidation of the security.

Cash

It is expected that the managers will run fully invested portfolios. It is not the policy of the Conference and Foundation to try to time the market. It is understood that frictional cash can be a result of the buy and sell process. However, if cash exceeds 10% of the manager's portfolio, the manager should communicate to the Foundation, Conference and its consultant in writing the reasons for the high cash level and the time frame needed to get the portfolio fully invested.

Domestic Equity Manager Guidelines

- The majority of the holdings in these portfolios should consist of domestic (U.S.) common stock. Large to medium capitalization issues are preferred. Other acceptable investments on a limited basis include preferred stock, convertible securities and cash equivalents.
- Portfolios should be diversified. Specifically, 75% of each investment manager's portfolio should be diversified to the extent that no individual security makes up more than 5% of the total assets at the current market value. Discretion may be taken in the remaining 25% of a portfolio, but the manager should not allow any one position to exceed 8% of the portfolio's total market value.
- A concentration in one economic sector (e.g., transportation) should not be so great as to exceed 30% of the manager's portfolio measured at market value or two times the benchmark index, whichever is greater.
- The manager should follow a clearly defined sell discipline.

Fixed Income Manager Guidelines

- Holdings should consist primarily of domestic (U.S.) fixed-income securities with adequate liquidity. The portfolio should maintain a weighted average portfolio quality rating of at least "A." Securities that are issued or guaranteed by the U.S. Treasury or Government agencies and instrumentalities will be considered AAA.
- The maximum position in a single issuer's securities should not exceed 5% of the portfolio's assets measured at cost or 8% of the portfolio measured at market value. Holdings in securities issued or guaranteed by the U.S. Treasury or U.S. Government agencies and instrumentalities are excepted from this restriction.
- The duration of the portfolio should be targeted to that of the Lehman Brothers Intermediate Aggregate Index. The duration may range within 20% of the duration of this index.
- Purchases should be limited to readily marketable securities.
- Purchases of securities rated below investment grade are limited to 10% of the portfolio, measured at market value, and are limited to a rating of "B" or better.
- Foreign (non-U.S. domiciled) securities denominated in U.S. dollars are limited to 10% of the portfolio, measured at market value.
- Non-U.S. dollar denominated securities are prohibited.

Investment Performance Objectives

Investment managers will be reviewed on a quantitative basis in the form of quarterly reports to be provided by the consultant. Qualitative factors will also be considered such as adherence to each manager's stated investment process, and to the policy guidelines stated in this document. Managers will be reviewed on a net of fees basis.

Large Cap Value Manager

Over a rolling three-year period, the annualized total return of the manager should exceed the annualized total return of the Russell 1000 Value Index. The manager should rank in the upper 25th percentile of a universe of similar managers for the rolling three-year period.

Large Cap Growth Manager

Over a rolling three-year period, the annualized total return of the manager should exceed the annualized total return of the Russell 1000 Growth Index. The manager should rank in the upper 25th percentile of a universe of similar managers for the rolling three-year period.

Bond Manager

Over a rolling three-year period, the annualized total return of the manager should exceed the annualized total return of the Lehman Brothers Intermediate Aggregate Index. The manager should rank in the upper 25th percentile of a universe of similar managers for the rolling three-year period.

Performance Meeting

The consultant and the Investment Committee shall monitor the overall performance of the funds to insure its meeting of its objectives. Individual manager monitoring will include the following:

Maintaining both a short-term and long-term perspective, the Consultant will evaluate whether each manager has:

- Performed satisfactorily when compared with the specific objectives for its portfolio;
- Produced results that compare favorably to other investment managers with similar portfolios; and
- Adhered to the relevant policies and objectives.

Among the events that the consultant will examine closely in its review of the investment managers are:

- Poor performance relative to objectives over a three- to five-year period,
- A change in the portfolio manager;
- The departure of one or more key investment professionals;
- Violation of an investment guideline; and
- A change in the ownership or control of the investment management organization.

Any of the above factors will result in a discussion of whether to retain an investment manager. The consultant will provide input in the discussion, but final decisions for any changes rest with the Investment Committee.

Investment Manager Responsibilities

- Submit a written request to the trustees whenever the investment manager feels that the Statement of Investment Objectives should be changed
- Provide quarterly reports describing portfolio holdings, transactions, and performance.
- Vote proxies received after careful assessment of the issues involved.
- Promptly inform the trustees and its consultant of all significant matters pertaining to the investment management of the assets of the Foundation. For example, significant changes in the ownership, affiliation, organizational structure, financial condition, and staffing of the firm.
- Be available to meet with the trustees on a reasonable basis.
- Manage the funds in accordance with the policy guidelines and objectives expressed in this document, or in a separate written agreement that has received approval from the trustees when deviation is deemed prudent and desirable.

BENEFIT PLANS PROVIDED TO CLERGY IN THE VIRGINIA CONFERENCE

Benefit plans provided to clergy in the Virginia Conference are primarily administered by Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc. (VUMPI), an independent agency of the Virginia Conference. Several of the denominational plans are administered by Wespeth Benefits and Investments (Wespeth), which is the administrative agency of The United Methodist Church charged with supervising and administering retirement plans, investment funds and health and welfare benefit plans for the benefit of active and retired clergy and lay employees of the Church. VUMPI assists Wespeth with the administration of the denominational plans and serves as an advocate and resource for Virginia Conference clergy enrolled in those plans. VUMPI (or its vendors, if applicable) is responsible for determining if a participant qualifies to receive a benefit under programs administered by VUMPI. Wespeth is responsible for determining if a participant qualifies to receive a benefit under one or more of the denominational pension, disability or life insurance plans, and what level of benefits will be payable to the participant or his or her beneficiaries.

Funding, eligibility and plan designs of the various clergy benefit programs are recommended by VUMPI for Virginia Conference approval. The following plans are administered for the benefit of Virginia Conference Clergy and eligible lay employees:

- Active Clergy Health Plan
- Retired Clergy Health Plan
- Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)
- Supplemental Life Insurance Plan
- Denominational Pension and Savings Plans
 - Pre-1982 Plan
 - Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)
 - Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)
 - United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP)
- Gift Benefit

Following are details regarding eligibility, administration and funding of the benefit programs administered by VUMPI:

ACTIVE CLERGY HEALTH PLAN

The Active Clergy Health Plan is a self insured health plan administered by VUMPI for the benefit of Virginia Conference clergy and eligible lay employees. The following are eligible for enrollment in the Active Clergy Health Plan:

- Full time clergy, including Elders, Deacons and Local Pastors, serving under episcopal appointment
- Clergy serving in full time Extension Ministry appointments in organizations controlled by The United Methodist Church, as determined by VUMPI
- Widowed spouses of active clergy that were enrolled in the active clergy health plan at the time of death are eligible to continue enrollment in the active clergy health plan until age 65, at which time their eligibility will be determined for the retired clergy health plan
- Eligible dependents of deceased active clergy that were enrolled in the active clergy health plan at the time of death are eligible to continue enrollment in the active clergy health plan until age 26
- Clergy on Medical Leave and receiving long-term disability income benefits from Wespeth are eligible for the health plan designed for clergy on medical leave with CPP benefits, subject to payment of the required participant contribution for that plan
- Clergy on Medical Leave who are not receiving long-term disability income benefits from Wespeth are eligible for the Active Clergy Health Plan for up to one year, subject to payment of the required participant contribution for the Active Clergy plan
- Clergy on Voluntary Leave of Absence or Sabbatical Leave may participate in the active clergy health plan for up to one year, provided they pay 100 percent of the Active Clergy Health Plan cost
- Student Local Pastors may participate in the active clergy health plan for up to one year, provided they pay 100 percent of the Active Clergy Health Plan cost
- Clergy appointed to attend seminary may participate in the active clergy health plan for up to one year, provided they pay 100 percent of the Active Clergy Health Plan cost

A Virginia Conference clergyperson who has retired from The United Methodist Church under ¶357 (or succeeding paragraph) of the 2016 Book of Discipline is no longer eligible to enroll in the Active Clergy Health Plan. If the clergyperson terminates his/her retired relationship to the Virginia Conference and returns to full time active appointment under an active Conference relationship status, that clergyperson and his/her spouse and eligible dependents may regain eligibility for enrollment in the Active Clergy Health Plan.

Clergy on Medical Leave and receiving long term disability income benefits from Wespath must file for and enroll in Medicare Parts A and B as soon as they become eligible in order to remain enrolled in the Active Clergy Health Plan.

The Active Clergy Health Plan is administered by VUMPI. The plan is self insured and is primarily funded by Conference resources through apportionments and contributions from plan participants. The continuation of this plan depends largely upon the ongoing ability of the Virginia Conference to finance the plan benefits. Plan design changes and participant contributions are recommended for Annual Conference approval. Due to ongoing increases in general health care costs, it should be expected that VUMPI will periodically recommend increases in the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment and personal contributions. Similarly, reductions in plan benefits may be recommended in order to reduce the overall cost of the Active Clergy Health Plan. The adoption of the Active Clergy Health Plan is not considered binding upon the Conference for more than one year at a time.

Eligible clergy and lay employees who wish to enroll in the Active Clergy Health Plan may enroll through VUMPI. Prospective enrollees may contact VUMPI at either 804-521-1100 or 1-800-768-6040.

Summary plan descriptions and additional program details regarding the Active Clergy Health Plan are available at www.vumpi.org

RETIRED CLERGY HEALTH PLAN

The health plan made available to eligible retirees of the Virginia Conference includes a plan for those retired clergy who are not yet eligible for Medicare and a separate plan for those who are eligible for and enrolled in Medicare. The plan for pre-Medicare-eligible retirees is a self insured health plan. The plan for Medicare-eligible retirees consists of a fully insured Medicare Advantage plan option and a Conference-funded Retiree Reimbursement Account option. The following are eligible for enrollment in the Retired Clergy Health Plan:

A retired Virginia Conference clergyperson whose retirement date is effective on or after January 1, 2004, is eligible to participate in the Retired Clergy Health Plan if paragraphs 1 and 2 below are satisfied.

1. A Clergy satisfies the requirements of this paragraph if he or she retires in connection with the Virginia United Methodist Conference under ¶357.1-3 of the 2016 Book of Discipline.
2. A Clergy or Diaconal Minister satisfies the requirements of this paragraph if he or she meets the criteria in either subparagraph a, b or c below:
 - a. This subparagraph is satisfied if a Clergy or Diaconal Minister is age 62 or above on the date of retirement, or has at least 30 years of service on the date of retirement, and has served the Virginia United Methodist Conference during the 10 consecutive years immediately prior to retirement in full time Episcopal appointments where the salary paying units have contributed towards the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment, or
 - b. This subparagraph is satisfied if a Clergy or Diaconal Minister is age 62 or above on the date of retirement, or has at least 30 years of service on the date of retirement, and has served the Virginia United Methodist Conference a minimum of 30 years in full time Episcopal appointments where the salary paying units have contributed towards the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment, or
 - c. This subparagraph is satisfied if a Clergy or Diaconal Minister who has served 10 years in full time Episcopal appointments with the Virginia United Methodist Conference where the salary paying units have contributed towards the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment, retires prior to age 62 with fewer than 30 years of service, or is appointed to Approved Leave, e.g., Sabbatical, Family Leave or Voluntary Leave of Absence, or is appointed to Extension Ministry (to an agency that is not eligible to participate in the Active Clergy Health Plan), or is appointed On Loan to another United Methodist Conference. A Clergy or Diaconal Minister meeting the requirements of this subparagraph maintains eligibility to enroll in the Retiree Health Plan by paying a monthly Retiree Health Plan Access Fee until the date of enrollment in the Retiree Health Plan.

The Retiree Health Plan Access Fee is determined annually by the VUMPI Board of Directors and is published in the Journal of the Virginia United Methodist Conference. Payment of the Retiree Health Plan Access Fee freezes the clergyperson's years of credit that had been accumulated prior to entering one of the above-mentioned statuses. Payment of the access fee does not constitute enrollment in the Active Clergy Health Plan or the Retired Clergy Health Plan. Additional years of credit for eligibility or the vesting and contribution schedule are not accrued while the Retiree Health Plan Access Fee is paid.

The Retiree Health Plan Access Fee must be paid monthly (unless other arrangements have been made with VUMPI, in writing and signed by both parties) until the clergyperson is eligible to enroll in the Retired Clergy Health Plan.

There was a one time open enrollment period (January 1-31, 2004) for those described in this paragraph who were not enrolled in the Active Clergy Health Plan, and who wanted to freeze their eligibility for the Retired Clergy Health Plan. If retirement occurs prior to age 62 and the retiree does not have 30 years of service, the retiree may continue enrollment in the Active Clergy Health Plan until attaining the age of 62, by paying 100 percent of the Active Clergy Health Plan cost.

At the age of 62, the retiree becomes eligible for enrollment in the Retired Clergy Health Plan, with plan eligibility and participant contributions consistent with their years of credit at retirement.

Additional points of clarification:

1. Years of credit will be determined at retirement.
2. A Year of credit equals a year served in the Virginia United Methodist Conference in a full time Episcopal Appointment where the salary paying unit was contributing towards the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment.
3. Years of service in other United Methodist conferences are not qualifying years of credit toward eligibility for the Virginia Conference Retired Clergy Health Plan.
4. Retired Clergy and Diaconal Ministers who were participating in the Virginia United Methodist Conference Retired Clergy Health Plan, as well as those active clergy who had met the Retired Clergy Health Plan eligibility criteria on or before January 1, 2004, are considered vested with 30+ total years of credit. Therefore they are eligible to enroll in the Retired Clergy Health Plan with personal contributions according to the 30+ total years of credit contribution rate.
5. Eligible dependents are those who were eligible for coverage at the time of the participant's date of retirement.
6. Retired clergy and/or their dependents that are participating in the Retired Clergy Health Plan must file for and enroll in Medicare Parts A and B as soon as they become eligible in order to receive and continue their health benefits under the Retired Clergy Health Plan.

The Retired Clergy Health Plan is administered by VUMPI. The plan is primarily funded by Conference resources through apportionments and contributions from plan participants. The continuation of this plan depends largely upon the ongoing ability of the Virginia Conference to finance the plan benefits. Plan design changes and participant contributions are recommended for Annual Conference approval. Due to ongoing increases in general health care costs, it should be expected that VUMPI will periodically recommend increases in the Retired Clergy Health Plan apportionment and personal contributions. Similarly, reductions in plan benefits may be recommended in order to reduce the overall cost of the Retired Clergy Health Plan. The adoption of the Retired Clergy Health Plan is not considered binding upon the Conference for more than one year at a time.

Eligible retirees who wish to enroll in the Retired Clergy Health Plan may enroll either through VUMPI or directly with the insurer administering the health plan for Medicare-eligible retirees, depending on the Medicare eligibility status of the retiree. Prospective enrollees may contact VUMPI at either 804-521-1100 or 1-800-768-6040 for additional details regarding enrollment in the plan.

Summary plan descriptions and additional program details regarding the Retired Clergy Health Plan are available at www.vumpi.org.

COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN

The CPP is the denominational long term disability and life insurance program administered by Wespath. Program details are as follows:

The following are eligible for long term disability and death benefits through the CPP program, subject to the limitations and exclusions specified in that program:

1. Full time Elders, Deacons and Local Pastors with compensation of at least 25% of the Denominational Average Compensation
2. Elders and Deacons appointed to 75% appointments with compensation of at least 25% of the Denominational Average Compensation
3. Clergy on Medical Leave who were actively enrolled in CPP immediately prior to entering Medical Leave status may remain enrolled in CPP at the Conference's expense for up to one year if not receiving disability benefits under CPP; clergy receiving disability benefits under CPP remain enrolled until disability benefits are terminated
4. Clergy on Sabbatical Leave or Voluntary Leave, or appointment to attend school, and who were actively enrolled in CPP immediately prior to taking the approved leave or appointment, are eligible to remain enrolled in CPP at the Conference's expense for up to one year

Continuation of CPP disability benefits is subject to ongoing evaluation of the recipient's medical condition and prognosis.

Retirees meeting certain eligibility requirements receive an ongoing CPP death benefit in retirement. To be eligible for death benefits in retirement, a clergyperson must have been covered in CPP for a specified number of years. Retirees with 25 or more years of enrollment in CPP are automatically eligible for the death benefits in retirement, and the eligibility criteria for those with fewer than 25 years in CPP is phased in with one-year increments, as detailed in the table below:

Retirement Year	CPP Enrollment Requirement for Death Benefit Eligibility
2013	6 of last 10 years
2014	7 of last 10 years
2015	8 of last 11 years
2016	9 of last 12 years
2017	10 of last 13 years
2018	11 of last 14 years
2019+	12 of last 15 years

SUPPLEMENTAL LIFE INSURANCE PLAN

VUMPI administers a Supplemental Life Insurance Plan to augment the death benefits provided through CPP. The Supplemental Life Insurance Plan includes a supplemental death benefit for qualifying active and retired clergy, as well as a voluntary life insurance plan that is fully funded by the enrollee. Clergy eligible for and enrolled in CPP are eligible for the supplemental death benefit and the voluntary life insurance plan through the Supplemental Life Insurance Plan.

The supplemental death benefit for active clergy enrolled in CPP is $25,000. This Conference Supplemental Death Benefit is payable in addition to the CPP death benefit. During retirement, a $5,000 Conference Supplemental Death Benefit will be payable to retirees who are eligible for a CPP death benefit in retirement, in addition to the CPP death benefit.

The voluntary life insurance benefit available to active clergy enrolled in CPP is available in amounts from $25,000 to $300,000. The cost of the voluntary life insurance benefit is 100% participant paid, and is subject to underwriting. The voluntary coverage is portable for those enrollees who leave the ministry or retire. In addition, dependent life is available in amounts from $10,000 to $50,000 for spousal coverage, and from $5,000 to $10,000 for children.

VUMPI will automatically enroll those who are eligible for the CPP and Supplemental Life Insurance Plan. Those desiring to enroll in voluntary life insurance coverage can enroll during VUMPI's annual open enrollment in the 4th quarter of each calendar year. Unless otherwise elected by the participant, the beneficiary will always be the spouse.

Summary plan descriptions and additional program details regarding CPP are available at www.wespath.org. Additional detail regarding the supplemental and voluntary life insurance programs is available at www.vumpi.org.

DENOMINATIONAL PENSION AND SAVINGS PLANS

VUMPI assists with the administration of the denominational pension and savings plans, which are primarily administered by Wespath. The pension and savings plans include the following:

- Pre-1982 Plan: for years of ministry served prior to 1982
- Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP): for years of ministry served from 1982 through 2006
- Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP): for years of ministry served beginning in 2007 and thereafter
- United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP): an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement savings plan for clergy and lay employees of The United Methodist Church

Participants are immediately vested in all denominational pension programs. The Pre-1982 Plan and the MPP are closed plans; no additional credit is being earned under the provisions of those plans. All clergy appointed at least 50% to a local church earn pension credit under CRSP, unless such credit is waived (clergy appointed less than full time may waive pension credit under CRSP). Clergy appointed to Extension Ministry appointments do not earn pension credit under CRSP.

Personal contributions toward a participant's UMPIP account can be made on a pre-tax, after-tax or Roth basis. Personal contributions are invested in the investment options selected by the participant.

Summary plan descriptions and additional program details regarding the denominational pension and savings programs are available at www.wespath.org.

GIFT BENEFIT

VUMPI currently elects to provide a one time $1,500 gift at the time of retirement or disability (if awarded disability benefits under the Comprehensive Protection Plan) to each clergyperson who has served at least ten years of service in a full time Virginia Annual Conference episcopal appointment in the Virginia Conference with pension credit. Further, a gift to the family of each clergyperson meeting the eligibility criteria above who dies in active service is paid in the same amount as the gift to retired or disabled clergypersons.

Benefits provided are subject to annual review. Therefore, the continuation of this plan depends largely upon the ability of the Conference to finance it. Benefits provided are approved at each Annual Conference. The adoption of this plan should not be considered binding upon the Conference for more than one year at a time. Accordingly, the terms of the Gift Benefit are subject to change by approval by Annual Conference.

VUMPI will automatically enroll those who are eligible to be in this plan. Unless otherwise elected by the participant, the beneficiary will always be the spouse.

POLICY FOR THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN, YOUTH AND VULNERABLE ADULTS

Revised and Approved by the Common Table for Church Vitality: Nov. 21, 2013

Our Wesleyan heritage calls us as United Methodists to justice and advocacy for those in our communities whose voices are often not heard or overlooked. The realities of the world around us cause us to focus in particular on the children, youth, and vulnerable adults who participate in ministries of the Virginia Conference. Among those realities is the fact that during the 2012 fiscal year for the Commonwealth of Virginia, there were 52,675 children reported to local Departments of Social Services as possible victims of abuse and/or neglect. Virginia Adult Protective Services (APS) received almost 20,000 reports of adult abuse, neglect, or exploitation during that same period (data from on-line 2012 reports: www.dss.virginia.gov).

Virginia Conference boards, agencies, and commissions are responsible for ensuring a safe environment at any and all Conference events on behalf of children, youth, and vulnerable adults. The example and teaching of Jesus tells us that every individual has talents, gifts, and undiscovered possibilities that together make the Body of Christ stronger. God values human life, intending all men, women, and children to have worth and dignity in all relationships with God and others. To this end, the Conference cares deeply about the safety and well-being of all God's children that come to us to experience God's love, especially children, youth, and those persons who fall within the definition of vulnerable adults whose disabilities, health conditions, and/or age result in the need for personal assistance, supervision, and/or other specialized programming. The conference realizes that no person, organization, board, agency, or commission can absolutely guarantee the safety and security of all people at all times. However, the conference believes that the risk of harm to the children, youth, and vulnerable adults that come to programs and events sponsored by the Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church can be reduced through the establishment of and adherence to reasonable policies and procedures.

To this end, the conference implements this "Policy for the Protection of Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Adults" (hereinafter the "Policy") for boards, agencies, and commissions in order to:

- 1) Establish reasonable procedures to reduce the risk of physical, emotional, and sexual abuse of our children, youth, and vulnerable adults as they participate in Virginia Conference events,
- 2) Protect our children, youth, and vulnerable adults; and
- 3) Protect our staff and volunteers from false allegations of misconduct.

This policy applies to all staff and volunteers, clergy or lay, who have contact with or responsibility for children, youth, and/or vulnerable adults at Conference sponsored events. This policy is not intended to supplant or replace the "Sexual Ethics Policy for Clergy, Diaconal Ministers, and Certified Lay Professionals of the Virginia Conference" (approved by the 2001 Virginia Annual Conference and updated in 2009) or "Clergy and the Reporting of Suspected Abuse or Neglect" (approved by the 2005 Virginia Annual Conference and revised in 2009), which remain in full force and effect.

THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATION

"Go out into the roads and lanes, and compel people to come in, so that my house may be filled."

Luke 14:21 (NRSV)

In the Parable of the Great Banquet, Jesus reminds us that God is in the business of inviting all people to the table, where they can be nurtured and transformed to be Christ to others. Today, we continue to recognize that each individual is a child of God and must be allowed to live free of fear, surrounded by love. As Christian adults, we must establish and maintain a nurturing, loving, safe and secure Christian environment, providing support and assistance to our children, youth, and vulnerable adults, remembering that our mandate is not only a responsibility, but an opportunity to protect the gift that God has bestowed upon us.

"A new commandment I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another." - John 13:34 (NIV)

"Blessed are your eyes, because they see; and your ears, because they hear." - Matthew 13:16

GENERAL CONFERENCE MANDATES

One aspect of fulfilling our baptismal promise to care for children, youth, and vulnerable adults means to "surround these persons with a community of love and forgiveness..." (The Baptismal Covenant II, United Methodist Hymnal) Surrounding these persons means to provide safe sanctuaries where they can be loved and nurtured in the faith.

Our Social Principles remind us that:

- “in particular, children must be protected from economic, physical, emotional, and sexual exploitation and abuse.” (2012 Book of Discipline, ¶162.III.C)
- we affirm “the full humanity and personhood” of all individuals with disabilities “as full members of the family of God.” (2012 Book of Discipline, ¶162.III.I)
- we “ensure to the aging the respect and dignity that is their right...” (2012 Book of Discipline, ¶162.III.E)

Clergy and religious professionals have a responsibility to those in their congregations and broader community, especially those whose voice is compromised by age, ability level, and/or abuse or neglect. The 2004 General Conference initially took note of this responsibility when they adopted the statement:

“All clergy of The United Methodist Church are charged to maintain all confidences inviolate, including confessional confidences, except in the cases of suspected child abuse or neglect or in cases where mandatory reporting is required by civil law. (2012 Book of Discipline, ¶341.5)”

Resolution 3084, “Reducing the Risk of Child Sexual Abuse in the Church,” and Resolution 8014, “Church Participation by a Registered Child Sex Offender,” (2012 Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church, p. 240 and p. 900 respectively) provide guidance to the local church and annual conference as to making our churches safe places, protecting children and other vulnerable persons from abuse.

The Book of Discipline (¶1119 – Age-Level, Life-Span, and Family Ministries) provides the following definitions of the age groups covered by this policy.

- Child – persons up to approximately 12 years of age, generally persons from birth through sixth grade
- Youth – persons in the twelve- to eighteen-year-old age group, generally persons in the seventh through twelfth grades
- Adult – persons 18 years of age and older

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA STATUTES

Because of our commitment to care for all God’s children and protect the vulnerable, Virginia Conference sponsored activities fully comply with the definitions offered by the Virginia Department of Social Services governing children, youth, and vulnerable adults.

Child and adult protection programs are mandated by statute. The Commonwealth of Virginia’s current child abuse reporting statute was first enacted in 1975. Section 63.2-100 has been amended and modified a number of times. The statute is comprehensive, requiring the reporting of numerous types of maltreatment. The law applies to any child under 18 years of age when a parent or any person responsible for the child’s care:

- Causes or threatens to cause non-accidental physical or mental injury;
- Has a child present during the manufacture or attempted manufacture of a controlled substance or during the sale of such substance where such activity would constitute a felony violation;
- Abandons the child;
- Neglects or refuses to provide adequate supervision in relation to the child’s age and level of development;
- Knowingly leaves a child alone in the same dwelling with a person, not related by blood or marriage, who has been convicted of an offense against a minor for which registration is required as a violent sexual offender; or
- Commits or allows to be committed any illegal sexual act upon a child, including incest, rape, indecent exposure, prostitution, or allows a child to be used in any sexually explicit visual material.

An act of child abuse may be committed by any person responsible for the care of another individual who is less than 18 years of age. It does not matter whether the person caring for the child under the age of 18 is a compensated or a volunteer worker. It does not matter whether the person routinely is entrusted with the care of children or whether such individual only occasionally comes in contact with children. It does not matter whether the person was entrusted with the care of a child for an hour or only a moment. It only matters that a child was abused or neglected by the person who, on the occasion in question, was responsible for the child’s care.

Title 63.1 of the Code of Virginia establishes a protective services program for persons who are 60 and over and “incapacitated persons ages 18 to 59.” Adults with disabilities covered under the Code are those “persons who are 18 years or older whose vulnerability is related to impaired physical and/or mental health and/or physical disability.” The statutory basis for the program is found in sections 63.1-55.1 through 62.1-55.7 of the Code of Virginia.

TYPES OF ABUSE

Child abuse refers to an act committed by a parent, caregiver, or person in a position of trust (even though he/she may not care for the child on a daily basis) which is not accidental and which harms or threatens to harm a child’s physical or mental health or welfare. Types of abuse noted in administrative code for the Virginia Department of Social Services are described below:

- Physical Abuse: A physical injury, threat of injury, or creation of a real and significant danger of substantial risk of death, disfigurement, or impairment of bodily functions. Such injury or threat of injury, regardless of intent, is inflicted or allowed to be inflicted by non-accidental means. Examples: asphyxiation, bone fracture, brain damage, skull fracture, subdural hematoma, burns, scalding, cuts, bruises, welts, abrasions, internal injuries, poisoning, sprains, dislocations, gunshot, stabbing wounds.
- Physical Neglect: The failure to provide food, clothing, shelter, or supervision for a child if the child’s health or safety is endangered. Physical neglect may include multiple occurrences or a one-time critical or severe event that results in a threat to health or safety, such as a toddler left alone. Other types of neglect include abandonment, inadequate supervision, inadequate clothing, inadequate shelter, inadequate personal hygiene, inadequate food, and malnutrition.
- Sexual Abuse: Any act defined in the Code of Virginia that is committed or allowed to be committed, upon a child by his/her parent or other person responsible for the child’s care. Examples of such abuse are sexual exploitation, sexual molestation, intercourse/sodomy, and other sexual abuse.

- Medical Neglect: The refusal or failure by a care giver to obtain and/or follow through with a complete regimen of medical, mental, or dental care for a condition, which if untreated, could result in illness or developmental delays.
- Failure to Thrive: A syndrome of infancy or early childhood that is characterized by growth failure, signs of severe malnutrition, and variable degrees of developmental retardation. Children are considered to be in this category only when the syndrome is diagnosed by a physician and is caused by non-organic factors.
- Mental Abuse/Neglect: A pattern of acts or omissions by the caregiver that results in harm to a child's psychological or emotional health or development.
- Educational Neglect: The failure of the child's caretaker to ensure that the child attends school or an approved alternative program of study.
- Bizarre Discipline: Any actions in which the caregiver uses eccentric, irrational, or grossly inappropriate procedures or devices to modify the child's behavior.

Adult Protective Services define the following (Code of Virginia, §63.1-55.2):

- Abuse: The willful infliction of physical pain, injury or mental anguish or unreasonable confinement. Abuse includes battery and other forms of physical violence including, but not limited to, hitting, kicking, burning, choking, scratching, rough handling, cutting, biting, etc. It includes sexual assault, inflicting pornography, voyeurism, exhibitionism, and other forms of forced sexual activity on an elder or an adult with disabilities. It includes any sexual activity with an adult who is unable to understand or give consent. It includes the control of an adult through the use of threats and intimidation and through the abuse of a relationship of trust.
- Neglect: An adult living under such circumstance that he is not able to provide for himself or is not being provided such services as are necessary to maintain his physical and mental health and that the failure to receive such necessary services impairs or threatens to impair his well-being. This definition incorporates both those who are self-neglected, i.e., living under such circumstance that he/she is not able to provide for himself/herself, and those whose need for physical and mental health services are not being provided by another person.
- Exploitation: The illegal use of an incapacitated adult or his resources for another's profit or advantage. Exploitation, or financial abuse, is accomplished by the use of covert, subtle, and deceitful means. It is usually a pattern of behavior rather than a single episode. Financial exploitation includes, but is not limited to, the crimes of larceny, embezzlement, theft by false pretenses, burglary, forgery, false impersonation, and extortion.

Abuse under the definition of the Virginia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services (DBHDS) means "any act or failure to act by an employee or other person responsible for the care of an individual that was performed or was failed to be performed knowingly, recklessly, or intentionally, and that caused or might have caused physical or psychological harm, injury, or death to an individual receiving services. Examples of abuse include but are not limited to the following:

- Rape, sexual assault, or other criminal behavior;
- Assault or battery;
- Use of language that demeans, threatens, intimidates, or humiliates the person;
- Misuse or misappropriation of the person's assets, goods, or property;
- Use of excessive force when placing a person in physical or mechanical restraint;
- Use on a person of physical or mechanical restraints that is not in compliance with federal and state laws, regulations, and policies, professionally accepted standards of practice or the person's individualized services plan; and
- Use of more restrictive or intensive services or denial of services to punish the person or that is not consistent with his individualized services plan.

POLICY REVIEW

The policy for the protection of children, youth, and vulnerable adults of the Virginia Conference United Methodist Church shall be reviewed every five years and approved by the Virginia Conference Common Table for Church Vitality.

JAMES SHANK ANGLE
1936 - 2017

Rev. James Shank Angle transitioned from his earthly body to his heavenly home on Thursday, April 13, 2017 after several months of failing health. He was born on November 19, 1936 the only child of Ralph and Ruth Shank Angle. Preceding him in death are his parents and his first wife, Dr. Kathleen Bailey Angle.

Surviving are his wife, Kate Harmon Angle, step daughter, Mary (Dennis) Reaser; two step grandsons, Alan (Susan) Powers and Philip Powers; two step great grandsons, Remington and Jacob Powers; cousins, Betty Linkous of Christiansburg and Gerald Pendleton of North Yorkshire, England.

James was a graduate of Shawsville High School, and an honor graduate of the College of William and Mary (A.B.) and M.E.D.) He received his Masters Degree in English from Middlebury College. He also completed post graduate studies at Vanderbilt, Duke, Oxford and Cambridge Universities.

He was a professor emeritus of English and public speaking at Ferrum College where he taught for 34 years, and served as chair of the Humanities Department. Jim was also an ordained minister in the Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church for thirty years. He served as pastor of St. James United Methodist Church for eight years and then served as pastor of Goodwin Memorial United Methodist Church for 44 years. More recently he was an adjunct Professor at Virginia Western Community College.

LEWIS C. ARMENTROUT JR.

Lewis Armentrout and I have been friends for many years. If I were to say when we met, it would be when he came to the Clover Hill United Methodist Church in 1974. Over the years we became good friends and helped one another in our churches on various occasions. I will share a few of my memories of Lewis.

Lewis loved life and got all out of each day that he could. He loved all aspects of his ministry which included Masanuttan Charge at Elkton (1964-1974); Clover Hill United Methodist Church (1974-1983); West Brunswick Charge at Alberta, Virginia (1983-1989). Lewis retired in 1989 and returned to his farm at Timberville. However, the Lord decided it wasn't time for Lewis to stop preaching. He "filled in" as pastor of Fairview Church of the Brethren at New Market, Virginia, from 1994-2014 when his health began to fail.

First and foremost, Lewis loved, served, and shared our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Sharing the Good News was his passion, and he did it faithfully for many years. He was committed to his congregational families. Lewis was always working to win one more person to Jesus Christ, right up to his last days in the hospital.

Lewis was very much a family man. He was married to Helen for seventy years and together they reared two daughters. His love for his family was evident to all he encountered, and Helen was his devoted help-mate in the various pastorates which he served.

In his latter years Lewis enjoyed playing a game with me. He would call with some Bible trivia or theological question, and he expected me to find an answer. Then I would pose a question for Lewis to find the answer. One of his questions was, "Where in the Old Testament were three persons raised from the dead?"

Another special memory – Lewis liked to have fun. After he and Helen had amassed quite a few anniversaries, he began writing a play each year to celebrate their anniversary. Members of his church at Fairview were actors in these plays, and I was invited to have a role. Lewis must have spent many hours incorporating his sense of humor into these productions – they were always good for a lot of laughs.

If I were to describe Lewis' life in a few words, it would be that he loved the Lord, his family, and life in general. Lewis was a great friend, and I am blessed that he was a part of my life.

H. RANDOLPH ARRINGTON 1931 - 2016

If ever there was a faithful son in Christian Ministry it was Herbert Randolph “Randy” Arrington. He was born on March 9th, 1931 the seventh of eleven children. He was raised on a farm and at the age of nine, following a church revival he attended, he received his call from God to serve the Lord in ministry. He joined South Hill Methodist Church and thus began his journey into ministry. He attended Ferrum Junior College (1951-53), Randolph-Macon College (B.A. in 1955), and Union Theological Seminary of Virginia (1958-1960). As a senior at Randolph-Macon College he was called by Bishop Kenneth Goodson to start a new church in Hopewell which became the Wesley Methodist Church on August 23, 1955 with eighty three charter members. In 1958 he married his sweetheart of four years Annie Mae Hays, and together they had four children, Anne, Pattie, John, and Mark. It was while Randy was in seminary that the Bishop called upon him once again, to establish a church in Kenwood where the congregation was meeting at the Ruitan Community House with thirty seven members. By the time the church was erected there were three hundred and fifty members. Certainly a mark of Randy’s good pastoral work and evangelistic spirit.

A committed servant of the Church, Randy served with devotion, zeal, intensity, and compassion to all he encountered. He was admitted to the Virginia Conference as a Probationer and made Deacon in 1959, and ordained Elder in full connection in 1963. Over forty six years he committed himself to winning souls for Jesus Christ with a spirit that was infectious. Among his appointments were: Wesley, Hopewell; Kenwood, Petersburg; Campostella, Norfolk; St. Paul’s, Chesapeake; Scott Memorial, Virginia Beach; Westhampton, Richmond; Mt. Vernon, Danville; Epworth, Norfolk; Bon Air, Richmond, and he also served as Conference Director of Ministerial Services, Registrar to the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, and President of the United Methodist Foundation of the Virginia Conference. In retirement Randy pastored Prospect Church, Mechanicsville, and later served as Visiting Minister of Adult Ministries with his wife Annie for Shady Grove Church, Mechanicsville. Now, he and Annie are serving the Lord of the Church in that House Eternal. God bless you both!

The Reverend Dr. Thomas Murphy

WILLIAM “BILL” BURLEIGH 1941 - 2016

William “Bill” Burleigh was born in 1941. In 1965, he proudly followed in the footsteps of his father, James S. Burleigh, and uncle, Hugh Burleigh, by becoming a Methodist minister. Among the churches he first served was Asbury-Parkside on the Portsmouth District. While there a community center and day care were established. Other appointments saw building projects completed, too.

Bill took incapacity leave from Friendship United Methodist Church on the Arlington District in 1995, and moved to the family farm outside Lynchburg, VA. In retirement, he was an active participant of Centenary United Methodist Church in Lynchburg. Bill had an awesome memory and loved to tell stories of the people and churches he served, especially things that were funny.

Though church was always top priority in his life, Bill also enjoyed the farm. Music was a favorite part of his life, and he sang with the Jefferson Choral Society.

At his death on September 3, 2016, Bill left behind his wife Susan Burleigh, daughters Karyl Bloyer and Catherine Smith, grandsons Zachary and Sean Smith, and many friends and associates.

The heart fails, but the spirit lives on.

He was a Morehead Scholar at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and continued his education at Greensboro College in Philosophy and Religion. He graduated from Wesley Theological Seminary with a Master of Divinity.

Those who were close to him knew his passion for scholarship. He loved the pursuit of knowledge and writing. He considered his book, “The Way of St. Francis” to be one of his greatest accomplishments. He took great pleasure in authoring sermons and would light up when an idea for a new one came to him. His wife Loretta remembers his delight when he shared passages with excitement and enthusiasm. She especially remembers his joy in writing and delivering his sermons “The Lord of the Dance,” “A Whole Lota Shakin’ Goin’ On,” and “Singing in the Rain.” She often said his excitement over a new sermon was only matched by his excitement over a UNC win. When he wasn’t partaking in scholarly endeavors his favorite activity was cheering for the Tarheels with his grandson Zachary, and son Dale.

Bob was dedicated to Ministry. He was ordained into the Methodist Church in 1959. He served multiple assignments for the Virginia Annual Conference, including Associate Minister – Mt. Vernon UMC in Alexandria, The Hillsboro Circuit near Leesburg, Va., Associate Minister, Wesley UMC in Vienna with good friend Jerry Fink, Tabernacle UMC in Virginia Beach, Great Bridge UMC in Chesapeake, Central UMC in Arlington, First UMC in Charlottesville, Greene Memorial UMC in Roanoke, Minister of Visitation, South Roanoke UMC, and Boones Mill UMC in Boones Mill.

Bob also served the Virginia Conference as Vice President of the Board of Ordained Ministry, Chairman of the World Hunger Commission, Delegate to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference of the UMC, and Editor of the Virginia United Methodist Heritage (the annual publication of the Virginia Conference Historical Society). He also served as Secretary of the Board and Registered Agent of Arlington Hospital while serving Central UMC in Arlington, Va.

Although Bob’s professional activities and friendships gave him great satisfaction, nothing brought him greater pleasure than being a father, grandfather and husband. His many friends and family members will always remember his hilarious Irish jokes and stories, delivered enthusiastically with a rich and colorful Irish brogue.

Bob's favorite movie was "Singin in the Rain." He loved it's joy and he loved the scriptural significance of hope, faith and optimism. In his sermon of the same title he said: "I've been through a lot in the past several years. Whoever said that growing old is not a game for sissies surely knew what he was talking about...But when people would ask, 'How are you?' [he'd smile that inimitable smile and say] "I can still sing in the rain."

D. MICHAEL MELOY 1943 - 2017

The Rev. D. Michael Meloy, 74, of Richmond, died Sunday, February 26, 2017. Born in Roanoke on January 9, 1943 to Cyrus E. “Bud” Meloy and Elsie Padgett Meloy, he spent his childhood in Roanoke and Northern Virginia. Mike was nurtured in his faith at a young age by his Grandma Williams who had a hunch he might become a minister one day. He graduated from Ferrum College, George Washington University, and Union Theological Seminary.

In the summer of 1969 (after nearly failing Greek in summer school), Mike married Jane Sydney and they embarked upon a wonderful life and ministry together. Their ministry began at Westhampton United Methodist Church where Mike was involved with the youth program and became the Associate Minister. In 1973, the family moved to the two point charge of Mt. Vernon in Toano and Tabernacle in Barhamsville where Mike also served as a volunteer firefighter with the rescue squad and was active with youth at the conference level. Mike and Jane Sydney’s ministry continued with moves to Huguenot Road in Richmond (1977-1985), Immanuel in Annandale (1985-1989), and Windsor Hills in Roanoke (1989-1996). In 1996, Mike was appointed District Superintendent of the Peninsula District. He continued in this role until 2004 and retired from full-time ministry in 2005. In retirement, Mike continued sharing his faith as the Minister of Congregational Care at Williamsburg United Methodist Church. Throughout his ministry, Mike worked to build relationships and nurture others in their faith.

Serving others was also an especially important part of Mike’s ministry. On trips to Appalachia through the Appalachia Service Project (ASP) and Mozambique through the Virginia Annual Conference, he was deeply affected by his encounters with others who shared profound faith and gratitude amidst economic strife.

Although his ministry was always an important part of his life, Mike was also a devoted husband, dad, “G-daddy”, and friend. He cherished times with family and friends, whether it was sitting around the table talking, dancing to Motown in the kitchen, or walking the sandy shores of the beach. Mike and Jane Sydney also enjoyed quiet weekends hiking through the woods at The Peaks of Otter.

Mike also had a love of planes, trains, and automobiles. He could often be found at an airport watching planes take off and land or at Virginia International Raceway (VIR) enjoying a weekend of classic car racing. His favorite mode of transportation was the Norfolk and Western Class J 611 steam locomotive. He loved watching the train run and hearing its mournful whistle echo through the Roanoke Valley.

Mike is survived by his wife of 47 years, Jane Sydney Meloy; daughters and sons-in-law, Ashley and Dustin Love and Mary Douglas and Mark Roscoe; grandchildren, Cameron Love, Emmie Love, Sydney Roscoe, and Sam Roscoe as well as many additional family members and friends.

SHIRLEY MERCER 1935 - 2016

Our mother, Shirley, became a local pastor after her husband, the Reverend Ira Vincent, passed away in 1995. She was appointed to three different charges/churches. A true Christian, Shirley firmly believed in helping people any way she could.

Her biggest joy was seeing the beautiful children in church. Her eyes lit-up seeing them wander around looking at everything, talking to people, and having a good time. In as many ways as she could, Mom involved them in the worship service.

One person, who later joined Mom's church, arrived late one Sunday morning. Her adopted daughter, a part of the youth group which was singing that morning, had wanted her to come and had told her the church was awesome. Seeing the woman arrive, Shirley stopped in the middle of what she was saying to greet the woman with these words, "Welcome, come on it!"

This person felt really welcomed, and from then on thought a great deal of our mom. In fact, she thought of our mom like her second mom. She said mom was the gentlest and sweetest person she had ever met. When she touched our mom's hand, she said she felt as though she was touching God.

Although not a church goer before meeting our Mom and attending her church, once she met our mom she began attending regularly. She had found a place a welcome and love.

Mom was the best wife, mother, sister (adopted sister to all), adopted mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and a grandmother to two special dogs.

Submitted by her family with love and appreciation for our Mom.

DAVID A. RUSSELL 1941 - 2016

David Arthur Russell, 75, passed away peacefully at home on Friday, September 30, 2016. He was born to Elroy Arthur and Esther Mae Russell in Marshalltown, Iowa on April 3, 1941. When Dave was 4 years old, his parents moved from Iowa to the mountains of Kentucky, to serve as home missionaries at The Red Bird Mission. He grew up at Mill Creek, Bright Shade, Beech Fork and Beverly Kentucky, loving the people of the area, the mountain culture and nature.

Dave developed a heart for people from an early age. He would ride on horseback (or a mule) behind his dad on Sunday afternoon's to hold services for a small group of people in an isolated area. He met his wife Phyllis, while attending Red Bird Mission High school, graduating in 1958. They married in 1962 and just celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary.

When Dave graduated from Warren Wilson College, he wanted to serve his country and joined the Marine Corp, and proudly served for four years. They moved to Virginia in 1964, and he worked for Continental Can Company, and then in 1966 he started his government career with The National Park Service as a gardener, loving to work with the soil and keeping the grounds of our National Capital looking beautiful. Later, he became a Park Technician helping to plan and establish what was then called "Turkey Run Farm", a 15th century, working farm. He portrayed the "dirt farmer." When the FBI built their training facility at Quantico, Va, he wanted to help beautify those grounds. He made a lateral transfer from the Interior Department to the Justice Dept. He started out as an agronomist and worked there for 30 years, retiring in 2003.

Dave loved God and always served in some capacity in his home church and community. He was a Stephen Minister and an Industrial Commercial Ministries Chaplain. He always said he could serve God best as a layperson, but God has a sense of humor and later in life Dave felt the call to Pastoral Ministry. He became a Licensed Local Pastor in the Virginia Conference of the UMC. He served Salem UMC in Widewater and later as Pastor of Congregational Care at Ebenezer UMC, both located in Stafford County. He never met a stranger, loved to "know your story" and was respectful of everyone.

He was an amazing husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, cousin, Man of God, story teller, encourager, lover of life, of people and Gods great creation. One friend said, "Dave taught us how to serve God, and to have fun doing it!"

Dave was blessed with his wife who was always by his side, his two children, five grandchildren and great granddaughter, who were an additional source of joy and pride in his life. The family shared many happy and precious moments together. They remember him as being kind, compassionate, caring and he taught them to have strong Christian values, to be people of integrity and to enjoy life to the fullest. He never met a stranger, always ready to listen and give encouragement.

He will be missed by all who were fortunate enough to have known this man of God, who led his life by example. To know Dave was to love him.

He is survived by his devoted and loving wife, Phyllis Russell; children, Shannon Arthur Russell and Lisa Russell Laufer (Art); grandchildren who were the apple of his eye, Chad, Abby, Jasiah, Eric and Eddie; great-granddaughter, Ava; sisters, Margaret Cleaver (David), Rebecca Cutshall, Aunt Phyllis Dunham; and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, and cousins; and many loving friends.

DANIEL G. SPAUGH1946 - 2016

Rev. Daniel G. Spaugh was born in Winston Salem, NC on October 31, 1946 to the late Raymond M. and Mamie Speas Spaugh.

I first met Danny in 1989 when I served as a Local Pastor at Community United Methodist Church (Portsmouth). From that time forward, we grew in friendship and mutual trust, and I witnessed his great love for the Word of God as contained in the Holy Bible. In short, Danny lived the “Great Commandment”, and he worked diligently as a “shepherd” to fulfill the “Great Commission”. His memory is truly a treasure which will never die.

We had many talks about his being called by the Lord to enter Christian Ministry and his journey began in 1992. I had the great honor to recommend him for acceptance into the UMC ministry, and to witness his excellent progress in his ministerial calling. Further, it was a blessing to see him accepted as a candidate for the UMC ministry, and become a student pastor as he progressed through Virginia Wesleyan College and Duke University Divinity School, and earning his Master of Divinity Degree.

Danny was exceptionally gifted in the depth of his scriptural knowledge and its teaching. He loved to teach Biblical history and its applications in the world of today. He lived as the man of whom the prophet wrote in Micah 6:8 who is commanded to do justly, to love mercy, And to walk humbly with his God. That description was a perfect fit for the Reverend Daniel G. Spaugh. As a man, he valued the truth of God’s Holy Word, and he lived a never-ending quest to seek God’s wisdom in every aspect of life and ministry.

In his time serving the Lord, he brought the Word so strongly to two members of the church he was pastoring, that one is now a minister in the Portsmouth District and the other serves a church out of state.

He was also a faithful husband, being married to the earthly love of his life, Bette. They were a team that could face any challenge and their love would never die. The last church Danny served was in Winchester where they both enjoyed their time spent in the mountain community meeting new brothers and sisters in Christ – and especially learning how to make apple butter!

Rev. Spaugh retired from the ministry of the United Methodist Church in 2011 and on December 27, 2016 he went home to be with the Lord.

NANCY B. WHITE1938 - 2016

Rev. White was born and raised in Washington D.C. At a young age, Rev. White was a determined and focused young lady. Always focused on doing above and beyond which carried over during her time as a Pastor in the United Methodist Church. She worked hard to receive high grades and awards and was an officer in her Student Government. After graduating Woodrow Wilson High School she completed D.C. Teachers College and followed with teaching in the Anacostia schools. She worked diligently to provide the best for her students, both with their class work but also helping them with learning life skills. Wherever we were, she was always involved with the church, the youth and Sunday school. As she got older she felt a strong desire to learn more about having a personal relationship with our Savior the Lord Jesus.

Later in life she felt a strong call to the Ministry. After much prayer and talks with Pastors and Church leaders she started her studies to become a Pastor at Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington DC. She completed enough classes at Wesley to be ordained as a Deacon in 1988. Before she could complete all her classes, her husband, Doug, was relocated to Germany for work. This did not deter Rev. White. She found a Baptist Seminary in Switzerland, and worked with Wesley Seminary to find classes that were transferable towards her Master’s degree in Divinity.

Her determination to become a Pastor was shown in so many ways. The Baptist Seminary was located in Ruchla-cohn Switzerland outside of Zurich. The first year, Rev. White stayed on campus for most of the week to complete her courses. The following year with only a few courses left to take, she would commute. She would leave Frankfurt in the morning, take the Metro to the Frankfurt train station, take the train to Zurich, transfer to the local train to Ruchlacohn, and walk up the hill to the Seminary. On her return she would repeat all of the transfers and finally arrive home at 11:00 pm at night.

Upon our return to the states, Rev. White completed her final courses at Wesley and graduated with her Master of Divinity with Summa Cum Laude Honors in 1991 and started her ministry.

Her first charge she had three churches. One was a former Episcopal Church built in the 1800s. This church didn't have a room for Sunday school classes or even bathrooms. The church had plans to renovate yet never started. Rev. White stepped in and helped get the project moving to start the addition for the church. She was moved to her next charge before completion. A few years later, the Pastor that replaced Rev. White was awarded at the annual conference for having the greatest percentage increase in membership in the Virginia Conference. It could not have happened without Rev. White's determined efforts. There is so much more that could be said about Rev. White's ministry. Her work with the many churches she served made each a better place for the members and Pastors that followed.

After her retirement Rev. White couldn't stop serving the Lord. She pastored small churches that needed a Pastor and always taught Sunday school when possible. She continued up till the end with her Sunday school class. When she could no longer manage the lessons and prayers, her loving husband who always supported her would help her along and contribute to the teachings.

In her last days in the nursing home, she would always insist the residents pray at each meal and would provide comfort along with singing and reading scripture. Lovingly, you would catch her correcting visiting clergy when it came to the scriptures. Rev. White truly knew God's Word. Our loving and faithful Rev. Nancy Bageant White was the Lord's Servant till the end.

WELDON D. WHITE 1933 - 2016

Weldon's father was Darrel Weldon White and his mother was Marie Cook White. He was born in Indiana and the family moved to Florida when he was 12 years old. His sister, Virginia Marie White was 13-months younger, born December 18, 1934.

As a teenager Weldon was involved in many youth for Christ activities. His first preaching was in Spanish to a small congregation in Florida.

Weldon married Linda Faye Marshall on October 12, 1963 at Trinity United Methodist Church in Roanoke, VA, officiating minister was H Wark Curry.

Our first appointment with the United Methodist Church was in June, 1964 to the Mt Solon Charge (Parnassus, Mt Solon, Sangerville, and Centerville churches). Weldon attended Bridgewater College, graduating in 1967.

In June 1967 we moved to Marshall, VA serving the Rectortown Charge (Rectortown, Cool Spring, and The Plains [later renamed St Marks] churches). Weldon attended Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, DC, graduating in 1971 with a Masters in Divinity.

In June 1972 we moved to Waynesboro, VA to serve St Marks United Methodist Church. Weldon became active in the community, continuing to hold early Sunday services at the drive-in theater and very active in the Lurnmor School, a school for disadvantaged children before they were incorporated into the regular school system. Our first son, Darrel Weldon White, was born November 11, 1972 and our second son, Marshall Wesley White, was born November 19, 1975.

In June 1977 we moved to Chesterfield County, Richmond, VA to serve Sherbourne United Methodist Church.

In June 1981, We were assigned to St Marks United Methodist Church, Richmond, VA when it was located on Midlothian Turnpike.

In June 1984 we went to St James United Methodist Church in Pleasant Valley, VA.

In 1985 we moved to Sedley, VA to serve the Trinity Circuit (Grace Memorial and Sebrell churches). On Christmas Eve, 1986, the Sedley Baptist Church members, whose pastor died of a heart attack while on a community caroling event, joined with Grace Memorial for a candlelight service. On the morning of December 26, 1986 Grace Memorial burned. We worshiped with the Baptist members a couple of Sundays, then with our sister church, Sebrell, through January and then we met in a two-room building known as the Woodman Hall Building until our new structure was completed. I don't believe there are more supportive people anywhere in the world! Our son, Darrel, graduated high school there and joined the Army.

In 1991 moved to Waynesboro, VA to serve Wayne Hills-Oak Hills Charge. Our son, Marshall, graduated in 1993 and still lives in the area.

Weldon retired June 1996 and we were blessed with the birth of our first grandson on the same day.

Weldon loved flowers and made parsonages and church yards beautiful with his work.

HUGH J. WINSTON JR. 1920 -2016

Hugh and Annabel Winston were a team. Married eleven years with two daughters, Hugh had a calling to go into the ministry. It was 1952. They sold their home in Norfolk, packed up all of their belongings and headed to Randolph-Macon College, where they settled into GI Village and started on a great adventure. They both worked on campus, and Pixie, their dog, followed Hugh to classes.

It wasn't long before Hugh was assigned his first two churches, the Hanover Charge which included Enon and Lebanon churches. He spent five years in Hanover while he finished his education at Randolph-Macon and started at Union Theological Seminary. He finished seminary while serving as the Associate Pastor of Highland Springs Methodist Church.

Over the next six years he moved three times. After Highland Springs came Waverly, New Hope, in Stafford County, and Arlington Forest as an Associate pastor, and finally to Culpeper Methodist as head pastor. After Culpeper, he served Main Street in Suffolk and then back to Northern Virginia, to Wesley UMC, then to the Reston Ecumenical Churches from which he retired. He then went back to Wesley as the Minister of Visitation.

In addition to his appointments, Hugh served as a statistician for the Virginia Conference for eighteen years, as well as on various boards and commissions. He was always involved with various civic organizations and was active in the mental health field as a Pastoral Counselor. At the age of 93, Hugh became a published author with his book of sermons for special days, Nothing Can Stop Christmas.

Through all the moves Annabel was by his side. Focusing on the young members of the congregations, she was a youth counselor at the local, district and conference levels. She was associated with the United Methodist Student Movement and was always active with the United Methodist Women. Additionally, she was active in the community, serving as a fund chairperson for the American Red Cross, a Job Corps case worker, a Pink Lady at Culpeper Hospital.

While they were devoted to the church, Hugh and Annabel also had other passions. Hugh's was softball and Annabel's was art. Hugh played softball well into his 80's as a member of the Northern Virginia Senior Softball League. Annabel was an award winning artist. She was also an accomplished seamstress, woodworker and entrepreneur.

Hugh and Annabel were an extraordinary couple. They celebrated their 75th Wedding Anniversary on October 22, 2016, Hugh's 96th birthday. His death on November 21, 2016 came as a shock to his family and friends. He had been active and well until the day before he died. Annabel had suffered a severe illness sixteen years prior to her death on January 21, 2017 and all felt blessed to have those additional years with her.

Hugh and Annabel were devoted to each other and their family, but they were also devoted to their church and their God. With extraordinary faith and love, Hugh was both a gentleman and a truly gentle man, with a ready smile, a kind heart and a true love of life! They will be missed!

XIII. HISTORICAL STATEMENT

The Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church is the direct descendant of the original annual conference of the United Brethren in Christ and of one of the six original conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The present conference was formed in 1970, by the merger of the Virginia Conference, formerly Methodist, with the former Evangelical United Brethren Conference of the same name. It is the successor to 39 Annual Conferences of eight denominations. Since the oldest of these dates back to the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1784, the 1970 session was declared to be the 188th session of the Conference (two "annual" sessions having been held in 1791 and 1841).

These 39 antecedent conferences are as follows:

THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Virginia (1784-1844), Baltimore (1784-1939), Philadelphia (1784-1869), North Carolina (1836-1844), Washington (1864-1939), Delaware (1864-1939), Virginia and North Carolina Mission (1864-1868), Virginia (1868-1906), North Carolina (1869-1939), Wilmington (1869-1939), East Tennessee (1880-1939), Holston (1906-1939), West Virginia (1906-1939), Atlantic Mission (1906-1912), Blue Ridge- Atlantic (1912-1939)

THE CHURCH OF THE UNITED BRETHREN IN CHRIST

Original ("Old" or "Mother") (1800-1829), Hagerstown (1829-1830), Virginia (1830-1946)

THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH

East Virginia (1829-1834), Maryland (1829-1939), Virginia (1834-1870), North Carolina (1860-1939)

THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH

INDEPENDENT CONFERENCE

Baltimore (1861-1866)

THE METHODIST CHURCH

Virginia (1939-1968), Washington (1939-1965), Delaware (1939-1965), East Tennessee (1939-1965), North Carolina-C.J. (1939-1965), North Carolina-Virginia (1965-1968)

THE EVANGELICAL UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH

Virginia (1946-1968), Central Pennsylvania (1948-1964), Susquehanna (1964-1968)

THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Virginia-M (1968-1970), Virginia-E (1968-1970), Susquehanna (1968-1969)

Virginia was the scene of the ministries of many of the pioneers of the Methodist and United Brethren churches, most notably among them Francis Asbury, one of the first two Methodist bishops; William Watters, Methodism's first Native American minister; Philip William Otterbein, bishop and leader in the founding of the United Brethren in Christ; and Christian Newcomer, United Brethren pioneer in Virginia and later bishop.

Twenty bishops of the denominations now comprising the United Methodist Church were born within the bounds of the Virginia Conference. They are: William McKendree, Enoch George, John Early, Samuel Hiestand, Beverly Waugh, David S. Doggett, William Taylor, John C. Granbery, William W. Duncan, James W. Hott, Collins Denny, William B. Beauchamp, Paul B. Kern, Paul Neff Garber, Edgar A. Love, Walter C. Gum, Carlton P. Minnick, Jr., R. Kern Eutsler, H. Hasbrouck Hughes, Jr., and Timothy W. Whitaker.

SOME LANDMARK DATES OF THE CONFERENCE

May 11, 1766: Earliest known property for a Methodist Church in America deeded to Methodist Society in Leesburg.

November 14, 1772: Missionary work carried on during 1772 in Southern Virginia by Robert Williams, William Watters and Joseph Pilmoor results in organizing, in Portsmouth, what is now Monumental Church, the oldest church now in existence in the Conference.

May 19, 1778: The Sixth American Methodist Conference held in Leesburg.

May 13, 1781: Harry Hosier preaches first recorded Methodist sermon by a Negro, at Fairfax Chapel in Falls Church.

May 1, 1785: First Session of the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church held at home of William Mason in Brunswick County.

1792: Virginia was the center of the first schism of American Methodism, led by James O'Kelley, a member of the Virginia Conference. It resulted in the formation of the Republican Methodists, now a part of the United Church of Christ.

March 29, 1827: First native American itinerant, William Watters, died at his home in McLean.

May 1, 1846: First General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, met at Union Street Church, Petersburg.

November, 1870: Virginia Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church merged with the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Lynchburg.

October 16, 1939: Virginia Conference of The Methodist Church organized, including all or parts of nine previous conferences, at Richmond.

June 10, 1968: Virginia Conference and North Carolina-Virginia Conference, formerly of The Methodist Church, are merged to form the Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church, at Richmond.

January 3, 1970: Present Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church organized at Madison College, Harrisonburg.

THE NUMBERING OF CONFERENCE SESSIONS

The Virginia Conference was organized in May of 1785. That was its first session. It was one year old at its second session in 1786, and so on, so that its age would always be one less than the number of that year's session. Then, two annual sessions were held in April and December of 1791 and in January and November of 1841, so that in 2017, the 235th annual session, the conference was 231 years old.

XVIII. STATISTICAL TABLES

For the year JANUARY 1, 2016, through DECEMBER 31, 2016

DAVID DOMMISSE, Conference Statistician

Each of these tables, based on the pastors' reports, has been carefully proofread. In those dealing with finances, there are a number of instances in which amounts reported by several churches within a charge do not add up to the total which is given. In most of these cases, the total was changed on the original statistical sheets to correspond to the amount actually received by the conference treasurer. Differences in financial totals listed and those of the conference treasurer are due to payments made in fractions of dollars, whereas statisticians calculate to the nearest dollar. For questions concerning the statistical tables, contact the conference statistician, David Dommis, P.O. Box 5606, Glen Allen, VA 23058; by phone at (804) 521-1109, or 1-800-768-6040; or via email at DavidDommis@vaumc.org.
