What is The Harry Denman Evangelism Award?

Honors one United Methodist clergy, youth, and lay person in each Annual Conference

Evangelism happens in many contexts and many settings: it impacts and engages all generations, and requires relationships among a variety of persons. What distinguishes a Harry Denman Evangelism Award recipient is the commitment to consistently introduce others to the Good News of Jesus Christ in all ministry settings. Their ministry is exceptional for the number of new Christ Followers who credit encounters with this person as critical in helping to start or reignite their faith journey.

The man with one suit... it sounds like the opening line of a tall tale. For many people across the US, and even around the world, that crumpled, driven, faithful man was the person who introduced them to Jesus Christ. His name was Harry Denman and he was a friend to taxi drivers, missionaries, housewives, students, pastors, world leaders and the United Methodist Church. A force to be reckoned with, Denman's service and commitment to Methodism spanned more than 60 years. He wrote, "The only way we can see Christ is to see him wrapped in a person. Evangelism can only be seen in a person. We need to become a package of love, a package of faith, a package of Christ. Then we will be a package of evangelism."
