* Denotes Retired Relationship ‡ Denotes serving extension or other valid ministries

† Denotes Personal Leave § Denotes Granted Medical Leave f Denotes Family Leave S Denotes Sabbatical Leave

t Denotes Transition Leave

“Ent. Probationary/Provisional” is the year entered into membership as Probationer/Provisional.

“Other Years” are years in the chaplaincy, institutions or other conferences which Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc. is not responsible for years of service.

“Va. Conf. Yrs.” include years of service that are counted toward retirement eligibility under ¶358.2 in the Book of Discipline.

“Total Yrs.” are the total years of service that are counted toward retirement eligibility under ¶358.2 in the Book of Discipline.

These records are revised to correspond with the records of the General Board of Pension and the Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc. as of July 1, 2016. Contact Nancy Blair, Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc., P. O. Box 5606, Glen Allen, Va. 23058. Each individual will need to be in contact with the General Board of Pension or the Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc. office to determine pension benefits available at the time of retirement.

Bishop C.P. Minnick Jr. (Retired), Bishop R. Kern Eutsler (Retired), Bishop H. Hasbrouck Hughes Jr. (Retired), Bishop Ray W. Chamberlain Jr. (Retired) and Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker (Retired), having been elected to the episcopacy from the Virginia Conference, are Honorary Members of the Virginia Conference.

V. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

234th Session

The Virginia Annual Conference

Berglund Center

Roanoke, Virginia

June 17-19, 2016

The 234th Session of the Virginia Annual Conference opened with the Clergy Executive Session in the Berglund Performing Arts Theatre and the Laity Session in the Berglund Coliseum.

CLERGY EXECUTIVE SESSION

Bishop Young Jin Cho called the Clergy Executive Session to order at 12:59 p.m. Bishop Cho led in worship, assisted by Rev. Jason Stanley, Chair, Order of Deacons and Rev. Frances Cooper, Chair, Order of Elders. Rev. Leigh Anne Taylor, Blacksburg United Methodist Church, Roanoke District, served as song leader.

Bishop Cho expressed appreciation to Rev. Edward Walker, Chair, Board of Ordained Ministry, who is completing his third quadrennium of service to the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Rev. Walker moved that the bar of the clergy session be the area from the front of the auditorium back to the aisle demarcated by the metal railing and excluding those who were seated in the lower left section to be voted into conference membership at this session. The motion was approved.

Rev. Walker moved that staff members for the Bishop, the administrative staff of the Center for Clergy Excellence, the sign language interpreters, diaconal ministers, and the Conference Chancellor be admitted into the clergy session with voice but without vote. The motion was approved.

Rev. Walker nominated Rev. Jason Stanley as Chair, Order of Deacons and Rev. Lynn Alley-Grant as Chair, Order of Elders. They were elected by their respective orders.

Rev. Walker led the members in the presentation of the Minute Questions. The entire printed booklet of Minute Questions, with additions and corrections distributed separately, was presented in an itemized manner. Members of the clergy who were retiring at this session of annual conference were invited to stand for recognition. Persons receiving their first appointment as local pastors in all categories were invited to the platform to be recognized. Bishop Cho asked the historic questions of those persons who were to be ordained. Candidates for commissioning, ordination, recognition of orders and transfer into the conference from other denominations were presented and approved. Those transferring from other United Methodist annual conferences were introduced. Appropriate recognition was given to all persons being received into a new relationship with the Virginia Annual Conference at the current session. A moment of silence was observed for those who were involuntarily discontinued or involuntarily withdrawn. A moment of silence was observed for members of the clergy and the diaconal minister who had died in the previous year. All matters requiring a 2/3 majority were passed accordingly. All matters requiring a 3/4 majority were also passed accordingly.

Bishop Cho thanked Rev. Walker; Rev. Meredith McNabb, Director of the Center for Clergy Excellence; Ms. Terri Biggins, administrative staff for the Bishop; and Ms. Kristen Seibert, administrative staff for the Center for Clergy Excellence; for their work during his term as bishop. He also recognized the members of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Bishop Cho led the assembly in praying the Lord's Prayer. He concluded the session at 2:26 p.m.

LAITY SESSION

The Tomorrow Has Come Band led the laity in song to begin the Laity Session at 12:50 p.m. Mr. Warren Harper, Conference Lay Leader, welcomed the laity and the youth who participated in the opening worship at 1:03 p.m. Ms. Brenda Brooks, Roanoke District Lay Leader, led the laity in centering prayer. Ms. Nicole Kent, a youth from Cunningham United Methodist Church, Charlottesville District, led the call to worship. Mr. Harper led the laity in a meditation entitled "Praying the Lord's Prayer at Noon" by Terry Teykl followed by a video entitled "The Lord's Prayer." Mr. Harper invited all first time conference visitors to stand. First time attendees were welcomed with applause.

Lay Member of Annual Conference responsibilities were reviewed by the following Virginia Conference District Lay Leaders: Mr. Larry Creamer, Staunton District; Mr. Joe Amend, Harrisonburg District; Ms. Debbie Dietrich, Fredericksburg District; Ms. Joyce Duncan, Lynchburg District; Mr. Gene Cross, Arlington District; Mr. John Meeuwissen, Alexandria District and Ms. Sue Mayo, Farmville District.

The District Lay Leaders highlighted the following conference essentials: the accuracy of the agenda found in the Book of Reports, the importance of participating in as many session activities as possible and the schedule of worship services including the Service of Remembrance and Holy Communion, the Conference Mission Service with the Annual Conference Offering, the Service for the Ordering of Ministry, and Sunday Morning Worship. Also covered were the rules for making motions, the consent agenda deadline, reporting to local churches and districts and voting on resolutions and motions.

Mr. Harper instructed the laity to raise the yellow cards found in their conference packets if they desire to speak during the appropriate times. He announced that buses are available to the hotel loop and downtown for lunches and ushers in orange vests are available for assistance.

Mr. Stephen B. Clark, President, United Methodist Foundation, gave a presentation about the work of the foundation and its support of local churches.

Mr. Harper introduced a time of reflection related to the 2016 General Conference in Portland, Oregon. He invited Ms. Martha Stokes, Ms. Beth Christian, and Ms. Alison Malloy, Delegates to the General Conference, to share personal experiences. Prior to reflections, Mr. Ronald White, Richmond District Lay Leader, read 1 John 2:17, Mr. Bobby Thompson, Danville District Lay Leader, provided a statement about the United Methodist connection and Ms. Kathy Lutman, Interim Winchester District Lay Leader, provided an overview of General Conference. Ms. Stokes shared information about General Conference. Ms. Iris Smith, Eastern Shore District Lay Leader, read 1 John 2:17, followed by the presentation from Ms. Christian. Mr. Bob Forrest, Charlottesville District Lay Leader, read Psalm 40:8, followed by Ms. Malloy's reflection. Mr. Gary Denette, Elizabeth River District Lay Leader, read Luke 22:42, followed by an announcement by Mr. Harper about a full General Conference report to be given on Saturday morning, by Rev. Tom Berlin, head clergy delegate and Ms. Stokes, head lay delegate.

The Laity Session closed at 2:24 p.m. with the “Lord’s Prayer” video in Spanish introduced by Mr. Gerry Fuss, James River District Lay Leader.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON PLENARY SESSION, JUNE 17, 2016

Bishop Young Jin Cho, resident bishop of the Richmond Area, called the first plenary of the 234th Session of the Virginia Annual Conference to order at 3:00 p.m. Rev. Joanna Dietz, Braddock Street United Methodist Church, Winchester District, led the conference in singing the historic Charles Wesley hymn, “And Are We Yet Alive.” The opening prayer was given by Rev. Raymond Wrenn, retired, Braddock Street United Methodist Church, Winchester District. This was his 76th year as a member of the Virginia Annual Conference. Ms. Hannah Hale, incoming Co-Chair, Conference Council on Youth Ministries, also offered an opening prayer. Ms. Hale was attending her first annual conference as a lay member.

Bishop Cho thanked retired Bishop Ray Chamberlain, Rev. Stephen Bray, Chair, Conference Rules Committee and Ms. Mary L. Brett Wright, Conference Rules Committee member, for serving as parliamentarians for the afternoon plenary session.

Bishop Cho recognized Roanoke District Superintendent Kathleen Overby Webster who welcomed members and guests to Roanoke and noted the bookmarks given as a gift from the Roanoke District to all members of Conference. She pointed out the ushers in the red sashes who were available to assist Conference members. Rev. Overby Webster introduced Roanoke District Lay Leader Brenda Brooks. Ms. Brooks introduced Rev. Kiok Cho, spouse of Bishop Cho, and Rev. Harold Webster, spouse of Rev. Overby Webster. Rev. Overby Webster welcomed Retired Bishop Ray and Ms. Martha Chamberlain. Bishop Chamberlain is a former member of the Virginia Annual Conference. She recognized retired episcopal leaders who could not be present: Bishop Kern Eustler, Bishop C. P. Minnick, Bishop H. Hasbrouck Hughes and his wife, Ms. Mera Hughes, and Bishop Timothy Whitaker and his wife, Ms. Melba Whitaker. Bishop Cho offered prayer for all the retired bishops and their spouses from the Virginia Annual Conferences.

Rev. Overby Webster moved to establish the bar of the conference, consisting of the platform, the floor with the risers on both sides, boxes one through five and eight through 12, plus the first six rows of the upper concourse areas, one through 10 and 25 through 34, and that the technical and camera platforms be considered part of the floor. The motion was approved.

Rev. Overby Webster moved the election of Rev. Susan Reaves as Annual Conference Secretary for the 2017-20 quadrennium. Rev. Reaves was elected.

Rev. Reaves moved the election of Rev. Delano Douglas and Ms. Beverly Myers as assistant secretaries to the annual conference and the election of Ms. Madeline Pillow as Editor of the Journal. The motion was approved.

Rev. Reaves moved the election of the annual conference committees and tellers, listed on page 42 of the Book of Reports and on the green Addendum sheet to the Book of Reports that is found in the official packet. They were elected.

Rev. Reaves announced that Parlor A, adjacent to Berglund Hall, has been designated as a Prayer Room throughout the Annual Conference. Also, amendments to the agenda must be submitted before the end of the afternoon session Friday, June 17.

She then explained the Annual Conference may nominate at least 15 and not more than 45 persons to the jurisdictional pool. For the 2016 Annual Conference, nominations should be made in writing using the form found in the Book of Report’s packet. She further explained that all General and Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference delegates are already in the pool. The additional nominations are very important for purposes of racial, ethnic, disability and age inclusivity. All nominees must be professing members of the United Methodist Church and active in local churches.

Any individuals who have not given their consent to have their names put forward or have not agreed to serve if selected should not be nominated. Terms are for four years, with eligibility for a second four year term; require travel to a minimum of two meetings per year with possible meeting locations outside the U.S. and require commitment to the full work of the board/commission.

Rev. Reaves announced that completed nomination forms must be in the secretary’s inbox at the front of the stage by the end of the Friday afternoon session of Annual Conference. No nominations will be accepted after that time.

Rev. Reaves then noted that the Consent Agenda Committee determined that the deadline to request items be removed from the Consent Agenda will be 4:30 p.m., June 17. According to Conference Rules, removal of an individual item from the Consent Agenda requires 30 signatures accompanying the request. Motion forms to request removal of items from the Consent Agenda are at the front of the stage and must be returned to the secretary’s inbox at the established deadline. She pointed out that the Addendum Sheet includes updates to the Consent Agenda and that the Board of Church and Society report on page 72 of the Book of Reports shall be included as part of the Consent Agenda.

Bishop Cho addressed the tragic events that took place in Orlando, Florida, Sunday June 12, when 49 people were massacred. He lifted up the Florida Annual Conference, meeting concurrently with the Virginia Annual Conference. He encouraged the assembly to work to become God’s beloved community and to resist violence in all its forms. He then led a time of silent prayer followed by a prayer for the people of the Florida Annual Conference.

Rev. Stephen Bray, Chair, Rules Committee, moved the suspension of the rules to allow time for his report. The rules were suspended. He presented the report of the Rules Committee, found in the Book of Reports, pages 43-44. The Rules Committee addressed the length of time needed for voting for the delegates to the General and Southeastern Jurisdictional Conferences. The Rules Committee proposed changing rules regarding the election of delegates. Rev. Teresa Smith, New Hope United Methodist Church, Fredericksburg District, offered an amendment to the proposed change to paragraph III.E.7, page 23, from “the 25 nominees receiving the highest number of votes” to 50 nominees.. The motion was not approved.

Winchester District Superintendent Larry Thompson proposed an amendment to the color of the name badges listed on page 33 of the rules. He proposed changing yellow, salmon and gray to white. Rev. Bray remarked that the Rules Committee did not recommend the rule change. Mr. Mike Monge, delegate-at large, Elizabeth River District, proposed an amendment to add onto the back of the name badge the voting rights of each classification of badge color. The amendment was not approved. Rev. Thompson’s amendment was approved.

Rev. Bray called upon Mr. Stephen Clark, President, Virginia United Methodist Foundation, who recommended approval of the amended charter and bylaws for the United Methodist Foundation of the Virginia Conference, Inc., which will then require the following change in the Standing Rules, V.B.11 on page 30, thereby, the size of the Board is amended and reduced from 30 to 23, and the allocations revised to be 14 elected by Annual Conference and nine elected by the Board of Directors.

Rev. Ed Walker proposed amending the rules found on page eight of the Book of Reports by striking section I.A, and changing the word “mission” in I.B to “purpose” then renumbering. The Rules Committee recommended changes to the standing rules as reported on page 43-44. The recommendations with the amendments passed.

Bishop Cho thanked Rev. Bray for his 11 years of service on the Conference Rules Committee and as committee chair for the past eight years. He noted that Rev. Bray’s father had also been the chair of the rules committee.

Rev. Mary Dadisman, Clergy Co-Chair, Commission on the Status and Role of Women, reported on the monitoring process. She noted that the new Lay Co-Chair will be Ms. Amanda Thomas, Clarendon United Methodist Church, Arlington District. She encouraged the body to work for the full inclusion of everyone at God's table.

Bishop Cho gave the Episcopal Address. He reminded the assembly that "ministry as usual" was no longer an option. He lifted up those moments that were highlights of his term as Bishop. He included the Imagine No Malaria campaign, All Things New-Equipping Vital Congregations and the strengthening of the spiritual foundation of the conference. His hope is that the conference will continue to build on this spiritual foundation and the development of new faith communities.

He expressed his thanks to the Cabinet and to his "boss" Kiok. He also thanked Rev. Tom Joyce, Assistant to the Bishop, Ms. Estelle Pruden, former secretary, Ms. Terri Biggins, current secretary, Ms. Shirley Cauffman, Chair Committee on the Episcopacy and all committee members. Finally, he also thanked all who prayed for him throughout his term as bishop. His final words were, "Hallelujah, Amen."

Farmville District Superintendent Robert Parks gave the Report of the Cabinet found in the Book of Reports, pages 45-48. He presented for election the nominees for District Committees on Ordained Ministry, listed on the violet sheet in members' official packets. He presented nominees for members of the District Boards of Church Location and Building, found on the gold sheet in the official packets. The nominees were elected, as presented.

Rev. Parks presented for annual conference approval the remaining sections of Minute Questions 14, 15 and 16, found on the white sheet in members' official packets, and the additions to the Minute Questions on the green addendum sheet. He also corrected Minute Question 14 j which should read, "Springfield: Discontinue Part Time (75%) Associate Pastor Position." He placed Minute Questions 14, 15 and 16 before the conference, including proposed changes in the list of churches and district and charge lines. The motion was approved.

Mr. Thomas Nealley, Chair, Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation, presented the report found in the Book of Reports, pages 49-50. Mr. Nealley recommended that the Equitable Compensation Fund apportionment for 2016 be $350,000. The recommendation was approved.

Mr. Nealley recommended that the Minimum Compensation Schedule for 2017 be $41,500 for Full Connection Pastors, $38,000 for Provisional and Associate Members and $35,500 for Local Pastors. The recommendation was approved.

Mr. Nealley then recommended that the floor schedule for 2017 be approved as $28,000 for Full Connection Pastors, $25,600 for Provisional and Associate Members and $24,000 for Local Pastors. The recommendation was approved. Bishop Cho asked all those who worked on the Equitable Compensation Commission to stand. He thanked them for their work.

Bishop Cho suspended the 234th Session of the Virginia Annual Conference, and introduced Rev. Jack Martin, President, Virginia Conference Historical Society. Rev. Martin called the annual meeting of the Society to order. He presented his report found, on page 51, of the Book of Reports and a brief video. He presented the Historical Society Trustees for 2016-17 for confirmation. They were confirmed. The meeting of the Historical Society was adjourned. Bishop Cho reconvened the 234th session of the Virginia Annual Conference.

Bishop Cho reminded members and guests that on Saturday, June 18, the conference mission offering would be received as part of the 11 a.m. Conference Mission worship service and the Sacrament of Eucharist celebrated at 7:30 a.m. in the Prayer Room. Bishop Cho offered recommendations for reading and study: Becoming a Blessed Church (2nd Edition), N. Graham Standish; Minding the Good Ground, Jason E. Vickers; Christianity After Religion, Diana Butler Bass; The Emotional Intelligence of Jesus, Roy M. Oswald and Ariand Jacobson and Defying Gravity, Tom Berlin.

Other announcements were given by the Conference Secretary, including the rules regarding nominations to the Episcopacy. Bishop Cho closed the session with the singing of the praise song "Hallelu, Hallelu." The plenary session recessed for dinner at 5:01 p.m.

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 17, 2016

SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE AND HOLY COMMUNION

A Service of Remembrance began at 7:30 p.m. Bishop Young Jin Cho led in worship. Ms. Minoka Guneskera, Blacksburg United Methodist Church, Roanoke District; Mr. Justin Robins, Shady Grove United Methodist Church, Richmond District, and Rev. Judy Hall, Pastoral Counselor, Pastoral Counseling of Northern Virginia, were the liturgists. Rev. Susan Reaves, Conference Secretary, assisted in worship. Memorial candles were lit during the reading of the names of the clergy, diaconal minister, clergy spouses and lay members of the Virginia Annual Conference who had died during the previous year. The congregation joined in giving thanks to God for each of these faithful persons. Rev. Morris Fleischer, Newport-Mount Olivet Charge, Roanoke District, and Ms. Peggy Lootens, Saint Mark's United Methodist Church, Roanoke District, served as acolytes.

Rev. Myrtle Frances Hatcher, Main Street United Methodist Church, James River District, preached the message, "Best Day Ever" based on Romans 12:9-21. Rev. Hatcher spoke of "our dear brothers and sisters in Christ" who have gone on to the church eternal and celebrated the many hours of service they gave as they lived out the Gospel. Bishop Cho presided in the service of Holy Communion assisted by Rev. Charlie Baber, Highland United Methodist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina. The Tomorrow Has Come Band provided music along with the Traditional Choral Ensemble. The communion coordinator was Rev. Robert Lough, Saint Mark's United Methodist Church, Roanoke District. Rev. David Vaughan, Evangelical United Methodist Church, Harrisonburg District, and Rev. Lauren Lobenhofer, Gum Spring United Methodist Church, Richmond District, were the worship coordinators. Rev. Joanna Dietz, Braddock Street United Methodist Church, Winchester District, was the Music Coordinator. Following the benediction, the evening session was adjourned at 8:48 pm.

SATURDAY MORNING PLENARY SESSION, June 18, 2016

"Singing Our Faith" was led by the Deacon Choir, the Traditional Choral Ensemble and the Tomorrow Has Come Band at 8:15 a.m. Bishop Young Jin Cho welcomed members and guests of the conference and led in prayer at 8:34 a.m. He welcomed Dr. L. Gregory Jones as the Conference Bible Study leader.

Dr. Jones is transitioning to a new role as Executive Vice President and Provost of Baylor University and continues to serve as Senior Fellow for Leadership Education at Duke Divinity School. From 1997-2010, he was Dean of Duke Divinity School where he led the institution to a significant expansion of resources, networks and impact. Dr. Jones is the author or editor of 17 books, including his most recent, Christian Social Innovation: Renewing Wesleyan Witness.

He led a Bible study based on chapters 10-21 in Numbers. He spoke about Moses' intimacy with God and encouraged the assembly to seek that kind of intimate knowledge of God. He encouraged everyone to pray and be drawn toward living out the will of God.

Bishop Cho led the conference in prayer; with the words, "God's will. Nothing less. Nothing more. Nothing else." He called the session to order at 9:18 a.m.

Rev. Stan Thompson, Chair, Minutes Committee, presented the report of the Minutes Committee. He moved the acceptance of the minutes for the Clergy Executive Session, the Laity Session, the Friday afternoon plenary session and the Service of Remembrance. The minutes were approved.

Mr. Robert Forrest, Conference Board of Laity member, nominated Mr. Warren Harper as Conference Lay Leader for the 2017-20 quadrennium. Mr. Harper was elected Conference Lay Leader by affirmation. Mr. Harper then delivered the Laity address. His text was Matthew 8:18-22 and his message was inspired by the meeting of the Association of Annual Conference Lay Leaders. Mr. Harper stated that, "Following Jesus is not all mountain tops and church dinners. We must encourage our churches to reach out to their neighbors and invite them to Christ." He noted that we must listen for God's voice before we attend to the work of the church.

The Board of Laity expressed their thanks to Bishop Cho and presented him with a gift.

Bishop Cho called the Conference Board of Laity to the stage and expressed his thanks for their work. The assembly applauded the work of the Board.

Bishop Cho introduced Bishop John Innis, Liberia Annual Conference. He was elected bishop on the first ballot at the West Africa Central Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Monrovia in December 2000, and assigned to the Liberia Area of The United Methodist Church. He was additionally assigned to the Cote d'Ivoire Annual Conference from 2003 to 2005.

Mr. Robert Sanford, Jr., Chair, Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc. (VUMPI), presented the report found in the Book of Reports, pages 53-69. He moved to suspend the rules to allow the presentation of his report. The rules were suspended.

He noted that because of the action of General Conference, the Denominational Average Compensation has been calculated at a lower number than reported in the Book of Reports.

This is the second year that VUMPI has recommended no cost increase in the conferenced-sponsored health plans. New rules governing eligibility will become effective in 2017 by action of General Conference. Part-time elders and deacons in half-time and quarter-time appointments will no longer be eligible for Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) coverage. This will affect approximately 13 people in the Virginia Conference. District superintendents and local churches will work to develop alternative strategies for these persons. It was noted that local pastors appointed at 75% service are not eligible for CPP benefits, a change from previous years.

Mr. Sanford presented Recommendations 1-7. They were approved.

Rev. Marc Brown, Director of Connectional Ministries as well as Chair, Common Table for Church Vitality (Common Table) and Mr. Warren Harper, Conference Lay Leader and Vice-Chair, Common Table, presented the report found in the Book of Reports, pages 77-108. Mr. Harper pointed out that the parts of the Conference budget which Common Table oversees in Line Item 401 (Conference Mission and Ministries) reflect a reduction of $73,000 in 2017 and a cumulative reduction of over $800,000 since 2009.

Ms. Rachel Miller, Common Table member, presented five recommendations found in the Book of Reports, page 71: (1) by the Board of Discipleship regarding the observance of Christian Education Sunday (based upon the action of last year's Annual Conference a special offering will not be received); (2) by the Board of Discipleship, the endorsement of Rev. Gregory West as a general evangelist according to the standards of the General Board of Discipleship; (3) by Missional Ministries, the continuation of Conference Relationship Agreements: between the Virginia Conference and the following: Heart Havens, Inc.; United Methodist Family Services of Virginia; Virginia United Methodist Homes, Inc.; Virginia United Methodist Housing Development Corporation and Wesley Housing Development Corporation. (4) by Missional Ministries regarding special offerings for Heart Havens, Inc; United Methodist Family Services; Virginia United Methodist Homes, Inc; Virginia United Methodist Housing Development Corporation and Wesley Housing Development Corporation and (5) by Missional Ministries regarding Advance Special offerings found in the Book of Reports, pages 84-85 and the corrections found on the addendum. The recommendations were approved.

Ms. Iris Smith, Common Table member, introduced a video on leadership development.

Ms. Martha Reed, Common Table member, reported that the Common Table has approved long term disaster relief for the areas in Virginia affected by tornadoes that struck in February.

Rev. Robert Pihlcrantz, Virginia Conference Disaster Response Coordinator, gave an update on the long-term relief work being done for the tornado recovery effort. Work began in Waverly, Virginia, June 6, 2016. The Virginia Conference is the only group working for recovery there. Recovery has also begun in Evergreen, VA. FEMA denied funding requests to those affected by the tornadoes. He noted that the most important part of recovery is the people.

Rev. Brown recognized Ms. Linda Rhodes, Conference Director of Communications, for her nine years of service. She is retiring on September 1, 2016. Ms. Rhodes could not come to the stage, as she was overseeing the Annual Conference production process. She waved from her place at the tech table. He also recognized Ms. Madeline Pillow, News Associate and Editor of the Advocate, who will serve as the interim Director of Communications beginning September 1, 2016. Rev. Brown thanked all of the Connectional Ministry Staff for their devotion to the work of God's kingdom.

Bishop Cho stated that morning worship will be at 11 a.m. and the Conference Offering will be received during the service.

Rev. Brown asked everyone who had served as a chair or member of a conference board or agency over the past quadrennium to stand. He thanked them. Mr. Harper presented the report of the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team found in the Book of Reports, pages 109-112, and on the green addendum sheet. The nominees to committees, commissions, boards and agencies of the annual conference were elected.

Rev. Tom Joyce, Assistant to the Bishop, nominated Mr. Steven Brown for election as Conference Chancellor for the 2017-20 quadrennium. Mr.

Brown has over twenty-five years of experience in trying labor and employment cases in state and federal courts all over the United States. He provides legal and strategic advice related to all labor and employment issues. He was elected.

Bishop Cho asked all newly elected persons to stand as they were able. He thanked all those who serve, consecrated them to their service and prayed over them.

Rev. Rob Vaughn, proposed a motion regarding the June 12, 2016, Pulse shooting in Orlando, Florida. He moved the following:

1. that the 2016 Virginia Annual Conference encourages United Methodists to continue to pray for persons touched by the Orlando shootings and for persons whose place of safety from anti-gay hostility has been violated; to continue to preach love and welcome, especially for persons who have felt estranged from the church; to welcome the stranger, to open our hearts to the marginalized, vulnerable and oppressed and especially the LGBTQI community even in the midst of our continuing discernment about the role of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgendered and queer persons in the life of the church.
2. that the Virginia Annual Conference encourages the sharing of the United Methodist Council of Bishop's statement about the June 12 mass shooting which expresses grief, encourages prayer, and seeks solidarity with our Muslim community which also condemns this violent act, lifts up our Florida family of faith and call us to redouble our commitment to fulfill God's vision of the Beloved Community.
3. that the Virginia Annual Conference encourages United Methodists, both individually and as local churches, to work to destroy the systemic fear, hatred and discrimination that leads to violence against LGBTQ persons and communities proclaiming that God's LGBTQI children are all of sacred worth; and as one beginning step, to follow the suggestion of Rev. Jennifer Stiles Williams of St. Luke's UMC, Orlando to "Find ways to sit at the table with people who are different and hold holy conversations that speak grace (and) start speaking up against violence and bullying toward people who are different."

The motion was approved.

Ms. Martha Stokes, head of the delegation to General Conference and Rev. Tom Berlin, Secretary of the delegation to General Conference presented a report on the 2016 General Conference held in Portland, Oregon. Ms. Stokes asked the delegates to General and Southeastern Jurisdictional Conferences to stand and be recognized. She referred to videos available to give insight into General Conference that can be used by the local church.

Rev. Berlin discussed the passing of a resolution that would create a commission on human sexuality, to be appointed by the Council of Bishops in November 2016. He said this may lead to a called General Conference before 2020, depending on when the commission finishes its work. He urged everyone to pray for the bishops as they form the commission.

The General Conference approved a budget of $604,000,000. Ms. Stokes presented some of the legislation that passed and did not pass. She pointed out that there will be a new high tech hymnal created that will be internet Cloud based and can be printed on demand. She noted that we have been given an opportunity to create a church of which God would be proud. She encouraged the body to continue to pray for the delegation through jurisdictional conference. Rev. Berlin presented Ms. Stokes with a glass apple in appreciation for the way she has demonstrated the fruit of the spirit through her leadership.

Ms. Stokes reported on the nominations to the Southeastern Jurisdictional pool. She noted that there were 53 persons nominated from the floor of Annual Conference. She then presented a list of persons nominated to the Southeastern Jurisdictional pool for consideration as nominees to general boards and agencies. These persons, whose names were projected on the overhead screen, were nominated by members of the General and Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference delegation and Bishop Cho. The following were nominated: Ms. Katherine Akers, Rev. Regina Anderson-Cloud, Rev. Veronica Barrell, Rev. Lindsey Baynham, Rev. Paulo da Silva, Rev. Sherry Daniels, Mr. Andrew Dietz, Mr. Johnnie Draughon, Rev. Rachel Gilmore, Rev. Victor Gomez, Ms. Rebekah Greer, Ms. Michelle Hettmann, Rev. Marcela Jarman, Rev. Mikang Kim, Ms. Ann Klotz, Rev. Ryan LaRock, Rev. Hyo Joong Lee, Rev. Virginia Lee, Rev. Won Gyu Lee, Mr. Carlos Liceaga, Rev. Rachel May, Mr. Joshua McCauley, Ms. Rachel Miller, Mr. Wyley Neal, Rev. Emmanuel Nkrumah, Rev. Jinwook Oh, Rev. Derrick Parson, Rev. Clayton Payne, Rev. David Rash, Mr. Kip Robinson, Rev. Lydia Rodriguez, Mr. Nick Ruxton, Rev. Ryan Schaeffer, Rev. Bryson Smith, Rev. Jae Yong Song, Rev. Debra Straughter, Ms. Lori Valentine de Segovia, Rev. Elizabeth Walker, Ms. Nina Cortada Winkler, Mr. Neal Wise and Rev. Luz Zuleta. The General and Jurisdiction delegates are also part of the jurisdictional pool of nominees.

Rev. John Peters, Executive Director, Association of Educational Institutions, introduced a video and recognized, Dr. Jennifer Braaten, President of Ferrum College who is retiring after 14 years. She introduced Mr. Robert Lindgren, President of Randolph-Macon College, and Dr. Scott Miller, President of Virginia Wesleyan College and spoke on behalf of the United Methodist College Presidents.

Bishop Innis brought greetings from the Liberia Annual Conference and West Africa Central Conference. He noted that he and Bishop Cho are both retiring this year. He thanked the Conference for its support. He said, "Let's keep up the gift of Jesus Christ."

Bishop Cho called an order of the day so that worship could begin.

Holy Rollers biked 150 miles from New Market to Roanoke, VA, to bring awareness to the conference mission offering, promote fitness and have fellowship.

The Conference Mission Service began at 11:05 a.m. Bishop Cho presided over the morning worship service. Rev. Eun Pa Hong, pastor of Bupyeong Methodist Church, Incheon, Korea, brought the message based on Isaiah 60:1-3. Rev. Won Gyu Lee, Fredericksburg United Methodist Church, Fredericksburg District, served as translator. Bishop Cho noted that Rev. Hong and Bupyeong Methodist Church have invited people from all over the world to stay at the church and learn about Korean spirituality. As part of his message Rev. Hong showed several short videos. They depicted: the devastation of the Korean War, a brief history of American missionaries in Korea and the congregational life of several Korean churches. He concluded by encouraging the body to "Awake from sleep. Arise and shine the light of Christ in the world." Ms. Sarah Hundley, Global Missions Fellow, General Board of Global Ministries, and Mr. Kip Robinson, retired Global Ministries Missionary to Sierra Leone, were the liturgists. Anthems were provided by the Asian American Ministers Choir and the Korea Pilgrim's Choir coordinated by Rev. Won Un and accompanied by Rev. Milton Rogers. Additional music was provided by the Tomorrow Has Come Band and the Traditional Choral Ensemble. During the service, the conference offering was received. The worship service concluded at 12:04 p.m.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON PLENARY SESSION, JUNE 18, 2016

"Singing Our Faith" was led by the Tomorrow Has Come Band at 1:45 p.m.

Bishop Cho called the session to order at 2:00 p.m. and said, "We need to shut up before God, and let God be God." A time of silent prayer followed.

The Annual Conference Retirement Service celebrated the ministry of those clergy and their spouses who were retiring at the 234th Session of the Virginia Annual Conference. Bishop Cho presided. Rev. Jim Tongue, Bridgewater United Methodist Church, Harrisonburg District, preached on Genesis 12:1-4. He spoke about the assembled retirees and all the people they have loved through their ministries and all the communities they have served. He reminded us that Jesus Christ is the good shepherd who leads us through every circumstance. Serving as liturgists were Rev. Jennifer Fletcher, Rev. Chenda Lee, Rev. J. Robert Schoeman, from the ordination class of 2016; Rev. Jean Hankins, retirement class of 2016; Ms. Michelle Hetman, Grace United Methodist Church, Alexandria District, and Ms. Autumn Surran, Franktown United Methodist Church, Eastern Shore District. Mr. John Fuller, Executive Director of Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc., recognized the retirees. Rev. Frances Cooper, Chair, Virginia Conference Order of Elders; Rev. John Hall, Sr., President, Virginia Conference Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members; Ms. Sue Mayo, Farmville District Lay Leader; Rev. Mac McKenney, Licensing Class of 2016; Ms. Leila Soulen, Calling 21 Intern and Rev. Jason Stanley, Chair, Virginia Conference Order of Deacon, read the ministry statements of the retirees. Each retiree was greeted by Bishop Cho. The music was provided by the Traditional Choral Ensemble.

Ms. Shirley Cauffman, Chair, Committee on Episcopacy, offered words of appreciation for Bishop Cho's ministry with the Virginia Conference. She praised Bishop Cho, "for putting the Conference on the right track." Rev. Tom Berlin, Floris United Methodist Church, Arlington District, praised Bishop Cho for changing the culture of the Virginia Annual Conference and guiding it with a gentle hand. Bishop Cho was presented with a check for $14,310 for the Bishops' Foundation endowment to fund training and leadership development for clergy and laity in the area of "Spiritual Leadership." A video was shown, followed by the song "Happy." Youth came on stage and danced with the Bishop then gave him a group hug. Bishop Cho said he does not know what he will do in retirement but he knows who will lead him.

Rev. Clarence Brown, Annandale United Methodist Church, Arlington District, initiated bidding to buy the cut-out of Bishop Cho used during the Imagine No Malaria Campaign. Bishop Ray Chamberlain acted as auctioneer. The cabinet gave the final bid of $3,200 and received the cut-out.

Rev. Don Jamison, Chair, Conference Board of Discipleship, presented the Clergy Denman Award for Evangelism to Rev. Emmanuel Nkrumah, Ghana Wesley United Methodist Church, Alexandria District. Receiving the Laity Denman Award was Mary Ella Fuquay, Saint Matthias United Methodist Church, Fredericksburg District. The Youth Denman Award for Evangelism was presented to Ms. Heather Galway, Saint Paul's United Methodist Church, Staunton District.

Rev. Susan Reaves, Secretary of the Annual Conference, announced that there was one nominee for the Episcopacy, Rev. Ted Smith. Eastern Shore District Superintendent Alex Joyner made a motion to suspend the rules in order to vote an endorsement of Rev. Smith by acclamation. The rules were suspended. The motion to endorse Rev. Smith was approved. Dr. Smith addressed the Annual Conference.

Rev. Doug Geeting, Chair, Conference Site Selection Committee, presented his report, found in the Book of Reports, page 135. The committee recommended that Hampton be the site for Annual Conference in 2021 and 2022. There was no action taken.

Mr. James Eads, Chief Executive Officer, Virginia United Methodist Credit Union, reported on the work of the Credit Union. A video was shown describing some of the ways that the Credit Union helps churches and individuals.

Rev. Jason Stanley, Chair, Order of Deacons, acknowledged the 20-year anniversary of the Order of Deacons. He presented a video on the order. The Order of Deacons bridges the space between the world and the church. Finally, a quilt was presented to Bishop Cho that had been prayed over by the diaconate.

Harrisonburg District Superintendent Tommy Herndon recounted some of the recent history of the Virginia United Methodist Assembly Center. There is a possibility that the Assembly Center could be leased by the Oxford Group for use as a hotel in the future.

Rev. Clayton Childers, Director of Annual Conference Relations for the General Board of Church and Society, addressed the Imagine No Malaria campaign. There was a goal to raise $75,000,000. Altogether, $68,000,000 was raised for Imagine No Malaria. The United Methodist Church has been a leading voice in the effort to fight malaria.

Rev. Mochel Morris, Chair, Committee on Resolutions, presented Resolution 1: "Ban the Box" found on pages 152-153 in the Book of Reports. She noted that Virginia Governor Terry McAuliffe signed an executive order banning the state from asking about prospective employees' criminal histories at the first level of applications. However, this did not extend to the private sector. Ms. Dorothy Ivey, General Board of Church and Society, spoke to the resolution. The Resolution Committee recommended concurrence. The resolution was approved.

Rev. Morris presented Resolution 2: "Establish a Mentoring Ministry for Adolescents in the Community that it Serves," found on page 154 in the Book of Reports. Mr. Dave Stegmaier, John Mann United Methodist Church, Winchester District, spoke to the motion on behalf of the Board of Church and Society. The Resolutions Committee recommended concurrence.

Mr. Joel Joyner, Franktown United Methodist Church, Eastern Shore District, asked to amend the resolution, such that the first sentence in the second to the last paragraph, beginning with, "Now, therefore, be it resolved," reads as follows: "Now, therefore, be it resolved that the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church calls on each congregation to establish or support a ministry to adolescents who are not reaching" etc. This was accepted as a friendly amendment.

The resolution was approved.

Rev. Morris explained that Resolution 3, "Responding to Requests from Christians in the Holy Land," pages 155-156, has been withdrawn because a nearly identical resolution was approved at the 2016 General Conference. This supersedes action by the Annual Conference.

Bishop Cho surveyed the body to ascertain if everyone had copies of the addendum containing the nominees to the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. They were elected.

Bishop Cho then thanked Bishop Chamberlain and Rev. Joshua King, Rules Committee member, for serving as parliamentarians during this session of Annual Conference.

At 5:05 p.m., Bishop Cho announced the recess for dinner.

SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 18, 2016 A SERVICE FOR THE ORDERING OF MINISTRY

Bishop Young Jin Cho presided at the Service for the Ordering of Ministry, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Jonathan Barton, General Minister, Virginia Council of Churches, represented the ecumenical community. Bishop Mark Webb, Upper New York Annual Conference preached the sermon, "Called and Connected," based on John 15:1-11 and Ephesians 3:14-21. He placed emphasis on the reality that ministry is not about "ability" but "availability." In order to remain called and connected, he encouraged all to "seek the reality of who God is, confess who we are, and to trust what God promises."

Virginia Annual Conference members assisting in the service included: Mr. Warren Harper, Conference Lay Leader; Rev. Jason Stanley, Chair, Order of Deacons; Rev. Frances T. Cooper, Chair, Order of Elders; and Rev. Edward R. Walker, Chair, Board of Ordained Ministry. Serving as Marshals were Rev. Brenda Laws, Deacon, Eastern Shore Community Services Board, Eastern Shore District; Rev. Meredith McNabb, Director, Center for Clergy Excellence; Rev. Bradley Dulaney, Redwood United Methodist Church, Danville District; Rev. Lynn Alley-Grant, Timberlake United Methodist Church, Lynchburg District; Rev. Ileana Rosario, Lower United Methodist Church, York River District; Rev. Won Gyu Lee, Fredericksburg United Methodist Church, Fredericksburg District and Rev. Lydia Rodriguez, Wesley United Methodist Church, Alexandria District. Serving as acolyte was Mr. A. Shawn Kiger, Director of Youth and Missions, Wrights Chapel United Methodist Church, Fredericksburg District. Serving as crucifer was Rev. Bradley McMullen, Bethany United Methodist Church, Harrisonburg District. Banner carriers were: Rev. Joseph Cailles, Monumental United Methodist Church, Elizabeth River District (Local Pastors); Rev. Michele Manning, Retired Deacon, Alexandria District (Diaconal); Rev. William B. Montgomery, Heritage United Methodist Church, Lynchburg District (Commissioned); Rev. John R. Hall, Sr., Bethel United Methodist Church, Richmond District (Associate Member); Rev. Christian White, Fairlington United Methodist Church, Alexandria District (Deacon); Rev. Clarence Brown, Anandale United Methodist Church, Alexandria District (Elder); and Rev. Robert Cooper, Mount Pisgah United Methodist Church, Richmond District (Bishop). Symbol carriers were Rev. Lorenzo D. Hill, Cranford United Methodist Church, Alexandria District (Bible); Rev. Joan Rudisill, Winchester District (Pitcher, Towel, and Basin); and Rev. Susan Hannah, St. Luke's United Methodist Church, Danville District (Paten and Chalice). Members of Thrasher Memorial United Methodist Church and Blacksburg United Methodist Church Orchestras, directed by Mr. Josh O'Dell, provided music. The Wesley Singers from Virginia Tech also performed. Rev. Leigh Anne Taylor, Blacksburg United Methodist Church, Roanoke District, was the music leader for the service.

Bishop Cho licensed, commissioned and ordained the candidates as listed in the worship booklet for the service. During the service 31 local pastors were licensed, 16 provisional members were commissioned, two deacons were ordained and 21 elders were ordained.

Following the prayer of thanksgiving, Bishop Cho addressed the newly licensed, commissioned and ordained clergy. He invited those feeling led by the Holy Spirit to inquire into Christian ministry to come forward and greet him during the singing of the final hymn. Clergy members of the conference counseled with those inquiring into ministry. The session concluded with the dismissal and blessing at 9:36 p.m.

SUNDAY MORNING PLENARY SESSION - JUNE 19, 2016

"Singing our Faith" was led at 8:15 a.m. by the Tomorrow Has Come Band. Bishop Young Jin Cho greeted the Conference and led in prayer at 8:30 a.m. He welcomed Dr. L. Gregory Jones who then presented the morning Bible Study.

Dr. Jones began by mentioning that a number of people had asked him about the prayer he had mentioned at the previous day's Bible Study. Maggy Barankitse's prayer can be found at www.faithleadership.org.

Dr. Jones focused on Philippians 2:5. He noted that in the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible the verse is translated as "Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus." Dr. Jones noted that, "We are called to align our thoughts with God." He encouraged the assembly to rely on holy friends who can help us connect our dreams to the will of God.

Bishop Cho remarked that the Annual Conference needs to be encouraged and inspired. He said, "Dr. Jones has done that very thing."

Bishop Cho called the session to order at 9:25 a.m. He expressed appreciation to Ms. Judy Craun, and Rev. James Smith, Rules Committee members, and Bishop Ray Chamberlain for serving as parliamentarians for the morning's session.

Rev. Stan Thompson, Chair, Minutes Committee, presented the committee's report. Rev. Thompson moved the acceptance of the minutes for the Friday evening worship service, the Saturday morning plenary session and worship service, the Saturday afternoon plenary session and the evening service as reviewed and corrected. Rev. Thompson announced that the Minutes Committee would meet on June 28, 2016, to complete the review and certification of the minutes. He moved that the minutes for those sessions be approved in advance. The motions were approved.

Bishop Cho set the time of morning worship and noted the Conference would recess at 10:45 a.m.

Mr. David Dommis, Conference Statistician, presented the report found on page 113, Book of Reports. Professions of faiths declined as did Hispanic and African American membership. Asian membership rose 7%. He noted that the percentage decrease in total members from 2014 to 2015 was .46%. The average weekly worship attendance for that period was 98,253.

Mr. Dommis, Conference Treasurer, presented the treasurer's report, found in the Book of Reports, pages 114-120. He noted a decrease in apportioned funds receipts of almost 3.12 % in 2015. The total apportioned and non-apportioned funds received in 2015 were $29,938,645 a drop of 2.64% from 2014. These funds have been audited, with no corrections. Mr. Benham Black, attorney for the Conference Trustees, was thanked for his service. He has held this position since 1960.

Rev. Steve Summers, President, Conference Council on Finance and Administration (CFA), called for a suspension of the rules to present the CFA report on the Green Addendum sheets found in members' official packets, as the actions of the 2016 General Conference changed previous figures printed in the Book of Reports. The rules were suspended.

Rev. Summers presented Sections I-VII of the report. The report was approved.

Rev. George Riggins III, Monroe United Methodist Church, Lynchburg District made a motion:

Be it further resolved that the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church request that an amount of not less than $10,000 and not more than $20,000 be added to the Conference proposed budget for 2017 for funding for the provision in ¶ 354.6 for persons "on voluntary leave of absence "in exceptional circumstances"

Rev. Summers pointed out that there is a fund in the CFA budget, "Contingency Funds for Unforeseen Circumstances", containing $25,000, available for exceptional circumstances where applicable

The motion was not approved.

Rev. Stephen Hundley, Extension Ministry, presented a motion to delete "$88,000" in the Book of Reports on page 128, second paragraph of "A. District Superintendent's Fund" and place the amount "$90,500" and make the necessary calculations in the budget to complete this action.

The motion was not approved.

Rev. James Godwin, Tappahannock Memorial United Methodist Church, Fredericksburg District, moved that the figure of $100.00 as listed on page 129, paragraph two in the Book of Reports, be changed to $170.00.

The motion was approved.

All of the recommendations of the CFA were adopted as presented.

Mr. Dommis announced that there will be a youth offering taken up during the break before the worship service.

Rev. Douglas Geeting, Chair, Site Selection Committee, explained that there needs to be a vote on the site selection for June 18, 2021 in Hampton, VA, as required in the Conference rules. The Annual Conference will take place in Hampton in 2022 at a date to be determined. The motion was approved.

A motion was made by Rev. Joshua King, "that the 234th Virginia Annual Conference in accordance with our 2012 United Methodist Discipline ¶603.2 and ¶603.3 charge the site selection committee to set the location in consult with the bishop as the Bishop sets the date."

The motion was not approved.

Ms. Martha Stokes and Rev. Tom Berlin, delegates to General Conference, expanded upon their original report on the 2016 General Conference. Rev. Berlin asked the Conference members to pray for three things: 1) the episcopal candidacy of Rev. Ted Smith, that God's will be done in his life, 2) the Committee on the Episcopacy who will recommend to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference who the next bishop of the Virginia Annual Conference will be and 3) the formation of the commission on human sexuality by the Council of Bishops.

Rev. Berlin also discussed the issues around human sexuality as defined by two issues within the church, "How do you feel about same sex marriage?" and "How do you feel about the ordination of homosexuals?" He laid out four categories based on the way individuals would answer these questions. He then laid out possible future events based on different actions in regard to these four groupings.

Bishop Cho wished everyone a happy Fathers' Day. Bishop Cho recognized an order of the day and recessed the conference at 10:39 a.m. to prepare for worship.

At 10:58 Bishop Cho reconvened the Annual Conference and moved for the election of Mr. David Dommis as Conference Treasurer for the 2017-20 quadrennium. He was elected.

Bishop Cho then thanked all who worked to make conference happen, in other words, "Everyone."

Bishop Cho was the leader of the closing worship service. Liturgists were Mr. Paulo Lopes, Director of Ministries with Young People and Rev. Judy Worthington, Franktown United Methodist Church, Eastern Shore District. Ms. Joy Chappell, Shenandoah University, class of 2016, performed a liturgical dance. The Henry Fork Mission Children's Choir, directed by Lisa Nichols, supplied the music along with the Tomorrow Has Come Band and the Traditional Choral Ensemble. The Bishop's text was Matthew 26: 36-46, his message was titled, "Thy Will Be Done." He encouraged the body to pray a dangerous prayer, "Not what I want but what you [God] want." He explained that seeking God's will is dangerous and risky but God's way is always best for us. Finally, he invited the assembly to pray together in the style of Tongsung Kido for renewal and revitalization of the local churches.

Ushers distributed copies of the appointment list. The July, 2016 Advocate was not available as storms in Richmond, VA, knocked out electricity and delayed its printing. Bishop Cho invited each District Superintendent to come forward and confirm the appointments. The preachers were stationed and the appointments were fixed as printed in the copies of the appointment lists.

We, the undersigned members of the Minutes Committee, have read, corrected, and approve these Daily Proceedings of the 234th Session of the Virginia Annual Conference on June 28, 2016.

B. CONFERENCE APPORTIONMENT RECOMMENDATION SPECIFICS:

The Conference Apportionments are intended to carry out the mission and ministry of the Virginia Annual Conference. All balances at the end of the year are to be closed to Conference Reserves unless an exception is granted by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

401-Conference Mission & Ministries

- This apportionment provides funding for the Conference Common Table benevolences and ministries, including Campus Ministries, other Common Table Program Boards and Agencies support.

402-Conference Services

- This apportionment primarily covers the administrative requirements of the Book of Discipline and Conference owned properties.

403-District Superintendents Fund

- This apportionment covers the personnel and travel costs of the District Superintendents.

404-Equitable Compensation

- This apportionment is required by the Book of Discipline and is administered by the Equitable Compensation Commission to provide clergy salary supplementation based upon their policies and procedures.

405-Church Extension and Development Fund (CEF)

- This apportionment is based on recommendations of the Common Table and is directed to the Church Development Team for use in providing conference-wide grants to new and existing churches in accordance of the policies of the Common Table.

406-Virginia Education Fund

- This apportionment is apportioned to the districts at $900,000 for 2017. Based on recommendations of the Common Table, the following percentage distribution of the Fund is proposed for 2017:

Virginia Education Fund Allocation

Ferrum College	19.5%	175,500
Randolph-Macon College	18.5%	166,500
Randolph College	16.0%	144,000
Randolph-Macon Academy	10.0%	90,000
Shenandoah University	18.0%	162,000
Virginia Wesleyan College	18.0%	162,000
		$ 900,000

Report on 2015

- As set out in the Annual Conference procedures, the Annual Conference is informed, through this report, of shortfalls in the Apportionments that impact Conference Reserves. These shortfalls were managed through budget cuts, contingency funds and Conference reserves in accordance with Annual Conference-approved policy. Below are the stated Apportionments for 2015.

	Shortfall
401 Conference Mission & Ministries	531,901
402 Conference Services	262,116
403 District Superintendents	269,547
404 Equitable Compensation	76,908
	1,140,472

SECTION III — Apportionment Procedures*A. APPORTIONMENT FORMULA:

- All Apportionments except for the Active Clergy Health Benefits
Apportionments are calculated using the last year of available statistics of each local church (i.e. 2017 apportionments are calculated using 2015 statistics). The formula is based on total net paid expenses which are the total expenditures of the church minus expenditures for benevolent causes, apportionments, capital improvements, and payments on loans and mortgages. The apportionments for each church are sent to each district based on decimal calculations from the formula below:

Individual Church Net Paid/Total of all Conference Churches Net Paid = Church Decimal

- Active Clergy Health Benefits Apportionment Formula

The costs of the active clergy health benefits will be apportioned using a two-tier calculation. The first tier will consist of a fixed dollar amount ($5,000) per health plan eligible clergy based upon the July 1, 2016 appointment list. The remaining costs after the tier one calculation will be apportioned to the churches based upon total clergy (regardless of classification) compensation (salary plus accountable reimbursement) paid by a church divided by the total clergy compensation paid in the last year of available statistics (2015 for 2017 apportionments).

- The district then passes the apportionments on to the local church according to recommendations developed by the district superintendents and the district stewards.
- The Council on Finance and Administration, in consultation with the Church Development Team and Cabinet, has the authority to set a policy for apportioning newly chartered churches, Legacy churches, and 2nd sites of chartered churches.
  - Effective January 1, 2016, the policy will be to phase in the apportionments for new chartered churches over a five year period with the first year beginning at 20% and increasing 20% for each subsequent year until the church is at 100%.
  - Effective January 1, 2016, for a Legacy church as determined by the Church Development Team and the Cabinet, the district superintendent may present a projected budget of expenses to be used in the Legacy church's apportionment calculation for the first 18 months of its classification as a Legacy church.
  - Effective January 1, 2016 for a 2nd site (satellite & multi-site) locations that are recognized as new faith communities by the Church Development Team and the Cabinet, the existing chartered church may exclude direct expenses of the second site from the apportionment calculation based upon the following schedule:

0-42 months	100%
43-54 months	80%
55-66 months	60%

  - Effective January 1, 2017, for a Renewal church location as determined by the Church Development Team and the Cabinet, the existing chartered church will be treated in the same manner as a newly chartered church.

B. REPORTING GUIDELINES:

- District superintendents will report the apportioned amounts for each church to the Conference treasurer and the apportioned amounts will be shown on the monthly Treasurer's report sent to each church.
- Apportionments are to be calculated and distributed annually rather than on a quadrennial basis.
- The Annual Conference will raise World Service funds only through contributions from the local churches. CFA urges that district superintendents, pastors, and local church leaders seek to fully implement Section 812 of the 2012 Discipline.

C. IMPORTANCE OF WORLD SERVICE:

- The importance of World Service to the life of the Church is lifted up to the Annual Conference. "The World Service Fund is basic in the financial program of The United Methodist Church. The World Service apportionment represents the minimum needs of the general agencies of the Church. Payment in full of these apportionments by local churches and annual conferences is the first benevolent responsibility of the Church.” (Section 812 of the 2012 Discipline).

SECTION IV - Annual Conference Special Offerings

Annual Conference offerings provide important and life-giving support for key Conference programs. The following are recommended for approval for 2017:

- United Methodist Family Services. It is recommended that December be designated as United Methodist Family Services Month and that each church promote an offering during this time for this purpose.
- Virginia United Methodist Homes Samaritan Fund. It is recommended that the period between Mother’s Day and Father’s Day be designated in support of the Virginia United Methodist Homes Samaritan Fund, and that local church offerings collected during that period be dedicated to this ministry.
- Heart Havens. It is recommended that February be designated as Heart Havens Month and that each church promote an offering during this time for this purpose.
- Annual Conference Offering. CFA recommends continued support for this important offering.

SECTION V - Policies

A. DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT’S FUND

Overall Policies for the Fund:

- In compliance with the Book of Discipline, the current salaries and expenses for district superintendents (DS), and those under special appointment, will be published in the Conference Journal with each DS’s salary individually calculated and assigned each year as part of the appointive process, using the following criteria:
  - Each District Superintendent’s salary shall be $88,000, except those who were appointed at a higher salary prior to 7/1/2012. Those “grandfathered” will continue at their existing salaries while completing their appointment.
  - Each year, the annual salaries of the District Superintendents are to be recommended by CFA to the Annual Conference.
  - CFA also administers salary-related expenses, to include such items as pensions, supplemental benefits, travel by voucher, continuing education, and other Cabinet-related expenses.
  - The total cost of salaries and related expenses apportioned to Districts are to be based on the current approved decimal system (upon recommendation of CFA).
  - All other District Superintendent’s costs, such as housing, district office expenses and staff, are to be paid at the district level.

Recommendations for 2017:

- The District Superintendents’ salaries will stay the same for 2017.

B. TRAVEL & MEETING EXPENSES

Board and Agency members and staff engaged in Conference business are provided and are to be managed as follows:

- The mileage reimbursement rate is set at 35 cents for Conference staff and the IRS reimbursement rate for volunteers (currently 14 cents) serving boards and agencies of the Conference.
- Meals are to be reimbursed at actual costs, but not to exceed $20 per 24-hour period. (Breakfast on the date of departure from home/office is not accepted; dinner on the date of return is not accepted, except when the arrival to home/office is after 7 p.m.).

- Reimbursement for daily room charges is set at $100, if the travel incurred extends to a period over three hours prior to the starting time of 10 a.m. on the day of the meeting.
- Spouse expenses are not part of allowable expenses.
- To encourage stewardship in this area, CFA suggests: (1) that advance reading materials be provided for study prior to meetings; and (2) that there be use of teleconferencing, where feasible.

C. INDIVIDUAL EXPENSES FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Provided for and managed as follows:

- Each charge is responsible for the expenses of both the clergy and lay members (including diaconal ministers) from that charge to the annual conference, working out its own plan of compensating for actual expenses.
- Persons not covered through local church appointment shall receive annual conference reimbursement not to exceed $100 a night for mileage, meals and lodging; the Conference treasurer shall reimburse the claimant through voucher of approved expenses. Coverage under this section extends to:
  - (a) retired clergy who retired with pension under one of the Disciplinary options and who are not serving full-time;
  - (b) clergy on medical leave;
  - (c) clergy on sabbatical leave who are members of the Virginia Annual Conference;
  - (d) retired diaconal ministers who served at least eight years in the Virginia Conference and who are granted a retired relationship by the Conference;
  - (e) persons expecting their first appointment;
  - (f) members of the conference who have been appointed to attend a theological school;
  - (g) those serving as chaplains in Armed Forces;
  - (h) deaconesses under appointment;
  - (i) furloughed missionary members of the Virginia Annual Conference;
  - (j) those on loan to other annual conferences, whose expenses are not otherwise provided for; and
  - (k) clergy returning from an approved leave of absence receiving local church pastoral appointments.
- Each district is responsible for the expenses of its district superintendent, youth members and members-at-large.
- Each board, agency or committee is responsible for the expenses of its chairpersons, if that person is not a clergy or lay member whose costs are covered by their charge or district.

D. CONFERENCE RESERVE FUNDS

Policies on the Maintenance of Reserve Fund Levels:

- The Council monitors the Conference Reserves to ensure the ability to cover future contingencies including,
  - a) Reserve funds for emergencies and catastrophic needs related to the maintenance of Conference property held by the Conference trustees, and include: (1) Virginia United Methodist Center; (2) Wesley Foundation buildings; and (3) the Episcopal residence. [The total value of these properties is estimated at more than $15 million.]
  - b) Reserve funds for cash flow purposes.
  - c) Reserve funds for economic and financial downturns.
- The Council has set the following target for Conference Reserve Funds:

Core Reserves:

A. 20% of the Conference Budget that closes to reserves	$ 1,574,000
a. 401 – Conference Mission and Ministries
b. 402 – Conference Services
c. 403 – District Superintendents' Fund
d. 404 – Equitable Compensation Fund

Additional Reserves:

A. Non-budgeted negative balance in Debt Service (mortgage)	647,500
	$ 2,823,000

At December 31, 2015 the Annual Conference had reserves less than the target amount.

- Consistent with approved Annual Conference policies (effective January 1992), the use of investment income is authorized to maintain reserve levels. (At the discretion of CFA, excesses may be used to: (1) meet shortfalls in Conference benevolences; (2) meet shortfalls in Conference Services; and/or (3) reduce apportionments from the Annual Conference to local churches.
- Reserve funds in the amount of $300,000 are available to cover actions emerging from Annual Conference vote, emergencies, support of advances for campaigns, and potential liabilities of the Conference
- Of the amounts reserved: (1) up to $50,000 is available for emergency needs of the Common Table, with the approval of CFA; and (2) up to $100,000 may be allocated by CFA between sessions of Annual Conference, as deemed necessary
- The status of Conference reserves at the end of the prior actual year is to be reviewed each year by CFA and included in the Treasurer's Report to the Annual Conference Session.

E. PASTOR RELOCATION TRANSITION FUND

1. By action of the June 2003 Annual Conference, CFA has established Pastor Relocation Transition Fund and has provided funding through the Conference Services apportionment.
2. Churches/charges which are served by fulltime clergy appointed to their charge as pastor may request reimbursement on the following schedule for an incoming pastor, if the previous pastor served two years or less in the appointment to their charge:
  - One-year appointment – Seventy-five percent of the verified moving expenses up to a maximum of $3,000 reimbursement.
  - Two-year appointment – Fifty percent of the verified moving expenses up to a maximum of $2,000 reimbursement.
3. No moving expenses will be reimbursed that are not in compliance with the Virginia Annual Conference Guidelines for Moving Expenses as printed in the Journal of the Virginia Annual Conference.
4. Payment will be made at the end of the year based on a pro-rata share of the apportionment receipts from the churches.

F. CONFERENCE JOURNAL

The 2016 Journal is to be made available by posting on the Virginia Conference website (www.vaumc.org) as a PDF file. It will be available as a CD or printed copy upon request at a cost of $10 for the CD and $25 for the print version. Requests for printed copies must be made by August 1 of the calendar year, and payment must be made at the time the order is placed. Only a small quantity of Journals will be printed and distributed in compliance with the Book of Discipline (606.2), to district offices, Conference staff, and those purchasing copies before the August 1 deadline.

G. CONFERENCE PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE

It is recommended that the Conference-Provided Publications Committee be continued, composed of the following: (1) the Director of Connectional Ministries; (2) Conference Business Manager; (3) the Journal Editor; and (4) the Conference Director of Communications, who will serve as the convener of the committee. The Committee may convene at any time at the request of any committee member as long as a majority of the committee members are present. [The committee oversees the production and publication of the conference Journal and other such publications and mailings that are appropriate to keeping the conference members linked to the business of the Annual Conference.]

H. CLERGY DIRECTORY

One copy of the Directory of the Ministry is to be mailed to all Virginia Conference clergy (active and retired, including lay pastors and diaconal ministers). Widows/widowers of clergy are also entitled to a free copy upon request. Additional copies may be purchased at a cost of $4 each (includes shipping and handling). An updated version of the directory is available on the Conference website as a pdf file.

I. AUDIT REPORTS

The Council on Finance and Administration reminds all district offices, agencies, institutions, and organizations receiving any financial support from conference funds or from any authorized conference-wide appeal to be in compliance with the 2012 Book of Discipline 617.2 and 617.3 to submit audited financial statements to the Conference Treasurer no later than six months after the end of the organization's fiscal year.

J. IRS REGULATIONS

CFA recommends that all church and/or charge treasurers comply with the IRS regulations.

K. REQUESTS FOR BUDGET FUNDING

CFA recommends that all groups requesting funding from CFA submit requests for budget funding to CFA by January 15 of the year the request is being made. This will allow the requests to be reviewed by CFA in sufficient time for consideration at the Annual Conference Session the following June.

SECTION VI – A Church in Mission

We are a Church in Mission and a three-pronged focus of teaching, communication, and recognition enriches us as a Conference and as Christians. With it, we are able to share and learn further what it means to enter into the vision and share concerns with many people. But more importantly, it sets out a focus throughout our Conference on the value and importance of the unique connectional relationship we have as United Methodists.

Our charter has already been defined for us and it is set out in Scripture: “Just as in the human body, though it is made up of many parts, is a single unit, because of these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ.” (1 Corinthians 12:12). And that body is composed of all of God's children, including the rich and poor, found and lost, and secure and dispossessed. For as Jesus said, “Truly, I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.” (Matthew 25:40).

As part of that body, we are called to serve our brothers and sisters in mission throughout the connection. Because of our covenant with God and with each other, it is our goal to fund the basic missional witness of the United Methodist Church.

We have much to be proud of as a Conference, as we live out the full meaning of the Stewardship of the Gospel. Our connectional giving — the important life blood of the work we all do together — is a reflection of the great commitment that Virginia United Methodists have to the mission and ministry work of our Lord. The budgets we draw up, while important, are more than a series of numbers. They reveal the very character of the people who build them, support them, and act through them. They are Christ's work in the world, put into a plan for receiving and spending — collective understandings of commitments to fulfilling ministries and mission priorities. It's no small thing we do individually, when collectively we are making such big impacts beyond our church doors.

The Stewardship of our Conference is part of our response to the needs we know about, as well as those not yet seen. Seeing the need, then doing what Jesus would do. That's true Stewardship! It's our faith in action!

Rev. Dr. Steve Summers, President

SECTION VII – Intent to Study

The Council on Finance & Administration has convened a task force to study the effect of churches that pay less than 100% of Apportionments. This includes an analysis of the impact on the Annual Conference Budget and the ministries of churches that meet their full connectional support.

The Equitable Compensation Commission continues to provide financial aid to those churches requiring supplementation to strengthen their ministries in the communities in which they are located and to provide minimum salary or salary supplementation for the pastors. Equitable Compensation support in the amount of $222,495 was provided to 43 charges in 2015. A schedule of salary supplementation appropriations for 2015 has been provided to the conference secretary for publication in the Journal.

There were 18 charges receiving salary and pension supplementation in 2014 that did not require salary support for all or part of 2015. These are Andrew Chapel (Fredericksburg), Basic UMC (Staunton), Bassett Memorial UMC (Danville), Brucetown UMC (Winchester), Christ Community Fellowship/Fairview (Lynchburg), Epworth UMC (Staunton), First Vietnamese (Arlington), Fort Grove UMC Sussex Charge (James River), Glossbrenner UMC (Staunton), Heathsville UMC (Fredericksburg), Iron Gate Charge (Staunton), Leemont Charge (Eastern Shore), McKendree UMC (Elizabeth River), Parnassus UMC (Harrisonburg), Salem UMC (Danville), Welltown UMC (Winchester), Wesley Chapel UMC (Elizabeth River), and West End UMC (Roanoke). These charges and their superintendents are commended for their success in providing a ministry in the communities they serve that has enabled them to grow spiritually in their stewardship.

District Superintendents and charges setting salaries for 2017 that may require supplementation are advised that the "floor" must come from sources other than the Commission on Equitable Compensation.

The Conference Average Compensation (CAC) for 2017 is $63,086 which is an increase of 1% percent from 2016. The Commission considered Minimum Compensation and the Floor Schedule for 2017 and recommends the changes as outlined below.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. The Equitable Compensation Fund apportionment for 2017 be $350,000.
2. The Minimum Compensation Schedule for 2017 proposed to be:

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Council on Finance and Administration
 The Central Treasury of The Virginia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of The Central Treasury of The Virginia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Central Treasury of The Virginia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

THE CENTRAL TREASURY OF THE VIRGINIA ANNUAL

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2015 AND 2014

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF ACTIVITIES AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Activities - The Central Treasury receives and disburses, in accordance with the actions of the Annual Conference, remittances from local church treasurers for all duly authorized general, jurisdictional, Annual Conference, and district causes. It also implements administrative and fiscal policies and procedures as directed by the Council on Finance and Administration.

The purpose of the Council on Finance and Administration is to develop, maintain and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures and management services for the Annual Conference.

The purpose of the Annual Conference is to coordinate the relationship between the general program boards and commissions and the conference, districts and Virginia United Methodist local churches.

Basis of Presentation - The Central Treasury is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets based upon the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions as follows:

Unrestricted net assets include the General Operating and Property and Equipment Funds. The General Operating Fund reflects all resources of the Central Treasury which are expendable at the discretion of the Council on Finance and Administration for any purpose in carrying out the operations of the Conference. The Property and Equipment Fund is used to account for asset additions, disposals and depreciation charges.

Temporarily restricted net assets include the Boards and Agencies Funds. This category includes net assets which are expendable for operating purposes; however, their use has been restricted by the donor (primarily local United Methodist churches) for specific purposes.

The Central Treasury has no permanently restricted net assets as of December 31, 2015 or 2014. This category includes net assets which would be subject to donor-imposed stipulations that they be maintained permanently by the Central Treasury.

Year-end Closing - The Central Treasury closes its books approximately fifteen days subsequent to December 31 each year in order to record final apportionment payments for the year from local churches and pay all expenditures for the Conference year then ended. Cash received and expended after December 31 is shown on the statements of financial position in these statements as accounts receivable and fund receipts payable.

THE CENTRAL TREASURY OF THE VIRGINIA ANNUAL

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2015 AND 2014

Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Recognition of Contributions - Contributions are recognized when the donor makes a promise to give to the Central Treasury that is, in substance, unconditional. Contributions recognized are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted or permanently restricted support, depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions.

Valuation of Investments and Income Recognition - Investments are stated at fair value. Listed stocks and securities are valued at closing quotations, while unlisted securities are valued at the most recent bid price. Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Unrealized gains and losses are recognized in the period in which they occur. Interest and dividends are recognized in the period earned, and realized gains or losses on securities are recorded in the period of sale.

Functional Expenses - The costs of providing the various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities.

Property and Equipment - Property and equipment is stated at cost, or the estimated fair value at the date of contribution. Expenditures for maintenance, repairs and minor renewals are expensed when incurred. Depreciation is recorded using the straight-line method.

The Central Treasury reviews its long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to undiscounted expected cash flows. Future events could cause the Central Treasury to conclude that impairment indicators exist and that long-lived assets may be impaired. To date, no impairment losses have been recorded.

Income Taxes - The Conference is a not-for-profit organization and is exempt from federal and state income taxes.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2015 AND 2014

NOTE 1 - NATURE OF ACTIVITIES AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Contributed Materials and Services - During the two years presented, the value of contributed materials and the value of contributed services that either (a) created or enhanced a nonfinancial asset or (b) required specialized skills, was provided by individuals possessing those skills, and would have been purchased if not contributed was not material to the financial statements and has not been recognized.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - For the purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Central Treasury considers all cash and other highly liquid investments with initial maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Money market accounts in the amounts of $1,083,232 and $1,069,249 at December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively, were invested with the Virginia United Methodist Development Company, L.L.C. an affiliate of the Central Treasury.

NOTE 2 - INVESTMENTS

Cost and fair value of investments as of December 31, 2015 and 2014 are summarized as follows:

	2015		2014
	Cost	Fair Value	Cost	Fair Value
Mutual Funds	$ 3,090,066	$ 3,620,668	$ 2,512,186	$ 3,090,511

Investments in the amounts of $3,620,668 and $3,090,511 were managed by the United Methodist Foundation of the Virginia Conference, Inc. (the Foundation), an affiliate of the Central Treasury, as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

NOTE 3 - CHARITABLE GIFT ANNUITY

During 2002 the United Methodist Foundation of the Virginia Conference, Inc. (the Foundation) entered into a charitable gift annuity agreement on behalf of the Conference. The asset associated with this annuity is included in the investments of the Central Treasury as presented in the financial statements. Quarterly payments of $2,525 are to be paid to the donor until his death. Upon termination, the remaining value of the gift annuity is to be distributed to the Conference and designated for the cost to construct the Archives Room of the United Methodist Building.

At December 31, 2015 and 2014, the net asset balance included in the Funds of Boards and Agencies temporarily restricted net assets in connection with this gift annuity agreement amounts to $0.

NOTE 4 - NOTES AND LOANS RECEIVABLE

Notes and loans receivable as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, are comprised of the following:

	2015	2014
Districts and Churches of the Conference	$ 174,928	$ 174,928
Francis Asbury Educational Loans	797,445	791,428
Virginia United Methodist Assembly Center	98,054	-
TOTAL	$ 1,070,427	$ 966,356

The Church Development Team of the Conference makes loans to districts and churches of the Conference for acquisitions and improvements. A loan in the amount of $174,928 is due from the Charlottesville District as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. This loan is non-interest bearing and there is no set maturity date. Loans in the total amount of $98,054 are due from the Virginia United Methodist Assembly Center as of December 31, 2015. These are interest only loans which bear interest at 4% per annum and mature in August, 2020. A loan was due from a local United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2013 in the amount of $106,260. This loan was sold to the Virginia United Methodist Development Company, LLC during 2014 at face value. This loan bore interest at 4.0% per annum. Loan disbursements have been paid from the Church Development Team Church Extension and Development Fund.

Francis Asbury Educational Loans are made from funds given in memory of Francis Asbury. Use of these loans is restricted to assisting qualified United Methodist students in obtaining a higher education. Loan terms require payment of principal and interest (at 4%) within six years of graduation or withdrawal.

The Central Treasury provides an allowance for doubtful collections that is based upon a review of outstanding receivables, historical collection information, and existing economic conditions. Delinquent receivables are written off based on individual credit evaluation and specific circumstances of the borrower. No allowance for doubtful collections is deemed necessary as of December 31, 2015 and 2014.

As of December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Central Treasury had received written intentions to give in the approximate amount of $509,000 and $541,000, respectively, in connection with the All Things New church development program. The intentions to give are not reflected in the accompanying financial statements.

THE CENTRAL TREASURY OF THE VIRGINIA ANNUAL

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2015 AND 2014

NOTE 5 - CAMPUS MINISTRY BUILDINGS

The Conference is responsible to provide insurance coverage on seven Wesley Foundation campus ministry buildings located throughout the Conference territory. As of December 31, 2015, the insured value for these seven buildings approximates $7,951,000. These buildings are owned by various Wesley Foundations. Accordingly, the value of these properties is not reflected in the accompanying statements of financial position.

NOTE 6 - CAMP OVERLOOK

As of December 31, 2015 and 2014, the title to the property known as Camp Overlook located in Rockingham County, Virginia is held by the Board of Trustees of the Virginia Annual Conference. The title dated March 12, 1973 is held for the benefit of those districts of the United Methodist Church which include the Virginia counties of Frederick, Warren, Page, Shenandoah, Rockingham and Augusta. Accordingly, the value of this property is not reflected in the accompanying statements of financial position.

NOTE 7 - RETIREMENT PLANS

Ministerial and lay employees of the Conference are eligible to participate in pension plans offered by the United Methodist Church. U.S. bishops, conference members, and local pastors under Episcopal appointment are eligible for pension coverage under the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), formerly the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP).

In addition to the CRSP, certain ministerial employees are provided disability and death benefits as well as certain minimum benefits related to pension coverage through participation in the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP).

CRSP and CPP are defined contribution plans which currently encourage a three percent employee contribution and call for a 16.4 percent employer contribution (12 percent for CRSP and 4.4 percent for CPP). The contribution is limited to approximately the first $66,300 of employee wages. CRSP and CPP pension expense for the Central Treasury amounted to approximately $367,000 and $372,000 for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

Conference lay employees are eligible for pension coverage under the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP), formerly the Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund (CPBF). UMPIP is a defined contribution plan which currently calls for a three percent employee contribution and a nine percent employer contribution. UMPIP pension expense for the Central Treasury amounted to approximately $92,000 and $97,000 for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 7 - RETIREMENT PLANS, (Continued)

The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church, as a matter of its own policy, has changed certain retirement plan provisions from guaranteed to market-based yield agreements, and vice versa. This change in policy may have a direct effect on the Conference's benefit obligation including the obligation in connection with Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program, commonly referred to as the Pre-82 Pension Plan, and it could eventually result in the Conference's assumption of greater future benefits and related necessary increases in retirement contribution levels, which may result in a material adverse effect on the financial position of the Conference. These factors create some uncertainty about the Conference's ability to continue to fund current operations. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments related to these contingencies.

NOTE 8 - COMMITMENTS

At December 31, 2015, the Church Development Team of the Conference has committed grants to churches for approximately $600,000 in connection with the Church Development Team Church Extension and Development Fund.

NOTE 9 - CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Central Treasury to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of investments and cash and cash equivalents. The Central Treasury places its investments and its cash and cash equivalents with creditworthy institutions and diversifies its holdings among entities, thereby limiting the amount of credit exposure to any one entity. As of December 31, 2015, the Central Treasury has $2,839,218 of cash deposits in excess of federally insured limits being held by a federally insured financial depository institution. As of December 31, 2015, the Central Treasury has $1,083,232 of money market accounts invested with the Virginia United Methodist Development Company, LLC, all of which is uninsured.

The investments of the Central Treasury, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit and overall market volatility risks. In addition, due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the statement of financial position.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 10 - CONTINGENCIES

The Conference, from time to time, is a defendant in civil actions. The Conference intends to vigorously defend the claims asserted against it by all claimants. Management believes that any ultimate liability arising from these actions should not have a material adverse effect on the financial position of the Conference. Due to uncertainties in the settlement process, it is at least reasonably possible that management's estimate of any ultimate liability will change within the near term.

NOTE 11 - FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Central Treasury's investments are reported at fair value in the accompanying statements of financial position.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 11 - FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS, (Continued)

Generally accepted accounting principles establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. This hierarchy consists of three broad levels: Level 1 inputs consist of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and have the highest priority, Level 2 inputs consist of observable inputs other than quoted prices for identical assets, and Level 3 inputs have the lowest priority. The Central Treasury uses appropriate valuation techniques based on the available inputs to measure the fair value of its investments. When available, The Central Treasury measures fair value using Level 1 inputs because they generally provide the most reliable evidence of fair value.

Level 1 Fair Value Measurements

The fair values of equity funds, bond funds and money market funds are based on quoted market prices

NOTE 12 - GENERAL OPERATING FUND

At December 31, 2015 and 2014, the net assets of the General Operating Fund are comprised of the following:

	2015	2014
Council on Finance and Administration Reserve Fund	$ 2,164,606	$ 2,025,252
Intra-Conference Debt Fund Deficit	(951,989)	(1,248,149)
TOTAL	$ 1,212,617	$ 777,103

NOTE 13 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The preparation of the financial statements includes an evaluation of subsequent events through July 26, 2016, which is the date that the financial statements were available to be issued.

The Virginia United Methodist Assembly Center in Blackstone, Virginia ceased operations on May 7, 2016. The Virginia United Methodist Conference is the beneficiary of any residual net assets of the Assembly Center. The VUMAC Board of Directors has not determined whether to continue or dissolve as of July 26, 2016.

COMMITTEE ON RULES

The main focus of the work of the Rules Committee this year has been the improvement of the process for electronic voting for General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates, in light of the historically low number of ballots cast at the last annual conference. Interviews with the head tellers and a representative from the technology company overseeing the electronic voting process brought several concerns to light which slowed down the voting process: validating nominations from the floor on Friday afternoon; alternating voting between clergy and lay ballots; the requirement for reading or distribution of the names and votes received for three times the number of delegates remaining to be elected, which was cumbersome and did not lend itself to the electronic voting process. A task force was appointed to address these issues. After reviewing the electronic voting processes of the Great Rivers, Mississippi, and Florida Annual Conferences, the task force presented a series of recommended changes to the voting process. It is recommended that nominations from the floor only be received during the Clergy and Lay Sessions, and Nomination Forms must be submitted to the Head Tellers and reviewed by the Clergy and Lay Nomination Review Committees. To facilitate this process, it is recommended that the Director of Clergy Excellence be a member of the Clergy Nomination Review Committee. The Clergy Nomination Form will only require the name of one eligible clergy to be nominated unless nominating self. Both the Clergy and Lay Nomination Forms will include a box to be checked stating, "Nominee is aware of nomination and agrees to serve if elected," and a line for the signature of the nominee. With regard to the reporting of votes, it is recommended that on the first ballot for General and Jurisdictional Conference Delegates, the names of all those voted for and votes received be read/displayed. For all subsequent ballots only the top 25 names and votes received will be read/displayed. Finally, it is recommended that the Virginia Conference move to block voting for General and Jurisdictional Conference Delegates, with clergy and laity meeting in separate rooms simultaneously to vote and allowing up to five hours for voting. This will require the assistance of a retired bishop to preside at one of the sessions. Block voting will allow laity and clergy to focus on the central task of electing delegates without being confused by alternating between clergy and laity ballots or by conference business interspersed between ballots. The Rules Committee approved these recommendations and recommends them to the Annual Conference.

In other business, the Rules Committee recommends that the annual conference expenses of chairs of boards and agencies who are also local church clergy or lay delegates be paid by the local church or charge. Under the organization of the Board of Discipleship, it is recommended that the number of regional networks be reduced from 5 to 4.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The recommended changes to the Standing Rules are:

paragraph I.C.5. Insert "Unless otherwise covered by a local charge," at the beginning of the section.

paragraphs III.B.4., III.B.5., III.B.5.c. Strike "or write-in candidate".

paragraph III.C.2.a. In the sentence that begins, "The form shall include the names of at least two clergy ..." substitute "The form shall include the name of one clergy who is eligible to vote who is making the nomination." In the sentence beginning, "All nominations shall include the nominee's name, ..." add after "2 1/2" "(unless nominated at Clergy Session)"; after "church, district and" add "should include". At the end of that sentence add a new sentence: "There shall be a box to be checked stating: 'Nominee is aware of nomination and agrees to serve if elected.', and a line for the signature of the nominee."

paragraph III.C.2.b. Insert and renumber: "Clergy Session Nominations. Nominations for clergy delegates may be made at the Clergy Session of the Annual Conference by submitting a clergy nomination form to the Head Clergy Teller which shall be made available upon request."

paragraph III. C.2.c. Clergy Nomination Review Committee. After the first sentence, insert: "The Director of Clergy Excellence shall serve as an ex-officio member." At the end of the paragraph add: "This committee will also be responsible for reviewing and validating any nomination forms submitted at the Clergy Session of the Annual Conference."

paragraph III.D. LAY NOMINATIONS. Strike the words "FROM DISTRICTS AND AGENCIES" paragraph III.D.1. Lay Nominations. Add the words "from Districts." In second section strike "2. Number of Persons to be Nominated." and renumber.

paragraph III.D.4. Nomination Forms. In first sentence after "2 1/2" insert: "(unless nominated at Laity Session)"; after "church, district and" add "should include". At the end of that sentence add a new sentence: "There shall be a box to be checked stating: 'Nominee is aware of nomination and agrees to serve if elected.', and a line for the signature of the nominee."

Add new section III.D.5. "Laity Session Nomination. Nominations for lay delegates may be made at the Laity Session of the Annual Conference by submitting a lay nomination form to the Head Lay Teller which shall be made available upon request."

paragraph III.E.2. At the end of the section add: "This committee will also be responsible for reviewing and validating any nomination forms submitted at the Laity Session of the Annual Conference."

paragraph III.E.3. In the first sentence, place a period after "forms" and strike the rest.

paragraph III.F. BALLOTING PROCEDURES. Add a new section and renumber: "1. Separate Voting Areas. Following the convening of Annual Conference, clergy and laity will separate to elect General and Jurisdictional delegates and alternates, allowing five (5) hours to complete the process."

paragraph III.F.2. Ballots shall be Counted Electronically. Strike the last sentence.

paragraph III.F.4. Voting Area. Replace the first sentence with: "The presiding officer shall designate the areas of the Lay and Clergy Sessions where members shall be seated during balloting." In the second sentence, add an "s" to "area".

paragraph III.F.7. Reading or Distributing Names. In the first sentence, replace "distribute" with "display". In the second sentence, replace "three times the number of General Conference delegates remaining to be elected" with "the 25 nominees receiving the highest number of votes", and replace paragraph V.A.4.c. Discipleship. In the fourth sentence, which begins, “The Directing Board will consist of ...”, change “ten (10) members” to “nine (9) members” and “five (5) Regional Network Leads” to “four (4) Regional Network Leads”.

As this was the last meeting of the quadrennium, the committee expressed appreciation to departing members Steve Bray, Sue Lewis, and Bart Weakley and elected as new officers for the next quadrennium: Chair – Joshua King, Vice-Chair – Terry Bain, and Secretary – Jim Smith.

Stephen G. Bray, Chair

CABINET

The Virginia Conference Cabinet under the spiritual leadership of Bishop Cho seeks to equip the clergy and laity to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. It is hard to believe that it has been almost four years since Bishop Cho began his episcopal leadership leading to change our culture of prayer. The culture of prayer is changing and will continue in the coming years as we seek to move ourselves into the presence of God. As a Cabinet we continue to move beyond our comfort zones to guide our conference in becoming more effective and vital in making disciples of Jesus.

The sixteen district superintendents continue to live into our role as the chief missional strategists. Vitality and fruitfulness are happening throughout our districts:

The Alexandria District: launched a new faith community last Christmas Eve. The Potomac campus of Spirit and Life Church is a multi-site new church plant, creating a bilingual worship community in a diverse area of Prince William County. Ghana Wesley Church set the standard for the district with 80 professions of faith in 2015. Christ Church moved into a major new facility last August, and has grown to an average worship attendance of well over 800. Last September, the Alexandria District conference became a 75th anniversary celebration of the district's history, with participation from every church and sermons from Dr. Raymond Wrenn, former executive secretary of the Alexandria District Board of Missions, and Bishop Young Jin Cho. We look forward to building on the legacy we have received as we plan for more new church multi-site starts.

The Arlington District: experienced exciting movement of the Holy Spirit through: Graham Road UMC making the bold decision to open their building for Vine Church to plant a second site; Pleasant Valley United Methodist Church initiating a satellite campus, called “Impact” at the site of their preschool, seeking to reach young families in their community; and 9 churches in the District completing an intensive 12-month learning and coaching process for church revitalization called “Shift.”

The Charlottesville District: The district missions team sponsored a bowling fundraiser, and the district vision team sponsored three shows for Christian comedian, Michael Joiner. Proceeds from these fundraisers went towards the Heart Havens Charlottesville Apt. Project. We are raising $400k for an apartment building for individuals with intellectual disabilities. The Lay Servant ministry work area is planning a training event this fall.

The Danville District: District churches are recognizing the transformative possibilities of our ongoing emphasis on the issue of poverty, especially as it affects children. We are committed to exercising faithful stewardship of the Annual Conference (2015) offering allocated for this purpose. As home to some of the most economically-depressed and most generous communities in Virginia, we have a clear sense of our particular mission, relying on prayerful discernment to provide a “holy intervention” in the lives of our most vulnerable neighbors.

The Eastern Shore District: a new district mission plan was received that envisions the Shore as “a place where clergy, congregations, and communities are freed for edge-walking action on behalf of the gospel of Jesus.” Recognizing our location at the margins of the land, we want to live out a ministry that meets people who are also living on the margins of security and acceptance — something that happens through our district Una Familia program, in which 5 churches (UM & Episcopal) are tutoring primarily Latino/a children, and through the Agape Christian Children's Community Center in Horntown. We also envision ministries that help us walk to the edge of our faith through growth in discipleship and trust in the God of big visions, a belief that motivates a new church transition team working with local churches on revitalization and discernment of new paths in ministry.

The Elizabeth River District: is working hard to equip the laity and clergy to reach new people by getting out into the community. We have provided excellent training events with Jim Griffin, Tom Bandy and our District Training Event. Many churches are experiencing new vitality in their congregation especially as they reach out into their communities and get to know new people.

The Farmville District: celebrates meeting and going beyond our INM goal of saving 4,156 lives, a total of 4,662 lives saved with 74 of 108 churches participating. The district continues to live into our new reality of 13 Connectional (geographical) Circles focusing on fellowship, training and charge conferences, and this new reality allows the district superintendent to be more involved in the churches. Two of our smallest churches: Union Chapel and Rehoboth (Boynton) have a seen 30% increase in average worship attendance in the last 3 years. Vitality and fruitfulness is evident in church throughout the district.

The Fredericksburg District: will celebrate our fifth birthday on July 9, 2016. At our chartering event we set in place a four-part ministry strategy of unity, empowering laity, spiritual growth, and reaching neighbors near and far. This vision has remained at the forefront of our focus, programs, and training opportunities. Through discernment and prayer, we have also been able to transform a vacant lot into a vibrant ministry location for outdoor ministry. The outdoor ministry is a 501.c.3 organization called “The Heartwood Center,” with the primary goals of serving children and teens who live in poverty as well as the ministry of creating a regional Mission Training Center. To date, ministries of The Heartwood Center include a summer backpack lunch serving more than 250 children, a summer teen day camp, school season backpack meals, and vacation bible school. We are blessed to provide these ministries through the support of our UM congregations, our clergy, and many community partners.

The Harrisonburg District: has had another great year. We have started “Mission Central”, which is the District Mission Center. We are utilizing Cedar Grove UMC. This church was on the downswing, and they have opened up their doors to let the district have a district-wide mission center arise. In six months we have served over 1,000 children who did not have adequate clothing. We have already established a medical equipment room where folks can check out what they need. The long range plan is to build a large building to house a food closet, adult clothes closet and have a social service person to help families get the help they need. We have also established Aisle 7 at Verona United Methodist Church. This will be a second site ministry for Verona UMC and it will establish the Verona Community Center for the whole Community.

The James River District: The vision for the James River District is, “Disciples Making Disciples.” To this end we are focusing on the revitalization of existing churches and the formation of new faith communities. We work toward revitalization by sponsoring “Reach New People” events, the “Ten Brave Churches Initiative,” and “Hope for the Small Church” rallies. Two new faith communities are “The Flow” at Ettrick and “Dante’s Inferno” (worship in a diner) at Highland UMC. Two more new communities are currently being envisioned. We are engaged in many missions including VIM teams and covenanting with the UMC in Hungary. We praise God that 96% of our churches are Prayer Covenant congregations and we exceeded the conference’s goal of $10 per worshipping member for the Imagine No Malaria Campaign!

The Lynchburg District: The 89 churches that represent the Lynchburg District continue to be excited about the growth of Park View Community Mission which now provides more than 600 families per month with at least 2 weeks’ worth of groceries. They also provide a free health clinic, counseling for young addicts, internet access for the poor and the branch offices of United Methodist Family Services. The Lynchburg District is also excited to welcome the Rev. Scott Davis as our new district superintendent.

The Richmond District: We continue to seek God’s kingdom in ministry settings from urban to suburban to rural. God is good in multiple places in our district. Our ministries at Shalom Farms continues to grow, providing more fresh food to more of God’s special people. Our camps and our campus ministries continue to seek new disciples in diverse settings. God has more in store in the coming year and we look forward to seeking the kingdom together!

The Roanoke District: Equipping clergy and laity for ministry in their community context centered the Roanoke District’s work this year. The Clergy Summit focused on changing realities in the appointment process and welcomed Cheryl Edley-Worford to introduce Discipleship Circles. In partnership with the Danville, Lynchburg, and Staunton Districts, the Church and Society Team sponsored a day with Shane Claiborne on “Breaking Down the Walls”. Youths and young adults were well-represented among the 100 participants. Church secretaries and administrative assistants were welcomed to the district office for breakfast fellowship, learning more about the EVC system, and peer support.

The Staunton District: As part of the conference Imagine No Malaria initiative in 2015, 71 of the 82 churches of the Staunton District took part in sending our DS “down the river and off the district” in his kayak — and blessing 3,900 lives along the way. 2016 has seen the beginning of a new ministry partnership in the Waynesboro area, conceived to reach and engage lower-income youths, and district leadership is encouraged by the prospect of replicating this model elsewhere. Staunton’s laity and clergy greet Bishop Cho’s retirement this year with a measure of sadness, as his many visits to us and sustained emphasis on prayer have sharpened our focus on becoming disciples who make disciples; to God be the glory.

The Winchester District: The Winchester District Committee on Congregational Excellence focused on reaching youths and young adults in April by cosponsoring with Shenandoah University an event featuring Shane Claiborne and Lisa Sharon Harper; it was a two-day event of mission and social justice. Thy Kingdom Come: Where Our Mission in the commonwealth of God is Justice was an event for senior high youths, young adults, local church leaders and pastors. The event included a sleepover on the football field, SHN event and an emphasis on learning about and raising funds for INM. In October the Winchester District hosted a “Reaching New People” seminar with 22 churches/charges participating, 20 of which are continuing a year’s coaching with Jim Griffith prayerfully expecting a new level of fruitfulness. The WD Change the World fall event at the Clark County Fairgrounds in October emphasized INM, World Service kits, and 100,000 SHN meals. The WD sent three UMVIM teams to La Gonave, Haiti as a part of our 4-year commitment.”

The York River District: is celebrating its fifth year as a new district by embracing challenges as well as hope for a new future. The District Board of Missions has continued partnering with the churches and agencies to support their local, regional or national missions. The District Ministry Excellence Team has coordinated various trainings and workshops for clergy and laity to enhance their spiritual development and ministry excellence. Clergy peer learning groups have been formed to cultivate mutual support and accountability. 18 churches have become Prayer Covenant Congregations. In 2015, the people of the YRD welcomed 545 new members, including 237 by profession of faith; gave over 2.4 million dollars through apportionments; and saved 6,946 lives through INM campaign!

The district superintendents remain grateful to our Extended Cabinet members: the Rev. Marc Brown, Warren Harper, the Rev. Mark Ogren, David Dommissie, and the Rev. Meredith McNabb for their valuable ministry and guidance. This year after 8 years of service the Rev. Larry & Mell Davies will be returning to the local church and we are grateful for his ministry among us. We welcome the Rev. Scott & Laurie Davis as the new DS of the Lynchburg District. We are grateful to the ministry and spiritual leadership of our bishop, Young Jin Cho. Bishop Cho and his wife, the Rev. Kiok Cho will be retiring on August 31 and pray for a blessed retirement.

Bob Parks, Dean of the Cabinet

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION COMMISSION

The Equitable Compensation Commission continues to provide financial aid to those churches requiring supplementation to strengthen their ministries in the communities in which they are located and to provide minimum salary or salary supplementation for the pastors. Equitable Compensation support in the amount of $222,495 was provided to 43 charges in 2015. A schedule of salary supplementation appropriations for 2015 has been provided to the conference secretary for publication in the Journal.

There were 18 charges receiving salary and pension supplementation in 2014 that did not require salary support for all or part of 2015. These are Andrew Chapel (Fredericksburg), Basic UMC (Staunton), Bassett Memorial UMC (Danville), Brucetown UMC (Winchester), Christ Community Fellowship/Fairview (Lynchburg), Epworth UMC (Staunton), First Vietnamese (Arlington), Fort Grove UMC Sussex Charge (James River), Glossbrenner UMC (Staunton), Heathsville UMC (Fredericksburg), Iron Gate Charge (Staunton), Leemont Charge (Eastern Shore), McKendree UMC (Elizabeth River), Parnassus UMC (Harrisonburg), Salem UMC (Danville), Welltown UMC (Winchester), Wesley Chapel UMC (Elizabeth River), and West End UMC (Roanoke). These charges and their superintendents are commended for their success in providing a ministry in the communities they serve that has enabled them to grow spiritually in their stewardship.

District Superintendents and charges setting salaries for 2017 that may require supplementation are advised that the “floor” must come from sources other than the Commission on Equitable Compensation.

The Conference Average Compensation (CAC) for 2017 is $63,086 which is an increase of 1% percent from 2016. The Commission considered Minimum Compensation and the Floor Schedule for 2017 and recommends the changes as outlined below.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. The Equitable Compensation Fund apportionment for 2017 be $350,000.
2. The Minimum Compensation Schedule for 2017 proposed to be:

	Proposed	Current
a. Full Connection Pastors	$41,500	$41,000
b. Provisional and Associate Members	$38,000	$37,500
c. Local Pastors	$35,500	$35,000

3. The Floor Schedule for 2017 proposed no change to be:

a. Full Connection Pastors	$28,000	$28,000
b. Provisional and Associate Members	$25,600	$25,600
c. Local Pastors	$24,000	$24,000

VIRGINIA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

HERITAGE, a publication of the Virginia Conference Historical Society, continues to publish articles of both timely and historical significance to Virginia United Methodists, with bulletins which appear in the spring and in the fall. Annual subscription fees are print edition: $10.00; online edition: $7.00, and both: $12.00. Contact: Virginia United Methodist HERITAGE, P.O. Box 5606, Glen Allen, VA 23058 (visit table in display area). Of particular note was the passing of Patti Russell in late 2014, following many years of service as Conference Archivist. Her husband Jack followed her in death in January of 2015. Both were founding members of the Old Brunswick Circuit Foundation. Patti is remembered through the Patti Russell Endowment, which provides funds to help support the salary of part-time Conference Archivist Stephanie Davis. At the October meeting of the Historical Society, the Old Brunswick Circuit Foundation presented a memorial plaque, which was subsequently placed within the Archives Office, to recognize Patti and Jack's outstanding leadership over a span of many years.

The Historical Society will present its work in a new format this year, a short, yet informative video that tells the story of the Society in words and images. It is our hope that this presentation will encourage churches and districts to do all they can to preserve their history and to share it widely for new generations to strengthen appreciation of Methodism's rich heritage within the Commonwealth and to continue building upon the strong foundation laid by that great stream of witnesses, namely, our Wesleyan forebears!

The following persons are presented to the Annual Conference for election as clergy and lay trustees of the Conference Historical Society for 2016-2017. CLERGY: Paul A. Beighley, Jr., Stephen E. Bradley, Jr., Michael Browder, Carlton Casey, Robert T. Casey, Alexis Fathbrückner, William R. Freeman, Daniel L. Garrett, Myrtle F. Hatcher, H. Hasbrouck Hughes, Jr., James M. John, *Alexander B. ### The Old Stone Church Foundation

The Old Stone Church Foundation is responsible for the care and preservation of Methodism's Old Stone Church site in Leesburg, the first Methodist-owned property in America. Members of the Foundation help support this mission. We are grateful for those who maintain their membership in the Old Stone Church Foundation year after year. Our Brick Prayer Garden is continuing to grow. Individuals and churches can purchase bricks to add to the garden.

The Annual Meeting was held at Leesburg, UMC on September 15, 2015. Board members elected were: Charles Williams, Lou Legard, Shirlita West, John Creamer, Dennis Hanrahan, Dr. Michael Browder, James Roberts and Ralph Carver. Three ad-hoc members were elected from the floor; Chuck Reavis, Jack King and David Meyer. The next Annual Meeting for the Foundation will be held the Saturday, September 10th, 2016 at the Old Stone Church site where we will celebrate the 250th anniversary of the site. Membership in the Old Stone Church Foundation is open to all who share its purposes and who make tax-deductible contributions for the care and preservation of the Old Stone Church site.

Ralph Carver, President

William Watters Foundation

The William Watters Foundation was established by the Virginia Conference Historical Society in 1996 to protect and preserve the the small Adams-Wren-Watters Cemetery in McLean, VA. William Watters, the first American-born itinerant Methodist minister, and his wife are buried there. The cemetery is a circular plot 90 feet in diameter and one-quarter acre in area located at 6430 Linway Terrace (off Old Dominion Drive) in McLean. It has been registered as the United Methodist Historical Site #7 since 1970.

A Fairfax County Historical Marker commemorating William Watters was dedicated on April 19, 2015. The marker reads as follows: William Watters (1751-1827) was appointed to a circuit at the first American Methodist Conference in Philadelphia in 1773, making him the first officially appointed American-born Methodist itinerant circuit rider. During the Revolutionary War American Methodism, a movement within the Church of England, grew, although most English-born Methodist ministers left the country. In 1780 Watters helped avert a division between northern Methodist societies and those farther south over preachers performing the ordinances of communion and baptism. Following American independence, the Methodist Episcopal Church was formed and American preachers were ordained. Watters, who served circuits in Virginia, Maryland, and New Jersey, is buried nearby. The Fairfax County History Commission, 2014. The marker was provided by Bill Olson and researched by Myra Lindsey. For additional information write: The William Watters Foundation, P.O. ### The Old Brunswick Circuit Foundation

The Old Brunswick Circuit Foundation, a tax-exempt 501 (c)(3) organization, has been active in preserving and enhancing the historic properties that we own, which include the Edward Dromgool House, the only existing circuit rider home in the Conference, and the original site of Randolph-Macon College, which later became the Boydton Institute after R-MC moved to Ashland. The OBCF also has responsibility for the care of the Ebenezer Academy site, the first Methodist school in America.

The Dromgoole house has been stabilized and the exterior wrapped to help preserve the existing structure. The College of William & Mary's Department of Archaeology recently conducted a site survey and partial dig, providing a footprint of the buildings that existed on the property, as well as some artifacts dating to its earliest use. The OBCF has developed a master plan to make the property into a destination where visitors can come and learn more of our pioneering Methodist heritage and the culture of the late 1700s. This plan includes building a caretaker cottage, establishing walking trails and information on sites along Virginia's portion of the Francis Asbury Trail. Efforts have been made in fundraising with some favorable results, including a matching grant from the Titmus Foundation.

The Ebenezer Academy site near Warfield is open for day visitors to take self-guided tours. The R-MC project is pending.

These are long-term projects that require persistence, financial support and encouragement from our Conference and all interested friends. We are grateful for the strong support of the Conference Historical Society and our able Board of Directors that meet at least four times annually. Membership in the OBCF is open: Dues $25; Family $40. Contact: Jim Mott, P.O. Box 385, Lawrenceville, VA 23868-0385; web: www.oldbrunswick.org

VIRGINIA UNITED METHODIST PENSIONS, INC.

Section I: Reports

Report 1: Role & Responsibilities of Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc.

The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church directs each annual conference to establish a conference board of pension, auxiliary to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church (GBOPHB), to have charge of the interests and work of providing for and contributing to the support, relief, assistance, and pensioning of clergy and their families, other church workers, and lay employees of the United Methodist Church, its institutions, organizations, and agencies within each annual conference except as otherwise provided for by the GBOPHB.

On June 22, 1965, the Virginia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church (VAUMC) established and incorporated the Virginia Methodist Pensions, Incorporation, (subsequently renamed on February 2, 1971 to Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc., or "VUMPI,") as its conference board of pension.

VUMPI, in conjunction with the GBOPHB, develops and administers the numerous employee pension and benefit plans sponsored by the Virginia Conference. Some plans are employer-paid, while others are voluntary and 100 percent participant-paid:

VUMPI Plans

Health
Dental
Supplemental Life
Voluntary Life
Long Term Care
Healthcare Flexible Spending Account
Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account

GBOPHB Plans

Ministers Reserve Pension Fund (Pre-82)
Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)
Clergy Retirement Security Program –
Defined Benefit (CRSP-DB)
Clergy Retirement Security Program –
Defined Contribution (CRSP-DC)
United Methodist Personal Investment Plan
(UMPIP)
Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

Report 2: Virginia Conference-Sponsored Health Plans

VUMPI administers health plans for full time clergy of the Virginia Conference, as well as retired clergy who meet eligibility requirements based on years of ministry in the Virginia Conference. Details of the Conference-sponsored health plans follow:

Active Clergy Health Plans

Health plans made available to clergy serving in full time appointments in the Virginia Conference include a Preferred Provider Organization (PPO) plan, a Health Maintenance Organization Point of Service (HMO) plan, and the Clergy Managed Care Plan (CMCP), which pairs a plan with a relatively higher deductible with a Health Reimbursement Account that is funded by VUMPI.

The majority of the cost of the health plans made available to Virginia Conference clergy is funded through a Conference apportionment, as described in Recommendation 1. The remainder of the cost of the plans is funded by participant contributions, as described in Recommendation 2.

Retired Clergy Health Plans

VUMPI administers health plans for eligible retired clergy of the Virginia Conference. The eligibility requirements include a minimum of ten consecutive years of full time ministry in the Virginia Conference immediately prior to retirement. As is detailed in recommendation 2, clergy having ten or more consecutive years of ministry who go on approved leave or are appointed to an Extension Ministry may freeze their years of service by paying the Retiree Health Plan Monthly Access Fee.

Plans made available to eligible retirees are coordinated with Medicare eligibility. Specific plans for retirees who are not yet eligible for Medicare and the program for Medicare-eligible clergy are described below:

Conference-sponsored health plan for pre-Medicare-eligible retirees: retirees who are eligible to enroll in the Conference-sponsored retired clergy health plan but who are not yet eligible to enroll in Medicare may enroll in the self funded PPO plan administered by VUMPI. Pre-Medicare-eligible retirees may also enroll in the self funded dental insurance program made available to active clergy. The majority of the cost of the health plans made available to Virginia Conference clergy is funded through a Conference apportionment, as described in Recommendation 1. The remainder of the cost of the plans is funded by participant contributions, as described in Recommendation 2.

Conference-sponsored health plan for Medicare-eligible retirees: retirees who are eligible to enroll in the Conference-sponsored retired clergy health plan and who are also enrolled in Medicare have two options for retiree medical coverage.

The first option is the Group Plan, which is a group Medicare Advantage plan created specifically for Virginia Conference retirees. The Group Plan integrates the retiree's Medicare benefit and includes prescription drug coverage. The majority of the cost of the Group Plan is funded through a Conference apportionment, as described in Recommendation 1. The remainder of the cost of the plans is funded by participant contributions, as described in Recommendation 2.

The second option made available to eligible retirees who are enrolled in Medicare is the Connector option. Under the Connector option, Medicare-eligible retirees are able to select any Medicare Supplement plan or Medicare Advantage plan, and any Part D prescription drug plan, offered by United Healthcare. The Conference will provide funding through a Retiree Reimbursement Account ("RRA"), and those funds can be used to partially or fully offset the cost of the coverage elected through the Connector. The RRA funding made available to retirees who elect coverage through the Connector option is funded through a Conference apportionment, as described in Recommendation 1. The remainder of the cost of the elected health plan coverage, if any, is paid by the retiree directly to United Healthcare.

Report 3: Pension Plan Structure

There are four components to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP):

- A. Ministers Reserve Pension Fund (Pre-82) for service and benefits accrued on and/or prior to December 31, 1981.
- B. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) for service and benefits accrued on and/or after January 1, 1982 through December 31, 2006.
- C. Clergy Retirement Security Program - Defined Benefit Plan (CRSP-DB) for service and benefits accrued on and/or after January 1, 2007.
- D. Clergy Retirement Security Program - Defined Contribution Plan (CRSP-DC) for service and benefits accrued on and/or after January 1, 2007.

The GBOPHB refers to plans A-C above as defined benefit (“DB”) pension plans. That is, each year an eligible clergy member of the Virginia Conference served/serves and received/receives pension credit, the applicable plan will pay a certain benefit, or “defined” monthly income during retirement. Hence, the term “defined benefit.” Defined benefit plans do not maintain participant account balances since the employer, or in our case, the GBOPHB, has the responsibility to manage the funds in a manner sufficient to pay the monthly defined benefit.

Simultaneous to the GBOPHB calculating each participant’s defined benefit, it calculates each annual conference’s cost to provide these defined benefits. The GBOPHB bills each annual conference the amount due. Each annual conference, or in our case, VUMPI, then in-turn bills and apportions our local churches for the cost of these plans.

In addition to these defined benefit plans, annual conferences provide their clergy pension benefits from the CRSP-DC, a defined contribution (“DC”) plan. Each year an eligible clergy member of the Virginia Conference serves and receives pension credit, the Virginia Conference determines how much pension contribution each clergy participant will receive in his/her pension account. Hence, the term defined contribution. VUMPI bills local churches for the required amount of pension contribution, then in-turn, makes monthly contributions into the clergy CRSP-DC accounts.

Report 4: Welfare Plans Structure

The welfare plans made available to Virginia Conference clergy include the Comprehensive Protection Plan (“CPP”) sponsored by the GBOPHB, as well as supplemental benefits sponsored independently by VUMPI. The CPP disability benefits are as follows:

- For Clergy disabled on or after Jan. 1, 2002, the CPP disability benefit equals 70 percent of Plan Compensation, with compensation capped at 200 percent of the DAC.
- For Clergy disabled prior to Jan. 1, 2002, they will continue to receive the same CPP disability benefit per the plan document in-force at the time their disability claim originated.

The GBOPHB has recommended a change in the eligibility rules for the CPP. That recommendation is being addressed at General Conference in 2016. The recommended change in eligibility rules allow for annual conferences to maintain a degree of discretion over specific eligibility rules, and VUMPI is recommending eligibility guidelines to become effective in 2017 that will match the current eligibility guidelines as closely as possible. VUMPI’s recommended CPP eligibility rules are included in Recommendation 4.

The following generally describes the death benefit amounts payable under the CPP to eligible participants and their beneficiaries:

Active Participant Death Benefits: payable upon the death of an eligible active CPP participant, as follows:

- Participant: $50,000, payable in 12 monthly installments or one lump sum
- Spouse of active participant: 20% of DAC in the year of death
- Surviving spouse of active participant: 15% of DAC in the year of death
- Child of active participant: 10% of DAC in the year of death
- Annual surviving spouse annuity benefit of 20% of DAC, less the annuity benefit payable from CRSP and other Church-related sources
- Annual surviving child benefit of 10% of DAC, payable in 12 monthly installments (for those age 17 and younger; benefits are paid through the month in which the child attains age 18)
- Annual surviving child educational benefit up to 20% of DAC, payable in equal installments (for those age 18 through 24 and attending school full-time)

Retired Participant Death Benefits: to be eligible for death benefits in retirement, a clergyperson must have been covered in CPP for a specified number of years. The 2012 General Conference approved a change to the CPP program which increases the length of service requirement for retirees. Retirees with 25 or more years of enrollment in CPP are eligible for the death benefits in retirement, and the eligibility criteria for those with fewer than 25 years in CPP is phased in with one-year increments, as detailed in the table below:

Retirement Year	CPP Enrollment Requirement for Death Benefit Eligibility
2013	6 of last 10 years
2014	7 of last 10 years
2015	8 of last 11 years
2016	9 of last 12 years
2017	10 of last 13 years
2018	11 of last 14 years
2019+	12 of last 15 years

The death benefit amounts associated with retired participants are detailed in the table on the next page:

Plan Provision	Clergy Who Retired Before Jan. 1, 2013	Clergy Who Retire Jan. 1, 2013 or Later
Death of retired participant	30% of DAC in the year of death	$20,000
Death of retiree's spouse	20% of DAC in the year of death	$15,000
Death of retiree's surviving spouse	15% of DAC in the year of death	$10,000
Death of retiree's child	10% of DAC in the year of death	$8,000
Annual surviving child benefit, payable in 12 monthly installments	10% of DAC	10% of DAC
Annual surviving child educational benefit, payable in installments	20% of DAC	20% of DAC

The Conference Supplemental Death Benefit for all active full-time clergy under episcopal appointment, and who are enrolled in CPP, is $25,000. This Conference Supplemental Death Benefit is payable in addition to the CPP death benefit. During retirement, a $5,000 Conference Supplemental Death Benefit will be payable to CPP participants, in addition to the CPP death benefit. The beneficiary will receive the Conference Supplemental Death Benefit payable in one lump sum. The Conference pays the entire cost of this Supplemental Death Benefit.

In combination, the CPP and Conference Supplemental Death Benefit provide total death benefits as follows:

- $75,000 to beneficiaries of active clergy participants
- 30% of the DAC + $5,000 (or $25,000 for those retiring January 1, 2013 or later) to beneficiaries of retired clergy participants

Gift Benefit

VUMPI currently elects to provide a one time $1,500 gift at the time of retirement or disability (once awarded disability benefits under the Comprehensive Protection Plan) to each clergyperson who has served at least ten years of service in a full-time Virginia Annual Conference episcopal appointment in the Virginia Conference with pension credit. Further, a gift to the family of each clergyperson meeting the eligibility criteria above who dies in active service is paid in the same amount as the gift to retired or disabled clergypersons.

Report 5: Denominational Average Compensation

Several of the pension and welfare plans incorporate the Denominational Average Compensation ("DAC") into the formula for determining the plan benefit. The formula VUMPI uses for funding those plans relies on the DAC, as well.

As reported by the GBOPHB, the DAC is projected to increase from 2016 to 2017 as follows:

Denominational Average Compensation

Report 6: VUMPI Financial Reserve Strategy

The health benefit plans administered by VUMPI for the benefit of active clergy in the Virginia Conference are self-funded health plans. Because VUMPI assumes the financial liability associated with payment of medical claims under the terms of those plans, VUMPI maintains a financial reserve recognizing the potential for claims which exceed the funding made available through apportionments and participant contributions. VUMPI's financial reserve also supports the projected financial liability associated with the health plan made available to retired Virginia Conference clergy, as well as pension funding and other financial obligations.

In 2014, the VUMPI Board of Directors approved a financial reserve strategy that is primarily intended to mitigate the burden of clergy benefits apportionments on Virginia Conference churches. Under the terms of the strategy, the VUMPI Board of Directors identified a portion of VUMPI's financial reserve that has been dedicated to partial reduction of the Pre-82 pension apportionment. Reserve funds that have been dedicated under this strategy for the 2017 through 2021 period amount to over $4.2 million.

Section II: Recommendations for Annual Conference Approval

Recommendation 1: 2017 Pension and Health Plan Apportionment Recommendations

For 2017, VUMPI recommends a total Clergy Benefit Apportionment of $16,770,000. This total includes funding for the Pre-82 pension, the Active Clergy Health Plan (which includes health care coverage for eligible clergy on medical leave and widowed spouses of active clergy) and the Retired Clergy Health Plan. The apportionment total is allocated among these components as follows:

Clergy Benefits Apportionment Recommendations - 2017
Active Clergy Health	$ 9,710,000
Retired Clergy Health	6,060,000
Pension Liability Assessment – Pre-82	1,000,000
Total Clergy Benefit Apportionments	$ 16,770,000

VUMPI recommends the above Active Clergy Health and Retired Clergy Health apportionments as part of its broad strategy focused on maintaining adequate health plans for Virginia Conference active and retired clergy, while moderating the financial impact on local churches and individual participants to the extent possible.

VUMPI will continue to bill Conference-responsible salary-paying-units (such as Extension Ministries) in 2017. The amount billed will be $11,671 for each eligible clergyperson, plus their applicable Participant Contributions for active clergy as noted in Recommendation 2: 2017 Participant Contribution Recommendations.

The Pension Liability Assessment associated with the Pre-1982 pension program is calculated by the GBOPHB, and is partially based on the projected funding liability that VUMPI is required to meet in 2017. Changes in each year's assessment are driven by multiple factors, including actual and projected investment earnings on pension assets held on behalf of the Virginia Conference at the GBOPHB. Based on input from multiple entities, including the Virginia Conference Treasurer and the Virginia Conference Council on Finance & Administration, the recommended Pre-82 pension apportionment in 2017 is $1 million. This amount is estimated to approximate the expected annual funding obligation through 2021, at which point all conferences are expected to have attained a fully funded status in the Pre-82 pension program.

Recommendation 2: 2017 Participant Contribution Recommendations

As part of its strategy to ensure the long-term viability of adequate and affordable health care plans, VUMPI is recommending no increase in participant contributions, resulting in the following monthly participant contribution rates for 2017:

Active Clergy:

Medical
	HMO	PPO	CMCP
Individual	$113	$102	$90
Family	$351	$318	$294

Note: active clergy have the opportunity to earn a $15 reduction in Individual contribution rate or $30 reduction in Family contribution rate through participation in the Virginia Conference wellness program.

Clergy on Voluntary Leave and Sabbatical:

Medical
	HMO	PPO
Individual	$687	$626

Clergy on Medical Leave with CPP Benefits & Under Age 65 Surviving Spouses of Clergy

Medical ($500 deductible)
	PPO
Individual	$112
Family	$180

Clergy Retired Under ¶358.2.a (With Twenty Years of Service) or ¶358.3 (Prior to Age 62 With Fewer Than Thirty Years of Service)

	PPO
Individual	$626
Family	$1659

Retired Clergy Under Age 65 – Retired Under ¶358.1, ¶358.2b, ¶358.2c, or ¶358.3

Individual Tier - Personal Monthly Contributions
Years of Service	PPO	Dental Core	Dental Major
10-14	$698	$31	$60
15-19	$567	$31	$60
20-24	$433	$31	$60
25-29	$301	$31	$60
30+	$167	$31	$60

Family Tier - Personal Monthly Contributions
Years of Service	PPO	Dental Core	Dental Major
10-14	$1,607	$58	$131
15-19	$1,301	$58	$131
20-24	$995	$58	$131
25-29	$690	$58	$131
30+	$381	$58	$131

Retired Clergy Age 65 or Over – Retired Under ¶358.1, ¶358.2b, ¶358.2c, or ¶358.3

Under the Conference-sponsored medical plan for Medicare-eligible retirees of the Virginia Conference, there will continue to be two coverage options, as described below.

Group Plan Option: The group plan is a group Medicare Advantage plan. The group plan has a required participant contribution based on full time years of service in the Virginia Conference. The recommended 2017 participant contributions for the group plan coverage option are as follows:

Medicare-eligible Retirees - Monthly Personal Contributions
Years of Service	Individual	Family
10-14	$375	$750
15-19	$310	$620
20-24	$245	$490
25-29	$180	$360
30+	$115	$230

Connector Option: The Connector option allows qualifying clergy to select any available Medicare Supplement or Medicare Advantage plan, and any Part D prescription drug plan, offered by United Healthcare. Retirees electing coverage through this option receive Retiree Reimbursement Account (“RRA”) funding, which can be used to offset the cost of the selected coverage. VUMPI recommends 2017 monthly RRA funding based on qualifying years of Virginia Conference service as follows:

Connector Option - Monthly RRA Funding
Years of Service	Retiree Only	Retiree and Spouse
20-24	$150	$300
30+	$250	$500

The monthly RRA funding amounts will be prorated for qualifying retirees and/or spouses of qualifying retirees who gain Medicare eligibility or otherwise gain eligibility for retiree coverage within a calendar year. Any RRA funds remaining at the end of a calendar year will roll over into the subsequent year for use by the enrolled retiree and/or spouse for qualifying medical expenses.

General Virginia Conference Health Plan Information

Virginia Conference clergy members earn a year of service towards his or her Total Years of VAUMC Service as indicated in the coverage options above for each year that Virginia Annual Conference health plan eligibility is met.

For participants enrolled in the Anthem health plans, either as active clergy or as a retiree not yet eligible for Medicare, plan selections will be made during the open enrollment period in the fall of 2016. If an eligible clergyperson does not elect coverage options during the annual open enrollment period, the default enrollment option is the prior year’s plan selections (except for Flexible Spending Account or Dependent Care Spending Account contributions), and enrollees will be subject to the associated individual personal contribution rates.

If not selected during the open enrollment period, no Flexible Spending Account contributions can be made during 2017, in accordance with federal laws.

All who are eligible to enroll in a Virginia Conference health plan are strongly encouraged to participate in online open enrollment in the fall of 2016. Details will be distributed through normal annual open enrollment means.

Eligibility for the Conference-sponsored retiree medical plans requires a minimum of ten consecutive years of full time ministry in the Virginia Conference immediately prior to retirement. Virginia Conference clergy on approved leave or serving in an Extension Ministry appointment do not earn additional years of service toward retiree health plan eligibility while on approved leave or appointed to the Extension Ministry, and such leave or Extension Ministry appointment would reflect an interruption of the consecutive years of full time ministry required for retiree health plan eligibility. However, clergy having at least ten consecutive years of full time ministry in the Virginia Conference prior to going on approved leave or taking an Extension Ministry appointment are able to “freeze” their years of service until they retire or until they return to an appointment within the Virginia Conference. Clergy desiring to freeze their years of service under this provision are required to pay a Clergy Retiree Health Plan Monthly

Access Fee, which will be billed monthly by the VUMPI office. As part of the recommended participant contributions for 2017, VUMPI recommends that the Clergy Retiree Health Plan Monthly Access Fee remain at $20 per month for 2017.

Recommendation 3: 2017 Pre-82 Pension Past Service Rate

The Pre-82 pension provides a benefit to all eligible clergy who have served in the Virginia Conference prior to 1982. This program pays the greater of the following:

- An annual benefit equal to the Past Service Rate (PSR) times years of pre-1982 service, or
- An annuity amount based upon the participant's cash balance in his or her Defined Benefit Service Money Account

The Virginia Annual Conference establishes the PSR each year. For 2017, VUMPI recommends that the PSR be increased from $563 to $564.

Recommendation 4: Eligibility Guidelines for the Comprehensive Protection Plan

The GBOPHB has recommended changes in the eligibility rules under the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP). The General Board's recommendation is being considered at General Conference, and for the purposes of VUMPI's Recommendation 4 is assumed to have been adopted in advance of the 2016 session of the Virginia Annual Conference.

The recommended eligibility guidelines for the CPP beginning January 1, 2017 have been designed to match the current eligibility guidelines as closely as possible. Under the revised general eligibility guidelines, full time Elders, Deacons and Local Pastors will be eligible for CPP benefits. VUMPI recommends that the Virginia Conference approve the eligibility of Elders and Deacons appointed to 75% appointments. VUMPI recommends that clergy on medical leave maintain eligibility to remain enrolled in CPP. In addition, VUMPI recommends that Virginia Conference clergy on sabbatical leave and voluntary leave maintain eligibility to remain enrolled in CPP for up to one year.

Under the revised eligibility guidelines recommended by the GBOPHB, annual conferences do not have the ability to extend CPP coverage to Deacons and Elders in 50% appointments. Accordingly, the CPP eligibility guidelines being recommended will result in the loss of coverage for Deacons and Elders appointed to 50% appointments. VUMPI will work with District Superintendents and local churches to evaluate the potential for alternative strategies to secure disability insurance coverage for those clergy who lose eligibility for CPP benefits under the revised eligibility guidelines.

Recommendation 5: 2017 CRSP/CPP/Supplemental Plan Funding Recommendations

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)

The 2017 CRSP Contribution from the local churches and/or salary-paying-units for each appointed eligible clergy member under episcopal appointment at that location shall be:

- For the Defined Contribution component of CRSP: Plan Compensation (base salary plus housing allowance or parsonage rate in accordance with the Internal Revenue Service), times 3%.
- For the Defined Benefit component of CRSP: Plan Compensation (base salary plus housing allowance or parsonage rate in accordance with the Internal Revenue Service, up to 135% of the Denominational Average Compensation ("DAC")) times 9%.

Local churches and salary-paying units are to make their monthly CRSP payments to VUMPI.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

The 2017 CPP contribution from the local churches and/or salary-paying-units for each appointed eligible full time clergy member under episcopal appointment at that location shall be:

Plan Compensation (base salary plus housing allowance or parsonage rate in accordance with the Internal Revenue Service, up to 200% of the Denominational Average Compensation) times 4.4%.

Local churches and salary-paying units are to make their monthly CPP payments to VUMPI.

Clergy on voluntary leave who elect to enroll in CPP are responsible for payment of CPP premium, which will be calculated as 4.4% of plan compensation immediately preceding the leave of absence. As indicated in Recommendation 4 above, clergy on voluntary leave may remain enrolled in CPP for up to one year.

If, for any reason, CPP contributions are more than 30 days in arrears, participation in the CPP is suspended. If contributions are more than six consecutive months in arrears, participation in the CPP is terminated. For terminated participants, readmission into the CPP requires payment of seven months of contributions and submission of medical statement of good health.

Erroneously enrolled clergy who are ineligible to participate in the CPP have no right to benefits under the CPP. Eligible clergy who have not been properly enrolled in the CPP have no rights under the CPP until after proper enrollment.

Recommendation 6: 2017 Comprehensive Funding Plan

The 2012 Book of Discipline ¶ 1506.6 requires that each annual conference develop, adopt and implement a formal comprehensive funding plan for funding all of its benefit obligations. The funding plan shall be submitted annually to the GBOPHB for review and be approved annually by the Annual Conference, following the receipt and inclusion of a favorable written opinion from the GBOPHB. This document is only a summary of the information contained in the actual signed funding plan and does not contain all the information required for a comprehensive view of the Virginia Conference's benefit obligations. You may request the full contents of the 2017 comprehensive benefit funding plan from the VUMPI office.

Program overview:

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement program providing lifetime income and account flexibility designed for those who serve as clergy of The United Methodist Church. The program is designed to provide participants with one portion of their overall retirement benefits. CRSP replaced the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) effective January 1, 2007, which had previously replaced the Pre-82 Plan for service rendered prior to January 1, 1982. CRSP consists of both a defined benefit (DB) plan, which provides a monthly benefit at retirement based upon years of credited service to The United Methodist Church, and a defined contribution (DC) plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the annual conferences.

Current funding plan information:

The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP-DB) annuities total liability as of January 1, 2015 is $1.271 billion, while total plan assets are $1.407 billion, resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 111%. The Virginia Conference portion of the liability is 4.0454% and the 2017 contribution is $4,687,087. VUMPI anticipates that the amount will be funded by direct billing to local churches in accordance with the billing methodology detailed in Recommendation 5 above. Additionally, General Conference 2012 approved a change to CRSP that provides each annual conference the discretion to determine whether to cover three-quarter and/or half-time clergy. The Virginia Conference has elected to cover clergy serving 50%+ under CRSP effective January 1, 2017.

Effective January 1, 2014 the CRSP-DC plan was reduced from a 3% to a 2% of plan compensation non-matching contribution. Clergy have the opportunity to earn up to an additional 1% CRSP-DC contribution by contributing at least 1% of their plan compensation to UMPIP; therefore, if a participant contributes at least 1% of plan compensation to UMPIP, the individual will receive a contribution of 3%, which is unchanged from 2013. The 2017 CRSP-DC contribution is anticipated to be $1,055,531 and will be funded by direct billing to local churches in accordance with the billing methodology detailed in Recommendation 5 above.

MINISTERIAL PENSION PLAN (MPP)

Plan overview:

Supplement Three to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP), provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church from 1982 through 2006. MPP is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement plan. Effective January 1, 2014, exactly 65% of the account balance must be annuitized when the funds are to be distributed. The remainder may be rolled over to UMPIP, into an IRA or another qualified plan, or it may be paid out as a lump sum.

Current funding plan information:

The Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) annuities' total liability as of January 1, 2015 is $3.122 billion, while total plan assets are $3.509 billion, resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 112% and no required contribution for 2017. The Virginia Conference's share of the total liability is 3.2532%. Future MPP annuitants have a total account balance of $4.145 billion and the Virginia Conference's portion of that balance is $152,020,913 or 3.67% of the total.

PRE-1982 PLAN

Plan overview:

Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Pre-1982 Plan, provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church prior to 1982. The Pre-1982 Plan was replaced by MPP effective January 1, 1982. If a clergy person retires within the Conference (and does not terminate), the minimum benefit payable is based on two factors: 1) years of service with pension credit and 2) the Conference pension rate. Years of service with pension credit are approved by each Conference in accordance with plan provisions and The Book of Discipline. The pension rate, also called the Past Service Rate (PSR), is the dollar amount chosen by the Conference as the amount payable for each approved year of service with pension credit. The pension rate may change from year to year. The number of years of service with pension credit is multiplied by the pension rate, and the product is the minimum annual benefit payable to those clergy eligible for Pre-1982 Plan benefits. In certain situations, the benefit received from the Pre-1982 plan may vary based on the applicability of what is referred to as Defined Benefit Service Money (DBSM), which is the defined contribution feature of the Pre-1982 Plan. At the time that a participant retires, the DBSM account is converted to a life based benefit and, at that point, the clergy's benefit is the greater of the PSR or DBSM benefit. If the conference increases the PSR, the clergy's benefit is recalculated, but the DBSM based benefit does not change.

Current funding plan information:

The 2017 PSR recommended to the Virginia Conference is $564, as described in Recommendation 3 above. VUMPI expects future increases to be recommended in a manner that recognizes the reality of inflation while demonstrating appropriate stewardship of the Conference's financial resources.

The contingent annuitant percentage is recommended to remain at the 70% level.

ACTIVE HEALTH BENEFIT PROGRAM

Program Overview:

The Virginia Conference offers a self funded health benefit plan to its active eligible participants.

Current funding plan information:

The program will be funded in 2017 by apportionments and participant contributions.

Claims Incurred But Not Reported:

The Virginia Conference provides a self funded health benefit plan to its eligible participants. As of December 31, 2015, the estimated incurred but not reported ("IBNR") claims total is $1,875,056. It is anticipated that increases for future years will average 5.0%, based on the expectation that underlying health trends will continue to be mitigated by plan design adjustments. It is anticipated that the IBNR claims, if applicable, will be funded through apportionments.

POST-RETIREMENT MEDICAL BENEFIT PROGRAM (PRM)Program Overview:

The Virginia Conference post-retirement medical program includes a self funded health benefits plan for eligible retirees who are not yet enrolled in Medicare, and the choice between a fully insured group Medicare Advantage plan and individual market plans with Retiree Reimbursement Account funding for eligible retirees who are enrolled in Medicare.

Current funding plan information:

The funding obligation for 2017 is anticipated to be $7,140,694, which will be funded by apportionments and participant contributions. Based on the most recent PRM valuation dated January 1, 2015, the following is the funded position of the post-retirement medical benefits:

1. Expected Post Retirement Obligation (EPBO) or net conference cost
$143,370,033
2. Accumulated Post Retirement Obligation (APBO) or net conference cost
$113,970,895
3. Assets designated for PRM
$8,000,000
4. Service Cost (SC) or net conference cost
$2,113,452

As a preview of the 2018 CBFP requirement, a new PRM Funding Contribution requirement will be mandatory for conferences requesting a full favorable CBFP opinion. This year the calculation for informational purposes only is as follows:

- |  |               |
|--|---------------|
| 5. Unfunded APBO, [2. – 3.]  | $105,970,895 |
| 6. Number of Annual Payments                                       | 20            |
| 7. Portion of Unfunded APBO, [5. / 6.]                             | $5,298,545   |
| 8. PRM Funding Contribution, Informational purposes only [4. + 7.] | $7,411,997   |

These values are based on a 4.40% long term discount rate, a 7.0% long-term expected rate of return, and a current increase trend of 8.0% with an ultimate medical increase of 5.0%, beginning in 2024.

COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN (CPP)Plan Overview:

The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) provides death, long-term disability and other welfare benefits for eligible clergy of The United Methodist Church and their families. It is an Internal Revenue Code 414(e) “church plan” funded by plan sponsor insurance premiums.

Current funding plan information:

For 2017, the Virginia Conference has an expected required contribution to the Comprehensive Protection Plan of $1,759,219, which is anticipated to be funded by direct billing to churches. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be approximately 2.0% per year, consistent with the expected rate of increase in overall compensation.

UNITED METHODIST PERSONAL INVESTMENT PLAN (UMPIP) FOR LAY AND CLERGYPlan Overview:

The United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) defined contribution retirement savings plan for clergy and lay employees of The United Methodist Church and affiliated organizations. Participants may make before-tax and/or after-tax contributions through payroll deductions. Participant contributions, various optional plan sponsor contributions and investment earnings comprise the individual's retirement account balance.

Current funding plan information:

Contributions to UMPIP are funded via contributions from participating clergy and local churches.

OTHER CONFERENCE BENEFIT OBLIGATIONS: DEFINED CONTRIBUTION (DC) TYPE

Plan Overview: The Virginia Conference currently offers a supplemental life insurance benefit for eligible clergy in the conference.

CONCLUSION

The 2017 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan and the above Summary document incorporates, to the best of our understanding, the Virginia Conference's obligations and funding requirements of the benefits provided to the clergy and laity of the Virginia Conference.

Recommendation 7: 2017 Housing Allowance/Exclusion

Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired, Disabled, or Former Clergypersons of the Virginia Conference

The Virginia Conference (the “Conference”) adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, terminated, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the “Church”), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church (“Clergypersons”);

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as an appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension, severance, or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the “Discipline”), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (“GBOPHB”), during the period January 1, 2017 through December 31, 2017 by each active, retired, terminated, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such an active, retired, terminated, or disabled Clergyperson’s pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson’s gross income in any year for federal (and, in most cases, state) income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2), and regulations thereunder, to the least of: (a) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson’s employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (b) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (c) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Each clergyperson or former clergyperson is urged to consult with his or her own tax advisor to determine what deferred compensation is eligible to be claimed as a housing allowance exclusion.

COMMON TABLE FOR CHURCH VITALITY

In 2008, the Virginia Annual Conference approved a strategic direction identified as All Things New: Fruitful and Multiplying – The Virginia Conference with the identified goal of changing the culture of the Virginia Conference to fruitfulness and multiplication. This desired goal was undergirded by a focus on leadership development as expressed in beginning 250 new faith communities in 30 years and increasing the vitality of existing congregations. For the past eight years, the Common Table for Church Vitality has been guided by All Things New as it has fulfilled its chartered purpose “to coordinate and prioritize the ministries and resources of the Virginia Conference.” As the Virginia Conference prepares to enter its ninth year under the same strategic direction, it is good to be reminded of what has happened since the approval of All Things New.

- 1) Thirty-seven new faith communities have begun. Included in this total are 19 Anglo faith communities and 18 faith communities from other demographic backgrounds. While some of these new faith communities have begun through the initiative of the annual conference, the majority are the result of existing congregations living into the strategic direction of fruitfulness and multiplication by accepting the vision of launching new faith communities. It is good to note that two of the new faith communities begun since 2008 (The Vine, Spirit and Faith) have now launched new faith communities as part of their ministry.
- 2) Conference ministries have focused on leadership development as a foundational objective. Since the approval of All Things New some of the new ministries that have begun in the area of leadership development are:
  - The 5 Talent Academy that is livestreamed semi-annually across the conference with an average participation of 450+.
  - How to Reach New People workshops that have been conducted in all 16 districts and have included over 300 congregations. Many of these congregations have chosen to be part of a year-long process that includes coaching.
  - Large, mid-size, and small church ministry training groups.
  - Just-in-Time Training for pastors who are being appointed to large, midsize, and small membership congregations.
  - Church Leadership Institute for both laity and clergy in helping congregations to live into ministry in a new day.
  - Clergy Leadership Initiative for identified clergy who are early in their ministry.
  - Continuing implementation of Discipleship Circles seeking to engage laity and clergy together in the practice of spiritual disciplines and growth of congregational vitality.
  - Bishop’s Convocation on Prayer
  - Launching in 2016 of accelerator ministry model for ministries receiving conference grants that are beyond their current resources. The purpose of the accelerator is to provide assistance in strategic development and ongoing ministry support.

- Launching in 2016 of Young People's Ministry discernment group through Spiritual Leadership, Inc.
- Launching in 2016 of online Lay Servant training.

3) In 2017, the share of the annual conference budget for which Common Table has responsibility has been reduced by over $800,000 from 2008.

Reports from Common Table affiliated agencies are included in the Book of Reports and provide information about the ministries that are amenable to Common Table. The names of these conference agencies are Board of Church and Society, Board of Communications, Church Development Team, Board of Discipleship, Missional Ministries, Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries, Board of Laity, Commission on Disabilities, Commission on Ethnic Minority Concerns and Advocacy, and Commission on the Status and Role of Women.

One new staff member was added to the Connectional Ministries staff since the last annual conference year as Paulo Lopes assumed the position of Director of Ministries with Young People. Common Table expresses appreciation to the faithful ministry of all the Connectional Ministries staff for their tireless work in sharing the good news of Jesus Christ.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Approve the following recommendation by the following boards:

By the Board of Discipleship regarding the observance and special offering for Christian Education Sunday;

By the Board of Discipleship regarding the recommendation and endorsement of Gregory B. West as a General Evangelist according to the standards set by the General Board of Discipleship;

By Missional Ministries regarding the continuation of Conference Relationship Agreements;

By Missional Ministries regarding special offerings for Heart Havens, United Methodist Family Services, and Virginia United Methodist Homes.

By Missional Ministries regarding Advance Special Offerings.

Marc Brown, VAUMC Director of Connectional Ministries

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The United Methodist Book of Discipline (§629) specifies the purpose of the Conference Board of Church and Society. The Conference Board is to help the conference, districts and local congregations employ our Social Principles to connect our faith communities to the world around us. This work is both individual and societal. We are called to invite faithful disciples to lead the church prayerfully into the world of Christ.

We have organized our board to follow the issues raised by our United Methodist Bishop's letter: "God's Renewed Creation: Call to Hope and Action." In this 2009 letter, our bishops raised virtually the same issues, as did Catholic Pope Francis this past year, namely that the world is awash in 1. Violence, 2. Environmental Destruction, and 3. Poverty. Following the need to address these three interconnected disasters, we have organized three work areas: 1. Peace and Non-Violence, 2. Caretakers of God's Creation, and 3. Eradicating Poverty. We include Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries now under the Eradicating Poverty work area.

The Conference Board promotes the Peace with Justice Sunday Special Offering, one of the six Church-wide offerings that The United Methodist General Conference asks of each local church. In 2015, only 106 of our churches gave to this Special Offering, but their giving has allowed the conference to fund key ministries within the conference. Of particular note were the following:

1. Scholarships for participants to join the Conference Board of Church and Society study trip to Israel and Palestine. We co-sponsored this trip jointly with Jewish Voices for Peace.
2. Remember and Recommit: A program of racial reconciliation and study of race relations by two Richmond churches.

The deadline for conference Peace with Justice grant proposals for next year is Jan. 30, 2017.

The Board Caretakers of God's Creation ministry has begun a program of district workshops to help churches become "Green Churches". The Caretakers are also working to help congregations divest of stocks of thermal coal companies as required by the resolution voted by the conference in 2015. They are promoting <http://fossilfreefunds.org/> a project of As You Sow, a corporate responsibility program. The fossilfreefunds.org tool makes it very easy to evaluate your portfolio for all kinds of fossil fuel investments.

The Peace and Non-violence Work Area is giving continued leadership to persons interested in peace in the Middle East.

The Eradicating Poverty Work Area will be leading our board work in mentoring youths and in banning the "box" which allows prospective employers to discriminate against persons who have served their time for crimes and are now trying to become employed.

Each year, United Methodist Day at the General Assembly is held on the first Thursday in February. We hold this event jointly with the United Methodist Women and the Conference Legislative Network. We are pleased that every year of his tenure, Bishop Cho has been a key participant in this event. Next year will be the 25th anniversary of United Methodist Day at the General Assembly. We hope every church will plan to send participants to this exciting day in the life of the conference.

Jaydee Hanson, Chair, Board of Church and Society

CHURCH DEVELOPMENT TEAM

The Church Development Team has been working hard to fulfill its mission to assist in creating New Faith Communities and support the work of vitality in existing churches under the All Things New plan. Below you will find CDT's activities toward this work.

The Five Talent Academy continues to offer training opportunities related to worship, financial stewardship, discipleship, evangelism and ministry with the poor. We also continue to offer these events via web-based simulcast to regional locations throughout Virginia. Recent events have included leadership by Shane Claiborne, Jim Harnish and Barbara Day Miller.

The Equipping Planter team directs the invitation, discernment and training of planters of new faith communities for the Virginia Conference. Those who are interested in planting engage in a process of discernment as to each person's gifts for this unique ministry. The first stage is the Church Leadership Institute, which is held annually each fall. We had more than 50 participants this past October. Some who attend this event decide that they wish to explore this call more deeply. These prepare a self-reflective paper and are interviewed by members of our Church Development Team. Summaries of these interviews are given to the cabinet to help inform their appointment of planters of new faith communities. Once appointed, church planters attend a boot camp during the summer of their appointment, and coaches are assigned to help guide their ministry.

The New Faith Community subgroup of the CDT continues to help create a culture of excellence, fruitfulness and vitality in the area of new faith community development in our conference. This year we have continued to resource and encourage recently-initiated new faith communities, local churches, district Boards of Mission and their equivalents, the Cabinet and others in our conference to live out the "All Things New" strategy through the planting of new faith communities. In addition to resourcing our conference in the area of new faith community development, the New Faith Community subgroup also receives, reviews and makes recommendations to the CDT and the Common Table regarding funding for new faith community development proposals. This year we received multiple proposals that were reviewed and given careful consideration. We remain prayerful and excited about the future of new faith community development within our conference.

The CDT deeply appreciates our working partnerships with the Cabinet and conference Finance and Administration as we have negotiated conference policy regarding legacy congregations, adoptions and church planting mergers.

The Church Development Team partners with the Large, Medium and Small Church leadership teams. These teams offer training events both for pastors who have just moved (Just in Time trainings) as well as training for clergy and laity in order to increase vitality. In 2015 we brought Gil Rendle to speak to large church pastors and Lew Parks to speak with small membership churches. Phil Maynard was scheduled to speak to the Mid-Size church but was unable to be with us due to a weather event. These teams are working to schedule Just In Time trainings for pastors as well as fall training events for each size church.

We would like to thank Mark Ogren, Kim Johnson and Pat Hickman for their efforts that help make All Things New in the Virginia Conference.

Melissa Dunlap, CDT Chair

VIRGINIA UNITED METHODIST COMMUNICATIONS, INC.

The mission of Virginia United Methodist Communications, Inc. is to assist faith communities in communications and related technologies, empowering their mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

Over the past year, we have carried out our mission through several different projects. We created a tips sheet for local churches searching for a church database management system. Working with Brenda Capen, our conference webmaster, we increased access to more United Methodist-related logos and graphics making them available to local churches through the conference website. Maintaining our commitment to increase communication training, board members participated in district training events and will be hosting a brand new communication training event at our 2016 Annual Conference. Recognizing the need to provide support for local church communicators around the conference, we have set out to establish a local church communicators fellowship, and to date, have over 90 interested participants. Our board members are also working to create a Church Communication Self-Assessment tool for local churches to use to discern what kind of communications assistance they are seeking and to match those desires with resources and information. Finally, our board also heavily supports the operation of Annual Conference by providing camera operators, helping on the tech desk, producing conference communication and photography and developing a display to provide resources to attendees of Conference including the availability to order Conference DVDs and subscribe to the Advocate magazine.

The board feels it is vital to support our Communications staff and for staff and the board to work together in supporting the growth of communication ministry throughout the conference. This year, we welcomed Madeline Pillow to the conference communications staff as Virginia United Methodist Advocate editor and news associate. We also were excited to bring Nick Ruxton from part-time to full-time videographer.

The Virginia Conference Communications staff won six awards at the denomination-wide communications/media awards contest held during the annual meeting of United Methodist Association of Communicators (UMAC), Jan. 19-20 in Portland, Ore.

Madeline Pillow, Advocate editor, won first place in the portrait category of the photography class for her photo of Bishop Young Jin Cho and Maria Maxwell celebrating when they learned that the Virginia Conference had raised more than $1 million for Imagine No Malaria, exceeding the conference goal.

The Virginia United Methodist Advocate won a third place award in the magazine category of the print publications class.

Nick Ruxton, conference videographer, won four awards for his videos, including sweeping all the awards in one category. "District Sends D.S. Down River," a video of the Rev. David Rochford's canoe trip to raise money for Imagine No Malaria, won first place in the promotion category of the video production class. "Imagine No Malaria: Sipping Lemonade to Save Lives" won second place in the same category, and "Called 2015: Youth Retreat Promo Series" won third place. "United Methodist Day at Virginia's General Assembly" won third place in the video news story category.

The Board of Communications continues to look for new ways to support the work of our local churches. Please feel free to reach out to us either through the conference staff or through the conference website.

Keri L. B. Marston, President

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

The directing board of the Board of Discipleship has been working diligently to focus the efforts of the board on becoming the resource center for the Virginia Annual Conference concerning all aspects of discipleship, church vitality, and discipleship circles. As such we are moving to align our regional directors in line with the organization of the Cabinet in regions that will allow us to work more closely with district superintendents and district lay leaders. Recognizing that this type of change takes time, we are moving forward. Our directing board is working at training, definition and a compilation of resources to become a "one stop center" where local churches can find assistance with local discipleship and church vitality. In addition we continue to support the Bishop's initiatives for spirituality by working closely with host churches for the Bishop's Convocation on Prayer.

Shortly we will have available a website center with "best practices" in the area of discipleship. Local churches will be able to find resources including books, programs and consulting sources to assist them in their efforts to be fruitful. Regional directors are compiling lists of clergy and laity in areas of Vital Congregations, Five Practices, etc. so that local churches will have consulting resources without the prohibitive cost that generally keeps smaller to mid-size churches from these resources. We are working closely with the Cabinet to develop our own leaders through training and agreement with top name organizations with proven records of transformation. Areas will include church assessment, From Membership to Discipleship, Vital Congregation areas, etc.

The Board of Discipleship, working closely with the Bishop's steering committee is devoted to promoting, teaching and guiding local churches and small groups in Discipleship Circles. Discipleship Circle facilitators are available through the regional directors to come and assist groups in the formation of spiritual discernment where we open ourselves to God as we enter into discussion, transformation and activity. Discipleship Circles is not a program, but a tool of spiritual discernment and formation that transforms a small group from a task force to a Holy Spirit-driven cluster of voices.

Donald Jamison, Chair

Discipleship Circles

Discipleship Circles exist to help leaders throughout the Virginia Conference grow in openness to God and establish trusting, collaborative relationships while working together to lead our churches to increased fruitfulness through God's transforming power. A total of three Discipleship Circles facilitator training events resulted in 90 people receiving training to assist in the implementation of Discipleship Circles throughout the Virginia Conference. Trained facilitators now represent every district. Refresher training events are planned for each of four regions with the first event occurring on Friday, March 18 for the 20 trained facilitators from southwest region districts (Danville, Farmville, Lynchburg, and Roanoke). District lay leaders are invited to the refresher training events in their region. The purpose of the refresher training is to offer facilitators additional training, practice of spiritual disciplines together, opportunities for facilitators to get to know one another, peer problem-solving, gathering and responding to feedback, an adjustment of focus and opportunity for forming district Discipleship Circles among trained facilitators. The Eastern Shore Discipleship Circle continues to meet with impressive results around the challenging and critical topic of "race relations." As Discipleship Circles continue to form throughout the Virginia Conference, please join us in prayer that our lives, churches, communities and world might be transformed as we work to become more spirit-led, connected and accountable.

Cheryl Edley-Worford, Director of Inclusivity and Lay Leadership Excellence

Older Adult Council

The Older Adult Council has begun a strategic effort to provide resources to the district and local church level to encourage and equip older adults in their personal faith development and in reaching out into the world to serve older adults, those age 55 and older. We endeavor to equip those, who serve older adults to encourage discipleship.

We recognize ageism, often unrecognized, may interfere with our goals. Such statements as, "Why would we spend money and waste energy on programs for our seniors, when we all know the future of our church is our children and youth?" fail to appreciate the wealth of resource of older disciples, their continued need for faith development, and their gifts and graces to serve the community. We recognize intergenerational programming may be challenging, but important to the building of the kingdom. As older adults share their faith experiences, they are an integral part of making and growing disciples.

Programs on Experiencing God, How Faith Shapes Us, Leaving a Legacy of Faith, and liturgical dance are offered upon request by members of the Council. An Old Time Revival, cosponsored last year with Shady Grove UMC, Mechanicsville, was well received and will be repeated this year at Centreville UMC. For 2016, the Council partnered with Virginia United Methodist Homes, Inc. to develop and distribute worship suggestions for Older Adult Recognition Sunday which is recognized within our Annual Conference on the first Sunday in May. Members of the Conference Council continue to serve as representatives on the board for the Southeastern Jurisdictional Association of Older Adults (SEJAOA). The major event sponsored by the SEJAOA is the annual Festival of Wisdom and Grace which will be held on August 1 – 4, 2016, at the Lake Junaluska Conference and Retreat Center.

Suzanne Spencer, Chair

Conference Council on Youth Ministries

Grace and peace to you from the Virginia Conference Council on Youth Ministries (CCYM)! Our Council just finished our spring meeting and are looking forward to gathering again September 9-11, 2016. March 3-5, 2017 will be our next spring meeting.

This year we learned that multiple local colleges and universities have received grants to put "institutes" that will likely address many similar issues to our LEAD program. While we intended to run LEAD again in Summer 2016, it no longer seems like an area of need. The council will take time to evaluate if the program should still exist and if not, what area of opportunity exists that we can fill.

In partnership with the office of Ministries with Young People, our 2015 Fall Retreats featured Keith Elgin (a nationally recognized artist and worship leader at Vine Church in the Virginia Conference). Keith was asked to support General Conference 2016 as a worship leader, so having him at our fall retreats links us in a small way to the global gathering of the UMC. Paulo Lopes, our new director of Ministries with Young People, served as our speaker. We were fortunate to partner with UMFS to collect items that would support their Bridges Out of Poverty program in Lynchburg, Virginia. Hearing directly from a graduate of that program was powerful and provided a direct connection to those who benefit from the in-kind offerings from our youths.

Efforts to increase marketing have continued. Please like VAUMC Youth on Facebook or follow vaumcyouth on Twitter and/or Instagram.

CCYM relies on districts to provide names and contact information for council membership. Please encourage your district to be in touch and send members to the council meetings. Members' names should be submitted from district offices to alisonmalloy@vaumc.org

On March 5, 2016, our incoming co-chairs were elected: Hannah Hale from Fairview UMC in Danville and Sarah Williams from Floris UMC in Arlington. We look forward to their leadership as we thank Ethan Adams from Bonsack UMC in Roanoke and Katie Wax from Oak Grove UMC in Elizabeth River for their service!

Alison Malloy, adult chair

CONFERENCE MISSIONAL MINISTRIES BOARD

"Engaging, connecting and equipping clergy and laity of the Virginia Conference for God's mission" is the base for the new structure of the board. Facilitating the board's function are two teams: Missional Discipleship and Engagement and Missional Connections. Through these two teams, we have been exploring and discerning new ways to be in mission partnerships locally, nationally and internationally.

The Missional Discipleship and Engagement team includes the inter-related work of several conference committees: Disaster Response, Initiatives of Hope, Volunteers in Mission and Voices of Youth.

Disaster Response is coordinated by Rev. Bob Pihlcrantz. Disaster Response provides conference-wide alerts, training and coordination of volunteer response teams.

Initiatives of Hope (IOH), chaired by Rev. Judy Fender, has a mission to increase awareness of and generate increased participation in partnership-in-mission opportunities in identified countries or local and national missional ministries. Our overseas connections are currently with Mozambique, Brazil, and Cambodia.

The Rev. Glenn Rowley and Erin McKenney attended the Mozambique Consultation. Our primary ministry in Mozambique is supporting lay and clergy leadership and training. Discussions continue on how we continue to be in mutual relationship as funding decreases. The Bishop of Mozambique who is the Episcopal Leader for South Africa has asked that we explore developing relationships with the UMC in South Africa and that has begun. Rev. Glenn Rowley and the Rev. Haley Mills dos Santos attended the 15th anniversary celebration of the Shade and Fresh Water Project (for at-risk children) in Brazil. VAUMC partnership was recounted and celebrated, and a strong desire to continue our relationship with the Shade and Fresh Project and the Amazon Medical Boat was voiced. The Rev. David Vaughn chairs the Brazilian Initiative. Juanita Csontos chairs the Cambodian Initiative. Two VIM teams traveled there in 2015. The United Methodist Church continues to grow and values their mutual relationship with Virginia United Methodists. In February, Rowley traveled to Cambodia to discuss and assess our goals and continuing our relationship beyond 2016. Plans are underway to send 1-2 VIM teams there in 2017. Rowley will also visit Vietnam where the UMC is rapidly growing. Volunteer in Mission teams are a vital means of keeping relationships alive, and our goal is to ensure at least 2 teams travel to designated countries. We are exploring new initiatives and relationships with Native Americans, recognizing we have much to learn from them and share with local churches.

United Methodist Volunteers In Mission (UMVIM), coordinated by Forrest White, offered four team leader trainings in 2015, with 29 persons trained; and three re-certification events with 27 persons. There have already been three training events in 2016 with 50 persons. The Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/VirginiaUMVIM>) continues to be a place for inspiration, information and connection. Team leaders are invited to share the specifics about their trip (i.e. church or district sending the team, location and ministry project particulars) by e-mailing the conference UMVIM coordinator who will post to the Facebook page. Others are invited to pray for the team and those they'll be serving. Teams looking for additional information are invited to "recruit" via the Facebook page. Our prayer is that we truly embrace and live the UMVIM mission statement based on 1 John 3:18 — "Christian Love In Action."

Voices of Youth (VOY), coordinated by the Rev. Rebecca Minor, has as its mission statement: "Fill your mind with truth, your heart with love, your life with service." We are a group of youths and adults who have a passion for music and mission and combine those two gifts into a unique service experience. This summer we will spend three weeks in July giving of ourselves in service to the high population of homeless in Hawaii — a group that is avoided, overlooked and forgotten. We will be in ministry with the homeless in Honolulu, and then again in Hilo on the Big Island. We will also be working in construction at the only United Methodist Camp in Hawaii, Camp Mekokiko.

The Missional Connections Team includes the work of mission contexts and relationships; mission education, interpretation and resources; and health and relief connections.

Mrs. Anne Klotz, Missionary Itineration Coordinator, has facilitated connections and visits for many missionaries with their covenant churches during the past year. Under the new Global Mission Fellows program to engage young persons in short-term mission ministry, Christina Trager, a US2, is serving at Henry Fork and Ferrum College. We anticipate additional placement sites being created within the Virginia Conference.

Mission Encounter, is a cooperative school offered by the Conference Missional Ministries Board and the United Methodist Women to help us understand God's work in our world and our involvement as United Methodists. Mission Encounter 2016 will be offered July 29-31 at the Blackstone Conference and Retreat Center (VUMAC). The studies focus on three areas: Social Issue — Climate Justice: Call to Hope and Action; Spiritual Formation — The Bible and Human Sexuality: Claiming God's Good Gift; and the Geographical Study — Latin America: People of Faith. There will be a Korean Study on Climate Justice: Call to Hope and Action, and a Children's Class — God's Extravagant Garden: A Children's Study on Climate Justice.

The Conference Committee on Mission Personnel (CMMP), chaired by the Rev. Joanne Maughlin, guides and mentors interested persons through the application and discernment process for mission service. Applicants can access the Personnel Information Form (PIF—Application for Missionary Service) and other application materials from the Virginia Conference website under Ministries > Center for Justice and Missional Excellence > Committee on Mission Personnel (CCMP) > Related Documentation. All completed application materials should be sent to the Virginia Conference Committee on Mission Personnel, The Virginia Conference Center for Justice and Missional Excellence, P. O. Box 5606, Glen Allen, VA 23058, NOT to the General Board of Global Ministries.

Verónica G. Barrell, CMMP Chair

PARTNERSHIP REPORTS

Heart Havens

Throughout 2015, Heart Havens continued to further its mission of empowering adults with intellectual disabilities to live and thrive in a safe and nurturing environment. We continued to operate eleven (11) group homes throughout the conference, but Heart Havens is about so much more than a roof and a bed. This year, people we support participated in sports leagues and community theater, gave back to their communities through pet food drives and other service projects, attended festivals, planted gardens, and so much more. We are so thankful for the support of our VAUMC friends that make this empowerment possible.

In 2015, we continued to hold the Better Business Bureau Accredited Charity Seal and Guidestar Gold. In addition to the generous support of our brothers and sisters throughout the Conference, we also received over $126,000 in grants to help us pursue our mission. Some highlights are:

- Virginia Department of Rail and Public Transportation, $57,955 (vans for the Macleigh-Holland home in Virginia Beach and the Mary Beth Graff home in Richmond)

- Knights of Virginia (KOVAR), $20,000 (towards new vans and replacement furniture at the Winchester, Colonial Beach, and Garber Morris homes)
- The Mary Morton Parsons Foundation, $25,000 (towards home maintenance, including new roofs at the Bonnie home in Stuarts Draft and the Mary Beth Graff home in Richmond)
- Richmond Memorial Health Foundation, $10,780 (year two of a three year grant to build a career ladder for Direct Support Professionals)
- Commission on Disabilities, $430 (towards modifications to make the Kilmarnock home more accessible)

We continued to strengthen our connections with congregations and small groups throughout the Conference. We were pleased to share our message of empowerment at 55 different churches, small groups, and events around the conference. Additionally, we welcomed many volunteers from local churches, including youth and UMM groups. These volunteers blessed us by raking leaves, painting, or simply having fellowship with the people we support. We were proud to announce that our 2015 Manwiller Award recipient was Jim Butts of the Elizabeth River District. Jim has been a tireless advocate for Heart Havens from the very beginning, and has been very involved with our Tidewater area homes. He comes up with fun and inclusive activities for the people we support, and he builds meaningful relationships with both residents and staff.

Looking forward, the Charlottesville District is currently raising funds with us to build an integrated community. We also know that many of the people we support are aging, and we are exploring ways to support people with intellectual disabilities throughout the aging process, including the possibility of bringing on a nursing coordinator.

With your continued support, Heart Havens can continue to empower people with intellectual disabilities to live vibrant lives with as much independence as possible. We invite you as the Church to be an advocate for Heart Havens and for people with intellectual disabilities. After all, “we are one body in this one Lord!”

United Methodist Family Services of Virginia (UMFS)

As a faith-based nonprofit social service organization, we do whatever it takes to empower high-risk children, their families and communities throughout Virginia. From addressing behavioral and emotional issues to finding foster and adoptive homes, UMFS never gives up. UMFS is an unwavering champion for high risk children and families, collaborating with communities to help them reach their full potential.

We provided services in 2015 to over 9000 children and families throughout Virginia. With regional centers in Richmond, Northern Virginia, Tidewater, Fredericksburg, South Hill and Lynchburg; intensive treatment centers in Richmond and Centreville; and offices in Farmville, Charlottesville, Roanoke, Tazewell, and Loudon counties, our reach is across the Conference. We are dedicated to creating a world where caring, opportunity and generosity are passed on from generation to generation. Through our five core values of collaboration multiplies impact, relationships are our building blocks, relentlessly pursue solutions, passion unleashes greatness and starting with strengths; we are transforming lives of children and families across the commonwealth.

Since 1900 the United Methodist Church has partnered with us to be an advocate for those most at risk. With the help of the Church Partnership Program we have made a concerted effort to engage youth, parents, community groups, business partners and the faith community in providing resources, expertise and support so that all families can thrive. Our 60 church partners are ministering in their communities by recruiting and supporting foster and adoptive families; serving as mentors and tutors; conducting work projects and special events; providing transportation for children and families; and hosting the prom for Charterhouse School. UMFS and the Lynchburg District partner together at the Park View mission by hosting the “Bridges out of Poverty” class and “What every church member should know about poverty” class. This is in an effort to help our brothers and sisters break the cycle of poverty by partnering the local church with UMFS staff and resources through a hand up rather than a hand out approach. Church partners are making a huge impact across the Conference for high risk children and families in your communities.

Alongside our church partners our Child Champion Councils (CCCs) are a critical resource to our children and UMFS. The CCCs are a collection of church partners that grow in ministry together by combining their efforts and energy on multiple fronts. The Child Champion Councils exist in Northern Virginia, Tidewater, Edinburg, Fredericksburg, Lynchburg/Roanoke and South Hill, and are advocates for our ministry on their districts and local churches. Our relationship with the United Methodist church is vital for us to achieve our mission of serving and loving the most vulnerable children in Virginia. We have 87 new foster /adoptive families approved and more than 1,495 volunteers last year, a large percentage of which were church affiliated.

We ask you as the Church to be the champion for at risk youth and their families and also help UMFS to find forever homes for the thousands of youth who are in the Virginia foster care system. Become a partner church with UMFS, or a local church ambassador of UMFS. We value our Virginia Annual Conference connection and feel privileged to be a part of the ministry of the United Methodist Church and want to invite you and your congregation to join forces with us. Together we can make a difference.

Margaret Hardy, Chair, UMFS Board of Directors and Greg Peters, Chief Executive Officer

Virginia United Methodist Homes, Inc.

Reflecting on this past conference year, I am amazed by all that has taken place at Virginia United Methodist Homes, Inc. (VUMH). Today there are nearly 1,300 residents who call one of our seven VUMH communities home, and overall occupancy has grown to 1,065 occupied residences. We have nearly 1,000 full time and part time team members who work 24 hours per day, 7 days per week, to enhance the lives of those residents. In 2015, our dedicated board and countless volunteers provided over 33,300 hours of service in our seven communities – an average of more than 91 volunteer hours each and every day!

We realize that to be successful in today’s senior living market, we need to grow the services and programs we offer. With the help of a dedicated group of professionals, our team members have embraced culture change efforts, a movement of transformation that shapes relationships, organizational structure, and physical settings to create a genuine sense of “home” and greater opportunity for elders to direct their own lives. Although much work remains to be done, the stories our team members share are amazing! We have worked collectively with our residents, board, consultants and team members as part of this process to develop new ideas for Cedarfield and WindsorMeade. Those planning efforts will continue throughout 2016 and into 2017 with new construction starting at WindsorMeade soon and at Cedarfield shortly thereafter. Our board is committed to maintaining and upgrading all of our communities, and to that end we have seen significant improvements in all of our physical plants.

Transformation in an organizational context can be defined as a process of profound change that orients an organization in a new direction and takes it to higher level of effectiveness. As our efforts toward culture change bring about this type of profound change we are led toward new ways of communicating this person-centered focus while lifting up our Wesleyan heritage. A new branding initiative will assist us in describing this transformation to the broader community.

In our culture change and branding efforts, VUMH is called to acknowledge and honor both the new and innovative work that guides us toward the future and the history and faith connection that are the roots of our mission. It has been the tradition of VUMH that we recognize the ten local congregations across the Virginia Annual Conference with the highest level of giving each year to the Samaritan Program. Provided since 1948, benevolent assistance to residents through this program is at the heart of the mission of VUMH. During 2015, we were honored to recognize the following churches with the Samaritan Award for their support of the Samaritan Program:

- Reveille (Richmond District)
- Westover Hills (Richmond)
- Saint Stephens (Alexandria)
- Fairmount (Richmond)
- Sydenstricker (Alexandria)
- Trinity (Richmond)
- Burke (Alexandria)
- Fairfax (Alexandria)
- Williamsburg (York River)
- Greene Memorial (Roanoke)

Community Guilds also recognized the tremendous contributions of the following churches with the Innkeeper Award. This award honors and offers appreciation to congregations in the Virginia Annual Conference for exemplary support of the mission of VUMH with older adults. It recognizes both the stewardship and volunteer service of members of the congregation:

- Cokesbury (Alexandria District)
- Messiah (Elizabeth River)
- Greene Memorial (Roanoke)
- Shady Grove – Mechanicsville (Richmond)

We are deeply appreciative of the prayers, gifts, and volunteer service that come from our Conference churches and organizations. VUMH is proud to be carrying on the tradition of advocacy and support for older adults that the Methodists of Virginia began discussing at Annual Conferences in the early 1940s. We hope that United Methodists of the Virginia Conference today consider VUMH a valuable resource and extension of local church ministries with older adults.

Wesley Housing Development Corporation

Wesley Housing's mission is to preserve, develop, own, and operate affordable housing and sustain quality communities for low- and moderate-income families and individuals who might otherwise face homelessness. Since 1974, we have served over 25,000 residents in Northern Virginia. We currently manage 19 properties (serving more than 2,100 residents) in Alexandria, Arlington County, Manassas, and Fairfax County. We also manage four Community Resource Centers and five special needs Resident Services Centers that offer a full range of programs and services to support children, adults, seniors, people with chronic disease, and people with disabilities.

Real Estate Development Projects

- Lewinsville Senior Residences (McLean): Wesley Housing has been chosen to renovate and expand the McLean property from 22 to 82 units of affordable, independent housing for low-income seniors. The Fairfax County Board of Supervisors approved an agreement with Wesley Housing. Construction will begin this year and finish in 2017.
- Lynhaven Apartments (Alexandria) and William Watters Apartments (Arlington): The combined 49 units are being fully renovated to include energy efficient upgrades and new interiors. Renovation work is nearing completion.
- Wexford Manor Apartments (Falls Church/Fairfax County): In 2016, critically needed renovations will begin on 74 apartments. The project will preserve the community as affordable for 30 years and the Community Resource Center will triple in size.
- Culpepper Garden (Arlington): Wesley Housing will lead the renovation of this landmark seniors' community. We will work with the owners to preserve 204 affordable units.
- Union on Queen, formerly Pierce Queen Apartments (Arlington): This Metro-accessible Arlington County project will incorporate two of Pierce Queen's garden apartment buildings and construct a new 12-story residential tower, resulting in a total of 193 total units with 78 affordable apartments. The mixed-income project will preserve affordability for 60 years.

Resident Services & Volunteers

- Housing Stability Initiative: Every month, approximately 200 adults take advantage of housing stability and eviction prevention programs such as resume and job search skills training, computer training, crisis intervention, referrals to community resources, and financial literacy and household budgeting. In 2015, 754 households accessed our services, including 249 children in youth programs and 52 adults who found first-time or better employment.
- Thirty-two Wesley Housing families, including 155 children, enjoyed a special holiday because of hundreds of volunteers who participated in our 2015 Adopt-A-Family program. St. John's UMC again donated space for volunteers who worked to sort and wrap Adopt-A-Family gifts as well as the donations from Toys for Tots. During the holiday season, Wesley distributed quality food items to 400 families, as well as sponsored a flu shot clinic.
- In 2015, 540 volunteers served Wesley Housing and its residents.

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRIES

As stated in previous reports, campus ministry in the Virginia Conference strives to be “a dynamic, diverse demonstration of God’s creative and inviting love” expressed through the ministries of seven Wesley Foundations, six ecumenical campus ministries and six chaplains at United Methodist educational institutions in Virginia. These campus ministries touch the lives of tens of thousands of students (most between the ages of 19 and 30) with invitations and opportunities “to explore, engage and embody an active faith in God.” In varied ways appropriate to each campus ministry context, God is worshipped, faith is explored, communities and people are served and lives are changed — all in the name and through the power of Jesus Christ. I trust you will read the stories shared by each of our campus ministries.

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries is in place to provide oversight, policies and resources for fruitful ministry with college students. This year BHECM has been focused on moving toward a grant-based funding system for each ministry, establishing standards to determine the grant levels and providing resources and training for local campus ministry boards. The board is grateful to John Dunning for his exceptional and dedicated work on these initiatives. BHECM has continued to work to develop and improve its Campus Ministry System of data collection and reporting. Though this has been a continuing frustration for many we are still hopeful that a “more perfect” system can be developed. We are grateful to Josh Blakely for his continued work on this. We are also grateful to Bill Pike for his expertise and consistent efforts to address all the maintenance and improvements on our Wesley Foundation facilities. An understanding of the responsibilities of the local boards and those of BHECM/Wesley Foundation, Inc. in maintaining the facilities has been more clearly established. We are making great strides. Additionally, local boards at each of the Wesley Foundation were asked to assess their building and facility needs and whether their current building was meeting those needs effectively. One ministry, RISE at JMU, after making this assessment determined that the Wesley House at JMU was no longer meeting their needs. So in consultation with Wesley Inc. and the conference trustees, the facility at JMU was sold. Proceeds will be used to support campus ministry facilities and program needs across the Conference.

Following a year or more of transitions and challenges with the campus ministry at VCU, the BHECM decided in November to suspend the ministry at VCU for one year — and relaunch the ministry in 2017. A new minister director for this new ministry at VCU has been selected and will begin in July. We are excited about the new possibilities God is opening at VCU.

This year we welcomed a new chaplain at Randolph Macon College, Kendra Grimes; a new minister director at our ecumenical ministry at CNU, Donna DeSarro-Raynal; and a new director of Ministries with Young People, Paulo Lopes. We look forward to welcoming a new minister director for our ministry at George Mason this July.

Students and young adults are hungry, yearning and desire the love, mercy and good news of Jesus Christ. It is a great mission field. Thank you, VA Conference for your continued prayers and support of your campus ministries in Virginia.

Herb Brynildsen, president

Arise Campus Ministry, George Mason University

What a year it has been with the students at George Mason and Arise Campus Ministry! If there was one word to describe it, it would be transitions. About four years ago, Arise rebranded and part of that involved the tagline, “Explore Faith, Discover Grace”. When I came on board in July, this is the phrase that I prayed over and based the projections for the semester. I felt that this would be a strong foundation for how our students would experience one another in community and reach out to other students on the campus of George Mason.

Arise is supported by two program staff and myself. Amy Cox, is a worship leader at a local United Methodist Congregation and lends her energy and gifts to Arise on a weekly basis. This year we brought on a new team member, Michelle Cashwell, as the administrative assistant. A lot of things would not happen at Arise without their creativity, support, attention to details and passion for ministry with students!

The biggest transition was in the essence of our weekly gatherings from the fall semester to the spring semester. Once the fall rolled around, I was carrying out the calendar of weekly worship, small groups and mission opportunities as had been previously laid out. This included two small groups and a Stop Hunger Now event where we packaged 20,000 meals. We were meeting new students—transfers, freshmen, and upperclassmen—but the weekly programming was becoming static. There was a disconnect between the students and what was happening. But perhaps more importantly, there were not varied opportunities to truly “Explore faith, Discover grace”. By the end of the fall semester, we had a “town meeting” of sorts for students to reflect on the past semester (or two), dream about what could happen next (without any limitations), and articulate how Arise could connect with the greater Mason population. From that fruitful discussion a comment came from Andrew Miller, a sophomore, and he said, “I believe that if people really knew that Arise is ‘come as you are’ and that we aren’t just saying that, they would find a real community.” This resonated with me along with the comments of wanting informal gatherings and missional opportunities.

With prayer and brainstorming with Amy as well as students we presented a new “model” for the spring semester. Basically, we worked through a rotation of Worship, Social Action (Mission), and social events. Worship is modern and laid back; social action is an opportunity for students to learn about a local mission effort and then put their hands to work. This semester we partnered with a local church to package meals for a local elementary school; we prepared and served dinner at a hypothermia shelter and prepared Health kits for United Methodist Committee on Relief. Finally, the main social event was hosting Trivia nights on campus. This rotation has given balance to the community as well as attracted new students.

In regards to organization and structure, one new endeavor has been to meet weekly with a Student Leadership Team. It functions with all the elements such as the accountability of a small group, planning of a team and learning from a bible study. This has allowed students to really get to know one another and has encouraged them to take ownership in the ministry versus coming solely from the campus minister. I am thankful to Noelle, Will, Ruth, Allie, and Kyle for saying yes to something new and challenging.

We also continue to be supported by an ecumenical board that has welcomed several new members this year. The board seeks to spread the word of Arise’s mission and ministry to the local community. We have found new local churches to partner with and individuals who are extremely passionate about being in ministry with students.

Finally, after what has been an enriching year, it is difficult to transition away from the Arise Community. However, I feel confident in the students, the student leadership team and the incoming Campus minister to continue serving the campus of George Mason. I am eager to see how the Spirit rushes through the community and connects students with one another and to our God. We are thankful to God for inspiring us as a community and thankful to the many members in the body of Christ for their support.

Lindsey M. Baynham

The Campus Christian Community (CCC)

The Campus Christian Community (CCC) is an ecumenical campus ministry serving the campus of the University of Mary Washington in Fredericksburg. It is supported by the Presbyterians, United Methodists, Episcopalians, and Lutherans. The mission of the CCC is: "Welcoming all people, The Campus Christian Community witnesses to the love and power of God in Jesus Christ. The CCC ministers with students, faculty, and staff of the University of Mary Washington and the surrounding community through worship, study, fellowship, and service, and provides a forum to explore and question issues of faith and life."

This mission statement is something that we strive to live into every day at the CCC. This year we have spent time re-evaluating our programs and the life at the CCC to see how this statement represents us. As a result, we have increased the amount of mission work and outreach that we have been doing in our community. Our leadership retreat expanded from a one-day event to two, so that we would have more time to do leadership development and dig into the different areas we were discussing. Gathering together at table is an important part of our ministry. Our largest event continues to be our Thursday evening program. We are grateful for the area churches that continue to support us with this event by bringing us meals for students. In addition to the meals, we have a program portion as well. Some of the favorites this year were Pastor's Panels, where local clergy were asked any questions the students could come up with, spirituality centers, and a conversation on privilege. The students also cook for each other on Tuesday night for a time of fellowship. On Wednesday's we gather for a Bible study. This is giving more students a chance to delve deeper into scripture and practice sharing where they find meaning in it. Some highlights from our year include completing a large fundraiser to replace the roof of our building, a mission trip to help with the lasting effects of Super Storm Sandy, and our retreats.

We invite you to check out our website www.campuschristiancommunity.com to see what we have been up to and to keep up to date with our ministry.

RISE: A United Methodist Faith Community

My name is Alexis Ward, and I am the Coordinator of College Outreach at RISE. I am also a graduating senior at James Madison University. Four years ago I began my career at JMU, I was searching and wandering, an eighteen-year-old girl trying to find herself. Four years later I am twenty-two, I am still at JMU, I am still at RISE, and I am still trying to find myself. The difference between the girl from four years ago and the woman I am now is that I have grown and changed, and I have had the opportunity to do this alongside the incredible community called RISE. Over the past year this community has fed the hungry and clothed the naked, we have journeyed with those suffering from mental illness and addiction. This community has grieved and struggled, we have laughed and loved with a passion beyond imagination. Most of all, this community has asked the hard questions and pushed past the boundaries that our society has set as the limitation of what any organized group of people should be able to accomplish. We do not have all of the answers, and I don't think we ever will, but we have faith that God will help guide us along our journey and point us in the direction of those who need a community to call their own.

Alexis Ward, JMU Junior, RISE Worship Coordinator

IGNITE United Methodist Church (formerly Tidewater Wesley Foundation)

Our year began with a question: How can you start a church until you know what one is?

After several hours of praying and discerning the direction God wanted for IGNITE. This was the question that lingered, that ate at me day and night. We had received clear confirmation that ours was not to be a typical church. We weren't going to worship every Sunday. We weren't going to have a band or sermons - at least not for the present.

But if not that, then what?

What evolved of the next few months was an entirely new idea of church for us. In many ways, it was church in reverse. Instead of starting our church with worship and moving towards discip-ple ship and missions, we were going to start with missions. We were going to connect with the students of ODU in the area where they seemed most passionate: serving others. If the hall-mark of the millennial generation was a desire to make a difference with their lives, we were going to offer it to them, while also introducing them to the one who would make the greatest difference in their lives: Jesus.

Within a few months, it became clear that this was clearly the path to which God was calling us. Our number of volunteers surged. Our Bible studies filled up. And suddenly we had more people than we could even handle at the events we were hosting.

As a result, we began to expand our outreach in the community. Each month, we fed over 300 hungry people through a local community supper. We worked with several dozen children whose families were homeless through a ministry called Hot Meals and Homework. We adopted a third grade class, building relationships with the students, their parents, and their teacher. And in each of these, we found ourselves being introduced to dozens of new students each month who were curious about this new vision of church we were forming.

Before long, we realized that God was providing opportunities for us to not only serve those in need in the community, but also those on the campus itself. We began to work with the univer-sity to research a possible situation of food insecurity among students. We learned that while around 18% of people went hungry each day in the city of Norfolk, the need was even greater on campus. Many students were without enough food to eat each day, and there was nothing in place to address it. As a result, we have begun to build a partnership with the university to form a student food pantry that will provide food resources to students, faculty, and staff on a weekly basis. Not only will this allow us to serve students in need, it will allow us to engage an untold number of students who have already signed up to volunteer at the food pantry.

Most important, though, have been our efforts in the area of discipleship. Were it not for these, we might risk becoming little more than a service organization. Therefore, we formed what we call Missional Communities. They are small groups that meet weekly with the intention of building fellowship, fostering service, and nurturing discipleship. They are a place where we begin to bond and grow as the body of Christ, helping one another to wrestle with the question of "how is it with your soul" and dreaming together of the ways in which we can continue to "make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world." More than anywhere, this is where lives change and disciples are made.

What I have realized over the past year is that in pursuing this vision of a new kind of church and campus ministry, we are not so much paving new ground as returning to our roots. We are embodying the image of the church in Acts, a church not defined solely by worship, but by shar-ing in communion, eating together, discipling one another, and offering such generosity that no one in their community had need. And we are returning to the beginnings of our Methodist heritage, a movement begun by feeding the hungry, working in schools, and meeting in small groups.

Throughout my ministry, I have scarcely felt as much excitement as I do for the untold possibilities of what lay ahead. The path God has laid before us, though evident, is far from clear. And perhaps that is the way it should be. For such mystery demands faith and requires obedience. Why would we desire to do anything else?

Brandon Robb

Wesley-Westminster Foundation at Norfolk State University

The Wesley-Westminster Foundation at Norfolk is an ecumenical ministry of the United Methodist and Presbyterian (USA) Churches seeking to impact the College, the Community, and the Current Culture with Christian Principles, Open Hearts and Open Minds. It is our mission to provide a safe place to explore and to experience one's faith, while offering a respectful and non-threatening environment of love, service to others and learning. Friendship, fellowship and faith are enhanced at The Foundation House. Students enjoy a space where they can learn, grow and develop their faith. Bible Study, Prayer, Small Groups, one-on-one conversations and weekly meals are offered. We worship and work together. As a family, we support one another and seek to strengthen our Christian walk.

This summer three from our ministry traveled with the other young adults in the Virginia Conference to Cambodia for a two-week mission trip. We taught youth and young adults during a week long Christian Camp. This was a memorable event that has changed the way we see missions. We then traveled to Milwaukee to experience street ministry first hand. This week-long intensive afforded us the privilege to serve in soup kitchens, meet Franciscan monks and provide food to several homeless populations while learning the essentials of initiating viable ministries for outreach.

Students come to The Foundation House to study, to relax and to just have fun. We have hosted game nights, Super Bowl Parties, Movie Nights and even a Christian House Party. Reaching out to help others is vital to our vision for Campus Ministry. During our Back to School Campus and Community Cookout we welcomed more than 200 students, staff and community members. On several occasions we have provided over 200 lunches to homeless men and women through our street ministry (#Lunchbag). Students gather to pray, pack lunches and then distribute them in three specified locations. When we arrive at the destinations, we give out lunches, offer prayer, sing songs of praise and encourage those present. In the future, we hope to provide coats, gloves and hats while serving lunch during the winter months. This will be a continuous outreach for us. Additionally, we have adopted a second grade classroom at James Monroe Elementary School in Norfolk, Virginia. Both our board members and our students participate in ministry to these young people by helping to host holiday parties, provide activities and engage them in arts and crafts as a way of demonstrating care and concern and encouraging them to be the best students they can be.

Every year our students look forward to our Faith Enhancement Retreat. We enjoy traveling to Still Waters Retreat Center and basking two days in spirit filled worship, devotion, prayer, and introspection. Rev. Lisa Johnson is an amazing retreat facilitator. This year Thirsty Thursdays has consisted of Life Support, a series addressing the daily life of the believer. About 20 of us gather each week for this Bible Study. Additionally, the students meet for a student led Bible Study on Wednesday nights and small groups throughout the week. This year we hosted our very first Campus Ministry Week offering several opportunities for worship, outreach and fun. More than 75 students attended our worship services during this week. We also hosted our first Benefit Banquet.

We have been invited to more than ten churches to lead worship and to offer the morning message. As a family we attended the movie Woodlawn and hosted a discussion on Race Matters. During No Strings Attached (NSA) Bible Study we have given out over 400 tokens of our appreciation to faculty and staff including flowers for breast cancer awareness, you were "mint" to touch lives candy bags and let your light shine tea light candles. The students have been intentional about spreading the gospel and led several prayer walks throughout campus. The Great Hunt is always a success and offers the students a chance to be children again by hunting for Easter eggs filled with candy and scriptures. We hide hundreds of filled plastic eggs and give away prizes.

Students and their parents attended Family Weekend and enjoyed music and the message during the worship service we hosted. In efforts to make disciples we always march in the Homecoming parade giving out literature and candy, of course. One of our students was even asked to pray for one young lady as we passed. We have joined with other Christian organizations on campus to develop what we have coined as the Coalition of Christian Organizations (C.O.C.O.). Together we are working to raise at least $1000 to donate to CHKD a Children's hospital during our Dance Marathon.

Pace Campus Ministry (Wesley Foundation @ VCU)

This has been an exciting year at Pace United Methodist Campus Ministries! We offer weekly worship and fellowship opportunities to the students at VCU, and have been blessed to see students growing in their faith, and developing relationships with others as well.

This year we began a new partnership with UKirk, the Presbyterian Church (USA) campus ministry at VCU. This offers the students an opportunity to grow spiritually in an ecumenical environment. It has been a great joy to work with Rev. Aaron Houghton of UKirk.

The Pace Center also joined the Interfaith Campus Ministries Association of VCU, and has been able to network with other faith groups here on campus. We continue to see our role grow within the broader VCU community.

We are home to many other groups ministering to the campus and community. This year two more ministries have come to call Pace home, and we rejoice in the work they are doing to live out God's love in this area of Richmond. Whenever we can, we work together to offer the love of Christ to all of our neighbors.

Pace is grateful for the work of our Board, as well as the support of the Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry. Together, Pace will forge ahead into God's future for the ministry, making disciples for the transformation of the world.

United Campus Ministries at Virginia State University Home of FLOW: Faith, Love, Outreach & Worship!!!

UCM FLOW is a new faith community partnership on the James River District that developed when the Ettrick United Methodist Church graciously opened its doors to United Campus Ministries at Virginia State University. The Lord Jesus Christ has blessed this relationship mightily resulting in a number of new opportunities for ministry in the village of Ettrick!! The church now hosts weekly worship services at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. in the sanctuary with a number of members who attend both!! Highlights from this new day for ministry include the following opportunities:

- A church cleanup project in basement and on the grounds outdoors on Holy Saturday, April 4, 2015, consisting of 15 VSU student volunteers.
- The use of drums during the 11 a.m. Sunday service, as a FLOW student and new member of the Ettrick UMC family began playing in the summer of 2015.

- A Village of Ettrick “Love Thy Neighbor” Fair on Saturday, September 12, 2015, consisting of free food, kids bounce equipment, door prizes, school supply giveaways, and more. In attendance to interact with the community were members of the local police force, fire department, and community service providers. More than 50 VSU student volunteers were present to help including UCM FLOW members, Oikonomia student leaders, and the VSU Women’s Basketball Team. The fair was made possible by a $5,000.00 grant given by the Ettrick Neighborhood and Business Foundation which was written by Mr. James Barber, a VSU FLOW student intern and member of Ettrick UMC.
- The development of the Concerned Citizens of Ettrick (CCE), a gathering of local business owners, pastors, former educators, public servants, and people of good will who meet weekly at the church to address the issues which challenge our community. This CCE has adopted the issue of maintaining the existence of the Amtrak Train Station in the village as it is an asset to the students at Virginia State University and other locals as a means to travel to and from the village. A relocation at any other site would hinder student access to campus as the station is currently walking distance away from the university.
- A couple of students have joined the Ettrick United Methodist Church as members with others having been baptized for the first time in life as members of FLOW.
- A visit to the 2 p.m. worship service by Bishop Young Jin Cho on Sunday, October 11, 2016. During his visit, Bishop Cho shared the story of his healing of a severe illness and his call to ministry during the worship service’s period of Witness and Testimony. Our students were moved by the generosity of his time, talent, and resources.
- A new relationship with the Chesterfield County Food Bank wherein students and members of both services volunteer on the third Saturday of each month to assist with the food distribution at the Ettrick Elementary School. The Rev. Bob Lamb, senior pastor of Ettrick UMC delivers a gospel message each week to a gathering of 95 to 145 citizens per month.

In addition to aforementioned areas of growth and development, our existing ministries have continued to progress in their very own way!! We host Soul Food Bible Study on Wednesday nights on the second floor of Jones Dining Hall at 6:00 pm. We have been blessed by the stability and faithfulness of the Avodah music ministry, the Chara performing arts ministry, Girlz at the Gate intercessory prayer ministry, and the Oikonomia missions’ ministry. We have also been graced to develop a couple of new ministries including the Synados hospitality and usher ministry, the Naomi’s Girls Youth Mentoring Program, and the revitalized Men of Troy Men’s Mentoring Program which is now a full-fledged men’s ministry. Each of these groups meets at least once a week and reaches out to the campus of Virginia State University, the village of Ettrick and the city of Petersburg to make a difference in the world for Jesus Christ!!

In closing, we would simply like to give a shout out to the Virginia Conference, the James River District, and the Ettrick UMC for aiding us in taking our ministry to the next level!! We could not be a home of Faith, Love, Outreach, and Worship with you!! May God continue to bless every ministry of the Virginia Conference!!

Blessings,

Delano Douglas, Director

The William and Mary Wesley Foundation

This year has been another amazing year of ministry at Wesley. The numbers of students, their passionate commitment to following Jesus, as well as our mission and ministry, are all strong. Our campus ministry community continues to lead the way, as our vision statement says, “Through following Jesus, we embrace God’s radical hospitality towards all.” Not only are the students involved in Wesley aware of the grace and love that is embodied here, other students and the college recognize it as well. The students are following Jesus and leading the way.

Speaking of leading the way, our new Leadership Team took office in January. They are Sadie Meadows, President; Emily Crawford, Devotions; Allison Harkness, Discipleship; Erica West, Communications; and Jen Peek and Erin Kitchens, Fellowship. This group of dedicated, passionate students leads the way in the focus and direction to our entire ministry. This spring semester, we are building on the momentum from our powerful winter break Civil Rights and Faith trip. On that trip, we not only did meaningful service work with Urban Ministries in their urban garden and home painting ministries, we also volunteered with Highlands UMC’s ministry with persons who are homeless, and also at the food co-op at Woodlawn UMC. We also visited the Civil Rights Museum and Institute and 16th Street Baptist Church in Birmingham, and the Martin Luther King National Monument and Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta. Furthermore, we discussed with veterans of the Civil Rights movement and persons who are continuing the work today about how their faith continues to empower them. This spring semester we are utilizing the Ten Commandments of Nonviolence as our guiding theme. Thus, each Sunday night Large Group focuses on a different commandment, as well as our Bible Study is focused upon the commandment, “Meditate daily on the life and teachings of Jesus.”

Students are coordinating our partnerships with local churches in mission and ministry, as our connections with Williamsburg, Wellspring, and New Town UMC continue to be strong. Nothing exemplifies this better than the Exam Break that we have at the end of each semester, led by the Williamsburg UMC United Methodist Men. We have over 200 students coming to the Wesley House to share in over 450 cookies, gallons of hot chocolate, water, coffee, and lemonade. In addition, we have folks from all three churches and the community bring 8-10 dogs to help relieve the stress of finals. In addition, we are also partnering with Williamsburg UMC in their respite and homeless shelter ministries and with WindsorMeade UMC retirement community in leading worship, hymn sings, and bingo.

In addition to our Bible Study and Java and Jesus weekly meetings, we continue to partner with other campus ministries and student groups in events, service, mission, and ministry. Already this year, Wesley has partnered with the Lutheran, Presbyterian, Baptist, and Episcopal campus ministries, as well as the Muslim Student Association from hosting speakers, to partnering in events, to joining together in mission projects. Furthermore, Wesley continues meet the very real needs of students in crisis on campus. Finally, Wesley continues each semester to coordinate a service day at Shalom Farms for the entire campus community.

Wesley students also led workshops on how to develop and implement a vision for ministry at the Summer Institute for the United Methodist Campus Ministers Association. It continues to be a joy and a privilege to serve with the students and board of The Wesley Foundation, as the students actively follow Jesus on campus, locally, regionally, and beyond.

Max Blalock, Campus Minister

Wesley at Virginia Tech

*Holy Spirit, You are welcome here. Come flood this place and fill the atmosphere.
Your glory, God, is what our hearts long for; to be overcome by Your presence, Lord.
Let us become more aware of Your presence. Let us experience the glory of Your goodness.*

These words from Francesca Battistelli's song, "Holy Spirit," are guiding words for our ministry over the past year at Wesley. Our desire to follow the Spirit's movement in all of our ministries has produced amazing fruits! We have felt the Spirit's presence in mighty ways through our many ministries of outreach, fellowship, worship, discipleship, and mission.

This past fall our "Welcome Week" activities were a tangible expression of how the Spirit's presence is overcoming our ministry! Having over 400 students attending a welcome cookout, over 300 attending our life-sized game night, and Wesley being a more visible presence on campus has enabled our students to embody a spirit of hospitality and evangelism.

Our continued ministry of leading youth retreats is a manifestation of the Spirit's movement to youth in our conference. During one of our welcome events the first week of classes a new student was asked, "What was it that brought you to Wesley?" She remarked that she had been coming to the Youth Weekends that Wesley puts on for the Roanoke District and that not only is that why she is at Wesley, but that is the reason she is at Virginia Tech! This story is one of so many this past year where youth from our Conference are getting connected in campus ministry primarily because of our Wesley students' impact of leading youth retreats across the Conference over the past four years. The fruits of this ministry are just beginning to be seen, but it is so very exciting to see how the Spirit's movement is enabling us to reach so many more youth and keeping them connected to our Church.

The Spirit's overwhelming presence is being felt in our student food pantry, 209 Manna Ministries, as well. This past year has seen the ministry grow from one day a week and around 20 students to now being open for three days each week and seeing over 60 students coming through our doors to receive emergency food support. Student after student that comes through the pantry remark that this ministry has been vital to their ability to be nourished while in school at Tech.

We had 45 students spend their Spring Break in Edenton, NC, to help NC UVMIM with tornado recovery. Our students see this as one of the best moments of our year! The missional mindset of our community is witnessed in their passion for being in ministry WITH others. They see their mission as one of building relationships and sharing the love of Jesus. Whether that is doing recovery work on Spring Break, handing out 350 hot dogs downtown on a Friday night, tutoring youth at a local trailer park, collecting cake mixes for a community Christmas store, or packing Operation Christmas Child boxes with a local youth group, our students desire to "Love Out Loud" in all they do!

Our third year of our new worship service is another way that the Spirit is leading us to grow in our ministry. We have seen the fruits of this part of our ministry through growing numbers in worship, a passion for making worship a primary aspect of our ministry, and students leading in a number of ways to enhance our service. Students are aware of the Spirit's presence and we are seeing the glory of God's goodness in the many opportunities for worship.

Our small group ministry "Communities of Grace" is also witnessing the power of the Spirit's presence. We have increased how many "CoGs" we have and our students are seeking new ways to enhance this area of ministry. Students are becoming more and more engaged in the ministries of Wesley through this small group ministry.

A very exciting Spirit led experience happened with college students across the Conference with an event called "RE3: Rethink, Reclaim, Renew." This event was geared towards college-aged students in Virginia with an emphasis on how to think about the future of the Church. We brought in speaker Sarah Bessey and had different ministries provide opportunities for worship.

As we "become more aware" of the Spirit's presence among our ministries it is exciting to see how campus ministry at Virginia Tech is providing a space for students' to explore, engage, and embody an active faith in God.

"I've seen and felt the Spirit this year at Wesley through the intentional ways people care for each other and desire to grow together. Being a senior, I've seen a lot and can truly say this has been the most lively and fruitful year of ministry in which I've been a part. I'm constantly thankful for both the joy and the times of confusion that we get to walk through together in community."

Michelle Hettmann, Student Campus Minister

The Wesley Foundation at UVA

Our Conference's commitment to campus ministry is a statement of faith, that our Church is committed to being an engaged conversation partner on college campuses, sending clergy and funds to support young people in a vulnerable and fruitful time of personal, professional, and spiritual development, with the hope and expectation that their young lives are part of the way God's Spirit is moving in and transforming the world.

Here's what this looks like "on the ground" at UVA this year: Spending Thursday nights enjoying home-cooked meals from churches throughout the Charlottesville District, while exploring topics as varied as the Syrian refugee crisis, the Black Lives Matter movement at UVA, listening for the Holy Spirit in "secular" music, learning about General Conference with delegates Meredith McNabb and Alex Joyner, and a fun-filled Q&A conversation with our District Superintendent. We also gathered for a "Refresh Your Spirit" retreat at Wintergreen, visited the Fluvanna Correctional Center for Women to help lead worship, slowed down for special weekly worship services in Advent and Lent, and partnered with Wesley Memorial to welcome the PACEM men's shelter. We spent a weekend baking 200 dozen cookies to help support our interfaith spring break service trip to Tuba City, Arizona, where we stayed on a reservation, serving and learning from the Navajo people, alongside our Jewish friends from the University's Hillel group.

In March, we welcomed Lutheran pastor, writer, and speaker Nadia Bolz-Weber, who led a vespers worship service, gave a public talk as part of the Festival of the Book, reflecting on "Finding God in All the Wrong People," and spent time in a small group setting with students from Wesley and other campus ministries, exploring how God's radical grace is liberating and convicting good news for college students.

As you know, we have also been engaged in our Building a Foundation for the Future capital campaign, which has raised $785,000 in gifts and pledges so far! In the fall we began work on a limited "phase one," as we continue to work towards our total fundraising goal. It's not too late to make or increase a contribution to support this effort – or to view our video: wesleyatuva.org/ccvideo.

We are thankful for and inspired by the ways our students choose to answer God's call. Once again, Wesley at UVA has two students who will serve as Calling 21 interns this summer, and alumnus Ryan LaRock is being commissioned as a provisional elder at this Annual Conference. The faithful work that begins on campus, one student at a time, ripples out into the life of the Church and the world, thanks be to God!

Deborah Lewis, Campus Minister & Director

Community College Ministries

Community College Ministries is your campus ministry with community colleges in southwestern and central Virginia where over 50,000 students deal with faith, family, classes, and careers every single day! Colleges in the Virginia Conference include Virginia Western Community College in Roanoke, Blue Ridge Community College in Weyers Cave, Dabney Lancaster Community College in Clifton Forge, Central Virginia Community College in Lynchburg, Danville Community College in Danville, New River Community College in Dublin, and Patrick Henry Community College in Martinsville. Denominational partners are the Presbyterian Church USA and the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church. Community College Ministries sponsors Alliance for Excellence involving hundreds of students in a partnership of community colleges with African American congregations! Launched with support from the GBGM EMLC and the United Methodist Self-Development Fund in 1986, Alliance for Excellence (www.allianceforexcellence.org) sponsors fellowships, seminars, opportunities for students to participate in gospel choirs, and scholarships. Patrick Henry Community College has sponsored a virtual mission program in which students provide tutoring overseas via the internet. For the 7th year in 2016, Community College Ministries (www.facebook.com/communitycollegeministries) will sponsor the “Rally in the Valley” bringing community college students of faith together from across the entire Commonwealth! The rally is organized in cooperation with the Blue Ridge Christian Fellowship under the leadership of Jim Wright and is held each year in April. CCM launched a global service program in 1989 called Peacework (www.peacework.org) where student groups serve overseas in projects involving poverty housing, education, school renovations, gardens, and other community partnerships. Your campus minister is the Reverend Stephen Darr (steve@peacework.org). The office is at 620 N. Main St., Blacksburg, VA 24060, and the phone number is (540) 230-8581. Sandy Saunders of Danville Community College is board president. Alliance staff members are Jean Wilson in Martinsville and Jamesia Harrison in Lynchburg. The virtual mission advisor is Susan Christian. We welcome your involvement in this exciting ministry with community colleges!

Stephen Darr

United Campus Ministries at Christopher Newport University

I took the position of UCM Campus Minister for United Campus Ministries at Christopher Newport University in August 2016, following the retirement of Rev. Suzy Cothran. Thus, I spent the first month or so, meeting the current student leadership, familiarizing myself with the history of UCM at CNU and the campus environment, meeting other religious organization's leaders on campus, introducing myself to administration, staff, and faculty, and beginning activities for the new academic year. The following are things we have accomplished and enjoyed throughout this year:

- We hold weekly fellowship/discussion ministry group on Mondays at 8:30 p.m. in the Student Union at CNU, and have dinner once a month. About 5-6 students regularly attend the group.
- We offered support for the annual CROP Walk in October, providing water to walkers, as they walked on campus, an annual tradition for UCM; this event provides a way to reach-out to the community and have students volunteer for an important mission.
- We held our annual Festival of Church Music in November, which is our large fundraising event, in which 8 area churches performed pieces individually and together as one choir in the lovely setting of Pope Chapel on campus. We raised over $2,500 for our ministry.
- The students also created a Christmas card and greeting to send to donors and constituents in December and that garnered more donations before the end-of-the-year.
- During exams, 9 local churches came to campus and provided “exam snacks” for the community throughout the week, serving over 2000 people in that time. It was wonderful to have them provide support and a little sustenance to the students during the stressful time of exams. This is a tradition in both the fall and spring for UCM at CNU.
- Two students and I went to the Annual College Conference at Montreat Conference Center in Black Mountain, NC, with five others from the Presbytery of Eastern Virginia in January, where the keynote speakers were Jason Brown of NC (former NFL star who now runs a social outreach farm) and Nadia Bolz Weber (Lutheran pastor, public theologian, and writer). The conference included worship, workshops, and discussion groups on a variety of topics, as well.
- We held the annual Potato Drop on February 20. We bagged and helped distribute 45,500 pounds of potatoes. The event involved two volunteer days – one in which the students tied the bags to be prepared for bagging the potatoes when they arrived, and two, the day the potatoes came, and we bagged them and helped the food banks, agencies, and churches load them up to take to distribute to the folks in need. It was a wonderful mission to be a part of together. We had about two dozen student volunteers for the first event and about four dozen for the second. It was tremendous!
- We offered an open opportunity on campus for students to make Valentine cards that UCM participants would take to the Hidenwood retirement center to share with the residents there, as an outreach ministry of goodwill and fun.
- Beginning in November, we began collaborating with the Lutheran Ministries of Reformation Lutheran Church (Warwick Blvd.), who have about ½ dozen students attending CNU, to offer a worship, Chapel service on campus on Thursday evenings. The service includes singing, prayers, reading Scripture, and reflection on the Word. We promote this worship opportunity for all in the campus community.

BOARD OF LAITY

The Board of Laity continues in 2016 to create a culture of call by engaging, equipping, and empowering laity to effectively partner with each other and our clergy to live out God's call upon our lives.

Associate Conference Lay Leader, Larry Creamer (S) leads a team of the board for Engaging (Holistic Stewardship) and is developing a culture of call for all laity focusing on prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness identifying networking and learning opportunities for District Lay Leaders and Local Church Lay Leaders, establishing and giving oversight to various means of communication between members of the Board of Laity (i.e. email groups, articles for The Advocate and other print communications, website.) Additionally developing and offering communications alternatives for meetings of teams.

Associate Conference Lay Leader Joyce Duncan (L) leads Equipping (Leadership Excellence) This office is responsible for developing and offering training to new District Lay Leaders overseeing Lay Servant/Speaking Ministries, developing resources for District and Local Church Lay Leaders, and resourcing Local Church Leadership Development and Nominations Committees.

Associate Conference Lay Leader, Johnnie Morris (F) leads a team of the board for Empowering advocating for the laity and promoting Laity Sunday, encouraging the presence of the District Lay Leaders, Associate District Lay Leaders, or other laity involved in District ministries at all local church Charge Conferences and the assessment of needs of District and Local Church Lay Leaders in order to better support their service.

Lay Servant Ministries, led by David Bailey have had a year of fruitful ministry. David and the District Directors continue to implement our new structure and the courses reflective of The Discipline 2012 requirements. In an effort to spread our teaching abilities, with a grant from the Bishop's Foundation the team has created "On Demand Learning for Laity" concentrating on the six courses required for the Lay Speaking track. This is an exciting time for our ministry.

The Lay Servant Academy led by Beth Christian and her dedicated team created a weekend of learning and fellowship at Blackstone with nearly 200 attending in February.

We have celebrated the leadership of two District Lay Leaders whose terms have ended on the board. Dan Dietze (Fr) and Larry Scheuble have greatly enhanced their respective district ministries. We thank them both. In addition we have celebrated new faces joining the board. We welcome Debbie Dietrich (Fr) Lay Leader; Gerry Fuss, (Jr) Co-Lay Leader; Sue Mayo, (F) Co-Lay Leader; Mira Suddreth, (C) Co-Lay Leader; and Joe Amend, (H) Associate Lay Leader.

We thank the Rev. Danny Kesner, for being our Cabinet representative. We continue to thank Cheryl Edley-Worford, the Director of Inclusivity and Lay Leadership Excellence for much needed guidance. Thanks to Cindy Ingroff, Administrative Assistant for invaluable assistance and gifted wisdom always. Bishop Young Jin Cho has been our spiritual guide to all the laity and clergy of the Annual Conference. Personally, I cannot believe it has been almost four years since we welcomed Bishop Cho. On behalf of you, the laity, I thank Bishop Cho for his ministry among us, may the Spirit of the living God be with you always.

Warren R. Harper, Conference Lay Leader

UNITED METHODIST MEN

Although declining slightly, The United Methodist Men of the Virginia Conference continue to lead the nation in fellowship charters with eighty-seven. The charter represents the connectional link binding all men in our local fellowships together across the conference with all men in other annual conferences of the United Methodist Church. We finished second in "Meals a Million," a hunger relief competition across the nation. The men support a variety of service ministries including Heart Havens, Prison Ministry, Hunger Relief, Scouting, Wesleyan Building Brothers Leadership Training, Camp Rainbow, and the Upper Room Prayer Line, just to name a few. We publish a monthly newsletter, the Beacon, distributed to over 2,000 men. We conduct an annual Spiritual Advance weekend each fall and leadership training each spring to equip our men for service. Our Spiritual Advance has shown a steady increase in first-time attendees for the past two years.

For next year we have planned a visioning and goal-setting retreat for conference officers and District Presidents. We plan to increase the number of chartered units and promote District-level leadership, while supporting conference efforts to reach new people. We recognize that mentoring our replacements is an essential quality of servant leaders. "And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, ...but encouraging one another—and all the more..." Hebrews 10:24-25 (NIV). In response to the closure of our retreat center in Blackstone, we are already making plans to enhance the experience in 2017, still focusing on attracting first timers and featuring a more in-depth look each year at one of our key ministries. Next year's focus will be on Hunger Relief. We have also begun collaborating with the Virginia Conference UMW to plan a project for addressing domestic violence, a joint initiative from the General Commission in Nashville.

Please join the Methodist Men for breakfast during Annual Conference on Saturday, June 18 at Thrasher Memorial UMC in Vinton and hear more about what God is doing through us!

Andrew Kissell, President

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

United Methodist Women is the women's mission organization of The United Methodist Church, putting faith, hope and love into action on behalf of women, children, and youths in the United States and internationally. We are a creative, supportive community of women organized around the purpose, which is "to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ" and "to expand concepts of mission by participation in the global ministries of the church."

Throughout our nearly 150-year history, United Methodist Women and its predecessor organizations brought women together in small groups to grow in faith, learn about their own needs and potential, learn about others and organize and raise funds so that we could reach out to marginalized neighbors in our local communities and around the world.

One of our Church's best kept secrets is its Mission Encounter event held each summer at the Virginia Conference and Retreat Center in Blackstone. This is an event shared by Virginia United Methodist Church and United Methodist Women and is for everyone — clergy, laity, youths and children. Topics for 2016 are: Latin America; Climate Justice, and the Bible & Human Sexuality. The Reverend Pat Watkins will teach Climate Justice. The dates are July 29-31, 2016 — it is not too late to register.

In May 2015 we were given a unique opportunity to attend a cross-Jurisdictional Charter for Racial Justice Seminar. The theme was Making Racial Justice Happen and we made plans to further the mission of the Charter for Racial Justice. As part of Virginia's plan, each delegate to General Conference was given a copy of the charter.

Young Women's Retreat in September was a great opportunity for 31 young women. The theme Being Enough was played out through worship, music, sharing and crafts. This year's retreat will be September 16-17, 2016, at Blackstone with the Rev. Beth Anderson as retreat leader.

Annual Meeting in October was a time of celebration. We dedicated the Wicker Room with a ribbon-cutting ceremony, presented a plaque honoring all conference United Methodist Women, honored Ethel Born who suggested the giving of Dimes and Dollars for Blackstone and included a Legacy Auction which raised money for the continued legacy of United Methodist Women for the next 150 years. Sunday morning included a panel which focused on attracting new women, which made it an educational and fun weekend.

We invite all women to join in this great ministry. Check us out on VAUMW.com.

Joyce Winston, President

COMMISSION ON DISABILITIES

The Commission on Disabilities has restructured the commission, developed three committees and rewritten their Standing Rules. These changes were made to get the committee refocused and to make us more effective and efficient.

The committees are: Grants, Finance and Monitoring, Education, Programs and Accessibility, and Advocacy and Collaboration and Nominations.

The main focus of the commission over the next two years is education and awareness. We have pushed hard since the inception of COD to make our buildings and parsonages accessible, but there seems to be some apathy that has developed and it needs to be overcome. Education will overcome this as it not a major problem. The education will start with the trustees and building committee representatives on the conference level and then at the district level. Help we will need from the conference toward this goal is making it mandatory to attend.

The ultimate goal of the training and awareness is to heighten the level of acceptance and understanding of disabilities by the majority of the conference members to the point that people with disabilities are not seen as “less than” or “people with special needs” — rather people just like anyone else.

People are not handicapped; they are handicapped by the environments they are forced to work, live and worship in. When the barriers to accessibility are removed, the handicaps will go away!

Shaun Smith, COD Chairperson

COMMISSION ON ETHNIC MINORITY CONCERNS AND ADVOCACY

This has been a year of reflection and evaluation for the Commission. We are in the process of reorganization for the commission. The commission has continued in its mission: to serve as a prophetic voice for the full and equal participation of ethnic and racial constituents into the total life and mission of the Virginia Annual Conference (its churches, boards and agencies, and institutional and connectional structures) by educating, advocating, and holding to account God's church to inclusivity as God's intended design for all structures and processes, towards the work of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world in word and deed. We are indebted to the following ethnic agencies:

- African-American Ministries
- Hispanic/Latino Ministries
- Immigration Work Group
- Asian-American Ministries
- Native American Ministries
- Black Methodists for Church Renewal (BMCR), Inc.
- Strengthening the Black Church for the work these groups are doing within our conference. With their help, your prayers and support, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we look forward to continuing the work of living more fully into this vision.

Gary Miller, Chair

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

The Commission on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW) encourages participation of women in the full life of The United Methodist Church. To further this mission, COSROW collects data on the participation of women, minorities, youths and young adults, and persons with disabilities in the leadership roles of the church. Data collection will continue at Annual Conference 2016.

Data collection at Annual Conference 2015 continues to suggest women are encouraged to participate, yet we still have work to do. During the planned worship services, men and women are both involved at a relatively equal rate. This modelling of women in leadership has a massive impact, encouraging our congregants to recognize women have an important and active role in the church.

Further challenges remain in the plenary and business portions of the annual conference. Womens' level of active participation continues to be lower than mens' level of active participation. Likewise, the same pattern emerges for racial and ethnic minority participation compared to that of those of Caucasian descent, and youths and young adults relative to adults. The proportion of persons of disability participating is negligible.

We who serve the Virginia Conference still have work to do. We need to encourage women, racial and ethnic minorities, young people and persons with disabilities to be active stakeholders in the life of The United Methodist Church. Our churches must welcome all God's children in the leadership of their churches. This includes, but is not limited to, welcoming women as pastors in all churches in the Virginia Conference, encouraging women to be lead pastors in large membership churches and encouraging women to serve as leaders in committees, such as Finance and Trustees. Women, racial and ethnic minorities, young people, and persons with disabilities have gifts and talents. They have and continue to make significant contributions to the life of the church. Any artificial limits on these persons deny the church body the blessings that God has bestowed on this conference.

We are called to go forth and make disciples of all nations. To make all feel welcome, all need to be visible and active in the life of the church. Let us strive to become the church for and of all persons.

Shan Sixbey, Lay Chair and Mary Dadisman, Clergy Chair

Conference Benevolence Grants:*

DISCIPLE BIBLE OUTREACH MINISTRIES OF VIRGINIA

Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries (DBOM) of Virginia began in Virginia in 2011. There were 39 prisons and juvenile detention centers identified as sites to take the Disciple Bible Study and Rings of Fellowship for the youthful offenders ministry into. Since then, with the help of volunteers and contributions, DBOM has been able to take the study to ten prisons and one juvenile detention center. Three of those prisons are now studying Disciple II in addition to Disciple I studies they had already completed. In 2015 one of the prisons started the Disciple III study. Once the studies are started in an institution, they usually continue as there is a turnover of participants at each institution. The motto of Disciple Bible Outreach Ministries is “Transforming lives in prisons and pews”. Because we are trying to encourage as many people as possible to study the Word of God, we also provided the necessary materials for a small rural church which asked for help. It is our goal to eventually reach all the prisons in Virginia.

Gene Mims, President

GRACEINSIDE (FORMERLY CHAPLAIN SERVICE PRISON MINISTRY OF VIRGINIA)

Grace is a gift you share over and over again. Within Virginia's prisons, your impact is being felt more now than ever before! Your hand of grace is extending to our incarcerated brothers and sisters to help heal deeply-broken wounds. Through grace, you are following the teaching of Jesus Christ to “visit those in prison,” and you are restoring people, families and communities.

Unique among all of the states, the chaplains in Virginia's state prisons are NOT state employees. They are OUR employees, supported by “the people in the pews.” Currently, we have 32 chaplains serving in 35 state prisons. As members of our GraceInside family, you ensure that those in prison have the opportunity to attend worship, participate in spiritually based classes (Bible study, grief group, baptism class, etc.) and spend one-on-one time with a chaplain. These chaplains serve as Christian pastors inside the prisons, seeking to tend the sheep in their care. They coordinate, organize and lead religious services and activities for all seeking hope. In the words of one ex-offender: “If it hadn't been for you, I would never have made it. You saved me. You really saved me.”

In 2015, GraceInside increased our impact by adding more ministry service hours for the chaplains serving in our unique mission field. More men and women moved toward healing. And with your help, we've come to see that the more grace you give away, the more grace there is! More than 30,000 men and women had the opportunity to interact with a chaplain because of YOUR support and care. As many as 14,000 inmates are released each year back into our communities. You make the prisons and our commonwealth a safer place in which to live and work.

We know we still have much work to do. For example, at Augusta Correctional Center, our part-time chaplain (a United Methodist minister) serves 1,350 men! Everyone from the warden to the religious volunteers to the inmates want and need their chaplain to be full-time. (The American Correctional Association says that there should be a full-time chaplain for every 500 inmates, warranting almost THREE full-time chaplains for Augusta alone!) Our goal is to find support for our chaplains to minister full-time so that more lives can experience the gift of grace. Currently, six major facilities need full-time chaplains — right now! Men and women are waiting to hear that they matter to God.

It starts with one heart in prison, impacted by grace...overflowing to others...to families...to neighborhoods...to churches...to communities...to our commonwealth. One heart changed because YOU believe in the value of GraceInside.

Thank you.

Together, lives are changed forever. Every. Single. Day.

J. Randy Myers, President

INDUSTRIAL & COMMERCIAL MINISTRIES

The November 2015 Advocate cover stated, “LIVES OF SERVICE, Ministries Outside the Church Wall.” This is good description of our volunteer ICM Chaplains as they make their visits in many different workplace settings each week.

ICM Chaplains are “a caring presence” reaching many who are unchurched and not knowing that God cares about them and loves them.

Our ICM Chaplains, many who are United Methodist, receive initial training and continued training through seminars which cover: Theology of Industrial Ministry, Becoming A ICM Chaplain, Listening & Communication, Referrals, Addictions, Dealing with Conflict, The Chaplain at Work & What Management Expects.

The VA Conference of United Methodist Church has since 1972 been of tremendous help to ICM, through financial help, allowing us to hold many of our ICM Training Seminars in their churches and their prayers. The need is great, but ICM is determined with God's help and yours to continue to grow, in chaplains and meeting the needs of our fellow men and women in the workplace.

Want to know more? Visit our website icmAmerica.org or give us a phone call at (540)432-1919 or email icmmmin@aol.com.

We ask for your support and prayers as we continue to minister outside the church's walls as did our Lord and Savior, Jesus.

Wayne Wright, ICM Executive Director

SOCIETY OF ST. ANDREW

Society of St. Andrew (SOSA) continues to be a national leader in feeding the hungry while demonstrating superior stewardship of all resources and creation. Begun by the Virginia Conference 37 years ago, SoSA has become the most successful and effective ministry of its kind in the nation.

As a ministry that “puts faith into action,” the vast SoSA network of farmers, volunteers, feeding agencies and partners has blessed millions of people during the last 12 months. This ministry network consists of thousands of farmers in all 48 contiguous states, tens of thousands of volunteers, and thousands of vital feeding programs across the country. Thousands of churches and individuals in all 50 states partner with SoSA to “be the blessing” that helps make it all possible.

SoSA continues to receive national recognition as an innovative and successful nonprofit on the subject of food waste and hunger. Religious and secular national forums on these subjects continue to ask for SoSA representation and presentations to help increase awareness among the nation in general. In July of 2015 SoSA played a prominent role in the bi-annual General Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) denomination.

Through good stewardship of creation SoSA provides millions of pounds of the highly-nutritious fresh fruits and vegetables so important in any diet. For many of the poor in America, SoSA is their only source of fresh produce. As always, SoSA continues to accomplish much:

- All three programs — the Potato and Produce Project, the Gleaning Network, and Harvest of Hope — experienced excellent program performance during the past 12 months.
- SoSA saved and distributed 28.4 million pounds of fresh produce. All of this food would have otherwise gone to waste!
- The Potato Project distributed more than 11.9 million pounds of produce all across the country.
- The Gleaning Network saved and distributed more than 16.5 million pounds of healthful food.
- Over 32,454 volunteers put their faith into action by volunteering in SoSA's Gleaning Network and using the biblical practice of gleaning to help feed the hungry.

- More than 4,900 separate gleanings were conducted throughout the country providing hands-on opportunities for people to be involved in the ministry.
- Food was distributed nationwide, including in every county in the Virginia Conference.
- The ministry touched the lives of millions of people all across the country.
- Hundreds of churches across the country joined in SoSA's ministry for the very first time and thousands of churches, of all denominations, continued their partnership.
- SoSA's influence has played a key role in national associations such as the Alliance to End Hunger, NAHO (National Anti-Hunger Organizations) and others.
- SoSA was invited to present at two national food waste forums.
- SoSA's Harvest of Hope program had nearly 500 participants in a dozen work/study/mission retreats in five states.
- SoSA's seasonal devotion programs focused on Advent, Lent, and VBS demonstrated explosive growth, reaching thousands of congregations and individuals in all 50 states.
- SoSA hosted a Virginia "Day of Gleaning" on behalf of the governor and first lady of Virginia and gleaning events were held all across the commonwealth on a single day.
- Over 85.3 million highly-nutritious servings of fresh produce were provided at a cost of about two cents a serving!
- Our belief in good stewardship of all resources resulted in a total overhead of less than 3%!

We are called to love "in deed and in truth," and that has been SoSA's ministry for over 37 years. That ministry happens because many others take that calling to heart. Volunteers, churches, individuals, farmers, feeding agencies, transporters, board members, staff and financial partners all comprise a thriving network to feed the hungry in our land. The leadership demonstrated by the Virginia Conference continues to be a blessing to this ministry and to all those in need of food for the body and the Spirit.

Steven M. Waldmann, Executive Director

VIRGINIA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

"At a time like this, when a large part of the world is in turmoil, the work of a council of churches becomes more significant than ever."
The Rev Henry Lee Robison, Jr, 1st Executive Secretary VCC 1945

These words of Rev. Henry Robison seem even more prophetic today as we face challenges on all fronts. Even as we face tight economic times, your council remains strong, albeit on very fragile financial footing. During our Annual Meeting in 2015 our president, the Rev. Dr. John Myers, of the Eastern Association, Southern Conference, UCC continued to roll out his action plan for renewal of the Council. The Rev. Jenee' Gilchrist(BGC) finished her term as vice president after assisting in representing the council at various strategic meetings in Washington, DC, with the NCCCCUSA and various denominational gatherings augmenting the work of the staff, as well as having planned the November 6, 2015 Annual Gathering of the Council featuring the Rev. Dr. James Forbes Jr. We elected the Rev. Lauren Cogswell Ramseur, pastor of the Lynnhaven Colony Congregational Church UCC in Virginia Beach as our new vice president.

In April and May, the council worked closely with our Armenian Orthodox brothers and sister on special commemorations of the Centennial of the Armenian Genocide. There were special services held at St. James Armenian Church in Richmond and later at the National Cathedral in Washington, DC. Over the course of the year we have worked closely with the Virginia Synod ELCA and Bishop Mauney in efforts to reduce childhood hunger within the commonwealth. In 2015 we began a new initiative with our first Ecumenical Young Clergy Summit on September 2-3. This meeting planned by and for young clergy (under the age of 40) took a look at the future of the church and the vocation of ministry. The council continues to support LARCUM, the National Workshop on Christian Unity, and The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, and other expressions of ecumenism within the commonwealth. Rev John Myers' challenge to the denominations is bringing renewal, excitement and technology to the way the council relates and functions. This challenge has brought new excitement and energy to the council as we discern God's call in the 21st Century. We also play an enlarging role in Interfaith Dialogues, including our long-standing dialogue in Richmond involving five of our judicatory executives, including Bishop Cho, three Rabbis and two Imams.

We continue to stand with our Native American brothers and sisters of the six Virginia tribes as they continue to seek federal recognition now in our 15th year of this effort. The council joined with other religious leaders in providing testimony for the second Congressional Hearing on Solitary Confinement in February. Our partnership with the VICPP and the Virginia Catholic Conference helps give voice to our shared concerns for justice on the floor of the General Assembly. Our Rural Family Development Program continues to serve children in Caroline County through the Head Start Program.

Jesus prayed "that all may be one so that the world may believe" (John 17). The Apostle Paul reminds us we may not all look alike, but we need each other, and together we comprise one body. When we come together through the Virginia Council of Churches, we provide a common voice that becomes believable in the midst of turmoil and change that the Lord God is one.

The Rev. Dr. John Myers – president The Rev. Lauren Ramseur – vice president
Ms. Cathy Griffin – Treasurer Vacant – Secretary

VIRGINIA INTERFAITH CENTER FOR PUBLIC POLICY (VICPP)

The Virginia Interfaith Center for Public Policy (VICPP) is a strong resource for advocacy on social justice issues that are in line with the Social Principles and the Va. Conference Board of Church and Society. We work closely with the Conference Legislative Network in planning for the annual UM Day at the General Assembly, providing planning and material to assist in understanding the issues and in ways to advocate these issues to the legislators of the Virginia General Assembly. During the course of 2015, we spoke one evening to the Mission Encounter at VUMAC in Blackstone to give a report on issues and to help familiarize with the services that we can provide. We also were prepared to present a series of regional training sessions on what advocacy is about, how UM's can interact before, during, and after a General Assembly with legislators over topics of concern.

VICPP had an annual meeting at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Richmond, featuring Michael Cassidy, the Executive Director of The Commonwealth Institute. We awarded the "Legislator of the Year" to Senator John Watkins for his outstanding service and his ability to work with all legislators on both sides of the aisle. This year he showed a profile in courage to take some stands that kept the legislature from becoming gridlocked.

VICPP also for the first time gave a "Beacon of Light" award to the Virginia Poverty Law Center for their sustained efforts to improve the quality of life in childhood hunger, predatory lending, and healthcare for all Virginians. The Executive Director, Jay Speer, a United Methodist layman from Reveille UMC, received the award on their behalf.

The Center hosted an annual Day for All People at Virginia Union University on Jan. 20, 2016. The theme was "Racism, Beyond the Confederate Flag." Our keynote speaker, the Rev. Dr. James Forbes, Pastor Emeritus of Riverside Church, NYC, reminded us that the devil's most effective tool that once it gets in the human heart is powerfully successful. That tool is the "wedge of discouragement." An interfaith panel responded to Dr. Forbes with insightful perceptions of racism in our society today. His message is on video at www.virginiainterfaithcenter.org.

VICPP provided support in briefings and preparation for the Feb. 4, 2016 UM Day at the General Assembly. With an energetic group of over 100 people, led by Bishop Young Jin Cho, we visited legislators to present the concerns on immigration, healthcare, criminal justice

VICPP grew out of the Virginia Council of Churches in 1982 to become an Abrahamic expression of combined forces to speak from an interfaith community perspective about the important issues that impact our world and connect with our shared faith values. We are the only inclusive multi-faith group that has this capacity across the Commonwealth. We have been privileged to have the leadership of many UM clergy and laity. As an example, a former Executive Director was Dr. Dow Chamberlain. Currently, Rev. Charles Swadley had been the Interim CEO/President during from April 2005-February 2016, when a new permanent Executive Director was hired. Mr. Warrant Hottle, Rev. Scott Hopkins, and Dr. John Copenhaver (Vice-Chair) currently serve on the Board of Directors.

This new Executive Director is Kim Bobo, who comes to Virginia from 18 years of service and the Executive Director of Interfaith Workers Justice in Chicago, IL, having achieved national recognition for her work. She also has led workshops and training events and has written five books.

We are grateful to provide service to the Virginia Conference of the UMC. Now, also for the first time we have an online learning module to tutor on the General Assembly legislative process and on the ways to be effective in advocacy. We also look forward to the joining the 25th year celebration of the Conference Legislative Network in 2017. Congratulations to the Virginia Conference on this remarkable journey of faith in action.

Charles Swadley

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

The Committee on Episcopacy (COE) is responsible for the review and evaluation of the resident bishop as required by the Discipline. The COE completed this work in the fall of 2015 and submitted the report to the SEJ Committee on Episcopacy in December. I would like to thank the colleagues of our Bishop who came to participate in the discussion on particular segments of the evaluation tool. We had very open and honest discussions.

I would like to express appreciation to the committee for their commitment to this process and for their support of Bishop Cho. I especially want to thank Ron Hardman for his many years of dedicated service to the committee and for serving as our secretary for the past eight years. Ron will rotate off the committee after annual conference.

I am so grateful for the opportunity of working with Bishop Cho. He has been such an inspiration to me and to so many others. He is truly living his faith and is a role model for us all. I appreciate his spiritual leadership in our annual conference.

Shirley Cauffman, Chair

Episcopal Residence Committee

The Episcopal Residence Committee completed the annual inspection of the Episcopal Residence in September and found it to be in good condition. In the summer, we will be preparing the residence for a new Episcopal family.

Carl Moravitz, President, Conference Board of Trustees

Steven Summers, President, Council on Finance and Administration

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

The Board of Ordained Ministry enables disciples of Jesus Christ to become effective clergy and certified lay professionals. To this end, the board assists these persons in the areas of call, development and collegial support. Our full report on changes in conference relationship has been reported to the clergy executive session for its action.

While the board has structured processes in place for much of its work, we are constantly trying to improve upon the ways we carry out these processes. In addition, we have made strong progress on the three priorities established at the beginning of the quadrennium:

1. Creating a culture of excellence among clergy leaders
2. More candidates being recommended their first time applying for provisional
3. Stronger clarity about the diversity of gifts for ministry that are needed within the bounds of the conference

This year we have acted upon reaching “more people, more young people and more diverse people” by creating a new position in the Center for Clergy Excellence — the associate director of Call, Candidacy and Discernment. The Reverend Lindsey Baynham will be appointed to this position effective July 1 of this year. We believe she will usher in a new era for our conference's capacity to more intentionally help persons discern a call to all forms of ministry and also to recruit effective clergy candidates for the future of our conference.

This past fall saw the second cohort of clergy participating in the Virginia Clergy Leadership Program. This program which Bishop Cho has supported so faithfully identifies gifted clergy and helps them grow deeper in their spiritual maturity, excel in the areas of interpersonal and leadership skills, bring out the missional potential in their faith communities and strengthen their disciple-making abilities. We are grateful for the funding for this program, provided by the Center for Congregational Excellence, the Bishop's Foundation, the Virginia United Methodist Foundation and the Council for Finance and Administration.

The Calling 21 program places interns in local churches so they may experience the intersection of their gifts with the life of a congregation. This summer there will be eight Calling 21 interns serving: Leila Soulen at Worship and Praise (Rd), Alex Carney at Belmont (Rd), Sarah Patnaude at Fairlington (A), Amy Robertson at Braddock Street (W), Tim Hares at Culpeper (C), Zach Hubbard at Lane Memorial (L), Katie Bagley at St. Luke's (YR), Mary Elder at Franktown (ES); and three Connection 21 interns at the conference center but also relating to: Minoka Gunsekera at Boulevard (Rd), JoAnn Batteiger at Welborne (Rd), Emily Clark at Reveille (Rd).

While this report is written prior to General Conference, the outcomes of that Conference may have an impact upon our theology of ordination, education of local pastors and clergy formation beyond ordination. Acting upon these proposals will be a large part of the board's work in the new quadrennium.

The work of the board continues sponsoring the annual Licensing School for all first-time appointments, supporting the gathering of the Orders of Deacon and Elders and the Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members, examining persons seeking credentialing as ministers, interviewing those of United Methodist and other denominations who wish to transfer to the Virginia Conference, holding two Candidacy Summits for those embarking upon the candidacy process, interviewing those seeking retirement, reviewing requests for extension appointments, visiting students — those from Virginia and those interested in coming to Virginia — at eight seminaries, awarding scholarships and service loans to seminary students, training district Committees on Ordained Ministry, providing continuing education assistance to clergy, guiding provisional members on their journey, promoting lay professional certification, providing ongoing ethics training, assisting those on clergy medical leave and attending to conference relationship matters.

Before my term as chair of the board ends at this annual conference, I want to express my deepest appreciation for the support provided by the Center for Clergy Excellence and the members of the board who give tirelessly to the board's work.

Ed Walker, chair

VIRGINIA CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The conference Board of Trustees met for their regularly-scheduled meetings in September and March, with conference calls as necessary during the year.

The conference Board of Trustees approved amended bylaws at their March 2016 meeting in order to align themselves better with the Book of Discipline and make their operations more efficient.

In the Spring of 2015, the conference trustees began to work with the conference staff to repurpose the conference center building to reflect the current needs and methods of ministry. We are happy to report that this process has been completed. The original mailroom, which was needed for a time when postal mail was the primary method of communication, has been repurposed to make room for the Common Table ministries to be consolidated into one area. The Cabinet Room was relocated to a larger space for meetings and trainings, and a new meeting room was created and supplied with communication equipment to facilitate the use of remote meetings and webinars with the intention of reducing the cost of meetings and the time commitment of our faithful volunteers. The Foundation expanded their space to allow for growth in their staff and meeting space with the creation of the Virginia United Methodist Development Company LLC. The total cost of the renovation was $210,000.00 and was funded through rents and the long-term maintenance fund. We believe these changes will serve the church well into the 21st century.

The Board of Trustees would like to extend its appreciation to Sallye E.H. Bowen for her exceptional and dedicated service as president of the Virginia Conference Board of Trustees from March 2007 through July 2015, bringing strong and effective leadership to the Board of Trustees during her tenure as president.

The board continues to be expertly supported by Benham Black, our attorney and counsel, on board and conference matters.

This past year, a major family emergency drew me away from some of the management work needed to lead the board. The board extends a special thank you to our vice president, Kathy Lutman, who stepped in so effectively to help me out during this time.

Carl L. Moravitz, President

SITE SELECTION COMMITTEE 2016

By previous Annual Conference action, the following dates have been approved for the site of Annual Conference:

Hampton	June 16-18, 2017
Hampton	June 15-17, 2018
Roanoke	June 21-23, 2019
Roanoke	June 19-21, 2020

The Site Selection Committee is charged with finding a location for Annual Conference which is set five (5) years in advance. The Committee recommends that Annual Conference be held at the:

Hampton Convention Center	June 18-20, 2021
Hampton Convention Center	June 17-19, 2022

We are often asked about holding Conference at other facilities. The Committee, along with the Conference Planner and the Conference Chair of the Common Table, continue to review other potential locations across the Commonwealth and have found they either do not meet the stated requirements or are not available during the month of June.

By way of reminder, we have the following requirements:

- Meeting space and restaurants for 4,000 people;
- Parking spaces for 2,000 to 3,000 cars;
- 1,500 hotel rooms;
- Meeting space for Clergy Executive Session for 1,500 people;
- Meeting space for Laity Session for 1,500 people;
- Two banquet areas each holding 500 people;
- Break-out areas and display area of 30,000 square feet; and
- Ease of moving participants between the various areas.

THE BISHOPS' FOUNDATION

The Bishops' Foundation provides for leadership development of both laity and clergy in the areas of evangelism and preaching. In 2011, by conference action, three predecessor organizations — the Goodson Foundation for Preaching, the Stockton Endowment for Evangelism, and the Pennel Wesleyan Heritage Foundation — merged and formed the assets of the Bishops' Foundation into a corporation. The foundation is led by a board of directors (five clergy and four laity) nominated by the Cabinet. Endowment funds are invested with the Virginia UM Foundation. In 2014, the foundation was dissolved as a corporation and is now a board reporting to the annual conference.

We are an event-sponsoring or co-sponsoring organization that supports the training of both laity and clergy. During 2013-2016, the foundation supported the following events: the Fall 2013 and Fall 2014 Five-Talent Academy, the Virginia Clergy Leadership Program, the 2015 Goodson Academy for Preaching and the Lay Servant Academy, 2016.

Preparations are underway for a second Goodson Academy for Preaching at Blackstone Conference and Retreat Center on Sept. 25-28, 2016. Dr. Lucy Lind Hogan, professor of homiletics at Wesley Theological Seminary, is the guest presenter.

The board remains interested in addressing any gaps that may exist in current conference ministry programming to foster opportunities for young adult laity and clergy to help the church in reaching all generations. Grant application forms can be found on the conference website under the tab for the Bishop. See "The Bishops' Foundation".

GOODSON PREACHING ACADEMY

David A. Rash, Co-Chair

In 2015 the Goodson Preaching Academy was restored as an opportunity for those preachers who desired to be more effective in the craft of vital preaching. For four days 29 participants and eight small group leaders and staff met at the Blackstone Conference and Retreat Center and in a spirit of

The guest presenter was Dr. Paul Scott Wilson, Ph.D., professor of preaching at Emmanuel College, Toronto. The theme was “Craft and Creativity: Preaching in the Context of a Rapidly Evolving World”. Dr. Wilson gave five lectures and the sermon at the closing worship service. It was supported generously by the Bishops’ Foundation.

Each participant preached twice to the assigned small group and received feedback designed to strengthen the sermon. This model comes from the now defunct College of Preachers which was the premier national preaching event at the Washington Cathedral for many years. The Virginia Conference first adopted this plan from 1999-2009 in the Goodson Academy for Preaching.

This event is open to all preachers who are willing to expose themselves to new insights and to renew their own spirit in completing this vital task. This event can open even the most experienced preacher to a new more powerful engagement with the scripture and the congregation. The desire is necessary.

The 2016 event plans, however, has been disrupted due to the closing of BCRC, and we are looking to 2017 for the next academy. In all likelihood, Dr. Lucy Lind Hogan, Elderdice Professor of Preaching and Worship at Wesley Seminary, will be the guest presenter.

There is a possibility of some one-day preparation for preaching events that will be tied to lectionary-liturgical seasons and these will be publicized through conference channels.

Co-chairs: Charlene Beethoven, David A. Rash

UNITED METHODIST-RELATED SCHOOLS

Ferrum College

All of us at Ferrum College are grateful for the ongoing support of The Virginia Annual Conference and continue to thank all of you for your financial, spiritual, and leadership support. While many small rural colleges in the country continue to face challenges related to enrollment and rising costs, Ferrum continues to hold true to its mission while expanding opportunity, excellence and success for “students of promise.” While we have a myriad of activities and new academic and athletic initiatives, this year’s report will highlight the reflections from Dean of the Chapel, Dr. Jan Nicholson Angle.

“And we know that God causes everything to work together for the good of those who love God and are called according to his purpose for them.” - Romans 8:28 NLT

We believe that God has placed a call upon Ferrum College to nurture the current generation of students, physically, mentally, and spiritually while preparing to receive future generations with the same ideals of our founding mission. Like the pruning of a fruitful tree, we acknowledge there will be ministries that are pruned in order that new ministries may emerge. Our vision for Spiritual Life in the 2015/16 academic year has been growing our roots deeper.

The Fall Semester 2015 saw an increase in new faces in Spiritual Life opportunities. During the Fall of 2014 we received a one year NetVue Professional Development Grant which allowed a small group of faculty and administration to study Ferrum College’s Methodist roots, and the connection between vocation and call. In direct response to this group’s work, a Net-Vue Program Grant was written and awarded allowing for an e-term to be offered 2016 Spring Semester. The e-term, titled The Spirit of Adventure, was a two-part course focused on vocation, calling, and practice in the Methodist tradition combined with opportunities for students to explore their vocation as related to their spiritual and physical wellness.

We were blessed and very excited to provide for and welcome US2 Global Mission Fellow, Christina Trager. Christina is from Delaware and is assigned for two years by The United Methodist General Board of Global Missions to Ferrum College and to the Henry Fork Center. Her mission is to increase awareness and deepen connections between Ferrum College, Henry Fork, and the needs of our surrounding community.

Intentional spiritual formation is at the heart of maturing in faith. Journey to the Table, a spiritual formation weekend experience, was held in January. Ferrum College was one of five colleges to pilot this program for the Upper Room Ministries located in Nashville, TN. The Journey to the Table team, included students, faculty, administration, and staff who grew deeper in their relationship with God through the experience.

Other spiritual formation opportunities offered during the 2015/16 academic year included: Winter Jam in which 30+ students traveled to hear various popular Christian artists perform and share their testimony, Thursday morning prayer and communion services, spiritual gift studies, mission/outreach opportunities such as Wood for Warmth, Operation Christmas Child, volunteer opportunities at local shelters and food banks, and a General Board of Church and Society Seminar through which a small group of students, who chose an alternative Spring Break to DC, learned and deepened their awareness surrounding education, poverty and human trafficking.

A capstone event for the year was the “Rev. Dr. Wasena F. Wright Jr ’60 and Mrs. Patricia G. Wright Endowed Lecture Series” which is a biennial event that honors former Ferrum College Board member, Rev. Buddy Wright. This year, Rev. Dr. J. Denise Honeycutt, Deputy General Secretary of UMCOR, spoke on Global Issues and Disaster Relief, and Mrs. Pat Wright served as the special guest.

We continue to embrace our community connections such as: Praise on the Patio (14 churches participate), Tuesday chapel services, small group studies, and fellowship opportunities.

As we reflect on how God is at work in the Spiritual Life at Ferrum College, we see and believe God is working all things for good. We thank you for your support as we continue to stay focused on Christ, seek discernment, and live into God’s purpose.

Jennifer L. Braaten, President, Ferrum College

Randolph College

During 2016, Randolph College will celebrate its rich history as Randolph-Macon Woman’s College while looking forward to the vibrant promises of tomorrow. In 1891, William Waugh Smith chose Lynchburg, Virginia as the home for his vision—“a college where our young women may obtain an education equal to that given in our best colleges for young men and under environments in harmony with the highest ideals of womanhood.”

Today, 125 years later, much has changed at the College. But the heart of the institution remains its close-knit community of faculty, staff, alumnae and alumni, and students, who are dedicated to pursuing a broader understanding of the world. More importantly, Randolph College is still committed to providing women—and now men—a strong, liberal arts education that prepares them to live the “life more abundant.”

2015 was a great year for the College. Our enrollment was approximately 700 students and giving by alumnae, alumni, and friends, such as the Conference, remained strong. We continue to make a number of improvements to our campus. As you might imagine, with a 125-year-old institution comes challenges with an aging physical plant. A focus of my administration has been improving the campus infrastructure. Last summer, we began to replace our electrical system on campus and that project will conclude by the fall of 2016. We also have developed a plan to replace our central boiler with satellite boilers for each building over the next four years. So far, we have raised $3.1 million from very generous donors for these efforts. Students are overwhelming enthusiastic about the recently opened Wright Hall, a residence hall that received a complete renovation, combining historic charm with modern amenities. The students love the old features such as vaulted ceilings and hard wood floors as well as the new elevator, laundry facilities, beautiful study lounges and kitchens, impressive bathrooms, and air conditioning.

While I believe that one should never put too much stock in College rankings, various publications continue to be kind to us. U.S. News and World Report, Forbes, The Princeton Review, and The Washington Monthly, among others, continue to name Randolph a “best college.” We are particularly pleased that College Factual has ranked the College as #11 in the nation and #1 in Virginia for “Best Colleges for the Money.” These accolades are due, no doubt, to the outstanding faculty who engage our students in and out of the classroom and the generous institutional grants the College provides to students, totaling over $13.5 million last year. Randolph remains steadfast in its desire to provide an outstanding, affordable education.

We at Randolph are thankful for the strong relationship that exists between the College and the Conference. We continue to strengthen the opportunities for spiritual development of our students and continue to expand the programs offered by our campus chaplain. We are particularly thankful for the leadership that Rev. John Peters provides as our connection to the Conference. I conclude by thanking the Conference for its ongoing support of our mission. Your contributions help us to prepare students to engage the world critically and creatively, live and work honorably, and experience life abundantly.

Bradley W. Bateman, President

Randolph-Macon Academy

In 2015 Randolph-Macon Academy was blessed with another stellar graduating class as our 61 graduates received 248 college acceptances to 140 different colleges. The class collectively was offered over $6.6 million in college scholarships. As I joined the R-MA family in March of 2015, the Lord's presence on this campus, evident throughout the graduation events and accomplishments of our students, were quite the sight to behold through new eyes. The longer I am on this campus, the more thankful I am every day for the wonderful staff and faculty who work with our students, day in and day out, helping them to grow into young men and women of character. This year, we matriculated 339 students into our school, surpassing the budget number set as well as our own expectations. I am sure that your prayers for our school played no small part in this.

We hold a unique position in our industry, as we are a college-prep United Methodist school with an Air Force JROTC program. Our chaplain, Joshua Orndorff, has challenged our school to be a “city on a hill” in all that we do. The R-MA family rose to that challenge, as our students finished the 2014-15 school year with 14,419.25 hours of community service. Projects ranged from helping in school offices or completing recycling collections, to performing roadside clean-ups and holding a staff/faculty vs. students basketball game that benefited Imagine No Malaria.

Under Chaplain Orndorff's guidance, the spiritual life of our school has grown tremendously over the last 18 months. The Fellowship of Christian Athletes Bible study takes place at the Middle School (grades 6-8), and the Upper School (grades 9-12) Bible study, called The Beacon, both meet once each week. There is frequently a student praise band in chapel services, allowing a more contemporary worship to take place, to which many of our students relate well. Our weekly chapel services are mandatory for all students, with separate services for the Middle School and Upper School, and getting students to actively participate or learn through music is very important.

Other activities this year have included an ice cream social for students to meet various religious leaders from the community, and Kelsey's Big Give, which was held in cooperation with Riverton United Methodist Church. The “Snowed-In” (a 24-hour lock-in) event complete with speakers and music groups took place on the R-MA campus in January 2016. This was a joint effort with youth groups in the local area, and we had more than 50 youths participate.

This past fall we had our five-year interim accreditation visit with the Virginia Association of Independent Schools (VAIS) and I am pleased to report that we continue to be fully accredited. We are thankful to God for his provision and blessings, and you for your prayers and financial support. We continue to use your gifts to help fund our chapel programs as well as scholarships for United Methodist students, many of whom could not attend R-MA without the kindness you have shown. Every day your gifts make a difference to our students.

I invite you to visit our campus. I think you will fall in love with the natural beauty, the students, and the faculty and staff, just as I have. And you will walk away knowing that God is touching the lives of young people on this campus. Please keep us in your prayers, and may God bless you.

David C. Wesley, USAF, retired president

Randolph-Macon College

Randolph-Macon is a selective, co-educational, nationally ranked liberal arts college located in Ashland, Virginia, just minutes north of Richmond and 90 miles south of Washington, D.C. The college achieves its mission of “developing the minds and character of its students” by balancing a demanding academic program with individualized attention between its exceptional faculty and students. The student-faculty ratio is 11:1 and the average class size is 15 students. The college has an outstanding reputation for its national and international internships, study abroad programs and undergraduate research opportunities.

Randolph-Macon College integrates an exceptional, individualized education with a comprehensive, personalized four-year program called The Edge, which is focused on preparing our students for careers and post graduate success. Faculty serve as mentors and offer important advising, while providing a valuable liberal arts education, important career success strategies and life skills in the classroom. The Edge, offers our students the tools they need to lead the pack and have a “competitive advantage” after graduation. This success of this program is reflected in the college's tagline, Building Extraordinary Futures.

The Edge offers Boot Camp, a signature two-day, off-campus immersion program where students learn to identify their career passions, tell their story and hone their interview and communication skills to prepare for success after college. The weekend is devoted to helping students develop their own elevator speech and “brand,” learn how to communicate with confidence, and identify their strengths and capabilities—all with the help of top-notch speakers, interviewers and mentors, including R-MC alumni.

R-MC offers a Four-Year Degree Guarantee, which pledges in writing that freshmen who meet all necessary requirements will graduate within four calendar years. If not, Randolph-Macon will waive tuition costs for R-MC courses needed to complete the degree. Currently, 95 percent of Randolph-Macon graduates complete their degrees in four years or fewer.

The 2014-2015 academic year began with a total enrollment of 1,394 students. The college also welcomed the largest freshman class in its history.

The Class of 2018 represents 16 states, the District of Columbia, and three foreign countries; 42% of the students are male and 58% are female. In addition, 22% of the 425 students are minorities, and 37% are Presidential Scholars, R-MC's signature scholarship that recognizes students who demonstrate the highest levels of academic achievement and leadership.

Randolph-Macon's Building Extraordinary campaign reached its $100 million goal in 2014—a full 19 months ahead of schedule. The Campaign, which launched in April 2011, was designed to build or renovate residential, academic, athletic and student-centered facilities, support greater opportunities for faculty and students in and out of the classroom, scholarship assistance, and programs that support growth and the continued improvement of student outcomes through career and graduate school preparation. The goals for the campaign were set forth by the college's strategic and master plans. Because of its early success, the campaign goal was extended to $115 million to include building a new science building. At the end of December 2015, the total raised for the campaign was an historic $125 million. Alumni support for their alma mater is at an all-time high with 40% of alumni making a gift to the college. This ranks R-MC's alumni participation 16th in the nation of all private and public colleges, and first in Virginia for alumni participation.

In September 2014, Birdsong Hall, a residence for upperclassmen was dedicated and includes 30 apartments, plus common areas, study rooms and a two-story 3,280-square-foot multipurpose room, the Lindgren Pavilion. Birdsong Hall, which borders the football/lacrosse field, is named for Constance and Thomas Birdsong '49 and The Birdsong Corporation; construction was made possible through their $2 million gift.

The new science building will connect to the Copley Science Center on the northwest side. This three-story, 2,700-square-foot facility, with state-of-the-art teaching laboratories, plus classrooms, faculty offices, and the Office of Pre-Health Advising, will also house the biology, environmental science/geology, and chemistry departments. Additionally, a new observatory will be constructed to replace the existing Keeble observatory. This facility is scheduled to break ground in spring 2016.

The 2014-15 academic year marked the 50th anniversary of international education at R-MC, whose January Term (J-term) study-travel classes began in 1964 with one faculty member and nine students visiting Germany. In January 2015, R-MC sent 136 students to 14 countries across five continents. Randolph-Macon's semester-long study abroad programs began in the mid-1980s in four countries: the UK, France, Spain, and Germany. In the 2014-15 academic year, 23 students studied abroad in such diverse places as Chile, Costa Rica, Thailand, South Korea, Morocco, Poland, Russia, and the Czech Republic. In total, 720 students have studied in 36 different countries during January or during a regular semester in the last five years.

R-MC's January Term is a four-week session in which students can immerse themselves in other cultures, conduct a regional, national or international internship or take an on-campus course in a specific area of interest. In January 2015, 1,279 students participated in J-term. January term internships that provide unique opportunities for our students would not be possible without the support of Randolph-Macon alumni who offer students one-of-a-kind experiences. Students gained experience interning at companies such as the Virginia Water Science Center of the U.S. Geological Survey, Inc., the Virginia Commonwealth University Pauley Heart Center, Pennsylvania Steel and the National Aquarium in Baltimore, Maryland, to name a few.

The Schapiro Undergraduate Research Fellowship program (SURF) is an endowment to support scholarly undergraduate research by students in all disciplines. SURF allows students the opportunity to conduct original research, under the guidance of a faculty member, and to be paid a stipend. Many students present their findings at academic and professional conferences both nationally and internationally.

The A. Purnell Bailey Pre-Ministerial Scholarship Program, designed to support students who express an interest in a Christian vocation in ordained ministry, established in 2004, continues to flourish. A limited number of select students are awarded this scholarship each year and receive half-tuition for the first two years and full tuition for the junior and senior years; mentoring; and assistance in fulfilling the requirements needed for acceptance into seminary in The United Methodist Church. Two internships in a ministry setting are also mandatory during the students' college careers.

Student outreach through community service continues to be an important aspect of a Randolph-Macon College education. The SERVE program (Students Engaged in Responsible Volunteer Experiences), in the Office of Student Life, is an integral part of Randolph-Macon's community engagement and leadership initiatives. R-MC coordinates dynamic opportunities for service and service-learning to help students explore the root causes and contexts of social needs through connections with the greater community. Students are actively engaged in Habitat for Humanity and the American Cancer Society Relay for Life, and in April, students volunteer for Macon a Difference Day, which is held annually in conjunction with Earth Day. This campus-wide community-service initiative brings together the college's clubs, organizations and academic and administrative departments to volunteer their time and energy for environmental projects and other needs in the surrounding communities.

At Randolph-Macon College, students bond with their peers, faculty mentors and alumni to build meaningful relationships that last a lifetime.

Alan B. Rashkind, chairman, Randolph-Macon College

Shenandoah University

What an exciting year for Shenandoah University! In December, the Office of Spiritual Life was notified it had received a $600,000 Lilly Endowment, Inc. grant to create a youth theology institute at Shenandoah University. In partnership with the Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and Wesley Theological Seminary, the Shenandoah University Youth Theology Institute (SUYTI) will open in July 2017. The search has begun for an SUYTI director, who will begin work in July 2016. I challenge you to identify rising high-school sophomores, juniors and seniors who will benefit from a two-week youth theology institute, learning from Shenandoah University and Wesley Theological Seminary faculty, participating in small groups and exploring faith and vocation in rural and urban environments. Please send the names of prospective students to spirituallife@su.edu, and we will work to help these students strengthen their knowledge, faith and leadership.

Calling21 interns from your local congregations were at Annual Conference this year. This is the tenth year Calling21 interns have explored their calling while working in our Virginia Conference churches. More than 80 college students have attended Annual Conference, explored God's call upon their lives, and discerned their life in ministry through Calling21. Many of those Calling21 interns are now certified candidates for ministry, attend seminary, serve local churches and are in the ordination process. Many more are lay leaders in local congregations, teachers at our schools, and non-profit leaders. Calling21 is another great partnership between Shenandoah University, Wesley Theological Seminary, the Fund for Theological Education and the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church.

In May 2016, Shenandoah University will take 12 students from its Faith Seeking Justice Christian Leadership Program to General Conference in Portland, Oregon, to observe and participate in the process that organizes our denomination. Additionally, Shenandoah's Harambee Gospel Choir auditioned and was accepted to sing at two events at General Conference. The student-led Harambee Gospel Choir is comprised of more than 20 students. In total, about 35 Shenandoah students will participate and lead our denomination at General Conference this May.

Shenandoah University hosted the RE-3 Intercollegiate Conference in September 2015 in partnership with the Wesley Foundations at Virginia Tech, William & Mary, and University of Virginia as well as the spiritual life programs at Ferrum and Randolph-Macon. RE-3 — rethink, reclaim, renew — was a two-day event with worship and informational sessions led by students from participating campus ministries. Sarah Bessey, author of Jesus Feminist, was the guest speaker. Funding for this event was a partnership between the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry, the Winchester and Roanoke Districts and the campus ministries that came together for the opportunity.

Finally, I want to highlight our January 2016 trip to the Trinity Institute in New York City. This year's theme was "Listen for a Change: Sacred Conversations for Racial Justice." Shenandoah was represented at the Institute by eight students from diverse ethnic backgrounds as well as its Spiritual Life Coordinator and Vice President for Student Life Rhonda VanDyke Colby. The Trinity Institute was a unique and wonderful opportunity to talk about the racial climate in our country and on our college campuses. It opened lines of communication, inspired students to explore what they can do to work for racial justice and encouraged students to look at what the church can do to lead our country to social justice.

We have exceptional leaders at Shenandoah University who are moving us forward as an institution and as the church universal. The future of Shenandoah University and our United Methodist Church is bright because of these strong faculty, staff and student leaders. Thank you for working with us to educate and inspire our students to be leaders for tomorrow's church and world.

Tracy Fitzsimmons, Ph.D., President

Virginia Wesleyan College

Virginia Wesleyan College (www.vwc.edu) is Coastal Virginia's premier private, national liberal arts college. The College values its rich heritage and strong affiliation with the United Methodist Church, offering our 1,400 students experiential learning opportunities that empower them to grow as principled scholars and community leaders.

Virginia Wesleyan's 300-acre wooded campus provides an ideal setting for living and learning. This year we added a new synthetic turf field, Birdsong Field. The forthcoming Greer Environmental Sciences Center, scheduled for completion in summer 2017, will provide state-of-the-art instructional and laboratory facilities and a signature program in environmental science.

The Lighthouse Center for Exploration and Discovery is a one-stop shop for experiential learning, study away, internships and undergraduate research. The College's partnerships throughout the Hampton Roads region, such as The Chrysler Museum of Art and the Virginia Aquarium and Marine Science Center, extend our students' experiences. In addition, Virginia Wesleyan's robust collaboration with The YMCA will bring another new joint-use facility to our campus next year.

Students at Virginia Wesleyan choose from 33 majors, 30 minors, and seven pre-professional programs. More than 90 percent of them are employed or in graduate school within one year of graduation. The College's most popular majors are biology and business; our average class size is approximately 13 students. In addition, about 25 percent of our students compete in 19 NCAA Division III intercollegiate sports.

The Jane P. Batten Student Center is the hub of activity for 70 clubs and organizations and a thriving ministry and community service program. Nearly half of our students engage in service to others. Our winter homeless shelter, hosted on our campus each January, celebrated its 10th anniversary in 2016, to our knowledge, the only shelter on a college campus.

Marlin Ministries

The Rev. Greg West leads a vibrant campus ministry, offering 20 different opportunities every week for students to gather in worship, Bible study, fellowship, and prayer.

Eight students are enrolled in our 'Methodism' course this spring which Chaplain West is teaching with VWC's C. S. Lewis Endowed Chair of Communication and Christian Thought, Dr. Terry Lindvall. Professor of Religious Studies and the Joan P. and Macon F. Brock, Jr. Director of the Center for the Study of Religious Freedom, Dr. Craig Wansink, and Chaplain West created a class called "Servant Leadership," a step toward re-establishing the pre-ministerial track.

In May Dr. Lindvall, Dr. Wansink and Chaplain West will lead a pilgrimage to England and Scotland to explore the methodology and theology of the early Methodist movement and the Scottish reformation.

We have sent numerous students to seminary over the last few years. We have renamed our annual clergy Continuing Education Seminar the Robert F. Boyd Institute, in honor of our only living founding Trustee. Our speaker for the spring of 2016 (scheduled for March 28-29) is Bishop Timothy Whitaker, speaking on "The Future Mission and Identity of the Church."

The Center for the Study of Religious Freedom at Virginia Wesleyan addresses complex social problems and through discussion, lectures, events, and training seeks to equip individuals to be agents of reconciliation in society.

The Center for Sacred Music (CSM) continues its mission to live the words of John Wesley by "training minds and warming hearts." The Center's Church Music Certificate program and Sacred Music Summer Conference shape students, pastors, and practicing musicians through dynamic teaching and engaged worship as preparation for service. During 2015-16, 34 adult students took part in online and classroom instruction for their Church Music Certificate.

As the nation prepares to commemorate the 400th anniversary of enslaved Africans in America in 2019, the College undertook an advance exploration of the legacies of slavery through "Entangled Identities: Legacies of 1619." The Center joined with the Center for the Study of Religious Freedom and the College's History Department to develop programming for this year-long series.

My first year as president of Virginia Wesleyan College has been one filled with discovery, innovation, and excitement, as well as a deep commitment to this impressive institution. I look forward to increasing our vital connectedness to our United Methodist roots.

Scott D. Miller, Ph.D., President, Virginia Wesleyan College

ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED MINISTERS AND SPOUSES (ARMS)

ARMS is an association of retired clergy, spouses and surviving spouses in the Virginia Conference that promotes fellowship, encouragement, support, learning and sharing. ARMS provides a voice for retirees by facilitating vital connections with each other and the church. All retired clergy, spouses and surviving spouses are members of ARMS.

In April, 2015, ARMS sponsored its first-ever series of regional meetings in partnership with the conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits. The main topic for these gatherings was the change in retiree health care plans subsequently passed by the Annual Conference in June. Feedback from these gatherings was overwhelmingly positive with many expressing their appreciation that they were able to attend without traveling great distances or staying overnight. The ARMS Board will consider sponsoring additional gatherings in the future.

The main ARMS event has traditionally been an annual fall retreat. The keynote speaker for our 2015 retreat was Joe Eldridge who spent more than 25 years working in the public policy arena as an advocate and analyst on international human rights and humanitarian issues. As usual, the retreat also featured great worship, inspiring music and wonderful fellowship.

Bishop Tim Whitaker will be our main speaker at this year's retreat on Oct 12-13. Leigh Anne Taylor, minister of music at Blacksburg UMC, will lead a highly-participatory music program at the retreat. Retreat brochures will be available at the ARMS display table, the retiree banquet, and from VUMAC.

Retired clergy and spouses are encouraged to stay in touch through the ARMS newsletter To Arms and electronically through the conference Retiree Net.

PREACHERS' RELIEF SOCIETY

The Preacher's Relief Society during 2015 provided grants to five clergy families and/or widows of clergy to assist each of them in meeting financial emergencies. Expenses incurred because of health or medical issues were significant contributing factors to the needs experienced by each of the grant recipients. This year the recipients came from five different districts. As in every case, the requests and recommendations for aid were conveyed to the society by the superintendent of the district in which the recipient lives or is appointed. The society is grateful for the opportunity to provide aid. Its ability to do so is made possible primarily by income received from returns on investments. The society of course also very much welcomes gifts and bequests from persons interested in its mission.

Robert T. Casey, president

RETIRED CLERGY HOUSING CORPORATION

After 22 years, this is my final report to you. This organization was established by our conference in 1932 and for many years was known as the Home Corporation. Board members were the district superintendents plus an equal number of laypersons. As the years progressed, there were a number of changes that came about. A long-range planning committee was formed that visited each home trusted to our care. During that trip, a number of older homes that were built in the 1940s with only one bathroom and steep stairs leading to the second floor were slated to be sold. There were other concerns, such as faulty wiring and plumbing that did not meet the present codes but were considered safe under the "old grandfather clause". This committee was asked to develop plans for providing homes that were up to modern standards and gave older persons freedoms that are conducive to retirement living. About three years ago a new long-range planning committee made the same trip, again determining homes we should sell when they became vacant, plus determining if we were adhering to the plans developed by the first committee.

Changes were in order also concerning the name and membership of the board. The name changed to The Retired Clergy Housing Corporation with only 24 board members, 18 of which shall be laypersons and 6 clergy — one to be appointed by the Bishop from the Cabinet. All changes had to be approved by the Virginia State Corporation and the IRS which is also annually approved through the board's attorney and auditors. Today's board is divided into three areas of concern: the Admissions committee, the Finance committee and the Sites and Construction committee.

I have had the privilege of working with some of the finest laypersons and clergy one can experience. The chairpersons, both lay and clergy, have been outstanding individuals. Those who have served as officers or committee chairpersons have faithfully provided the highest qualities of leadership. None are paid. Their love for those who have served our conference and retired is a determining factor.

I, however, have to share with you my partner all these years. She is Nancy, my wife, who provided the leadership for our financial obligations. For many years she has received all financial contributions and oversaw every disbursement. Without her, we would have suffered in many areas.

I am hopeful that more and more individuals will become "covenantors" which is one of the life lines of our corporation. By joining, you assure the on-going care for needy retired clergy of the Virginia Conference. This membership is open for clergy and Laity.

God's best to the new leadership.

Thomas L. Coffman, President

VIRGINIA CHAPTER PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION OF UNITED METHODIST CHURCH SECRETARIES

The purpose of the Professional Association of United Methodist Church Secretaries (PAUMCS) is to provide a supportive base for the unity and fellowship of its members in order to provide individual growth, professional development, continuous education and spiritual enrichment. PAUMCS promotes and encourages the training and support of United Methodist church secretaries; serves as an advocate for emerging concerns that affect church secretaries; encourages and assists in the establishment of chapters of church secretaries and staff, within or across jurisdictional and annual conference boundaries; and assists in coordinating the program and work of these chapters.

Legislation was adopted at the 1988 General Conference which states that the General Conference of Finance and Administration (GCFA) has the authority and responsibility to provide guidance and consultation for continuing education of church secretaries, including establishment of professional standards, training and certification programs and to provide assistance to PAUMCS (2012 Book of Discipline, ¶807.19).

The Virginia Chapter of PAUMCS sponsors two meetings each year: a one-day fall training event and a two-day spring spiritual growth retreat. Members are persons presently or previously, full-time or part-time, paid or volunteer, engaged in administrative work in any local church or agency of The United Methodist Church.

Highlights of Virginia PAUMCS activities in 2015-2016 include a six-page mailing sent to the administrative staff of the 1,200 charges of the Virginia Conference and the fall "Experience Your Conference Connection" event held in October. This gathering featured Linda Rhodes, director of Communications for the Virginia Conference, who led us in a session on church communications for today, "I Love to Tell the Story." Wayne Rhodes, director of communications for the General Board of Church and Society explained how the United Methodist Social Principles are an expression of our discipleship and calling to spread scriptural holiness through local churches.

Our spring training/spiritual growth retreat in May at Camp Overlook was led by Sandy Gramling, a tenured associate professor in Clinical Psychology at Virginia Commonwealth University. Sandy shared with us ways for church administrators to reduce stresses not found in secular settings and how to maintain spiritual health, along with information about physical health and nutrition. Attendees also valued the networking and spiritual component of this time together.

If you have administrative staff in your church, either paid or volunteer, we encourage you to help them become a part of Virginia PAUMCS for their professional growth, to the benefit of your church!

Sandra S Fulcher, President 171

VIRGINIA UNITED METHODIST CREDIT UNION

Our goal is to be a primary resource for encouraging sound stewardship principles and helping Virginia United Methodist churches, individuals and institutions. Our objective is to help our members “to earn all they can and save all they can so they can give all they can” as servants of Christ in the world.

We are a full-service financial institution and we operate solely to serve the financial needs of our member owners. Our all-volunteer board of directors is comprised of a cross section of laity and clergy. We help our members by providing quality financial products and services, including savings and checking accounts, loans, Visa rewards credit cards, online services and resources to assist our members with personal financial management. We offer SnapLoan, an educational line of credit for college and seminary students. We have partnered with several conference churches to establish Jubilee Assistance Funds (JAF), a program that assists churches with short-term loans to help their church members who may be experiencing a financial emergency. We recently partnered with a financial services firm that can assist our members with college planning/529s, annuities, long-term care and saving for retirement.

Our church loan program helps conference churches with the refinance of current loans, loans for parsonages, renovations, and vans and buses. We also offer project loans (up to $50,000 unsecured) and Visa rewards credit cards for church business.

John Wesley was among the first to organize financial cooperatives among the faithful in the Methodist movement, and it is in the spirit of Wesley that in 1952 the Virginia Conference established our credit union to help pastors pool their resources to help each other. As we celebrate 64 years of service in 2016, our membership has grown to include United Methodist churches, church members, clergy, organizations, agencies and institutions within the Virginia Annual Conference.

THE VIRGINIA UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION

“Rejoice always. Pray continually. Give thanks in every situation because this is God’s will for you in every situation.” – I Thessalonians 5:16-18

Have you ever skipped a stone across a lake to watch the impact it makes? And then marveled at the ripple effect? Every year, names come and go ... people emerge onto the scene. Their lives leave an imprint on others around them. The impact is often not planned or anticipated. But, like a smooth stone skipping across the lake, those people create ripples that intersect with others to leave a lasting legacy of connection. We all desire significance — to lead fulfilled lives and leave a lasting impact on those around us!

Over the past year, the Virginia United Methodist Foundation was blessed by several people whose story may not make the front page of any newspaper, but the ripple effect for lasting impact will intersect many more people for years to come. Here are a few, and I am grateful for each one:

- A long-term seminary professor with a deep sense of heritage and appreciation for his home church created a beneficiary plan with his retirement assets to provide an endowment for his home church to expand and re-envision ministry for the future.
- A business couple who has worked with their church through a major building project made a significant gift of highly-appreciated stock to fulfill a pledge commitment for the capital campaign in their local church.
- A retiree invested personal funds with the Development Company to provide increased fixed income to meet their monthly expenses. They also named their church as the beneficiary of those funds upon their decease as a lasting legacy.
- A church received a sizeable bequest. The Foundation staff assisted church leadership to discern and strategize what God was calling the church to do in mission — and how these new resources could be effective in opening doors and extending ministry.
- A grant from the Foundation helped provide support for the Parkview Mission in Lynchburg as a community outreach center in providing services to needy and disadvantaged in their community.
- A couple who shares a missional alignment with a social service agency created a charitable gift annuity to benefit that UM charitable ministry in Virginia — while providing income for their lifetime.
- One district worked through the process of re-purposing and selling a church property to another congregation. Following the sale, they sought counsel from the Foundation staff on how to manage those funds to develop and fund new ministry initiatives in their district.
- A local church sold its parsonage and invested those funds with the Foundation. They now draw earnings from those funds to provide a housing allowance for their pastor.
- A legacy ministry program in a local church unearthed several members whose planning is in place to make an impact and ensure the church’s ministry for generations to come.

Each of these leave testimonies of sacrifice and service with a goal to make an imprint on others through their planning and giving. Each of us should consider and plan ahead for what legacy we will create with the resources God has entrusted to our care. The Virginia United Methodist Foundation exists to helping congregants understand that they may make the largest giving impact of their lives through effective planning that can provide the much needed boost to resource a vision for future outreach into their community.

Foundation assets continue to grow as services and staff expand to meet the needs of donors and churches. Since 2011, we have increased the number of churches and ministries we serve from 148 to 217 — more than 50% growth! Assets managed have doubled over that time!

As Of: 12/31/2015

Account Type	Count	Value as of 12/31/2015
Church	217	$ 35,584,663
Endowment	86	7,927,125
Agency	31	10,198,165
CGA	45	641,484
Total	380	$ 55,236,952

Our call is to continue “helping you create lasting ministries into the future” through strategic planning, continuing education, capital campaigns and effective stewardship. The role of the Foundation is to educate and elevate the importance of charitable gift planning in endowing the church's vision into the future. Our commitment is to live out our Core Values with a vision for relevant ministry that leaves a lasting legacy for generations to come. I am grateful for each fund — large and small — and each church relationship — urban or rural — where we serve as a fiduciary and assist in fulfilling their mission and vision.

Never underestimate the power of one person or one church — like a stone skipping across the lake — to create ripples that intersect and impact others. Each person, family or ministry can create a legacy imprint to accomplish the purpose for which God has called and equipped us. The Foundation remains available to assist individuals and churches throughout the conference to pursue God's unique calling to an enduring legacy of vital ministry that changes lives and touches souls.

Capture the potential for impact...catch the imprint of generosity! Give thanks with me for God's good provision and the open hearts of God's people to plant seeds for coming harvest.

VIRGINIA UNITED METHODIST DEVELOPMENT COMPANY, LLC

Re-envisioning Ministry for the Future

Thanks to more than 80 churches, agencies and individuals who have become investors in the Development Company over the last year, we have been able to make a difference in 15 local churches by helping them with church extension loan financing! These churches have saved more than $214,000 in debt service, increasing their operational cash flow and enabling them to expand their local ministry outreach!

Our impact can be seen with:

- A construction loan for a new ministry facility and sanctuary in the Winchester District.
- Re-financing for a parsonage loan in the Charlottesville District.
- Equipping a church in the Arlington District to re-launch a capital campaign to expand and improve their building space.
- Helping a church in Richmond with their ministry strategy as they purchase adjoining property to expand ministry options.
- Coupling a re-finance and remodeling project into one loan for a church in the Alexandria District.

These are just a few of the examples of how your investments touched the lives of more than 12,000 Methodists last year. There are many benefits to partnering with the Development Company. As a connectional ministry, we provide consulting service to the local church as they look at expansion or facility improvement. We understand the challenges involved with financing, as well as the requirements of the United Methodist Church. Our ministry goals include simplifying the process, offering lower costs, advantageous terms and extremely competitive interest rates while serving as your advisor from start to finish. Each loan has a story which adds to the ripple effect of impacting lives and extending mission and ministry in their community as the hands and feet of Christ.

The Development Company offers construction loans with terms normally less than one year. Permanent loans with terms of 5 years and amortization up to 30 years are also available. Our goal is to help local churches become effective stewards of the resources entrusted — both building and budget — and re-envision their impact in mission and ministry in their local community.

The Development Fund is a registered Offering with the Commonwealth of Virginia. Although investments are not insured, they are safeguarded through strict investment and lending policies, strong board leadership and competent staff. Our purpose is to enable United Methodist investors to fund church capital improvement loans. Initial deposits have been encouraging though not sufficient to meet the loan demand. Our continuing prayer for the coming year is increased participation in the deposits to help meet the loan demand! Thereby, our motto: United Methodists Investing to Impact Virginia! In 2015, the Development Company realized significant growth in investments and loans. As of December 31:

2015 Total Assets	$10,908,920
2015 Outstanding Loans	$6, 178,686
2015 Loan Commitments to Churches for future loans	$5,016,876

The overarching goal for the Development Company remains: Strengthening the local church to expand ministry in its community through effective planning and ongoing consultation as we manage assets and provide support to fulfill its enduring local mission!

RESOLUTION 1

Ban the Box

Whereas Scripture teaches us to provide a refuge for the outcasts and that in welcoming a stranger we welcome Christ into our midst;<sup>1</sup>

Whereas our Social Principles “affirm all persons as equally valuable in the sight of God” and support the basic rights of all persons to equal access to employment;<sup>2</sup>

Whereas the majority of the over 325,000 ex-felons in Virginia who have completed all court-imposed punishment find it almost impossible to obtain gainful employment because most employers use a check box on their job applications to ask if the applicant has a felony conviction/arrest record – and then pass over applicants who check that box, even though the vast majority of such offenses were nonviolent and the ex-offenders have since tried to turned their lives around;

Whereas the inability to obtain employment makes it impossible for ex-offenders to support themselves and their families, and thereby contributes to a vicious cycle of higher unemployment, increased crime, more recidivism and higher taxes to support imprisonment;

Whereas this vicious cycle begins early in life for a large segment of our population – as revealed by recent studies which have found that by age 23, half of all black males and 40 percent of all white males have been arrested – and thereby virtually destroying the lives of such persons and depriving our nation of contributions they could make to our society;<sup>3</sup>

Whereas these trends affect not only men but also women, with the number of women in prison nationally “increasing at a rate fifty percent higher for women than for men since 1980,” and among all persons incarcerated in Virginia over eight percent are women – with such women who are the head of a single parent household facing especially daunting challenges upon their release;<sup>4</sup>

Whereas 14 states and at least 96 cities and counties (including 13 cities and counties in Virginia) have enacted “ban the box” policies to eliminate questions about an applicant’s criminal history from the initial employment application so that selection of persons to be interviewed will be based on skills and qualifications for a specific job position;<sup>5</sup>

Whereas several major corporations, including three of the nation’s top retailers – Home Depot, Target, and Walmart – have enacted ban the box policies by removing questions about criminal history from their job applications, thereby joining several other employers who have taken steps to end hiring exclusions that make it nearly impossible for anyone with a criminal record to get a job, even if that offense be in the distant past;<sup>6</sup>

Whereas deferring questions about any criminal history or conducting a criminal background check until after an applicant is selected for an interview, given a conditional offer of employment or found otherwise qualified for the job will provide an opportunity for applicants to demonstrate their qualifications and enable employers to select the most qualified applicants;

Whereas jobs relating to public safety, handling finances or requiring contact with vulnerable populations such as working with children and the elderly will continue under law to require full criminal background checks prior to employment, and

Whereas, as some perceptive members of the clergy have pointed out, while banning the box is about fairness for people with records, it is also good for the “economy and for the safety of our communities to ensure we’re maximizing job opportunities for everyone.”<sup>7</sup>

Be it hereby resolved by this 234th Session of the Virginia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church that:

1. We commend the states, municipalities and private employers who have eliminated questions about past criminal history from their initial job applications in order to provide all job applicants an opportunity to be considered on the basis of their qualifications for a specific job.

2. We call upon our Virginia state legislators to enact legislation banning questions about criminal history from the initial job application for public and private employment so that questions about criminal history or conducting a criminal background check can be deferred until after an applicant has been selected for an interview, given a conditional offer of employment or otherwise found qualified for a specific job.

3. We urge private employers to follow the example of those private employers who have already banned the box from their employment applications.

4. We urge our clergy and lay members to contact their state legislators, urging support of a ban the box policy for Virginia.

5. We authorize the Board of Church and Society to join with other like-minded groups in a campaign to ban the box in Virginia and request that it keep the Conference updated on progress toward this goal.

RESOLUTION 2

Establish a Mentoring Ministry for Adolescents in the Community that It Serves

Whereas, educational success is frequently the essential element in achieving economic opportunity and social advancement; and
Whereas, the American educational system has fallen short of its goal of promoting economic and social mobility; and
Whereas, a recent landmark report on American education, entitled “Separate and Unequal,” found that the likelihood of children exceeding their parents’ educational level is “lower in the United States than in any other advanced nation”; and
Whereas, the federal Title 1 educational program, including No Child Left Behind, whose goal has been to improve the academic performance of economically disadvantaged children, has done little to improve student performance; and
Whereas, successful student performance results from significant investment by the student, of time and effort to learn; and
Whereas, many students being raised in poor families are performing worse than any other group because they are the least motivated to put in the time and effort to be successful; and
Whereas, in Virginia, nearly 20 per cent more students from middle to high income families graduate from high school than students from low-income families; and
Whereas, the situation in Virginia is most desperate and unjust for African-American young men, where about 40% of these students are not graduating from high school while only 20% of white males are not graduating from high school; and
Whereas, in responding to the commandment of Jesus to love others as Jesus has loved us, Christian men and women have been given clear direction to provide guidance and encouragement to those underperforming adolescents living in their communities; and
Whereas, included in the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church is the declaration: “We believe that every person has the right to education. We also believe that the responsibility for education of the young rests with the family, faith communities, and the government”; and
Whereas, because United Methodists believe that “quality education opens doors of hope and possibility”, the church has declared that serving others by advancing their education is a priority of the transformational process called “Rethink Church”.
Now, therefore, be it resolved that the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church calls on each congregation to establish a ministry to adolescents who are not reaching their full academic potential, where congregation members would provide these adolescents in their community with the guidance and encouragement that they so desperately need to be successful in school, thereby giving these students a greater chance for social and economic advancement and justice.
 And be it further resolved that the Board of Church and Society of the Virginia Conference will offer information and support to any local church that seeks assistance in developing a mentoring program in its community.

RESOLUTION 3

Responding to Requests from Christians in the Holy Land

Whereas it is God’s will that all people enjoy peace/shalom/salaam, i.e. peace, security, prosperity, and right relationships with one another and the earth.
Whereas the psalmists calls us to pray for the peace of Jerusalem (Ps. 122.6), and to “seek peace and pursue it” (Ps. 34:14)
Whereas we affirm Israel’s right to permanent, recognized and secure borders, and Palestinians’ rights to self-determination and formation of a viable state; and,
Whereas the 2012 Book of Resolution states “we seek for all people in the Middle East region an end to military occupation, freedom from violence, and full respect for the human rights of all under international law.” Resolution #6073, 2008 Book of Resolutions, amended and readopted in 2012
Whereas “The United Methodist Church opposes continued military occupation of the West Bank, Gaza, and East Jerusalem, the confiscation of Palestinian land and water resources, the destruction of Palestinian homes, the continued building of illegal Jewish settlements, and any vision of a ‘Greater Israel’ that includes the occupied territories and the whole of Jerusalem and its surroundings (Resolution 6111: “Opposition to Israeli Settlements in Palestinian Land.” 2012 Book of Resolutions); and,
Whereas we are called to support members of Christ’s church around the world, including Palestinian Christians who are being forced to leave the Holy Land due to Israel’s confiscation of their property and the severe hardships of living under occupation; and,
Whereas the Palestinian Christian community, through the Kairos Palestine document, has requested the support of the wider Church; (Kairos Palestine. “A Moment of Truth: A Word of Faith, Hope and Love from the Heart of Palestinian Suffering” <http://www.kairospalestine.ps/content/kairos-document> Web. December 2009); and,
Whereas Palestinian Christian leaders have specifically requested the support of the United Methodist Church; (Letter to the United Methodist Church from Rifat Odeh Kassis, General Coordinator, Kairos Palestine, November 28, 2014 https://www.kairosresponse.org/Rifat\_Kassis.html. Web. January 2015); and,
Whereas the 2012 General Conference reiterated the call to end the occupation, through boycotts of goods produced in the occupied territories (Resolution 6111: “Opposition to Israeli Settlements in Palestinian Land.” 2012 Book of Resolutions); and,
Whereas all UMC missionaries serving in the Holy Land over the last 25 years support concrete actions by our denomination to show our support of Palestinian rights. (United Methodist Missionaries Support Divestment from the Israeli Occupation, https://www.kairosresponse.org/UMC\_Missionaries\_Divestment.html. Web. January 2015),
Therefore, be it resolved that the Virginia Annual Conference shall create a diverse and representative task force to review and research actions that can be taken to respond to these requests by our UMC missionaries and our Palestinian sisters and brothers in Christ, and formulate recommendations for the 2017 annual conference; and,
Be it further resolved that the Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church calls on the U.S. government, the government of Israel, and the elected Palestinian leadership to work for diplomatic and nonviolent solutions to the problems of the region, to respect the equality and dignity of all the region’s people, and to forge solutions based on the principles of international law and human rights.

X. CONFERENCE RULES AND POLICIES*STANDING RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE

As Approved by The Virginia Annual Conference at Its 2016 Session

The annual conference shall elect a Rules Committee as allowed by ¶604 of the Discipline and as set forth in ¶V.B.18 of the Standing Rules.

The Virginia Annual Conference Rules and Policies shall be those published in the Journal of The Virginia Annual Conference United Methodist Church of the preceding annual conference and shall be published in the Book of Reports of each annual conference.

I. THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE*A. PURPOSE OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The purpose of the Virginia Annual Conference is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by equipping its local churches for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church; all to the glory of God.

B. MEMBERSHIP

1. Clergy Membership. The clergy membership of the annual conference shall consist of deacons and elders in full connection, provisional members, associate members, affiliate members, and local pastors under full-time and part-time appointment to a pastoral charge.
2. Campus Ministries. Campus ministers, chaplains and Wesley Foundation directors shall be included in the annual conference composition. In districts where United Methodist laypersons serve as campus ministers/directors of Wesley Foundations, they shall be added as district-at-large lay members to the annual conference. In districts where United Methodist clergy who are members of the annual conference serve as chaplains, campus ministers, or directors of Wesley Foundations, the laypersons elected as their balancing counterpart shall be elected from and by either that campus ministry board of directors or the students from that ministry/foundation and their expenses paid by the district. Special consideration shall be given to the inclusion of United Methodist young adults who are active participants in campus ministry.
3. Lay Membership. The lay membership of the annual conference shall consist of the following (or designated alternate), if lay persons:
  - a. a professing member elected by each charge; except that each charge served by more than one clergy member under appointment (including deacons in full connection for whom this is their primary appointment ) shall be entitled to as many lay members as there are clergy members under appointment.
  - b. diaconal ministers;
  - c. the active deaconesses and home missionaries under episcopal appointment within the bounds of the annual conference;
  - d. the conference president of United Methodist Women;
  - e. the conference president of United Methodist Men;
  - f. the conference lay leader;
  - g. district lay leaders;
  - h. the president of the conference young adult organization;
  - i. a member of the conference youth organization;
  - j. the chair of the annual conference college student organization;
  - k. the conference secretary of global ministries;
  - l. the conference director of lay servant ministries;
  - m. one young person between the ages of 12 and 17 and one young person between the ages of 18 and 35 from each district, to be selected as set forth in ¶ n. below:

And by annual conference formula to equalize the number of lay and clergy membership of the annual conference (¶ 32, 2012 Book of Discipline) the following, if lay persons:

- n. one additional young person between the ages of 12 and 17 and one additional young person between the ages of 18 and 35 from each district, to be selected by the District Council on Ministries with nomination(s) for the youth members to be received from the District Council on Youth Ministries and nomination(s) for the young adults to be received from the District Coordinator of Higher Education and Campus Ministries, college chaplain(s) and campus minister(s) if such persons exist in the district;
- o. the conference Treasurer;
- p. the Chancellor(s) of the annual conference;
- q. the Director of Connectional Ministries
- r. lay members of general boards, councils and commissions, and lay members who serve on agencies related to the general church and are mandated by the Discipline because of their office to serve on related annual conference agencies, who are members of such as of August 31 of the previous year;
- s. district presidents of United Methodist Men;
- t. district presidents of United Methodist Women;
- u. the president or chairperson of the following annual conference agencies: Commission on Archives and History; Board of Church and Society; Church Development Team; Commission on Disabilities; Board of Discipleship; Commission on Equitable Compensation; Commission on Ethnic Minority Concerns and Advocacy; Council on Finance and Administration; Board of Global Ministries; Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries; Board of Ordained Ministry; Resolutions Committee; Rules Committee; Site Selection Committee; Commission on Status and Role of Women; Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc.; Trustees of the Virginia Annual Conference, Inc.; Virginia United Methodist Assembly Center, Inc.; and Virginia United Methodist Communications, Inc. and Virginia United Methodist Foundation.
- v. Additional lay members to be elected by the lay members of the district conference of each district in such numbers as to provide that the total number of lay members from that district shall bear the same ratio to the total lay membership of the annual conference as the church membership of that district bears to the total church membership of the annual conference. Each district conference shall also elect alternates to those elected under this paragraph in number to equal at least one-third of the numbers provided under this subparagraph. The computations that form the basis for the determination of the additional lay membership to be elected by each district hereunder shall be based on the various membership categories as of the adjournment of the preceding annual conference. In making these computations, a lay person shall not be counted in more than one membership position. The Director of Connectional Ministries shall furnish to the Bishop by September 1 of each year the totals of each category of members together with the number of additional lay members to be elected by each district.

- w. Conference scouting coordinator.
  - x. All lay members of the annual conference shall conform to the requirements for membership of the 2012 Book of Discipline in ¶ 602.4.
4. Members of Next Succeeding Annual Conference. Members of Next Succeeding Annual Conference. By the adoption of Paragraphs 3. d-u, all lay persons holding the positions enumerated in those subparagraphs are elected as lay members of the next succeeding annual conference. In the event of a change in the persons holding a position in ¶ I.C.3. between sessions of the annual conference, the person holding the position at the time of the next succeeding annual conference shall be the member of the annual conference.
5. Expenses. Unless otherwise covered by a local charge, expenses of attending annual conference shall be born as follows:
- a. By the districts:
    - i. two young persons between the ages of 12 and 17;
    - ii. two young persons between the ages of 18 and 35;
    - iii. the district lay leaders;
    - iv. the district president of the United Methodist Men;
    - v. the district president of the United Methodist Women;

  - b. By the annual conference:
    - i. the Director of Connectional Ministries
    - ii. the Conference Director of Lay Servant Ministries;
    - iii. the president of the conference young adult organization;
    - iv. a member of the conference youth organization;
    - v. the conference Treasurer;
    - vi. the conference Chancellor(s);
    - vii. lay members of general boards, councils and commissions, and lay members who serve on agencies related to the general church and are mandated by the Discipline because of their office to serve on related annual conference agencies, who are members of such as of August 31 of the previous year;
    - viii. the chair of the annual conference college student organization;
    - ix. the chair of the Resolutions Committee
    - x. the Conference scouting coordinator
  - c. By annual conference boards or agencies:
    - i. the Conference Lay Leader
    - ii. the conference president of the United Methodist Men;
    - iii. the conference president of the United Methodist Women;
    - iv. the Conference Secretary of Global Ministries
    - v. the president or chairperson, of the following annual conference agencies: Commission on Archives and History; Board of Church and Society; Church Development Team; Commission on Disabilities; Board of Discipleship, Commission on Equitable Compensation; Commission on Ethnic Minority Concerns and Advocacy; Council on Finance and Administration; United Methodist Foundation; Board of Global Ministries; Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries; Board of Ordained Ministry; Rules Committee; Site Selection Committee; Commission on Status and Role of Women; Virginia United Methodist Pensions; Inc., Trustees of the Virginia Annual Conference, Inc.; Virginia United Methodist Assembly Center, Inc.; and Virginia United Methodist Communications, Inc.
6. Right to Floor and Right to Vote. With the exception of provisional members, associate members, and local pastors serving full time and part-time appointments, those members of the conference listed in ¶¶ I.C.1., 2., and 3. shall be full members of the conference with the right to the floor and the right to vote. Provisional members, associate members, and local pastors serving full time and part-time appointments have the right to the floor and the right to vote on all matters except the following:
- a. Constitutional amendments.
  - b. Matters of ordination, character and conference relations of clergy. These shall be the sole responsibility of clergy members in full connection.

For the election of delegates to the General and the Jurisdictional conference the following clergy are eligible to vote:

- a. Active and retired members (elders and deacons)
- b. Active and retired provisional members
- c. Active and retired associate members
- d. Part-time and full-time local pastors who
  - 1) Have completed the educational requirements (Five Year Course of Study, equivalency for Five-Year Course of Study based on approval of the General Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries and Virginia Conference

Board of Ordained Ministry or an M. Div. from an approved seminary). Based on Judicial Council Ruling 1181, Analysis and Rationale, ¶ 8

AND

2) Have been under uninterrupted appointment for two years.

Retired local pastors (including those under appointment) are NOT eligible to vote for the election of delegates (2012 Book of Discipline ¶ 316.6).

7. Roll of Conference. The roll of the conference shall be the official registration signed by the members of the conference.
8. Privilege of Floor Without Vote. Privilege of Floor Without Vote. The following shall be seated in the annual conference and shall be given the privilege of the floor without vote: official representatives from other denominations, especially from member churches of Churches Uniting In Christ, invited by the annual conference; missionaries regularly assigned by the General Board of Global Ministries and serving within the bounds of the annual conference; lay missionaries regularly appointed by the General Board of Global Ministries in nations other than the United States and certified lay missionaries from nations other than the United States serving within the bounds of the annual conference (quoting 2012 Book of Discipline ¶ 602.9).

C. ANNUAL CONFERENCE OFFICIALS

1. The Presiding Officer. The resident Bishop of the conference shall preside at all sessions of the conference but shall have the privilege of appointing a presiding officer to preside in his or her stead in the event of illness or temporary absence from the annual conference floor.
2. Annual Conference Secretary. The secretary of the annual conference shall be elected quadrennially by the annual conference upon nominations arising from the floor at annual conference following each regular General Conference of The United Methodist Church. In the event a vacancy occurs between sessions of the annual conference, the Bishop, after consultation with the District Superintendents, shall appoint a person to act until the next session.
3. Assistant Secretaries. The secretary shall annually nominate a sufficient number of assistant secretaries who shall be elected by the annual conference to handle properly the work of the annual conference.
4. Treasurer. The annual conference Treasurer shall be nominated by the Council on Finance and Administration. He or she shall be elected by the annual conference at the first session of the annual conference following the regular General Conference. He or she shall be elected for the quadrennium or until his or her successor has been elected and qualifies. If a vacancy should occur during the quadrennium, the Council on Finance and Administration shall fill the vacancy until the next session of the annual conference.
5. Statistician. The annual conference statistician shall be elected by the annual conference on nomination by the Cabinet at the annual conference following each regular General Conference of The United Methodist Church. In the event a vacancy occurs between sessions of the annual conference, the Bishop, after consultation with the District Superintendents, shall appoint a person to act until the next session of the annual conference.
6. Assistant Statisticians. The annual conference statistician shall annually nominate a sufficient number of assistant statisticians who shall be elected by the annual conference for the annual conference year.
7. Editor of the Annual Conference Journal. The annual conference secretary shall nominate annually the editor of the conference Journal, who shall be elected by the annual conference for the next calendar year. He or she shall be responsible for editing and printing the Journal of the Virginia Annual Conference and shall be amenable to the conference secretary.
8. Conference Parliamentarian. The Bishop may appoint a conference parliamentarian whose duty shall be to advise and counsel concerning rules of order and procedure.

D. NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF BOARDS, COUNCILS, COMMISSIONS, AND COMMITTEES

1. The Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team: There shall be a Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team. The team shall meet at least quarterly. The Director of Connectional Ministries and the Conference Lay Leader shall serve as co-chairs. The Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team shall consist of 18 members in addition to the co-chairs. Two members (one clergy, one lay) shall be appointed by the Bishop to ensure appropriate age, ethnic and gender representation on the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team. The Bishop will make replacement appointments in a manner that continues to ensure appropriate age, ethnic and gender representation and in a manner that maintains the clergy/laity balance on the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team. Of the remaining 16 members, eight shall be clergy and eight shall be lay. Each district of the Virginia Annual Conference shall be represented. Representatives of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women, the Commission on Disabilities, and the Commission on Ethnic Minority Concerns and Advocacy shall monitor and have voice at these meetings. All persons shall serve terms of four years, and no person shall serve for more than four consecutive years. As terms of district representatives expire, each District Nominations Facilitation Committee will name one replacement individual to serve on the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team, clergy to replace lay, lay to replace clergy. In the event that a member moves from the district, resigns, or dies during his/her term, a replacement shall be selected in the manner which was applicable to the departing member, with the replacement only serving until the end of the original term. Each District Nominations Facilitation Committee shall designate one of its members as an alternate to its District Representative on the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team.
2. District Nominations Facilitation Committee. There shall be on each district a Nominations Facilitation Committee composed of the District Superintendent as chair; the district lay leader; president of United Methodist Men; president of United Methodist Women; a representative of United Methodist Youth; a college chaplain or a campus minister (applies only to districts with Wesley Foundation or ecumenical campus ministry programs), the district representative to the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team, plus one to three persons (lay and clergy) elected by the district council on ministries. The committee shall meet on the call of the chair at least twice a year between annual conference and March 1. The committee shall develop and maintain a talent bank of lay and clergy persons from the district who could be qualified nominees for the various boards and agencies of the annual conference. The committee shall prepare a profile on each person nominated and upon having a person nominated to a board or agency of the conference, will provide a copy of that profile, including address and phone number, conference boards or agencies the individual is already serving, and the person's willingness to serve, to the co-chairs of the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team.
3. Information to Be Furnished to Each District Nominations Facilitation Committee. Each board, council, commission and committee of the annual conference shall furnish to the co-chairs of the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team on a timely basis for the use of the District Nominations Facilitation Committees:

- a. A summary of its responsibilities and the specific division/committee for which a vacancy exists;
- b. A list of the gifts and talents desired;
- c. Length of service expected;
- d. Demographic information about its current makeup (e.g., number of men, women, ethnic representation, district representation, etc.); and
- e. Schedule of times and locations of its meetings during the year.

It may also suggest names and profiles to the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team through its co-chairs.

4. When Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team Should Make Nominations. The Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team shall annually or quadrennially, as set forth by Disciplinary provision or Virginia Annual Conference Rules and Policies, nominate the membership of the boards, councils, commissions, and committees of the annual conference. Nominees for boards and other agencies shall be published in the Book of Reports.
5. Removal Due to Absences. Any member of any board, council, commission or committee who is absent from two meetings of such board, council, commission or committee without excuse, or from three consecutive agency meetings for any reason, shall automatically cease to be a member of such board, council, commission or committee. The secretary of each board, council, commission or committee shall notify the co-chairs of the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team of vacancies. Any vacancy shall be filled by action of the board, council, commission or committee until the next annual conference session, at which time the annual conference shall fill the vacancy.
6. Request at Annual Charge Conferences for Names to be Given to District Nominations Facilitation Committee. At each annual charge conference the elder presiding at the charge conference shall ask if the Lay Leadership Committee has any names to recommend for conference boards, councils, commissions or committees. Such names shall be given to the district Nominations Facilitation Committee.
7. Multicultural Inclusiveness. The Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team shall strive to insure multicultural inclusiveness.
8. Normal Term Of Service Is Four Years. Unless otherwise specified in these rules or in the Book of Discipline, a person elected to a board, council, commission or committee of the annual conference is elected for a four-year term of service and is eligible for re-election to an additional four-year term. However, if one is first elected to fill an unexpired term of two years or less, that person is eligible for re-election to two full terms. A person completing two consecutive full terms is eligible for re-election to that agency after an interim of one year. In the case of a board or agency with an eight-year term, members elected to fill unexpired terms of three years or less shall be eligible for re-election to one full term of eight years. Program boards and agencies other than the Board of Ordained Ministry may co-opt specific persons for specific projects for short periods of time as consultants, without vote. Any combination of continuous service as either a regular or co-opted member shall count on the eight-year time limit for consecutive service. The term of office of members of conference boards and agencies shall begin with the adjournment of the Annual Conference at which said members are elected and shall extend until their successors are elected.
9. Members of general boards or agencies shall be members ex officio of the corresponding conference board or agency.
10. Nomination or Election to Only One Board, Council, Commission, or Standing Committee with Limited Exceptions. No person is eligible for nomination, election, or interim appointment to more than one board, council, commission, or standing committee, except where permitted by the Discipline and/or conference structure.
11. District Superintendent Not Eligible to be Chairperson or President of Board, Council, Commission, or Standing Committee. No District Superintendent shall be eligible to serve as a chairperson or president of any board, council, commission, or committee of the annual conference. The Bishop may appoint a representative of the Cabinet to any board, council, commission, or committee which is not program related of which a member of the Cabinet is not already an elected member. The appointment of District Superintendents to boards, councils, commissions, or committees which are program related shall be made annually.
12. Officers of Quadrennially Elected Boards, Councils, Commissions or Committees. Officers of boards, councils, commissions, and committees whose members are required to be elected quadrennially shall be elected by the representative agency at the session of the annual conference at which new members are elected or within ninety days after adjournment. Nominations shall come from a nominating committee appointed by the outgoing president of the agency and/or from the floor. The organizational or first meeting of each agency shall be convened by a person designated by the Bishop.
13. Officers of Other Boards, Councils, Commissions and Committees. Officers of other boards, councils, commissions and committees shall be elected by the representative agency at the agency's last regular meeting prior to each annual conference. Nominations shall come from a nominating committee appointed by the outgoing president of the agency and/or from the floor.
14. Resolutions Committee. There shall be a Resolutions Committee of five persons elected annually by the annual conference upon nomination by the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team.
15. Tellers. For those sessions of the annual conference where there is no election of delegates to General Conference and the jurisdictional conference, the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team shall appoint a chief teller, who shall be ineligible to serve again for a quadrennium. It shall additionally appoint a team of tellers composed of two persons, one clergy and one lay, from each district. Each time a count vote is called for in the annual conference session, the chief teller shall have the tellers ready to count the vote, having previously trained them to accurately and efficiently perform their duties.

II. REPORTS, RESOLUTIONS AND PROPOSALS

A. REPORTS

1. Submission of Annual Reports and Mailing of Book of Reports. Agencies shall submit annual reports to the designated person before the date set annually by the Common Table for Church Vitality. The Director of Connectional Ministries shall mail the Book of Reports to each clergy and lay member of annual conference at least 30 days before the opening session of annual conference, printing and mailing at conference expense.

2. Reporting At Annual Conference. For reports printed in the Book of Reports, verbal introductions shall not exceed one minute, and there shall be no further reading of recommendations or resolutions, unless requested for clarification or requested by a majority vote of the annual conference.
3. Amendments to be Submitted in Writing. Persons proposing amendments to any report must submit them in writing to the secretary upon presentation to the annual conference.
4. Submission of New Reports, Changes or Additions to Printed Report. Persons proposing new reports, changes or additions to the printed report of an agency in the Book of Reports must submit them in writing for delivery to members of the annual conference at the opening session, but not to be considered by the annual conference before the morning session of the second day of annual conference.
5. Presiding Officer of Agency giving Report has Privilege of Floor, without Vote, for that Report. When the annual conference has before it the report of any agency, or a matter concerning any agency, the presiding officer of that group, if not a member of the conference, shall have the privilege of the floor, without vote, for that report.

B. RESOLUTIONS

1. Resolutions. Resolutions to be presented to the annual conference shall be submitted to the Director of Connectional Ministries by the due date for the publication of the Book of Reports. The author or originating agency must be identified if other than the submitter(s) of the resolution; submitter(s) must be a member of the annual conference.
2. Urgent Resolutions. Urgent resolutions regarding circumstances arising after the due date for publication of the Book of Reports shall be submitted at least 14 days prior to the opening session of annual conference to the Director of Connectional Ministries to be considered emergency resolutions and, if so considered, are to be distributed via all conference e-mail groups and provided in writing to the members of the annual conference at the time of registration.
3. Referring Resolutions, Response of Agency, Addressing, and Voting on Resolutions. The Director of Connectional Ministries shall refer resolutions related to the work of an annual conference agency to that agency for consideration and report at annual conference with that agency's scheduled report, or such other appropriate time as may be determined by the presiding officer or by the vote of the annual conference. The chair of such agency shall have a maximum of two minutes to present the recommendation of the agency to annual conference. The member of annual conference who has signed the resolution shall have a maximum of three minutes to address the resolution. The resolution shall then be subject to floor debate and action. Two speeches for concurrence and two speeches for non-concurrence shall be permitted with a time limit for each speaker of two minutes. If an outside expert is present and desires to speak, the bishop is the only authorized entity to grant permission with a suspension of the rules. The expert shall be considered as one of two speakers in concurrence or non-concurrence of the resolution. Once a member has spoken, the member may not speak again in consideration of the said resolution, unless speaking to an amendment. Voting on resolutions will be on the resolution itself, not on a recommendation of concurrence or non-concurrence by the agency. After floor debate the chair of the conference agency shall have a maximum of two minutes to address the annual conference immediately prior to vote on a resolution. In the event the Director of Connectional Ministries has not referred a resolution to another agency for consideration, it shall be referred to the Resolutions Committee.
4. Annual Conference Will Vote on the Action to be Taken in the Resolution. Persons proposing resolutions may submit documentation, rationale and support with the resolution, but the annual conference will vote only on the resolution, so that the "whereas" or preamble language of a resolution will not become part of the conference minutes or quoted in recitals of conference action.

C. PROPOSALS REQUIRING PUBLICATION OF MATERIALS

Proposed annual conference action that includes publication or dissemination of information in the Virginia Advocate or other media shall be referred to the Print Media Committee of Virginia United Methodist Communications, Inc., for its consideration and report on the proposed action, including the financial consequences, prior to conference action. The committee may act through its chairperson, the Advocate editor, or other representatives to make its report and recommendation.

D. PROPOSALS REQUIRING FUNDING

Proposals or amendments which may require expenditure of funds, which have not been considered by the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA), shall be referred to CFA for its consideration and recommendation prior to final annual conference action.

E. CONSENT AGENDA

Agenda items and reports not requiring action by the Annual Conference other than a vote to receive said items for publication in the Journal shall be placed on a Consent Agenda. For any item or report to be eligible for placement on the Consent Agenda, it must have been distributed in the pre-Conference materials. Determination of items to be placed on the Consent Agenda shall be made annually by the Bishop in consultation with the Consent Agenda Committee. This committee shall be composed of the Conference Secretary, the Conference Lay Leader, the Chair of the Conference Rules Committee, and the Director of Connectional Ministries. An individual item may be removed from the Consent Agenda at the request of no less than 30 members of the annual conference. The process for making that request will be determined by the Consent Agenda Committee, and the deadline for such requests will not be prior to ten minutes after the call to order of the annual conference session. The Consent Agenda will be made available electronically one week prior to the annual conference. When an individual item has been removed from the Consent Agenda, it shall be placed into the regular agenda.

F. PROPOSALS REQUIRING ADDITION TO AGENDA

During the first business session of annual conference, the agenda shall include time to introduce items in addition to the printed agenda. Any such items not referred to conference agencies under the preceding paragraphs shall be referred to the Rules Committee for its consideration and recommendation prior to adjournment of annual conference.

III. ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO GENERAL CONFERENCE AND THE JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE

A. AN INCLUSIVE CHURCH

We are an inclusive church. We desire to have a delegation that will capably represent the annual conference. The delegation should be representative of the annual conference considering such factors as sex, age, race, disability, ethnic background, economic conditions and geographical locations.

B. ELECTION PROCEDURES

Clergy and lay delegates to General Conference and the jurisdictional conference shall be elected in a fair and open process at the session of the annual conference held not more than two years preceding the session of General Conference.

1. Special Sessions. Clergy and lay delegates elected to the preceding General Conference and the jurisdictional conference shall be the delegates to special sessions of the respective conferences.
2. Number of Delegates. The number of clergy and lay delegates to the General Conference and the jurisdictional conference shall be that number of delegates to such conferences respectively as furnished by the secretary of the General Conference.
3. Election of General Conference and jurisdictional conference Delegates. The number of General Conference delegates authorized by the secretary of the General Conference shall be first elected, followed by balloting on the authorized number of the jurisdictional conference delegates who shall be reserves to General Conference in the order of their election. After the authorized numbers of the jurisdictional conference delegates have been elected, 10 clergy and 10 lay reserve delegates to the jurisdictional conference shall be elected on a single ballot with the 10 persons receiving the greatest number of votes in each category being elected in the order of the number of votes received.
4. Speeches/Printed Materials. No speeches may be made or printed materials distributed at the site of the Annual Conference on behalf of any nominee.
5. Nominee Participation. Nothing herein shall prevent any nominee from
  - a. appearing at the podium or floor microphone for the purpose of conducting Conference business.
  - b. fully participating in activities of the Conference including the debate over budgets, proposals, or resolutions pending before the Conference. This shall include the right to bring petitions, amendments, or resolutions to the Conference and encourage votes for or against the same.
  - c. conducting one-on-one conversations about the election of delegates to the General Conference and the jurisdictional conference including how that nominee proposes to represent the Conference at such events. Nominees are reminded to respect the need of the Conference to conduct business and are asked to take such conversations off the floor of the Conference.

C. CLERGY NOMINATIONS

1. Eligibility

- a. To be nominated. All clergy members in full connection are eligible to be nominated (2012 Book of Discipline ¶35), except as provided in 2012 Book of Discipline ¶355.7.
- b. To vote
  - i. The following clergy are eligible to vote:
    - a) Active and retired members (elders and deacons)
    - b) Active and retired provisional members
    - c) Active and retired associate members
    - d) Part time and full time local pastors who
      - 1) Have completed the educational requirements (Five-Year Course of Study, equivalency for Five-Year Course of Study based on approval of the General Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries and Virginia Conference Board of Ordained Ministry or an M.Div. from an approved seminary). Based on Judicial Council Ruling 1181, Analysis and Rationale, Paragraph 8
      - AND
      - 2) Have been under uninterrupted appointment for two years.
  - ii. Retired local pastors (including those under appointment) are NOT eligible to vote (2012 Book of Discipline, ¶316.6).

2. Nomination Process.

- a. All eligible clergy have the opportunity to serve as delegates to General Conference and jurisdictional conference. Clergy persons desiring nomination/election as delegates to General and jurisdictional must follow the process outlined below. No exceptions to the process, including deadline dates, will be granted except as mandated by changes in The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church and/or the Annual Conference in changing these rules. Those who consent to or desire nomination are asked to commit to the following expectations:
  - 1) Pray for God's guidance in decision-making;
  - 2) Commit the time needed to read and study the issues;
  - 3) Attend the meetings of the Virginia Conference delegations;
  - 4) Attend both General Conference and jurisdictional conference.

Each clergy nomination shall be submitted on a clergy nomination form. Clergy nomination forms will be posted on the conference web site in January preceding the Annual Conference session of delegate elections. The form shall include the names one clergy who is eligible to vote who is making the nomination. Alternatively, any clergy who desires nomination must complete a clergy nomination form. All nominations shall include the nominee's name, picture not to exceed 1<sup>1/2"</sup> by 2<sup>1/2"</sup> (unless nominated at Clergy Session), address, phone number, e-mail address if available, church, district, and should include a personal statement no to exceed 150 words in which may be indicated the nominee's experience, qualifications, and reasons for wanting to serve. There shall be a box to be checked stating: "Nominee is aware of nomination and agrees to serve if elected," and a line for the signature of the nominee. The completed nomination form or facsimile thereof must be returned to the Director of Connectional Ministries no later than March 1 preceding the Annual Conference session of delegate elections. The deadline is non-negotiable.

- b. Clergy Session Nominations. Nominations for clergy delegates may be made at the Clergy Session of the Annual Conference by submitting a clergy nomination form to the Head Clergy Teller which shall be made available upon request.
- c. Clergy Nomination Review Committee. The committee shall be composed of two persons appointed by the bishop plus one clergy member of the Rules Committee designated by that committee. The Director of Clergy Excellence shall serve as an ex-officio member. The committee shall review and compile all nomination forms alphabetically according to the last name of the nominee. This clergy nomination booklet will be available on the conference web site. Printed copies will be available at cost from the office of the Director of Connectional Ministries. An alphabetical listing will be included in the clergy Book of Reports packet. This committee will also be responsible for reviewing and validating any nomination forms submitted at the Clergy Session of the Annual Conference.

D. LAY NOMINATIONS FROM DISTRICTS AND AGENCIES

1. Lay Nominations from Districts. Nominations for lay delegates to General Conference and the jurisdictional conference shall be made by the lay members of the district conference of each district from names submitted by the District Council on Ministries and/or from names of all persons given by any member of The United Methodist Churches of the district to the District Superintendent. These names shall be submitted by the superintendent to the District Conference. Additional nominations at the district conference may be made from the floor, provided that no nomination may be made without the agreement of the nominee to serve if elected. In the event of a tie for the final nominee(s), the nominee(s) shall be selected by lot. Each district may nominate up to one person for each 2,000 members of The United Methodist Church or major fraction thereof in that district, based upon figures reported at the preceding annual conference. District nominees need not be from the district which nominates them.
2. Agency Nominations. The lay members of the following agencies of the annual conference may also nominate one additional lay delegate: Board of Church and Society; Commission on Disabilities; Board of Discipleship; Commission on Ethnic Minority Concerns and Advocacy; Council on Finance and Administration; Board of Global Ministries; Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries; Board of Laity; Commission on the Status and Role of Women; United Methodist Men; United Methodist Women; Virginia United Methodist Communications, Inc.; and Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc. In addition to the aforementioned nominees, the Conference Council on Youth Ministries, and the Virginia United Methodist Student Movement each may nominate one delegate.
3. Church Membership. All nominees shall have been professing members of The United Methodist Church for at least two years preceding their nomination and must be members of churches in the Virginia Annual Conference and shall have been active participants in The United Methodist Church for at least four years preceding their election. They also must be active members within The United Methodist Church at the time of holding General Conference and jurisdictional conference. The four year participation and two year membership requirements may be waived for young persons under twenty-five years of age. Such persons must be members of The United Methodist Church and active participants at the time of election.
4. Nomination Forms. All nominations shall include the nominee's name, picture not to exceed 1½" x 2½" (unless nominated at Laity Session), address, phone number, e-mail address if available, church, district, and should include a personal statement not to exceed 150 words in which the nominee may indicate his or her experience, qualifications and reasons for wanting to serve. There shall be a box to be checked stating: "Nominee is aware of nomination and agrees to serve if elected.", and a line for the signature of the nominee. The nominations shall be on a form or facsimile thereof furnished by the Director of Connectional Ministries. It is recommended that the nomination forms for persons to be voted upon by the district conference be circulated to the members of the district conference in advance of the district conference at which voting is to take place.
5. Laity Session Nomination. Nominations for lay delegates may be made at the Laity session of the Annual Conference by submitting a lay nomination form to the Head Lay Teller which shall be made available upon request.

E. CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON LAY DELEGATE NOMINATIONS

1. Membership. The committee shall be composed of two persons appointed by the Bishop plus one member of the Rules Committee designated by that committee.
2. Function. Each District Superintendent shall by January 15 of the year of election submit to this committee in care of the Director of Connectional Ministries completed forms for all nominees from the district. The committee shall then forward a list of all nominees to the agencies named in ¶ III.D.3. Each agency of the annual conference shall be responsible for forwarding to the committee any completed nomination form no later than March 1. The committee shall review and compile all nomination forms alphabetically according to the last name of the nominee. This lay nomination booklet will be made available on the conference website. Printed copies will be available at cost from the office of the Director of Connectional Ministries. An alphabetical listing will be included in the Book of Reports. This committee will also be responsible for reviewing and validating any nomination forms submitted at the Laity Session of the Annual Conference.
3. List of Nominees. The lay nominees shall be those persons named on the nomination forms.

F. BALLOTING PROCEDURES

1. Separate Voting Areas. Following the convening of Annual Conference, clergy and laity will separate to elect General and Jurisdictional Delegates and alternates, allowing five (5) hours to complete the process.
2. Ballots Shall be Counted Electronically. The Rules Committee shall determine the electronic equipment and procedures to be used and shall do so in consultation with the chief lay and clergy tellers.
3. Valid Ballots. To be valid, a ballot:
  - a. must be cast on the ballot bearing the number designated by the presiding officer for that particular ballot; and
  - b. must be voted for the number of delegates to be elected on that ballot, no more and no less.
4. Voting Area. The presiding officer shall designate the areas of the Lay and Clergy Sessions where members shall be seated during balloting. Ballots shall be cast from only those present and seated within the voting areas of the annual conference and displaying the proper credentials.

5. Ballot Reporting. After a ballot has been counted, the chief teller, either clergy or lay, shall furnish a written report to the Bishop which shall contain (a) number of ballots cast; (b) number of ballots not valid; (c) number of ballots counted; (d) number of ballots necessary to elect; and (e) list of names of persons voted for, including the number of votes received by each, beginning with the largest number of votes.
6. Majority Required for Election. On every ballot, a majority of the valid votes cast shall be necessary for the election of a delegate, except on the ballot to elect reserve delegates to the jurisdictional conference.
7. Reading or Distributing Names. On the first ballot for General Conference, the presiding officer shall read or display all names receiving votes with the number of votes cast for each. After the first ballot, the 25 nominees receiving the highest number of votes shall be read or displayed, according to the highest number of votes received. In the event of a tie between two or more nominees for the last available position on the General or jurisdictional delegation, a run-off election will be ordered by the bishop to select the person to fill that position. Only the names of those in the run-off are open for votes. The names will be read in order of their election. The person with the highest number of votes cast will be seated with the appropriate delegation. When all General Conference delegates have been elected, the same procedure shall be followed for jurisdictional conference delegates.
8. Handling of Ballots after Counting and Recording. Upon completion of the counting and recording of a ballot, the chief teller shall seal the ballot results and deliver them to the annual conference secretary. The annual conference secretary shall retain all ballot results until the adjournment of the annual conference after which they shall be destroyed.

G. TELLERS

1. Appointment of Chief Tellers, Assistant Chief Tellers, and Tellers. The Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team shall appoint a chief teller and an assistant chief teller for the clergy tellers and a chief teller and an assistant chief teller for the lay tellers. The chief tellers shall not be eligible to serve in the year of the next election of delegates to General Conference and jurisdictional conference. The Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team shall additionally appoint four (4) clergy and four (4) lay members of the annual conference from each district to form a pool of tellers from which as many teams shall be formed as the chief tellers deem advisable. One member of each team shall be designated as the captain for that team.
2. Expenses for Balloting. All expenses incident to the balloting for and election of delegates to General Conference and the jurisdictional conference shall be borne by the annual conference.

H. EXPENSES OF CLERGY AND LAY ALTERNATES

The expenses of two clergy and two lay alternates to General Conference and to the jurisdictional conference shall be borne by the annual conference. Such expense allowances shall not exceed the expense allowances, per diem and travel, as are paid to the regular delegates.

I. DELEGATES UNDER THE AGE OF 18

When a General Conference or jurisdictional conference delegate will be under the age of 18 at the time of General Conference and/or jurisdictional conference, the Virginia Conference Child Protection Policy will be observed for this person. The leader of the General Conference Delegation will be responsible for implementation of the Child Protection Policy.

IV. NOMINATIONS FOR EPISCOPAL ELECTION

At the annual conference immediately preceding the jurisdictional conference, nominations for the office of Bishop may be made by submitting the name of an elder and a biographical sketch of not more than 100 words to the secretary of the conference signed by not fewer than 50 members of the annual conference. To be eligible for nomination the person must not have attained his or her 68th birthday prior to the first day of the month in which the jurisdictional conference is held. Nominations shall cease at the close of the afternoon session of the first day of the annual conference.

The conference secretary shall cause copies of each sketch to be prepared and distributed to the members of the annual conference. Ballots shall be prepared containing the name of each nominee and, beside each name, a square followed by the word "yes." The ballots shall be distributed to the members of the annual conference immediately before they are to be cast. A member of the annual conference may vote for one or more nominees, but not more than the number of episcopal vacancies to be filled, or may choose not to vote for any of the nominees. To be nominated to the jurisdictional conference, a nominee must receive an affirmative vote of not less than 60 percent of the total ballots cast.

V. ANNUAL CONFERENCE PROGRAM BOARDS AND AGENCIES

A. ANNUAL CONFERENCE PROGRAM BOARDS AND AGENCIES

The following are defined as program boards and agencies: The Board of Church and Society, the Church Development Team, the Board of Discipleship, the Board of Global Ministries, the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries, and the Board of Laity. Each board and agency shall meet at least annually.

1. Membership. All program board and agency members shall be elected for a four-year term by the annual conference. So far as possible, board membership shall be composed of an equal number of clergy and laity. No elected member may serve more than eight consecutive years except as authorized by the Discipline or in § I.E.8 of the Virginia Annual Conference Rules and Policies. The bishop shall annually appoint for one year terms at least one District Superintendent to each board, agency or commission. Except for the Board of Ordained Ministry, the presiding bishop and the Director of Connectional Ministries are members of all boards, agencies and commissions with vote unless otherwise provided for by the Book of Discipline.
2. Organization. The boards shall organize in the several divisions or equivalent structure listed below to carry out their respective functions. Each member of a board shall serve on one division or equivalent structure. There shall be an executive committee of each board whose duties and responsibilities shall be determined by the board. A board may develop such additional structure, including the election of division members at large, as it deems necessary to discharge its assigned responsibilities, provided, however, that where additional funding is required for such structure, prior approval of the Common Table for Church Vitality shall be obtained by the board. Division members at large are not members of the board.

3. Function. The conference boards will provide consultative services and resources to the local church, the District Councils on Ministries, the annual conference and the Common Table for Church Vitality. Each board will make program recommendations to the Common Table for Church Vitality, will be responsible for the essential functions of the area of concern assigned by the Common Table for Church Vitality, or by the Book of Discipline, and will be related to the objectives and scope of work set forth by its General Board. Each board is amenable to the Common Table for Church Vitality.

4. Responsibilities.

- a. Church and Society. The Board of Church and Society, in cooperation with the General Board of Church and Society and the Common Table for Church Vitality, shall develop programs on Christian social concern within the bounds of the annual conference. To discharge its responsibilities it shall divide its membership into committees, which so far as practical shall be patterned after the divisions of the General Board of Church and Society. The total membership shall be 20 (10 lay and 10 clergy).
- b. Church Development Team. There shall be a Church Development Team dedicated to working on strategies for and implementation of church development and new faith communities in the annual conference. This team/board will consist of a minimum of 12 and up to 16 persons: six nominated by the bishop and Cabinet, six nominated by the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team, and up to four additional persons who may be co-opted by the team for expertise and diversity. The membership of this team will be placed in four classes to ensure continuity. The team is amenable to the Common Table for Church Vitality.
- c. Discipleship. The Board of Discipleship in cooperation with the General Board of Discipleship and the Common Table for Church Vitality shall create partnerships by providing a network of experience, knowledge and coaching through intentional connection to enhance or create effective disciple making processes. These partnerships are created by: (1) coaching at local levels and pulling in identified district and conference resources as needed, (2) training at district or regional levels, (3) drawing on best practices gathered locally, jurisdictionally, nationally and globally, (4) connecting mentor/resource churches with those who request assistance and information, (5) organizing in regional teams, and (6) raising vision, visibility and possibility during Annual Conference sessions and inviting people to connect with a congregational coach. The Board of Discipleship shall consist of a directing board to set the vision for disciple-making ministries in the annual conference and to support research on best practices, gathered and distributed by a Conference Awareness Team at events and through all other forms of communication.

The Directing Board will consist of the following nine (9) members: three officers (chair, vice-chair, and secretary) to be elected by the Annual Conference, the chair of the Best Practices Group, the chair of the Connecting Group, and four (4) Regional Network Leads. In addition, the Bishops' Foundation will be represented by one person with voice but no vote. The Directing Board will select individuals to serve as leads of the Regional Network Teams. The Regional Network Leads will be ex-officio members of the Directing Board with voice and vote.

The Conference Awareness Team will consist of 12 members divided among two working groups: (1) Best Practices Group and (b) Connecting Group. Members of the Conference Awareness team will be nominated from the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team (CLDDT) and elected by the Annual Conference. The two working groups will annually elect a chair/leader from among its members. The chairs will serve as representatives of the two working groups on the Directing Board.

Members of the Regional Network Teams will be selected by the Regional Network Leads, in consultation with the Directing Board, based upon best practices research.

Each age-level council will meet at least annually as the conference council for the respective ministry areas (with additional members as required by conference Rules and the Book of Discipline, if any) for: (a) sharing of the best practices in their regions, (b) training which will enhance their service to the faith communities within each region, (c) coordinating of conference programs and initiatives as appropriate, and (d) serving as resources to the Regional Network Teams.

The Youth Council and Young Adult Council (ages 18 – 35) will consist of members as mandated in the appropriate sections of The Book of Discipline.

The Youth Council shall have one youth representative (grade 7 – 12) elected by each District Youth Council or equivalent. Six adults shall be elected to the Youth Council: three adults elected by the Youth Council or equivalent and three elected by the Annual Conference.

The Young Adult Council shall have three additional young adult members at-large elected by the Annual Conference.

The Older Adult Council shall have six members elected by the Annual Conference.

- d. Missional Ministries. The Missional Ministries Board in cooperation with the General Board of Global Ministries and the Common Table for Church Vitality shall develop programs to assist districts and local churches to carry out all phases of the work of the church in mission and of church extension within the annual conference. The Conference Director of Justice and Missional Excellence shall serve as the Conference Secretary of Global Ministries (CSGM), fulfilling the responsibilities outlined in ¶ 633.3 of the 2012 Book of Discipline. To discharge its responsibilities it shall divide into two (2) mission teams: (1) Missional Discipleship and Engagement and (2) Missional Connection. The position of Conference Coordinator of Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns (CUIC) shall be appointed by the Bishop and shall be an ex-officio member of the Mission Connection Team of the Conference Missional Ministries Board, as outlined in ¶ 633.2 of the 2012 Book of Discipline. The membership of the board shall be 20, with 6 or 4 persons (one-half lay and one-half clergy) elected each year to replace outgoing classes.

- e. Higher Education and Campus Ministries. The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries in cooperation with the General Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries and the Common Table for Church Vitality, shall develop programs to provide for higher education and ministry objectives as set forth in ¶ 1405 of the 2012 Book of Discipline, and to perform the responsibilities in regard to education and professional campus ministries as set forth in ¶ 634 of the 2012 Book of Discipline.

Membership: With an effort to maintain a balance of clergy and laity, the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries shall have 12 Conference elected members (placed in four classes): a current campus minister, a current Campus Ministry Local Board Chairperson, a current local church pastor with passion for campus ministry, a current United Methodist College or University President, a young adult/student, a member with expertise in property management, and six general members (with a preference for expertise in executive leadership, finance, communication, and marketing). The member who has expertise in the area of property management shall also serve as the chairperson of the Conference Board of Property Managers of the Wesley Foundation, Inc. Ex officio members shall be: the Director of Connectional Ministries, a Liaison District Superintendent (liaison between the BHECM and the Cabinet), an additional District Superintendent, the Conference Treasurer, and any Virginia Conference member to the General Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries. The related conference staff person (the Director of Ministries with Young People) and the Director of the Association of Educational Institutions (AEI) will serve as members with voice but no vote. The term for chairperson shall be four years and terms for members shall also be four years and follow section I E8 of the Conference Rules and Policies. Nominations and election of the chairperson shall follow sections I E11 of the Conference Rules and Policies. The Executive Committee of the BHECM shall consist of the chairperson, the Liaison District Superintendent, the current campus minister, the member with expertise in property management and three general members.

Organization: The BHECM will meet a minimum of every other month. The Executive Committee will meet as needed. The BHECM will also be responsible for a minimum of one annual meeting for the following: Effectiveness Training Forums for Local Campus Ministry Boards, Effectiveness Training Forums for Campus Ministers/Chaplains and Effectiveness Discussion Forums for District Superintendents. The incorporated entities of the board are the Wesley Foundation, Inc., and Francis Asbury Loan Fund, Inc. The conference board of property managers is a sub-group of the Wesley Foundation, Inc. The Executive Committee of the Board shall function as the board of directors of both the Wesley Foundation, Inc., and Francis Asbury Loan Fund, Inc.

- f. Laity. The Board of Laity shall act as an advocate for the Virginia Annual Conference laity in all forums of the annual conference. The purpose of the Board of Laity is to create a culture of call by engaging, equipping, and empowering people so that they might effectively partner with each other and their pastors to live out God's call as they lead the church in transforming the world as disciples of Jesus Christ. Membership of the Board of Laity shall be composed of the conference lay leader, three associate conference lay leaders, the Conference Director(s) of Lay Servant Ministries, the presidents of the conference organizations of United Methodist Men and United Methodist Women or their designees, Young People's Representative selected by the Youth or Young Adult Council, sixteen (16) district lay leaders, one District Superintendent appointed by the Bishop, and the Bishop. Three clergy who model excellence in the lay-clergy partnership for ministry will be appointed by the Executive Committee to serve as ex-officio members. To discharge its responsibilities, the Board of Laity shall divide its membership into three work area teams: (1) Engaging (Holistic Stewardship); (2) Equipping (Leadership Excellence); and (3) Empowering (Shared Ministry). The Board of Laity shall nominate to the annual conference for election a layperson to be the conference lay leader for the ensuing four years. Any person elected to the office of conference lay leader shall not be eligible to serve more than two consecutive terms, or a total of eight (8) years.

B. ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCIES

The following agencies having administrative responsibilities are grouped together under the general title "Administration" with duties and responsibilities as indicated.

1. Archives and History, Commission on. There shall be a Commission on Archives and History and a Virginia Conference Historical Society. The duties and responsibilities of the commission shall be as set forth in the 2012 Book of Discipline (See ¶ 641). Members of the annual conference shall be members of the Virginia Conference Historical Society, which will elect 48 members to the commission who will also serve as the directors of the Virginia Conference Historical Society. The officers of the commission and the society shall be the same.
2. Assembly Center, Virginia United Methodist. The members of the board of directors of the Virginia United Methodist Assembly Center shall be nominated by the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team and elected by the annual conference. The board of directors shall have full responsibility for the operation of the conference assembly center directly under the annual conference trustees with a working relationship through the Common Table for Church Vitality for programming purposes.
3. Bishops' Foundation. There shall be a Bishops' Foundation whose purpose is to provide training for leadership development of both lay and clergypersons of the Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church in the areas of evangelism and preaching in the Wesleyan spirit, and whose Board of Directors shall consist of nine (9) directors nominated by the Cabinet of the Virginia Conference and elected by the Annual Conference: five (5) clergy members and four (4) lay members serving for staggered terms of three (3) years after the initial term of 1, 2, and 3 years. The director of Connectional Ministries of the Virginia Conference or his/her designee will serve as an ex officio member of the Board of Directors.

4. Communications, Virginia United Methodist, Inc. There shall be a Board of Communications which is to serve all of the agencies of the annual conference in the area of communication. It shall be administratively related to and amenable to the Common Table for Church Vitality. The board and/or its subunits may be incorporated.
  - a. Function The mission of Virginia United Methodist Communications, Inc. is to assist faith communities in communications and related technologies, empowering their mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ.
  - b. Membership Virginia United Methodist Communications, Inc., shall consist of 28 persons, 16 of whom (half lay and half clergy) shall be elected by the annual conference. The 16 members thus elected and ex officio members shall elect 12 additional members at large selected with regard to professional expertise, nonprofessional objectivity, and media representation. The ex officio members shall be the Director of Connectional Ministries, a Cabinet representative, director of Virginia United Methodist Communications, Inc., the conference information systems director, and any member of United Methodist Communications, the General Board of Publications, and any other general board or agency whose purpose or function is included with the purposes and functions of this organization, or their successors, who is a member of a local charge in the Virginia Annual Conference or a clergy member of the Virginia Annual Conference. There shall be a Standing Committee on Finance composed of the president and the vice president and a committee chairperson who shall be appointed by the president. There may be other standing committees as the board shall determine from time to time.
    - iv. Special Committees may be appointed by the president from time to time to function on behalf of specific projects or activities of the corporation.
5. Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team (CLDDT). (See ¶ I.E.1. for composition and function of the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team.)
6. Disabilities, Commission on. The commission shall consist of 18 members, half clergy and half lay. Membership shall include persons with physical disabilities and persons with intellectual disabilities. The Bishop may appoint to the commission a District Superintendent to serve as Cabinet representative with voice but not vote.
7. Episcopacy, Committee on the. There shall be a Committee on the Episcopacy, the membership and duties of which shall be as prescribed in ¶ 637 of the 2012 Book of Discipline.
8. Equitable Compensation, Commission on. The Commission on Equitable Compensation shall be composed of an equal number of lay and clergy persons including at least one lay and one clergy from churches of fewer than 200 members who are nominated by the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team and elected by the annual conference. In addition, one District Superintendent named by the Cabinet shall be a member. It shall perform the duties assigned to it by the 2012 Book of Discipline (See ¶ 625). It shall receive all requests from or on behalf of all pastoral charges for aid to be used solely for clergy support. It shall administer the Equitable Compensation Fund and may employ money from other agencies, including those which may be granted by the Board of Global Ministries, as appropriate in each case, to meet these requests.
9. Ethnic Minority Concerns and Advocacy, Commission on. There shall be a Virginia Conference Commission on Minority Concerns and Advocacy amenable to the Common Table for Church Vitality. The commission will provide for the functions as outlined in the current Book of Discipline for the Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns and Commission on Religion and Race. The basic membership of the commission shall consist of 10 clergy, 10 laypersons, and five members at-large elected upon nomination of the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team. A minimum of two members shall be youth and young adults between the ages of 12 - 35. The commission will be constituted so that two-thirds of the membership be representative of people from diverse racial and ethnic backgrounds. The district coordinators for Religion and Race shall be ex-officio members of the commission with both voice and vote. The presidents or chairs of conference caucuses, fellowships, or associations for racial and ethnic constituencies shall be ex-officio members of the commission with voice but not vote. The bishop may appoint to the commission a district superintendent to serve as Cabinet representative with voice but not vote.
10. Finance and Administration, Conference Council on. There shall be a Conference Council on Finance and Administration elected and organized with responsibilities as set forth in the 2012 Book of Discipline (See ¶¶ 611-619), provided that membership of the council shall be composed of five clergy, five lay women, and five lay men nominated by the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team.
11. Foundation, United Methodist. There shall be a United Methodist Foundation organized with responsibilities as set forth in the 2012 Book of Discipline ¶2513 and pursuant to the charter heretofore approved by the Annual Conference in 2016; fourteen (14) of the twenty-three (23) trustees shall be elected by the Annual Conference.

12. Incapacity, Joint Committee on. There shall be a Joint Committee on Incapacity consisting of two representatives from the Board of Ordained Ministry, two representatives from the Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc., one representative from the Cabinet and one representative of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. Their duties shall be as prescribed by the 2012 Book of Discipline (See ¶ 652).
13. Investigation, Committee on. There shall be a Committee on Investigation nominated, elected, and with duties as set forth in the 2012 Book of Discipline (See ¶ 2703).
14. Minutes, Committee on. There shall be a Committee on Minutes consisting of seven members nominated by the Cabinet for a term of eight years, provided that the terms of four members shall expire at the end of one quadrennium and terms of the other three shall expire at the end of the next quadrennium. At least three members shall be lay persons and at least three shall be clergy. The chair shall be designated by the Cabinet. The committee shall review the daily minutes of the annual conference proceedings and report at the next session. Within three weeks of the close of the annual conference session, the committee will meet with the conference secretary to review and correct the minutes of proceedings before submitting the same for printing in the conference Journal.
15. Ordained Ministry. The Board of Ordained Ministry in cooperation with the General Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries and the Common Table for Church Vitality, shall develop programs to assist districts and local churches in preparing and aiding persons to fulfill their ministry in Christ as this has been historically understood by United Methodism. The Board of Ordained Ministry shall perform all the duties and functions as set forth in the Book of Discipline and shall be directly amenable to the annual conference. The Board of Ordained Ministry shall have sixty-seven (67) persons nominated by the bishop (2012 Book of Discipline ¶ 635.1) and elected by the annual conference at the beginning of each quadrennium. The annual conference registrar and at least one District Superintendent appointed by the bishop shall also serve on the Board of Ordained Ministry. At least one person from each district shall be included on the board. If during the course of the quadrennium a district should lose its representation on the board, an additional person shall be elected to the board to ensure representation from each district.
16. Pensions and Related Benefits, Virginia United Methodist, Inc. This agency, which is incorporated as Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc., shall be composed of twenty-four (24) members in two classes serving eight-year terms. It is recommended that all classes consist of one-third laywomen, one-third laymen, and one-third clergy. Any clergy member of the conference or lay member of a church within the conference who is a member of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall also be a member of the agency (2012 Book of Discipline ¶ 639.2a) If no District Superintendent is a member of this agency the Bishop may name one to represent the Cabinet. He or she shall have voice but not vote. This agency shall perform the duties set forth in the 2012 Book of Discipline (see ¶ 639). In addition, it shall administer the conference program for participant supplemental benefits including the various insurance programs, shall study on a continuing basis the problems of participant disability, making recommendations relative to these problems as needed, and shall provide for a continuing pastoral ministry to disabled participants.
17. Preachers' Relief Society. This is an incorporated body with invested trust funds, the income from which is used from time to time for the relief of needy members of the clergy and their families.
18. Rules Committee. There shall be a Rules Committee consisting of nine members elected by the annual conference on nomination of the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team or from the floor for a term of eight years. The terms of four members shall expire at the end of one quadrennium and the terms of the other five members shall expire at the end of the next quadrennium. Five members of the committee shall be lay and four members shall be clergy. The chancellor(s) of the annual conference shall be ex officio members of the Rules Committee. The Rules Committee shall review the Virginia Annual Conference Rules and Policies between sessions of the annual conference, and make its recommendations to the annual conference. Proposed amendments to the Virginia Annual Conference Rules and Policies and any other matters of parliamentary order or procedure in the business of the annual conference shall be referred to the Rules Committee.
19. Site Selection, Committee on. There shall be a Committee on Site Selection consisting of four members, one half lay and one half clergy, elected on nomination of the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team for a term of eight years. The committee shall be divided into two classes with the terms of one class to expire at the end of one quadrennium and the terms of the other class to expire at the end of the next quadrennium. This committee shall make arrangements for the meeting of the annual conference and shall recommend a location for the meeting of the annual conference a minimum of five years in advance.
20. Status and Role of Women in the Church, Commission on the. There shall be a Virginia Annual Conference Commission on the Status and Role of Women in The United Methodist Church amenable to the Common Table for Church Vitality. The membership shall consist of one representative from each district plus six persons at large elected by the annual conference. In addition the conference United Methodist Women shall name one member. The Bishop may appoint to the commission a District Superintendent to serve as Cabinet representative with voice but not vote. The majority of the commission, including both lay and clergy, shall be women. The chairperson shall be a woman.
21. Trustees, Board of. There shall be a Board of Trustees consisting of 12 members, elected by the annual conference, organized and with responsibilities as set forth in the 2012 Book of Discipline (¶¶ 2512 2516).

C. TASK FORCES

A task force may be established to accomplish a specific objective. If it is organized by direction of the annual conference, the authorizing legislation shall contain a termination date for the task force. Such task force desiring continuation beyond its termination date shall seek and receive their established termination dates (June or December). Task forces should not as a general rule exist beyond a four year term. Task forces may request funding for conference projects, but no task force shall disburse funds unless so directed by its parent board or requested to do so by the Common Table for Church Vitality and approved by the Council on Finance and Administration in its report to annual conference. A conference organized task force continuing beyond its first year shall annually request, in its report to annual conference, funding to cover operational costs in the succeeding year.

D. CHANGING STRUCTURE OF PROGRAM BOARD OR AGENCY

District members at large of the annual conference shall be elected by the lay members of the district conference. Nominations may be made in whatever manner the district determines, but provision shall always be made for nomination from the floor. Districts are encouraged to include members-at-large from non-chartered faith communities being served by clergy with voting rights at Annual Conference, provided that they meet the provisions of 2012 Book of Discipline ¶602.4. Election shall be by written ballot, and those nominees receiving the most votes shall be the members at large, and the rest shall be alternates in order of the votes received up to the number of members at large and alternates allotted to each district by the annual conference.

E. RECORD OF DISTRICT CONFERENCE

The secretary of the district conference shall keep an accurate record of the proceedings and send a copy to the secretary of the annual conference within 30 days following the district conference.

VI. THE DISTRICT CONFERENCE

A. DISTRICT CONFERENCE SHALL MEET AT LEAST ONCE A YEAR

Each district within the Virginia Conference shall hold a session of the district conference at least once during the annual conference year (in accordance with the 2012 Book of Discipline, ¶¶ 657 and 658).

B. AGENDA

The district superintendent, in consultation with the district lay leader, shall set the agenda for the district conference. The agenda shall include a report from the district committee on ordained ministry. Members of the district conference shall elect the district lay leader (¶659.2) for a term of not less than four years and not more than six years. The district conference shall also elect the committee on the district superintendency (¶668.1,2), the district trustees (¶2517) and such other officers as it deems appropriate. The district committee on ordained ministry (¶665.1) and the district board of church location and building (¶2518) are approved or elected by the annual conference.

C. MEMBERSHIP

The membership of each district conference shall be composed of the following: all ordained and commissioned clergy, licensed local pastors, lay supply pastors, certified lay ministers, diaconal ministers, and deaconesses and home missionaries related to that district; a church lay leader, chairperson of the church council or its equivalent body, church school superintendent, president of the United Methodist Women, and president of the chartered United Methodist Men from each local church in the district; the district steward from each charge; the lay member of the annual conference from each charge; and three members at large, one of whom shall be a youth, elected by each charge conference; District officers who are members of the district conference include: the chairperson of the district Council on Ministries or equivalent body, the district trustees, the district treasurer, the district lay leader and associate lay leaders, the president of the district United Methodist Women, the president of the district United Methodist Men, a representative of the district youth council, the president of the district United Methodist Young Adults, the district coordinators of children, youth, young adult, adult, and family ministries, other district coordinators and directors, five youth members elected by the district youth council and five young adult members elected by the District Council on Ministries (or equivalent body). Special attention shall be given to inclusiveness.

D. ELECTION OF DISTRICT LAY MEMBERS AT LARGE OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE

District members at large of the annual conference shall be elected by the lay members of the district conference. Nominations may be made in whatever manner the district determines, but provision shall always be made for nomination from the floor. Districts are encouraged to include members-at-large from non-chartered faith communities being served by clergy with voting rights at Annual Conference, provided that they meet the provisions of 2012 Book of Discipline ¶602.4. Election shall be by written ballot, and those nominees receiving the most votes shall be the members at large, and the rest shall be alternates in order of the votes received up to the number of members at large and alternates allotted to each district by the annual conference.

E. RECORD OF DISTRICT CONFERENCE

The secretary of the district conference shall keep an accurate record of the proceedings and send a copy to the secretary of the annual conference within 30 days following the district conference.

VII. RULES OF ORDER AND PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

A. RULES THAT APPLY WHEN THE CHAIRPERSON STANDS

When the chairperson stands and calls the conference to order, no member shall speak, address the chair, or stand while the chairperson stands.

B. VOTING AREA

The annual conference shall fix the voting area of the conference at the opening business session and voting on all annual conference matters must take place within the prescribed area. The voting area of the conference shall be separated from other areas at the meeting site. All entrances to the voting area shall be staffed by ushers and admission shall be by official badge only. All members of the conference within the voting area when the vote is taken shall be entitled to vote except such persons as otherwise are ineligible to vote.

C. SUFFICIENT SEATS SHALL BE PROVIDED

Sufficient seats shall be provided for all lay, clergy, provisional, and associate members and all youth members, members on special assignment, and all other persons entitled by the Virginia Annual Conference Rules and Policies to be within the voting area of the conference.

D. VOTERS TO DISPLAY PROPER CREDENTIALS

Members of the conference and others entitled to be seated within the voting area of the conference shall be furnished proper credentials as set forth in Appendix "A" (attached). During balloting, ballots will be distributed to and collected from only those persons displaying the proper credentials.

E. METHOD OF VOTING

Method of voting shall be determined by the presiding officer. A count vote may be ordered on call of any member supported by one third of the members present and voting, in which case the members shall arise as they are able from their seats and stand until counted.

F. EXCEPTIONS TO THE NO INTERRUPTION RULE

No member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a question on the matter under consideration, a breach of order, a misrepresentation, to direct the attention of the conference to the fact that the time has arrived for a special order, or to raise a very urgent question of high privilege.

G. LIMITS ON SPEAKING

No member shall speak: 1. more than once on the same question if any member who has not spoken desires the floor; 2. more than twice on the same subject under the same motion; 3. any longer than five minutes, unless this five minute period may be limited or extended by a two thirds vote of the conference.

H. HIGH PRIVILEGE

A member claiming the floor for a very urgent question of high privilege shall be allowed to indicate briefly the nature of the question, and if it be adjudged by the chair to be such, he or she may proceed until the chairperson judges that he or she has exhausted the privilege.

I. CALL FOR DIVISION OF ANY QUESTION

Before a vote is taken any member shall have the right to call for a division of any question, if it is subject to such division as he or she indicates. If no member objects, the division shall be made; but if there is objection, the chair shall put the question of division to vote, not waiting for a second.

J. MOTIONS TO BE PRESENTED IN WRITING

For the benefit of the secretary, and for the sake of clarification, motions, including amendments, shall be presented in writing.

K. SUSPENSION OF THE RULES

The operation of any of the provisions of the Virginia Annual Conference Rules and Policies or of these Rules of Order and Procedure may be suspended at any time by a two thirds vote of the conference.

L. CHANGE OR AMENDMENT OF THE RULES

The Virginia Annual Conference Rules and Policies and these Rules of Order and Procedure may be amended or changed by a two thirds vote of the conference; provided the proposed change or amendment has originated in the Rules Committee, or has been presented to the conference in writing and referred to this committee, which committee shall report thereon not later than the following day.

M. ROBERTS RULES OF ORDER APPLIES

The current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall apply to any and all situations not covered elsewhere by these rules.

CHARTER FOR THE COMMON TABLE FOR CHURCH VITALITY

I. PURPOSE

The Common Table for Church Vitality ("Common Table") serves to coordinate and prioritize the ministries and resources of the Virginia Conference. It nurtures, interprets and promotes the vision of the Conference, as well as the mandates of The Book of Discipline which relate to Conference work. The Common Table lives out the values of the Conference (stated below in I.B.) in its own work, and advocates for the presence and observance of those values in the work and ministry of the Conference.

A. MISSION

The mission of the Virginia Annual Conference is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by equipping its local churches for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church; all to the glory of God..

B. VALUES

The Conference shall embody the following values as it endeavors to assist all churches in the task of making disciples:

- Be led by the Holy Spirit.
- Grow spiritually and numerically.
- Serve the local church.
- Connect with and equip the local church for ministries of welcome, nurture and transformation.
- Develop and live out ministries to the poor.
- Strive for excellence.
- Model servant-leadership at all levels.
- Honor diversity and teach inclusivity.
- Practice simplicity.
- Communicate effectively, that others might also.
- Focus on ministry.

II. MEMBERSHIP

The Common Table provides spiritual leadership for the Conference to carry out the purpose of this Charter. The Common Table includes the following 13 voting positions and 2 non-voting positions:

A. Voting Members

1. Presiding Bishop
2. Conference Lay Leader
3. director of Connectional Ministries
4. Cabinet representative assigned by the bishop
5. Commission on Ethnic Minority Concerns and Advocacy representative (in accordance with ¶643.5)
6. Chair of Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries (in accordance with ¶634.3)
7. Eight at-large members equally divided between clergy and laity in annual classes, including two young adult/youth representatives, as elected in III

B. Non-voting Members

1. Representative from Council on Finance and Administration assigned by the Council on Finance and Administration

The elected Secretary of the Annual Conference shall serve as Secretary for the Common Table without vote.

It is both desirable and consistent with our Conference values that the members of the Common Table represent the diversity of our Conference.

III. SELECTION OF AT-LARGE COMMON TABLE MEMBERS

1. Four of the Common Table at-large members (2 clergy and 2 laity) are nominated by the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team and elected by the annual conference. Two of these at-large members must be young adult/youth representatives.

2. Four of the Common Table at-large members (2 clergy and 2 laity) are nominated by the Bishop and elected by the annual conference.

IV. TERMS OF SERVICE FOR AT-LARGE MEMBERS

At-large members serve four year terms and are placed in annual classes. If a person is elected to fill an unexpired term of two years or less, that person is eligible for reelection to a full four year term. In the event that a member resigns or dies during his/her term, a replacement shall be nominated by the Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team or the Bishop, according to method of nomination, and elected by the Annual Conference with the replacement serving until the end of the original term. Any at-large member of the Common Table who is absent from two meetings without excuse or from three consecutive meetings for any reason shall automatically cease to be a member of the Common Table.

V. MEETINGS

The Common Table will meet at least quarterly, often in extended day format, to enhance the depth of its work and its own spiritual formation as a faith community. By invitation of the Common Table, others may meet with the Common Table to enhance its knowledge and understanding. Meetings shall be open, consistent with the provisions of The Book of Discipline.

VI. OFFICERS

The Bishop, Conference Lay Leader and Director of Connectional Ministries will lead the Common Table in interpreting the Conference vision. The Director of Connectional Ministries is the Chairperson. The Conference Lay Leader is the Vice Chairperson. The Secretary of the Annual Conference is the Secretary of the Common Table, without vote.

VII. COMMITTEES*A. PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

The Common Table shall appoint a Personnel Committee annually from within its members to assist with the selection and employment of all Conference program staff, both lay and clergy. The Common Table shall appoint the chair of the Personnel Committee. The Director of Connectional Ministries shall serve as an ex officio member of this committee without vote.

B. GRANTS COMMITTEE

The Common Table may appoint a Grants Committee annually from among the members of the Conference to advise the Common Table on the following:

1. Grants for connectional ministries beyond the local level, funded through the Conference Benevolence apportionment, and
2. Program grants for local ministry projects funded through the Conference Benevolence apportionment, the United Methodist Women and the Church Extension Fund.

C. OTHER COMMITTEES

The Common Table may designate such other committees as are necessary for its functioning.

VIII. SELECTION OF DIRECTOR OF CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES AND STAFF

A. The Annual Conference shall elect annually upon nomination of the Bishop, and in consultation with the Common Table's Personnel Committee and the Cabinet, an executive officer to be known as the Director of Connectional Ministries. The responsibilities of the Director of Connectional Ministries shall be but are not limited to the following:

1. To serve as the Chairperson of the Common Table and Co-chairperson, with the Conference Lay Leader, of the Conference Leadership Development and Discovery Team.
2. To be a communication link between the Conference program agencies and Jurisdictional and General Conference program agencies.
3. To facilitate communication among the Conference program agencies and the local churches.
4. To serve as a resource person for district programs and the Common Table in the program planning, implementation and evaluation process.
5. To supervise the Conference program staff persons.
6. To serve on other Conference agencies as determined by the Annual Conference, and/or by the Common Table.

B. Each clergy staff person shall be nominated annually by the Personnel Committee of the Common Table with the request that the Bishop would appoint him or her. Each lay staff person shall be nominated annually by the Personnel Committee of Common Table and employed by the Common Table. Nominations for staff members shall be presented to the Common Table after consultation with the appropriate boards and agencies.

C. The Director of United Methodist Communications shall carry out the policies and program of Virginia United Methodist Communications, Inc. and shall cooperate with all agencies of the Conference in the use of the media to disseminate news that promotes the diverse work of the Church's life.

D. The Business Manager/Treasurer of the Annual Conference shall serve the Common Table and all of the boards and agencies in direct support of their work and shall oversee the financial operations of the Common Table. In that capacity, the Business Manager/Treasurer shall coordinate this work with the director of Connectional Ministries.

E. All Conference program staff shall be employed by and amenable to the Common Table. The director of Connectional Ministries shall be responsible for the administration and direction of the program staff.

F. Administrative/Technical/Professional Staff of the Common Table shall be employed by the director of Connectional Ministries in consultation with the appropriate elected staff member as may be requested and as provision for same is made by the Common Table.

IX. FINANCES

The Common Table shall present a budget to the Council on Finance and Administration to cover the expenses for the work of the Common Table and the boards and agencies, committees, commissions, task forces and other groups for which it is responsible. The right of the Annual Conference boards and agencies to be heard by the Council on Finance and Administration shall not be denied, as provided by ¶614 the 2012 Book of Discipline.

X. MEETINGS OF BOARD AND COMMISSION CHAIRS

Semi-annual (or as often as necessary) meetings of Chairs (or designated representatives) of Conference Program Boards and Commissions that are under the oversight of Common Table will be held for the purpose of aligning conference program and mission with the vision of the Conference. A report of the Chairs' meetings will be provided to Common Table to assist in its responsibilities for its purpose of coordinating and prioritizing the ministries and resources of the Virginia Conference. The boards and commissions that are amenable to Common Table are:

- Board of Church and Society
- Board of Communications
- Board of Discipleship
- Board of Global Ministries
- Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries
- Board of Laity
- Church Development Team
- Commission on Disabilities
- Commission on Ethnic Minority Concerns and Advocacy
- Commission on Status and Role of Women

Other Attendees

- a. Conference Staff serving as primary staff resource to these boards and commissions will attend these meetings with voice but without vote.
- b. The Presidents (or designated representatives) of the Conference United Methodist Men and United Methodist Women will be encouraged to participate in these meetings.
- c. Chairs (or designated representatives) of Conference Administrative Boards that are not under the purview of Common Table will be encouraged to participate in these meetings.

The Director of Connectional Ministries shall chair these meetings.

XI. AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the charter not in conflict with The Book of Discipline may be made by a majority vote of the Annual Conference and originate as follows:

1. upon recommendation of the Common Table, or
2. upon petition of a member of the Annual Conference at least 60 days prior to the next annual conference session.

The Common Table shall review the petition(s) and submit its recommendations to the Annual Conference together with the proposed amendment.

XII. EFFECTIVE DATE OF CHARTER

The Charter for the Common Table for Church Vitality shall become effective January 1, 2006.

VIRGINIA CONFERENCE GUIDELINES FOR MOVING EXPENSES

A charge, district, or conference agency receiving a new clergy shall be responsible for all his/her moving expenses under the following provisions:

1. A maximum weight limit as weighed in the van of 16,000 lbs. Charges for moving goods over 16,000 lbs shall be the responsibility of the clergy.
2. A maximum allowance for cartons and packing of $500.
3. A limit of $125 for piano handling.
4. Where there is a pastor's study at the church and extra stops must be made by the mover for loading and unloading books or office equipment, a maximum allowance of not more than $165.
5. Seminarian entering the Virginia Conference from outside the conference shall be entitled to the moving expenses listed above with the limitation that the maximum total reimbursement shall be $4000.
6. Clergy other than seminarians entering the Virginia Conference from outside the Conference shall be entitled to the moving expenses listed above with the limitation that mileage-based moving expenses shall be based on the distance from the appropriate boundary of the Conference to the place of appointment.
7. Insurance (replacement value equivalency) shall be provided by the receiving church/charge for personal injury or damage to clergy family property during the move. The matter of additional insurance on furnishings above that provided by the hauler shall be the responsibility of the persons moving.
8. If more economical, moves of less than 30 miles shall be arranged at the hourly rate.
9. The Cabinet will review annually the costs of moving and update the moving allowances as necessary.
10. All churches/charges should build a moving expense fund by annual appropriations for moving expenses regardless of which year the move may be expected to occur. The Cabinet strongly urges churches/charges to budget an amount equal to 1/6 of the most recent move.
11. All moving of clergy will be done professionally and in a responsible manner.
12. Clergy are expected to secure at least two estimates for comparison. Moving estimates must be submitted to the S/PPRC of the receiving church in a prompt manner. Clergy are expected to exercise reasonable standards of stewardship when determining what items to keep/move or dispose. Unless there are physical limitations all clergy are responsible for packing of books, linens and general household effects. The new relationship between clergy and receiving congregations has a much better chance of success if the clergy family avoids the appearance of entitlement.
13. Additional information on "moving tips" is posted on the conference website.

Reviewed and updated by Cabinet, 2/13

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

1. The Philosophy of and the Reasons for the Equitable Compensation Program.
  - a. "Within the people of God, there are those called to the representative ministry ordained and diaconal. Such callings are evidenced by special gifts, graces and promise of usefulness. . . The ordained ministers are called to specialized ministries of Word, Sacrament, and Order. Through these distinctive functions ordained ministers devote themselves wholly to the work of the church and to the upbuilding of the general ministry. They do this through careful study of the Scripture and its faithful interpretation, through effective proclamation of the Gospel and responsible administration of the Sacraments, through diligent pastoral leadership of their congregation for fruitful discipleship, and by following the guidance of the Holy Spirit in witnessing beyond the congregation in the local community and to the ends of the earth. The ordained ministry is defined by its intentionally representative character, by its passion for the hallowing of life, and by its concern to link all local ministries with the widest boundaries of the Christian community." (Book of Discipline, ¶¶108 and 110)
  - b. Assumption of the obligations of the itinerancy, required to be made at the time of admission into the traveling connection, put the church under the counter obligation of providing support for the entire ministry of the church. In view of the expectation which the church holds for its clergy in the area of professional preparation and competence, it is incumbent upon the church to see that compensation is adequate for the professional and personal requirements of its clergy, and that they are determined and administered in a manner appropriate to a professional understanding of the ministerial vocation.
  - c. The Commission on Equitable Compensation is for the purpose of receiving and appropriating funds to enable clergy compensation to conform to a minimum scale set from time to time by conference, and to provide supplementation to compensation in certain cases where the needs of the charge for aid are greater than would be met by merely applying the minimum scale. In performing this task, the commission should be guided by the following purposes:
    - (1) To upgrade competence in ministry.

- (2) To provide a living wage for clergy.
- (3) To make possible an adequate ministry in places of particular need.
- (4) To facilitate the assignment of ministers of appropriate skills where compensation would otherwise be a barrier.
- (5) To work toward the removal of disparities in compensation of clergy which cannot be justified on the basis of competence, experience, or diligence.
- d. Far more than an appropriation agency, the commission has the further purpose of providing incentive to churches and conference agencies to work toward a greater competence in ministry, which will in turn result, in most cases, in more adequate compensation to the clergy.
- 2. Types of Equitable Compensation Support.
  - a. Minimum Compensation Support:
The commission annually proposes to conference a schedule of minimum compensation for ministers in the various grades of conference relationship. In approving this schedule, the conference guarantees each of its ministers a certain minimum compensation. Unless a minister voluntarily waives this right, he/she is entitled to an appointment where the compensation, including supplements from the conference, district, and other sources, will be at least the minimum for his/her category.
  - b. Compensation supplementation is support provided charges which require support in addition to that called for by the Minimum Compensation program. Such charges fall into two groups:
    - (1) Charges with part-time or retired pastors.
    - (2) Charges where there is a need for compensation higher than minimum.
  - c. Sustentation grants are a means by which the commission may provide emergency aid to ministers of the conference who may be in special need. Sustentation grants are not considered part of the minister's salary or compensation.
- 3. Money for the Equitable Compensation Fund.
  - a. The grants and administrative expenses of the commission are borne by the Equitable Compensation Fund.
  - b. Annually the commission estimates the amount needed for Equitable Compensation grants, and with the concurrence of the Council on Finance and Administration, recommends an amount to the Annual Conference to be apportioned to the districts and charges of the conference.
  - c. The General Conference requires that the Equitable Compensation Fund be one of the prior claims items in the local church budget, being paid in exact proportion to the amount paid on the ministerial salary or salaries of the church. (Discipline ¶719).
- 4. For Equitable Compensation purposes, the term "compensation" includes the amounts of ministerial support designated as salary, travel and utilities allowance, (but excluding parsonage heating costs).
- 5. The Minimum Compensation Schedule shall be recommended by the commission and the schedule, as approved by the Annual Conference, shall be published in the conference Journal.
- 6. Eligibility for Minimum Compensation Support.
  - a. The clergy must be rendering full-time service: That is, their efforts must fully satisfy the Disciplinary description of the office of the minister (Paragraph 108, quoted in section 1.a. of this report above) and they must, in the judgement of his/her district superintendent, be rendering full-time service to the charge to which they have been appointed as pastor or associate pastor.
  - b. The "floor" or minimum which a charge must pay (obtained from sources other than Equitable Compensation Fund) in order to be eligible to receive minimum salary aid, shall be recommended by the commission and the schedule, as approved by the Annual Conference, shall be published in the conference Journal.
- 7. Eligibility for Salary Supplementation.
  - a. The church or charge, whether requiring a full-time or part-time minister, must fall into one of the following categories:
    - (1) Compensation for new church pastors shall be determined by the Equitable Compensation Commission. Support to decrease each year after charter and reduced to zero in not more than seven years.
    - (2) Inner-city church.
    - (3) Geographically isolated church or charge.
    - (4) Mission church or charge.
    - (5) Larger or cooperative parish.
    - (6) Innovative ministry.
    - (7) Ethnic minority church.
 The charge must pay the "floor" or seek funds from other sources to reach the floor. The difference between the floor and the actual salary is to be absorbed by the Equitable Compensation Fund. The commission may make increases in compensation for ethnic minority pastors until the average compensation of ethnic pastors equal the average compensation of all pastors of the conference having similar training and experience.
    - (8) A charge, the serving of which involves unusual expenses.
    - (9) A charge which makes unusual demands in ministry.
    - (10) A charge where incentive is needed for raising the minister's compensation.
    - (11) A charge or charges served by a clergy couple where one or both have waived their claim to the minimum compensation (see par. 659.6).
    - (12) A charge served by a retired minister, provided that his/her compensation, including his/her pension, does not exceed the average cash salary of the conference.
  - b. The application must be supported by a recommendation of the district superintendent.
  - c. The commission strongly discourages applications from charges whose compensation is above the Conference Average Salary (CAS).
- 8. Eligibility for Sustentation Grants.
  - a. The applicant must be a minister in special need of emergency aid.
  - b. The application must be supported by a recommendation of the Bishop and the minister's district superintendent with a concurrence of a majority of the district superintendents.
- 9. Charges receiving support from the Equitable Compensation Commission are encouraged to take steps regularly toward becoming self-supporting and toward the increasing of the total level of support of their ministers. The following actions should encourage these steps:
  - a. The district superintendents will annually review each application for Equitable Compensation aid with the appropriate charge conference.
  - b. Equitable Compensation aid to each full-time pastor will be reduced $1 for each $2 increase established and paid by the charge. When salary paid by the church exceeds the minimum applicable level the Equitable Compensation support will cease, unless the Equitable Compensation Commission waives this requirement under special circumstances.
- 10. How applications for aid are submitted.
  - a. All applications (except those for Sustentation Grants) shall be submitted on forms provided by the commission.
  - b. Applications for Sustentation Grants shall be made in writing by means of letters from the minister, district superintendent, and the Bishop.
  - c. Applications shall include the name and district of the charge, the number of churches on the charge, the name and ministerial category of the minister, a statement of whether the minister is serving full- or part-time, together with all amounts of ministerial support listed by source both for the period ending and the period beginning. The application shall state the total salary needed for the minister and the amount of aid necessary to obtain that total.
  - d. Applications shall be prepared, signed by the secretary of the charge conference and the district superintendent.
  - e. A copy of the current church/charge budget must be submitted with the application.
  - f. Applications shall be submitted to the conference treasurer who shall provide each member of the commission with a copy of each application at least one week before the meeting at which the application will be considered.
  - g. Applications are generally submitted late in the calendar year for support to begin on the following January 1. The deadline for such applications is listed each year in the conference Calendar.
  - h. Changes in the applications are often made at the time of Annual Conference, and occasionally at other times.
- 11. How appropriations are made.
  - a. Each fall a hearing is scheduled by the commission in which district superintendents may support their applications and answer questions.

X. CONFERENCE RULES AND POLICIES

- b. Requirements which a charge must meet in order to receive Minimum Compensation Support may be waived by a majority vote of the commission.
  - c. Compensation Supplementation will be granted by action of the commission on recommendations of the district superintendent in the categories described in Paragraph 7.
  - d. Sustentation Grants for emergency needs will be granted by action of the commission on recommendations of the district superintendent and the Bishop, with the concurrence of a majority of the district superintendents.
12. Methods of Payment.
- a. Minimum compensation support and supplementation will be paid by the conference treasurer and sent directly to the charge receiving aid the first week of each month. Also included in this check will be the Equitable Compensation portion of the MPP/CPP.
  - b. The commission chairperson shall keep the conference treasurer regularly informed as to the appropriations made by the commission and any changes in payments which may be necessary because of appointments or changes in ministerial status.
13. Recommendations to the churches of the conference.
- a. The commission urges that consolidation of small churches and charges be promoted throughout the conference so that the conference can continue to provide a more adequate level of compensation support of its ministers.
  - b. The commission discourages the dividing of strong circuits and the establishment of weak stations that cannot continue to provide adequate compensation support.
  - c. The commission recommends that all charges, in setting their minister's compensation, consider an annual cost of living increase in addition to an appropriate merit increase.

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION GUIDELINES

The commission, at the request of the Bishop and the Cabinet, developed guidelines for requests, approval and time periods for supplementation provided by conference funds. It is felt that these guidelines will provide a uniform standard across the conference in support of the various charges that may require funds.

I. New Requests

A. New Growth Situation Request/New Churches

1. Request must be approved by the District Board of Church Location and Building.
2. Request with the written District Board of Church Location approval giving rationale for the request should be received by the November Equitable Compensation meeting in order to be approved for the following appointment year.
3. Will be funded according to the following formula:
  - 100% for first 18 months (e.g., July 2006 through Dec. 2007)
  - 80% second full calendar year
  - 60% third full calendar year
  - continued reduction at 20% per year

B. New Mission/Ethnic Churches

1. Request must be approved by the District Board of Church Location and Building.
2. Request with the written District Board of Church Location approval giving rationale for the request should be received by the November Equitable Compensation meeting in order to be approved for the following appointment year.
3. Will be funded according to the following formula:
  - 100% for first 30 months (e.g., July 2006 through Dec. 2008)
  - 85% third full calendar year
  - 70% fourth full calendar year
  - continued reduction at 15% per year

It is suggested that if a new church or mission is not expected to be self-sufficient at the end of this time, that alternate funding sources be identified (i.e. district or sponsoring churches) while a new church is in the planning stages.

II. Ongoing Requests

All churches requesting Equitable Compensation assistance, who are presently receiving Equitable Compensation assistance, must have a yearly stewardship campaign, and submit Table I and II of the Year-End Reports, the Dec. 31 year-end treasurer's report and are asked to adhere to the following schedules:

A. Ongoing "Maintenance" churches

All churches in the "Maintenance Category" should make every attempt to be off Equitable Compensation at the end of five years. In order to do this, the commission asks that any request be reduced at least 20% from the present year's request as follows:

- 100% (present year)
- 80% second year
- 60% third year
- 40% fourth year
- 20% fifth year

If a church cannot adhere to this schedule, letters detailing the reasons must be submitted each year by the District Superintendent and the Church Council of the church/charge receiving Equitable Compensation assistance.

B. Ongoing Ethnic Minority/Mission Churches

All churches in the "Ethnic Minority/Mission Categories" should make every attempt to be off Equitable Compensation at the rate of 10% a year, whether by becoming self-sufficient or by developing new forms of funding. The suggested schedule is as follows:

- 100% (present year)
- 90% second year
- 80% third year
- Continued reduction at 10% per year

If a church cannot adhere to this schedule, letters detailing the reasons must be submitted each year by the District Superintendent and the Church Council of the church/charge receiving Equitable Compensation assistance.

MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR THE PARSONAGE

The 2012 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church states that the Church Council shall "review the recommendation of the committee on pastor-parish relations regarding provision of adequate housing for the pastor(s), and report the same to the charge conference for approval. Housing provisions shall comply with the annual conference housing policy and parsonage standards. Housing shall not be considered as part of compensation or remuneration." (§252.4e)

The Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee also has consultative power and responsibilities for the parsonage (§258.2g(16)). This committee is to consult with the Church Council to provide for "housing (which may be a church-owned parsonage or housing allowance in lieu of parsonage if in compliance with the policy of the annual conference)." This paragraph also includes these words: "The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the pastor's family as the property of the church and by the church as a place of privacy for the pastor's family. The committee will follow up to assure timely resolution of parsonage problems affecting the health of the pastor or pastor's family. The chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, the chairperson of the board of trustees, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to assure proper maintenance."

The Board of Trustees of the local church is charged with supervision, oversight and care of property, including the church-owned parsonage. The Charge Conference may assign some of these duties to the chair of a Parsonage Committee.

I. The House

A. Ownership: The parsonage is acquired and maintained by the charge, subject to the direction of the Charge Conference. The location, purchase, and/or building of a parsonage must be approved by the District Board of Church Location and Building. (§2544)

B. Title to Property: The parsonage property must be held by the charge Board of Trustees in trust for the use and occupancy of pastors in the United Methodist Church. (§2503.2)

C. Location: The parsonage of a station church should be located within the geographical parish of the church. The parsonage of a charge should be near the center of the charge and accessible to members. It should be convenient to a school, a shopping area, and church of the charge. Preferably parsonages should not be located immediately adjacent to the church, so that the pastor's family will be ensured reasonable privacy. Such location also facilitates resale.

D. Planning and Financing: The purchase or building plan must be approved by the Charge Conference after 10 days' notice of the meeting. The pastor, district superintendent, and the district Board of Church Location and Building must consent to the purchase. Provisions of the Book of Discipline must be observed. The sale or relocation must conform to guidelines in the Discipline.

E. Administration: The Discipline requires the Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee to see that the Trustees provide adequate and comfortable residence for the pastor and maintain its proper upkeep and furnishings. "The chairperson of the Trustees or the chairperson of the parsonage committee if one exists, the chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to ensure proper maintenance." (§2533.4 and §258.2g(16)). The pastor's family should be consulted in the selection of equipment, fixtures, and color schemes. (See Annual Review Inventory form). The Annual Review Inventory Report shall be submitted to the District Superintendent and will be reviewed by the Parsonages' Support Committee.

The Trustees' annual budget should be adequate to provide maintenance of the parsonage and necessary replacement of furnishings for which the Trustees have responsibility.

Since insurance carried by the church will not cover personal effects of the parsonage family, the family is urged to secure a tenant's policy.

F. Inventory: A complete inventory of all furnishings, and equipment shall be maintained, one copy with the Pastor-Staff Parish Relations Committee and/or the Trustees, a second copy with the parsonage family, and a third copy for the district superintendent attached to the Annual Review Inventory. This inventory should include the purchase date of items listed, purchase price, and any major repair work done on each. Condition of furnishings at the time of the annual review should be noted. (See Parsonage Inventory Form)

II. House Arrangement and Equipment

A. Minimum Size: The living room shall measure at least 280 square feet; or living and dining room combination shall be 330 square feet. Bedrooms shall measure no less than 144 square feet each, with one not less than 168 square feet.

B. Rooms: The parsonage should have a minimum of seven rooms: at least three bedrooms with ample closet space in each, living room, dining room, kitchen, study (if not furnished outside the parsonage), at least 1½ baths, and ample dry storage space large enough for major pieces of furniture and large packing boxes. An additional bedroom, a family room, a utility room, and a garage are also desirable.

If a pastor's office is included, it should be on the first floor with an outside entrance or entry from front hall or both or on the terrace level with outside entry. Usual office furnishings, telephone, bookshelves, and a storage closet for supplies should be provided.

Newly constructed or newly purchased parsonages shall include on the ground floor level one room which could be used as a bedroom by a person with a handicapping condition, a fully accessible bathroom and laundry facilities. (§2533.6)

C. Housing Necessities:

- Central heating plant
- Complete insulation, including weather stripping, storm windows, ceiling, sidewall and floor insulation. Carpeting is desirable as a further means of insulation.
- Central air conditioning is desirable everywhere, and a necessity in some areas of the conference.
- Annual servicing of all heating and air conditioning equipment.
- At least one telephone jack on each floor.
- Dead bolt locks on all exterior doors.
- Smoke detectors and fire extinguishers.
- Housing must be maintained free of health hazards.
- Exterminator/pest control service and an annual termite inspection.
- All major appliances, including washer, dryer, stove, refrigerator, automatic hot water heater.
- Kitchen: sink, built-in cabinets, a storage or supply closet, counter work surfaces, adequate electrical outlets properly grounded. Where possible, a garbage disposal and dishwasher should be provided.
- At least one telephone permanently in the house.

D. Furnishings and Maintenance:

1. Provided by the Church/Charge:

• Furniture for the parsonage living room, foyer, dining room, and kitchen shall be provided. If a parsonage has more than three bedrooms, the church/charge shall provide furnishings for all bedrooms over three. All parsonage wall-to-wall floor coverings or rugs shall be furnished by the church/charge. Regular professional cleaning shall be the responsibility of the church/charge for all living spaces furnished by church/charge.

• Window shades or blinds shall be provided in all rooms. Window treatments, and the responsibility for their maintenance/cleaning, shall be provided for the living room, dining room, and foyer.

• Adequate light fixtures/lamps shall be provided for all living spaces furnished.

2. Provided by the Pastor:

- Furniture as desired for all rooms except living room, foyer, dining room, kitchen, and bedrooms more than three.
- Window treatments as desired for rooms other than living room, foyer and dining room, as well as their maintenance/cleaning.
- Bed, bath, and kitchen linens.
- Cookware, utensils, and small appliances.
- China, crystal/glassware, flatware.
- Additional accessories such as pictures, lamps, family pieces, etc. which personalize a home.

E. Exterior

- Trees and shrubbery should be provided where needed.
- Landscaping and normal fertilization shall be the responsibility of the church/charge.
- Cutting of the lawn and trimming of the shrubs is the responsibility of the residents.
- A lawn mover, adequate for the size of the lawn, shall be provided by the church/charge.
- A TV antenna or cable hook-up should be provided.

III. General Guidelines

A. Privacy and Care: Since the parsonage is the home of the pastor and his/her family, their rights and privacy should be respected by the congregation. The occupants must ensure that the parsonage receives proper care.

B. Gifts: A written statement should accompany any gift of furniture or furnishings, designating whether the gift is to permanently remain at the parsonage or is a personal gift to the pastor's family. Gifts shall be received without conditions and with right of refusal.

C. Placement of Furniture: Use and placement of church-owned furnishings within the parsonage shall be at the discretion of the parsonage occupants.

D. When a move occurs, refer to the "Policy at the Time of Change of Pastors" below.

Updated by Cabinet, July 2002, revised 12/2009, updated 1/2013

POLICY AT THE TIME OF CHANGE OF PASTORS

I. The Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee will supply to the district superintendent the list of people serving on the Local Church Parsonage Committee with the chairperson's address and telephone number.

X. CONFERENCE RULES AND POLICIES

- II. The district superintendent will contact the chairperson of the Local Church Parsonage Committee asking that the committee meet at the parsonage with the pastor, pastor's spouse (if applicable), and if requested by the district superintendent, a representative from the Parsonages Support Committee to inspect the parsonage, using the following guidelines:
- A. Check complete inventory (see Inventory for Leaving the Parsonage).
  - B. Inspect each room for needed repairs, refurbishing, paint, etc. with attention to who is accountable beyond normal wear and tear.
  - C. Inspect electrical, heating, cooling, and plumbing systems..
  - D. Evaluate conditions of structure, inside and outside, including church-owned furnishings, appliances and systems.
  - E. Pastor shall provide information about condition of appliances and systems known only to occupant.
- III. After parsonage inspection by the Local Church Parsonage Committee and the pastor:
- A. The Committee will:
    - Work with the Church Council to arrange for needed repairs, refurbishing, painting, etc.
    - Floors cleaned and waxed, rugs shampooed.
    - Keep the district superintendent informed concerning condition of the parsonage.
    - Inspect parsonage again nearer moving time.
    - Check the Parsonage Inventory with the parsonage family before their departure, and with the new parsonage family upon their arrival.
    - Have a representative of the Committee at the parsonage as the parsonage family moves.
    - Make necessary last minute corrections to the parsonage before the new family arrives.
    - Make sure that all utilities remain connected, the deposit for public utilities having been made by the church/charge.
  - B. The pastor will:
    - Leave the parsonage clean. The outgoing parsonage family is responsible for leaving the house and furnishings clean and in move-in condition. This means at least:
      - o No items should be left in storage areas (attic, garage, basement, shed, closets, etc.)
      - o Windows washed.
      - o Refrigerator emptied and cleaned.
      - o Bathrooms scrubbed.
      - o Stoves and vent hoods thoroughly cleaned.
      - o Fireplace cleaned.
      - o Yard trimmed and mowed.
      - o All garbage removed from the property.
- (see Inventory for Leaving the Parsonage form).
- Have repaired or cleaned at his/her expense, any damage due to negligence and/or pets.
  - Assure uninterrupted utility service for the incoming pastor. Utilities should be in the church's name, with the parsonage address, to avoid termination of services.
  - The parsonage family shall leave for the successor: a list of whom to call in case of.....; how to fix.....; where to find.....; and a file of guarantees, operating instructions, manuals, etc..
- IV. In those instances when a clergy moves out of a parsonage and leaves the house inadequately cleaned and/or damaged, and the parsonage requires work, the expense of which is clearly the responsibility of the outgoing clergy, then the expense for such cleaning/repair shall be billed to the outgoing minister.
- A. The Local Church Parsonage Committee and two members of the Parsonages Support Committee shall inspect the parsonage on moving day or as soon as possible and decide how much of the required cleaning/repair work, if any, is the responsibility of the outgoing pastor.
  - B. The outgoing pastor shall be notified immediately by telephone and registered mail. The decision should be communicated to the pastor immediately, and if the pastor be deemed wholly or partially responsible, then the cleaning/repair bill should be sent to the outgoing pastor.
  - C. If, after 30 days, this bill is not paid, or arrangements made to pay it, a second notice shall be sent. If, by the end of 45 days, the bill remains unpaid, a copy of the bill and the reasons for it shall be sent to the minister's current district superintendent for assistance in securing payment.

VIRGINIA CONFERENCE STATEMENT OF INVESTMENT POLICY

Introduction

The purpose of this Statement of Investment Objectives and Guidelines is to assist in the monitoring and supervision of the assets of the Virginia United Methodist Conference ("Conference"). The funds represent the Conference funds, Foundation funds, and the funds of various local churches.

- General Investment Principles
- Objectives
- Asset Allocation Guidelines
- Investment Manager Guidelines
- Investment Performance Objectives
- Performance Monitoring
- Investment Manager Responsibilities

Investment styles covered in this document include traditional investments (e.g., bonds, large cap growth and value equity) but do not include alternative investments (e.g., hedge funds, private equity, timberland).

General Investment Principles

- The funds shall be invested with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person would use in the investment of a Foundation of like character and with like aims.
- Investments shall be so diversified so as to minimize the risk of large losses.
- The trustees may employ one or more investment managers of varying styles and philosophies to attain their objectives.
- Cash is to be employed productively at all times by investment in short-term cash equivalents to provide safety, liquidity, and return.

Investment Management Policy

- Preservation of Capital - Consistent with their respective investment styles and philosophies, investment managers should make reasonable efforts to preserve capital, understanding that losses may occur in individual securities.
- Risk Aversion - Understanding that risk is present in all types of securities and investment styles, the trustees recognize that some risk is necessary to produce long-term investment results that are sufficient to meet the stated investment objectives. However, the investment managers are to make reasonable efforts to control risk, and will be evaluated regularly to ensure that that risk assumed is commensurate with the given investment style and objectives.
- Adherence to Investment Discipline - Investment managers are expected to adhere to the investment management styles for which they were hired. Managers will be evaluated regularly for adherence to investment discipline.

Objectives

The primary objective for the funds is to achieve an average annual net rate of return of CPI + 5.5%. The investment horizon of the funds is fairly long-term in nature.

However, the trustees are sensitive to severe short-term losses in the funds on an absolute and relative basis.

Social Responsibility

As defined in the 2008 Book of Discipline the Council on Finance and Administration ("Council") shall develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures, and management services for the Annual Conference including

- Policies governing the investment of Conference funds (except for pension funds) whether in debt or equity, short-term or long-term instruments, with the aim of maximizing funds available for mission in a manner consistent with the preservation of capital and with the Social Principles of the Church. A statement of such policies shall be presented in the conference Journal.
- Authorizing the Conference Treasurer to invest in funds in accordance with policies' and procedures established by the Council. A listing of securities held shall be printed annually in the conference Journal.

Investment Manager Guidelines

Note: The investment manager guidelines pertain to separately manager accounts. In the case of mutual funds or commingled funds, the guidelines are outlined in the fund's prospectus or offering memorandum.

General Guidelines

Restricted Transaction

- Purchasing of securities on margin or speculative short sales.
- Borrowing of money.
- Pledging, mortgaging, or hypothecating of any securities except for loans of securities that are fully collateralized.
- Purchase of the securities of the investment managers, its parent, or its affiliates.
- Purchase or sale of futures or options for speculation or leverage.
- Purchase or sale of commodities, commodity contracts, or illiquid interest in real estate or mortgages.
- Socially Responsible Investments - It shall be the policy of The United Methodist Church that all general boards and agencies, including the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and all administrative agencies and institutions, including hospitals, homes, educational institutions, Annual Conferences, foundations, and local churches, shall, in the investment of money, make a conscious effort to invest in institutions, companies, corporations, or funds whose practices are consistent with the goals outlined in the Social Principles; and shall endeavor to avoid instruments that appear likely, directly or indirectly, to support racial discrimination, violation of human rights, sweatshop or forced labor, gambling, or the production of nuclear armaments, alcoholic beverages or tobacco, or companies dealing in pornography. The boards and agencies are to give careful consideration to shareholder advocacy, including advocacy of corporate disinvestment.

Diversification

Investment managers are responsible for achieving a level of diversification in their portfolio that is prudent and consistently applied. Concentrations in individual securities, industries and economic sectors should not be so high as to subject the overall portfolio to undue risk.

Liquidity

When purchasing a security to place in a portfolio, it is expected that each manager will consider their aggregate holdings among all of their accounts to ensure that their total position in the security will not be so large as to inhibit rapid liquidation of the security.

Cash

It is expected that the managers will run fully invested portfolios. It is not the policy of the Conference and Foundation to try to time the market. It is understood that frictional cash can be a result of the buy and sell process. However, if cash exceeds 10% of the manager's portfolio, the manager should communicate to the Foundation, Conference and its consultant in writing the reasons for the high cash level and the time frame needed to get the portfolio fully invested.

Domestic Equity Manager Guidelines

- The majority of the holdings in these portfolios should consist of domestic (U.S.) common stock. Large to medium capitalization issues are preferred. Other acceptable investments on a limited basis include preferred stock, convertible securities and cash equivalents.
- Portfolios should be diversified. Specifically, 75% of each investment manager's portfolio should be diversified to the extent that no individual security makes up more than 5% of the total assets at the current market value. Discretion may be taken in the remaining 25% of a portfolio, but the manager should not allow any one position to exceed 8% of the portfolio's total market value.
- A concentration in one economic sector (e.g., transportation) should not be so great as to exceed 30% of the manager's portfolio measured at market value or two times the benchmark index, whichever is greater.
- The manager should follow a clearly defined sell discipline.

Fixed Income Manager Guidelines

- Holdings should consist primarily of domestic (U.S.) fixed-income securities with adequate liquidity. The portfolio should maintain a weighted average portfolio quality rating of at least "A." Securities that are issued or guaranteed by the U.S. Treasury or Government agencies and instrumentalities will be considered AAA.
- The maximum position in a single issuer's securities should not exceed 5% of the portfolio's assets measured at cost or 8% of the portfolio measured at market value. Holdings in securities issued or guaranteed by the U.S. Treasury or U.S. Government agencies and instrumentalities are excepted from this restriction.
- The duration of the portfolio should be targeted to that of the Lehman Brothers Intermediate Aggregate Index. The duration may range within 20% of the duration of this index.
- Purchases should be limited to readily marketable securities.
- Purchases of securities rated below investment grade are limited to 10% of the portfolio, measured at market value, and area limited to a rating of "B" or better.
- Foreign (non-U.S. domiciled) securities denominated in U.S. dollars are limited to 10% of the portfolio, measured at market value.
- Non-U.S. dollar denominated securities area prohibited.

Investment Performance Objectives

Investment managers will be reviewed on a quantitative basis in the form of quarterly reports to be provided by the consultant. Qualitative factors will also be considered such as adherence to each manager's stated investment process, and to the policy guidelines stated in this document. Managers will be reviewed on a net of fees basis.

Large Cap Value Manager

Over a rolling three-year period, the annualized total return of the manager should exceed the annualized total return of the Russell 1000 Value Index. The manager should rank in the upper 25th percentile of a universe of similar managers for the rolling three-year period

Large Cap Growth Manager

Over a rolling three-year period, the annualized total return of the manager should exceed the annualized total return of the Russell 1000 Growth Index. The manager should rank in the upper 25th percentile of a universe of similar managers for the rolling three-year period.

Bond Manager

Over a rolling three-year period, the annualized total return of the manager should exceed the annualized total return of the Lehman Brothers Intermediate Aggregate Index. The manager should rank in the upper 25th percentile of a universe of similar managers for the rolling three-year period.

Performance Meeting

The consultant and the Investment Committee shall monitor the overall performance of the funds to insure its meeting of its objectives. Individual manager monitoring will include the following:

- Maintaining both a short-term and long-term perspective, the Consultant will evaluate whether each manager has:
  - Performed satisfactorily when compared with the specific objectives for its portfolio;
  - Produced results that compare favorably to other investment managers with similar portfolios; and
  - Adhered to the relevant policies and objectives.

Among the events that the consultant will examine closely in its review of the investment managers are:

- Poor performance relative to objectives over a three- to five-year period,
- A change in the portfolio manager;
- The departure of one or more key investment professionals;
- Violation of an investment guideline; and
- A change in the ownership or control of the investment management organization.

Any of the above factors will result in a discussion of whether to retain an investment manager. The consultant will provide input in the discussion, but final decisions for any changes rest with the Investment Committee.

Investment Manager Responsibilities

- Submit a written request to the trustees whenever the investment manager feels that the Statement of Investment Objectives should be changed
- Provide quarterly reports describing portfolio holdings, transactions, and performance.
- Vote proxies received after careful assessment of the issues involved.
- Promptly inform the trustees and its consultant of all significant matters pertaining to the investment management of the assets of the Foundation. For example, significant changes in the ownership, affiliation, organizational structure, financial condition, and staffing of the firm.
- Be available to meet with the trustees on a reasonable basis.
- Manage the funds in accordance with the policy guidelines and objectives expressed in this document, or in a separate written agreement that has received approval from the trustees when deviation is deemed prudent and desirable.

BENEFIT PLANS PROVIDED TO CLERGY IN THE VIRGINIA CONFERENCE

Benefit plans provided to clergy in the Virginia Conference are primarily administered by Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc. (VUMPI), an independent agency of the Virginia Conference. Several of the denominational plans are administered by Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath), which is the administrative agency of The United Methodist Church charged with supervising and administering retirement plans, investment funds and health and welfare benefit plans for the benefit of active and retired clergy and lay employees of the Church. VUMPI assists Wespath with the administration of the denominational plans and serves as an advocate and resource for Virginia Conference clergy enrolled in those plans. VUMPI (or its vendors, if applicable) is responsible for determining if a participant qualifies to receive a benefit under programs administered by VUMPI. Wespath is responsible for determining if a participant qualifies to receive a benefit under one or more of the denominational pension, disability or life insurance plans, and what level of benefits will be payable to the participant or his or her beneficiaries. Funding, eligibility and plan designs of the various clergy benefit programs are recommended by VUMPI for Virginia Conference approval. The following plans are administered for the benefit of Virginia Conference Clergy and eligible lay employees:

- Active Clergy Health Plan
- Retired Clergy Health Plan
- Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)
- Supplemental Life Insurance Plan
- Denominational Pension and Savings Plans
  - Pre-1982 Plan
  - Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)
  - Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)
  - United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP)
- Gift Benefit

Following are details regarding eligibility, administration and funding of the benefit programs administered by VUMPI:

ACTIVE CLERGY HEALTH PLAN

The Active Clergy Health Plan is a self insured health plan administered by VUMPI for the benefit of Virginia Conference clergy and eligible lay employees. The following are eligible for enrollment in the Active Clergy Health Plan:

- Full time clergy, including Elders, Deacons and Local Pastors, serving under episcopal appointment
- Clergy serving in full time Extension Ministry appointments in organizations controlled by The United Methodist Church, as determined by VUMPI
- Widowed spouses of active clergy that were enrolled in the active clergy health plan at the time of death are eligible to continue enrollment in the active clergy health plan until age 65, at which time their eligibility will be determined for the retired clergy health plan
- Eligible dependents of deceased active clergy that were enrolled in the active clergy health plan at the time of death are eligible to continue enrollment in the active clergy health plan until age 26
- Clergy on Medical Leave and receiving long-term disability income benefits from Wespath are eligible for the health plan designed for clergy on medical leave with CPP benefits, subject to payment of the required participant contribution for that plan
- Clergy on Medical Leave who are not receiving long-term disability income benefits from Wespath are eligible for the Active Clergy Health Plan for up to one year, subject to payment of the required participant contribution for the Active Clergy plan
- Clergy on Voluntary Leave of Absence or Sabbatical Leave may participate in the active clergy health plan for up to one year, provided they pay 100 percent of the Active Clergy Health Plan cost
- Student Local Pastors may participate in the active clergy health plan for up to one year, provided they pay 100 percent of the Active Clergy Health Plan cost
- Clergy appointed to attend seminary may participate in the active clergy health plan for up to one year, provided they pay 100 percent of the Active Clergy Health Plan cost

A Virginia Conference clergyperson who has retired from The United Methodist Church under ¶358 (or succeeding paragraph) of the Book of Discipline is no longer eligible to enroll in the Active Clergy Health Plan. If the clergyperson terminates his/her retired relationship to the Virginia Conference and returns to full time active appointment under an active Conference relationship status, that clergyperson and his/her spouse and eligible dependents may regain eligibility for enrollment in the Active Clergy Health Plan.

Clergy on Medical Leave and receiving long term disability income benefits from Wespath must file for and enroll in Medicare Parts A and B as soon as they become eligible in order to remain enrolled in the Active Clergy Health Plan.

The Active Clergy Health Plan is administered by VUMPI. The plan is self insured and is primarily funded by Conference resources through apportionments and contributions from plan participants. The continuation of this plan depends largely upon the ongoing ability of the Virginia Conference to finance the plan benefits. Plan design changes and participant contributions are recommended for Annual Conference approval. Due to ongoing increases in general health care costs, it should be expected that VUMPI will periodically recommend increases in the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment and personal contributions. Similarly, reductions in plan benefits may be recommended in order to reduce the overall cost of the Active Clergy Health Plan. The adoption of the Active Clergy Health Plan is not considered binding upon the Conference for more than one year at a time.

Eligible clergy and lay employees who wish to enroll in the Active Clergy Health Plan may enroll through VUMPI. Prospective enrollees may contact VUMPI at either 804-521-1100 or 1-800-768-6040.

Summary plan descriptions and additional program details regarding the Active Clergy Health Plan are available at www.vumpi.org.

RETIRED CLERGY HEALTH PLAN

The health plan made available to eligible retirees of the Virginia Conference includes a plan for those retired clergy who are not yet eligible for Medicare and a separate plan for those who are eligible for and enrolled in Medicare. The plan for pre-Medicare-eligible retirees is a self insured health plan. The plan for Medicare-eligible retirees consists of a fully insured Medicare Advantage plan option and a Conference-funded Retiree Reimbursement Account option. The following are eligible for enrollment in the Retired Clergy Health Plan:

- A retired Virginia Conference clergyperson whose retirement date is effective on or after January 1, 2004, is eligible to participate in the Retired Clergy Health Plan if paragraphs 1 and 2 below are satisfied.
- 1. A Clergy satisfies the requirements of this paragraph if he or she retires in connection with the Virginia United Methodist Conference under ¶358.1-3 of the 2008 Book of Discipline. A Diaconal Minister satisfies the requirements of this paragraph if he or she retires in connection with the Virginia United Methodist Conference under ¶313.2 of the 1992 Book of Discipline.
- 2. A Clergy or Diaconal Minister satisfies the requirements of this paragraph if he or she meets the criteria in either subparagraph a, b or c below:
  - a. This subparagraph is satisfied if a Clergy or Diaconal Minister is age 62 or above on the date of retirement, or has at least 30 years of service on the date of retirement, and has served the Virginia United Methodist Conference during the 10 consecutive years immediately prior to retirement in full time Episcopal appointments where the salary paying units have contributed towards the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment, or
  - b. This subparagraph is satisfied if a Clergy or Diaconal Minister is age 62 or above on the date of retirement, or has at least 30 years of service on the date of retirement, and has served the Virginia United Methodist Conference a minimum of 30 years in full time Episcopal appointments where the salary paying units have contributed towards the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment, or
  - c. This subparagraph is satisfied if a Clergy or Diaconal Minister who has served 10 years in full time Episcopal appointments with the Virginia United Methodist Conference where the salary paying units have contributed towards the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment, retires prior to age 62 with fewer than 30 years of service, or is appointed to Approved Leave (Sabbatical, ¶352; Family Leave, ¶354; Voluntary Leave of Absence, 2008 Book of Discipline), or is appointed to Extension Ministry (to an agency that is not eligible to participate in the Active Clergy Health Plan), or is appointed On Loan to another United Methodist Conference (¶346.1 and 331.8, 2000 Book of Discipline). A Clergy or Diaconal Minister meeting the requirements of this subparagraph maintains eligibility to enroll in the Retiree Health Plan by paying a monthly Retiree Health Plan Access Fee until the date of enrollment in the Retiree Health Plan.

The Retiree Health Plan Access Fee is determined annually by the VUMPI Board of Directors and is published in the Journal of the Virginia United Methodist Conference. Payment of the Retiree Health Plan Access Fee freezes the clergyperson's years of credit that had been accumulated prior to entering one of the above-mentioned statuses. Payment of the access fee does not constitute enrollment in the Active Clergy Health Plan or the Retired Clergy Health Plan. Additional years of credit for eligibility or the vesting and contribution schedule are not accrued while the Retiree Health Plan Access Fee is paid.

The Retiree Health Plan Access Fee must be paid monthly (unless other arrangements have been made with VUMPI, in writing and signed by both parties) until the clergyperson is eligible to enroll in the Retired Clergy Health Plan.

There was a one time open enrollment period (January 1-31, 2004) for those described in this paragraph who were not enrolled in the Active Clergy Health Plan, and who wanted to freeze their eligibility for the Retired Clergy Health Plan. If retirement occurs prior to age 62 and the retiree does not have 30 years of service, the retiree may continue enrollment in the Active Clergy Health Plan until attaining the age of 62, by paying 100 percent of the Active Clergy Health Plan cost.

At the age of 62, the retiree becomes eligible for enrollment in the Retired Clergy Health Plan, with plan eligibility and participant contributions consistent with their years of credit at retirement.

Additional points of clarification:

1. Years of credit will be determined at retirement.
2. A Year of credit equals a year served in the Virginia United Methodist Conference in a full time Episcopal Appointment where the salary paying unit was contributing towards the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment.
3. Years of service in other United Methodist conferences are not qualifying years of credit toward eligibility for the Virginia Conference Retired Clergy Health Plan.
4. Retired Clergy and Diaconal Ministers who were participating in the Virginia United Methodist Conference Retired Clergy Health Plan, as well as those active clergy who had met the Retired Clergy Health Plan eligibility criteria on or before January 1, 2004, are considered vested with 30+ total years of credit. Therefore they are eligible to enroll in the Retired Clergy Health Plan with personal contributions according to the 30+ total years of credit contribution rate.
5. Eligible dependents are those who were eligible for coverage at the time of the participant's date of retirement.
6. Retired clergy and/or their dependents that are participating in the Retired Clergy Health Plan must file for and enroll in Medicare Parts A and B as soon as they become eligible in order to receive and continue their health benefits under the Retired Clergy Health Plan.

The Retired Clergy Health Plan is administered by VUMPI. The plan is primarily funded by Conference resources through apportionments and contributions from plan participants. The continuation of this plan depends largely upon the ongoing ability of the Virginia Conference to finance the plan benefits. Plan design changes and participant contributions are recommended for Annual Conference approval. Due to ongoing increases in general health care costs, it should be expected that VUMPI will periodically recommend increases in the Retired Clergy Health Plan apportionment and personal contributions. Similarly, reductions in plan benefits may be recommended in order to reduce the overall cost of the Retired Clergy Health Plan. The adoption of the Retired Clergy Health Plan is not considered binding upon the Conference for more than one year at a time.

Eligible retirees who wish to enroll in the Retired Clergy Health Plan may enroll either through VUMPI or directly with the insurer administering the health plan for Medicare-eligible retirees, depending on the Medicare eligibility status of the retiree. Prospective enrollees may contact VUMPI at either 804-521-1100 or 1-800-768-6040 for additional details regarding enrollment in the plan.

Summary plan descriptions and additional program details regarding the Retired Clergy Health Plan are available at www.vumpi.org.

COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN

The CPP is the denominational long term disability and life insurance program administered by Wespath. Program details are as follows:

The following are eligible for long term disability and death benefits through the CPP program, subject to the limitations and exclusions specified in that program:

1. Full time Elders, Deacons and Local Pastors with compensation of at least 25% of the Denominational Average Compensation
2. Elders and Deacons appointed to 75% appointments with compensation of at least 25% of the Denominational Average Compensation
3. Clergy on Medical Leave remain enrolled in CPP at the Conference's expense for up to one year if not receiving disability benefits under CPP; clergy receiving disability benefits under CPP remain enrolled until disability benefits are terminated
4. Clergy on Sabbatical Leave or Voluntary Leave, or appointment to attend school, and who were actively enrolled in CPP immediately prior to taking the approved leave or appointment, are eligible to remain enrolled in CPP at the Conference's expense for up to one year

X. CONFERENCE RULES AND POLICIES

Continuation of CPP disability benefits is subject to ongoing evaluation of the recipient's medical condition and prognosis.

Retirees meeting certain eligibility requirements receive an ongoing CPP death benefit in retirement. To be eligible for death benefits in retirement, a clergyperson must have been covered in CPP for a specified number of years. Retirees with 25 or more years of enrollment in CPP are automatically eligible for the death benefits in retirement, and the eligibility criteria for those with fewer than 25 years in CPP is phased in with one-year increments, as detailed in the table below:

Retirement Year	CPP Enrollment Requirement for Death Benefit Eligibility
2013	6 of last 10 years
2014	7 of last 10 years
2015	8 of last 11 years
2016	9 of last 12 years
2017	10 of last 13 years
2018	11 of last 14 years

SUPPLEMENTAL LIFE INSURANCE PLAN

VUMPI administers a Supplemental Life Insurance Plan to augment the death benefits provided through CPP. The Supplemental Life Insurance Plan includes a supplemental death benefit for qualifying active and retired clergy, as well as a voluntary life insurance plan that is fully funded by the enrollee. Clergy eligible for and enrolled in CPP are eligible for the supplemental death benefit and the voluntary life insurance plan through the Supplemental Life Insurance Plan.

The supplemental death benefit for active clergy enrolled in CPP is $25,000. This Conference Supplemental Death Benefit is payable in addition to the CPP death benefit. During retirement, a $5,000 Conference Supplemental Death Benefit will be payable to retirees who are eligible for a CPP death benefit in retirement, in addition to the CPP death benefit.

The voluntary life insurance benefit available to active clergy enrolled in CPP is available in amounts from $25,000 to $300,000. The cost of the voluntary life insurance benefit is 100% participant paid, and is subject to underwriting. The voluntary coverage is portable for those enrollees who leave the ministry or retire. In addition, dependent life is available in amounts from $10,000 to $50,000 for spousal coverage, and from $5,000 to $10,000 for children.

VUMPI will automatically enroll those who are eligible for the CPP and Supplemental Life Insurance Plan. Those desiring to enroll in voluntary life insurance coverage can enroll during VUMPI's annual open enrollment in the 4th quarter of each calendar year. Unless otherwise elected by the participant, the beneficiary will always be the spouse.

Summary plan descriptions and additional program details regarding CPP are available at www.wespath.org. Additional detail regarding the supplemental and voluntary life insurance programs is available at www.vumpi.org.

DENOMINATIONAL PENSION AND SAVINGS PLANS

VUMPI assists with the administration of the denominational pension and savings plans, which are primarily administered by Wespath. The pension and savings plans include the following:

- Pre-1982 Plan: for years of ministry served prior to 1982
- Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP): for years of ministry served from 1982 through 2006
- Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP): for years of ministry served beginning in 2007 and thereafter
- United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP): an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement savings plan for clergy and lay employees of The United Methodist Church

Participants are immediately vested in all denominational pension programs. The Pre-1982 Plan and the MPP are closed plans; no additional credit is being earned under the provisions of those plans. All clergy appointed at least 50% to a local church earn pension credit under CRSP, unless such credit is waived (clergy appointed less than full time may waive pension credit under CRSP). Clergy appointed to Extension Ministry appointments do not earn pension credit under CRSP.

Personal contributions toward a participant's UMPIP account can be made on a pre-tax, after-tax or Roth basis. Personal contributions are invested in the investment options selected by the participant.

Summary plan descriptions and additional program details regarding the denominational pension and savings programs are available at www.wespath.org.

GIFT BENEFIT

VUMPI currently elects to provide a one time $1,500 gift at the time of retirement or disability (if awarded disability benefits under the Comprehensive Protection Plan) to each clergyperson who has served at least ten years of service in a full time Virginia Annual Conference episcopal appointment in the Virginia Conference with pension credit. Further, a gift to the family of each clergyperson meeting the eligibility criteria above who dies in active service is paid in the same amount as the gift to retired or disabled clergypersons.

Benefits provided are subject to annual review. Therefore, the continuation of this plan depends largely upon the ability of the Conference to finance it. Benefits provided are approved at each Annual Conference. The adoption of this plan should not be considered binding upon the Conference for more than one year at a time. Accordingly, the terms of the Gift Benefit are subject to change by approval by Annual Conference.

VUMPI will automatically enroll those who are eligible to be in this plan. Unless otherwise elected by the participant, the beneficiary will always be the spouse.

POLICY FOR THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN, YOUTH AND VULNERABLE ADULTSRevised and Approved by the Common Table for Church Vitality: Nov. 21, 2013*

Our Wesleyan heritage calls us as United Methodists to justice and advocacy for those in our communities whose voices are often not heard or overlooked. The realities of the world around us cause us to focus in particular on the children, youth, and vulnerable adults who participate in ministries of the Virginia Conference. Among those realities is the fact that during the 2012 fiscal year for the Commonwealth of Virginia, there were 52,675 children reported to local Departments of Social Services as possible victims of abuse and/or neglect. Virginia Adult Protective Services (APS) received almost 20,000 reports of adult abuse, neglect, or exploitation during that same period (data from on-line 2012 reports: www.dss.virginia.gov).

Virginia Conference boards, agencies, and commissions are responsible for ensuring a safe environment at any and all Conference events on behalf of children, youth, and vulnerable adults. The example and teaching of Jesus tells us that every individual has talents, gifts, and undiscovered possibilities that together make the Body of Christ stronger. God values human life, intending all men, women, and children to have worth and dignity in all relationships with God and others. To this end, the Conference cares deeply about the safety and well-being of all God's children that come to us to experience God's love, especially children, youth, and those persons who fall within the definition of vulnerable adults whose disabilities, health conditions, and/or age result in the need for personal assistance, supervision, and/or other specialized programming. The conference realizes that no person, organization, board, agency, or commission can absolutely guarantee the safety and security of all people at all times. However, the conference believes that the risk of harm to the children, youth, and vulnerable adults that come to programs and events sponsored by the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church can be reduced through the establishment of and adherence to reasonable policies and procedures.

To this end, the conference implements this "Policy for the Protection of Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Adults" (hereinafter the "Policy") for boards, agencies, and commissions in order to:

- 1) Establish reasonable procedures to reduce the risk of physical, emotional, and sexual abuse of our children, youth, and vulnerable adults as they participate in Virginia Conference events,
- 2) Protect our children, youth, and vulnerable adults; and
- 3) Protect our staff and volunteers from false allegations of misconduct.

This policy applies to all staff and volunteers, clergy or lay, who have contact with or responsibility for children, youth, and/or vulnerable adults at Conference sponsored events. This policy is not intended to supplant or replace the "Sexual Ethics Policy for Clergy, Diaconal Ministers, and Certified Lay Professionals of the Virginia Conference" (approved by the 2001 Virginia Annual Conference and updated in 2009) or "Clergy and the Reporting of Suspected Abuse or Neglect" (approved by the 2005 Virginia Annual Conference and revised in 2009), which remain in full force and effect.

THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATION

"Go out into the roads and lanes, and compel people to come in, so that my house may be filled."

Luke 14:21 (NRSV)

In the Parable of the Great Banquet, Jesus reminds us that God is in the business of inviting all people to the table, where they can be nurtured and transformed to be Christ to others. Today, we continue to recognize that each individual is a child of God and must be allowed to live free of fear, surrounded by love. As Christian adults, we must establish and maintain a nurturing, loving, safe and secure Christian environment, providing support and assistance to our children, youth, and vulnerable adults, remembering that our mandate is not only a responsibility, but an opportunity to protect the gift that God has bestowed upon us.

"A new commandment I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another." - John 13:34 (NIV)

"Blessed are your eyes, because they see; and your ears, because they hear." - Matthew 13:16

GENERAL CONFERENCE MANDATES

One aspect of fulfilling our baptismal promise to care for children, youth, and vulnerable adults means to "surround these persons with a community of love and forgiveness..." (The Baptismal Covenant II, United Methodist Hymnal) Surrounding these persons means to provide safe sanctuaries where they can be loved and nurtured in the faith. Our Social Principles remind us that:

- "in particular, children must be protected from economic, physical, emotional, and sexual exploitation and abuse." (2012 Book of Discipline, ¶162.III.C)
- we affirm "the full humanity and personhood" of all individuals with disabilities "as full members of the family of God." (2012 Book of Discipline, ¶162.III.I)
- we "ensure to the aging the respect and dignity that is their right..." (2012 Book of Discipline, ¶162.III.E)

Clergy and religious professionals have a responsibility to those in their congregations and broader community, especially those whose voice is compromised by age, ability level, and/or abuse or neglect. The 2004 General Conference initially took note of this responsibility when they adopted the statement:

"All clergy of The United Methodist Church are charged to maintain all confidences inviolate, including confessional confidences, except in the cases of suspected child abuse or neglect or in cases where mandatory reporting is required by civil law. (2012 Book of Discipline, ¶341.5)"

Resolution 3084, "Reducing the Risk of Child Sexual Abuse in the Church," and Resolution 8014, "Church Participation by a Registered Child Sex Offender," (2012 Book of Resolutions of the United Methodist Church, p. 240 and p. 900 respectively) provide guidance to the local church and annual conference as to making our churches safe places, protecting children and other vulnerable persons from abuse.

The Book of Discipline (¶1119 – Age-Level, Life-Span, and Family Ministries) provides the following definitions of the age groups covered by this policy.

- Child – persons up to approximately 12 years of age, generally persons from birth through sixth grade
- Youth – persons in the twelve- to eighteen-year-old age group, generally persons in the seventh through twelfth grades
- Adult – persons 18 years of age and older

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA STATUTES

Because of our commitment to care for all God's children and protect the vulnerable, Virginia Conference sponsored activities fully comply with the definitions offered by the Virginia Department of Social Services governing children, youth, and vulnerable adults.

Child and adult protection programs are mandated by statute. The Commonwealth of Virginia's current child abuse reporting statute was first enacted in 1975. Section 63.2-100 has been amended and modified a number of times. The statute is comprehensive, requiring the reporting of numerous types of maltreatment. The law applies to any child under 18 years of age when a parent or any person responsible for the child's care:

- Causes or threatens to cause non-accidental physical or mental injury;
- Has a child present during the manufacture or attempted manufacture of a controlled substance or during the sale of such substance where such activity would constitute a felony violation;
- Abandons the child;
- Neglects or refuses to provide adequate supervision in relation to the child's age and level of development;
- Knowingly leaves a child alone in the same dwelling with a person, not related by blood or marriage, who has been convicted of an offense against a minor for which registration is required as a violent sexual offender; or
- Commits or allows to be committed any illegal sexual act upon a child, including incest, rape, indecent exposure, prostitution, or allows a child to be used in any sexually explicit visual material.

An act of child abuse may be committed by any person responsible for the care of another individual who is less than 18 years of age. It does not matter whether the person caring for the child under the age of 18 is a compensated or a volunteer worker. It does not matter whether the person routinely is entrusted with the care of children or whether such individual only occasionally comes in contact with children. It does not matter whether the person was entrusted with the care of a child for an hour or only a moment. It only matters that a child was abused or neglected by the person who, on the occasion in question, was responsible for the child's care.

Title 63.1 of the Code of Virginia establishes a protective services program for persons who are 60 and over and "incapacitated persons ages 18 to 59." Adults with disabilities covered under the Code are those "persons who are 18 years or older whose vulnerability is related to impaired physical and/or mental health and/or physical disability." The statutory basis for the program is found in sections 63.1-55.1 through 62.1-55.7 of the Code of Virginia.

TYPES OF ABUSE

Child abuse refers to an act committed by a parent, caregiver, or person in a position of trust (even though he/she may not care for the child on a daily basis) which is not accidental and which harms or threatens to harm a child's physical or mental health or welfare. Types of abuse noted in administrative code for the Virginia Department of Social Services are described below:

- Physical Abuse: A physical injury, threat of injury, or creation of a real and significant danger of substantial risk of death, disfigurement, or impairment of bodily functions. Such injury or threat of injury, regardless of intent, is inflicted or allowed to be inflicted by non-accidental means. Examples: asphyxiation, bone fracture, brain damage, skull fracture, subdural hematoma, burns, scalding, cuts, bruises, welts, abrasions, internal injuries, poisoning, sprains, dislocations, gunshot, stabbing wounds.
- Physical Neglect: The failure to provide food, clothing, shelter, or supervision for a child if the child's health or safety is endangered. Physical neglect may include multiple occurrences or a one-time critical or severe event that results in a threat to health or safety, such as a toddler left alone. Other types of neglect include abandonment, inadequate supervision, inadequate clothing, inadequate shelter, inadequate personal hygiene, inadequate food, and malnutrition.
- Sexual Abuse: Any act defined in the Code of Virginia that is committed or allowed to be committed, upon a child by his/her parent or other person responsible for the child's care. Examples of such abuse are sexual exploitation, sexual molestation, intercourse/sodomy, and other sexual abuse.
- Medical Neglect: The refusal or failure by a care giver to obtain and/or follow through with a complete regimen of medical, mental, or dental care for a condition, which if untreated, could result in illness or developmental delays.
- Failure to Thrive: A syndrome of infancy or early childhood that is characterized by growth failure, signs of severe malnutrition, and variable degrees of developmental retardation. Children are considered to be in this category only when the syndrome is diagnosed by a physician and is caused by non-organic factors.
- Mental Abuse/Neglect: A pattern of acts or omissions by the caregiver that results in harm to a child's psychological or emotional health or development.
- Educational Neglect: The failure of the child's caretaker to ensure that the child attends school or an approved alternative program of study.
- Bizarre Discipline: Any actions in which the caregiver uses eccentric, irrational, or grossly inappropriate procedures or devices to modify the child's behavior.

Adult Protective Services define the following (Code of Virginia, §63.1-55.2):

• Abuse: The willful infliction of physical pain, injury or mental anguish or unreasonable confinement. Abuse includes battery and other forms of physical violence including, but not limited to, hitting, kicking, burning, choking, scratching, rough handling, cutting, biting, etc. It includes sexual assault, inflicting pornography, voyeurism, exhibitionism, and other forms of forced sexual activity on an elder or an adult with disabilities. It includes any sexual activity with an adult who is unable to understand or give consent. It includes the control of an adult through the use of threats and intimidation and through the abuse of a relationship of trust.

• Neglect: An adult living under such circumstance that he is not able to provide for himself or is not being provided such services as are necessary to maintain his physical and mental health and that the failure to receive such necessary services impairs or threatens to impair his well-being. This definition incorporates both those who are self-neglected, i.e., living under such circumstance that he/she is not able to provide for himself/herself, and those whose need for physical and mental health services are not being provided by another person.

• Exploitation: The illegal use of an incapacitated adult or his resources for another's profit or advantage. Exploitation, or financial abuse, is accomplished by the use of covert, subtle, and deceitful means. It is usually a pattern of behavior rather than a single episode. Financial exploitation includes, but is not limited to, the crimes of larceny, embezzlement, theft by false pretenses, burglary, forgery, false impersonation, and extortion.

Abuse under the definition of the Virginia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services (DBHDS) means "any act or failure to act by an employee or other person responsible for the care of an individual that was performed or was failed to be performed knowingly, recklessly, or intentionally, and that caused or might have caused physical or psychological harm, injury, or death to an individual receiving services. Examples of abuse include but are not limited to the following:

- Rape, sexual assault, or other criminal behavior;
- Assault or battery;
- Use of language that demeans, threatens, intimidates, or humiliates the person;
- Misuse or misappropriation of the person's assets, goods, or property;
- Use of excessive force when placing a person in physical or mechanical restraint;
- Use on a person of physical or mechanical restraints that is not in compliance with federal and state laws, regulations, and policies, professionally accepted standards of practice or the person's individualized services plan; and
- Use of more restrictive or intensive services or denial of services to punish the person or that is not consistent with his individualized services plan.

POLICY REVIEW

The policy for the protection of children, youth, and vulnerable adults of the Virginia Conference United Methodist Church shall be reviewed every five years and approved by the Virginia Conference Common Table for Church Vitality.

MEMOIRS

NORMAN K. ALLEN 1926 - 2015

Norman K. Allen was born in Des Moines, Iowa, on August 31, 1926, the son of Ardrey and Margaret Allen. He was predeceased by his beloved wife of 64 years, Florence Bennett Allen. Norman is survived by his two daughters, Wendy Devening and Hal, and Andrea Allen and her husband, Alois Wollersberger; four grandchildren, Dulany Devening, Andrea Devening and her husband, Curt Sydnor, and Eric and Nina Wollersberger; and his sister, Doris Ewan.

Norman served in the Navy from 1943-1945 at the end of WWII. He was a graduate of Westminster Choir College in Princeton, New Jersey, and served as a Minister of Music in Roanoke, Virginia for eight years before coming to Charlottesville, where he served in this capacity for thirty-two years. Norman continued to work part-time as a church organist after retiring. He was the founding Dean of the Charlottesville-Albemarle AGO Chapter (1976-1977) and served on the Board of Directors of the Westminster Presbyterian Church Organ Concert Series.

Norman was a talented musician and a longtime member of the Charlottesville Albemarle Oratorio Society. He directed many sacred works including Handel's Messiah and Requiems by Brahms and Faure. He loved opera and musical theater. Norman was loved by many and will be greatly missed for his kindness and service to others.

JOHN B. COVINGTON 1948 - 2016

John Blanton Covington, better known as Johnny, passed away suddenly Friday, February 19, 2016 at the age of 67 years old. Johnny always said that he loved God, his country, and his family. During his lifetime, Johnny was a loyal husband, a loving father, a dedicated soldier, a skilled mechanic, and a caring pastor.

Johnny was born November 20, 1948. Growing up, he attended Pamplin United Methodist Church. He was a 1967 graduate of Appomattox High School. After high school he graduated from Nashville Auto Diesel College and in 1968 he joined the National Guard. During his time in the guard, he became the Brigade Command Sergeant Major of the 29th division of Virginia and Maryland National Guards. After 25 years of service, Johnny retired from the National Guard.

Johnny married Sallye Smith in 1972 and they had two children. Throughout his life Johnny worked hard to support his family, never leaving a job without having another one first. People often spoke of his kind heart, his funny sense of humor and his unfailing love of God. Johnny touched many lives, but especially those of his family.

God called Johnny to serve in the ministry, but he didn't answer right away. He taught Sunday school and then later became a lay speaker. He finally answered God's call in 1996 and became a local pastor. For the last 20 years of his life, Johnny served as the pastor of both Bethel United Methodist Church and St. John's United Methodist Church. He and Sallye travelled 43 miles each way every Sunday for services at each church. As he got older, he often spoke of retiring, but he just couldn't leave his church family at Bethel and St. John's.

Johnny is survived by his wife of 44 years, Sallye Smith Covington; his son, John Blanton Covington II (Becky) of Pamplin, his daughter, Emily Covington Coro (Keith) of Farmville; four grandchildren, John Douglas Hallik, Virginia Grace Covington, Alan Coro, and Rachel Coro; his sister, Goldie Wilkerson (Johnny) of Prospect and a special first cousin, Wanda Vandegrift (Carroll) of Pamplin.

ALBERT M. DAVIS JR. 1947 - 2016

Al grew up in a small farming community called Abilene, located on the edge of Prince Edward County. He attended Beulah United Methodist Church on the Prince Edward Charge. He felt the call to go into ministry at a young age but didn't answer the phone, as he used to put it, until 1996 when he was 49 years old. Al was appointed to Meherrin UMC where he served as a part time pastor while holding down a full time job as a police officer at Hampden-Sydney College. He started full time ministry in 2000 when he was appointed to the Cumberland Charge, serving Payne Memorial, Hobson's Chapel, Centenary, and Antioch. As one parishioner said, he went from making collars to wearing collars. He often told stories of his riding calls on the Prince Edward Rescue Squad and his experiences as a police officer.

Al was a wonderful husband to Marsha, a terrific father to Chelsea and Nathaniel, a good friend to many people and loved serving the Lord by helping others.

CARL H. DOUGLASS, JR. 1929 - 2015

The Rev. Dr. Carl H. Douglass Jr., 86, of Smith Mountain Lake, died Saturday, August 22, 2015. He was the loving husband of Brenda Mosier Douglass. A United Methodist minister for sixty years, Dr. Douglass served 16 congregations in the Virginia Conference. After earning his divinity degree from Boston University School of Theology, Dr. Douglass began his ministry in 1953. He was an early advocate for civil rights and for racial inclusiveness in the church. He preached and lived tolerance, compassion and forgiveness. His broad view of theology held that “knowledge and faith are both larger than any of our religious systems.” Dr. Douglass was a popular preacher, his sermons a skillful fusion of self-deprecating humor and poignant stories. He found simple, direct ways to express profound concepts. “Preaching,” Dr. Douglass wrote, “is an attempt to link the everyday with the everlasting.” For twenty years, Dr. Douglass was a Sunday morning fixture on NBC television in Richmond, teaching “Lessons for Living,” a biblical studies program sponsored by the Virginia Council of Churches. Dr. Douglass was beloved in communities across Virginia as a pastor and counselor. He lived, as he died, surrounded by the love and admiration of his church members and his family. Born in Harrisonburg, Virginia, on March 14, 1929, he was the son of Carl Henry Douglass, Sr. and Ivory Meals Douglass. While he thought being called “Dr.” was putting on airs, he delighted in the title of “Daddy,” and ten children from three families are proud to call him that, Brent Douglass and Carter of Staunton, Va., John G. Douglass and Cindy of Richmond, Va., Carol D. Jacoby and Jamie of Richmond, Va., Steven G. Douglass and Tammy of Leesburg, Va., David Stafford and Sharon of Raleigh, N.C., Andrew Stafford and Nicki of Raleigh, N.C., Michael L. Atkinson and Jacque of Florence, S.C., Cynthia A. Hales of Timmonsville, S.C., Sonya A. Secor and Dean of Mt. Pleasant, S.C., and Lynn A. Semones and Steve of Christiansburg, Va. He had 23 grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren. His circle of loved ones encompasses a huge extended family and countless friends. A celebration of Carl’s life was held at Main Street United Methodist Church in Bedford, Virginia with the Rev. Dr. Riley R. Smith, Jr., the Rev. Larry E. Davies, and the Rev. Richard H. Ecklund officiating, and with a musical tribute by organist Johnson Scott.

WILLIAM S. FERGUSON 1927 - 2016

The Rev. William Snider Ferguson, age 88, of Henrico, VA, passed away on Saturday, March 19, 2016. He was the loving husband of 64 years to Doris Dowdle Ferguson. He was preceded in death by his parents, Jacob and Arline Ferguson, his two brothers Warner and Franklin and sister, Bette Bishop; a son, Paul Frederick Ferguson and grandson, Justin Kyle Ferguson. He is survived by his wife Doris, his sons David William Ferguson (Deborah) and Joseph Keith Ferguson (Jan), daughter Ellen Ferguson Thurston (Mike) and his grandchildren, Scott Thurston, Graham Ferguson, Amy Thurston, Ryan Ferguson and six nephews.

William Ferguson, known by most as Bill, served as a full time minister in the VA United Methodist Conference for 49 years and as a visitation minister for 17 years after his retirement. He was born in Hampton, VA where he lived until his college days. He first attended Shenandoah College and Conservatory in Dayton, VA and then earned his BS in History from Randolph Macon College in Ashland, VA and his Master of Divinity at Emory University in Atlanta, GA, where he met Doris. Bill spread his love and pastoral leadership at many churches and communities throughout Virginia during his ministerial career, which included:

- Bedford – six-church charge
- Boykins – four-church charge
- Emporia – Monumental
- Hampton – Bethany
- Rocky Mount
- Culpeper
- Richmond – Westhampton
- Richmond – Lakeside
- Richmond – Westover Hills
- Richmond – Westhampton (visitation minister)
- Richmond – Centenary (visitation minister)

During his ministerial career, Bill performed thousands of weddings, baptisms and funerals and treated each event as the most important moment of his life, becoming a lifetime extension of many of those families. He thoroughly enjoyed being a special part of these families’ lives and liked to see the families of those he married grow into adults and many times marry them too.

Bill Ferguson was loved by all who knew him and was known for his keen sense of humor and abiding love for his Lord, family, friends, fellow ministers and parishioners. He was also known for his fantastic memory, immediately able to call new parishioners by name and always preaching his sermons without notes.

Bill lived a long and happy life. He is with his Lord and all his family members who preceded him ... smiling down on all of us and making us smile with his wonderful memories. A memorial service and celebration of life was held at Discovery United Methodist in Henrico, VA on March 25, 2016.

WILLIAM “JERYL” FINK 1929 - 2015

William Jeryl Fink was the son of a United Methodist Minister and the brother of two United Methodist Ministers.

He was born in Cumberland, Maryland, on November 8, 1929, and he died in Richmond, Virginia on December 28, 2015.

He graduated from Randolph Macon College in 1951, and received an Honorary Doctor of Divinity Degree from Randolph Macon College in 1983. He graduated from Candler School of Theology, Emory University, in 1953.

His first appointment in the Virginia Conference was as an Associate Minister at Fairlington United Methodist Church in Fairfax County, Virginia. Two years later he started St. Luke’s United Methodist Church in Falls Church Virginia, where he served for six years. He then went to Wesley United Methodist Church in Vienna, Virginia for seven years.

In 1968 he was sent to Centenary United Methodist Church in Lynchburg, Virginia. Two years later he went to Richmond, Virginia, where he served Reveille United Methodist Church for eight years. In 1978 he became District Superintendent of the Petersburg District for two years, then Superintendent of the Roanoke District for four years. In 1984 he moved back to Richmond, Virginia and became President of Virginia United Methodist Homes until he retired in 2006.

Jeryl loved working with people in general, and especially those in the churches and retirement communities he served. He was thankful to God for calling him to His Ministry.

GENE CARY GEE 1934 - 2015

Gene went to be at peace with the God he loved on July 21, 2015 after a long struggle with Alzheimer's disease. He is survived by his wife Mary Helen Gee, son Bryan (Maureen) Gee, daughters Amy (Charles) Tillapaugh, and Molly Gee as well as 8 grandchildren.

Gene went to seminary late at 40 after serving in the Navy and working with his father in the family business, Cary Gee Music in Richmond. He served Essex/King & Queen Charge on the Rappahannock District, Cherryvale in Staunton, and Grace/Calvary on the Eastern Shore. He then served in the United Methodist Building as the as the Director of Leadership development for the Virginia Conference. His final two appointments were Oaklette in Chesapeake and Trinity in Newport News.

Gene was born in Baltimore and grew up mostly in Richmond with frequent trips to Baltimore to be with his grandmother. He developed a love for tennis early in life. He went to Young Harris College in Georgia for two years before transferring to Presbyterian College, where he played on the tennis team. After college, he married Mary Helen and joined the U.S. Navy. He entered flight school at Pensacola, but did not remain in the service after its completion. He attended Virginia Tech for a short time and then returned to Richmond to work with his father. At 40, he was called to the ministry and attended Union Theological Seminary in Richmond.

Throughout his ministry, he was interested in pastoral care and counseling. He was very proud to be among the first to bring Stephen Ministry to Virginia. He was also proud of the work he did during his short term on the Virginia Conference staff.

Gene also loved sailing. He had been a sailor before entering the ministry and always seemed to find a sail boat when he was appointed close to the water. The boat he had while serving on the Eastern Shore is now in service at Camp Occohannock.

Upon retirement, Gene & Mary Helen moved to Lake Caroline in Caroline County. He loved the view of the lake from his backyard and would frequently be found sitting on the dock, just enjoying the water.

Gene was a kind man who never knew a stranger. Between his tennis playing and his ministry, he usually knew someone anywhere he went in Virginia. He loved his family deeply and was very proud of his children and grandchildren. He was generous to a fault. When questioned once about giving assistance to someone, he responded, "I'd rather be taken a million times than turn down someone who is really in need just once."

ROY HEDRICK 1917 - 2015

The Rev. Roy Hedrick was born October 21, 1917, in Mackville, W.Va. to Solomon Baxter and Artie Miller Hedrick. He graduated from Circleville High School and Davis and Elkins College – both in W. Va. – and United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Oh. His education was interrupted by World War II. Roy served 44 months in the U.S. Army in Company A of 93rd Signal Battalion of the 3rd American Army in the European Theater, and he was awarded the Bronze Star for activity in Luxembourg during the Bulge Attack.

On November 29, 1945, he married Dovie Ruth Mallow, who survives. Roy passed away at 11:29 a.m. on November 29, 2015, which was their 708th wedding anniversary. They have four children: Nancy, Wilma, Wanda and Paul. They also have 11 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Roy gave his life to Christ in 1935 at High Rock U.B. Church in W.Va. He was a faithful servant of God from that time on. He was ordained an elder in 1956 in the Evangelical United Brethren Church. He served the following pastorates in the EUB church: Manassas, Virginia; Berkeley Springs, W.Va.; and Mount Clinton, Va. After the merger, he served the following pastorates in The United Methodist Church: Mount Clinton, Epworth, Thaxton and Mt. Pisgah. After his retirement in 1983, he served two more pastorates: Cedar Grove and Fulks Run.

Roy always had deep love for children and youth, and as a minister, he did everything in his power to strengthen their faith. At that time, the Virginia EUB Conference did not own a summer camp so they had to rent from other denominations in order to provide a camping experience for their youths. Roy, along with others in the conference, had a dream about owning their own camp. While serving as the chairman of the conference board of Christian Education, Roy made a motion to purchase a camp, and the conference stepped out in faith and passed the motion. Roy was instrumental in the purchase and development of the present-day Camp Overlook. Dreams do not become a reality without a lot of hard work. Roy volunteered countless hours during the construction of the camp. He dug ditches by hand, strung electrical wiring, helped construct and paint buildings, collected rocks and helped build rock chimneys, put on roofs, planted trees by hand, mowed the grass, and did many other jobs. Roy was then asked to serve as the camp manager, which he did for the first seven years of its operation, while also serving a full-time pastorate.

Roy had many fine qualities, but two stand out: He had a true servant's heart. There was no job that he felt was beneath him or that he would not tackle. The best sermon he ever preached was the life of service that he lived. Secondly, he was an eternal optimist. He was always filled with an abundance of joy and hope, because he truly believed that “with God all things are possible.” That is how he lived his life!

To God be the glory, honor and praise for a life well-lived!

LOUIS W. HODGES 1933 - 2016

Louis W. Hodges died on February 8, 2016, survived by his wife, Helen, and two sons, John and George, and their families. He was born in Eupora, Ms. in 1933. He attended Milsaps College, graduating with a degree in history in 1954. During his college career he served as student minister at the Macon UMC.

After marrying Helen Davis, a classmate, one week after graduation, they moved to Durham, N.C. to begin Divinity School at Duke University. Helen was secretary to H. Shelton Smith in the Graduate Department of Religion, and Louis was the student minister at the Grace/Longhurst UMC charge. After receiving his divinity degree, he was accepted into the Graduate Department of Religion to pursue his Ph. D. He held the Gurney Harris Kearns Fellowship and served as assistant to James Cleland, dean of Duke Chapel. He listened to and graded students in Dr. Cleland's preaching classes. He majored in ethics with Waldo Beach. His Ph.D. dissertation was “A Christian Analysis of Selected Contemporary Theories of Racial Prejudice” (this has recently been published by his son, John.)

Louis became a member of the faculty at W/L in 1960. He was faculty advisor to the Student Christian Association in 1961, when its plan to invite Martin Luther King Jr. to campus was rejected by the Board of Trustees. He was assistant minister at Main Street UMC Waynesboro for two summers. In 1969 he published a book, “The Christian and His Decisions: An Introduction to Christian Ethics,” co-authored with Harmon L. Smith.

In 1975 he expanded his sphere of interest to found and direct the Society and the Professions Program, which allowed undergraduates in business, journalism, law and medicine to study applied ethics. As part of that program, he started two-day institutes that brought practitioners in those four areas to campus to work together with students on case studies. He established the Summer Institutes for Executives which related the humanities to contemporary business issues and their ethical implications.

In 1986 he won a fellowship in the teaching of journalism ethics from the Poynter Institute for Media Studies. In 1987 Louis became a Fletcher Otey Thomas Professor of Bible. He was a university fellow at the Univ. of Va. studying Asian religions and a fellow at the Hastings Center, which focuses on bioethics and the public interest. While holding a J. William Fulbright Lectureship at Osmania University in Hyderabad, India, he lectured on the ethics of journalism at 14 Indian universities.

Active in the community, Louis served in many ways. One major project was the low-income housing development while he was president of the Rockbridge Area Housing Corp. He also advised the founders of the Rockbridge Area Hospice and taught their first volunteers in a seminar on “Death and Dying.” He performed many weddings and funerals and served as guest pastor in churches throughout the area.

JAMES D. HOLLOMAN 1929 - 2015

Rev. James Holloman transferred his membership to the Church Eternal on November 17th 2015. A Faithful servant of Christ. He was born November 4th, 1929 in Stantonsburg, North Carolina. His father died when he was ten years old. He had a paper route and swept floors in the town store to help his family. When he was seventeen, he joined the Navy to be assured of a college education. He served his country for five years.

Jim attended Ferrum College. There he met the love of his life, Ann Silcox, and from that union they had four children. He was called by Dr. John Myers to come to Beth Horn Church at Natural Bridge so he could continue his education. He graduated from Lynchburg College. Willis Church in Richmond became his second appointment, and he attended Union Presbyterian Seminary.

Other churches he served were Memorial in Virginia Beach, Thrasher Memorial in Vinton, Fairfax UMC, and First Church in Salem. In addition, he served as District Superintendent for the Portsmouth District. His last appointment was District Superintendent on the Staunton District, where he loved his ministers and people, and the scenery of the spring and fall while riding over the mountains and byways. Jim excelled in pastoral care and preaching. He loved people and his family.

As our friend Dabney Walters wrote to be read at his funeral: “When the sun goes beyond the horizon it is not set. The heavens glow for a full hour after its departure. So with a good man. The sky is luminous long after he is out of sight. He leaves behind so much of himself. All that was beautiful in his life will live on in the lives of those who knew him best and will live on in that house not made of hands.”

DARRELD RUSSELL SHOOP 1925 - 2015

Rev Darreld Russell Shoop, 90 passed away on Thursday May 28, 2015 at Kings Daughters Nursing Home in Staunton, Va. Returning from WWII as a Gunners Mate, Darreld married Verna Evelyn Middleton and began their life together farming in upstate New York. After having 6 children Darreld felt the calling to the ministry and upon being ordained into the United Methodist Church he gave his farm to his brother-in-law and began his ministry in Camptown Pennsylvania. When asked why he gave instead of selling the farm he said he believed "the lord would provide his way". Rev. Shoop spent his last days sharing his room in the nursing home with the woman he met and married after returning from the War in 1946.

Rev. Shoop began his ministry in 1958 serving a circuit of 5 churches in Northern Pennsylvania. He moved back to New York and continued his ministry until 1965. He left the ministry and became involved in the Civil Rights movement of the 60's. One year later he felt the call again back into the ministry in the Virginia Conference and he move his family (8 children now) to the South Brunswick Charge in Gasburg Virginia. He continued serving churches in Prince George County, Trinity United Methodist Church in North Garden Virginia. Rev. Shoop was the first director of "Westview on the James" the Methodist Church Camp in Goochland, Va. and completed his ministry serving churches in Falmouth Virginia, King George Virginia, and Mechanicsville Virginia.

Rev. Shoop retired from the Virginia UMC Conference in 1990. During his 25 year retirement, he mentored several pastors. He was a member of Oakwood United Methodist Church at 1291 Columbia Rd., Columbia, Virginia. His remains are buried there.

He is survived by his wife Verna and their eight children, 35 grandchildren, 58 great-grandchildren, and 3 great-great-grandchildren. His children include Cynthia Williams, Dorothy and her husband Wayne Hartwell, Darreld (Russ) Shoop II and his wife Sharon, David Shoop, Paul Shoop and his wife Vali, Philip Shoop and his wife Sandy, Valerie and her husband Larry Johnson, and the Rev. Joseph Shoop, Pastor of the Bethel United Methodist Church in Woodbridge VA and his wife Debra.

JOHN V. SWEENEY 1946 - 2016

John V. Sweeney went to be with his Lord Tuesday, April 26, 2016.

John was born in Lowville, NY, the son of the late Vernon E. and Elsie Mekkelson Sweeney.

John served in the U.S. Navy for over 20 years, retiring in 1986. He then went on to serve as a Pastor in the United Methodist Church in VA and NY until 2014. He was a loving husband, dedicated father, grandfather, great-grandfather and dear friend to many.

Survivors include his beloved wife, Sandra Sweeney; children, Teresa Klotz (Chris), Sheri Smalley (Steve), Kelli Sweeney Mertz, John V. Sweeney, II (Kelli) and Robin Beatty (Bobby Long); eight grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; sister, Joan Ripp. He also leaves behind many loving nieces and nephews.

JEROME F. WEIGEL (JERRY) 1944 - 2015

Jerome F. Weigel (Jerry) was born on April 13, 1944 in Denver, Colorado to Katie and Ignatius Weigel. He was the oldest of four children. Jerry joined the US Navy at the age of 17 and served for 21 years. He was honorably discharged in June 1983 with the rank of Chief Warrant Officer, W-3.

Jerry completed the Five-Year Course of Study at Duke Divinity School in 2000. He served as a Local Pastor for 21 years in five Virginia churches: Grace UMC in Rollins Fork, Zion UMC in Spotsylvania, Greenwood UMC in Winchester, Wesley Chapel UMC in Cross Junction, and Pine Grove UMC in Winchester.

Jerry was known for his big heart, generosity, and sense of humor. His kindness in life is reflected in the lives of those he left behind.

Some of the comments from those he served include:

"Everyone in our congregation loved Jerry. He was not only our Pastor but was our friend. I feel his only thoughts were what was best for the church and his congregation. He continually encouraged us to let the light of Jesus shine through us in everything we did."

"Jerry was a very special person and made friends easily. He loved to joke with you. Jerry had a serious and a sensitive side as well. If anyone needed strength, prayer or help, Jerry was the first one there. He was Man of Faith and you could literally see Jesus in his eyes and heart. The compassion Jerry had for everyone was amazing. He loved his Heavenly Father, his wife Barbara, his children, grandchildren, and all of his congregation! He was an amazing person who filled many hearts with love, laughter, happiness, joy and peace. He is missed by many."

"Reverend Jerry was a very integral part of all ministry areas during his tenure at Greenwood United Methodist Church. He loved being a part of our Youth Ministry. Whenever the youth had an event Reverend Jerry was there not only to show his support, but to participate in many of the activities. His exuberant participation was extremely popular with the youth and inspired them to be more involved in not only fun activities but in their spiritual journey as well. Reverend Jerry was also an avid supporter of United Methodist Men's activities, whether he was attending a Spiritual Retreat, District UMM event or helping his UMM fellowship peel potatoes. Reverend Jerry was a hands-on pastor, he was a part of the lives of each and every member of his flock. He was not just a Pastor, he was a friend. Whether you were young or old, male or female, white, red, black or yellow, you were a child of God and Reverend Jerry saw the best in every person. He would do anything for anyone. Reverend Jerry was one of God's angels on earth. His love, his passion, his devotion, his commitment and his faith were unmatched. He led by example and he was at the forefront of making disciples of Jesus Christ in our community."

Jerry passed away on December 29, 2015 at home in Andover, Massachusetts surrounded by family. He is survived by his wife, Barbara; three children, Lisa Barham, Gary Weigel, and Jeffrey Wade Weigel; his sister, Betty Ann Adamson; and brother, Robert Weigel; his stepchildren, Darlene Ohlenbush and Dan Foote; and his grandchildren, Tiffany Bock, T. Baxter Barham, Zane and Ayla Ohlenbush. In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his sister Sonja Mick of Denver, Colorado.

JAMES D. WHITE 1930 - 2015

The Rev. White attended West Milford United Methodist Church and Bridgeport United Methodist Church. He was a member of the Lions Club in Clarksburg and West Milford since 1979. He also held memberships with the Barbershop Chorale, Harrison County Ministerial Association from 1978 to 1997 and Greater Clarksburg Evangelistic Association. He was Chairman of the Ralph Bell Evangelistic Crusade in 1991 and 1996 and was a driver for the American Cancer Association.

WILLIAM R. WITHERS 1930-2016

Reverend William "Bill" Ray Withers was born in 1930 in Rock Cave, West Virginia, the son of the late H. Scott and Ersie J. Withers. He was a veteran who served in the National Guard. He received his Associates degree from Potomac State College, his Bachelor's degree from Shepherd College, his Masters in Divinity from Eastern Mennonite Seminary, and worked towards his Doctorate of Theology from Boston University.

He retired from fulltime ministry in June of 1996 and continued to serve churches until June of 2013. Bill ministered in both the West Virginia and Virginia United Methodist Conferences. He was active in various civic, historic and religious organizations. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather and friend to many. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. Bill will forever be remembered for his love of family and a lifetime of faithful service to our Lord.

Bill married Mary Marie Corathers on September 26, 1953 in Oakland, Maryland. In addition to his wife of sixty-two years, he is survived by his daughters, Susan Marie Fisher and her husband, Terry, of Jonestown, PA, Mary Elizabeth "Beth" Stone and her husband, Paul, of Stephens City, VA, and Patricia Scott Withers Shiflett of Winchester, VA; his son, William Ray "Bill" Withers, II of Gainesville, VA; grandchildren, Tara Fisher, Kaitlin Fisher, Michelle Adkins and her husband, Seth, BM2 Jacob Bashioum, AE3 Travis Bashioum, Brittany Stone, PFC Joshua Stone and his wife, Jordan, John Stone, Alexander Shiflett, Brandon Withers, Tyler Withers, and Connor Withers, one great grandchild, Rahab Rosanna Adkins.

On Sunday, May 1, 2016, Eugene Ray Woolridge, Jr. went to be with the Lord he so lovingly served all of his life. Appropriately, the end of his earthly life came at 12:00 noon at the conclusion of a family worship service that included his favorite hymns and scriptures.

Gene was born in Roanoke, VA on July 25, 1929, the son of Eugene Ray Woolridge, Sr. and Wardie Lou White Woolridge. He was a member of South Roanoke Methodist Church. During his high school years he worked with his father at the family owned lumber business in downtown Roanoke. Having answered God's call upon his life to be a minister, he attended Ferrum College and graduated from Randolph-Macon College. He graduated from Candler School of Theology. Gene was also awarded an honorary Doctor of Ministry degree from Shenandoah University.

While attending Candler he and some friends made a "road trip" to Florida State University in 1954 where he met Jane Smith, who would become his wife and steady companion in ministry. God blessed Gene and Jane with 60+ years of marriage. They shared their lives with three children: Eugene Ray Woolridge, III and his wife Deborah, Laura Jane Wright and her husband Archer, and James Vernon Woolridge and his wife Carrie. They have 11 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild who have brought them much joy.

An ordained clergy in the Virginia Annual Conference for more than 44 years, Gene served the following appointments: Stratford Hills, Richmond; McKendree, Norfolk; Blacksburg; Virginia Beach; and Trinity, Richmond. He served as the first superintendent of the newly formed Harrisonburg District from 1972 until 1978.

Gene was a 4 time delegate to the General Conference of the United Methodist Church and a 6 time delegate to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. He served for 8 years on the General Board of Church & Society, was both a member and chair of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration and chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Upon their retirement in 1997, Gene and Jane moved to Virginia Beach. Gene continued his ministry by teaching the Agape Sunday School at Virginia Beach United Methodist, stepping down from that role only a few months before his death.

Gene was a mentor to many who were preparing for ordained ministry. His knowledge of the United Methodist Church and his wisdom about the ordinary "workings" of the local church was invaluable. He unselfishly shared his gifts and graces to those he encountered. He will be greatly missed.

A memorial service celebrating Gene's life and ministry was conducted on May 12 at Virginia Beach United Methodist Church.

XIII. HISTORICAL STATEMENT

The Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church is the direct descendant of the original annual conference of the United Brethren in Christ and of one of the six original conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The present conference was formed in 1970, by the merger of the Virginia Conference, formerly Methodist, with the former Evangelical United Brethren Conference of the same name. It is the successor to 39 Annual Conferences of eight denominations. Since the oldest of these dates back to the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1784, the 1970 session was declared to be the 188th session of the Conference (two “annual” sessions having been held in 1791 and 1841).

These 39 antecedent conferences are as follows:

THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Virginia (1784-1844), Baltimore (1784-1939), Philadelphia (1784-1869), North Carolina (1836-1844), Washington (1864-1939), Delaware (1864-1939), Virginia and North Carolina Mission (1864-1868), Virginia (1868-1906), North Carolina (1869-1939), Wilmington (1869-1939), East Tennessee (1880-1939), Holston (1906-1939), West Virginia (1906-1939), Atlantic Mission (1906-1912), Blue Ridge- Atlantic (1912-1939)

THE CHURCH OF THE UNITED BRETHREN IN CHRIST

THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH

East Virginia (1829-1834), Maryland (1829-1939), Virginia (1834-1870), North Carolina (1860-1939)

THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH

Virginia (1844-1939), North Carolina (1844-1874), Baltimore (1866-1939)

INDEPENDENT CONFERENCE

Baltimore (1861-1866)

THE METHODIST CHURCH

Virginia (1939-1968), Washington (1939-1965), Delaware (1939-1965), East Tennessee (1939-1965), North Carolina-C.J. (1939-1965), North Carolina-Virginia (1965-1968)

THE EVANGELICAL UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH

Virginia (1946-1968), Central Pennsylvania (1948-1964), Susquehanna (1964-1968)

THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Virginia-M (1968-1970), Virginia-E (1968-1970), Susquehanna (1968-1969)

Virginia was the scene of the ministries of many of the pioneers of the Methodist and United Brethren churches, most notably among them Francis Asbury, one of the first two Methodist bishops; William Watters, Methodism’s first Native American minister; Philip William Otterbein, bishop and leader in the founding of the United Brethren in Christ; and Christian Newcomer, United Brethren pioneer in Virginia and later bishop.

Twenty bishops of the denominations now comprising the United Methodist Church were born within the bounds of the Virginia Conference. They are: William McKendree, Enoch George, John Early, Samuel Hiestand, Beverly Waugh, David S. Doggett, William Taylor, John C. Granbery, William W. Duncan, James W. Hott, Collins Denny, William B. Beauchamp, Paul B. Kern, Paul Neff Garber, Edgar A. Love, Walter C. Gum, Carlton P. Minnick, Jr., R. Kern Eutsler, H. Hasbrouck Hughes, Jr., and Timothy W. Whitaker.

SOME LANDMARK DATES OF THE CONFERENCE

May 11, 1766: Earliest known property for a Methodist Church in America deeded to Methodist Society in Leesburg.

November 14, 1772: Missionary work carried on during 1772 in Southern Virginia by Robert Williams, William Watters and Joseph Pilmoor results in organizing, in Portsmouth, what is now Monumental Church, the oldest church now in existence in the Conference.

May 19, 1778: The Sixth American Methodist Conference held in Leesburg.

May 13, 1781: Harry Hosier preaches first recorded Methodist sermon by a Negro, at Fairfax Chapel in Falls Church.

May 1, 1785: First Session of the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church held at home of William Mason in Brunswick County.

1792: Virginia was the center of the first schism of American Methodism, led by James O’Kelley, a member of the Virginia Conference. It resulted in the formation of the Republican Methodists, now a part of the United Church of Christ.

September 25, 1800: First Session of the Original Conference of the United Brethren in Christ (later called the Virginia Conference) at the home of Peter Kemp, near Frederick, Md.

May 25, 1808: First United Brethren Conference to be held in Virginia, at Abraham Niswander’s home near Middletown.

March 31, 1816: Francis Asbury, pioneer Methodist bishop in America, died at the home of George Arnold, near Spotsylvania.

March 29, 1827: First native American itinerant, William Watters, died at his home in McLean.

May 1, 1846: First General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, met at Union Street Church, Petersburg.

November, 1870: Virginia Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church merged with the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Lynchburg.

October 16, 1939: Virginia Conference of The Methodist Church organized, including all or parts of nine previous conferences, at Richmond.

June 10, 1968: Virginia Conference and North Carolina-Virginia Conference, formerly of The Methodist Church, are merged to form the Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church, at Richmond.

January 3, 1970: Present Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church organized at Madison College, Harrisonburg.

THE NUMBERING OF CONFERENCE SESSIONS

The Virginia Conference was organized in May of 1785. That was its first session. It was one year old at its second session in 1786, and so on, so that its age would always be one less than the number of that year’s session. Then, two annual sessions were held in April and December of 1791 and in January and November of 1841, so that in 2015, the 233rd annual session, the conference was 229 years old.

E. Missionaries Assigned to the Virginia Conference

These missionaries have been assigned to the Virginia Conference for support and cultivation. In addition to those listed below, churches of our conference provide partial or full support for more than 100 other missionaries. Local churches share in missionary support through World Service giving, Advance Specials, and individual salary support. United Methodist Women share in supporting all missionaries through their pledges to missions.

XVIII. STATISTICAL TABLES

For the year JANUARY 1, 2015, through DECEMBER 31, 2015

DAVID DOMMISSE, Conference Statistician

Each of these tables, based on the pastors' reports, has been carefully proofread. In those dealing with finances, there are a number of instances in which amounts reported by several churches within a charge do not add up to the total which is given. In most of these cases, the total was changed on the original statistical sheets to correspond to the amount actually received by the conference treasurer. Differences in financial totals listed and those of the conference treasurer are due to payments made in fractions of dollars, whereas statisticians calculate to the nearest dollar. For questions concerning the statistical tables, contact the conference statistician, David Dommis, P.O. Box 5606, Glen Allen, VA 23058; by phone at (804) 521-1109, or 1-800-768-6040; or via e-mail at <DavidDommis@vaumc.org>.
