

Mid-year Salary Reduction

Situation: A church wants to increase the pastor's salary in January but wants to reduce the salary in July of the same year. The pastor will continue in the appointment process.

Suggested Policy: When a church wishes to reduce its salary mid-year or at Annual Conference time, there should be no increase in the total compensation for the pastor in January preceding Annual Conference.