

Salaries-First Time Appointment

The Cabinet approved a policy that states: “All persons receiving their first full time appointment shall receive the minimum salary appropriate for the pastor’s conference relationship status.” (This does not include “on loan” or “ministers of other denominations” who are coming with previous experience.)

June 2005