JOURNAL OF THE VIRGINIA ANNUAL CONFERENCE
V. DAILY PROCEEDINGS
239TH SESSION
THE VIRGINIA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The COVID-19 global pandemic made the 239th Session of the Virginia Annual Conference unique from pre-COVID years. Conference sessions were held on various dates using telecommunications technology for distance participation. Specific accommodations were used in each, in accordance with CDC safety guidelines to protect members of the Virginia Annual Conference.

CLERGY EXECUTIVE SESSION
THURSDAY, JUNE 10, 2021
Reveille United Methodist Church, Richmond, VA

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic the Clergy Executive Session was held as a Zoom webinar. Bishop Sharma D. Lewis, bishop of the Richmond Episcopal Area, called the Clergy Executive Session to order at 10:00 a.m. She thanked the clergy for their work through the Pandemic and the racial civil unrest. And further, she thanked those who worked on the Worship Workgroup, the Missions and Ministry Workgroup, and now the Post-Covid Re-Entry Group. She welcomed the members of the clergy session and expressed appreciation to Rev. Lindsey Baynham Freeman, Director, Center for Clergy Excellence; Ms. Kristin Dowdy Seibert, Program and Administrative Coordinator, and members of the Board of Ordained Ministry; Ms. Terri Biggins, the office of the Episcopacy; Rev. Tom Joyce, Assistant to the Bishop, and Chancellor Steve Brown, as well as those who made preparations for the session.

Bishop Lewis set the bar for this session as all those present in the Zoom Conference. Those present and eligible to vote are: ordained deacons and elders in full connection-- including those elected to membership and approved for ordination during this meeting. Those with voice are associate members, provisional members, licensed local pastors, and guest clergy. Voting will be done through the Zoom poll platform.

Following the welcome, the clergy and those gathered were invited into a time of worship by Rev. Darcey Johnson, Chair, Order of Elder. Bishop Lewis called upon Rev. Tammy Estep, Chair, Board of Ordained Ministry to lead us through the Minutes Questions. Rev. Estep moved that we admit to the session the administrative staff in the Bishop's Office, Ms. Terri Biggins, and in the Center for Clergy Excellence, Ms. Kristen Dowdy Seibert, and the Conference Chancellor, Mr. Steve Brown, with voice. The motion was approved. Rev. Estep referred to the Minutes Questions and pointed out the page for submitting corrections.

Rev. Estep led the members in the presentation of the Minutes Questions found in the PDF file made available to attendees related to clergy membership in the Annual Conference. Applicable questions were voted on and passed using online polling. Bishop Lewis asked the historic questions of those persons who were to be ordained. Recognition was given to all persons being received into a new relationship within the Annual Conference or being approved for a retired relationship.

Rev. Jeffrey Mickle, Dean of the Cabinet, recognized that "all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23), and that throughout the year areas of concern have been identified and complaints or charges filed, "we the appointive cabinet do believe that the licensed, commissioned, and ordained clergy are earnestly striving after perfection and are blameless in their life and in their official administration."

Rev. Robert Vaughn, Arlington District, Community of Faith Church, advocate of Rev. Andrew Enszt who is currently under complaint, rose to seek a declaratory decision from the Judicial Council pursuant to ¶¶ 56.5 and 2610.2(j) of the 2016 Book of Discipline, relating to the membership status of Rev. Enszt. Bishop Lewis requested that this item be addressed after the Minutes Questions are completed, if it is in order.

Rev. Estep led the members in the presentation of the remaining Minutes Questions found in the PDF file made available to attendees related to clergy membership in the Annual Conference. All Minutes Questions were approved as were necessary (majority, 2/3, or 3/4 vote).

Bishop Lewis called upon Rev. Vaughn to now speak regarding his request to seek a declaratory decision from the Judicial Council pursuant to ¶¶ 56.5 and 2610.2(j) of the 2016 Book of Discipline, relating to the membership status of Rev. Enszt who is under multiple complaints.

In this first series of questions, the context centers around the Bishop's accepting multiple complaints, at different times, by different complainants, based on the same underlying set of facts, and alleging the same chargeable behavior on the part of Rev. Enszt:

1. Pursuant to ¶¶ 20, 362, 2701, and any other pertinent constitutional or Disciplinary rights, as well as Judicial Council Decision 1226 and any other pertinent decisions, may a bishop accept multiple complaints on the same underlying set of facts alleging the same chargeable behavior? Multiple complaints are distinguished from multiple complainants who jointly write and submit a single complaint.
2. When a bishop accepts multiple complaints on the same matter, does it unconstitutionally dilute the rights of the original complainant, or otherwise violate the Disciplinary rights of a complainant pursuant to ¶¶ 362, 2701 or any other provision of the Discipline or Judicial Council decisions, such as in relation to seeking a just resolution to which all parties agree?
3. Does accepting multiple complaints on the same matter constitute double-jeopardy pursuant to ¶ 2701.2(d) or any other provision of the Discipline?
4. Pursuant to ¶362.1 and any and all fair process rights and pertinent Judicial Council decisions, if it is permissible to accept a second complaint on the same matter on which a complaint has already been received, may a bishop a) orchestrate a second complaint; b) disclose to a second complainant or otherwise utilize information that is not public and is only available through the content of the first complaint letter in order to facilitate a viable second complaint; and/or c) orchestrate a second complaint with the effect of partly displacing the original complainant, such as due to finding the original complainant dissatisfactory in some way and desiring a party in the role of complainant who is more hostile to the respondent and more amenable to the bishop?
5. Pursuant to ¶362.1 and any other pertinent Disciplinary provisions, when a complaint is submitted by a cabinet member (district superintendent), and the district superintendent's term on the cabinet ends, and said complainant notifies the bishop of withdrawal of the complaint, is it permissible for a bishop to substitute in a new complainant from among the members of the cabinet or otherwise?

V. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

I request the following further declaratory decision regarding the authority of bishops in relation to complaint process timelines.

6. Pursuant to ¶362.1(e) and Judicial Council Decisions 777, 915, 1156, and 1361, is use of the word “shall,” in relation to conducting a supervisory process within 90 days, a synonym for a different, more permissive verb? Does the Discipline actually mean “shall,” or is it permissible to still be in a supervisory response process around 625 days later?

I request the following series of declaratory decisions regarding fair process rights in the context of the supervisory response process and Rev. Ensz.

7. Pursuant to ¶¶ 20 and 362, any and all aspects of fair process and clergy constitutional or Disciplinary rights, Judicial Council Decisions 777 and 1226 and any other pertinent decisions, is it permissible for a bishop to a) call a meeting with a clergy member, b) outside of a complaint process c) but in contemplation of orchestrating a complaint against that person d) attempt to coerce that clergy person e) into making admissions f) that could then be used as the basis for a complaint?

8. Also pursuant to ¶¶ 20 and 362, any and all aspects of fair process and clergy constitutional or Disciplinary rights, Judicial Council Decisions 777 and 1226 and any other pertinent decisions, is it permissible a) to continue attempting to coerce admissions b) in contemplation of a complaint c) and outside a complaint process d) after the clergy person has already answered questions regarding what would be the substance of the imagined charges.

9. Further, pursuant to ¶¶ 20, 362, 2701, 2704, 2706, any and all aspects of fair process and clergy constitutional or Disciplinary rights, and any pertinent Judicial Council decisions, may a bishop demand that a potential respondent provide evidence of alleged chargeable behavior, thereby alleviating the obligation of the church to expend the effort of investigating and developing evidence of the alleged chargeable behavior sufficient to meet the church’s burden of proof?

10. Further, also pursuant to ¶¶ 20 and 362, any and all aspects of fair process and clergy constitutional or Disciplinary rights, Judicial Council Decisions 777 and 1226 and any other pertinent decisions, a) is it permissible for a bishop to call a meeting with a respondent, b) deny that the meeting is about the complaint against the respondent, c) deny them the opportunity to have their advocate present, d) lure the clergy person into a meeting under the assurance that this meeting has nothing to do with chargeable behavior, e) then try to coerce them f) into making admissions regarding new imagined chargeable behavior g) in contemplation of a complaint?

Finally, I request a declaratory decision regarding the following:

11. When Judicial Council Decision 777 and its progeny state that the steps of complaint, administrative, and judicial processes in ¶362 and elsewhere must be followed “carefully and explicitly or injustice results. Lack of diligence, integrity, care, or compassion in dealing with a case almost always results in irreparable harm to both individual and church”—may a bishop determine whether any such harm would actually result from deviation from Disciplinary processes and lawfully deviate from Disciplinary processes whenever a bishop judges that such harm would not occur or is outweighed by other considerations?

Bishop Lewis received this request, and will convene with Mr. Steven Brown, Chancellor, Virginia Conference and with the Chancellor of the Council of Bishops to consider her response.

Rev. Estep gave thanks to Rev. Baynham Freeman and Ms. Dowdy Seibert for their work as they will be moving from their respective positions.

Bishop Lewis dismissed the clergy session with prayer at 11:36 AM.

Bishop Lewis called upon Chancellor Steve Brown who responded by saying that this action is not a structural change, but that would be what is on the table for next year.

V. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

The request to suspend the rules to change the threshold of the vote on this portion of the budget was approved at 74.86 %.

Rev. Thomas James, Washington Street United Methodist Church, Alexandria District, moved that the new budget lines, listed below, in the 2022 budget found in Schedule C be removed from the 2022 Conference budget.

"Transparency

When, as part of its fiduciary and stewardship responsibilities, the CFA makes long-term financial projections related to future funding of Conference ministries and apportionments, CFA shall communicate those projections verbally and in writing to the Annual Conference.

When CFA proposes significant changes in apportionments (10% or more), especially reductions or complete termination of funding (immediately or over a set period of time) for any board, agency, or other recipient of financial support, such proposed changes and the guiding rationale shall be presented verbally and in writing to the Annual Conference for its information and final approval."

Rev. Hindman moved that Conference Apportionment 406, Virginia Education Fund, shall be retained at the 2020 amount of $420,000.

Bishop Lewis ruled this motion out of order as this motion was not properly before the Council on Finance and Administration in the time as determined by the Conference.

Rev. Hindman asked a question of parliamentary nature about how this was deemed out of order. Mr. David Dommissee, Conference Treasurer, responded that it is an overall increase to the budget and needs to be considered by CFA prior to allowing it on the floor of the Annual Conference.

Rev. Tim Tate, Warrenton United Methodist Church, Alexandria District, moved on page 118 [Book of Reports], under section 5, in the first sub bullet, I move to strike the sentence which reads, “Each District Superintendent’s salary shall be between $105,000 and $120,000 at the discretion of the Bishop” and replace it with “Each District Superintendent’s salary shall be $95,000.” This motion was seconded.

Rev. Alan Layman, Chair, Minutes Committee, reported via pre-recorded video the Minutes Committee will meet on June 22, 2021 to review the June 10, 2021 Clergy Executive Session, the worship services and the minutes of today and tomorrow’s proceedings. Rev. Tammy Estep, Haygood United Methodist Church, Elizabeth River District, raised a point of inquiry into the status of a declaratory decision read into the minutes of the Executive Clergy Session.

Bishop Lewis ruled on this point of inquiry, “I make the following ruling on this motion or request. The motion for a declaratory decision from the Judicial Council is out of order as the contents relate to an open, pending process, and the annual conference is not the proper forum to deal with a pending complaint. The Judicial Council has repeatedly and consistently held that a presiding Bishop has no authority to make substantive rulings on supervisory process at annual conference. Presiding Bishops have no obligation to answer questions that are improper. Furthermore, I will not allow anyone to expose a person who is the subject of the inquiry to further harm and an increased risk of further disclosure of confidential information. The remedy for a violation of confidentiality resides in those processes and not on the floor of an annual conference session. See Judicial Council Decision No. 1131. As this motion or request is out of order, it will not be received in the record and there will be no further discussion.”

Rev. Andrew Enszy, Rise Campus Ministry, Alexandria District, raised a point of order, The Bishop’s ruling is incorrect because it is a request for a declaratory decision and not a ruling of law. It is appropriate for it to come to the floor of Annual Conference.

Bishop Lewis called upon Mr. Steve Brown, Conference Chancellor, who confirmed that any more discussion about this is out of order according to Judicial Council decision 1131.

V. DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Rev. Mickle again brought before the Annual Conference the approval of the District Committees on Ordained Ministry and the District Boards of Church Location and Building. The motion was approved.

Rev. Tim Barth, Floral Hills - Mount Olivet Cooperative Parrish, Danville District, asked a question about the discontinuance of Brown's Chapel United Methodist Church of the Farmville District.

Bishop Lewis recommended that Brown's Chapel United Methodist Church be voted on separately as there were questions around it.

Rev. Ryan Ware, Wesley Chapel – Rock Springs Charge, Danville District, point of clarification Could we get someone on the phone from the Trustees to get a dollar amount in regards to the settled price that was paid to the Conference.

Rev. Mickle led us into a vote on the discontinuation of all listed churches, not including Brown's Chapel of the Farmville District. The motion was approved.

Mr. Dommissie, reported in regards to Brown's Chapel and Rev. Ware's point of clarification. $56,257.00 was the settled price with the Trustees.

The motion to discontinue Brown's Chapel of the Farmville District was approved.

Rev. Susan Hannah, St. Luke's United Methodist Church, Danville District, moved to suspend the rules in order to extend the session of annual conference until 6:30 pm today and reconvene tonight following the Service of Ordering. There was a second. The motion was not approved.

Rev. Mickle moved the approval of Minute Questions 14, 15 and 16 as contained in the Annual Conference Materials. The motion was approved.

Rev. Ware, as someone who voted in the affirmative of Rev. Hannah's motion, moved to reconsider the motion to extend the session.

Rev. Jeff Haugh, Vale United Methodist Church, Arlington District, raised a point of order. Rev. Ware voted in the affirmative and the affirmative lost and so his motion was out of order. Bishop Lewis ruled that this point of order was correct and so this motion was considered out of order.

Ms. Lorac Lawton, St. Stephen's United Methodist Church, Alexandria District, moved to suspend the rules in order to reconsider Rev. Susan Hannah's motion. She had previously voted in the negative. The motion to reconsider passed.

The Hannah motion to suspend the rules in order to extend the session of annual conference until 6:30 pm today and reconvene tonight following the Service of Ordering was approved.

Rev. Mickle requested a moment of personal privilege to thank the people of the Virginia Annual Conference who have extended themselves in many ways over this last year. The cabinet is deeply grateful for all the extraordinary ways people are reaching out during this Post Covid Re-entry.

Mr. Dwayne Stinson, Associate Director of Influence, recognized the new faith communities: Thalia United Methodist Church Microchurch Network, Rev. Joseph Varner, Planter, Elizabeth River District; The Mission at Washington Street United Methodist Church, Ms. Audrey Smith, Planter, James River District; NOVA Missional Hub, Rev. Monica Reynolds, Planter, Rappahannock River and Alexandria Districts; Indian Church RVA, Rev. Sam Kirubakaran, Planter (2019), Richmond District.

Bishop Lewis asked for praise to God for the new faith communities.

Ms. Martha Stokes, Conference Lay Leader, addressed the conference and gave thanks for the mentors in her life, including recently passed Ms. Darlene Amon, previous Conference Lay Leader. She used her recent foot injury as a metaphor for learning new things. Ms. Stokes closed with the words from Ms. Amon speaking to us as clergy and laity encouraging us to work together and taking risks in order to become more than what has been.

Rev. Tammy Estep, Haygood United Methodist Church, Elizabeth River District, raised a point of order. Her previous challenge to the decision of the chair is based from [sic] Judicial Council decision 1131 which says, "whenever a presiding bishop rules a matter of law out of order, the proper remedy is to appeal the bishop's ruling to the body of the session." What was before us were declaratory decisions and do not require a ruling of law by the Bishop.

Bishop Lewis ruled this point of order out of order.

Rev. Joe Carson, III, Chair, Equitable Compensation Commission, reported via pre-recorded video that the recommendation is for there to be no changes to the minimum compensation schedule and the floor schedule. His full report can be found on page 55 of the Book of Reports. The recommendation was approved.

Mr. David Dommisie, Conference Treasurer, gave a word of appreciation to Rev. Joe Carson, III for his years of service.

Rev. Steven Summers, Director, Connectional Ministries, presented the report of Common Table on Church Vitality. There were two recommendations from the Common Table on Church Vitality. The first recommendation was that the Relationship Agreements as presented by the Missional Connections Team of the Conference Missional Ministries Board between the Virginia Conference and Heart Havens, Inc.; UMFS; Pinnacle Living; Virginia United Methodist Housing Development Corporation; and Wesley Housing Development Corporation, be continued. The second recommendation was that Gregory B. West be recommended and endorsed as a General Evangelist according to the standards set by the General Board of Discipleship.

Rev. Jeff Haugh, Vale United Methodist Church, Arlington District, requested a response from Rev. West to the question, "You believed that it is time for the church to split a few years ago. What is your current stance on these issues today?"

Bishop ruled this question out of order and stated that due to the personal nature of this question it needed to be taken up with Rev. West outside of Annual Conference.

These recommendations from Common Table of Church Vitality were approved.

Rev. Summers presented the nominations to committees, commissions, boards and agencies, pages 88-92, Book of Reports, and on the Addendum found in the Official Packet. The motion was approved.

FRIDAY EVENING SERVICE OF ORDERING OF MINISTRY FRIDAY, JUNE 18, 2021 REVEILLE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

Due to COVID-19, the services of Commissioning and Ordination were pre-recorded on Monday, June 14, 2021 and were streamed on Friday June 18, 2021 beginning at 6:45 pm. The Services commissioned ten candidates as Commissioned members, ordained no Deacons, and ordained twelve Elders. The service concluded with Bishop Lewis offering a benediction. All worship services were recorded in more detail at the beginning of these minutes.

SATURDAY MORNING PLENARY SESSION SATURDAY, JUNE 19, 2021 REVEILLE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

Starting at 8:46 am, Mr. Gerald Ricks and Conference House Band led us in a time of Singing Our Faith. At 9:00 am, Bishop Sharma D. Lewis, bishop of the Richmond Episcopal Area, introduced our bible study leader, Rev. John Kinney, Virginia Union University, retired Dean of the Samuel Dewitt Proctor School of Theology and Senior Vice President of the university. Rev. Kinney led the Annual Conference in a pre-recorded Bible study titled, "United in Serving". The texts that Rev. Kinney chose were his own reading of the deviation in creation (the fall of Adam and Eve) and Matthew 25. The major points of his study were: God's deliverance was the block that pushed us into the promise of a new heaven and new earth. The Church is culpable in the continuation of the deviation when the Church acts as though they are the place for people to come to be better than other people. "When you have done something to the least of these, you have done them to me" says Jesus. And in this teaching, it is not an up/down relationship, but a side-to-side relationship. God is such a God of with, that God is willing to come down, even to hell, to be with us. And we are called not to be in division, but to be in oneness in relationship with each person who is made uniquely whole.

Rev. Mary Dadisman, Chair, Commission on the Status and Role of Women, reported on the monitoring process. Rev. Dadisman began her report with a prayer of thanksgiving from the United Methodist Hymnal. The full report will be published later on the conference website and sent out via email as the statistics are still being compiled. Rev. Dadisman's immediate reflections though sees more laity and racial diversity speaking at this Annual Conference in comparison to previous Virginia Annual Conferences. Commission on Ethnic Minority Concerns and Advocacy (CEMCA), would like to announce that today is Juneteenth, a day of truth and reconciliation and we call upon all Methodists to pray and participate as today is the first national recognized holiday celebrating freedom from slavery.

At 10:00 am there was an order of the day to begin our worship service for the service of Mission and Ministry. Mr. Gerald Ricks, Worship Leader, and Annual Conference House Band opened the service with words of welcome. This service was live from Reveille United Methodist Church, Richmond, VA. Bishop Lewis delivered the sermon "United as One". Her text was John 17:20-23 and was read by Rev. Kendra Grimes, Randolph-Macon College Chaplain, Richmond District. Bishop Lewis reminded her listeners of a calling to be one with Christ by recalling Jesus' prayer to God and his prayer for the disciples. This prayer of Christ is trustworthy and true. Our oneness with God mandates us to share the good news of Jesus' salvation offered through his sacrifice.

A conference offering was collected during this worship service via a donation link on the conference website or by mail to the Conference Treasurer's office, and will continue to be received until August 31, 2021. This year, the goal of our conference offering is $200,000.00, which will support Partnerships of Hope and Virginia Area Food Pantries. In Mozambique we provide support for Theological Education for Leaders ministry; in Brazil, our efforts support the Shade and Fresh Water Project. Also included is our ministry with the Native Americans. In addition, in Cambodia our focus is on support for street children and making Cambodia a provisional Methodist denomination.

Rev. Seungsoo "RJ" Jun, Associate Director of Serving announced the offering will be collected through the end of August. If the goal of $200,000.00 is reached, we will be pouring a bucket of ice water over top of Bishop Lewis that will be videoed and made available at a later time. Rev. Jun also announced where to find the district drop-off points for our kits and cans.

Rev. Josette Franklin, Greenwood-Laurel Park United Methodist Church, Richmond District, led us in a responsive liturgy before the fixing of the appointments.

The appointment listings were distributed electronically, and Bishop Lewis fixed the appointments as Rev. Jeffrey Mickle, Dean of the Cabinet affirmed that each appointment in their own respective district were correct as distributed, except those District Superintendents who were in person: Rev. Scott Davis, Lynchburg District; Rev. Charles Bates, Rappahannock River District; Rev. Hyo J. Lee, Richmond District approved that appointments were correct as distributed.

Rev. MiRhang Baek, Richmond United Methodist Church, Rappahannock River District, also served as liturgist in the worship service. Rev. Jun, Conference Associate Director of Serving, assisted as the staff lead for the worship service.

At 11:23 am, Bishop Lewis, invited Virginia United Methodists to engage in Ministry this afternoon from 2:00 – 4:00 pm. Then Bishop Lewis thanked the Annual Conference Planning Team and The AV Company. Bishop Lewis gave the closing benediction.

At 11:25 am, Bishop Lewis adjourned the 239th Virginia Annual Conference.

VIII. REPORTS OF CONFERENCE BOARDS AND AGENCIES

COMMITTEE ON RULES

The Rules Committee of the Virginia Annual Conference met twice since the last Annual Conference. We welcomed four new members and addressed many questions presented to us from other boards and committees. In addition to the typical review of proposed amendments and updates, the Rules Committee also coordinated with the Director of Connectional Ministries and the Common Table for Church Vitality on revisions to its charter. We have reviewed the Virginia Conference Standing Rules of Order and Procedure, and this year's proposed amendments and the rationale for each amendment follow.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Proposed amendments to the Standing Rules of Order and Procedure as recommended by the Rules Committee:

Rule 1.A.: Delete the sentences, "The Common Table for Church Vitality ("Common Table") serves to coordinate and prioritize the ministries and resources of the Virginia Conference. It nurtures, interprets and promotes the vision of the Conference, as well as the mandates of The Book of Discipline which relate to Conference work. The Common Table lives out the values of the Conference in its own work, and advocates for the presence and observance of those values in the work and ministry of the Conference."

Rationale: This was an amendment approved by the Annual Conference just last year with input from the prior Director of Connectional Ministries. Upon further reflection and review, the Rules Committee believes the insertion of the purpose of the Common Table into the text defining the purpose of the annual conference was incorrect. They are two different bodies. As such, the Rules Committee proposes deleting this text at Rule 1.A, and inserting it under Rule V, as discussed further below.

Rule 1.D.9.: Insert the subheading "Ex-Officio Members." at the beginning of this rule.

Rationale: This rule was missing a descriptive introductory heading.

Rule 1.D.14.: Insert the clause "as necessary," in the first sentence so it will read as "... the Conference Nominations Team shall, as necessary, appoint a chief teller ..." Insert the clause "as necessary," in the second sentence so it will read as "It shall, as necessary, additionally appoint a team of tellers ..."

Rationale: While the need for tellers remains, with a move toward more electronic voting, the Rules Committee believes there is a need for some flexibility in the language of this rule. We propose only to insert the phrase "as necessary" into the text to modify the strict "shall" directive.

Rule 11.A.2.: Insert "agenda or" into the second sentence so it will read as "... amend the Annual Conference agenda or schedule as needed."

Rationale: This proposed amendment simply acknowledges that the terms "agenda" and "schedule" are often used interchangeably when discussing the timeline for our annual conference. For clarity, we propose that the term "agenda" be added to this rule.

Rule 11.A. 4.: Insert "or before" between "at" and "the" in the first clause of the sentence. Add at the end of the rule, "or at such time as directed by the resident Bishop or presiding officer for consideration." As amended, this rule would read as:

"Persons proposing new reports, changes or additions to the printed report of an agency in the Book of Reports must submit them in writing for delivery to members of the annual conference at the opening session, but not to be considered by the annual conference before the morning session of the second day of annual conference, or at such time as directed by the resident Bishop or presiding officer for consideration."

Rationale: This proposed amendment offers more flexibility as to when a report could be considered by the annual conference. Adding this clause at the end of this rule allows for some discretion for considering an important report or allowing flexibility when the length of an annual conference may be impacted.

Rule 11.D.2.: Insert at the end of the first sentence, "or at such time as directed by the resident Bishop, presiding officer, or the CFA." As amended, this sentence would read as "Proposals or amendments which may require expenditure of funds, which have not been considered by the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA), must be submitted by the conclusion of the afternoon session preceding the concluding day of annual conference, or at such time as directed by the resident Bishop, presiding officer, or the CFA."

Rationale: This proposed amendment also seeks to offer flexibility as to when a proposal requiring funding could be submitted to the CFA for consideration.

Rule 111.B.5.a.: Strike the words "at the podium or floor microphone" and in its place insert the words "and speaking, once recognized", so this rule would read as "a. appearing and speaking, once recognized, for the purpose of conducting Conference business."

Rationale: This proposed amendment seeks to modernize and simplify this rule by realizing that there may not always be a podium or floor microphone from which to speak. It also acknowledges that under Robert's Rules of Order, and with limited exceptions, any speaker must first be recognized.

Rule 111.E.4. – strike from the first sentence, "... of the Lay and Clergy Sessions where members shall be seated during balloting." and in its place insert the following "for Lay and Clergy voting." As amended, this sentence would read, "The presiding officer shall designate the areas for Lay and Clergy voting."

Rationale: This proposed amendment also seeks to modernize and simplify this rule by essentially striking where members "shall be seated" while continuing to designate the areas for voting.

Rule V.: Amend the heading of this rule to incorporate a reference to the Common Table and insert a description of the Common Table at Rule V.A. As amended, this rule would read as

V. ANNUAL CONFERENCE PROGRAMS – COMMON TABLE FOR CHURCH VITALITY, BOARDS, AND AGENCIES

A. The Common Table for Church Vitality. The Common Table for Church Vitality ("Common Table") exists to resource mission and ministry to fulfill the conference mission and vision. As a diverse body of representatives, the Common Table coordinates with Boards and Agencies, assists in the disbursement of ministry and program grants, and oversees the personnel of the Annual Conference offices that are under its guidance. The Common Table supports the Director of Connectional Ministries to fulfill the requirements of Paragraph 208 in the Book of Discipline. The mission, values, membership, officers, committees, meetings, finances, as well as the responsibilities of the Director of Connectional Ministries are set forth in the Charter for the Common Table for Church

Vitality. This Charter is an Appendix to these Standing Rules of Order and Procedure for ease of reference but is not incorporated into these Standing Rules.

All other existing sections of Rule V. would then follow this insertion. Thus, current Rule V.A. “Annual Conference Program Boards and Agencies”, becomes Rule V.B, etc.

Rationale: This proposed amendment flows from the first proposed amendment, above. In recognizing that the annual conference is its own body and that the Common Table is an administrative body of the annual conference operating under a charter, the Rules Committee agreed that Rule V needs to be amended to insert the Common Table, generally describe its purpose, reference the charter and offer clarity that the Common Table charter is a separate document from the Standing Rules of Order and Procedure.

Rule V.A.4.d.: In the first sentence, insert “invite” between the words “and” and “Districts”, and at the end of the sentence add “, and beyond.” In the second sentence, strike “Conference Director of Justice and Missional Excellence” and insert “Associate Director of Serving Ministries (ADSM)”. In the third sentence, strike reference to “two (2)” mission teams and insert “three (3)” and add a third mission team – “and (3) Partnerships in Hope.” As amended, this Rule would read as:

Missional Ministries. The Missional Ministries Board in cooperation with the General Board of Global Ministries and the Common Table for Church Vitality shall develop programs to assist and invite districts and local churches to carry out all phases of the work of the church in mission and of church extensions within the annual conference, and beyond. The Conference Associate Director of Serving Ministries (ADSM) shall serve as the Conference Secretary of Global Ministries (CSGM), fulfilling the responsibilities outlined in ¶ 633.3 of the 2016 Book of Discipline. To discharge its responsibilities it shall divide into three (3) mission teams: (1) Missional Discipleship and Engagement and (2) Missional Connection and (3) Partnerships in Hope. The position of Conference Coordinator of Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns (CUIC) shall be appointed by the Bishop and shall be an ex-officio member of the Mission Connection Team of the Conference Missional Ministries Board, as outlined in ¶ 633.2 of the 2016 Book of Discipline. The membership of the board shall be 20, with 6 or 4 persons (one-half lay and one-half clergy) elected each year to replace outgoing classes.*

Rationale: This proposed amendment was brought to the Rules Committee by the Missional Ministries Board after unanimous approval by the Common Table. The Board seeks this amendment to adapt the rules to its current operations and the addition of a new mission team. The Rules Committee reviewed the proposed amendments and finds them not to be in conflict with the Book of Discipline nor the annual conference’s Standing Rules of Order and Procedure and unanimously approves them for annual conference consideration.

Rule V.E.: Insert the following new rule

E. Meetings of the Common Table, Boards, Councils, Commissions, Foundations and Committees. For the Common Table for Church Vitality, and all District, Board, Council, Commission, Foundation, and Committee sessions or meetings, the terms “meet” and “meeting” shall include meetings where members are physically present in one room or area (“in-person” meetings), and when deemed necessary by the presiding Chairperson, may also include meetings held through electronic means such as the Internet or by telephone.*

Rationale: This proposed amendment would add a new section under Rule V and apply to the annual conference programs, including the Common Table and the various boards, agencies, councils, commissions, foundations, and committees. It addresses a reality that existed prior to the pandemic in that these bodies of the annual conference do, on occasion, need to timely meet and conduct business by electronic means. This mode of meeting became critical over the past year, and the 2021 revision to Robert’s Rules of Order include, for the first time, reference to electronic meetings via the Internet or telephone. This proposed amendment clearly sets forth that the term “meeting” as used throughout the rules covers and validates such electronic meetings.

Rule VI.A.: Insert between “conference” and “at least” the phrase, “in the manner designated by the District Superintendent”. As amended this rule would read as “Each district within the Virginia Conference shall hold a session of the district conference in the manner designated by the District Superintendent at least once during the annual conference year (in accordance with the 2016 Book of Discipline, ¶658).”

Rationale: This proposed amendment seeks to provide sufficient flexibility to each District Superintendent as to the manner in which a district conference may be held, including when necessary, the authority to call an electronic/virtual district conference.

Rule VII.L.: Strike the words “The Virginia Annual Conference Rules and Policies and these Rules of Order and Procedures” and insert “The Virginia Annual Conference Standing Rules of Order and Procedure, including these Rules of Order and Parliamentary Procedure.”. Between the words “referred to” and “, which committee”, strike the words “this Committee” and insert “the Rules Committee”. At the end of the sentence, strike the words “thereon not later than the following day” and insert “as soon as practicable taking into account all of the facts and circumstances of the proposed rule change.” As amended, this Rule would read as “The Virginia Annual Conference Standing Rules of Order and Procedure, including these Rules of Order and Parliamentary Procedure, may be amended or changed by a two-thirds vote of the conference; provided the proposed change or amendment has originated in the Rules Committee, or has been presented to the conference in writing and referred to the Rules Committee, which committee shall report as soon as practicable taking into account all of the facts and circumstances of the proposed rule change.”

Rationale: This proposed amendment does not change the process for changing or amending a Standing Rule. It only offers clarification by inserting the full formal names of the Standing Rules and the full reference to the title of Rule VII, and that the term “this committee” refers to the Rules Committee.

REPORT ON AMENDMENTS TO COMMON TABLE CHARTER

RECOMMENDATIONS

Regarding the Charter of the Common Table:

RATIONALE: As the most recent version of the Charter of the Common Table for Church Vitality was created over fifteen years ago, in 2020 the Virginia Conference Common Table for Church Vitality completed an in-depth review of the January 1, 2006 Charter, and additional revisions in 2013 and 2015, for the purposes of updating and modernizing the Charter. While the changes are not significant in nature, the proposed amended Charter addresses issues raised by members of the Annual Conference and provides additional clarity in several areas. This revised Charter was introduced at the 2020 Annual Conference and is now before the 2021 Virginia Annual Conference for approval. Please note that The Common Table Charter is not a part of the Conference’s Standing Rules, but it is presented as an appendix to the Rules for ease of reference. The proposed amendments require a simple majority vote of the Annual Conference. A copy of the Charter as it would be with these amendments follows these recommendations.

1. Section I, PURPOSE - in the first sentence, strike “serves to coordinate and prioritize the ministries and resources of the Virginia Conference. It nurtures, interprets and promotes the vision of the Conference, as well as the mandates of The Book of Discipline which relate to Conference work. The Common Table lives out the values of the Conference (stated below in I.B.) in its own work, and advocates for the presence and observance of those values in the work and ministry of the Conference.” and insert “exists to resource mission and ministry to fulfill the conference mission and vision. As a diverse body of representatives, the Common Table coordinates with Boards and Agencies, assists in the disbursement of ministry and program grants, and oversees the personnel of the Annual Conference offices that are under its guidance. The Common Table supports the Director of Connectional Ministries to fulfill the requirements of the Book of Discipline.”

Rationale for Purpose Amendment: This amendment provides a greater clarity of purpose for the existence of the Common Table as a resource for the fulfillment of the Conference mission and vision. Additionally, it highlights its intentionally diverse nature, its responsibility for personnel oversight, and its support of the Director of Connectional Ministries in compliance with The Book of Discipline.

2. Section I.A. – strike “by equipping its local churches for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church; all to the glory of God.”

Rationale for Mission Amendment: This language is deleted because it relates more to purpose and method, not mission. Additionally, it is redundant as methodology is addressed in the language of “Section I, PURPOSE.”)

3. Section I – Add new section B. titled VISION. Insert the following text: The vision of the Virginia Annual Conference is to be disciples of Jesus Christ who are lifelong learners who influence others to serve.

Rationale for Vision Statement: While many references are made to the “vision,” the vision of the Virginia Annual Conference is never explicitly stated for clarity and alignment in relation to the rest of the 2006 Common Table Charter with the 2013 and 2015 revisions. Visions are living words, in the power of the Holy Spirit, and are subject to change to remain contextually relevant while biblically grounded. But any vision needs articulation to appropriately connect to values and expressions of implementation.

4. Section I – Add new section “C.” to encompass revised “Values” which were previously contained in Section B. The amended text strikes “The Conference shall embody the following values as it endeavors to assist all churches in the task of making disciples:

Be led by the Holy Spirit.

Grow spiritually and numerically.

Serve the local church.

Connect with and equip the local church for ministries of welcome, nurture and transformation.

Develop and live out ministries to the poor.

Strive for excellence.

Model servant-leadership at all levels.

Honor diversity and teach inclusivity.

Practice simplicity.

Communicate effectively, that others might also.

Focus on ministry.”

The revised Values would be as follows:

-Integrity in the work.

-Good communication

-Diversity of voices at the table

-Creative thinking to benefit the whole

-Advocate for justice and non-discrimination for all”

Rationale for Values Amendments: After extensive prayer, discernment, and conversation, The Common Table has determined that these values reflect our current context, and we have covenanted to uphold these values.

5. Section II, MEMBERSHIP – Move the last sentence in Section 2 that reads “It is both desirable and consistent with our Conference values that the members of the Common Table represent the diversity of our Conference” So that it becomes the second sentence in the first paragraph, after “...carry out the Purpose of this Charter.” In the next sentence, change “14” to “12” and “2” to “3” with regards to voting and non-voting positions
6. Section II.A.7 – change “Eight” to “Six” for the composition of the at-large members.
7. Section II.B – add “2.” Before “The elected Secretary of the Annual Conference....” Strike “without vote” at the end of that sentence.
8. Section II 2.B – add “3. Representative from contributors such as the United Methodist Women to Grants Committee only” as a category of non-voting members.

Rationale for Membership Amendments: Through this minor change, The Common Table feels this rebalancing of membership will assist in its decision-making effectiveness. The other changes provide clarity, conciseness, and greater representation on the Grants Committee.

9. Section III, SELECTION OF AT-LARGE COMMON TABLE MEMBERS – strike “1. Four” and add “All members”, replace “2 with “3” clergy and replace “2” with “3” laity; strike “Leadership Discovery and Development Team” and add “Nominations Team in consultation with the Bishop” so that the sentence reads “All Members of the Common Table at-large (3 clergy and 3 laity) are nominated by the Conference Nominations Team in consultation with the Bishop and elected by the annual conference.”
10. Section III – strike “2. Four of the Common Table at-large members (2 clergy and 2 laity) are nominated by the Bishop and elected by the annual conference.”
11. Section IV, TERMS OF SERVICE FOR AT-LARGE MEMBERS – in first sentence, after “At-large members serve...” add “up to two”. In the third sentence, replace “Conference Leadership Discovery and Development Team” with “Conference Nominations Team” and strike “or the Bishop, according to method of nomination” and add “in consultation with the Bishop”.

Rationale for At-Large Members Amendments: The Charter changes the language “Leadership Discovery and Development Team” to “Nominations Team” in alignment with the action of the 2020 Annual Conference. In addition, the Charter changes the Bishop’s role in selecting membership to Common

Table to be consultative. The proposed revision provides for a member to serve two four-year terms.

12. Section V, MEETINGS – strike the first and second sentences and replace with “The Common Table will prioritize the work that needs to be accomplished in a timely manner, and will meet as often as necessary to complete this work, meeting at least quarterly. Quarterly meetings would include a time for team building and operational issues.” The sentence, “Meetings shall be open, consistent with the provision of the Book of Discipline” shall remain. Add the following two sentences: “In the event it is determined that the Common Table will meet electronically, the Director of Connectional Ministries shall use all reasonable means to ensure the opportunity for participation by all interested individuals. Non-members of the Common Table may attend without voice and vote unless granted voice by the meeting presider.” Then, at the end of the paragraph, add “The Common Table will move to closed executive meetings to discuss confidential information when deemed necessary by a majority vote of the Common Table. Approved Common Table minutes will be on the conference website for public viewing.”

Rationale for Meetings Amendments: The revisions provide for the needed frequency and structure of Common Table meetings to fulfill its responsibilities. In addition, it makes allowances for electronically held meetings that are open to all and a process whereby closed executive sessions can be held for confidential matters.

13. Section VI, OFFICERS – after the third sentence, add a new sentence, “Meetings may be led by the Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, or a designated meeting presider.”

Rationale for Officer Amendment: This Charter revision allows for flexibility in leadership for meetings.

14. Section VII, COMMITTEES – under A, Personnel Committee, add “from within its members.” to the end of the second sentence so that this sentence reads, “The Common Table shall appoint the chair of the Personnel Committee from within its members.”

15. Section VII, COMMITTEES - under B, Grants Committee, add, “3. Ministry programs that advance the conference vision, funded through Conference apportionment.”

Rationale for Committee Amendments: Proposed Amendment VII.A. provides clarity of language. Proposed Amendment VII.B. provides for the Grants category of “Ministry Programs.”

16. Section VIII, SELECTION OF DIRECTOR OF CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES AND STAFF – Section A. in the first sentence, strike “Table’s Personnel Committee and the Cabinet.” And in its place insert “Table” and continue the remainder of the original sentence. Add a new second sentence, “The Director shall serve a maximum tenure of eight years in keeping with the Appointive Cabinet practice.”
17. Section VIII.A.3 – after “...program agencies”, insert “laity, clergy” and continue original sentence.
18. Section VIII.A.4 – strike all existing text and replace with “To serve as a resource person for Virginia Appointive Cabinet, Districts, clergy, laity, local churches and Conference ministries to include program planning, ministry evaluation and Conference vision implementation.”
19. Section VIII.A.5 – Strike all of this existing section - “To supervise the Conference program staff persons.”
20. Section VIII.A.5 – Old Section 6 becomes new Section 5 and to the following sentence, add “Bishop” after “ the Annual Conference,” and continue original sentence.
21. Section VIII.B – strike the entire section and replace with “B. Each staff person shall be nominated annually by Common Table in consultation with the Bishop and appropriate resourced Boards and Agencies.”
22. Section VIII.C. – strike all of the existing text of this section
23. Section VIII.D, becomes the new Section C – in first sentence, strike “and all of the boards and agencies; then later in this sentence replace “oversee the” with “have oversight of”.
24. Section VIII.E, becomes the new Section D – in the first sentence, strike “Conference”; and, in the second sentence, replace “administration and direction” with “oversight and supervision”.
25. Section VIII.F becomes the new Section E – in the first sentence, strike “in consultation with the appropriate elected staff member as may be requested and as provision for same is made by the Common Table.” In its place, insert “The Director of Connectional Ministries will give oversight to and supervise the Administrative/Technical/Professional staff in accordance with the personnel policies and the staff manual.”

Rationale for Selection of DCM and Staff Amendments: The proposed Amendments to Section VIII provide for:

CABINET REPORT 2020

The Alexandria District has benefitted from amazing resilience and resourcefulness, rooted in God's steadfast love and faithfulness. With a team effort among laity and clergy, across generations, we have found new ways to be the Church amid the ongoing challenges and opportunities of the pandemic. New people have been reached through house churches, online engagement, and people helping people to find the strong anchor of Christ's love in the swirling storms of disease, race, polarization, and fatigue. Support for Rising Hope Mission Church has been generous as we prepare for the retirement of its founding pastor, Rev. Dr. Keary Kincannon, and we look forward to working with our new District Superintendent, Rev. Dr. Sarah Calvert.

The Arlington District has been working very hard to help all the churches of the District navigate the changes necessary for a world-wide pandemic, increased awareness of racial injustices, and a divisive election that often resulted in church conflict. Our focus has been to stay calm, stay connected, and stay on course. With the gift of an amazing District team, we have done extensive training, one-on-one instruction and coaching for technical, communications, racial reconciliation work and conflictual situations. We have moved to more frequent conferencing with weekly DS notes and chats with clergy, adding more laity calls and meetings of HCT teams. Overall, Arlington District has been amazing during these trying times, with excellent clergy and laity leadership as the key to leading in love despite the many challenges arising.

The Charlottesville District continues to be a Beacon of Light and Hope through such ministries as Rachel's Haven, a ministry for those with developmental disabilities; the Central Virginia Mission HUB ministry, collecting items for Mission Central; and Emanuel Youth Mission in El Salvador which supports youth and their families. This is just a partial listing of our District Ministries. Our District Superintendency Committee has been working diligently on preparing to receive our next Superintendent, Rev. Dr. Hyo Lee. We welcome Hyo and Kay to the Charlottesville District.

The Danville District continues its commitment to vital mission that sees the needs of our communities and responds with the Love of Christ, expressed in real and tangible ways, even in the midst of the COVID pandemic. The Henry Fork Service Center staff continues its work to provide excellent care in a Christian setting, in ways that safeguard the health of the children, staff and community. Churches in the Danville District have mobilized the Healthy Church Teams to innovate new ministry and adapt much loved ministries to provide both spiritual and physical nourishment for their communities, while clergy have poured themselves into providing safe and quality worship and creative connection, partnering with laity to sustain the church family with Christ's love. While COVID and its impacts have been challenging, God is at work through the faithful laity and clergy of the Danville District.

The Eastern Shore District saw churches innovating to meet the challenges of the pandemic. Even in areas underserved by technology, churches developed online and telephonic options for worship, study, and community. A course on race relations titled "Can We Talk?" brought together 25 lay and clergy persons from across the district for lay servant and continuing education credit. Other online sessions focused on coping with stress and anxiety, alternatives to singing, and doing ministry online.

The Elizabeth River District has been supporting our local churches and clergy during this pandemic. We have provided grants to food pantries and drive-thru hot meals, helped congregations find meaningful ways to worship either virtually, in-person, drive-in, by telephone and outdoors. Our clergy and laity have done an amazing job of caring for congregants who cannot get out of their houses and found creative ways to provide sacraments.

The Farmville District is blessed to be the hands and feet of Christ over the 5500 square miles that make up the Farmville District. COVID has presented challenges to every church in the connection, but the innovative and faithful church families of the Farmville District have found creative ways to continue to deepen their relationship with God, each other, and their communities. Drive in, outside and inside worship opportunities abound, alongside online worship, which has extended the reach of even small rural churches, while also keeping the church family connected and spiritually fed. Clergy and laity are partnering to adapt, innovate and create in ways that touch all the ministries of the local church.

The Harrisonburg District has responded well to the challenges we have faced due to COVID19. We realized that church is not a building, but what we do from Monday through Saturday, and then we come on Sunday to celebrate what God has done with us and through us. Mission Central continues to provide clothes and medical equipment to those in need. Clergy and laity continue to share God's love by broadcasting online worship, drive-in worship, outdoor worship, and in-person worship. God is being glorified in amazing ways!

2020-2021 has been a challenging year across our connection, but churches throughout the James River District have realized that challenges, while painful, are also opportunities to learn, grow, try new things, and reach new people in ways that we might not have previously considered (online and drive-in worship, small groups via phone, porch chats, vespers on Facebook, etc.). As a district, we have worked to offer support through these "unprecedented" times by ensuring that every church and pastor has had the resources they needed to be able to connect to their congregations in ways appropriate to the technology available in each community and church. While much of our energy has been focused on helping churches make the immediate pivots necessary to be in ministry in the world of COVID, we have also introduced and coached churches in the implementation of Simplified, Accountable Structure (SAS) which has the power to help re-center churches on their mission, simplify the administrative and decision-making structure, and create lines of accountability. Finally, we have prioritized clergy care by gathering regularly via Zoom to care for each other's souls and encourage one another in ministry, offering virtual trainings and support, and creating systems to keep clergy connected to others in their branches (sub-districts).

The churches of the Lynchburg District shared stories of resilience in the midst of pandemic generated challenges during our 62 charge conference sessions. Our clergy have largely practiced adaptive leadership by expanding worship options including phone, online, drive-in, and outdoor worship; and finding new ways to engage their communities. We are grateful for the creative, faithful, energizing work of Rev. Leigh Anne Taylor, our Revitalization Coordinator. The Park View Community Mission continues to grow exponentially, offering help, healing, and hope by feeding the body, educating the mind, and transforming the soul in partnership with thousands of neighbors in the City of Lynchburg and beyond.

The Rappahannock River District sees to make disciples through four entry points: Unity, Spiritual Formation, Empowering Our Laity, and through Mission ministry in our neighborhoods, throughout our Conference, and around the world. Our missional objective is achieved by the shared and valued commitment of lay and clergy as equal and effective partners in ministry. The partnership includes investment in a national program (The Open Table) that trains volunteers to work together with people experiencing economic and relationship poverty. The partnership also involves a union with Transitions4you, a motel ministry, and other local and global missions focus, including Youth Mission Camp for Middle School and High School students that provide opportunities for leadership development, and a focus of El Salvador UMC – all to the honor and glory of God.

In 2020-21, despite the coronavirus and the nation's social and political challenges, the Richmond District's laity and clergy have been faithful in following and offering Christ to the world. To help our churches fulfill this mission, we provided diverse training resources through Next Level Innovations (NLI) and the Simplified Accountable Structure (SAS), as well as district-wide training on vital congregations with the Rev. Jorge Acevedo. We also created the Richmond District COVID Mission Task Force and identified food insecurities as the on-going greatest need in our district. God being with us (Ephesians 3:20-21), the Richmond District will continue to make disciples of Jesus Christ who glorify the Lord and transform people's lives in the world.

On the Roanoke District, the extravagant generosity of our clergy and laity bore much fruit in 2020 apportionment collections exceeding those of 2019. Our Spiritual Leadership Institute (SLI) cohort of clergy leaders continues to deepen their resources in "loving, learning, and leading" their congregations into new avenues of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Our clergy and laity have shown a remarkable ability to truly be "life-long learners" through educating themselves in multimedia and social media to proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ to their communities and beyond.

The Staunton District has been able to maintain worship, ministry, and mission outreach in many ways throughout the past Conference year in spite of the pandemic. Even though the pandemic caused most churches to remain closed initially, most were able to develop HCT plans for holding in-person worship while at the same time developing multiple ways of regularly reaching out to, and checking on, church family and community members. Food pantry ministries have been started or expanded in almost every corner of the District. EMBRACE - Waynesboro a Fresh Expressions worship-community has been able to continue many outreach programs and is developing new ways of ministry for the post-COVID pandemic. To God be the glory!

The Winchester District has gone strong in a time of COVID-19 and transition. Churches around the District continue to worship God in so many ways. Several churches supported a homeless ministry, and even hosted it in the winter months. What a way to be the hands and feet of Jesus! Since November 2020, the District has continued to do ministry under the leadership of DS Gómez, DS Calvert, and DS Bates, and especially under the faithful leadership of its clergy and laity as together we are making disciples of Jesus Christ.

The York River District has embraced God's call to "be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power" (Ephesians 6:10) in the face of the multi-layers of disturbances and challenges presented before us. Faithful engagements of clergy and laity in ministry together by their prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness have resulted in new and creative ways to stay connected as the body of Christ and to offer Christ to the hurting world. The District Board of Missions offered over $80,000 of grants to support various programs and services of local churches and agencies. As continued efforts to revitalize churches, the District has sponsored Next Level Innovations, Shift leadership trainings, and Simplified Accountable Structure workshops. Great is God's faithfulness!

COMMON TABLE FOR CHURCH VITALITY

The past conference year has been a challenging, active, and fruitful season for the Common Table for Church Vitality. The Common Table charter revision before the Annual Conference for approval this year states that the Common Table “exists to resource mission and ministry to fulfill the conference mission and vision. As a diverse body of representatives, the Common Table coordinates with Boards and Agencies, assists in the disbursement of ministry and program grants, and oversees the personnel of the Annual Conference offices that are under its guidance. The Common Table supports the Director of Connectional Ministries to fulfill the requirements of Paragraph 208 in the Book of Discipline.”

To effectively work to fulfill this bold, Godly purpose, the Common Table spent a significant amount of time in the last conference year working on:

1. Clarifying, defining, and naming our core relational and operational values.
2. Building relational trust and accountability within our own leadership body in alignment with those values. We see this work as mission critical for not only us, but we also seek to model this process for other leadership bodies during a season of denominational, social, and political tensions. We are thankful to Bishop Sharma D. Lewis for her presence with, and episcopal guidance to, the Common Table.
3. Redefining, clarifying, and communicating the means through which the Common Table provides Connectional Ministry staffing resources to Boards, Agencies, and the larger body of the Virginia Annual Conference.
4. Facilitating the mandates of the Common Table within a season of radical ministry and required financial pivots in response to the COVID-19 global pandemic. We continually seek ways to more effectively facilitate our work such as the recent combining of all grant applications into one universal application.

The “redefining” in number three above has largely been, and is still being, formed through the alignment of our three new Associate Directors of Learning, Influencing, and Serving with the vision of the Annual Conference that we are all called “to be disciples of Jesus Christ who are lifelong learners who influence others to serve.” All of our Connectional Ministries staff (program, technical, and administrative), are proactively working to resource the mission and vision of the Annual Conference in collaboration with the Director of Connectional Ministries and the Common Table for Church Vitality.

We offer our thanks for the sacrificial leadership that we see accomplished through the Boards, Agencies, and all the ministries of the Virginia Annual Conference. Most of these ministries are offered in “quiet” ways but offer a profound transformational presence in the cause of Christ.

As the Common Table, we joyfully share that our work has been filled with the presence of the Holy Spirit, a renewed sense of vitality, and a deep sense of Hope for all that is to come for the Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church – all to the glory of God!

RECOMMENDATIONS

On behalf of the Missional Ministries Board:

That the Relationship Agreements as presented to the Missional Connections Team of the Conference Missional Ministries Board between the Virginia Conference and Heart Havens, Inc.; UMFS; Pinnacle Living; Virginia United Methodist Housing Development Corporation; and Wesley Housing Development Corporation, be continued.

On behalf of the Board of Discipleship:

That Gregory B. West be recommended and endorsed as a General Evangelist according to the standards set by

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The United Methodist Book of Discipline (1629) specifies the purpose of the Conference Board of Church and Society. The Conference Board is to help the conference, districts and congregations employ our Social Principles to connect our faith communities to the world around us. This work is both individual and societal. We are called to invite faithful disciples of Christ to lead the church prayerfully into the world.

We have organized our board to follow the issues raised by our United Methodist Bishop’s letter: “God’s Renewed Creation: Call to Hope and Action.” In this 2009 letter, UMC bishops raised virtually the same issues, as did Catholic Pope Francis in 2015, namely that the world is awash in 1. Violence,

2. Environmental Destruction, and 3. Poverty.

Following the need to address these three interconnected disasters, we have organized three work areas: 1. Peace and Non-Violence, 2. Caretakers of God's Creation, and 3. Eradicating Poverty/Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries.

In the spring of 2020, we were asked to do a Board self-evaluation on our relevance in the conference. As we were in conversation, we concluded that we were not as relevant as we had been in the past. So, over the past few months we have re-defined ourselves to become more relevant and active in the conference. By teaming up with other groups that are involved in the same mission we hope to get more done in the community and on the conference level. By working together, we can advocate more effectively and efficiently.

Peace with Justice Sunday:

The Conference Board promotes the Peace with Justice Sunday Special Offering, one of the six Church-wide offerings that The United Methodist General Conference asks of each local church. In 2020, because of the pandemic we did not do well with our churches gave to this Special Offering, but their giving has allowed the conference to fund key ministries within the conference. We expect the 2021 total will show more churches taking the offering. One half of the offering stays in the annual conference, the other half is used by the General Board.

Caretakers of God's Creation:

The Board's Caretakers of God's Creation work area has begun a program of district workshops to help churches become "Green Churches". The Caretakers are also working to help congregations divest of stocks of thermal coal companies as required by the resolution voted on at conference in 2015. Caretakers also co-sponsored the National Caretakers of God's Creation Climate Justice Conference held at Mt. Olivet United Methodist Church in Arlington. Each year, Caretakers awards a conference church, the Green Church of the Year award.

Peace and Non-violence Work Area:

The Peace and Non-violence Work Area has been active with NFoR care for immigrants and refugees.

Reflecting our mission to serve people in need, Church and Society provided a Peace with Justice Grant to NoVa Friends of Refugees (NFoR), an interfaith grassroots network of people who welcome, assist, and advocate for refugees. During the 2018-2019 grant period, the NFoR network grew 30% and became a respected referral resource for helping resettling refugees. Are have also partnered with Warriors Heart USA to help us with the resolution dealing with PTSD.

Eradicating Poverty/Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministry:

The Eradicating Poverty Work Area is exploring way to better service out brothers and sisters who have been incarcerated to help them to be functional in society again. WE are working with other prison ministries to understand the impact has on our communities.

United Methodist Day at the General Assembly:

This year was the 29th anniversary United Methodist Day at the General Assembly. We partner with the Virginia Interfaith Center on Public Policy to hold the United Methodist Day at the General Assembly. Each year, United Methodist Day at the General Assembly is held on the first Thursday in February. We hold this event jointly with the United Methodist Women and the Conference Legislative Network. We look forward to Bishop Lewis helping to lead the event in future years.

— James Page, Clergy Co-Chair

THE CHURCH DEVELOPMENT TEAM

The Church Development Team (CDT) continues to work diligently to fulfill its mission to assist in creating New Faith Communities and to promote vitality in existing churches under the All Things New initiative.

As reported a year ago, we launched two new faith communities during 2020, bringing the total number of new faith communities begun during the All Things New Initiative to fifty-two (53), of which thirty-nine (39) persist (73.6%).

The 2020 year offered new challenges in the midst of a global pandemic as well as a restructuring of staff at the conference level. Due to the pandemic, we launched no new faith communities during 2021, nor did the Five Talent Academy sponsor any programs. Nonetheless, we have had several proposals submitted for future launches, each of which represent the moving of God's Spirit in new ways. Thus far, we have had three proposals, two of which have been approved thus far, to initiate what have been variously described as micro-churches, house churches, or missional hubs. These build on the ministry modeled by Jesus, as he went from home to home proclaiming the good news. The CDT looks forward to witnessing the work of the Spirit in these new endeavors and to reporting on these efforts in the years ahead.

The Church Development Team also looks forward to advancing its work with the capable support of the new Associate Director of Influence, Dwayne Stinson. We are confident that our efforts will continue to bear ever-greater fruit with the addition of his gifts and talents.

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

Our mission is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Our vision set forth by Bishop Lewis is to make disciples of Jesus Christ who are life long learners influencing others to serve. With this mission and vision before us, the challenge is for each congregation in the Virginia Conference to become better at making disciples. This challenge may be met as each congregation develops an intentional discipleship path that identifies their discipleship system. The Board of Discipleship desires to be a resource for all congregations of the conference as they develop their intentional discipleship path.

All over the conference, we have available trained coaches who can assist churches of any size. Coaches are available to work with churches as they learn how to navigate from a membership focus to a discipleship focus. These coaches are clergy and laity within the conference who are now available for little or no cost to churches. Members of this Board continue to break down all the different aspects of an intentional discipleship plan into seed packets which can be planted over time in specific situations to reap a growing harvest of disciples within any church.

Each year the Board of Discipleship awards one youth, one laity and one Clergy the Denman Evangelism award. Along with the Denman awards, the Board of Discipleship endorses candidates for the work of evangelism in the United Methodist Church. The General Conference of the UMC offers the One Church Matters Award to each annual conference in recognition of a congregation's turn around success in growth, professions of faith and fruitfulness. We want to remember that the One Church Matters award celebrates the beginnings of a congregation's intentional discipleship path because its criteria is both baptisms and professions of faith for persons of all ages.

We also participate in the Christian Education Sunday and use those funds for scholarship and grant requests for Education in our local churches, districts and conference. We work closely with the Office of Bishop by facilitating conference wide activities like the Bishop's Convocation of Prayer. Members of the Board continually work with the Conference Staff and Cabinet in areas of Discipleship. It has been my honor to serve as Chair this year as we focus on being disciples of Jesus Christ who are life-long learners influencing others to serve.

Older Adult Council

The Virginia Conference Older Adult Council has become increasingly aware of the enormous cost ageism inflicts on all ministries of the Church. The Council's mandate is to provide resources for ministry to, for, by and with older adults. We endeavor to equip both clergy and laity for ministry, which is inclusive to all members of our communities of faith as well as to the greater community. Jesus calls us to make disciples. Our Bishop, Sharma Lewis encourages us to be life long learners. We are to be both makers and growers of disciples for the building of the Kingdom.

Yet, we have seen many long time, faithful, older adult members feel they do not have the ability to share the Good News or even know how to pray in public. We have heard older adults say “I think I’ve lived a good enough life to go to heaven.” This is heart breaking. Somehow, the message of God’s grace being shared by our dedicated clergy has not penetrated into the hearts of many good and faithful servants.

In this time of increased isolation caused by the pandemic many older adult community members are feeling even more lost and lonely. The need to reach out to the widows (widowers) and orphans as directed by Jesus has grown enormously. Being equipped to meet both the physical and spiritual needs is essential for the local church. At a time when the demands on our pastors is growing and changing constantly, we must find means to equip the laity in ways not used in generations. The “professionals” cannot be expected to do all the entire Body of Christ is called to do.

We, on the Council, have become increasingly impressed that many in leadership across the Conference are unaware of the Council’s existence and the depth of resources we provide. We are here and committed to help, to promote dialogue raising awareness of the urgent need to combat ageism, to encourage growth of ministry to, for, by and with each and every individual in the Conference regardless of age, and to promote intergenerational sharing of our faith journeys.

Please go to the Conference website to find the Older Adult Council page, which will give you a list of media resources. In each District office there is a copy of our published curriculum, Spiritual Legacy Box, developed to encourage members to share their faith experiences inter- generationally. We offer a recorded worship service, which may be used for Older Adult Sunday. We have a speakers, who will gladly offer in person or Zoom training in Older Adult Ministries, including Grief and Loss Ministries; Experiencing God for the Older Adult; Hard Questions for Adult Children and Their Aging Parents; Ministry with Boomers and Beyond; and Changing Perceptions, an Understanding of the Aging Senses in the Worship Setting.

We look forward to having many meaningful conversations and seek local church and district leaders to join us in our efforts encouraging more inclusivity in both our language and our behavior towards older adults. We can be reached by contacting our chair, Suzanne Spencer, schmidley711@gmail.com.

Conference Evangelist

Sharing the good news of Jesus & His Kingdom + Equipping the Church to do the same!

In 2020 Greg began serving as a full-time evangelist. He was first appointed to the role in 2010 in a part-time capacity while he served as the Chaplain at Virginia Wesleyan University. Greg has also served as a Pastor and church planter. “When I share that I am an evangelist, I clarify by saying: No big hair, no limousines and no coercive appeals for money, not that kind of evangelist.” Jesus’ invitation is to “Follow me, and I will make you fish for people” (Matthew 4:19 NRSV). We all need equipping to be more effective in offering Christ to others. In Ephesians 4:11-12, evangelists are listed with apostles, prophets, pastors and teachers as those who are to equip God’s people for the work of the ministry.

Greg is passionate about ‘The Method of Jesus and the Method of the Methodists’, that is small group ministry for evangelism and discipleship. “I love helping churches recover the Wesleyan Class Meeting, which goes beyond Bible study as it allows the Bible to study us! The focus is: “How is it with your soul? How is Christ at work in and through you?” So the goal is not simply more knowledge and information, but rather more Christ-likeness in our transformation!

Greg also has served as a short term missionary in Latin America and looks forward to the time he can travel with teams to partner with the Church in Latin America. He is available for preaching, teaching and equipping online or in person including help with Hispanic ministries. Please see the website for more information about Life in His Name Ministries.

Life in His Name Ministries is a 501-c3 and a faith based ministry. We trust that God through his people and the Church will provide the funds necessary for the ministry to thrive. All gifts are tax deductible.

CONFERENCE MISSIONAL MINISTRIES BOARD

“Engaging, Connecting and Equipping Clergy and Laity of the Virginia Conference for God’s mission.”

The Missional Ministries Board spent time in retreat and reflection during the 2020-21 year and is reorganizing into a new three sub-committee structure (pending Annual Conference vote) with the following titles: Missional Discipleship and Engagement, Missional Connection, and Partnerships of Hope. The board is re-focusing on its call to develop programs to assist and invite districts and local churches to carry out all phases of the work of the church in mission and of church extensions in the Annual Conference.

Partnerships of Hope

Grace and peace in the name of our Savior! I am thankful to God for allowing us to partner with the church around the globe in service to those who are in need. As you know, we have for some years committed as an Annual Conference to partner with Methodist mission initiatives in Mozambique, Brazil and Cambodia abroad and locally with our Native American brothers and sisters. That work has proven fruitful, both in terms of meeting needs and spreading the gospel.

You will also be aware that our engagement with our friends around the world has been greatly impeded by the constrictions of the pandemic. Mission teams have had to be cancelled. Efforts on the ground have been hampered because of quarantining. In sum, the needs of the world have increased, and we have had to be nimble, flexible, and adaptable during these days. In spite of it all, our work has continued.

The health of children is cared for through the clinic and orphanage in Cambine, and others are cared for through the Chicupe Rural Hospital. Widows are cared for through the compound we have built in Massinga. POH is supporting women learning productive skills through the fashioning of apparel that are sold for a profit. Men are learning woodworking skills for supporting themselves. Rice fields are productive. Acres of vegetable help feed many. Chickens are raised, eggs are sold to the end that the areas might become self-sustaining.

Shade and Fresh Water projects, supported by our wonderful missionaries on the ground (Emily Everett, Gordon and Teca Greathouse) continue to serve children at risk, protecting them from gang related activity and providing both teachers and materials so that they might learn, grow and thrive. POH has sent funds to support their work. Wells have been dug to provide fresh water for villages that have been sharing pond water with their animals. New housing has been built for persons who had previously lived in insect infested mud huts.

In Cambodia, monetary support for the Women’s Desk and their engagement with the communities in need, leadership development and employment training has been sent. Medical teams have gone in support. And more teams are needed when the COVID situation improves. IOH has continued to support new initiatives and relationships with Native Americans and are helping sponsor a virtual “Nitapewak” (FRIENDS) Family Camp. It will be open to all Native Americans and Friends of Every Nation.

And that, perhaps, is the appeal of this annual report. In this day of declining revenues, the thing that is needed more than anything else is the transformation of lives into fuller discipleship. And I know of nothing more transformative than meeting Jesus as we serve others. The relationships developed, the satisfaction of helping the kingdom come into fuller view, the extension of generosity, the extending and receipt of hospitality fostered by missional engagement may indeed be the place that invites a disbelieving world into life-saving relationships with Christ.

In addition, we will be seeking to partner with congregations that have passion for this important work and have made investments, both human and capital, to those places of passion. We are inviting you to connect with us, to share your stories, and to help us communicate those life giving and sharing ministries with others.

So we are partners with Christ in this endeavor, and I end with the offering that our committee together has made the decision to rename our endeavor “Partners In Hope.” My deepest thanks go to Bob Gochenour, Juanita Csontos, Larry Jent, Nancy Forrest, Lynda Moore, Esther Agbosu, Nancy Robinson, David Vaughan, Nancy Yarborough, John Meeuwissen, Jessie Swann, and our conference staff person, Rev. Seungsoo ‘RJ’ Jun for their great work and constant encouragement. Partner with us, my Friends, as we go beyond borders and boundaries in becoming learners and influencers, serving our brothers and sisters around the globe.

— Clarence Brown

Virginia Conference Disaster Response Team

The Virginia Conference Disaster Response Team has been focused on logistics management, equipment inventory and maintenance. Deployment of ERT Teams in support of disaster response missions were placed on hold due to the COVID 19 pandemic. Early Response Team Training will continue across the AC when UMCOR/VA CDRC determines it is safe to do so. The ERT training programs require in-person participation and activities which under current church and state restrictions cannot be accomplished. Our 6 UMCOR certified ERT Trainers are up to date on their certifications and are all chomping at the bit to get back into a training cycle once it is safe to do so.

In the event that a disaster strikes within the Annual Conference of Virginia it will be incumbent upon all of us to step up and step out in faith to do the ministry and mission of the church. We will need to do more with less; that includes people and financial resources.

Remember; "The King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me'" (Matt 25: 40, NIV)

Disasters can happen anywhere and anytime. The VAUMC CDRT strives to provide the training, equipment and leadership across the Annual Conference when we respond to disasters and by staying for the long-term helping both communities and survivors recover. We can't do it alone. It takes the entire church to support this ministry with its prayers, gifts and service. Help us to be prepared for the future and give generously to Advance Special #5037. Your donations allow us to continue to train and equip you for this ministry. For what you have done and will do in the future; Thank you.

– Bob Pihlcrantz

Volunteers in Mission (UMVIM)

UMVIM Team Leader Trainers organized by Rebecca Makowski in 2019 were able to conduct several training sessions in Virginia in early 2020. After March 15, 2020, all VAUMC training sessions were cancelled due to COVID, as were all UMVIM teams around the globe. We appreciate Rebecca Makowski's service as she stepped down as UMVIM Coordinator for the VAUMC in August 2020. Terri Morgan will coordinate UMVIM training and teams for VAUMC in 2021. Currently, all jurisdictions are researching insurance which will cover COVID in the event team travel is able to resume this year.

Mission Itineration

The Virginia Conference receives missionaries from Global Ministries to itinerate in churches across the conference. The purpose of itineration is to build understanding of the role of missionaries in God's mission across the globe, and grow church's partnership in God's mission with individual missionaries by sharing: prayer concerns, financial support, communication, and visitation of mission sites.

Since 2019 (and before the disruption of travel due to the COVID-19 pandemic in March of 2020), missionaries that came to Virginia, and their places of service included: John Elmore (Chile), Jennifer Moore (Macedonia), Esther Gitobu (Cambodia), Andrew Lee (Cambodia), Hyo-Won Park (Russia and Eurasia), John Nday and his wife Florence Kaying (Mozambique), and Eric Soard (Tanzania).

Beginning in May, 2020 Global Ministries began a virtual itineration program, #StillInMission, where selected missionaries "itinerate" by presenting their program to registered participants. Missionary presentations of interest to the Virginia conference have included: Susanna and Young Cho (Russia), Alma Navarro (Taiwan), Innocent Aful (Congo), Emily Everett (Brazil), Kennedy Cruz (Cambodia), Lester Dornon (Nepal), Elizabeth "Lisa" Nichols (Tennessee), and Clara Biswas (Cambodia).

Most of these #StillInMission presentations can be viewed on Global Ministries' Vimeo account. Virtual itinerations are projected to continue for the rest of 2021.

Mission Encounter

Mission Encounter prepares United Methodists for faithful living and action by participating in a transformative education program based on biblically grounded curricula in order to be in ministry for a more just and equitable world – locally and globally. Mission Encounter lives out our Virginia Conference vision, "to be disciples of Jesus Christ who are lifelong learners who influence others to serve."

The summer 2020 Mission Encounter (in-person) event had to be cancelled due to the global pandemic, but a Summer 2021 Mission Encounter (virtual) is eagerly anticipated. Details are available on the vaumc.org website.

Conference Committee on Mission Personnel (CCMP)

The Conference Committee on Mission Personnel reviewed no applications for full time mission service during the past year. CCMP is in the process of setting some direction and focus to seek a wider audience of folks who may wish to consider full time mission service in cooperation with the needs of the General Board of Global Ministries.

PARTNERSHIP REPORTS

Heart Havens

Heart Havens continues its mission of empowering people with a developmental disability to live and thrive in their community. This year we did community differently. We had virtual paint nights with instructors, purchased iPads to support residents stay in virtual communication with family and friends and offered a multitude of other fun and unique opportunities from home. While following CDC guidelines, we were able to successfully empower people to live their best life. Aside from activities, we held vaccine three clinics at all locations.

We continue to operate group homes across the Conference. Heart Havens was born out of listening; it was listening to the needs and desires of people with a developmental disability and their families that led to the startup of Heart Havens. Through this listening, we had planned to offer new services and means of more individualized support. In the first part of 2020, Heart Havens received licensing for our day and community engagement program. These plans are on hold due to the pandemic.

We are blessed with the support of congregations and small groups throughout the Conference. Heart Havens shared our message of empowerment in a virtual setting in February during Heart Havens Month with the theme of "A Different Perspective". As we approach the spring season, we are planning to offer work days to volunteers to address yard work, painting, and other basic maintenance needs.

With your vital support, Heart Havens continues to empower people with a developmental disability by doing more than just providing the basics but also enabling them to live vibrant, independent lives. As brothers and sisters in Christ, we invite you as the church to continue to advocate for Heart Havens and support people with a developmental disability.

Your financial gifts and volunteer engagement make our mission of empowerment possible!

—Jennifer Boyden, Chief Executive Officer

Pinnacle Living

To say that 2020 and the start of 2021 have been difficult, is an understatement. Virtually everything Pinnacle Living does to fulfill our Mission of Enriching Life's Journey has changed. For the residents and team members of our five Pinnacle Living communities, the demands have been tremendous: separation from family members, loss of connection, changes in routines and schedules, physical distancing, and personal protective equipment (PPE). We have experienced illness and the loss of residents caused by the COVID pandemic. Team members and family members have fallen ill and have suffered personal loss because of this horrible virus. In this same time frame, we faced a second pandemic rooted in our country's history of racism. Sadly, some people continue to struggle with the fact that diversity makes us stronger in everything we do.

Yet, when we speak to residents, talk with team members or visit a community, we hear about and see heroes pulling together and persevering. We have grown in our understanding of and respect for one another as we have worked hard to keep residents and team members informed and safe. Fortunately, early this year we were able to take the first steps in returning to some form of normalcy in our communities as vaccination clinics were carried out by our pharmacy partner, Walgreens.

As difficult as the last year has been, Pinnacle Living has much to celebrate as we continue our focus on person-centered culture, resident engagement, and social accountability.

- Physical renovations focused on improving the lives of our residents at Hermitage Northern Virginia were completed in the fall.
- Renovations and an expansion at Cedarfield are ongoing.
- Efforts are underway to develop an accredited Association for Clinical Pastoral Education (ACPE) Clinical Pastoral Education Center with a unique focus on providing spiritual care to older adults.
- Our communities and Innsbrook office partnered in Fiscal Year 2020 with 136 not-for-profit organizations and community programs to offer resource utilization, sponsorships, volunteer service, in-kind donations and collaborative efforts that impacted persons of all ages and backgrounds.
- Also during FY2020, Pinnacle Living team members mentored 147 students involved in workforce development initiatives, providing over 6,800 hours of supervised internships, onsite training and career exploration opportunities.
- Efforts continue to enhance support for those living with Alzheimer's and other dementias through partnership with Dementia Friendly Community efforts, Dementia Friends Virginia and the Alzheimer's Association.

Social media and email campaigns took on greater importance as we shared information with local churches about the Samaritan Program. This benevolent assistance has been given in Pinnacle Living communities since the organization was founded in 1948. The following Samaritan Award Churches were recognized for the highest level of giving among congregations in the Virginia Annual Conference during FY2020.

- Markham (Winchester District)
- Fairmount (Richmond)
- Westover Hills (Richmond)
- Bethany (York River)
- Trinity (Richmond)
- Walker Chapel (Arlington)
- New Hope (York River)
- Gum Spring (Richmond)
- Silverbrook (Alexandria)
- Bethia (James River)
- Clarendon (Arlington)
- Rodes (Charlottesville)

The last year has shifted the way Pinnacle Living operates each day, just as it has altered how local churches work in ministry and mission. One thing that will not change, however, is our commitment to adapt to the changing needs and desires of older adults in keeping with our Wesleyan tradition of social concern and holistic health. Thank you to all the local churches that maintain connections with our residents, volunteer to make our communities stronger and continue to support the Samaritan Program,

– Christopher P. Henderson, President and CEO
 – Martha E. Stokes, Director of Church and Community Relations
 – Charles W. Wickham, Director of Donor Development

UMFS - United Methodist Family Services of Virginia

In 2020, UMFS celebrated 120 years of service, continuing to live out our mission as unwavering champions for high-risk children and families across Virginia, collaborating with communities to help them reach their full potential. We help children find loving families through our programs in foster care, adoption, and kinship care. We help children and families heal through our residential treatment programs and our work in specialized therapies. We help guide students in our specialized education schools. In 2020 we served 1,882 high-risk children. While many of our programs are focused on children and teens, we strive to support the entire family, helping us touch the lives of 7,769 high-risk children and families in 147 communities across Virginia.

Since our founding in 1900, the churches of the Virginia Conference have partnered with us as advocates for high-risk children and families. Churches help recruit and support foster and adoptive families, provide much-needed financial support, and donate countless gifts-in-kind. Our church partners, Child Champion Councils and the UMFS Auxiliary are critical resources for the children and families we serve. UMFS is particularly grateful for all of the support we received during the pandemic, including donations of 900 masks, 420 meals, 740 items from our Amazon Wish List, Christmas gifts for 224 children, and 2,442 essential support kits, in addition to critical financial support.

As we celebrate 120 years of service, we also look to our future to ensure we can continue to serve high-risk children and families in Virginia for another 120 years and beyond. We are investing to upgrade facilities and technologies while building capacity for our programs to address some of the most pressing challenges facing our communities today. The Be a Champion Capital Campaign is our first comprehensive effort to revitalize our 33-acre Richmond campus since the 1950s. We are funding this project through charitable gifts, a long-term land lease on the front of our property, and internal refinancing and debt reduction. We broke ground on the new Child & Family Healing Center building in August 2020. The new building will upgrade the program from post-WW II cottages to a state-of-the-art treatment facility, serving youth struggling with acute mental health challenges. In the second phase, we will build an addition to our Charterhouse School which will enhance our career and technical education and expand services for elementary students and students with autism.

In 2021 we are also moving through a leadership transition. In April, Greg Peters will retire as President and CEO after 40 years of service to the agency. Greg has been instrumental in the development and implementation of the UMFS Master Plan, which led to the Be a Champion Capital Campaign. Chief Operating Officer Nancy Toscano has been appointed by the Board as the new President and CEO. Nancy has worked at UMFS since 2007 and will be the agency's first female President and CEO.

We are grateful for the support of the Virginia Conference and for your partnership with us as unwavering champions for high-risk children and families. We ask for your continued advocacy for high-risk children, youth, and families. Together, we can create a world where caring, opportunity and generosity are passed on from generation to generation, empowering all children to contribute to society as engaged citizens.

– Michael Giancaspro Chair, UMFS Board of Directors
– Greg Peters, President and CEO
– Nancy Toscano, Chief Operating Office

Virginia United Methodist Housing Development Corporation

The Virginia United Methodist Housing Development Corporation (“VUMHDC”) is a covenant affiliated entity with the Virginia Annual Conference. Our mission is to expand the supply of affordable housing to low-and -moderate income families, individuals and senior populations in Virginia.

VUMHDC currently operates sixteen (16) projects and is the non-profit minority partner/participant in an additional eighteen (18) properties, together totaling 1,962 units. The properties operated by VUMHDC have an approximate value of $60,000,000. All the apartments are classified as “affordable”, meaning that all receive some form of rent subsidy through HUD or Virginia Housing.

VUMHDC is led by President Larry Dickenson, a lay member of Raleigh Court UMC in Roanoke. He is assisted by the corporate officers making up the Executive Committee, and the other ten (10) Directors.

VUMHDC has identified a multi-year priority of strengthening the corporate financial capacity, as we evolve toward a new, sustainable business model. This direction will require some added Directors, consultants and employees with applicable industry experience, providing the necessary expertise needed for the expansion of our program.

During 2021, we expect to complete or advance several strategic transactions and initiatives:

- Obtain IRS approval for formation of a new 501.(C)(3) corporation, Momentum Housing Corporation, enabling us to seek and receive charitable donations of property, facilities, and financial assets, and, in return, provide a charitable tax deduction for those donations.
- Exercise Rights of First Refusal with our Investor Limited Partner for two current properties, transferring sole ownership to VUMHDC.
- Advance one or more proposed projects to financial close and construction.
- Recruit and hire two (2) employees to take on responsibilities of our expanding program.

– Larry Dickenson, President

Wesley Housing

Wesley Housing's vision is that everyone in the greater Washington, DC region has a safe, quality, affordable home, serving as a foundation to thrive, and has a place of value in the community. This guides our mission of building up the lives of our most vulnerable community members by creating and operating healthy, inclusive, stable, affordable housing communities and providing supportive resident services. For over four decades, we have served over 25,000 residents in the Washington, DC metropolitan area. We currently manage 22 properties (more than 3,200+ residents) in Alexandria, Arlington, Manassas, Fairfax County, and the District. We also manage 9 Community Resource/Support Service Centers that offer a full range of crucially needed programs and services to support children, adults, seniors, those with chronic disease, and those with disabilities to regain their dignity and renew their lives.

REAL ESTATE DEVELOPMENT

Despite the pandemic, Wesley Housing had its busiest year of development activity in the history of the organization in 2020. Our expert team closed financing on three new construction projects, two preservation projects, and completed rehabilitation of two additional properties. We made amazing strides toward adding and preserving over 550 affordable housing units in the region over the next two years.

- Project Completions:
 - Renovations on Brookland Place (Washington, DC) and Culpepper Garden I (Arlington, VA) completed.
- Preservation Transactions:
 - Joseph Development Inc. (JDI) and Wesley Housing began rehabilitation on 410 Cedar Street Apartments (Washington, DC).
 - Knightsbridge Apartments (Arlington, VA) began rehabilitation.
- Production Transactions
 - The Arden (Alexandria (Fairfax County), VA), The Cadence (Arlington, VA), and The Waypoint at Fairlington (Alexandria, VA) closed and began construction.
- Funding Commitments Secured:
 - Senseny Place (Winchester, VA), was awarded $2 million through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's Section 202 funding pool and received a $1,600,000 award from the National Housing Trust Fund (NHTF) and VHTF and is expected to break ground this spring.
 - The Hampshire, a combination of the production and preservation in Washington, D.C. (Ward 4), received an award of 9% tax credits and almost $1.7 million from the District's Housing Production Trust Fund (HPTF) and is expected to begin construction this summer.
 - Whitefield Commons Apartments in Arlington received an award of 2020 9% tax credits and is expected to begin construction this summer.

RESIDENT SERVICES

- Housing Stability Initiative: In 2020, nearly 70% of Wesley's 1,269 households were at risk of eviction. Through the work of our resident services team, 100% of “high priority” referrals (765 households) maintained their housing, 197 residents participated in employment services/career coaching, and 20 obtained new or improved employment.
- Volunteerism & Seasonal Campaigns: Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, volunteer programs in 2020 were minimal. In response to increasing need and with the help of community partners, our resident services team implemented priority programs in the areas of housing stability, job stability, and material assistance. Additionally, 400 youth received new school supplies from our annual drive and 290 households/628 individuals received food assistance gift cards during the holy season of Ramadan through our partnership with Islamic Relief USA, more than $45,000 in grocery store gift cards were distributed, more than $250,000 “in-kind” supplemental food assistance was provided by community partners, and 551 residents were supported during the holiday season.

ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATIVE

- Last November, Wesley Housing's Housing Stability Initiative (HSI) was awarded Best Program or Service at the Virginia Governor's Housing Conference, demonstrating innovative and creative efforts in providing services or assistance to citizens with housing needs.
- In January 2021, Knightsbridge Apartments in Arlington received National Affordable Housing Management Association's (NAHMA) "Communities of Quality" national recognition, meeting NAHMA's high standards in physical maintenance, financial management, programs and services, employee credentials, endorsements, and several other categories.
- Wesley Property Management was named 6x Winner of the SatisFacts National Resident Satisfaction "Superior" Award from resident ratings of Wesley communities

THE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY (BHECM)

Campus ministry in the Virginia Conference strives to be "a dynamic, diverse demonstration of God's creative and inviting love" expressed through the ministries of eight Wesley Foundations, five ecumenical campus ministries and five chaplains at United Methodist educational institutions in Virginia. These campus ministries touch the lives of tens of thousands of students with invitations and opportunities "to explore, engage and embody an active faith in God." In varied ways appropriate to each campus ministry context, God is worshipped, faith is explored, communities and people are served, and lives are changed — all in the name and through the power of Jesus Christ.

Starting last March our campus ministries had to overcome the enormous challenges to continue their ministry under the constraints of the pandemic. They began testing and using innovative ways to do outreach, discipleship, and provide emotional support to their students. This work was complicated by reductions in the availability of conference funding. Hopefully this will be restored in the coming fiscal year. The Campus Ministry Association has been instrumental in meeting with and providing support to each ministry. The board looks forward to working with the new Associate Director of Learning Ministries, Nickie Moreno Howard and to gain from her insight and leadership.

One of the on-going projects has been to work with local boards and their property committees to enable all seven of the Wesley Foundation properties to become financially self-sustaining through the use of the CFA Capital Improvement Grants that were approved for that purpose. Four of the properties at have achieved this objective. The reduction in capital grant funding for FY 2020 and FY 2021 have presented significant "self-help challenges" for the remaining three properties.

Please review the report from the Campus Ministry Association and the individual campus ministries. We hope that you will connect with one of the ministries. Thank you, VA Conference for your continued prayers and support of your campus ministries in Virginia.

WESLEY FOUNDATIONS

The Wesley Foundation at Longwood University & Hampden-Sydney College

To say that this year has been different would be an understatement, but you already know that. The Spring 2020 semester was strange, students left campus for spring break and did not really return for the rest of the school year. We worked through many first in my experience of campus ministry; students moving out of their rooms mid-semester to online school. We like many ministry's shifted and began to work with our students through zoom and online tools.

One of the side effects from all that was going on with the pandemic was a drain on our students' mental health. We pivoted again and spent most of our time together checking in and just being with each other. For the first time in my ministry we decided to be more intentional about our time together over the summer break. We continued to meet together and our students expressed the need and gratitude for the time that we had together.

We have seen many students not return to campus this fall and there have been many precautions put into place to help us meet together in person. We formed our HCT and made plan to return to meeting together. We got creative and after lots of conversation with the team and students we made the decision to meet together and have dinner in a safe way.

We have not been able to promote and share what we do with new freshmen very easily but our student leaders have stepped up and have worked hard to get the word out. To say we were nervous about this past year would have been an understatement, but God is good and we have had a good number of new students that been engaged with Wesley and have become a vital part of the ministry. Covid has taken a lot of activities, traditions, graduation, and normal student life from our students over the past year but it has not taken the need and desire for authentic community. We have focused on the need to see and be with each other and the leadership at Wesley have worked hard over the past year to be that for our students.

We are hoping for a more "normal" year to come but we also know that normal may not be where we want to return to. We are excited by what God is doing here at the Wesley Foundation at Longwood and Hampden-Sydney and want to continue the important work of giving students a place to belong.

Ignite Norfolk - Wesley Foundation at ODU

As with virtually every other ministry, the ministry year of 2020-2021 presented a number of challenges to IGNITE Norfolk due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Shortly after the submission of last year's report, the students at Old Dominion departed for Spring Break, not to set foot back on campus until Fall 2020 (with heavy restrictions). Because of this, many of our hands-on and interactive ministries that IGNITE Norfolk conducted pre-COVID had to be altered or cancelled.

IGNITE sought to continue to make connections throughout the rest of the Spring semester and into the Summer months under these new quarantine guidelines. We held numerous weekly events, including Bible studies, listening sessions, "IGNITEanswers" events where we would discuss scripture applications on humorous and serious topics, and the ability to meet with the Director one-on-one amid concerns and stresses of quarantine life.

Along the way, we continued to run the IGNITEpantry under approved COVID-19 guidelines, partnering with the newly launched ODU food pantry, to meet the increased need to address food insecurity, especially as various restaurants and food options had to put into practice their own restrictions or even shut down operations per state health guidelines.

As a response to the food restrictions on campus, IGNITE started a weekly Hot Meals program where, under approved guidelines, the Director, staff, and volunteers cooked a meal in the IGNITE kitchen that pre-registered students, faculty, and staff could pick up.

Following the challenges that IGNITE Norfolk faced during the last year and the challenges that IGNITE Norfolk will continue to face as we move out of COVID-19 restrictions, it has been decided that a change of direction will be needed and that the Director of IGNITE will need to be full-time moving forward.

Old Dominion is a field of ministry that is rife with opportunity. We anticipate a new season of sowing and reaping is right around the corner and, with God's help, we prayerfully set our feet on this new path, submitting our future to the Almighty.

The Wesley Foundation at UVA

In addition to living within Virginia's pandemic restrictions and our Conference's restrictions and guidelines, Wesley at UVA also lives out our ministry in the context of restrictions from The University of Virginia. College campuses were among the first places to shut down last spring. UVA was in the middle of spring break last March (2020) when the administration announced that the rest of the semester would be online and from home. I didn't see any students again in person until September.

Fall semester began with a university maximum in-person meeting limit of 10 people. All students were required to abide by this, whether living on the grounds of the university or elsewhere. All student clubs and organizations were expected to comply and Wesley was happy to model loving our neighbors through mutual care and safety. UVA shortened the semester, did away with fall break, and tested students routinely for COVID. At one point in the fall semester the maximum in-person meeting limit was reduced to 6 people.

The shortened spring semester (2021) began late, on February 1, with an initial maximum in-person meeting limit of 5 people. Within the first two weeks that was reduced to 0 people and for a week and a half even the libraries and gyms were closed. As of this writing, the limit is back up to 6 again, but we won't be surprised when it changes again.

This is our context for ministry. We had just over 21 hours notice of the 0 limit before our scheduled outdoor in-person Ash Wednesday worship was to begin. We went online again.

To say that it has been difficult to plan is an understatement. But our community of faith has focused on coming together in worship (mostly online, sometimes in-person outdoors) and checking in with our new-in-the-pandemic ministry called Mental Health Mondays, a time to ask for help, share what's difficult, offer tips on what's working, and to find strength through the realization that we are isolated but we are not alone.

This spring semester (2021) we were trying to meet up a little more in person and outside, with Wesley Walks and outdoor parking lot yoga. We've also added a new small group using the "Anxiety as Opportunity for Spiritual Growth" curriculum. Though our ministry building is not as wide open as it sometimes has been, we have been able to offer safe, distanced, Healthy Church Team-supported individual study space for students.

It's been a long year but the short story is this: We have been here for students in the most unprecedented time any of us has lived through. Thanks be to God!

— Deborah Lewis, Campus Minister & Director

The Pace Center - Wesley Foundation at VCU

Jacque was born in a refugee camp in Burundi, just outside of Rwanda in East Africa. When she was 12 years old, a church mission group sponsored her family to move to the Virginia Beach area. Fast-forward a few years, and Jacquie had graduated high school, was accepted to Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU), and after a few semesters, began searching for a community of faith on campus. She found one in the Pace Center.

Jacque's contagious laughter brought life to our weekly Lunch Church worship services. She shared her incredible experiences and love of the Lord, giving us all a fresh understanding of scripture during Bible Reflection. She loved to cook and volunteered to help other students share food from their cultural backgrounds during our Community Café: $1 Thursday Lunch. She greeted first-year students on move-in day with "welcome plants" - succulents in painted pots that were donated by local United Methodist church members and youth groups to help decorate new students' dorms. Jacquie also served as a youth director for a local Episcopal church. And she poured out her heart in our Community Conversation series, when students from all backgrounds shared how the killing of George Floyd had impacted them.

At VCU, Jacquie aspired to be a Physical Therapist but had struggled to find anyone to help her gain her required 50 "shadow hours" before applying to graduate school. Jacquie's struggle was not unique among VCU students. Over one-third of all VCU students are the first in their family to go to college. Jacquie's struggle was like many others who don't have the network connections to fully capitalize on their education. Although VCU is proud of its diverse student population and it's many first-generation college students, the Pace Center realized that VCU was failing its students by not creating a space for these crucial connections with the Richmond professional community.

After the killing of George Floyd, Pace recognized that many Richmond District church members longed to be engaged in more diverse communities. In this longing lay an opportunity: United Methodists throughout Richmond have rich life experiences, connections, and a strong love of neighbor. The VCU student body is rich with diversity, the ambition to build better communities, and a drive towards educational success. The pairing of these two cohorts led to the creation of Pace's Mentorship Program - an effort to help students build networks by connecting them to mentors in the Richmond area who can help guide their civic and professional aspirations.

Reveille and Centenary UMCs agreed to be lead partners in the effort. These churches stepped up to provide funding and help Pace exceed its goal of enlisting 25 initial mentors for the pilot mentorship program. Other Richmond District church members joined, as well as community groups including Rotary Club.

2020 was a difficult year, but with the help of over 25 Richmond District churches and resources from the Virginia Annual Conference, Pace was able to engage with over 1,000 students through innovative ministries including the mentorship program, American Red Cross blood drives, Community Café, Community Conversations, Study Hall, Bible Reflection, Lunch Church, Pause & Reflect mindfulness sessions, and more. Thank you for your faith in what God is doing in this place. We look forward to seeing where God will be revealed in these mentor relationships and other ministries in 2021 and beyond!

The Wesley Foundation at Virginia State (FLOW)

This conference year has been quite a challenge for many, but we have continued to stay strong, and we have continued to do the work to make it possible for the ministry of FLOW at Virginia State University to thrive. We started this year with the challenge of having students come back to school, as we planned from March 2020 to have the students back in during the fall, however we didn't make it back in the fall semester of 2020. Flow then went from meeting in person to zoom, check in with phone calls, and the local students did outreach as much as the COVID-19 restrictions would have allowed. During this time FLOW met weekly for our coffee hour, our Bible Study, prayer, and our Sunday morning worship. A lot of FLOW time was spent and is continued to be spent on taking time out to cultivate the hearts, minds, and stories of these young adult leaders of the NOW generation.

During this conference year FLOW, had several major events that happened and that was we decided as a ministry to go to the local YMCA here during, and serve the community a spaghetti dinner, while practicing social distancing. During this time, we talked with community members as many of them talked about what their struggles were during the pandemic. We partnered with Virginia State University SGA program, and administration to help us with this project. Also during this time, we handed out gift cards to those in the community, as FLOW stands for Fellowship, Outreach, Love and Worship. Another one of our major projects that was done was during November we partnered with the Housing on Virginia State University and we gave to those in community a Thanksgiving Meal Basket. We had various different administrator from Virginia State University, local students, and key leaders in the community to donate turkeys, nonperishable food items, and we packed baskets. We gave away around 35-40 baskets.

As students have matriculated back into Virginia State University at the start of this spring semester, we have restrictions of course in how many we can have in our space, and we honor those guidelines, so we have been doing our weekly Bible Study, and prayer on zoom. Also we have resumed our regular activities of feeding those at Downtown Churches United here in Petersburg Virginia, we have giving away food baskets at Ettrick Elementary School, and we have more recently decided that we would start reading to students in our area every other Friday, to those who are in elementary school. We haven't been able to go in the buildings but we have taken time out to meet with elementary age students on zoom. Also FLOW, has recently started in conjunction with VSU, the campus food pantry. This program is to help students, faculty and staff during this challenging time.

Every week, we open this pantry to students, staff, faculty, who are struggling with food insecurities. As we know our mission is to serve God, humanity, and be kind to others in time of need. We have come together and we get boxes and we give non-perishable food items. Truth is we have some students, faculty and staff who struggle to make ends meet who only make 10 dollars and hour, and need help. We let them come in pick up how many ever boxes are needed, and we always make sure to pray, with them and check in on them sometimes weekly and sometimes those in need come by the office just to tell us thank you. We are maintaining a steady number for our worship experience online, also our Bible Study, prayer, and weekly check-ins.

In conclusion we have had an amazing year to say the least, and we are excited as we embark upon new endeavors. This upcoming year along with the faculty, staff, and student body of VSU, we are showing our support and inclusion for all LGBTQIA persons. We are offering love, kindness, care, and support to those who would love to join us. We are holding space this year to listen to their stories, to see how we can support them in any way possible. We are sticking with the mission of Jesus Christ of loving out neighbors as we love ourselves. It has been a wonderful opportunity as the campus Pastor of VSU, and I look forward to serving this present age.

The Wesley Foundation at Virginia Tech

Just weeks after writing my report for the Book of Reports last year is when everything shut down due to the COVID-19 Pandemic. What a difference a few weeks makes! It was on a Wednesday while Wesley was in LaBelle, FL on our annual Spring Break Mission Trip with around 30 students when everyone's phones began to alert them that they would be getting a 2nd week of Spring Break and that the rest of their second semester was more than likely going all online. This may sound like incredible news for a college student (two weeks of Spring Break!!), but the circumstances threw our students into crisis mode. That night for worship we gathered together to process what they were experiencing and how they were feeling about it. Here is one account (of many similar) of a student who already was dealing with anxiety and depression:

This felt like a self-destruct button on all of the progress I had made. All the routines I had carefully maintained, the support groups, the regular social events, having course work to distract me from getting overwhelmed by the many new emotions I had decided to feel and process in therapy. The next night when we decided to forgo worship to talk about what had happened, I had a panic attack and sobbed hysterically. To me this felt like a death sentence. I could not imagine how I would navigate this new reality without in person social connection, classes to attend, and therapeutic support I had come to rely on. I sincerely looked at the situation and thought "this is going to kill me." I had missed events and classes and stuff like that in the past when I was not able to hide the pain I was in, and now I was no longer able to make that decision myself.

– Student at Wesley (Senior)

This was a familiar refrain when we arrived back at Wesley that Saturday (having to drive 16 hours straight to get home because we couldn't stop anywhere to stay the night) and our students began to pack their things to head back home for the rest of the semester. The common question I received was "What are we going to do? I can't lose my Wesley community!" Students were in dire need and, for some, it was a matter of life and death (and this is not being dramatic)!

To make things more complicated for our community, it is after Spring Break that our Core Ministry Team transitions to new leadership! So, in the midst of a pandemic, students struggling, anxious about school, and fears of losing community, we would be figuring out what was next with new leaders who can't meet together in person. What would seem like a scenario for disaster ended up being a beautiful example of how team-based ministry and a community built on their values, mission, and vision can lead to transformation especially in the midst of crisis. Our new Core Ministry Team, without missing a beat, quickly began to evaluate our new context and develop a new short-term vision to make sure our students could stay connected in community and to minister to one another through the challenges they were facing. They created new strategies for ministry and began to adapt by trying new things and not worrying if they failed.

This concerted effort by our leadership team and ministry area teams produced a creative and multi-faceted approach to maintaining (and developing) community. From multiple GroupMe chats to a weekly worship podcast and a continuation of our CoGs (small groups) over the summer to students checking in on one another, our community was able to provide a safe and loving environment for grace, love, and spiritual growth to continue while also making sure students were being cared for in the context of community.

Overall, Wesley transitioned very seamlessly to an online format. We started the journey of COVID with vulnerability and that opened the floor for people being open about how they wanted to stay connected. Because of this, people cultivated their leadership and helped us all stay close as a community. So, for Wesley, vulnerability about how we are feeling was crucial. This honesty was something that sets Wesley apart as a community and as a ministry.

Wesley has been a grounding point during COVID. The group chats are being used daily, with people sending out mission opportunities, recipes to try in quarantine, or just sending daily pictures of their pets. Countless GroupMe were made, among them being an arts and crafts GroupMe, an Animal Crossing video game GroupMe, a pets GroupMe, and a baking GroupMe. These group chats have helped me to feel connected with some of my best friends. It helped to remind me that when all of this is over, we will be able to sit in Kelly's office and joke around again. Wesley did zoom calls to make meeting up feel similar to being in person. From Zoom Worship, to our Harry Potter and the Sacred Text discussion group, to CoGs (which are our small groups), these zoom calls have helped me feel like I was sitting right next to my Wesley family. From Netflix parties and online bingo, to baking competitions and virtual Reading Day breakfast, Wesley has been a place to help ground me. It is a community that I feel as if I could continue to grow and learn from, in spite of everything going on in the world right now.

– Student at Wesley (Senior)

These narratives are just a glimpse of what students have gone through this past year and the ways in which their campus ministry was critical to their health and well-being in a time that they needed it most! I can honestly say that our students, in one of the most challenging times to be in ministry, adapted and was able to not only meet the needs of the ministry and students, but to also transform the ministry and lives of our students.

To start the new school year, we understood that our normal ministries would need to change to accommodate all the needed safety measures and new learning situation at Virginia Tech. Our usual opportunities to meet new students and build community in our awesome building were not feasible, so our students created new opportunities to do this important work while being able to maintain the safety of students. It was a challenge when other ministry groups on campus were doing their "normal" stuff to reach out to new students and we were making the safety of students a priority. However, we witnessed students coming to our virtual events because they felt unsafe at other ministries who were going about things like normal. There is no doubt that we wished we could be in community in the same ways as before, but our students have done an amazing job doing ministry together within the safe guidelines we have in place.

There has been, and continues to be, an incredible need for students to have space to share what they are going through. Students are struggling mentally, physically, emotionally, and spiritually during the most challenging time ever to be a college student. Wesley at Virginia Tech created opportunities for 1v1 relationships and pastoral care so that we can meet the needs of our students. Our students continue to be there for one another living out our mission to "Love Out Loud." I am so very proud of our students; their resiliency, passion, and desire to live out their faith is such a manifestation of the glory of God!

– Bret Gresham, Campus Minister

The Wesley Foundation at William & Mary

When I look back over 2020, I could not be prouder of our students, our board, and our community. Because of the amazing support and commitment of so many, we lived out God's call very differently, but just as powerfully, as any previous year. All of this is possible because we are clear on who God is calling us to be, and we continue to follow God's vision for us.

The leadership team provided 44 continuous weeks of ministry. Even with the campus shut down, we continued our ministry online through the spring, summer, and fall. I cannot say enough about the amazing ministry carried out by Margaret, Mazie, Caroline, Grace, Sarah Grace, Emily, and Italia!

We read and discussed the Bible and books: Inspired by Rachel Held Evans, So You Want to Talk About Race by Ijeoma Oluo, and Womanist Midrash by Wil Gafney. We also had a group called Podcast Potluck where a different student would choose a podcast episode each week for us to listen to and discuss. We had a multitude of fellowship events ranging from online games to in-person movie nights, ice cream socials, and coffee hours (all of which were outside, individual professionally prepared food and beverages, and socially distanced).

Our Campus Food Pantry, thanks to our partnership with Williamsburg United Methodist, was able to stay open the entire year. Church, campus, and community folks donated money and supplies for the pantry to meet the needs of everyone who utilized it this year, over 600 visits!

We provided 26 weeks of housing and food for students with no safe home to go to when the campus shut down. In addition to providing the housing at no cost, they also utilized the Campus Food Pantry, along with weekly grocery runs for them to get fresh food to prepare and cook.

We celebrated 14 seniors! These amazing people laid the foundations for everything that we have done this year! We didn't get to celebrate in person, but we did have one heck of a Zoom celebration!

Wesley continues to be Wesley. Nothing exemplifies it more than what happened late one Saturday evening this past fall while the residents were having a movie night. These students had applied and been accepted to live at Wesley because of their commitment to our community and God's vision of hospitality for all. This evening, a freshman student in crisis, whom none of them knew, came to the house unannounced, walked in, and laid down to rest. We discovered that she was a freshman having a mental health crisis. We had the local fire department EMT team come evaluate her, and they determined she did need to go to a local mental health facility for evaluation. I walked with her to the ambulance, and the EMT's allowed her to sit up in the back of the ambulance. When I went downstairs (when the EMT's arrived, the residents went downstairs to give the student privacy) to share with the residents that she was safe, the unanimous sentiment was, "We're so glad that she came to our house, rather than any of the others around here, because who knows what could have happened to her." That is the power of community, faith, and love. When a stranger shows up unannounced in crisis, the first and foremost question for us is, "How can we make sure that they are loved and cared for?" And that's what we did. We don't know how or why she chose our house, but I imagine it had something to do with the Holy Spirit and our sign out front. Even in the midst of her confusion, she knew that any place with a rainbow sign that explicitly states that we are radically inclusive, Black Lives Matter, Love is Love, No Human Being Is Illegal, was a community that would love and care for her.

Thanks so much for all that you do to make Wesley the faithful community that we are!

—Max W. Blalock, Campus Minister

Arise Campus Ministry at GMU

This year has been a year of extreme difficulty for so many people and the same is true for the students at Arise Campus Ministry. With the shutting down of campus during Spring Break of 2020, some of our students found themselves in need of housing, food assistance, and additional spiritual support. This year forced us to again think creatively and holistically about how Arise lives out its vision statement, which is: Because we believe in Jesus, we welcome all, share God's universal love and compassionately live out our faith on campus and in the community.

With that goal in mind we reached out weekly to our current college students and recent alumni. We continued programming throughout the summer and created new offerings for the young adults under our care who longed for community, and were unable to find one because of the restrictions of the pandemic. We also launched an inspirational weekly worship podcast, which is seeing hundreds of plays/downloads a month. We have continued to minister to the students at and surrounding George Mason University.

This year, Arise students have actively standing up for social justice in a multitude of ways. Students have learned and discussed the history of racism, white privilege, and ways in which we can and should stand up for Black lives and continue to build an anti-racist world. We have had students pray, attend vigils, march and protest this summer in support of the Black Lives Matter movement. In addition to working for racial justice, students have also continued to insure that Arise is an affirming ministry for LGBTQ+ students. Our students have continued to reach out to LGBTQ+ Christians and their allies on campus to ensure that everyone knows that God loves and affirms even those who have been harmed and ostracized by other faith communities. We continue to live into the agreement set forth by all of our ecumenical partners, the United Methodist Church, Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, National Capital Presbytery, the Potomac Association of the United Church of Christ, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, and the Mid-Atlantic region of the Disciples of Christ.

Another exciting development this year is the number of students who are discerning a possible call to ministry. We have seen multiple students begin their path to become clergy, as well as an alumnus who has discerned a call to work in campus ministry. This is so exciting to know that we continue the legacy of future clergy of all of our partner denominations who can trace their faith journey back to Arise Campus Ministry.

These incredible ways in which we have continued to do amazing ministry, in the midst of the pandemic is a sign of God's love and grace. This past year we continue to be blessed by a number of amazing volunteers, donors, supporters, local churches, pastors, board members and Virginia Conference partners. Without the Virginia Conference and the many faithful and loving persons who care about young adults throughout our Conference, we would not be doing God's work on campus. On behalf of myself, our staff, volunteers, students and others thank you for assisting us to build God's family, God's Kingdom at George Mason University.

—Andy Greis, Board Chair

Campus Christian Community at the University of Mary Washington

This past year has been a challenge for everyone, but thankfully we were able to be united God's spirit in unique ways! There have been so many things happening in our world that are hard to wrestle with and that make ministry and community even more important to college students. At the CCC we had to get creative when we learned that students were going home in the middle of March 2020 and that they would be finishing the semester at home. We switched programming to online via zoom. Thankfully this provided a space for students to connect and continue participating in the weekly programming of the CCC.

Our weekly programming this year provided students opportunities to connect and deepen their faith in a physically distanced way! In spring 2020 we continued our study of the book of Luke, created space for meditation, and continued our weekly dinners via zoom. All of these provided time and space to get together via zoom to check in with one another. These check-ins became crucial to students since they rely heavily on interaction with others at the CCC. We did something new this year and we had a Bible Study over the summer which also provided opportunities for students to check in over the summer and continue faith development.

Throughout the fall 2020 semester we continued having our weekly Table Talk meals. We supported local restaurants and provided pre-packaged meals for students to pick up and then eat while on zoom together! We worshipped and had many other meaningful conversations via zoom. We also had a fall retreat in the yard of the CCC building. We were able to purchase lawn chairs so that students could sit physically distanced. Thankfully we were also able to have our tradition of a Lessons and Carols service via zoom and this provided a great opportunity to involved more community members from our supporting churches! Overall we are so thankful for all who support the CCC and who see the importance of ministry to and with college students!

United Campus Ministries at Christopher Newport University

United Campus Ministries continues to offer ecumenical and inclusive outreach to the students of CNU and to the surrounding community with a focus on faith formation. Despite the setbacks posed by COVID-19, the closure of campus, and the restrictions imposed upon the reopening of campus, we have continued to meet several times weekly via ZOOM.

Currently, we meet each week for a Coffee Hour on Sunday afternoons, which provides an opportunity for fellowship and “catching up;” for a prayer-oriented Vespers worship service on Wednesday evenings, with topical readings and its own evolving liturgy; for a three-hour, fairly intensive Bible Study on Saturday afternoons (presently we’re working through Dr. Amy-Jill Levine’s Sermon on the Mount: A Beginner’s Guide to the Kingdom of Heaven); and for a Movie Night on alternating Friday evenings (where presently we’re screening The Chosen season 1). While not every student attends every event, they are able to curate their experience based on what works well with their schedule and what form of devotion speaks best to them.

Our students have also recently taken on a couple of ongoing projects. Moved by the plight of the unhoused this Winter, our students have begun making plans to collect donations (both monetary and material) for cold weather kits to be distributed to the unhoused next Winter. Also, in conjunction with the Women’s Club of Newport News, we hope to bring a “Little Free Pantry” to campus sometime in the next year in order to help those college students struggling with food security.

This year, our campus minister challenged our Board of Directors to be in discernment regarding a revitalization of our ministry. After some preliminary research, the Board has agreed to allocate between five and eight thousand dollars to invest in new branding, marketing, and a website. Discernment is ongoing, but the Board will be spending their March meeting (re)articulating our Vision, Values, and Mission as a ministry. After that time, the work will begin with various vendors in hopes of launching our re-branded ministry on-campus for the Fall 2021 semester. We hope to revive our ministry, which has struggled in recent history (especially with the restrictions put upon us by COVID-19) with the help of the Virginia Conference, the Board of Higher Education, and the York River District, as well as our other denominational partners.

– Michael Dean Burnett, Campus Minister

RISE Faith Community - JMU

As is true of all faith communities over the past year, we have had to redefine what our worship environments look and feel like in order to continue to gather safely. Thankfully, while our learning curve was steep and took time, we were able to lean on our staff and some new volunteer resources to create a live streaming virtual worship experience every Sunday utilizing a combination of Zoom, VMix and Facebook Live. As the old saying goes, “Necessity is the mother of invention,” a true summary of the knowledge we have sought in order to remain connected during this extremely challenging time. While COVID-19 has stolen much from us, we have resolved to not just survive, but thrive, empowered with the Holy Spirit who holds us, guides us, and as always, makes a way where there seems to be no way.

We reluctantly decided to pause some of our ministry initiatives due to safety concerns related to the pandemic. However, exciting new ones have also emerged and are bearing fruit as we learn how to dream and innovate in this new hybrid environment of in-person and virtual gathering. We continue to offer an interactive Sunday Service in the virtual format and are celebrating the ways this format has allowed us to invite many new people in to worship with us. A particularly wonderful memory from this past year was our virtual graduation celebration in which we honored our graduation seniors, who were faced with a difficult end to their school careers due to COVID.

Conducting much of our ministry in virtual spaces has allowed us to serve two community partners, Secret Boutique (a clothing ministry for at-risk students in secondary schools) and Larkin Arts (a retail space and working art studio for emerging artists), who were in need of physical space in which to store materials and work, and has encouraged us to dream about community partnerships with each moving forward. Another beautiful collaboration emerged between RISE and some area restaurants through Deliver the Love, an initiative that delivered hot meals, grab-and-go snacks, and cards of appreciation to healthcare workers at major area hospitals. Just Love, our ministry in development that seeks to promote and empower restorative justice, continues to be an exciting plan in development with remarkable energy around it.

We expanded our part-time staff to support and nurture new and flourishing ministry opportunities, including micro-communities called +Groups (“Plus” Groups), some exciting time-limited, content-specific series on the intersection of faith with other timely cultural issues, new innovations in funding, and RISE U college ministry, now serving students at James Madison University (JMU) and Eastern Mennonite University (EMU). Some wonderful innovations from RISE U have included the initiation of several weekly +Group environments, a moving and widely publicized Adopt-a-Senior event that paired college students with aging adults in senior living communities, a strengthening of ecumenical partnerships with other campus ministries, building active collaborations with existing student organizations, and fostering a partnership with JMU Media Arts & Design Department for branding development for our Just Love ministry initiative.

As RISE U continues its exciting forward momentum, we look toward expanding collaboration with student organizations that focus on marginalized groups, expansion of our Adopt-a-Senior event to an ongoing and fruitful connection between college students and senior citizens, and expanding our relationship with Secret Boutique to include area college campuses. We are thrilled to consider the possibilities that await us in 2021.

BOARD OF LAITY

During the Annual Conference session on October 31, 2020, I asked you – all 99.49% of us laity and our clergy partners – to take off your shoes and walk with me as the ones being sent to lead God’s people on the holy ground where we each stand, this sacred space where our words and actions matter more than ever. As we look around our Virginia Conference churches, our creativity is amazing. Our resiliency is inspiring. Our flexibility and agility have grown tremendously. Yet, there is so much work to do, so many places where we need to ask hard questions, where we need to take risks – even if we fail. There are yet so many places where courageous conversations must happen. This is all holy ground.

As the group tasked with challenging, inspiring and equipping the laity of the Virginia Conference for ministry in our churches and our world, the Board of Laity (BOL) has focused over the last six months on courageous conversations of our own. Rev. Jason Stanley led two-sessions of On-Boarding in December for the board. Questions of structure and function emerged, much like discussions you are having in your local churches. Insecurities and frustrations as to how best to lead in this liminal time in the denomination, in our churches and in the greater community became apparent. Follow-up conversations were held among the four regional prayer/work teams of the Board of Laity. This work will shape goal setting and action planning for the remainder of 2021.

Our Conference Lay Servant Ministry (LSM) team continues to offer vital and inspirational training and assistance to laity across the Conference, responding to a variety of questions and concerns. The first Virtual Lay Servant Academy was held on November 14, 2020, with over 100 participants in three classes. Due to the COVID pandemic, LSM offered grace to all Lay Servants by waiving continuing education requirements for those who needed a course to meet the three-year requirement in 2020. An additional year has been granted to complete the educational requirement. These are two examples of how the Conference LSM team has adapted so that Lay Servants felt supported even in the midst of the pandemic and extraordinary circumstances of the last year.

Progress on infrastructure has been made for the Conference Scouting Ministries. A grant was received from the Virginia United Methodist Foundation which will allow Scouting Ministries to structure our Conference-level efforts, provide seed money to each of the districts and support training scholarships. This work will be overseen by a newly created Conference Scouting Ministry Advisory Board.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

2020 - 2023 Goals (summary)

Prepare (disciple) men for service and leadership; succession management aligned with church demographics; reach new men and their families and mentor new Christians; connect with other Conference agencies and boards; prevent domestic violence jointly with UMW; Holy Spirit led Christian fellowship through Wesleyan Transformational Small Groups (class meetings) at all fellowships; Bible studies; revise the Men's Spiritual Weekend; and ignite Younger Men's Ministry. To accomplish this, we have filled two key vacancies for Vice President for Spiritual Life and Chaplain and are working to fill our Younger Men's Ministry Advocate. Mentoring our replacements is a priority paying dividends. Please continue to pray for us!

As key initiatives in the past year, the Virginia UMM Men have continued to encourage the formation of Younger Men's Ministry, along with Webinars on the Various UMM Ministries and Men's Health. My first Cabinet meeting took a new look. We held an open conversation with four (4) UMC African American Pastors. We posed the question as to the Relevancy of the United Methodist Men Council in the African American Church since the involvement of the African American Church Fellowships are lacking on both the District and Conference Levels. At the suggestion of these Pastors, we will hold additional discussions with the various African American Churches, BMCR Pastors, and UMM Fellowships to get a sense of UMM Community involvement and the Relevancy of the UMM from a District and Conference perspective.

Over the next year, we will continue to pursue our goals to have our leadership be representative of our membership with particular emphasis on discipling Younger Men. We have updated our By-laws as well as our vision, values, and goals for 2020-2023.

Ministries

Men's Spiritual Advance: We have revised our strategy relative to spiritual retreats and are now partnering with men regionally to conduct joint District events around the Conference each year. Our first joint event was held at Camp Overlook near Harrisonburg on January 3-4, 2020. Our next retreat is being rescheduled because of the pandemic and possibly with a different format to be announced later this year (2021).

Spiritual Webinars: We realized that since the pandemic, we have a captive audience. We decided to bring our Ministries directly to the Men of the Conference. We have entitled our Webinars – The Love, Learn and Lead Series. These were not training webinars but information interactive Webinars on the Ministries of the UMM in the Conference. We are adding (3) Three more Webinars to include one on: Men's Health, PTSD and Cybersecurity during the Pandemic. The Cybersecurity expert is one of the Experts that provides the Cybersecurity on Air Force One.

- Love, Learn, and Lead (LLL): <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/89824607164>
Meeting ID: 898 2460 7164
- January 12 - Intentional Discipleship, 6:30 PM
- February 16 - Personal Prayer, 6:30 PM (Andrew said the focus is on personal prayer vs. corporate prayer)
- March 16 - Racism, 6:30 PM
- April 13 - Men's Health, 6:30 PM
- TBA – PTSD
- TBA - Cybersecurity

We will continue our Webinars through the end of the year and all Webinars are posted on the VAC UMM Website (<https://www.vaumc.org/UMM>)

Wesleyan Building Brothers (WBB) Mentoring: Advocate David Bean and his team have deployed a mentor/mentee training program. Using Wesley's 21 questions and corresponding scripture, the initiative will help us address generational gaps in our churches, provide new disciples with experienced mentors, and focus our discipleship on service (faith in action).

Young Men's Ministry: In coordination with the Southeastern Jurisdiction (SEJ), we have established this ministry to explore ways to integrate and grow participation by late Boomers, Gen Xers, and Millennials. To this end we have deployed a mentoring program (see WBB above), and encouraged participation in small transformational groups. Additionally, by focusing on projects not presentations, interactions not programs, and by showing, not telling, we are demonstrating our dedication to building relationships, not walls. We are starting our Younger Men's Ministry from the Campus Ministry approach. We have invited the various UMM Campus Ministers across the conference to become a partner our Team.

Men's Ministry: Three certified Men's Ministry Specialists (Todd Hoar, Johnnie Draughon and David Bean) are engaged in training and support activities offering Understanding Men's Ministry and other courses around the Conference.

Scouting: We serve over 16,000 youth with over 9,000 adult volunteer leaders. Scouting is a key element of our strategy to reach new people since half of scouting families do not have church homes. In 2019, Scouting Advocate Bill Chaffin was appointed to the Conference Board of Laity. We received a $5,000 UM Foundation grant to initiate District programs, provide scholarships to Philmont for UM scouter training during the 100th Anniversary, and funding to stabilize the Conference structure. Finally, we created a chaplain aide training program.

AMEND Together is an innovative initiative dedicated to preventing domestic violence against women and girls by engaging and educating men. The GCUMM has partnered with AMEND Together to create the AMENDING Through Faith training course in which men learn to recognize, respond to, and prevent violence against women. The Virginia Conference UMM received a grant to help fund this initiative. To find out more, visit the GCUMM website or view the video <https://youtu.be/KskVFJktm0g>

Prayer Advocacy: There are currently seven District prayer advocates. Districts still in need of prayer advocates are Alexandria, Arlington, Charlottesville, Danville, Eastern Shore, Harrisonburg, Lynchburg, Rappahannock, Roanoke, and Staunton. Todd Hoar, our Conference Prayer Advocate, distributed Upper Room materials throughout the year. The Upper Room prayer wall can be found at <http://prayer-center.upperroom.org/prayer-wall>.

Heart Havens: The UMM, through Heart Havens Advocate David Campbell, support the developmentally disabled through fund raising, community events involving residents, and providing volunteer maintenance and repair to group homes.

The Winchester District UMM is also supporting the Saratoga House in Winchester, formerly operated by Heart Havens but now under the management of Shenandoah Valley Community Residences, Inc.

Camp Rainbow Connection holds a week-long respite camp once in June and once in July for individuals with developmental disabilities. While finances are a continuing challenge, an even greater challenge is getting enough camp counselors to serve. Camp Rainbow is held at Richard Bland College in Petersburg and Ron Rumsey is our Camp Rainbow Connection Advocate.

Prison and Jail Ministries:

UMM provides volunteer and monetary support to:

- Disciple Bible Outreach Ministry (DBOM) which provides the 32-week Disciple Series to prisoners (Gene Mims, POC);
- Good News Jail Ministry serving inmates in Virginia's county and city Jails;
- Kairos which provides an Emmaus Walk experience for inmates of Virginia's Correctional Institutions; and
- GraceInside, a ministry supporting Prison Chaplains. We also advocate for the children of incarcerated adults through All God's Children. Each year our Conference sponsors 90 youth and children with an opportunity to grow in Christ.

Hunger Relief: Wade Mays, with the Society of St. Andrew, will have provided an estimated 1.6 million servings of food by July 2020 with the help of our UMM volunteers.

The Beacon: Our monthly e-newsletter has strong readership (2000+) from both clergy and laity as well as subscribers outside the Conference taking regular notice of our men's activities. The Beacon is emulated by other Conferences providing insightful articles, timely news items, and promoting UMM sponsored events. Our editor, Jon Simons, always welcomes your input!

– Albert S. Weal Jr., President

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Connected by faith, hope and love, the Virginia Conference United Methodist Women “zoomed” forward with a slow start in 2020 but remained committed to serving women, children, and youth at home and around the world through leadership development, service and advocacy, spiritual growth, and transformative education. Events were cancelled but our will is strong.

Hearts are heavy for those who have passed and those who have suffered due to the pandemic.

Besides Mission Team and Executive Committee virtual meetings, the Annual Meeting in October was well attended for the conduction of business, the lifting of spirits and the support of each other. The Reverend Dr. Sarah Calvert was the keynote speaker.

Our women are resilient; our women are determined. Our women are faithful, and our women know the importance of the missions they support.

– Nancy Walsh, President

THE BOARD OF COMMUNICATIONS

In 2019, the Board of Communications did extensive work to better understand the communications needs of the Virginia Annual Conference. The results of our conference-wide survey confirmed a strong interest in expanded digital communications. In close consultation with the conference communications staff, the board worked to address the feedback we received in the survey. As part of this initiative, we formed several work teams focused on expanding our communication ministry with laity, providing a resource hub for the conference, and developing ways to better equip local churches with communications resources.

Our efforts to expand communications with laity resulted in an 80% increase in the number of laity receiving conference communications. The resource hub was launched on Facebook in early 2021. Please visit <https://www.facebook.com/groups/vaumcresourcehub> to join the resource hub group. The board will continue to expand on this work.

Our largest initiative over the last year was the Board of Communications Technology Grant. In summer 2020, the board recognized that churches would need to continue to offer worship, Sunday school, and other ministries online, and that many local churches would need resources to help purchase equipment to maintain or improve their online ministries. We received 316 applications for the Technology grant. The board allocated $50,000 from our Advocate Reserves fund to the grant, and additional financial resources were made available to the board by the conference Council on Finance and Administration (CFA). The board awarded grants to 87 churches, for a total of $77,613.50.

As part of the grant program, the board also offered technical consultations. A total of 48 churches received these consultations, which began in January 2021. The board is excited to be able to offer this support to local churches, and is working to identify ways we can expand on this initiative.

COMMISSION ON DISABILITIES

Members of the Commission On Disabilities (COD) committee strive to uphold their mission statement by providing advocacy, education, and direct service on behalf of persons with challenging conditions. We affirm the responsibilities of the Church to be in ministry with all persons regardless of their physical and/or mental conditions in the life of the local church and the VA Annual Conference.

The committee normally meets at least three times annually and is made up of numerous clergy and laity throughout our VA Conference and the goal is to have a representative from each district from our VA Conference. We stay connected with the Camp Rainbow committee and Heart Havens through a representative from COD. We have grants for local churches to help with church programs and accessibilities to their buildings and we share this information on the VA Conference website and at Annual Conference at our table in the exhibit room.

We would like to thank all our clergy and laity for their support toward our COD committee, and if you would like to be a member or have any questions please feel free to contact me.

THE COMMISSION ON ETHNIC MINORITY CONCERNS AND ADVOCACY (CEMCA)

The Commission on Ethnic Minority Concerns and Advocacy (CEMCA) serves to be the prophetic voice for the full and equal participation of all ethnic and racial constituents into the total life and mission of the Virginia Annual Conference. This year our work focused on education, strategic planning, advocacy, and accompaniment into account God's church at all levels (General, Conference, District, and Local). We believe that our commission can stimulate individual and group agency that will move the Virginia Annual Conference forward in more inclusive, ethnically-diverse, and racially just ways.

We represent: African-American Ministries, the Immigration Task Force, Asian-American Ministries, Native American Ministries, Black Methodists for Church Renewal (BMCRC), VA FOCUS 2020, Methodists Associated for the Cause of the Hispanic-American (MARCHA), National/ South-Eastern Jurisdictional (SEJ) Hispanic-Latino Caucus, VAUMC's Latino Clergy Caucus, along with Inter-Ethnic collaboration and integration across the annual conference. This year we continued to serve as a multicultural resource for VAUMC's SEJ/GC Delegation in response to the elections at the 2019 annual conference.

As all groups, our constituencies met challenges during the past twelve months but have risen to the challenge. The Native American Ministries Association developed their family retreat into a virtual format; Asian American Ministries continues to develop leadership models and is sharing best practices for discipleship in exciting ways; BMCRC and the Latino Clergy Caucus are renewing their commitments to developing new leadership in the conference through mentorship for both laity and clergy. The pandemic period has taught us all to work together in new and unprecedented ways. The work of racial reconciliation continues despite new obstacles presented.

We as a commission are not only allowing people to have voice at the table but are breaking new ground to live into that voice. When all have the freedom to live into that voice, ALL can authentically be who God has called them to be.

As a commission we are engaged in the Bishop's Call to Action work group on Racial Injustices, immigration advocacy for persons in sanctuary, and the dangling earring challenge, while monitoring and speaking to the unique dynamics in our conference.

We continue our conference monitoring efforts yearly in conjunction with CoSROW. We invite all laity and clergy to complete both the CEMCA and the CoSROW surveys found online. The CEMCA survey is at (<https://vaumc.org/ceemca>). This information helps in our continued efforts to be sure all voices are heard, present, and represented in our annual conference.

We encourage all members of the Annual conference to focus on the talking points outlined in the Race & Reconciliation Convocation's resources when engaging in difficult, faith-driven conversations as we continue the journey ever closer to becoming the Beloved Community. To this end, we are recommitting our commission by moving to a more flexible structure and meeting monthly throughout the year to address the underlying epidemic our church and communities face: Racism.

– Lori Valentine de Segovia (Laity) and Lyle Morton (Clergy), CEMCA co-chairs

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN (COSROW)

The Commission on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW) encourages participation of women in the full life of the United Methodist church. At each Annual Conference, COSROW works with the Committee on Ethnic Minority Concerns and Advocacy (CEMCA) to observe and record the participation of women, minorities, youth and young adults, and persons with disabilities in the leadership roles of the church. This data collection continues at Annual Conference 2021.

At the 2020 Annual Conference, COSROW and CEMCA worked together to collect demographic data on Lay members of the Conference. (Statistics on Clergy members are published by the Office of Clergy Excellence.) Approximately 1,300 Lay members attend Annual Conference each year. Here are the results of our survey:

Comparison of Lay Members at Annual Conference by Year (according to Survey Responses)

Year	Completed Surveys (#/%)	Women	Men	White	Black or African American	Asian	Hispanic or Latino/a	American Indian	Pacific Islander	Youth	Young Adult	Adult	Older Adult	75+
2020	264 (20%)	62%	37%	85%	7%	2%	2.3%	.4%	0%	1%	5%	37%	43%	15%
2019	462 (35%)	64.5%	35%	90%	4%	1.3%	2.3%	1.8%	.22%	4%	4%	36%	39%

In 2020, we received 264 survey responses, about 20% of lay members attending. Surveys were completed anonymously and requested basic demographic information: Gender, Ethnicity, and Age range. Over time, we strive for more ethnic diversity and more delegates in the 18-34 age range.

Of the 264 people responding, 62% were women, 37% were men. Under Ethnicity, 85% were White (Not Hispanic or Latino/a), 7% were Black or African American; 2.3% were Hispanic or Latino/a; 1.5% were Asian; .4% American Indian. In 2020, we added a 75+ age range. Respondents were less than 1% Under 18; 5% age 18-34; 37% age 35-64; 43% age 65-74; and 15% age 75+.

Again, lay delegates are majority white, majority women, and ages 35-64. We are beginning to build observations for comparison.

COSROW members and volunteers also worked to monitor the Annual Conference sessions on September 19 (declared invalid) and October 31. Observed speakers were 94% white, 6% Asian, and Bishop Lewis. 56% laity and 44% clergy. Equal (50/50) men and women spoke. Presenters were 62% adults, 10% youth, 14% young adults and 14% older adults.

The following four reports are from agencies that have been awarded Conference Benevolence Grants for 2020:

GRACEINSIDE

United Methodist affiliated GraceInside staff:

Chaplain Michael Blythe (Greensville Corr. Ctr. – S-1 Cluster)

Chaplain Donna Smith (Greensville Corr. Ctr. – S-2 Cluster)

Chaplain Paul Ritter (Keen Mtn. Corr. Ctr. & Marion Corr. Treatment Center)

Chaplain Daniel Theiben (Red Onion & Wallens Ridge State Prisons – Restricted Housing)

Methodist Representatives serving on GraceInside's Board of Trustees:

Rev. Marilyn Heckstall, Liaison to the Bishop (Virginia Conference UMC)

Ms. Wenda Singer, Member at Large (VAUMC)

2020 will undoubtedly be remembered as a walk through the Valley of the Shadow with the COVID-19 pandemic and the personal, social and economic suffering wrought by the scourge. GraceInside's mission to "save lives from the inside out" has been challenged on an existential basis with the lockdown of religious programs and banning of chaplains and volunteers. However, every time that circumstances seemed to block the way, God made a NEW way. GraceInside's chaplains have been allowed to communicate with their inmate parishioners via emails, written correspondence and crisis care/pastoral phone calls. This has been a difficult year for the inmates, with no contact visiting, programs, congregate worship or Bible studies, and extremely limited movement. Added to these stressors is the shadow of the coronavirus, which has taken over 50 inmate lives. Never has the need for pastoral care been greater, and I am humbled to say that our chaplains have risen to the occasion and proven that remote ministry can reach incarcerated men and women in amazing and miraculous ways!

Amidst the tumult, in 2020 GraceInside celebrated a century of providing chaplains to Virginia's state correctional facilities. From a single chaplain assigned to the Virginia State Penitentiary in 1920 to 30 chaplains serving 30 correctional facilities in 2021, GraceInside's mission continues to be providing professional chaplain services to incarcerated men and women in Virginia's state correctional facilities. In regular times (as opposed to the pandemic lockdown), these part-time "prison pastors" plan weekly worship services, preach the Gospel, administer Holy Communion, provide pastoral care/counseling as well as coordinate religious volunteers and maintain accurate records as mandated by the Virginia Department of Corrections. During the pandemic, the chaplains fulfill these services within the scope of the limitations necessitated by the COVID-19 crisis.

At this juncture, our priorities are to minister to inmates and accompany them through this difficult journey. To that end, the support provided by VAUMC funding has literally enabled the continued existence of GraceInside and, of prison ministry in Virginia. I thank you for helping to found this ministry in 1920, and for over 100 years of faithful support! I humbly ask for your continued prayers, partnership and support so we can “hit the ground running” once this pandemic has passed and the world enters the era of “the new normal.”

– J. Randy Myers, President

SOCIETY OF ST. ANDREW

Over the last 41 years, the Virginia Conference has been a critical partner in the work of the Society of St. Andrew. In that time, you’ve helped SoSA grow from a home-based intentional Christian community to a nation-wide gleanings and food recovery network that has engaged more than a half million volunteers in simple hands-on service to feed hungry neighbors. Thank you for being part of this ministry from its inception, for sharing with us a vision for a world without hunger, in which faith and stewardship meet God’s abundance—and good food is shared with people in greatest need every day.

In 2020, despite the pandemic-induced financial challenges they faced, 317 congregations of the Virginia Conference provided financial support to the Society of St. Andrew. In spite of COVID-related restrictions for gleanings groups, 20 congregations and more than 1,400 Virginia United Methodists took part in “crop drops” or field gleanings.

Through the Virginia Gleaning Network and the Potato & Produce Project in 2020, 310 feeding agencies (soup kitchens, shelters, emergency food assistance programs, food pantries, and large food banks) across the state received more than 3,016,830 pounds of nourishing food to share with their clients—providing more than 9 million servings of health and hope to our hungry siblings. The Seed Potato Project (a “hand up” endeavor that provides seed potatoes to poor, land-owning Appalachian families) shared an additional million servings of good food with hungry Virginians. All this is work made possible because you care.

Nationwide, 46.2 million pounds of food (138.6 million servings) reached millions of hungry Americans in 2020 through the work of the Society of St. Andrew, through crops donated by more than 796 farmers/producers and through the gleanings and volunteer efforts of 23,125 individuals. In 2020 half of the food SoSA distributed was food acquired through SoSA’s normal channels. The other half was through months of logistical work, arranging truck-to-trunk distribution of USDA Farmers to Families Food Boxes across the United States. SoSA distributed about 1 out of every 150 food boxes made available by this USDA special distribution program nationwide.

In a challenging year, the Society of St. Andrew distributed more food than ever before and supported that by raising more money than ever before. We know this work is not our own, but our Lord’s, so we are grateful for the prayers of so many faithful people and congregations that carried SoSA through 2020, doubling food distribution to meet doubled food need.

We’re grateful for all the Virginia Conference congregations that join with the Society of St. Andrew through its spiritual life programs, including seasonal devotional materials, Vacation Bible School curriculum, and Bible studies. In 2020, 15 VAUMC congregations adapted and used SoSA’s “Abundance Orchard” VBS; 120 congregations used SoSA’s Advent devotional resources, ordering 6,080 books, and 231 congregations utilized SoSA’s Lenten devotions or Good Friday Fast programs, ordering 10,742 books.

The Society of St. Andrew’s mission fields are just that, fields and orchards. The need for volunteers throughout the year is great, and the opportunities are plentiful. Congregations that partner with SoSA have found the partnerships transformative, spurring deeper faith, greater support for local missions, and an abiding concern for those our Savior called “the least of these.”

– Lynette Johnson, Executive Director

THE VIRGINIA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

The Virginia Council of Churches (VCC) has a long-standing relationship with the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church. The clergy, members and congregations of the VA Conference of the United Methodist continue to be active participants with the VCCC ministries. VCC is a community of Christian communions, congregations and individuals which affirm that what binds us together in Christ is much stronger than what divides us. In response to the gospel as revealed in the Scriptures, we confess Jesus Christ the incarnate Word of God, as Savior and Lord. VCC member communions covenant to manifest more fully the unity of the Church, our oneness in Christ.

Virginia Council of Churches continue to reflect on the past, while visioning how ecumenism may engage the local and state entities of Virginia. The first step on this journey is VCC’s Coordinating Cabinet’s “re-training” and transitioning to a working governance with a spirit of excellence and the focused realities answering the question, “What unique ministry can ecumenical congregations and denominations do better together than alone?”

One example is the reality that systemic racism is in the DNA of all systems in Virginia; in the church, racism impedes the body of Christ from actualizing its vision and mission of being one; the Good News of the gospel proclaims that we are one. With the resurgence of racism in North American systems, and increasing divisions and distrust, VCC has initiated an anti-racism pro-reconciliation team (ARPCT); comprised of persons from several denominations, including the UMC, ARPCT’s long-range goal is to eradicate systemic racism in Virginia, one system at a time. VCC’s ARPCT work is based on the biblical imperative of right relationships with God and one another—relationships of: love and grace, equity and justice, respect and mutual accountability. The ARPCT will include providing practical resources, webinars and trainings, advocacy and support to assist leaders throughout the Commonwealth to engage and embrace the process of systemic change. Systemic racism continues to adversely affect the health and well-being of all Virginians, particularly person of color. God has given the gift of diversity to be accepted and celebrated. The Ecumenical Movement continues to affirm the need for church’s mobilization to combat racism.

Other ministries VCC is engaging is the Rural Family Development Head Start in Caroline County; Next Generation of Ecumenists, pastors forty and under who meet monthly developing ecumenical relationships, addressing relevant topics and prepping to lead in the VCC’s Ministries. A new addition to this ministry is the VCC mentoring program; during the 2021 spring semester, VCC has engaged its first intern who happens to be United Methodists and a Declared Candidate for Ordination of Deacons Orders in the Virginia Conference of the UMC. This group is diverse, ecumenical and brings different and life-giving perspectives to the Ecumenical Movement.

Rural Family Development Head Start Program (RFD) continues VCC’s historical ministry of East Coast Migrant Head Start on the Eastern Shore. VCC continues to focus on assisting to equip and empower families with the greatest need in Caroline County; this county has a poverty rate of 9.9 %, with majority being females living in poverty. RFD provides services for child and the whole family which equips the entire them to step beyond their current challenging reality.

Virginia Council of Churches continues the steps toward all of humanity actualizing the oneness in the body of Christ. As we collectively reframe unity and liberation, equity and justice as linked realities, then we will begin to accept one of God’s greatest gifts, diversity.

VIRGINIA INTERFAITH CENTER FOR PUBLIC POLICY (VICPP)

The Virginia Interfaith Center for Public Policy (VICPP) values its partnership with the Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. VICPP engages people of faith and good will in advocating economic, racial, social and environmental justice in Virginia’s policies and practices.

Policy Highlights

- Abolition of the Death Penalty. VICPP helped lead the successful effort to make Virginia the first state in the South to abolish the death penalty. Thanks to the more than 427 clergy who signed a public letter, the dozens of chapters and congregations that met with legislators and participated in five prayer vigils around the state, and the thousands of people who responded regularly to alerts.

- Prenatal Care for Immigrant Women. VICPP helped draft and support budget amendments to provide prenatal care for undocumented immigrant women that were included in the House and Senate budget proposals. This will provide prenatal healthcare to more than 1000 immigrant women.
- Water is a Human Right Resolution. The Virginia Interfaith Power and Light (VAIPL) team led the work on passage of this resolution that amplifies the importance of clean, safe, affordable drinking water as a human right for all residents of the Commonwealth. This resolution will frame VAIPL's future work on water issues.
- Paid Sick Days for Home Health Care Workers. VICPP led a coalition effort to get paid sick days for essential workers. Although the initial bill was reduced in scope, the bill that was approved provides 30,000 home health care workers with up to five paid sick days a year. Special thanks to United Methodist Women for this victory.
- Equitably Modernize Public Transit Study. VAIPL led work to get a study on equitable public transportation and modernization passed.
- Environmental Justice Act Improvements. Several important improvements to this ground-breaking legislation passed in 2020 were approved.
- Minimum Wage for Farmworkers. The House passed a bill to remove the farmworker exemption from the state minimum wage, but the Senate Commerce and Labor Committee voted it down with only five votes in support. Farmworkers, our most essential workers, should not be excluded from Virginia's minimum wage – work to do in 2021-22.

Organizing and Congressional Highlights

- Supporting UMC advocacy. This year, we merged the United Methodist Day at the General Assembly with our Day for All People into one week-long virtual advocacy program. It was a great program and more than 420 people registered and participated.
- Campus Advocacy Day. VICPP hosted a campus advocacy day for the first time ever that engaged 60 young advocates in learning about the advocacy process and meeting with legislators. UMC Chaplain Rev. Katie Gooch was one of the planners. We hope to build on this program next year.
- Living Wage Certification programs. VICPP continued throughout 2020 to build its living wage certification programs although at a slower pace due to the pandemic. Active programs operate in Richmond, Charlottesville and Harrisonburg. To learn more about these programs or help with one of the local committees, email Jase Hatcher at Jase@virginiainterfaithcenter.org.
- Recruiting Congregational Liaisons. VICPP is recruiting Congregational Liaisons to better help connect congregations with VICPP. There are approximately 100 congregational liaisons identified, but only eight in United Methodist churches. We can do better than this! Please volunteer or recruit someone to serve as a congregational liaison. Email Dora Muhammad at Dora@virginiainterfaithcenter.org.
- Focusing on Racial Equity. VICPP uses a racial equity lens for all its policy work. VICPP is also providing educational tools and resources to assist congregations in looking at racial justice and what faith communities can do to address the inequities caused by racism.
- Building Civic Engagement Work. VICPP ran Civic Engagement Summer and Civic Engagement Fall in 2020, which focused on nonpartisan voter registration and turnout. Given that Virginia has an election every year, we have opportunities to make all our congregations' 100 percent voting congregations. Be sure to follow our weekly roundups to get more information. (Sign up at www.virginiainterfaithcenter.org.)

Recommendation:

Congregations in the Virginia Conference are encouraged to identify congregational liaisons that can help connect congregations with the ministry of VICPP.

VIRGINIA UNITED METHODIST PENSIONS, INC.

Section I: Reports

n Report 1: Role & Responsibilities of Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc.

The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church directs each annual conference to establish a conference board of pension, auxiliary to Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath), to have charge of the interests and work of providing for and contributing to the support, relief, assistance, and pensioning of clergy and their families, other church workers, and lay employees of the United Methodist Church, its institutions, organizations, and agencies within each annual conference except as otherwise provided for by Wespath.

On June 22, 1965, the Virginia Annual Conference (VAUMC) established and incorporated the Virginia Methodist Pensions, Incorporation, (subsequently renamed on February 2, 1971 to Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc., or “VUMPI,”) as its conference board of pension.

VUMPI, in conjunction with Wespath, develops and administers the numerous employee pension and benefit plans sponsored by the Virginia Conference. Some plans are employer-paid, while others are voluntary and 100 percent participant-paid:

VUMPI Plans	Wespath Plans
Health	Ministers Reserve Pension Fund (Pre-82)
Prescription	Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)
Dental Vision
Supplemental Life
Voluntary Life
Long-Term Care
Healthcare Flexible Spending Account
Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account

n Report 2: Virginia Conference-Sponsored Health Plans

VUMPI administers health plans for full time clergy of the Virginia Conference, as well as retired clergy who meet eligibility requirements based on years of ministry in the Virginia Conference. Details of the Conference-sponsored health plans follow:

Active Clergy Health Plans

Health plans recommended to be made available in 2022 are unchanged from the plans offered in 2021. Health plans available to clergy serving in full time appointments in the Virginia Conference include the following:

- PPO Core: $1,000 individual deductible, $2,500 family deductible, 20% coinsurance
- PPO Buy-Up: $750 individual deductible, $1,875 family deductible, and 20% coinsurance
- HSA plan: a plan with a higher deductible ($2,250 individual, $4,500 family) as required by Internal Revenue Service rules for HSAs, a Conference contribution to the Health Savings Account ($750 for individual tier enrollees, $1,500 for all other tier enrollees), 20% coinsurance

A fourth PPO health plan with a $500 deductible, which is made available only to clergy on medical leave with CPP disability benefits and surviving spouses and children of clergy, will continue to be offered in 2022 with no plan design changes.

A small group of participants in the previously offered Clergy Managed Care Plan, which is a high deductible health plan that is not eligible for HSA contributions, maintained eligibility to enroll in that plan from 2019 through 2021 due to remaining medical credits in the plan. The Clergy Managed Care Plan will no longer be available in 2022 or thereafter.

The vision plan will continue to be offered in 2022, with no changes in the plan design.

The two dental plan options currently administered by VUMPI will also continue to be offered in 2022 with no plan design changes.

The majority of the cost of the health plans made available to Virginia Conference clergy is funded through a Conference apportionment, as described in Recommendation 1. The remainder of the cost of the plans is funded by participant contributions, as described in Recommendation 2.

Retired Clergy Health Plans

VUMPI administers health plans for eligible retired clergy of the Virginia Conference. The eligibility requirements include a minimum of ten years of full time ministry in either Virginia Conference church appointments or Extension Ministry appointments with enrollment in the Conference-sponsored health plans.

Plans made available to eligible retirees are coordinated with Medicare eligibility. Specific plans for retirees who are not yet eligible for Medicare and the program for Medicare-eligible clergy are described below:

Conference-sponsored health plan for pre-Medicare-eligible retirees: retirees who are eligible to enroll in the Conference-sponsored retired clergy health plan but who are not yet eligible to enroll in Medicare may enroll in the self funded PPO Core or PPO Buy-Up plans administered by VUMPI. Pre-Medicare-eligible retirees may also enroll in the self funded dental insurance program and the fully insured vision program made available to active clergy. The majority of the cost of the health plans made available to Virginia Conference clergy is funded through a Conference apportionment, as described in Recommendation 1. The remainder of the cost of the plans is funded by participant contributions, as described in Recommendation 2.

Conference-sponsored health plan for Medicare-eligible retirees: retirees who are eligible to enroll in the Conference-sponsored retired clergy health plan and who are also enrolled in Medicare have two options for retiree medical coverage.

The first option is the Group Plan, which is a group Medicare Advantage plan created specifically for Virginia Conference retirees. The Group Plan integrates the retiree's Medicare benefit and includes prescription drug coverage. The majority of the cost of the Group Plan is funded through a Conference apportionment, as described in Recommendation 1. The remainder of the cost of the plans is funded by participant contributions, as described in Recommendation 2.

The second option made available to eligible retirees who are enrolled in Medicare is the Connector option. Under the Connector option, Medicare-eligible retirees are able to select any Medicare Supplement plan or Medicare Advantage plan, and any Part D prescription drug plan, offered by United Healthcare. The Conference will provide funding through a Retiree Reimbursement Account (“RRA”), and those funds can be used to partially or fully offset the cost of the coverage elected through the Connector option. The RRA funding made available to retirees who elect coverage through the Connector option is funded through a Conference apportionment, as described in Recommendation 1. The remainder of the cost of the elected health plan coverage, if any, is paid by the retiree directly to United Healthcare.

n Report 3: Pension Plan Structure

There are four components to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP):

- A. Ministers Reserve Pension Fund (Pre-82) for service and benefits accrued on and/or prior to December 31, 1981. .
- B. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) for service and benefits accrued on and/or after January 1, 1982 through December 31, 2006.
- C. Clergy Retirement Security Program - Defined Benefit Plan (CRSP-DB) for service and benefits accrued on and/or after January 1, 2007.
- D. Clergy Retirement Security Program - Defined Contribution Plan (CRSP-DC) for service and benefits accrued on and/or after January 1, 2007.

Wespath refers to plans A – C above as defined benefit (“DB”) pension plans. That is, each year an eligible clergy member of the Virginia Conference served/serves and received/receives pension credit, the applicable plan will pay a certain benefit, or “defined” monthly income during retirement. Hence, the term “defined benefit.” Defined benefit plans do not maintain participant account balances since the employer, or in our case, Wespath, has the responsibility to manage the funds in a manner sufficient to pay the monthly defined benefit.

Simultaneous to Wespath calculating each participant’s defined benefit, it calculates each annual conference’s cost to provide these defined benefits. Wespath bills each annual conference the amount due. Each annual conference, or in our case, VUMPI, then bills our local churches for the cost of these plans.

In addition to these defined benefit plans, annual conferences provide their clergy pension benefits from the CRSP-DC, a defined contribution (“DC”) plan. Each year an eligible clergy member of the Virginia Conference serves and receives pension credit, the Virginia Conference determines how much pension contribution each clergy participant will receive in his/her pension account. VUMPI bills local churches for the required amount of pension contribution, then makes monthly contributions into the clergy CRSP-DC accounts.

n Report 4: Welfare Plans Structure

The welfare plans made available to Virginia Conference clergy include the Comprehensive Protection Plan (“CPP”) sponsored by Wespath, as well as supplemental benefits sponsored independently by VUMPI.

The CPP disability benefits are as follows:

- For Clergy disabled on or after Jan. 1, 2002, the CPP disability benefit equals 70 percent of Plan Compensation, with compensation capped at 200 percent of the DAC.
- For Clergy disabled prior to Jan. 1, 2002, they will continue to receive the same CPP disability benefit per the plan document in-force at the time their disability claim originated.

The following generally describes the death benefit amounts payable under the CPP to eligible participants and their beneficiaries:

Active Participant Death Benefits: payable upon the death of an eligible active CPP participant, as follows:

- Participant: $50,000, payable in 12 monthly installments or one lump sum
- Spouse of active participant: 20% of the Denominational Average Compensation (“DAC”) in the year of death
- Surviving spouse of active participant: 15% of DAC in the year of death
- Child of active participant: 10% of DAC in the year of death
- Annual surviving spouse annuity benefit of 20% of DAC, less the annuity benefit payable from CRSP and other Church-related sources
- Annual surviving child benefit of 10% of DAC, payable in 12 monthly installments (for those age 17 and younger; benefits are paid through the month in which the child attains age 18)
- Annual surviving child educational benefit up to 20% of DAC, payable in equal installments (for those age 18 through 24 and attending school full-time)

Retired Participant Death Benefits: to be eligible for death benefits in retirement, a clergyperson must have been covered in CPP for a specified number of years. The 2012 General Conference approved a change to the CPP program which increases the length of service requirement for retirees. Retirees with 25 or more years of enrollment in CPP are eligible for the death benefits in retirement, and the eligibility criteria for those with fewer than 25 years in CPP was phased in with one-year increments, as detailed in the table below:

Retirement Year	CPP Enrollment Requirement for Death Benefit Eligibility
2013	6 of last 10 years
2014	7 of last 10 years
2015	8 of last 11 years
2016	9 of last 12 years
2017	10 of last 13 years
2018	11 of last 14 years
2019+	12 of last 15 years

The death benefit amounts associated with retired participants are detailed in the table below:

Plan Provision	Clergy Who Retired Before Jan. 1, 2013	Clergy Who Retire Jan. 1, 2013 or Later
Death of retired participant	30% of DAC in the year of death	$20,808
Death of retiree's spouse	20% of DAC in the year of death	$15,606
Death of retiree's surviving spouse	15% of DAC in the year of death	$10,404
Death of retiree's child	10% of DAC in the year of death	$8,323
Annual surviving child benefit, payable in 12 monthly installments	10% of DAC	10% of DAC
Annual surviving child educational benefit, payable in installments	20% of DAC	20% of DAC

The Conference Supplemental Death Benefit for active eligible clergy under episcopal appointment, and who are enrolled in CPP, is $25,000. The Conference Supplemental Death Benefit is payable in addition to the CPP death benefit. During retirement, a $5,000 Conference Supplemental Death Benefit will be payable to CPP participants, in addition to the CPP death benefit. The beneficiary will receive the Conference Supplemental Death Benefit payable in one lump sum.

In combination, the CPP and Conference Supplemental Death Benefit provide total death benefits as follows:

- $75,000 to beneficiaries of active clergy participants
- $25,808 (or 30% of the DAC + $5,000 for clergy who retired prior to January 1, 2013) to beneficiaries of retired clergy participants

Gift Benefit

VUMPI currently elects to provide a one time $1,500 gift at the time of retirement or disability (once awarded disability benefits under the Comprehensive Protection Plan) to each clergyperson who has served at least ten years of service in a full-time Virginia Annual Conference episcopal appointment in the Virginia Conference with pension credit. Further, a gift to the family of each clergyperson meeting the eligibility criteria above who dies in active service is paid in the same amount as the gift to retired or disabled clergypersons.

n Report 5: Denominational Average Compensation

Several of the pension and welfare plans incorporate the Denominational Average Compensation ("DAC") into the formula for determining the plan benefit. The formula VUMPI uses for funding those plans relies on the DAC, as well.

As reported by Wespath, the DAC is projected to increase from 2021 to 2022 as follows:

Denominational Average Compensation
2021	2022
$74,199	$75,570

v v v

Section II: Recommendations for Annual Conference Approval

n Recommendation 1: 2022 Clergy Benefits Apportionment Recommendations

For 2022, VUMPI recommends total Clergy Benefits Apportionments of $16,000,000. This represents an increase of $230,000, or approximately 1.5%, from the 2021 clergy benefits apportionments. The total benefits apportionment amount includes funding for the Active Clergy Health Plan (which includes health care coverage for eligible clergy on medical leave and widowed spouses of active clergy) and the Retired Clergy Health Plan. The apportionment total is allocated between these components as follows:

Clergy Benefits Apportionment Recommendations - 2022
Active Clergy Health	$ 10,000,000
Retired Clergy Health	6,000,000
TOTAL CLERGY BENEFIT APPORTIONMENTS	$ 16,000,000

VUMPI recommends the above Active Clergy Health and Retired Clergy Health apportionments as part of its broad strategy focused on maintaining adequate health plans for Virginia Conference active and retired clergy, while moderating the financial impact on local churches and individual participants to the extent possible.

VUMPI is pleased to note that additional funds from financial reserves were transferred into the Virginia Conference's Pre-82 pension assets during 2021, and a fully funded status in the Pre-82 pension is anticipated at year-end 2021. Accordingly, no Pre-82 pension liability apportionment is being recommended for 2022.

VUMPI makes the Conference-sponsored health plans available to clergy serving in Conference-related extension ministries that do not pay apportionments. For clergy appointed to such extension ministries who are enrolled in the health plans in 2022, VUMPI will bill the Conference Health Plan Fee. The amount billed will be $988 per month for each enrolled clergyperson, plus their applicable Participant Contributions for active clergy as noted in Recommendation 2: 2022 Participant Contribution Recommendations.

n Recommendation 2: 2022 Health Plan Participant Contribution Recommendations

In administering the Conference-sponsored self-insured health plans, an element of VUMPI's strategy is to maintain plans that are similar to national average employer-sponsored health plans. In addition, VUMPI recommends participant contributions that are similar, as a percentage of the total health plan cost, to national employer-sponsored plan averages. As overall health care costs tend to increase each year, and as the actual cost trends among each of the health plans can change year-to-year, VUMPI periodically recommends changes in the recommended participant contributions. For 2022, VUMPI is recommending modest increases in the participant contributions for two of the health plans. The recommended participant contributions reflect an increase of approximately 2% for the PPO Core plan and approximately 5% for the PPO Buy-Up plan. No changes are recommended for the participant contributions for the HSA plan, the $500 deductible PPO plan, the dental plan, the vision plan, and the group Medicare Advantage plan for Medicare-eligible retirees. The recommended increase in the participant contributions for the PPO Core and PPO Buy-Up plans are coupled with the increase of approximately 3% in the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment to maintain a relatively consistent overall distribution of costs between church contributions and participant contributions.

Following are the 2022 participant contribution recommendations for the Conference-sponsored health plans:

Active Clergy:

	Medical Plans			Dental Plans
	PPO Core	PPO Buy-Up	HSA	Core	Major
Clergyperson Only	$104	$137	$80	$13	$34

Note: active clergy have the opportunity to earn a $15 reduction in the monthly participant contribution through participation in the Virginia Conference wellness program. Clergy spouses who are enrolled in the Conference health plans can also receive a $15 reduction in the monthly participant contribution, for a total potential monthly reduction of $30.

Group Plan Option: The group plan is a group Medicare Advantage plan. The group plan has a required participant contribution based on full time years of service in the Virginia Conference. The recommended 2022 participant contributions for the group plan coverage option are as follows:

Medicare-eligible Retirees - Monthly Personal Contributions
Years of Service	Individual	Family
10-14	$375	$750
15-19	$310	$620
20-24	$245	$490
25-29	$180	$360
30+	$115	$230

Connector Option: The Connector option allows qualifying clergy to select any available Medicare Supplement or Medicare Advantage plan, and any Part D prescription drug plan, offered by United Healthcare. Retirees electing coverage through this option receive Retiree Reimbursement Account (“RRA”) funding, which can be used to offset the cost of the selected coverage. VUMPI recommends 2022 monthly RRA funding based on qualifying years of Virginia Conference service as follows:

Connector Option - Monthly RRA Funding
Years of Service	Retiree Only	Retiree and Spouse
20-24	$150	$300
30+	$250	$500

The monthly RRA funding amounts will be prorated for qualifying retirees and/or spouses of qualifying retirees who gain Medicare eligibility or otherwise gain eligibility for retiree coverage within a calendar year. Any RRA funds remaining at the end of a calendar year will roll over into the subsequent year for use by the enrolled retiree and/or spouse for qualifying medical expenses.

General Virginia Conference Health Plan Information

For participants enrolled in the Anthem health plans, either as active clergy or as a retiree not yet eligible for Medicare, 2022 health plan selections will be made during the open enrollment period in the fall of 2021. If an eligible clergyperson does not elect coverage options during the annual open enrollment period, the default enrollment option is the prior year's plan selections (except for Flexible Spending Account or Dependent Care Spending Account contributions), and enrollees will be subject to the associated individual personal contribution rates.

If not selected during the open enrollment period, no Flexible Spending Account contributions can be made during 2022, in accordance with federal laws.

All who are eligible to enroll in a Virginia Conference health plan are strongly encouraged to participate in online open enrollment in the fall of 2021. Details will be distributed through normal annual open enrollment means.

Virginia Conference clergy members earn a year of service towards his or her Total Years of VAUMC Service as indicated in the coverage options above for each year that Virginia Annual Conference health plan eligibility is met.

Eligibility for the Conference-sponsored retiree medical plans requires a minimum of ten years of full time ministry in the Virginia Conference. Virginia Conference clergy on approved leave or serving in an Extension Ministry appointment earn credit towards retiree medical plan eligibility only if enrolled in the Conference-sponsored health plan while on leave or while serving an Extension Ministry appointment

n Recommendation 3: 2022 Pre-82 Pension Past Service Rate

The Pre-82 pension provides a benefit to all eligible clergy who have served in the Virginia Conference prior to 1982. This program pays the greater of the following:

- An annual benefit equal to the Past Service Rate (PSR) times years of pre-1982 service, or
- An annuity amount based upon the participant's cash balance in his or her Defined Benefit Service Money Account

The Virginia Annual Conference establishes the PSR each year. For 2022, VUMPI recommends that the PSR be increased from $580 to $585.

n Recommendation 4: 2022 CRSP/CPP/Supplemental Plan Funding Recommendations

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)

The 2022 CRSP Contribution from the local churches and/or salary-paying-units for each appointed eligible clergy member under episcopal appointment at that location shall be:

- For the Defined Contribution component of CRSP: Plan Compensation (base salary plus housing allowance or parsonage rate in accordance with the Internal Revenue Service), times 3%.
- For the Defined Benefit component of CRSP: Plan Compensation (base salary plus housing allowance or parsonage rate in accordance with the Internal Revenue Service, up to 135% of the Denominational Average Compensation ("DAC")) times 9%

Local churches and salary-paying units are to make their monthly CRSP payments to VUMPI.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

The 2022 CPP contribution from the local churches and/or salary-paying-units for each appointed eligible clergy member under episcopal appointment at that location shall be:

Plan Compensation (base salary plus housing allowance or parsonage rate in accordance with the Internal Revenue Service, up to 200% of the Denominational Average Compensation) times 4.4%.

Local churches and salary-paying units are to make their monthly CPP payments to VUMPI.

If, for any reason, CPP contributions are more than 30 days in arrears, participation in the CPP is suspended. If contributions are more than six consecutive months in arrears, participation in the CPP is terminated. For terminated participants, readmission into the CPP requires payment of seven months of contributions and submission of medical statement of good health.

Erroneously enrolled clergy who are ineligible to participate in the CPP have no right to benefits under the CPP. Eligible clergy who have not been properly enrolled in the CPP have no rights under the CPP until after proper enrollment.

n Recommendation 5: 2022 Housing Allowance/Exclusion

Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired, Disabled, or Former Clergypersons of the Virginia Conference

The Virginia Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, terminated, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons");

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as an appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension, severance, or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from Wespeth Benefits and Investments, during the period January 1, 2022 through December 31, 2022 by each active, retired, terminated, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from Wespeth and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespeth plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such an active, retired, terminated, or disabled Clergyperson's pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal (and, in most cases, state) income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2), and regulations thereunder, to the least of: (a) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (b) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (c) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Each clergyperson or former clergyperson is urged to consult with his or her own tax advisor to determine what deferred compensation is eligible to be claimed as a housing allowance exclusion.

DISTRICT ALIGNMENT TEAM/IDAT REPORT

This year of pandemic has called us to grow, shift, and change in ways beyond our imagination and control. Among all of this uncertainty, God loves us and we have learned more deeply how much we need that love. We have also learned how much we care about our church even in the fragmented state we find it. We need one another to truly live into God's love and share that love with those around us.

Over this past year our conference and district teams have also sought to grow and adapt as we have witnessed promising growth from our local churches. In the spirit of the early church in Acts we have witnessed congregations of all sizes all around the conference charting new and innovative ways to reach out to their community and one another. In the summer of 2020, CF&A alongside our Bishop formed a team to learn from the movement of the Spirit in this season and propose adaptive changes to our districts that would both continue the good work of our local churches and better position our structure to resource them.

The District Alignment Team (DAT) was formed out of this deep need. Through prayer, holy conversation, and meditation on the input from our conference, this team arrived at six recommendations, which were announced this past February.

As this team's strategic work came to a close, a new team was formed to discern possible pathways to make these recommendations come to life. This implementation think tank also known as the Implementation District Alignment Team (iDAT) began meeting in December of 2020 and began to pray together on a daily basis. The team assembles over zoom weekly - renewed in the mission of the church, the vision of our conference and our intended purpose to listen for the word that God is speaking. The team continues to meet to pray, discuss feedback, and discern possibilities.

God is calling all of us to continue the good work started over this pandemic year. Just as Paul wrote the Corinthian church in his first letter "I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth" 1 Corinthians 3:6-7. We are all servants of God seeking to be faithful with the work that God has set out for us. We don't do this work alone.

Out of the work of DAT and iDAT a few recommendations have been made around the number of District Superintendents in 2021 and the beginning of a new position for 2022 to come alongside our clergy called District Developer for Clergy Resourcing & Community Engagement. Beyond these decisions we only have possibilities. We invite you to join us in this process of making possibilities a reality through constant and fervent prayer, participating in virtual conversations, and engaging with other communications. We have all grown through the unimaginable difficulties over the last year. Let us move forward in faith to the planting and watering God is calling us to here and now, so that in everything we do as a church we can bring glory to our God who is the ultimate source of every good and perfect thing.

SECTION III — Apportionment Procedures

A. APPORTIONMENT FORMULA:

- All Apportionments except for the Active Clergy Health Benefits
Apportionments are calculated using the last year of available statistics of each local church (i.e. 2022 apportionments are calculated using 2020 statistics). The formula is based on total net paid expenses which are the total expenditures of the church minus expenditures for benevolent causes, apportionments, capital improvements, and payments on loans and mortgages. The apportionments for each church are sent to each district based on decimal calculations from the formula below:

$$\text{Individual Church Net Paid} / \text{Total of all Conference Churches Net Paid} = \text{Church Decimal}$$

- Active Clergy Health Benefits Apportionment Formula

The costs of the active clergy health benefits will be apportioned using a two-tier calculation. The first tier will consist of a fixed dollar amount ($5,500) per health plan eligible clergy based upon the July 1, 2021 appointment list. The remaining costs after the tier one calculation will be apportioned to the churches based upon total clergy (regardless of classification) compensation (salary plus accountable reimbursement) paid by a church divided by the total clergy compensation paid in the last year of available statistics (2020 for 2022 apportionments).

- The district then passes the apportionments on to the local church according to recommendations developed by the district superintendents and the district stewards.
- The Council on Finance and Administration, in consultation with the Church Development Team and Cabinet, has the authority to set a policy for apportioning newly chartered churches, Legacy churches, and 2nd sites of chartered churches.
 - Effective January 1, 2016, the policy will be to phase in the apportionments for new chartered churches over a five year period with the first year beginning at 20% and increasing 20% for each subsequent year until the church is at 100%.
 - Effective January 1, 2016, for a Legacy church as determined by the Church Development Team and the Cabinet, the district superintendent may present a projected budget of expenses to be used in the Legacy church's apportionment calculation for the first 18 months of its classification as a Legacy church.
 - Effective January 1, 2016 for a 2nd site (satellite & multi-site) locations that are recognized as new faith communities by the Church Development Team and the Cabinet, the existing chartered church may exclude direct expenses of the second site from the apportionment calculation based upon the following schedule:

0-42 months	100%
43-54 months	80%
55-66 months	60%
67-78 months	40%
79-90 months	20%

- Effective January 1, 2017, for a Renewal church location as determined by the Church Development Team and the Cabinet, the existing chartered church will be treated in the same manner as a newly chartered church.
- Effective January 1, 2020, Ecumenical (multi-denominational) churches will be direct billed for health insurance when they are served by an eligible United Methodist pastor and will not be subject to the 407 apportionment.

B. REPORTING GUIDELINES:

- District superintendents will report the apportioned amounts for each church to the Conference treasurer and the apportioned amounts will be shown on the monthly Treasurer's report sent to each church.
- Apportionments are to be calculated and distributed annually rather than on a quadrennial basis.
- The Annual Conference will raise World Service funds only through contributions from the local churches. CFA urges that district superintendents, pastors, and local church leaders seek to fully implement Section 812 of the 2016 Discipline.

C. IMPORTANCE OF WORLD SERVICE:

- The importance of World Service to the life of the Church is lifted up to the Annual Conference. “The World Service Fund is basic in the financial program of The United Methodist Church. The World Service apportionment represents the minimum needs of the general agencies of the Church. Payment in full of these apportionments by local churches and annual conferences is the first benevolent responsibility of the Church.” (Section 812 of the 2016 Discipline).

SECTION IV - Annual Conference Special Offerings

Annual Conference offerings provide important and life-giving support for key Conference programs. The following are recommended for approval for 2022:

- United Methodist Family Services. It is recommended that December be designated as United Methodist Family Services Month and that each church promote an offering during this time for this purpose.
- Pinnacle Living (Samaritan Fund). It is recommended that the period between Mother’s Day and Father’s Day be designated in support of the Pinnacle Living (Samaritan Fund), and that local church offerings collected during that period be dedicated to this ministry.
- Heart Havens. It is recommended that February be designated as Heart Havens Month and that each church promote an offering during this time for this purpose.
- Partnerships of Hope. It is recommended that September be designated as Partners of Hope Month and that each church promote an offering during this time for this purpose.
- Annual Conference Offering. CFA recommends continued support for this important offering.

SECTION V - Policies

A. DISTRICT MINISTRY AND ADMINISTRATION FUND (403)

Overall Policies for the Fund:

- In compliance with the Book of Discipline, the current salaries and expenses for district superintendents (DS), and those under special appointment, will be published in the Conference Journal with each DS’s salary individually calculated and assigned each year as part of the appointive process, using the following criteria:
 - Each District Superintendent’s salary shall be between $105,000 and $120,000 at the discretion of the Bishop.
 - Each year, the annual salaries of the District Superintendents are to be recommended by CFA to the Annual Conference.
 - CFA also administers salary-related expenses, to include such items as pensions, supplemental benefits, travel, continuing education, and other Cabinet-related expenses.
 - The total cost of salaries and related expenses apportioned to districts are to be based on the current approved decimal system (upon recommendation of CFA).
 - All other District Superintendent’s costs, such as housing, district office expenses and staff, are to be paid at the district level, pending the final recommendations regarding district alignment.

Note, there will be further recommendations coming from CFA once the decisions have been made regarding district alignment.

B. TRAVEL & MEETING EXPENSES

Board and Agency members and staff engaged in Conference business are provided and are to be managed as follows:

- The mileage reimbursement rate is set at 45 cents for Conference staff. The mileage reimbursement rate for volunteers is set at half the IRS rate for volunteers (currently 28 cents) for those serving boards and agencies of the Conference.

- Meals are to be reimbursed at actual costs, but not to exceed $20 per 24-hour period. (Breakfast on the date of departure from home/office is not accepted; dinner on the date of return is not accepted, except when the arrival to home/office is after 7 p.m.).
- Reimbursement for daily room charges is set at $100, if the travel incurred extends to a period over three hours prior to the starting time of 10 a.m. on the day of the meeting.
- Spouse expenses are not part of allowable expenses.
- To encourage stewardship in this area, CFA suggests: (1) that advance reading materials be provided for study prior to meetings; and (2) that there be use of teleconferencing, where feasible.

C. INDIVIDUAL EXPENSES FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Provided for and managed as follows:

- Each charge is responsible for the expenses of both the clergy and lay members (including diaconal ministers) from that charge to the annual conference, working out its own plan of compensating for actual expenses.
- Persons not covered through local church appointment shall receive annual conference reimbursement not to exceed $170 a night for mileage, meals and lodging; the Conference treasurer shall reimburse the claimant through voucher of approved expenses. Coverage under this section extends to:

Policies on the Maintenance of Reserve Fund Levels:

- The Council monitors the Conference Reserves to ensure the ability to cover future contingencies including,
 - a) Reserve funds for emergencies and catastrophic needs related to the maintenance of Conference property held by the Conference trustees, and include: (1) Virginia United Methodist Center; (2) Wesley Foundation buildings; and (3) the Episcopal residence. [The total value of these properties is estimated at more than $15 million.]
 - b) Reserve funds for cash flow purposes.
 - c) Reserve funds for economic and financial downturns.
- The Council has set the following target for Conference Reserve Funds:

Core Reserves:

A. 20% of the Conference Budget that closes to reserves	$ 1,272,000
a. 401 – Conference Mission and Ministries
b. 402 – Conference Services
c. 403 – District Superintendents' Fund
d. 404 – Equitable Compensation Fund

B. 15% of Invested Assets

958,000

$ 2,230,000

At December 31, 2020 the Annual Conference had reserves greater than the target amount.

- Consistent with approved Annual Conference policies (effective January 1992), the use of investment income is authorized to maintain reserve levels. (At the discretion of CFA, excesses may be used to: (1) meet shortfalls in Conference benevolences; (2) meet shortfalls in Conference Services; and/or (3) reduce apportionments from the Annual Conference to local churches.
- Reserve funds in the amount of $300,000 are available to cover actions emerging from Annual Conference vote, emergencies, support of advances for campaigns, and potential liabilities of the Conference
- Of the amounts reserved: (1) up to $50,000 is available for emergency needs of the Common Table, with the approval of CFA; and (2) up to $100,000 may be allocated by CFA between sessions of Annual Conference, as deemed necessary
- The status of Conference reserves at the end of the prior actual year is to be reviewed each year by CFA and included in the Treasurer's Report to the Annual Conference Session.

E. PASTOR RELOCATION TRANSITION FUND

1. By action of the June 2003 Annual Conference, CFA has established Pastor Relocation Transition Fund and has provided funding through the Conference Services apportionment.
2. Churches/charges which are served by fulltime clergy appointed to their charge as pastor may request reimbursement on the following schedule for an incoming pastor, if the previous pastor served two years or less in the appointment to their charge:
 - One-year appointment – Seventy-five percent of the verified moving expenses up to a maximum of $3,000 reimbursement.
 - Two-year appointment – Fifty percent of the verified moving expenses up to a maximum of $2,000 reimbursement.
3. No moving expenses will be reimbursed that are not in compliance with the Virginia Annual Conference Guidelines for Moving Expenses as printed in the Journal of the Virginia Annual Conference.
4. Payment will be made at the end of the year based on a pro-rata share of the apportionment receipts from the churches.

F. CONFERENCE JOURNAL

The 2021 Journal is to be made available by posting on the Virginia Conference website (www.vaumc.org) as a PDF file. It will be available as a printed copy upon request at a cost of $25 which includes shipping. Only a small quantity of Journals will be printed and distributed in compliance with the Book of Discipline (606.2), to district offices, conference staff, and those purchasing copies before the August 1 deadline.

G. CONFERENCE PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE

It is recommended that the Conference-Provided Publications Committee be continued, composed of the following: (1) the Director of Connectional Ministries; (2) Conference Treasurer; and (3) the Conference Director of Communications, who will serve as the convener of the committee. SECTION VI – A Church in Mission

We are a Church in Mission and a three-pronged focus of teaching, communication, and recognition enriches us as a Conference and as Christians. With it, we are able to share and learn further what it means to enter into the vision and share concerns with many people. But more importantly, it sets out a focus throughout our Conference on the value and importance of the unique connectional relationship we have as United Methodists.

Our charter has already been defined for us and it is set out in Scripture: “Just as in the human body, though it is made up of many parts, is a single unit, because of these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ.” (1 Corinthians 12:12). And that body is composed of all of God's children, including the rich and poor, found and lost, and secure and dispossessed. For as Jesus said, “Truly, I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.” (Matthew 25:40).

As part of that body, we are called to serve our brothers and sisters in mission throughout the connection. Because of our covenant with God and with each other, it is our goal to fund the basic missional witness of the United Methodist Church.

We have much to be proud of as a Conference, as we live out the full meaning of the Stewardship of the Gospel. Our connectional giving — the important life blood of the work we all do together — is a reflection of the great commitment that Virginia United Methodists have to the mission and ministry work of our Lord. The budgets we draw up, while important, are more than a series of numbers. They reveal the very character of the people who build them, support them, and act through them. They are Christ's work in the world, put into a plan for receiving and spending — collective understandings of commitments to fulfilling ministries and mission priorities. It's no small thing we do individually, when collectively we are making such big impacts beyond our church doors.

The Stewardship of our Conference is part of our response to the needs we know about, as well as those not yet seen. Seeing the need, then doing what Jesus would do. That's true Stewardship! It's our faith in action!

William H Talley IV, President

CALL TO ACTION WORK GROUP (CAWG)

The Call-to-Action Work Group (CAWG) was designed and put into action after Bishop Lewis' calls for action against systemic racism. The original call was to address the following three elements of concern.

1. To inform clergy and laity to have authentic conversation on race and reconciliation in their houses of worship, communities, and workplaces. We need to acknowledge racism as a sin and actively pursue whatever is necessary to dismantle the injustices.
2. Community policing: emphasizes working with neighborhood residents as partners in creating public safety. We can offer our support and involvement with law enforcement agencies that work in our community to identify problems and to collaborate on implementing solutions that produce meaningful results for the community.
3. We can encourage civilian participation in oversight of law enforcement training to strengthen trust with the community. Every community should define the appropriate form and structure of civilian oversight to meet the needs of that community.

For these items to be implemented, the Call-to-Action Work Group was formed. The group has representatives from each Board, Agency, and committee. With this representation from throughout the Annual Conference we can be in dialog on these three issues and to help expand the conversation to other areas of concern in the Annual Conference and the Commonwealth as a whole.

On August 12, 2020 we held a "Virginia Speaks" this event was organized by Conference staff and the Governor and Attorney General offices. This event was designed to hear the concerns of law enforcement and the community to help us in understand the gravity of the issues. After the conversation there was a greater appreciation of our concerns and that of law enforcement. We will be working on Virginia Speaks 2.0 later this year to move beyond talk to action.

As we move forward with our work, all that we do is grounded in prayer. On the conference website under A Call to Racial Reconciliation and Justice you can see all the activities the group has been working on over the past year. In 2021 our focus will be having an authentic conversation with clergy and laity. We are finding that the more we learn and know about each other that we have more in common than we have differences. We first most learn to be honest with ourselves and others to accomplish an authentic conversation.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

Beginning a new quadrennium July 1st, the Board welcomed 20 new members and 2 new District Superintendents, all nominated by our Bishop and elected by the AC. The Board is grateful for the leadership of Rev. John Hall, past chair of the BOM and long-time Cabinet representative Rev. Kathleen Overby Webster.

In January and March, the Board held its first interviews by ZOOM, interviewing 20 candidates for full and associate membership, and 24 candidates for provisional membership. Except for the newsworthy ZOOM crash on the east coast on January 26th, the interviews went off without a hitch! Thank you to the candidates and Board members for their patience and grace during these virtual interviews.

The Board is deeply grateful to Candler School of Theology for welcoming our Virginia clergy to their virtual licensing school in the spring of 2020. This year, Licensing School will be virtual and led by clergy in the Virginia Conference as well as a few courses through Candler.

The Candidacy Team and Call Culture Team continue to sojourn with those exploring a call to ministry. The Calling 21 team continues to reimagine this internship program in ways that would best support our students. While the pandemic cancelled the program in the summer of 2020, the team is excited to have a new form of the internship for 2021. The Grants & Loans committee was able to award a grand total of $75,264 in scholarships this year as we support the educational journey of candidates.

In March, the Center for Clergy Excellence and the Conference Relations Committee off the Board, presented a document to the Bishop and Cabinet about the low morale of clergy during this pandemic. The Board and Order Chairs are exploring with the Cabinet ways in which we can better undergird, support and resource our clergy.

The Board cannot speak highly enough of Rev. Lindsey Baynham Freeman's leadership among our conference clergy, laity and the denomination. She models clergy excellence! Because of her heart and connectional spirit with those discerning a call to ministry, we have new and younger clergy serving among us. The Board is grateful for Ms. Kristen Dowdy Seibert, Program and Administrative Coordinator for her work throughout the year on behalf of the Board. Her technological support during our recent virtual interviews enabled its success.

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

The Committee on Episcopacy (COE) is responsible for the review and evaluation of the resident bishop as required by the Book of Discipline. A process for this review has been created and is used by all Conferences in the Southeastern Jurisdiction (SEJ). The Virginia COE meets with Bishop Lewis three to four times a year to engage in conversation around this process and to discuss matters present in the Virginia Annual Conference and larger connection. The COE communicates the results and insights of this review with the SEJ COE for use in their assignment process.

Bishop Lewis continues to serve in her first quadrennium due to delays to Jurisdictional Conferences brought about by the COVID-19 pandemic. The 2020 Jurisdictional Conference was not held at its regular time. Currently, a virtual Jurisdictional Conference is planned for July 2021, to receive retirements of five bishops in the Southeastern Jurisdiction (SEJ). Elections of new bishops will not be held until delegates can meet in-person, currently scheduled for November 2022.

In the interim, the eight active bishops of the SEJ will be assigned to cover its 15 Annual Conferences. The Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy will work with the SEJ College of Bishops to design a plan of coverage before making episcopal assignments which will be presented to delegates during the Jurisdictional Conference in July 2021. The Committee on Episcopacy for the Virginia Annual Conference will share insights about our Annual Conference with the SEJ COE to assist them in the plan of coverage and assignment process, just as it would in a normal year.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Virginia Conference Board of Trustees held their two regularly scheduled meetings, virtually, in September 2020 and March 2021. In addition, Special Called Meetings were held to address proposed requests from churches to exit the denomination under Book of Discipline defined procedures. Further communications via conference calls occurred during the Conference year to follow-up on other issues.

The Board continues to address property issues related to discontinued and/or abandoned United Methodist churches in the Virginia Conference. This is time-consuming, but important work in the stewardship of Conference church properties. The Board continues its ongoing management of the Episcopal residence jointly with the Episcopal Residence Committee.

At the 2019 General Conference, a process for local church disaffiliations was approved and adopted as Paragraph 2553 of the Book of Discipline. The Judicial Council later upheld Paragraph 2553 as being constitutional. To date, this disaffiliation process has not been utilized in the Annual Conference. However, certain requests for exiting the denomination by way of a church closure under Paragraph 2549 of the Book of Discipline, together with a transfer of the local church property to a new, independent church corporation, have been considered and evaluated by the Board of Trustees in consultation with the Cabinet. The Board, in coordination with the Cabinet and with the support of counsel, established a subcommittee to review requests to exit the denomination and the terms of related property transfers. In assessing the proposed terms of any property transfers, the Board and its subcommittee will consider, among other factors, the value of the subject property, and will require terms no less favorable to the Annual Conference than those provided for in a disaffiliation under Paragraph 2553, including the payment of the existing church's share of unfunded pension liabilities, unpaid apportionments for the 12 months prior to disaffiliation, and an additional 12 months of apportionments, plus attorneys' fees. As of this report, two church requests for exiting the denomination have been negotiated and approved, in each case involving a closure under the terms of Paragraph 2549 and transfer of property to the new church corporation. Certain others are under consideration at the time of this report. Given the announced delay of General Conference until August 2022, and other proposals regarding the future structure of the UMC, the Board's process reviews on disaffiliation requests to date represent important foundational work that may be useful in the coming years.

The Board of Trustees is directly supported by the Williams Mullen firm, which provides expert attorney services and counsel on Board of Trustees and Annual Conference matters. The firm, and Andrew White, integrate well into the total work of the Board, providing expert counsel to us in our current and ongoing work. During our review of disaffiliation requests, the attorney support of the Williams Mullen firm has been especially helpful.

The current slate of officers for the Conference Trustees is: Carl L. Moravitz, president; Kathy Lutman, vice president; Clyde T. Nelson, secretary; David Dommisse, treasurer.

I am thankful for the dedication of all the members of our Board as we work to meet the important tasks set out for the Board by the Conference and the Discipline. I am especially thankful for the continued leadership of our Vice President, Kathy Lutman, who has stepped in many times over the past year to help me in the many tasks of our Board.

– Carl L. Moravitz, President

THE BISHOPS' FOUNDATION

The Bishops' Foundation provides funding for leadership development of both laity and clergy in the areas of evangelism, spiritual formation, preaching, congregational leadership, spiritual leadership in the Wesleyan Spirit. Funding comes from donations received in honor of retired bishops who select the Foundation as the trustee. The foundation is led by a board of directors (five clergy and four laity) nominated by the Cabinet. Endowment funds are invested with the Virginia UM Foundation. In 2014, the foundation was dissolved as a corporation and is now a board reporting to the annual conference.

As an event-sponsoring or co-sponsoring agency providing funding for clergy and laity leadership development, the foundation supported the 5 Talent Academy of 2020 and remains interested in supporting conference ministry programming that fosters opportunities for young adult laity and clergy to help the church in reaching all generations. Grant application forms can be found on the conference website under the tab for Resources/Bishops' Foundation.

UNITED METHODIST-RELATED SCHOOLS

Ferrum College

When we welcomed 2020, we had no way of knowing we would also be welcoming the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic. Nevertheless, Ferrum College persevered in its gritty, determined fashion, keeping campus COVID-19 cases among the lowest in our area, and even enjoying many accomplishments last year.

We successfully transitioned to virtual instruction over the course of just a few days in the spring of 2020. During the summer, every one of our faculty completed an intensive online teaching certification so they would be ready to provide high-quality instruction both in the classroom and online.

In anticipation of opening the 2020-2021 academic year, we launched a Bi-Term Model and separated the fall and spring semesters into two 7-week terms. The College also offered three different course delivery models: fully online, hybrid, and hyflex, which gave students the option of attending sessions in the classroom, participating online, or in some cases, doing both.

Even in the midst of the pandemic, Ferrum College was approved to become a Level IV institution, and is now authorized to offer a variety of masters and specialist degree programs. This approval came after a Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) review team determined Ferrum to be 100 percent in compliance with every required accreditation standard.

Another pandemic-era achievement: the College added a pre-licensure Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN), which launched its first cohort in January 2021. The new BSN program complements the College's existing and completely online RN to BSN program that launched in the fall of 2020.

On Giving Tuesday, the global day of giving that fell on December 1, 2020, Ferrum invited donors to be "Ferrum Bold" by making a gift of any size to any program. The College ended the day with gifts from over 260 donors exceeding $106,000, including a $50,000 challenge gift from the Jessie Ball duPont Fund.

Ferrum College entered agreements with two partner institutions that opened new pathways to students wanting to pursue a graduate degree: with the University of Pikeville, an agreement reserving a seat in its Master of Social Work program, and with the Appalachian School of Law, a 3-plus-3 Dual Degree Agreement, which will allow students to enroll at ASL after just three years at Ferrum.

Thanks to a gift from alumnus Maury Carter '53 and his family, Ferrum dedicated the Carter Center for Academic Success, an on-campus resource focused on helping students achieve academic success through tutoring, advising, study groups, and more.

Additionally, the College was able to create the Michael T. Christian '63 Center for First-Year Experience, through a gift from alumnus Michael Christian. This Center serves all incoming students with a goal of helping them transition to college life.

As we implement our new strategic plan, I am reminded that the strength of Ferrum College is our people. We had many opportunities this past year to put our motto into practice - "Not Self, But Others," - by offering support to each other and to our students. None of us expected the year we had, but every one of us worked together to grow, strengthen, and achieve more than we could ever have imagined. We are grateful for the encouragement the United Methodist Church has offered its membership during the COVID-19 pandemic, and we welcome your support as we work to build the future.

– David L. Johns, Ph.D.

Randolph-Macon Academy

It is because of the Lord's Grace that Randolph-Macon Academy continues to successfully operate with on-campus instructions for this current 2020-21 school year. With uncertainty, unrest and anxiety seen from parents unlike any year in our school's existence, R-MA's preparation in providing safe in-person classes will lead our senior class to once again graduate for the 130th time.

A's success was dutifully noted by several media outlets, including WTOP News, Diplomatic Connections magazine and The Enrollment Management Association's podcast with industry professionals. R-MA invested significantly in marketing resources to ensure proper and honest messaging. This involved a brand new website, new But That's a Military School YouTube video with nearly 100,000 views, and transparent and consistent messaging for Covid-19 related news on our website organized by date with a comprehensive reopening plan. And the results were clear - we began the current school year with an increase in enrollment for the first time in 5 years and look to continue this trend for the upcoming school year. R-MA is also now ranked as one of the best private schools in Virginia by Niche.com:

- #5 in the Most Diverse Private High Schools in Virginia category
- #6 in the Best Boarding High Schools in Virginia category
- #13 in the Best Private High Schools in Virginia category

This did not go unnoticed with our parent community. Their feedback has been overwhelmingly positive, especially during our regular Zoom Town Hall meetings where we provided accurate and timely updates to the safety and positive progress of the school. Parents were particularly thrilled with our new Pre-Professional Pathways program, which allows students to explore passions and career interests to best prepare them for the rigors of university. We launched 4 Pathways that will provide students with a solid foundation and competitive edge in the college admissions process:

1. Aviation: Drones, Pilot Ground School, Computer Science, Graphic and Digital Design
2. Global Entrepreneurship: Psychology, Statistics, Business Symposia, Capstone Projects
3. High Flight: Academic and physical preparation for service academy appointments
4. Software & Engineering: Computer Science, Robotics, 3D Printers, Cyber Security

Our Chapel Service continues to be an integral part of R-MA life, every Wednesday. Chaplain Orndorff has taken the lead in creating Media and Praise Teams where several student volunteers lead the worship service by providing a live, streaming experience on YouTube for our entire community to view - in real-time! Whether in socially distanced chapel pews, classrooms, labs or offices, the entire R-MA community - faculty, staff and students - is able to receive the Word of God, participate in communion, read scripture and sing praise songs.

Our entire faculty and staff community has heeded advice from the CDC, with nearly 80% being fully vaccinated at this time. We are thankful for this opportunity and hope this gesture positively persuades others to do the same.

We are seeing an exponential increase in prospective applications, many of which require Financial Aid. Many of these applicants are academically highly qualified, but lack the financial resources to attend a private school due to parental economic realities caused by the Pandemic, at no fault of their own. We are grateful for the United Methodist Church's commitment in providing scholarships to R-MA, and will be happy to have a conversation to discuss a possible increase in the number of scholarships available for such qualified applicants.

In closing, I thank you for all our Church has done for our students and for R-MA this year; I pray for strength and wisdom for our Bishop and for the Virginia Conference in the year ahead; and I look forward to all we can do together, in the name of the Lord.

— David C. Wesley, Brigadier General, USAF, Retired, President

Randolph-Macon College

Founded in 1830, Randolph-Macon College is a selective, co-educational, nationally ranked liberal arts college located in Ashland, Virginia, just minutes north of Richmond and 90 miles south of Washington, D.C. The college achieves its mission of "developing the minds and character of each student" by balancing rigorous academics with individualized attention between our exceptional faculty and students. Though classes were offered in a mix of formats due to the pandemic, the school maintained a student-faculty ratio of 11 to 1 and average class size of 14 students. The college has an outstanding reputation for academics, national and international internships, study abroad programs and undergraduate research opportunities.

Now in our 191st year, the college is larger and more diverse than at any time in history, having experienced a significant growth in our student body in recent years. The 2020-21 academic year opened with 1554 students from 29 states (including the District of Columbia) and 25 countries. Of these students, 55% are female and 45% are male.

R-MC prides itself on an exceptional sense of responsibility for student success and offers a Four-Year Degree Guarantee, which pledges in writing that freshmen who meet all necessary requirements will graduate within four calendar years. If not, Randolph-Macon will waive tuition costs for R-MC courses needed to complete the degree.

Randolph-Macon celebrates our strong alumni giving record. Even in the midst of the pandemic, in FY2020, R-MC continued to rank in the top 30 of all colleges and universities in the nation for the percentage of alumni who gave back to the college.

The college facilities are being improved and expanded, thanks in part to this generosity. This includes the recently opened Payne Hall, as well as ongoing construction for a renovated and expanded performing arts center.

The college has been educating Christian clergy throughout its history. Randolph-Macon College currently has more than 150 living alumni who are clergy, more than two-thirds of whom are United Methodist Clergy. There are currently twelve students in the pre-ministerial program, including five Bailey Scholars. The A. Purnell Bailey Pre-Ministerial Scholarship Program was established in 2004 to support students who express an interest in ordained ministry in the Christian tradition. Students awarded this scholarship receive half-tuition for the first two years and full tuition for the junior and senior years. The program includes weekly mentoring, two internships in ministry settings, and support selecting and applying to theology school. There are 11 recent Bailey Scholar and pre-ministerial students in seminaries across the country.

Randolph-Macon is engaging high school students across the Virginia Conference in a number of ways including Convergence: A Youth Theology Institute on Faith and Science, Valuing the Voices in Our Church (a program focused on leadership, diversity, and call), and Pathways to Science (an opportunity for rising sophomore Hispanic girls to meet scientists and explore STEM related activities.)

Randolph-Macon continues expanding the programs it offers today's students. The college admitted its first class of Nursing students in 2019, and announced plans for a Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies program to begin in January 2023. An applied mathematics major was also recently added.

As the oldest continuously operating Methodist college in the country, Randolph-Macon College appreciates our historic and ongoing relationship to the Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Shenandoah University

"Do no harm, do good, and stay in love with God." They are three simple rules, but they have become deeply difficult and remarkably complex this year. As we moved from in-person classes to all online classes in March 2020, we were ready. A vast majority of our faculty were already certified to teach online. Each student receives the same technology when they come to Shenandoah University. When they returned home in March 2020, they had what they needed to succeed! Students were pleased with the flexibility and the ability to pivot in a moment. We transitioned without missing a beat.

However, we also learned that students wanted to return to in-person learning in Fall 2020. Again, we did not miss a beat. We welcomed our largest incoming class ever in Fall 2020 and we had the largest enrollment in the history of Shenandoah University, over 4100 students. As we were aware, increased density would make things a challenge in the fall during COVID. So, we got to work over the summer and added more residence halls, leased a hotel and convention center just across the street, added another eating venue, and started our own COVID testing. Yes, our Bernard J. Dunn School of Pharmacy created a saliva pool sampling test so that we could test more people, more often. We had more students, but we had more residence halls, more rooms, less density, and more testing. We added outdoor tents for classrooms. We held worship outside until mid-November! We turned a gym and our large meeting rooms into classrooms. We spread out. We stayed safe and stayed in-person for the entire fall semester. "Do no harm, do good, and stay in love with God."

However, we wanted to do more. So, in January 2021, we turned the Shenandoah University Wilkins Athletic and Events Center (the 77,000 square foot building is the largest within 70 miles) into a mass vaccination site in partnership with Valley Health Systems and the Virginia Department of Health. We encouraged faculty and staff to volunteer in administering the vaccine, recording data, and escorting the elderly into and out of the building. Students in our nursing and health professions volunteered their skills and time when they were not in class. We started with 300 vaccines one day and ramped up to 750 vaccines the next. By the third day, we were administering 1500 vaccines each day. Now, we regularly have administered 2500 vaccines in one day and we could probably do 5000 a day, if we had the vaccine supply. Some weeks we were open to the community six out of seven days! One day there were four letters to the editor in the local Winchester Star newspaper about the partnership, the efficiency, and the hospitality. As I write this in February 2021, we have administered over 30,000 vaccines.

We knew that Shenandoah University was a unique place with excellence in nursing, pharmacy, health professions, as well as music, theatre, and dance. Little did we know that vaccines for a global pandemic would be given by our faculty in the health professions and then, while our community waited the required fifteen minutes to ensure no adverse reactions to the vaccine, there would be live music from our gifted Conservatory faculty and students. Health professions and Conservatory talent really work well together! When we told you last year that we notified the Virginia Conference Site Selection Committee about our new Wilkins Athletic and Events Center and asked for your help in identifying large-scale regional events, we knew that this building was not just for Shenandoah University, but for our community. Thank you for being a part of our community! "Do no harm, do good, and stay in love with God."

Shenandoah University remains committed to educating and serving the diversity of God's people and we want to continue to build a mutually beneficial partnership with our community as we make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. We are better together. So, together let us

"do all the good we can,
by all the means we can,
in all the ways we can,
in all the places we can,
at all the times we can,
to all the people we can,
as long as ever we can."

– Tracy Fitzsimmons, Ph.D., President

Virginia Wesleyan University

It has been an honor to continue to serve as president of the North American Association of Methodist Schools, Colleges and Universities (formerly the National Association of Schools and Colleges of the United Methodist Church), leading the 117 Methodist-related higher education institutions during this pivotal time for the Church.

Virginia Wesleyan University was proud to offer in-person instruction for the 2020-21 academic year. While COVID-19 has affected every aspect of campus life, we continue to offer courses, opportunities for student engagement, and intercollegiate athletics in the safest way possible during these challenging times.

Addressing national trends, affordability remains a top priority. Virginia Wesleyan offers a multi-faceted plan of affordability that combines the fourth consecutive year of freezing tuition costs, the endowed Batten Honors College, an expanded donor-funded Work & Learn Program for student employment, a concurrent enrollment program with Virginia community colleges, affordable out-of-semester 12-month course options, and a fifth-year tuition guarantee.

Since our 2017 transition to University status, we have added new graduate programs and several thriving online programs. Academic programs have been expanded to include a joint Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree with Sentara College of Health Sciences and a Master of Education (M.Ed.) online, which will begin in the fall of 2021. Through a gift in 2019, we established a program to expand the study of African-American history and traditions.

Despite all the challenges of 2020, the University was able to finish several projects on campus. The Boyd Dining Center was completely remodeled. Convocation Hall in the Jane P. Batten Student Center became TowneBank Arena with new flooring and expanded seating among the many upgrades the facility received. Coastal 61 at Oxford Village, the 244-apartment private-public partnership project located on the north end of campus, was completed and all units are currently leased. Modernization of the original Fine Arts Building, now named Susan T. Beverly Hall, continued throughout the fall and will be finished in January 2021.

Our Greer Environmental Sciences Center and highly selective Batten Honors College, both opened in 2017, continue to be national niche programs. The Greer Center has enhanced prominence in the natural sciences programs and has earned multiple accolades, including 2018 Conservationist of the Year from the Chesapeake Bay Foundation and recognition from the Elizabeth River Project for Sustained Distinguished Performance at the River Stars Model.

Level again for 2021. The Batten Honors College welcomed its fourth class in fall 2020 and is now at full capacity with 160 students.

A third national-niche program of VWU is the Center for the Study of Religious Freedom which was renamed the Robert Nusbbaum Center in April 2020 for the Center's founding visionary. The center aims to create a civil society through education, respectful dialogue, and mutual understanding, and it equips students and community members to address difficult and urgent problems. We are dedicated to diversity and inclusion, and named the University's first chief diversity officer in early 2020. In fall 2020, we became an inaugural member of the Liberal Arts Colleges Racial Equity Leadership Alliance (LACRELA).

Religious life on campus is vibrant as Marlin Ministries serves students of all faiths, interests, and backgrounds. Socially-distanced ecumenical services are offered weekly in the Monumental Chapel and Beazley Recital Hall and in-person and virtual gatherings are held each week for students, faculty, and staff with various interests and journeys in their faith. Due to changes in financial support from the Church, our Chaplain, Marie Porter, is serving in a part-time capacity while also directing youth ministry at a local church. The donor-funded Boyd Fellows program provides opportunities for student leaders to assist with the administrative, visionary, and programmatic aspects of religious life on campus. Agreements with the Candler School of Theology at Emory University and the Duke University Divinity School provide early assurance opportunities for students interested in pursuing careers in the ministry.

ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED MINISTERS AND SPOUSES

A.R.M.S. works with our Conference Office of Pensions and Benefits to address the needs and desires of our retired clergy and spouses. Due to Covid & a virtual Annual Conference, both the retired clergy/spouses' banquet, and our 2020 retired clergy & spouses retreat were cancelled, but our association gave $5000 to the conference Pensions & Benefits Fund & $1000 to Eagle Eyrie Retreat Ctr. to help with Covid-related shortfall. Our retreat "Solid Hope in Changing Times" is set (hopefully) for October 6-7, 2021. We can all use that! (More information this summer.) We again ask retired pastors & spouses to consider giving $10 annually toward expenses and reducing the cost of our retreat, with checks payable to VUMC for ARMS.

PREACHERS' RELIEF SOCIETY

Since it was first chartered in 1870 the Preachers' Relief Society has sought to assist clergy, both active and retired, their families, widows and widowers facing sudden financial crises by giving them grants. Over the years many have requested and been given grants for a wide variety of reasons. In the last few years the number of persons making requests has been in the low single digits and the preponderance of the requests have come about because of the need for medical treatment. That was true in 2020. Two grants were awarded and both were medically related.

Those persons needing help should apply through their district superintendent. The district superintendent will forward the request to the Society with a recommendation as to how large a grant should be awarded. Each grant is carefully considered by the Society and a response is made in accord with the need and the Society's ability to meet it.

The Society welcomes contributions. In recent years it has been primarily dependent upon increasing its assets through investments. In this it has been aided by the Mercadante Riggan Financial Group of BB&T Scott & Stringfellow. Those interested in helping may contact Ben Riggan at 757-446-6839 or one of the officers of the Society.

It has been a great privilege for me to have been able to help people facing crisis through the work of the Society and a particular honor and privilege to have been its president. I leave with this annual conference as will directors Sallye Bowen and Harold White, Sr. Their service is much appreciated. It is a pleasure to announce that Robert F. Cofield, Jr. will be the new president; Edward Lilly, vice-president; James R. Bergdoll, secretary; and Katherine Kidwell, treasurer. The other current directors are Robert N. Baker III and James S. Mathews. This Annual Conference will elect three additional directors.

– Robert T. Casey, President

RETIRED CLERGY HOUSING CORPORATION

Retired Clergy Housing Corporation (RCHC) has been serving retired clergy and their families for 88 years by providing housing following retirement for those who qualify. Currently, RCHC owns nineteen (19) properties across our conference in Bridgewater, Danville, Hampton, Lynchburg, Mechanicsville, North Chesterfield, Prince George, Raphine, Roanoke, and Winchester. This is a decrease from last year's report as we sold one property.

At this time, our expenses outweigh our income, and we are dependent upon donor gifts to help offset that difference. Contributions and other sources of revenues are needed more than ever to ensure the long-term viability of this wonderful ministry.

The annual Covenant of Gratitude drive is another way individuals and congregations can help support the work of RCHC. The Covenant of Gratitude asks for a commitment of a minimum of $1 per commissioned Provisional Elder and Deacon at this Annual Conference session. We appreciate the past support we received from our Covenant of Gratitude family, but we are asking those who can, to do a bit more! If you are a current Covenant of Gratitude supporter, or if you have never supported our ministry before, please consider a gift to $2, $5, or even $10 for each commissioned Provisional Elder and Deacon at this Annual Conference. Your donation will help offset basic operations and unexpected repairs. Please remember, we receive no funds from the conference for the important work we do. We also invite you to make RCHC a part of your estate planning. If you are interested in learning more about how to support this mission, please contact Rev. Charles Wickham at 804-474-8724 and he will be happy to meet with you.

I would like to thank Walter "B" Brown and Marilyn Lipieko for their many years of leadership and service to our Board of Directors. They each have completed 14 years of service and rotated off the board. I would also like to welcome Randy Shelton, from the Virginia United Methodist Development Company, and Mahood Fonville, a Richmond area realtor, as new board members.

On behalf of the Board, I thank you in advance for any assistance you give. What an honor and privilege it is to talk with the families we serve and hear them say, "We are so appreciative of RCHC! It has been a life saver for us! Thank you so much!" Our clergy and their family have given themselves to the service of God and what an honor to now help support them with housing.

– D. Michael Houff, RCHC Board of Directors, Chair

THE UNITED METHODIST CREDIT UNION

Serving members in North Carolina, Maryland, DC, West Virginia, and of course Virginia, The United Methodist Credit Union (TUMCU) offers savings and checking accounts, loans, credit cards, online services, and personal financial management resources, as well as:

- SnapLoans that provide educational lines of credit for college students attending a United Methodist affiliated college or seminary;
- Jubilee Assistance Funds in partnership with local churches to help people with financial emergencies;
- A partnership with a financial services firm to assist with college planning, annuities, long term care, and saving for retirement;
- Church loans to help with parsonage repairs, van or bus purchases, and the refinancing of current loans for better rates and terms; and
- Project loans (up to $50,000 unsecured) and Visa rewards credit cards for church business.
- During the Covid-19 pandemic, TUMCU provided the following assistance:
- Helped more than two hundred churches secure first-round, forgivable loans totaling over 4.7 million dollars under the Small Business Administration's (SBA) Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) that was part of the federal government's CARES Act.
- Also assisted a number of United Methodist related organizations, ministries, camps, and missions with PPP funding.
- Have begun the PPP Forgiveness process for all first-round funding.
- Is actively participating in PPP Second-Draw funding, with nearly two million dollars of additional church financial assistance as of February 15 this year.
- Offered quick issue, low interest emergency COVID loans and 0% interest on new credit card purchases for six months.
- Instituted "no-fee" credit card transfers, and an easy, "skip-a-pay" feature on all consumer loans for all members in good standing.

In the past year, TUMCU has also increased its internet presence, allowing members to do even more with the credit union online, such as completing loan and new membership applications, loan disbursements, and information requests.

A new stewardship resource for member churches was also introduced when the Rev. Burt Brooks joined the credit union team as Director of Stewardship & Outreach. His tasks include consulting with churches about annual giving, capital campaigns, and stewardship planning. His services are free to congregations as part of TUMCU's commitment to help churches grow in their mission and ministry. The Rev. Brooks has already launched a multi-week "Stewardship Academy" to assist newer pastors, and will be offering it periodically throughout the coming year.

A new missional project to assist members with adoptions has also been implemented. The program is designed to assist prospective adoptive parents with the legal, travel, and extraordinary expenses that are unique to each of their adoption situations.

As a result of its continued assistance to its member churches and individuals, the credit union has grown to become a financial institution with more than twenty million dollars in deposits. Needless to say, this has been a very busy and fruitful year for The United Methodist Credit Union as we have helped our members gain all they can, and save all they can, so they can give all they can.

VA PAUMCS

(Professional Administrators Of The United Methodist Connectional Structure)

The purpose of PAUMCS is to provide a supportive base for the unity and fellowship of its members in order to provide individual growth, professional development, continuous education and spiritual enrichment. PAUMCS promotes and encourages the training and support of United Methodist Church secretaries; serves as an advocate for emerging concerns that affect church secretaries; encourages and assists in the establishment of chapters of church secretaries, within or across jurisdictional and annual conference boundaries, and assists in coordinating the program and work of these chapters.

The Professional Association of United Methodist Church Secretaries was organized on April 14, 1982 in Dallas, Texas. Since that first meeting, conferences have been held annually, by-laws and a logo were adopted, working committees were formed, a quarterly newsletter was established and chapters were organized across the connection. Legislation was adopted at the 1988 General Conference which states that the General Conference of Finance and Administration (GCFA) has the authority and responsibility to provide guidance and consultation for continuing education of church secretaries, including establishment of professional standards, training and certification programs and to provide assistance to the Professional Association of United Methodist Church Secretaries (2016 Book of Discipline, ¶807.18).

The Virginia Chapter of PAUMCS was established March 1999 at the Virginia United Methodist Conference Center (VUMAC) in Blackstone. Since that time the membership of the Virginia chapter has grown to as many as 90 members and an all time high of 130 attendees at a fall event at the Virginia United Methodist Conference Center. The chapter sponsors two meetings each year: normally, a one day fall training event and a one day spring training event and annual meeting, each good for .5 CEUs.

At their National Conference in Chicago in May 2017 the Professional Association of United Methodist Church Secretaries voted to change their name to the Professional Administrators of the United Methodist Connectional Structure, thereby broadening their vision while retaining their acronym, PAUMCS.

VA PAUMCS members are persons presently or previously, full-time or part-time, paid or volunteer, engaged in administrative work in any local church or agency of the United Methodist Church. For a member to be in good standing, annual dues must be paid for the current year. Membership advantages include reduced rates on workshop registration fees, a bi-annual chapter newsletter and networking with other church secretaries throughout the Virginia Conference.

During the Annual Conference year 2020-2021 VA PAUMCS:

- In 2020 our annual mailing is digital. All newsletters, events and updates are posted to our webpage at <www.vaumc.org/paumcs> and promoted by MailChimp.
- Our National PAUMCS Conference has gone virtual to be held April 15-17. The sponsoring host committee is from Kansas City, MO Chapter. The theme is "Keep Our Eyes Focused on Christ" and our workshops will cover the Role of Administrators, the Development of Disciples and growing the Kingdom of God.
- Our VA PAUMCS spring event was to be held Wednesday, May 27, at the VAUMC Conference Center. As with most groups in 2020 our meeting was canceled due to COVID. Our executive committee will discuss ways we can stay connected through this difficult time.

Bishop Lewis has said, "United Methodist Church secretaries are called to ministry as surely as any pastor. Our administrative staff persons are a part of the ministry teams of our local churches and other United Methodist agencies. It is critically important that we work to develop effectiveness and vitality in the life of these teams. To that end the VA PAUMCS is committed to providing a supportive base for the training and fellowship of its members."

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Both the fall and the spring meetings of the Trustees of the Virginia Conference Historical Society have been held online via Zoom. The fall program was an online lecture by Prof. Ryan Danker. In lieu of a program, the spring meeting included memorials for Cathy Morgan and Lee Sheaffer. The following reports have been submitted by our organizations.

– Mike Browder, President

Old Brunswick Circuit Foundation

The Old Brunswick Circuit Foundation owns and is comprised of (3) Historic sites. The Edward Dromgoole House called "Canaan", the Original Randolph-Macon College/ Boydton Academy and Bible Institute, and the Ebenezer Academy (school) sanctioned by Bishop Francis Asbury. All properties date back into the 17th and 18th centuries. The results of the past year, the Old Brunswick Circuit Foundation has revamped its strategic plans for two of its properties. The primary focus is now stabilization of the Historic Edward Dromgoole House in Valentines, Va. for its preservation.

Due to an impending Grant by the Virginia Department of Historic Resources, through the National Park Service a detailed analysis of the entire structure will be conducted by the VADHR Personnel. The First will be the Dromgoole House and later on the RMC Site. Due to the efforts of Ann Keeling, Carol Corker, Lisa Jordan, Pam Archer, Walter Beales and many others. This $199,000 Grant will be awarded in March 2021. Shortly after the award, a number of qualified contractors will be determined and based on qualification the winning contractor will begin work to stabilize the two chimneys and rebuild the original foundation for the stabilization of the Dromgoole House. This work has to be completed within a two-year period. To help further this initiative and restoration, the OBCF was provided a matching grant for up $30,000, that expires on April 15, 2021. This is open to all interested parties, foundation and contributors!!! We have not completed the total matched dollars for the grant to date. All Gifts are also welcome!!!

Another important activity this year is the Formal Historic Recognition of the Edward Dromgoole house. This project was undertaken by Rev Dr. Art Thomas to have the Dromgoole House be designated as a Historic Site of the Virginia United Methodist Conference. This nomination was voted on and sanctioned in October 2020.

This site is now designate UMC Conference Historic Site #564.

There has been many additional activities, seminars, and visits to all our sites over the last year. For the first time in many years, we have major initiatives at all our sites that is making people aware that we are moving forward and not just "talking", come join us and help make our efforts a reality !!! Through Ann Keeling research she found great significance regarding the value and impact the Boydton Academy and Bible Institute had on early education of the new Black Americans on into the 19 century.

YOU CAN TO GET MORE INFORMATION ABOUT OUR ACTIVITIES AND INDEAVORS BY GOING TO OUR (NEW) WEBSITE. <https://vamc.org/old-brunswickcircuit.org> You can also request a copy of our very comprehensive 2020 News Letter. If needed Send a request to atkeeling@verizon.net or jhmottva38@hotmail.com

We are grateful for the progress being made by the OBCF, but are much in need of help from United Methodists across the Conference. Financial gifts, on-site volunteers, and researchers are welcome to join in these efforts to preserve these vital aspects of the origins of Methodism in Virginia. Our focus is "Preserving Our Heritage to Inspire the Future."

The Old Stone Church Foundation

In 1974, the Virginia Conference Historical Society established the Old Stone Church Foundation to preserve, protect and interpret the Old Stone Church site in Leesburg, Virginia. This United Methodist Heritage Landmark, deeded in 1766, was the first Methodist-owned church property in America.

Due to health concerns, the Old Stone Church Foundation did not meet in 2020 and has not yet done so in 2021. As per the bylaws of the foundation, we submitted our existing slate of directors, all of whom will serve another year, for confirmation at the Fall meeting of the Virginia Conference Historical Society, held on October 3, 2020.

We added two memorial bricks to the prayer garden last year and performed general upkeep on the Old Stone Church Site throughout the year. We continue our efforts to make the Old Stone Church Site a United Methodist pilgrimage destination.

– Ralph Carver, Acting President

The William Watters Foundation

The William Watters Foundation oversees the preservation, care and interpretation of the William Watters Gravesite, United Methodist Historic Site No. 7, found at the Adams-Wren-Watters Cemetery in McLean, Virginia. William Watters was the first American-born Methodist itinerant preacher.

Due to Covid-19, the William Watters Foundation held our Annual Meeting via Zoom on September 17, 2020. The board approved the 2020-2021 slate of board members and officers at that meeting. The board of directors were then duly confirmed at the fall meeting of the Virginia Conference Historical Society on October 3, 2020.

Throughout the summer and fall, two board members, David Meyer and Myra Lindsey, and another volunteer, Eryn Lindsey, provided a major cleanup up of the William Watters Gravesite, while another board member, Jon Vrana, cleansed the obelisk. People of the neighborhood took notice and began to stop by to see the memorial, giving our workers a chance to inform guests about William Watters and the gravesite. The foundation was also able to establish better relationships with our neighbors, whose homes stand adjacent to the cemetery.

Our newest foundation board member, Jon Vrana, is developing a historical interpretation of William Watters.

In the months ahead, the foundation plans to repair the driveway, focus on foundation investments, and develop a plan to deter trespassers who use the privately-owned land and lawns surrounding the cemetery as a cut-through to another street.

History Update of the Virginia Conference

The Historical Society has formed a committee to begin developing an update of the history of the Virginia United Methodist Conference. The last history published by the Historical Society was written by William Warren Sweet in 1955. Several principles are guiding the update project:

1. The work might take several years to complete to allow for sufficient care and deliberation
2. The overall concept of the publication would be topical rather than chronological
3. A number of writers would be engaged to address the various topics rather than a single author
4. The overall scope in view might be the “Last 100 Years”

A sampling of some topics under consideration:

1. A brief overview of One Hundred Years in the Virginia Conference
2. Union of the Methodist Episcopal, Methodist Episcopal South and Methodist Protestant Churches to form the Methodist Church in 1939
3. Union of the Evangelical United Brethren, Methodist Church and Central Jurisdiction Dissolution to form the United Methodist Church in 1968
4. Racial issues and civil rights
5. Theological trends
6. Spiritual formation and renewal
7. Women’s issues, i.e. ordination, full clergy rights, organizations for mission
8. The Mission Enterprise - Organization, Conceptual Evolution and Practical Application
9. Growing racial diversity – American Asian, Latino/Hispanic, Native American
10. The Church faces War – Support, Protest Peacemaking
11. Social justice issues
12. Christian Higher Education in the Virginia Conference
13. Church and community
14. Ecumenical relations
15. Changing views of art, church architecture, liturgy and music
16. Evolution of thinking on pastoral ministry, appointment process, etc.
17. Emerging issues: church separation proposals, COVID-19 impact, etc.

The Historical Society and its History Update Committee welcomes interest and participation in this project. There are some 15 people on the committee and a number of others who are involved in contributing to the development of material on selected topics. Initial outlines and draft documents are in preparation.

Heritage

Since 1973, the Virginia Conference Historical Society has published HERITAGE, the semiannual scholarly journal dedicated to Virginia United Methodist history. The Spring 2021 issue tells of Francis Asbury’s final days of ministry and his death and temporary burial at the home of his friend, George Arnold, in Spotsylvania County. It also features a presentation given by the Rev. Michael H. Browder, Ph.D. to the Old Stone Church Foundation, on the origins of the United Brethren in Christ and its first connections in Loudoun County. With much gratitude to a generous benefactor, we plan to send a free copy of Spring 2021 HERITAGE to every current senior church pastor in the Virginia Conference.

Archives

New Business:

The World Methodist Museum at Lake Junaluska has closed. Nancy Watkins, Archivist at the SEJ Heritage Center has offered the VAUMC Archives a pew from Leesburg. Space must be found in the Archives or in the UMC Building to house the pew; the pew must also be transported from Lake Junaluska to Glen Allen. Plans are in the works to address both of these issues.

In an effort to streamline the process of keeping statistics about the Archives, I’ve created a database that will make that process easier.

I’ve been asked to write an article for Heritage focusing on how COVID has impacted my work at the Archives. I’d hoped to also focus on the church’s response to the 1918 Flu pandemic, but that will have to wait until everything opens back up.

Continuing Business:

I continue to take classes when time permits, and will be participating in one starting this month as well as another one later in the Spring. They will both be virtual.

Processing the backlog of church records continues to be an ongoing task. Deaccessioning continues as well, opening up much needed shelf space in the Archives. Research requests continue to roll in--last year's total was 109--and I continue to spend a majority of my time on them. I've had about 20 so far this year, as of the beginning of March.

The Archives Committee continues to support me; our last (Zoom) meeting was on Feb. 22, 2021.

I continue to participate in the History Book Committee.

VIRGINIA UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION

Faithfully partnering since 1971, the Virginia United Methodist Foundation exists to serve local United Methodist churches and Conference agencies throughout the Virginia Conference in the expansion of their programs and ministries through asset management, investing, endowments and planned giving. As such, the Foundation seeks to be in compliance with the Socially Responsible Investing principles of the United Methodist Book of Discipline. As a servicing organization of the Virginia Conference, we consider ourselves to be your partner in ministry. Our commitment is to live out our core values with a vision for relevant ministry that leaves a lasting legacy for generations to come.

Our values: Integrity, Connection, Excellence

Our vision: To be the preferred financial services partner of the Virginia Conference

Our mission: To serve, steward and minister in the spirit of Christ while focusing on achieving excellence in both customer service and our fiduciary responsibilities.

In 2021, the Foundation celebrates fifty years of financial service to the Virginia Conference. As of December 31, 2020, there are over $82 Million in assets under management across 320 investment accounts. These accounts include churches, districts, the Virginia United Methodist Conference and United Methodist agencies. The $82 Million is invested in five different funds: the Balanced Fund, the Balanced Plus Fund, the Stock Fund, the Bond Fund, and Charitable Gift Annuities. Our investment advisors include the Humphrey-Kelly Group, a designated institutional investment consulting team with Merrill Lynch's Global Institutional Consulting group with a focus on non-profit faith based organizations.

Foundation staff members visit local churches to assist in starting endowment programs to support the long-term funding of mission projects. For example, scholarship funds are popular and ensure that younger generations will have the education needed to proclaim the message of Christ. The Foundation currently manages over 90 endowments.

Since 2015, the Foundation's Grant ministry has awarded grants to Virginia United Methodist Churches and affiliated agencies across the Virginia Conference. The program's focus is on unifying mission, ministry and impact to better assist and equip ministries in their projects, as well as help them to build a future. Grants are given from three funds: Foundation Grants Fund, Dr. William J. and Frances Hanna Memorial Grant, and Micah 6:8/No Harm Do Good Endowment Grant. In October 2020, many different ministries across the Virginia Conference applied for a grant. After thorough consideration by the Grant Committee, the Foundation Board of Directors awarded grants to 25 ministries totaling $66,650 in December 2020.

Throughout 2020 and the pandemic, our commitment to serving every local church and dedication to helping all God's children, both present and forthcoming generations, is steadfast. We stand ready to help your church or your members design a program that will grow and serve others.

Virginia United Methodist Development Company

Founded in 2014, the Virginia United Methodist Development Company ("DevCo") exists as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Virginia United Methodist Foundation, a supporting organization of the Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. DevCo fulfills its mission by providing loans to churches and affiliates for ministry expansion through investments made by individuals, churches and United Methodist agencies.

DevCo loan services include new construction loans, facility expansion loans, capital improvement loans, debt refinancing, as well as loans for building purchase and land acquisition. As of December 31, 2020, the Development Company has 40 loans totaling $32 Million throughout the Virginia Conference.

As part of the connection, DevCo makes loans to United Methodist churches and related entities, funded by savings and investment certificates from United Methodist churches, related ministries, members and family or friends. DevCo acts as a conduit for missional investing and is able to provide financing to move God's kingdom forward. With the help of over 900 DevCo investors totaling $42 Million, loans are made for a variety of situations, such as providing a church the opportunity to buy an adjacent piece of property for additional parking, opening a preschool in an underserved community, or saving the church thousands of dollars by refinancing its mortgage. Through missional investing, a church can redirect funds to the community and "open hearts, open minds, and open doors."

At DevCo, we consider ourselves to be your partner in ministry. Our team takes a personal interest in the ministries of the churches we serve. We are concerned about the spiritual health of local church ministry, not just financial health. Our desire is to equip local church leaders in understanding how to serve their community through strategic planning and missional engagement. Additionally, DevCo has a fiduciary responsibility to protect our investors' money, which funds church loans, but we also have a strong desire to see local churches fulfill their God-given mission.

VIRGINIA CONFERENCE GUIDELINES FOR MOVING EXPENSES

A charge, district, or conference agency receiving a new clergy shall be responsible for all his/her moving expenses under the following provisions:

1. A maximum weight limit as weighed in the van of 16,000 lbs. Charges for moving goods over 16,000 lbs. shall be the responsibility of the clergy.
2. A maximum allowance of $500 for packing materials, cartons (and any packing not performed by the Pastor).
3. A limit of $125 for piano handling.
4. Where there is a pastor's study at the church and extra stops must be made by the mover for loading and unloading books or office equipment, a maximum allowance of not more than $165.
5. Seminarians entering the Virginia Conference from outside the conference shall be entitled to the moving expenses listed above, with the limitation that the maximum total reimbursement shall be $4000.
6. Clergy other than seminarians entering the Virginia Conference from outside the Conference shall be entitled to the moving expenses listed above with the limitation that mileage-based moving expenses shall be based on the distance from the appropriate boundary of the Conference to the place of appointment.
7. Insurance (replacement value equivalency) shall be provided by the receiving church/charge for personal injury or damage to clergy family property during the move. The matter of additional insurance on furnishings above that provided by the hauler shall be the responsibility of the persons moving.
8. If more economical, moves of less than 30 miles shall be arranged at the hourly rate.
9. The Cabinet will review annually the costs of moving and update the moving allowances as necessary.
10. All churches/charges should build a moving-expense fund by annual appropriations for moving expenses, regardless of which year a move may be expected to occur. The Cabinet strongly urges churches/charges to budget each year an amount equal to 1/6 of the most recent move.
11. All moving of clergy will be done professionally and in a responsible manner.
12. Clergy are expected to secure at least two estimates for comparison. Moving estimates must be submitted to the S/PPRC of the receiving church in a prompt manner. Clergy are expected to exercise reasonable standards of stewardship when determining what items to keep/move or dispose. Unless there are physical limitations, all clergy are responsible for the packing of books, linens and general household effects. The new relationship between clergy and receiving congregations has a much better chance of success if the clergy family avoids the appearance of imposition or entitlement.
13. Additional information on "moving tips" is posted on the Conference web site.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

1. The Philosophy of and the Purpose for the Equitable Compensation Program.
 - a. "Ordained ministers are called by God to a lifetime of servant leadership in specialized ministries among the people of God. Ordained ministers are called to interpret to the Church the needs, concerns, and hopes of the world and the promise of God for creation. Within these specialized ministries, deacons are called to ministries of Word, Service (§328), Compassion, and Justice and elders are called to ministries of Service, Word, Sacrament, and Order (§332). Through these distinctive functions, ordained ministers devote themselves wholly to the work of the Church and to the up building of the ministry of all Christians. They do this through the careful study of Scripture and its faithful interpretation; through effective proclamation of the gospel and responsible administration of the sacraments; through diligent pastoral leadership of their congregations for fruitful discipleship; and by following the guidance of the Holy Spirit in witnessing beyond the congregation in the local community and to the ends of the earth. The ordained ministry is defined by its faithful commitment to servant leadership following the example of Jesus Christ, by its passion for the hallowing of life, and by its concern to link all local ministries with the widest boundaries of the Christian community." The Book of Discipline 2016 (§139)
 - b. "It is the purpose of the commission on equitable compensation to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference by: (a) recommending conference standards for pastoral support; (b) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (c) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations; (d) submitting an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference. For pastors receiving equitable compensation, once the base compensation supplementation has been paid by the annual conference, and the minimum base compensation and base compensation supplementation has been received by the pastor, the annual conference shall have no further financial obligation or responsibility to the pastor, the charge or anyone else regarding the pastor's compensation." The Book of Discipline 2016 (§625.2)
 - c. Assumption of the obligations of the itinerancy, required to be made at the time of admission into the Conference, put the church under the counter obligation of providing support for the entire ministry of the church. In view of the expectation which the church holds for its clergy in the area of professional separation and competence, it is incumbent upon the church to see that compensation is adequate for the professional and personal requirements of its clergy, and that they are determined and administered in a manner appropriate to a professional understanding of the ministerial vocation.
2. Types of Equitable Compensation Support.
 - a. Minimum Compensation Support: The commission annually proposes to the Annual Conference a schedule of minimum compensation for ministers by the various statuses of conference relationship and floor schedule to be met by the charge. In approving this schedule, the Conference guarantees each of its ministers a certain minimum compensation. Unless a minister voluntarily waives this right, he/she is entitled to an appointment where the compensation, including supplements from the conference, district, and other sources will be at least the minimum for his/her category.
 - b. Compensation supplementation is support provided to charges which require support in addition to that called for by the Minimum Compensation program. Such charges fall into two groups:
 - (1) Charges with part-time or retired pastors.
 - (2) Charges where there is a need for compensation higher than the minimum.
3. Money for the Equitable Compensation Fund.
 - a. The grants and administrative expenses of the commission are borne by the Equitable Compensation Fund.
 - b. Annually the commission estimates the amount needed for Equitable Compensation grants, and with the concurrence of the Council on Finance and Administration, recommends an amount to the Annual Conference to be apportioned to the districts and charges of the conference.
 - c. As set forth in The Book of Discipline 2016 (§622) "When the apportionments for bishops, district superintendents, conference claimants, and the Equitable Compensation Fund for the several districts and charges have been determined, payments made to the same in each pastoral charge shall be exactly proportional to the amount paid on the clergy base compensation. (§818.3) The treasurer or treasurers of each pastoral charge shall accordingly make proportional distribution of the funds raised in that charge for the support of the ordained ministry and shall remit monthly if practicable and quarterly at the latest the items for bishops, district superintendents, conference claimants, and the Equitable Compensation Fund to the proper treasurer or treasurers."
4. For Equitable Compensation purposes, the term "compensation" includes the amounts of ministerial support designated as salary and accountable reimbursement.
5. The Minimum Compensation Schedule, including the Floor, shall be recommended by the commission and the schedule, as approved by the Annual Conference, shall be published in the conference Journal.
6. Eligibility for Minimum Compensation Support.
 - a. The clergy must be rendering full-time service, that is their efforts must fully satisfy the Disciplinary description of the office of the minister and they must, in the judgment of his/her district superintendent, be rendering full-time service to the charge to which they have been appointed as pastor or associate pastor.
 - b. The "floor" is the minimum the charge must pay (obtained from sources other than Equitable Compensation Fund) in order to be eligible to receive minimum salary support.
7. Eligibility for Salary Supplementation.
 - a. All charges are eligible with special considerations made for ethnic pastors serving ethnic ministries.
 - b. The application must be supported by a recommendation of the district superintendent.
 - c. The commission strongly discourages applications from charges whose compensation is above the Conference Average Compensation (CAC).

IX. CONFERENCE RULES AND POLICIES

8. Charges receiving support from the Equitable Compensation Commission are encouraged to take steps regularly toward becoming self-supporting and toward the increasing of the total level of support of their ministers. The following actions should encourage these steps:
 - a. The district superintendents will annually review each application for Equitable Compensation aid with the appropriate charge conference.
 - b. Equitable Compensation aid to each full-time pastor will be reduced $1 for each $2 increase established and paid by the charge. When salary paid by the church exceeds the minimum applicable level the Equitable Compensation support will cease, unless the Equitable Compensation Commission waives this requirement under special circumstances.
9. How applications for aid are submitted.
 - a. All applications shall be submitted on forms provided by the commission.
 - b. Applications shall include the name and district of the charge, the number of churches on the charge, the name and ministerial category of the minister, a statement of whether the minister is serving full or part time, together with all amounts of ministerial support listed by source both for the period ending and the period beginning. The application shall state the total salary needed for the minister and the amount of aid necessary to obtain that total.
 - c. Applications shall be prepared, signed by the chair of the staff-parish relationship committee of the charge and the district superintendent.
 - d. A copy of the current church/charge budget must be submitted with the application along with a copy of the most recent audited financial statements.
 - e. Applications shall be submitted to the conference treasurer who shall provide each member of the commission with a copy of each application at least one week before the meeting at which the application will be considered.
 - f. Applications are generally submitted in February and May for support to begin on July 1st. Mid-appointment year requests are submitted by October 31st. The deadline for such applications is listed each year in the Conference Calendar.
10. How appropriations are made.
 - a. The Commission meets twice during the appointment-making process in conjunction with the Cabinet's schedule to review applications for Equitable Compensation Grants. The Commission also meets in November to review any mid-appointment year requests.
 - b. Requirements which a charge must meet in order to receive Minimum Compensation Support may be waived by a two-thirds vote of the commission.
 - c. Compensation Supplementation will be granted by action of the commission on recommendations of the district superintendent in the categories described in Paragraph 7.
11. Methods of Payment.
 - a. Minimum compensation support and supplementation will be paid through Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) by the conference treasurer to the charge receiving aid by the 10th day of each month.
 - b. If a charge fails to maintain a current status on Pension payments to VUMPI, the Conference Treasurer's Office shall send the Equitable Compensation Support directly to VUMPI until such arrearages are satisfied.
 - c. The commission chairperson shall keep the conference treasurer regularly informed as to the appropriations made by the commission and any changes in payments which may be necessary because of appointments or changes in ministerial status.

Updated 7/1/2016

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION GUIDELINES

The commission, at the request of the Bishop and the Cabinet, developed guidelines for requests, approval and time periods for supplementation provided by conference funds. It is felt that these guidelines will provide a uniform standard across the conference in support of the various charges that may require funds.

I. New Requests

A. New Growth Situation Request/New Churches

1. Request must be approved by the District Board of Church Location and Building.
2. Request with the written District Board of Church Location approval giving rationale for the request should be received by the November Equitable Compensation meeting in order to be approved for the following appointment year.
3. Will be funded according to the following formula:
 - 100% for first 18 months (e.g., July 2006 through Dec. 2007)
 - 80% second full calendar year
 - 60% third full calendar year
 - continued reduction at 20% per year

B. New Mission/Ethnic Churches

1. Request must be approved by the District Board of Church Location and Building.
2. Request with the written District Board of Church Location approval giving rationale for the request should be received by the November Equitable Compensation meeting in order to be approved for the following appointment year.
3. Will be funded according to the following formula:
 - 100% for first 30 months (e.g., July 2006 through Dec. 2008)
 - 85% third full calendar year
 - 70% fourth full calendar year
 - continued reduction at 15% per year

It is suggested that if a new church or mission is not expected to be self-sufficient at the end of this time, that alternate funding sources be identified (i.e. district or sponsoring churches) while a new church is in the planning stages.

II. Ongoing Requests

All churches requesting Equitable Compensation assistance, who are presently receiving Equitable Compensation assistance, must have a yearly stewardship campaign, and submit Table I and II of the Year-End Reports, the Dec. 31 year-end treasurer's report and are asked to adhere to the following schedules:

A. Ongoing "Maintenance" churches

All churches in the "Maintenance Category" should make every attempt to be off Equitable Compensation at the end of five years. In order to do this, the commission asks that any request be reduced at least 20% from the present year's request as follows:

- 100% (present year)
- 80% second year
- 60% third year
- 40% fourth year
- 20% fifth year

If a church cannot adhere to this schedule, letters detailing the reasons must be submitted each year by the District Superintendent and the Church Council of the church/charge receiving Equitable Compensation assistance.

B. Ongoing Ethnic Minority/Mission Churches

All churches in the "Ethnic Minority/Mission Categories" should make every attempt to be off Equitable Compensation at the rate of 10% a year, whether by becoming self-sufficient or by developing new forms of funding. The suggested schedule is as follows:

- 100% (present year)
- 90% second year
- 80% third year
- Continued reduction at 10% per year

If a church cannot adhere to this schedule, letters detailing the reasons must be submitted each year by the District Superintendent and the Church Council of the church/charge receiving Equitable Compensation assistance.

MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR THE PARSONAGE

The 2016 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church states that the Church Council shall “review the recommendation of the committee on pastor-parish relations regarding provision of adequate housing for the pastor(s), and report the same to the charge conference for approval. Housing provisions shall comply with the annual conference housing policy and parsonage standards. Housing shall not be considered as part of compensation or remuneration.” (§252.4e) The Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee also has consultative power and responsibilities for the parsonage (§258.2g(16)). This committee is to consult with the Church Council to provide for “housing (which may be a church-owned parsonage or housing allowance in lieu of parsonage if in compliance with the policy of the annual conference).” This paragraph also includes these words: “The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the pastor’s family as the property of the church and by the church as a place of privacy for the pastor’s family. The committee will follow up to assure timely resolution of parsonage problems affecting the health of the pastor or pastor’s family. The chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, the chairperson of the board of trustees, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to assure proper maintenance.”

The Board of Trustees of the local church is charged with supervision, oversight and care of property, including the church-owned parsonage. The Charge Conference may assign some of these duties to the chair of a Parsonage Committee.

I. The House

- A. Ownership: The parsonage is acquired and maintained by the charge, subject to the direction of the Charge Conference. The location, purchase, and/or building of a parsonage must be approved by the District Board of Church Location and Building. (§2544)
- B. Title to Property: The parsonage property must be held by the charge Board of Trustees in trust for the use and occupancy of pastors in the United Methodist Church. (§2503.2)
- C. Location: The parsonage of a station church should be located within the geographical parish of the church. The parsonage of a charge should be near the center of the charge and accessible to members. It should be convenient to a school, a shopping area, and church of the charge. Preferably parsonages should not be located immediately adjacent to the church, so that the pastor’s family will be ensured reasonable privacy. Such location also facilitates resale.
- D. Planning and Financing: The purchase or building plan must be approved by the Charge Conference after 10 days’ notice of the meeting. The pastor, district superintendent, and the district Board of Church Location and Building must consent to the purchase. Provisions of the Book of Discipline must be observed. The sale or relocation must conform to guidelines in the Discipline.
- E. Administration: The Discipline requires the Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee to see that the Trustees provide adequate and comfortable residence for the pastor and maintain its proper upkeep and furnishings. “The chairperson of the Trustees or the chairperson of the parsonage committee if one exists, the chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to ensure proper maintenance.” (§2533.4 and §258.2g(16)). The pastor’s family should be consulted in the selection of equipment, fixtures, and color schemes. (See Annual Review Inventory form). The Annual Review Inventory Report shall be submitted to the District Superintendent and will be reviewed by the Parsonages’ Support Committee. The Trustees’ annual budget should be adequate to provide maintenance of the parsonage and necessary replacement of furnishings for which the Trustees have responsibility. Since insurance carried by the church will not cover personal effects of the parsonage family, the family is urged to secure a tenant’s policy.
- F. Inventory: A complete inventory of all furnishings, and equipment shall be maintained, one copy with the Pastor-Staff Parish Relations Committee and/or the Trustees, a second copy with the parsonage family, and a third copy for the district superintendent attached to the Annual Review Inventory. This inventory should include the purchase date of items listed, purchase price, and any major repair work done on each. Condition of furnishings at the time of the annual review should be noted. (See Parsonage Inventory Form)

II. House Arrangement and Equipment

- A. Minimum Size: The living room shall measure at least 280 square feet; or living and dining room combination shall be 330 square feet. Bedrooms shall measure no less than 144 square feet each, with one not less than 168 square feet.
- B. Rooms: The parsonage should have a minimum of seven rooms: at least three bedrooms with ample closet space in each, living room, dining room, kitchen, study (if not furnished outside the parsonage), at least 1½ baths, and ample dry storage space large enough for major pieces of furniture and large packing boxes. An additional bedroom, a family room, a utility room, and a garage are also desirable. If a pastor’s office is included, it should be on the first floor with an outside entrance or entry from front hall or both or on the terrace level with outside entry. Usual office furnishings, telephone, bookshelves, and a storage closet for supplies should be provided. Newly constructed or newly purchased parsonages shall include on the ground floor level one room which could be used as a bedroom by a person with a handicapping condition, a fully accessible bathroom and laundry facilities. (§2533.6)
- C. Housing Necessities:
 - Central heating plant
 - Complete insulation, including weather stripping, storm windows, ceiling, sidewall and floor insulation. Carpeting is desirable as a further means of insulation.
 - Central air conditioning is desirable everywhere, and a necessity in some areas of the conference.
 - Annual servicing of all heating and air conditioning equipment.
 - At least one telephone jack on each floor.
 - Dead bolt locks on all exterior doors.
 - Smoke detectors and fire extinguishers.
 - Housing must be maintained free of health hazards.
 - Exterminator/pest control service and an annual termite inspection.
 - All major appliances, including washer, dryer, stove, refrigerator, automatic hot water heater.
 - Kitchen: sink, built-in cabinets, a storage or supply closet, counter work surfaces, adequate electrical outlets properly grounded. Where possible, a garbage disposal and dishwasher should be provided.
 - At least one telephone permanently in the house.
- D. Furnishings and Maintenance:
 1. Provided by the Church/Charge:
 - Furniture for the parsonage living room, foyer, dining room, and kitchen shall be provided. If a parsonage has more than three bedrooms, the church/charge shall provide furnishings for all bedrooms over three. All parsonage wall-to-wall floor coverings or rugs shall be furnished by the church/charge. Regular professional cleaning shall be the responsibility of the church/charge for all living spaces furnished by church/charge.
 - Window shades or blinds shall be provided in all rooms. Window treatments, and the responsibility for their maintenance/cleaning, shall be provided for the living room, dining room, and foyer.
 - Adequate light fixtures/lamps shall be provided for all living spaces furnished.
 2. Provided by the Pastor:
 - Furniture as desired for all rooms except living room, foyer, dining room, kitchen, and bedrooms more than three.
 - Window treatments as desired for rooms other than living room, foyer and dining room, as well as their maintenance/cleaning.
 - Bed, bath, and kitchen linens.
 - Cookware, utensils, and small appliances.
 - China, crystal/glassware, flatware.
 - Additional accessories such as pictures, lamps, family pieces, etc. which personalize a home.
- E. Exterior

IX. CONFERENCE RULES AND POLICIES

- Trees and shrubbery should be provided where needed.
- Landscaping and normal fertilization shall be the responsibility of the church/charge.
- Cutting of the lawn and trimming of the shrubs is the responsibility of the residents.
- A lawn mover, adequate for the size of the lawn, shall be provided by the church/charge.
- A TV antenna or cable hook-up should be provided.

III. General Guidelines

- A. Privacy and Care: Since the parsonage is the home of the pastor and his/her family, their rights and privacy should be respected by the congregation. The occupants must ensure that the parsonage receives proper care.
- B. Gifts: A written statement should accompany any gift of furniture or furnishings, designating whether the gift is to permanently remain at the parsonage or is a personal gift to the pastor's family. Gifts shall be received without conditions and with right of refusal.
- C. Placement of Furniture: Use and placement of church-owned furnishings within the parsonage shall be at the discretion of the parsonage occupants.
- D. When a move occurs, refer to the "Policy at the Time of Change of Pastors" below.

Updated by Cabinet, July 2002, revised 12/2009, updated 1/2013

POLICY AT THE TIME OF CHANGE OF PASTORS

- I. The Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee will supply to the district superintendent the list of people serving on the Local Church Parsonage Committee with the chairperson's address and telephone number.
- II. The district superintendent will contact the chairperson of the Local Church Parsonage Committee asking that the committee meet at the parsonage with the pastor, pastor's spouse (if applicable), and if requested by the district superintendent, a representative from the Parsonages Support Committee to inspect the parsonage, using the following guidelines:
 - A. Check complete inventory (see Inventory for Leaving the Parsonage).
 - B. Inspect each room for needed repairs, refurbishing, paint, etc. with attention to who is accountable beyond normal wear and tear.
 - C. Inspect electrical, heating, cooling, and plumbing systems..
 - D. Evaluate conditions of structure, inside and outside, including church-owned furnishings, appliances and systems.
 - E. Pastor shall provide information about condition of appliances and systems known only to occupant.

III. After parsonage inspection by the Local Church Parsonage Committee and the pastor:

- A. The Committee will:
 - Work with the Church Council to arrange for needed repairs, refurbishing, painting, etc.
 - Floors cleaned and waxed, rugs shampooed.

 - Make necessary last minute corrections to the parsonage before the new family arrives.
 - Make sure that all utilities remain connected, the deposit for public utilities having been made by the church/charge.
 - B. The pastor will:
 - Leave the parsonage clean. The outgoing parsonage family is responsible for leaving the house and furnishings clean and in move-in condition. This means at least:
 - No items should be left in storage areas (attic, garage, basement, shed, closets, etc.)
 - Windows washed.
 - Refrigerator emptied and cleaned.
 - Bathrooms scrubbed.
 - Stoves and vent hoods thoroughly cleaned.
 - Fireplace cleaned.

 - The parsonage family shall leave for the successor: a list of whom to call in case of.....; how to fix.....; where to find.....; and a file of guarantees, operating instructions, manuals, etc..

IV. In those instances when a clergy moves out of a parsonage and leaves the house inadequately cleaned and/or damaged, and the parsonage requires work, the expense of which is clearly the responsibility of the outgoing clergy, then the expense for such cleaning/repair shall be billed to the outgoing minister.

- A. The Local Church Parsonage Committee and two members of the Parsonages Support Committee shall inspect the parsonage on moving day or as soon as possible and decide how much of the required cleaning/repair work, if any, is the responsibility of the outgoing pastor.
- B. The outgoing pastor shall be notified immediately by telephone and registered mail. The decision should be communicated to the pastor immediately, and if the pastor be deemed wholly or partially responsible, then the cleaning/repair bill should be sent to the outgoing pastor.
- C. If, after 30 days, this bill is not paid, or arrangements made to pay it, a second notice shall be sent. If, by the end of 45 days, the bill remains unpaid, a copy of the bill and the reasons for it shall be sent to the minister's current district superintendent for assistance in securing payment.

The primary objective for the funds is to achieve an average annual net rate of return of CPI + 5.5%. The investment horizon of the funds is fairly long-term in nature. However, the trustees are sensitive to severe short-term losses in the funds on an absolute and relative basis.

Social Responsibility

As defined in the 2008 Book of Discipline the Council on Finance and Administration ("Council") shall develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures, and management services for the Annual Conference including

- Policies governing the investment of Conference funds (except for pension funds) whether in debt or equity, short-term or long-term instruments, with the aim of maximizing funds available for mission in a manner consistent with the preservation of capital and with the Social Principles of the Church. A statement of such policies shall be presented in the conference Journal.
- Authorizing the Conference Treasurer to invest in funds in accordance with policies' and procedures established by the Council. A listing of securities held shall be printed annually in the conference Journal.

Investment Manager Guidelines

Note: The investment manager guidelines pertain to separately manager accounts. In the case of mutual funds or commingled funds, the guidelines are outlined in the fund's prospectus or offering memorandum.

General Guidelines

Restricted Transaction

- Purchasing of securities on margin or speculative short sales.
- Borrowing of money.
- Pledging, mortgaging, or hypothecating of any securities except for loans of securities that are fully collateralized.
- Purchase of the securities of the investment managers, its parent, or its affiliates.
- Purchase or sale of futures or options for speculation or leverage.
- Purchase or sale of commodities, commodity contracts, or illiquid interest in real estate or mortgages.
- Socially Responsible Investments - It shall be the policy of The United Methodist Church that all general boards and agencies, including the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and all administrative agencies and institutions, including hospitals, homes, educational institutions, Annual Conferences, foundations, and local churches, shall, in the investment of money, make a conscious effort to invest in institutions, companies, corporations, or funds whose practices are consistent with the goals outlined in the Social Principles; and shall endeavor to avoid instruments that appear likely, directly or indirectly, to support racial discrimination, violation of human rights, sweatshop or forced labor, gambling, or the production of nuclear armaments, alcoholic beverages or tobacco, or companies dealing in pornography. The boards and agencies are to give careful consideration to shareholder advocacy, including advocacy of corporate disinvestment.

Diversification

Investment managers are responsible for achieving a level of diversification in their portfolio that is prudent and consistently applied. Concentrations in individual securities, industries and economic sectors should not be so high as to subject the overall portfolio to undue risk.

Liquidity

When purchasing a security to place in a portfolio, it is expected that each manager will consider their aggregate holdings among all of their accounts to ensure that their total position in the security will not be so large as to inhibit rapid liquidation of the security.

Cash

It is expected that the managers will run fully invested portfolios. It is not the policy of the Conference and Foundation to try to time the market. It is understood that frictional cash can be a result of the buy and sell process. However, if cash exceeds 10% of the manager's portfolio, the manager should communicate to the Foundation, Conference and its consultant in writing the reasons for the high cash level and the time frame needed to get the portfolio fully invested.

Domestic Equity Manager Guidelines

- The majority of the holdings in these portfolios should consist of domestic (U.S.) common stock. Large to medium capitalization issues are preferred. Other acceptable investments on a limited basis include preferred stock, convertible securities and cash equivalents.
- Portfolios should be diversified. Specifically, 75% of each investment manager's portfolio should be diversified to the extent that no individual security makes up more than 5% of the total assets at the current market value. Discretion may be taken in the remaining 25% of a portfolio, but the manager should not allow any one position to exceed 8% of the portfolio's total market value.
- A concentration in one economic sector (e.g., transportation) should not be so great as to exceed 30% of the manager's portfolio measured at market value or two times the benchmark index, whichever is greater.
- The manager should follow a clearly defined sell discipline.

Fixed Income Manager Guidelines

- Holdings should consist primarily of domestic (U.S.) fixed-income securities with adequate liquidity. The portfolio should maintain a weighted average portfolio quality rating of at least "A." Securities that are issued or guaranteed by the U.S. Treasury or Government agencies and instrumentalities will be considered AAA.
- The maximum position in a single issuer's securities should not exceed 5% of the portfolio's assets measured at cost or 8% of the portfolio measured at market value. Holdings in securities issued or guaranteed by the U.S. Treasury or U.S. Government agencies and instrumentalities are excepted from this restriction.
- The duration of the portfolio should be targeted to that of the Lehman Brothers Intermediate Aggregate Index. The duration may range within 20% of the duration of this index.
- Purchases should be limited to readily marketable securities.
- Purchases of securities rated below investment grade are limited to 10% of the portfolio, measured at market value, and area limited to a rating of "B" or better.
- Foreign (non-U.S. domiciled) securities denominated in U.S. dollars are limited to 10% of the portfolio, measured at market value.
- Non-U.S. dollar denominated securities area prohibited.

Investment Performance Objectives

Investment managers will be reviewed on a quantitative basis in the form of quarterly reports to be provided by the consultant. Qualitative factors will also be considered such as adherence to each manager's stated investment process, and to the policy guidelines stated in this document. Managers will be reviewed on a net of fees basis.

Large Cap Value Manager

Over a rolling three-year period, the annualized total return of the manager should exceed the annualized total return of the Russell 1000 Value Index. The manager should rank in the upper 25th percentile of a universe of similar managers for the rolling three-year period

Large Cap Growth Manager

Over a rolling three-year period, the annualized total return of the manager should exceed the annualized total return of the Russell 1000 Growth Index. The manager should rank in the upper 25th percentile of a universe of similar managers for the rolling three-year period.

Bond Manager

Over a rolling three-year period, the annualized total return of the manager should exceed the annualized total return of the Lehman Brothers Intermediate Aggregate Index. The manager should rank in the upper 25th percentile of a universe of similar managers for the rolling three-year period.

Performance Meeting

The consultant and the Investment Committee shall monitor the overall performance of the funds to insure its meeting of its objectives. Individual manager monitoring will include the following:

Maintaining both a short-term and long-term perspective, the Consultant will evaluate whether each manager has:

- Performed satisfactorily when compared with the specific objectives for its portfolio;
- Produced results that compare favorably to other investment managers with similar portfolios; and
- Adhered to the relevant policies and objectives.

Among the events that the consultant will examine closely in its review of the investment managers are:

- Poor performance relative to objectives over a three- to five-year period,
- A change in the portfolio manager;
- The departure of one or more key investment professionals;
- Violation of an investment guideline; and
- A change in the ownership or control of the investment management organization.

Any of the above factors will result in a discussion of whether to retain an investment manager. The consultant will provide input in the discussion, but final decisions for any changes rest with the Investment Committee.

Investment Manager Responsibilities

- Submit a written request to the trustees whenever the investment manager feels that the Statement of Investment Objectives should be changed
- Provide quarterly reports describing portfolio holdings, transactions, and performance.
- Vote proxies received after careful assessment of the issues involved.
- Promptly inform the trustees and its consultant of all significant matters pertaining to the investment management of the assets of the Foundation. For example, significant changes in the ownership, affiliation, organizational structure, financial condition, and staffing of the firm.
- Be available to meet with the trustees on a reasonable basis.
- Manage the funds in accordance with the policy guidelines and objectives expressed in this document, or in a separate written agreement that has received approval from the trustees when deviation is deemed prudent and desirable.

BENEFIT PLANS PROVIDED TO CLERGY IN THE VIRGINIA CONFERENCE

Benefit plans provided to clergy in the Virginia Conference are primarily administered by Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc. (VUMPI), an independent agency of the Virginia Conference. Several of the denominational plans are administered by Wespeth Benefits and Investments (Wespeth), which is the administrative agency of The United Methodist Church charged with supervising and administering retirement plans, investment funds and health and welfare benefit plans for the benefit of active and retired clergy and lay employees of the Church. VUMPI assists Wespeth with the administration of the denominational plans and serves as an advocate and resource for Virginia Conference clergy enrolled in those plans. VUMPI (or its vendors, if applicable) is responsible for determining if a participant qualifies to receive a benefit under programs administered by VUMPI. Wespeth is responsible for determining if a participant qualifies to receive a benefit under one or more of the denominational pension, disability or life insurance plans, and what level of benefits will be payable to the participant or his or her beneficiaries. Funding, eligibility and plan designs of the various clergy benefit programs are recommended by VUMPI for Virginia Conference approval. The following plans are administered for the benefit of Virginia Conference Clergy and eligible lay employees:

- Active Clergy Health Plan
- Retired Clergy Health Plan
- Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)
- Supplemental Life Insurance Plan
- Denominational Pension and Savings Plans
 - Pre-1982 Plan
 - Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)
 - Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)
 - United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP)
- Gift Benefit

Following are details regarding eligibility, administration and funding of the benefit programs administered by VUMPI:

Active Clergy Health Plan

The Active Clergy Health Plan is a self insured health plan administered by VUMPI for the benefit of Virginia Conference clergy and eligible lay employees. The following are eligible for enrollment in the Active Clergy Health Plan:

- Full time clergy, including Elders, Deacons and Local Pastors, serving under episcopal appointment
- Clergy serving in full time Extension Ministry appointments in organizations controlled by The United Methodist Church, as determined by VUMPI
- Widowed spouses of active clergy that were enrolled in the active clergy health plan at the time of death are eligible to continue enrollment in the active clergy health plan until age 65, at which time their eligibility will be determined for the retired clergy health plan
- Eligible dependents of deceased active clergy that were enrolled in the active clergy health plan at the time of death are eligible to continue enrollment in the active clergy health plan until age 26
- Clergy on Medical Leave and receiving long-term disability income benefits from Wespeth are eligible for the health plan designed for clergy on medical leave with CPP benefits, subject to payment of the required participant contribution for that plan
- Clergy on Medical Leave who are not receiving long-term disability income benefits from Wespeth are eligible for the Active Clergy Health Plan for up to one year, subject to payment of the required participant contribution for the Active Clergy plan
- Clergy on Voluntary Leave of Absence or Sabbatical Leave may participate in the active clergy health plan for up to one year, provided they pay 100 percent of the Active Clergy Health Plan cost
- Student Local Pastors may participate in the active clergy health plan for up to one year, provided they pay 100 percent of the Active Clergy Health Plan cost
- Clergy appointed to attend seminary may participate in the active clergy health plan for up to one year, provided they pay 100 percent of the Active Clergy Health Plan cost

A Virginia Conference clergyperson who has retired from The United Methodist Church under ¶357 (or succeeding paragraph) of the 2016 Book of Discipline is no longer eligible to enroll in the Active Clergy Health Plan. If the clergyperson terminates his/her retired relationship to the Virginia Conference and returns to full time active appointment under an active Conference relationship status, that clergyperson and his/her spouse and eligible dependents may regain eligibility for enrollment in the Active Clergy Health Plan.

Clergy on Medical Leave and receiving long term disability income benefits from Wespath must file for and enroll in Medicare Parts A and B as soon as they become eligible in order to remain enrolled in the Active Clergy Health Plan.

The Active Clergy Health Plan is administered by VUMPI. The plan is self insured and is primarily funded by Conference resources through apportionments and contributions from plan participants. The continuation of this plan depends largely upon the ongoing ability of the Virginia Conference to finance the plan benefits. Plan design changes and participant contributions are recommended for Annual Conference approval. Due to ongoing increases in general health care costs, it should be expected that VUMPI will periodically recommend increases in the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment and personal contributions. Similarly, reductions in plan benefits may be recommended in order to reduce the overall cost of the Active Clergy Health Plan. The adoption of the Active Clergy Health Plan is not considered binding upon the Conference for more than one year at a time.

Eligible clergy and lay employees who wish to enroll in the Active Clergy Health Plan may enroll through VUMPI. Prospective enrollees may contact VUMPI at 804-521-1100.

Summary plan descriptions and additional program details regarding the Active Clergy Health Plan are available at www.vumpi.org.

Retired Clergy Health Plan

The health plan made available to eligible retirees of the Virginia Conference includes a plan for those retired clergy who are not yet eligible for Medicare and a separate plan for those who are eligible for and enrolled in Medicare. The plan for pre-Medicare-eligible retirees is a self insured health plan. The plan for Medicare-eligible retirees consists of a fully insured Medicare Advantage plan option and a Conference-funded Retiree Reimbursement Account option. The following are eligible for enrollment in the Retired Clergy Health Plan:

A retired Virginia Conference clergyperson whose retirement date was effective prior to January 1, 2019, is eligible to participate in the Retired Clergy Health Plan if paragraphs 1 and 2 below are satisfied.

1. A Clergy satisfies the requirements of this paragraph if he or she retired in connection with the Virginia United Methodist Conference under ¶357.1-3 of the 2016 Book of Discipline.
2. A Clergy or Diaconal Minister satisfies the requirements of this paragraph if he or she meets the criteria in either subparagraph a, b or c below:
 - This subparagraph is satisfied if a Clergy or Diaconal Minister was age 62 or above on the date of retirement, or had at least 30 years of service on the date of retirement, and had served the Virginia United Methodist Conference during the 10 consecutive years immediately prior to retirement in full time Episcopal appointments where the salary paying units had contributed towards the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment, or
 - This subparagraph is satisfied if a Clergy or Diaconal Minister was age 62 or above on the date of retirement, or had at least 30 years of service on the date of retirement, and had served the Virginia United Methodist Conference a minimum of 30 years in full time Episcopal appointments where the salary paying units had contributed towards the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment, or
 - This subparagraph is satisfied if a Clergy or Diaconal Minister who had served 10 years in full time Episcopal appointments with the Virginia United Methodist Conference where the salary paying units had contributed towards the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment, retired prior to age 62 with fewer than 30 years of service, or was appointed to Approved Leave, e.g., Sabbatical, Family Leave or Voluntary Leave of Absence, or was appointed to Extension Ministry (to an agency that is not eligible to participate in the Active Clergy Health Plan), or was appointed On Loan to another United Methodist Conference. A Clergy or Diaconal Minister meeting the requirements of this subparagraph maintained eligibility to enroll in the Retiree Health Plan by paying a monthly Retiree Health Plan Access Fee until the date of enrollment in the Retiree Health Plan. Additional years of credit for eligibility or the vesting and contribution schedule are not accrued while the Retiree Health Plan Access Fee is paid.

There was a one time open enrollment period (January 1-31, 2004) for those described in this paragraph who were not enrolled in the Active Clergy Health Plan, and who wanted to freeze their eligibility for the Retired Clergy Health Plan.

If retirement occurs prior to age 62 and the retiree does not have 30 years of service, the retiree may continue enrollment in the Active Clergy Health Plan until attaining the age of 62, by paying 100 percent of the Active Clergy Health Plan cost.

For clergy retiring on or after January 1, 2019, the following years are to be counted towards determining eligibility for the Conference-sponsored retiree health plans:

- All years of full time ministry in Virginia Conference churches, plus
 - All years of full time ministry other than in appointment to Virginia Conference churches but with enrollment in the Virginia Conference-sponsored health plan
- Beginning January 1, 2019 there was no longer be a requirement to have ten consecutive years of full time ministry immediately preceding retirement. With this change, the Retiree Health Plan Access Fee is no longer be required.

Clergy retiring under ¶357.2.a of the 2016 Book of Discipline (voluntary retirement with twenty years of service) may remain enrolled in the Conference-sponsored health plan for active clergy, and are required to pay the full rates for lay employees. At the age of 62, the retiree becomes eligible for enrollment in the Retired Clergy Health Plan, with plan eligibility and participant contributions consistent with their years of credit at retirement.

Additional points of clarification:

1. Years of credit will be determined at retirement.
2. A Year of credit equals a year served in the Virginia United Methodist Conference in a full time Episcopal Appointment where the salary paying unit was contributing towards the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment.
3. Years of service in other United Methodist conferences are not qualifying years of credit toward eligibility for the Virginia Conference Retired Clergy Health Plan.
4. Retired Clergy and Diaconal Ministers who were participating in the Virginia United Methodist Conference Retired Clergy Health Plan, as well as those active clergy who had met the Retired Clergy Health Plan eligibility criteria on or before January 1, 2004, are considered vested with 30+ total years of credit. Therefore they are eligible to enroll in the Retired Clergy Health Plan with personal contributions according to the 30+ total years of credit contribution rate.
5. Eligible dependents are those who were eligible for coverage at the time of the participant's date of retirement.
6. Retired clergy and/or their dependents that are participating in the Retired Clergy Health Plan must file for and enroll in Medicare Parts A and B as soon as they become eligible in order to receive and continue their health benefits under the Retired Clergy Health Plan.

IX. CONFERENCE RULES AND POLICIES

The Retired Clergy Health Plan is administered by VUMPI. The plan is primarily funded by Conference resources through apportionments and contributions from plan participants. The continuation of this plan depends largely upon the ongoing ability of the Virginia Conference to finance the plan benefits. Plan design changes and participant contributions are recommended for Annual Conference approval. Due to ongoing increases in general health care costs, it should be expected that VUMPI will periodically recommend increases in the Retired Clergy Health Plan apportionment and personal contributions. Similarly, reductions in plan benefits may be recommended in order to reduce the overall cost of the Retired Clergy Health Plan. The adoption of the Retired Clergy Health Plan is not considered binding upon the Conference for more than one year at a time.

Eligible retirees who wish to enroll in the Retired Clergy Health Plan may enroll either through VUMPI or directly with the insurer administering the health plan for Medicare-eligible retirees, depending on the Medicare eligibility status of the retiree. Prospective enrollees may contact VUMPI at 804-521-1100 for additional details regarding enrollment in the plan.

Summary plan descriptions and additional program details regarding the Retired Clergy Health Plan are available at www.vumpi.org.

Comprehensive Protection Plan

The CPP is the denominational long term disability and life insurance program administered by Wespath. Program details are as follows:

The following are eligible for long term disability and death benefits through the CPP program, subject to the limitations and exclusions specified in that program:

1. Full time Elders, Deacons and Local Pastors with compensation of at least 25% of the Denominational Average Compensation
2. Elders and Deacons appointed to 75% appointments with compensation of at least 25% of the Denominational Average Compensation
3. Clergy on Medical Leave who were actively enrolled in CPP immediately prior to entering Medical Leave status may remain enrolled in CPP at the Conference's expense for up to one year if not receiving disability benefits under CPP; clergy receiving disability benefits under CPP remain enrolled until disability benefits are terminated
4. Clergy on Sabbatical Leave or Voluntary Leave, or appointment to attend school, and who were actively enrolled in CPP immediately prior to taking the approved leave or appointment, are eligible to remain enrolled in CPP at the Conference's expense for up to one year

Continuation of CPP disability benefits is subject to ongoing evaluation of the recipient's medical condition and prognosis.

Retirees meeting certain eligibility requirements receive an ongoing CPP death benefit in retirement. To be eligible for death benefits in retirement, a clergy person must have been covered in CPP for a specified number of years. Retirees with 25 or more years of enrollment in CPP are automatically eligible for the death benefits in retirement, and the eligibility criteria for those with fewer than 25 years in CPP is phased in with one-year increments, as detailed in the table below:

Retirement Year	CPP Enrollment for Death Benefit Eligibility
2013	6 of last 10 years
2014	7 of last 10 years
2015	8 of last 11 years
2016	9 of last 12 years
2017	10 of last 13 years
2018	11 of last 14 years
2019+	12 of last 15 years

Supplemental Life Insurance Plan

VUMPI administers a Supplemental Life Insurance Plan to augment the death benefits provided through CPP. The Supplemental Life Insurance Plan includes a supplemental death benefit for qualifying active and retired clergy, as well as a voluntary life insurance plan that is fully funded by the enrollee. Clergy eligible for and enrolled in CPP are eligible for the supplemental death benefit and the voluntary life insurance plan through the Supplemental Life Insurance Plan.

The supplemental death benefit for active clergy enrolled in CPP is $25,000. This Conference Supplemental Death Benefit is payable in addition to the CPP death benefit. During retirement, a $5,000 Conference Supplemental Death Benefit will be payable to retired clergy who are eligible for a CPP death benefit in retirement, in addition to the CPP death benefit.

The voluntary life insurance benefit available to active clergy enrolled in CPP is available in amounts from $25,000 to $300,000. The cost of the voluntary life insurance benefit is 100% participant paid, and is subject to underwriting. The voluntary coverage is portable for those enrollees who leave the ministry or retire. In addition, dependent life is available in amounts from $10,000 to $50,000 for spousal coverage, and from $5,000 to $10,000 for children.

VUMPI will automatically enroll those who are eligible for the CPP and Supplemental Life Insurance Plan. Those desiring to enroll in voluntary life insurance coverage can enroll during VUMPI's annual open enrollment in the 4th quarter of each calendar year. Unless otherwise elected by the participant, the beneficiary will always be the spouse.

Summary plan descriptions and additional program details regarding CPP are available at www.wespath.org. Additional detail regarding the supplemental and voluntary life insurance programs is available at www.vumpi.org.

Denominational Pension and Savings Plans

VUMPI assists with the administration of the denominational pension and savings plans, which are primarily administered by Wespath. The pension and savings plans include the following:

- Pre-1982 Plan: for years of ministry served prior to 1982
- Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP): for years of ministry served from 1982 through 2006
- Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP): for years of ministry served beginning in 2007 and thereafter
- United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPPIP): an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement savings plan for clergy and lay employees of The United Methodist Church

Participants are immediately vested in all denominational pension programs. The Pre-1982 Plan and the MPP are closed plans; no additional credit is being earned under the provisions of those plans. All clergy appointed at least 50% to a local church earn pension credit under CRSP, unless such credit is waived (clergy appointed less than full time may waive pension credit under CRSP). Clergy appointed to Extension Ministry appointments do not earn pension credit under CRSP.

Personal contributions toward a participant's UMPPIP account can be made on a pre-tax, after-tax or Roth basis. Personal contributions are invested in the investment options selected by the participant.

Summary plan descriptions and additional program details regarding the denominational pension and savings programs are available at www.wespath.org.

GIFT BENEFIT

VUMPI currently elects to provide a one time $1,500 gift at the time of retirement or disability (if awarded disability benefits under the Comprehensive Protection Plan) to each clergyperson who has served at least ten years of service in a full time Virginia Annual Conference episcopal appointment in the Virginia Conference with pension credit. Further, a gift to the estate of each clergyperson meeting the eligibility criteria above who dies in active service is paid in the same amount as the gift to retired or disabled clergypersons.

Benefits provided are subject to annual review. Therefore, the continuation of this plan depends largely upon the ability of the Conference to finance it. Benefits provided are approved at each Annual Conference. The adoption of this plan should not be considered binding upon the Conference for more than one year at a time. Accordingly, the terms of the Gift Benefit are subject to change by approval by Annual Conference.

MEMOIRS

VERNIE BARROW JR.

The Rev. Vernie Barrow Jr. passed away Nov. 8, 2020 in Newport News, VA. A Marine true to his country, a pastor true to his faith and a man who left an impression on everyone he met.

Born March 4, 1931 in Hagerstown, MD, son of the late Vernie Barrow Sr. and Louise Barrow. He grew up in the pits of poverty. He decided at a young age to make something of himself. With only a GED, he joined the Marine Corp at the age of 17 years old. At that time he had no idea what plans God had for him.

He met the first love of his life, Betty Jean Fincham and she was instrumental in him joining the Methodist church. He became very active in the church and was an Adult Sunday School teacher for many years. He embraced John Wesley's teaching and became very knowledgeable about the bible and the history of Christianity.

While serving in the military, he was a loving and faithful husband, raised 3 children: Alan, Victor and Lenore, worked part time jobs, and went to George Washington University to obtain his bachelor's degree.

Vernie believed that the Lord was constantly sending him messages to a calling of ministry. When he was stationed in North Carolina he began his ministry career by preaching to three churches temporarily and then was given three other churches full time. In 1969, Vernie retired after 20 years in the military, as Master Sergeant and a veteran of the Korean and Vietnam Wars.

He settled the family in Virginia and was assigned a four-church circuit in the Charlottesville District: Palmyra, Salem, Byrd Chapel and Zion. After eight years he moved to Emmanuel UMC in Amherst for nine years and then to Chestnut UMC in Lynchburg.

Vernie became a widower in 1987 and by the grace of God he found his second love of his life, another Methodist minister, Barbara Bowers. The union blessed him with an instant family, three daughters: Judy McMullen, Janice Regan, Jenifer Loker. Barbara was appointed District Superintendent to the Harrisonburg District, so Vernie followed her career and served in Staunton before retiring.

2001, Vernie and Barbara moved to Florida and enjoyed retirement. They were still willing to help out when Chestnut UMC needed an interim minister. For several months they co-ministered until a full-time minister was appointed. In 2011, they returned to Lynchburg and Barbara passed away. Again, Vernie became an interim pastor for Emmanuel UMC and Forest Road UMC.

His ministry was truly a calling. Every church he went to he put his energy into knowing his congregation, using his humor, and outgoing personality to make people feel loved and welcomed. He was a true inspiration to all ages in his ministry.

Vernie was born in the mountains, he loved the mountains and was buried in the mountains between his beautiful wives in Amherst County.

PAUL ALLEN BEIGHLEY III
1947 - 2021

On Saturday, May 8, 2021, the Rev. Dr. Paul Allen Beighley, III, was reunited with his Heavenly Father. Paul, however, liked to put it another way, "I refuse to say they died and give the devil any glory. They did not die but they graduated to life eternal with Jesus." Congratulations to our brother Paul on your graduation to paradise. Well done thy good and faithful servant!

Paul's life in ministry was exactly that. A life of ministry, where his love of his family, God, and all of God's children was evident to all. Paul celebrated over 40 years of marriage to his beautiful wife, Dorcas and together they raised their beautiful daughter, Mary.

Paul's academic accomplishments are numerous. He earned his Bachelor of Arts in History from the University of MD College Park (1969), Master of Arts in History from Cornell University (1970), Master of Divinity from Wesley Theological Seminary (1973), Doctorate of Theology from International Seminary (1989), Master of Arts in Counseling from Liberty University (1993), and completed the Upper Room two-year Academy of Spiritual Formation #37. He holds numerous awards from the University of MD: Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Alpha Theta, Omicron Delta Kappa, Phi kappa Phi, Phi eta Sigma, Honors History Program. He is also a Harry Denman Award recipient. Paul not only continuously strived to increase his academic knowledge, but was also intentional about his spiritual formation, as he was active in Aldersgate, as well as the Voice of the Prophet.

Paul served with the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church for over 50 years. During this time, he served at numerous churches with his last nine years being at Bethany UMC. He is loved and missed by his congregations, adults and children alike. From July 2001-September 2014, Paul served as Chaplain at Greenville Correctional. While providing spiritual guidance at Greenville Correctional through his chaplaincy role, he also worked as a History Instructor (SVCC 2002-2013 through Grace Inside). Paul was instrumental in the Kairos ministry at Lawrenceville Correctional and helped establish the Kairos Ministry at Greenville Correctional. Paul will also be greatly missed in the Southside Emmaus Community, where he served as the Community Spiritual Director.

Through all these accomplishments, awards, and successes, Paul always walked in a spirit of humility. He did not take on these positions for status or prestige, but simply for his love of God, of knowledge, and of all God's people. Paul was always willing to impart whatever knowledge the Lord had given him, from Chaplain to teaching history to the residents, and did it from a position of humility. Many of you have told me of his passion to love those that other people have deemed as "unlovable or garbage." Through numerous stories, I have been reminded that Paul was a humble man of God who continuously encouraged and never judged. In Paul's words, "There is no one so far down that Jesus Christ cannot lift up! There is no one so far away that Jesus Christ cannot bring back! Because of Jesus, there are no hopeless cases!" Whether working with residents at Lawrenceville/Greenville, his congregations, his Emmaus Community members, or those he met on the streets in town, Paul's love for humanity was evident. We remember Paul for his prayers for us... "May you be surprised by JOY!" and "Be blessed out of your socks!" He was a spirit-filled prayer warrior who always encouraged others to increase their prayer lives and he always made time to mentor those who were answering the call to ministry.

Many that knew Paul, including myself, really had no idea of all of his worldly "successes and achievements." Many had no idea he held a Doctorate. I believe that is because titles really did not matter to him in the larger scheme of things. As a beloved child of God, he simply wanted to encourage others to walk as beloved children of God. Many remember Paul as a "courageous disciple" and a "sincere, genuine, spiritual mentor, and generous Christian pastor. Those that attended Paul's service were again reminded of the love Paul continuously showed for others, as many testified to the powerful Christian witness Paul had on their lives. Even now, his love for others is evident, as those that knew him posted on his Facebook page after his passing. I would like to share one such post with you here:

"Many people may have known this man longer than I have and my condolences goes out to you all. For I have only known him for a handful of years... This man is a soldier of God, expressing absolutely no prejudice for humanity...Strictly about his Heavenly Father's work....

I am not a Christian, but Paul IS my brother...His ministry is remarkable....full of AGAPE LOVE...

He gave of himself for the service of others, never asking for anything in return...I've had the honor of watching him work diligently to ensure fairness...What I'm saying is, there's not many like him and I know that God is pleased with him....he is greatly missed...and while his life sums are all completed, it would be selfish for one to call back this departed soul... while we grieve, let us not delay him from receiving his long awaited greeting from his Heavenly Father... 'Well done My good and faithful servant'...Amen" (Eric Johnson)

While it is important for us to strive to increase our own knowledge and spiritual formation, I believe the testimony of those whose lives were touched by Paul would leave us with the thought that it is our love and humility that we show to others as we impart that wisdom that matters most, and I believe Paul would agree.

In closing, I would like to leave you with a blessing that Paul frequently imparted upon us:

“The Lord bless you and keep you;
The Lord make His face shine upon you,
And be gracious to you;
The Lord lift up His countenance upon you,
And give you peace.” (Numbers 6:24-26)
And in the parting words of our beloved brother Paul, “Shalom, Y’all!”

SAMUEL FRANKLIN CALDWELL
1921 - 2021

The Rev. Caldwell was born on September 30, 1921 in Campbell County, Virginia, near the village of Rustburg. His parents, Arthur and Eunice Caldwell, were a farming couple whose main cash crop was tobacco and Sam was the first of nine children, with six surviving to adulthood. Growing up on a farm during the Depression Years established in Sam an appreciation for hard work and helping others. He carried this philosophy with him, and it guided him through the remaining years of his life. Sam also had a wonderful sense of humor and enjoyed a good laugh. Sam would get up early as a child to check his rabbit traps before going to school to help provide meals for his family. Sam was a beekeeper, loved to garden and loved to hunt with his rabbit hounds. Sam was seven years old when the family brought their first automobile and up to that time all family travel was by horse and wagon. Sam went from horse and wagon to space travel in a lifetime and enjoyed every minute.

When Japan bombed Pearl Harbor on Sunday, December 7, 1941, World War II was born, and Sam was called to serve his country. He entered the Army in April of 1942 and received training as a Medical Technician. He deployed after training and served with the 33rd General Hospital in North Africa and then in Roam, Italy, as the German front line was pushed north. The hospital in Roam was next to the Vatican and St. Peter's Cathedral was visible. Sam returned to the farm in Rustburg in December 1945 after WW II ended and married his childhood sweetheart Carol Evelyn Tweedy. They built a small home on a few acres his father had given them using timber cut and milled on the farm. Together they raised four children and Sam worked in the plumbing and electrical field. God spoke to Sam just after his return from the war and called for his service. But family demands were great, and Sam did not answer this call. Working to raise his growing family and beekeeping, his lifelong hobby, kept Sam busy.

God called on Sam again twenty years later for his service and this time Sam answered his call. He entered the ministry in April of 1965. He was an associate pastor on the Gladys charge from June 1966 through June 1968 and together with Rev. Merely Shepherd served six churches. Due to medical training, he received during WW II, Rev. Sam always loved working with the local rescue squads and continued to work with them wherever he served until he retired. Rev. Sam served four churches Pittsylvania and Halifax Counties on the St. Andrew's charge from June 1968 through June 1972. The Methodist Conference required Rev. Sam to continue his education and he drove to Chapel Hill, NC two days each week to attend college classes while still attending to the needs of his four churches. Rev. Sam served the Gladys charge from June 1972 through June 1977. He continued his educational training two days a week at Ferrum College and obtained his degree after 9 years for hard work. Rev. Sam returned to Campbell County on the We Campbell charge where he served from June 19083 until his retirement in June 1988. During his service on the West Campbell Charge, the Rev. Sam Caldwell was nominated for Rural Minister of the Year for the Virginia United Methodist Conference. He was given the honor, but insisted it was only because he had been nominated several times and the committee was tired of hearing about it.

The Rev. Sam Caldwell retired in June 1988 and moved back to the home he and Carol built on the family farm in Campbell County. His retirement years were filled with beekeeping, hunting, and gardening. He would grow a huge garden each year, only to give most of it away to friends and family. He continued to perform weddings and funerals in his retirement years. Rev. Sam loved his family and enjoyed attending family events and never turned down a good meal.

The Rev. Samuel Caldwell went to be with his Lord in February 2021. Partial paralysis and hearing loss visited the Rev. Sam in his later years, but he handled it with grace. Now he can walk again and listen to the beautiful hymns he so loved.

My father, Travis Lee DeLoach, was born on November 14, 1950, to James and Juanita DeLoach, the youngest of four children: Brenda, Ruth, Clyde, and himself. Both of his parents had descended from a long line of farmers in the South and had moved north to Danville to find jobs at Dan River Mills, where they both continued to work until retirement.

My father described his family as being from “the wrong side of the tracks,” and I loved to hear stories about his rough-and-tumble childhood, especially those involving his siblings. One of my favorites was about the time he got angry with his brother, Clyde, and stabbed him in the arm with a fork. Clyde, who perceived my father as being the pampered baby of the family, was delighted to have some evidence to use against him. He ran outside to where their mother was hanging laundry on the clothesline, and held up his arm triumphantly. “Look what Travis did! Look what Travis did!” Instead of the sympathetic response he was hoping for, my granny looked at him and said, “Boy, you better get back in that house without your coat on!!”

I also loved to hear about how his older sisters, eager to have a chance to see their boyfriends while their parents were at work, but not wanting their little brother tagging along, would run him up and down the rows of corn in their garden to tire him out so they could put him down for a nap.

According to Da, his family was the type that slept in on Sundays, having worked hard throughout the week. They certainly didn't get up early to go to church—that is, until my dad was 13, and his mother got saved in the Baptist church and started to attend regularly. According to Da, she changed dramatically, from “mean mama” to a devout and godly woman. Witnessing the impact her relationship with God made on his mother so impressed my dad, that he also got saved at the age of thirteen. Although he would stray from the faith as he got older, he never forgot the change he witnessed in his mother, nor did he ever forget his humble beginnings.

In high school, my dad had another life-changing encounter, this time with a beautiful, bright-smiling girl named Debby Haynes. The two of them worked together on the high school magazine when he was a senior and she was a junior, and dated sporadically. (Interestingly enough, many years later, their two older daughters, Jenny and myself, would work together on our high school magazine.)

When Da graduated from high school in 1969, he joined the Air Force so he could use the G.I. Bill to pay for college. This was at the height of the Vietnam War, but thankfully the closest he got to Vietnam was Thailand, where he worked in photo ops developing reconnaissance film. My mother was an art student at the now-defunct Stratford College in Danville, but her heart was in Thailand. It was while my dad was away in the Air Force and he and my mom wrote letters to each other, that they truly got to know one another and fell deeply in love. When he came back to the U.S., they got married, on April 15, 1972. My father was stationed in Omaha, Nebraska, after the wedding, so my parents lived there during their first year of marriage. They had their first child, my sister, Jenny, just weeks before my dad was discharged from the Air Force in 1973.

Their little family returned to Virginia, and my dad soon registered for classes at Averett College in Danville. Despite him now having a growing family to provide for, and having to work two jobs, he studied hard, taking summer sessions as well as the usual semesters, and completed his Bachelor's degree in psychology in just 2 1/2 years, at the very top of his class. He wasn't given the valedictorian honor because he graduated mid-term. It was during his college days that his second daughter, Emily (me), was born, in 1974. With his degree under his belt, Da found a job as a probation and parole officer with the City of Danville. In the meantime, his family continued to grow. His son, Matthew, was born in 1978.

It wasn't long after this that Da had an encounter that made a big spiritual impact on him. This is a very special story to me because it underlines my own personal connection with my father, and I know it was special to him, as well, because he often included it in sermons when I was growing up. I'd like to share it here, in his own words, as he recounted the story to me just a month before he died:

“It was in February, on one of those unseasonably warm days, a Saturday. It happened at Grove Park playground, near Granny and Papa DeLoach's house... It was Jenny on the other end of the seesaw, and you fell off after she jiggled the board. She wasn't trying to hurt you, just have a little fun. You didn't fall from very high, but it obviously caused a lot of pain. I scooped you up to comfort you, but also to check your wrist. There was no discoloration or swelling, so I felt like the pain would let up soon....We went home and had some dinner, I think. You said you were still in pain, but there were no signs of swelling or bruising. You kept complaining about the pain, and you were never one to complain. I knew then that I needed to take you to the ER, which I did. Mama stayed home with Jenny and Matthew. It was a Saturday night in the ER, so we waited a LONG time - 3 or 4 hours. I was pretty disgruntled by then, so I did say something like, 'I can't believe this is taking so long. It'll be a huge waste of time.' I was being a selfish jerk, but I also hated that you had to wait so long in pain. "I remember your words this way: 'Da, I'm kinda glad we're having to wait so long.' " "Well, why is that?" " "Because it gives me more time to think about Jesus."

"I don't know how to express the effect your words had on me, except to say that I was cut to the heart. All of my callousness, impatience, selfishness and lack of faith stared me in the face, and encouraged me to realize that I needed to be like you, with your humble, loving faith and trust in God. This was the beginning of my journey as the Prodigal Son, coming home to the Father from the far country. I didn't feel God's call to ministry right away, but it was the culmination of my journey back to God that started with you in the ER that night."

Not long after he returned to Christ, Da started to feel the call to ministry. After consulting with their pastor and receiving instructions to pray about it and seek the answer in God's Word, my parents came across 2 Timothy 4:2: "Preach the word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke, and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction." Although he was initially a bit reluctant to accept the call to preach, he couldn't deny that he was being led.

He began to serve as a lay pastor at Calvary and Floral Hills United Methodist Churches in Pittsylvania County while still working as a probation and parole officer. He soon entered ministry full time, and the family moved to Chatham, Virginia, where he served at Concord UMC while commuting to Duke University. He earned his Master's of Divinity in 1986, graduating with honors.

While living in Chatham, the family started taking in foster children. The first one, Barbara, came to us in 1984 at the age of two. After four years of being part of our family as a foster child, my sister was finally officially adopted. Baptizing her with her new family name was one of the most special moments of Da's career.

We had two more foster children, and my mom cared for many other young children over the years in our home. My dad loved them all and treated them like family. In fact, some of the most recent of these children called him "Papa" just like his own grandchildren did.

My father would go on to serve several more churches, including the Chatham Heights/Granberry charge in Martinsville, from 1988 to 1993, the Bloxom/Guilford/St.Thomas charge in Bloxom from 1993 to 2001, and Christ United Methodist Church on Chincoteague Island from 2001 to 2017. After a long career of self-sacrifice and service in ministry, my father retired in 2017, and he and my mom moved to Captain's Cove in Greenbackville.

Da was a lifelong, diehard fan of Duke basketball, and he loved watching games with his son and fellow fan, Matthew. When he wasn't dressed for church duties, he could usually be seen wearing a combination of a Duke T-shirt, hat, and/or coat, or a brightly-colored tie-dye t-shirt and jeans.

He was highly intelligent, witty, and had an often deadpan, always hilarious sense of humor. He dominated at Scrabble (a talent my sister, Jenny, inherited), and could've been quite successful on Jeopardy if he'd had the chance.

Over the many years of his ministry, my dad was a comforter, counselor, and mentor to countless church members, family members, and fellow pastors. He sang and/or played guitar for choirs and praise teams, both in church and at Camp Occohannock on the Bay, where he served as a valued spiritual director on numerous Emmaus Walks and Chrysalis Flights. He taught GED classes in prisons and served on mission trips, including one to Guatemala and one to Khabarovsk, Russia, where I was appointed as a missionary with the United Methodist Mission Society at the time. He also served on the Eastern Shore District Committee on Ordained Ministry and the Virginia Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. Over the years, he visited countless hospital rooms and the homes of shut-ins; he comforted the heartbroken and the bereaved, counseled distressed and floundering souls, and led believers into a deeper relationship with Christ through Discipleship Bible studies as well as personal guidance. He had a gentle and easy-going nature and brought a calm presence to many distressing situations. Despite his laid-back personality, however, he was not afraid to stand up for what was right or to speak difficult or unpopular truths.

My father was consistently humble and aware of God's grace in his life, which, coupled with his compassionate nature, made him a ready conduit for that grace. He had a servant's heart and not only helped the people in his congregations, but countless other people as well, with no fanfare, often without anyone else even knowing (as we've since learned from individuals since he passed away). He was always ready to listen and provide wisdom or needed levity.

He consistently went above and beyond for his wife and children, showing his love for them in countless ways, both big and small. I have never seen a man who loved his wife so much, an example I was blessed to see throughout my life.

I have no doubt that when my father passed away of complications from COVID on December 11, 2020, that he was greeted by his beloved Jesus with the words "Well done, good and faithful servant...Enter into the joy of your master." (Matthew 25:23)

DANIEL LEE GARRETT 1941 - 2021

The Rev. Dr. Daniel Lee Garrett's sense of humor was a huge part of his personality. Dan was a Navy Lieutenant, a Vietnam veteran, a dedicated United Methodist minister, a serious theologian, a lively teacher, a golfer, a sports fan, an amateur (meaning one who loves doing something) singer, a Salvation Army volunteer, a dedicated University of Virginia, Yale Divinity School, and Wesley Seminary alumnus—and a man who never met a stranger. But more than any of these, Dan was a man who dearly loved his wife Susan, his sons and daughters-in-law, and his five grandchildren—and he was wholly loved by them. Dan and Susan left Virginia in 2018 after 50 years of residence there and moved to Southern California to be near their sons and their families.

Dan was born in Zanesville, Ohio to the Rev. Bernard John Garrett and Pauline Elizabeth Smith Garrett on March 4, 1941. He was survived by his wife of 52 years, the Rev. Dr. Susan Schweitzer Garrett, his sons David (Marcy) of Tustin, California, and Joshua (Ngoc) of Costa Mesa, California, and by his five grandchildren, Zachary, Jonathan, and Benjamin of Tustin, and June and Heath of Costa Mesa. He is also survived by his sister, Marjorie Veach (Bill) of Homosassa, Florida, and by his sisters- and brothers-in-law, Sally and Jack Sanders and Carol and Peter Schilling, by eight nieces and nephews, and by nine great-nephews and great-nieces.

After graduating from the University of Virginia in 1963, Dan served in the Navy for four years. His last year of service was as the Executive Officer of the USS Coconino County (LST-603), stationed in Vietnam. Following his service in the Navy, Dan received his Bachelor of Divinity from Yale Divinity School and then served as a United Methodist minister and seminary professor in Virginia for the next 40 years, along the way earning his Doctor of Ministry at Wesley Theological Seminary. His appointments included Regester Chapel in Stafford, Fincastle, Strasburg, and Mount Zion, Duncan Memorial in Berryville, and Central United Methodist Church in Staunton. He also taught United Methodist Studies at three seminaries—Eastern Mennonite Seminary in Harrisonburg, Union Presbyterian Seminary, and Virginia Union School of Theology, both in Richmond, and church polity at Shenandoah University in Winchester. In retirement, he and Susan served interim pastoral appointments at First United Methodist Church and at Braddock Street United Methodist Church in Winchester. Wherever he served and also in retirement, Dan found a Salvation Army or Rescue Mission where he helped cook and serve meals, "hands-on" mission work which he always considered a vital part of his ministry. Retirement was also the time when Dan learned to enjoy choral singing. He sang in church choirs and became a part of the Arts Chorale of Winchester and of the Piedmont Singers. Dan enjoyed singing in the yearly Arts Chorale concerts and traveled with the Piedmont Singers when they served as "choir in residence" at several cathedrals in England.

Since Dan also loved to write, one of his great joys was writing a forward and republishing a book written by the Rev. Henry Smith (1769-1862), who had during his lifetime published an autobiographical volume of essays entitled "Recollections and Reflections of An Old Itinerant: Letters of Rev. Henry Smith". Dan was the 7th generation grandson of Rev. Henry Smith's father, Bartholomew Smith, and he discovered his common roots with Henry Smith only after serving for 14 years in Berryville, Virginia, where Henry grew up. Having preached in many of the places frequented by his early ancestor, Dan discovered anew that the Methodist connection runs broad and deep. Having enjoyed this work, Dan later wrote and self-published on Amazon several books of essays on his work in the church, including "Windows on God's World", "Charges to Keep: Pastoral Reports to Various Churches", "Teaching the Faith United Methodists Hold in Common", and "Take Thou Authority: Reflections of Ordained Ministry in the Wesleyan Tradition". He also published a book of prayers written by his father, entitled "Pray Without Ceasing: Prayers From the Ministry of The Rev. Bernard John Garrett (1912-1989)", and most recently, "Telling Time: Facebook Posts in the Trump Era, 2019-2020", on current events.

Dan and Susan traveled widely in their retirement. A big goal was crossed off Dan's "bucket list" when in 2018 they took a Southeast Asia cruise with friends, and Dan got to revisit the places in Vietnam which had been important in his time in the Navy. In his last years, when Covid slowed Dan's ability to travel and pancreatic cancer made inroads into his lifestyle, Dan made social engagements of his doctors' appointments and made friends of doctors, nurses, technicians, and office staff throughout the Southern California medical world.

On April 25, 2021, at his home in Costa Mesa, California, surrounded by his family, Dan returned to his loving God. A dear friend and his pastor in California, the Very Rev. Peter Browning, was with Dan that weekend, and with Dan's family gathered, shared the service for "Ministration at the Time of Death" from the Book of Common Prayer. That service includes this beautiful prayer, which we pray today for all those remembered in the 2021 Virginia Annual Conference Memorial Service.

"Depart, O Christian soul, out of this world;
In the name of God the Father Almighty who created you,
In the name of Jesus Christ who redeemed you;
In the name of the Holy Spirit who sanctifies you;
May your rest be this day in peace,
And your dwelling place in the paradise of God." Amen

Dan's funeral service at Good Shepherd Cemetery in Huntington Beach, California, was very much a reflection of his life and ecumenical spirit. It included military honors and the Navy Hymn, a prayer by his daughter-in-law Marcy's rabbi, a prayer and commendation by a Vietnamese Roman Catholic priest representing his daughter-in-law Ngoc's family, his dear friend Paul playing Dan's favorite hymn, "How Can I Keep From Singing" on the bass recorder, a wonderful homily by his friend and pastor Peter, and ended with a Benedictine prayer that Dan had used in funerals throughout his ministry. White roses covered Dan's casket as the congregation left the cemetery, placed by those who were in attendance. And his 2 ½ year old grandson Heath danced as his father chased him during the service. It was all "very Dan."

CHARLIE S. HALEY JR. 1942 - 2020

The Rev. Charlie S Haley Jr. touched many lives. Born on October 3, 1942 in Alexandria, Va., and he was the son of Charlie S Haley Sr. and Mattie McDaniel Haley. He is predeceased in death by two sisters, Elsie and Betty. The Rev. Haley married the love of his life on October 3, 1960, celebrating 60 years of marriage just before his passing in October of 2020. They had four children, Billy, Tonya, Charlie, and Sharon. He loved his wife Jacqueline who he referred to as his "doll." He also had numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren that he loved deeply. The Rev. Haley served proudly in the U.S. Navy for six years on the USS Conway and the USS Tidewater.

He met the love of his life, Jacqueline, at a young age. Young and in love, they married, and called Maryland home for some time as he served in the Navy. A proud seaman he was, who loved his country. After serving his country, he entered the textile business. He was very successful in textiles and loved the industry. The Rev. Haley was always willing to go the extra mile to better himself and his family. He and his wife were inseparable. Wherever you saw one, you saw the other.

He spent 31 years in the textile industry travelling many miles and making many lifelong friends along the way. He never met a stranger and loved everyone very much. Following his retirement, he served in the ministry for 15 years and committed his life to serving the Lord. Becoming a lay speaker for several years, the Rev. Haley knew his calling was to be a preacher. After many weekends of travelling to Duke Divinity School, he graduated on July 27, 2006. What a joyous day that was for him and his family. The Rev. Carlton Thomas was a huge influence and mentor to him. The Rev. Thomas was the preacher at Anderson Memorial Church in Gretna, VA. While attending service there and becoming a lay speaker, being mentored by one of the finest men, he found his calling. He served at the Trinity U.M. Church in Altavista, VA, Sharon U.M. in Naruna, VA, and spent many wonderful years at the New Hope U.M. Church in Rustburg, VA. He loved his church family and they loved him also. The Rev. Haley never spoke negatively toward anyone, always finding the good in all of God's children. He was a man of God. He loved his church, family, and friends. The Rev. Haley spoke and spread the gospel.

The Rev. Haley loved many outdoor activities. He loved fishing, gardening, traveling, and going out to eat. Oh how he loved his Kentucky Fried Chicken. He loved reminiscing with childhood friends about cherished memories. He also loved sitting on the front porch with his Doll watching the planes and birds fill the beautiful sky. How he loved God's beauty in any and everything. Traveling was one of his loves, but yet there was no place like home. Many springs and summers would be spent behind a tiller, until he couldn't go anymore. "Only a few tomato plants," he would say to his wife as he grinned. Although they both knew he would plant as many as he liked.

An avid NASCAR fan, he loved David Pearson and Tim Richmond. We went to many races over the years. He also loved the Chicago Cubs and Harry Caray. The Rev. Haley loved going to Friday night football games with his wife at the Gretna High School. "How 'bout them Hawks, oh yeah!" could be heard by him over the roar of the crowd. He also enjoyed watching his grandchildren play in numerous sports such as football, volleyball, softball, and baseball. Anything to support his grandchildren, he was there. They were his pride and joy and he was their biggest fan.

The warm summer months were spent at the pool with his family. Grilling, laughing, and sharing many great childhood memories. Every summer up until his illness, he and his family would spend a day at Kings Dominion or Busch Gardens. Those were his favorite days in the summer because he knew he would get to take all of his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

Holidays were always special to him. He always helped his wife prepare the most delicious meals. On Thanksgiving, cooking and watching the Macy's Day Parade was always a tradition. The house was always full of love and laughter. Christmas was also one of his favorites, as he would watch the excitement of the grandchildren and great grandchildren opening presents. It brought so much joy to him and his wife.

He was a mentor to many, Steve Stadtherr being one. A member of New Hope U.M. church as well, the Rev. Haley saw something special in this young man. Becoming the best of friends and brothers, we only found it fitting for Steve to preach at his funeral. Steve was someone that knew him and could speak from the heart about him. We knew the Rev. Haley would have been so proud. A friend for life he is, always checking on his wife after his passing.

The Rev. Haley loved filling the church on Sundays and spreading the word of the Lord, for he knew that one day, he would walk among the streets of gold. Stepping down and retiring from the ministry was hard for him. After becoming sick, the Rev. Haley wasn't able to attend church and that hurt him more than his awful illness.

So many people looked up to him. The Rev. Haley was always there for anyone, anytime, day or night. The word no wasn't in his vocabulary when it came to helping others. Even on his worst days, it was always words like, "How are you?" or "Are you okay?" Never complained about anything, and was always optimistic. The Rev. Haley knew that he would soon be going home to meet his Lord and Savior. Even on his weakest days, he was always the strongest one. His beautiful doll and his lovely daughter, Tonya, never left his side. They were his caregivers at home. Jackie was his world, and he was hers. His illness brought so much pain and sadness to us all.

The Rev. Haley loved and served his God faithfully. Clearly, he scattered seeds of love, kindness, and the message of God's love. Welcoming everyone, he welcomed them with love and open arms. Trusting and forgiving, the Rev. Haley looked past the sins of those around him because he believed everyone was a good person in their own way.

One of his favorite songs was, Amazing Grace by Glen Campbell (live with bagpipes.) We would sit at the kitchen table listening and singing away. Loving the sound of the bagpipes and feeling every word of the beautiful song. The Rev. Haley loved all music but his favorite was Credence Clearwater Revival.

On October 24, 2020, the Rev. Charlie S. Haley Jr. passed away peacefully at his home. During his illness, we never left his side. While death breaks our earthly ties, we know that those who pass away as believers are living the presence of Jesus. A day I know he yearned to see. Although it broke our hearts tremendously, we just knew that he was in a better place. He was always very vocal about going home and how he had always dreamed of that day. We will never forget his beautiful face, laugh, or smile. We can't wait to run into his arms again one day in the presence of our Lord and Savior and walk the streets of gold with him.

Love you always –Doll
Love you and miss you so much Daddy –Tonya

EARLE W. PAYLOR JR.
1925 - 2020

The Rev. Dr. Earle Paylor Jr. was born in July, 1925 in Scottsburg, Virginia to Dorothy and Earle Paylor. He entered the Navy during World War II and was sent to the University of South Carolina. Upon graduating with a degree in Naval Science, he was sent to Japan just after V-J Day as a part of the occupation force.

It was during his time in the Navy that he felt called to the ministry, and after his discharge he entered Duke Divinity School to earn his Master of Divinity degree. He was convinced that our Lord was the only hope for the world. During his time in seminary, he met Edna King while serving at Huntington Methodist Church in Roanoke as a summer intern. They were soon engaged, and married in June 1951, three weeks after she was graduated from Madison College.

Earle started his full-time ministry in 1949, founding Christ Methodist Church in Richmond, Virginia. During his life's ministry, he served at 10 churches in Virginia and his professional ministry lasted until 2010. During his time in Mechanicsville, Virginia, he earned his Doctor of Ministry degree from Union Theological Seminary.

While pastoring churches, he always fell in love with the members of the congregation he served. One of the hardest things for him to do was to leave a church, and the friendships he had developed there. But he soon developed more great friendships with the members of his next church. Earle was deeply committed to the people he served and was beloved and appreciated wherever he went. One member once described him as: "the best person on the planet;" and attributed her deep faith and the quality of her life to his discipleship.

Earle and Edna had three children: David, Robert, and Mary Rebecca. They were both completely committed to the upbringing and well-being of their children. For family vacations, Earle learned to camp and took the family on great two-week camping trips every year. They visited National Parks and State Parks and learned to appreciate the variety of the world and nature through these expeditions. In 1969, the family spent four weeks touring the country from Richmond to California and back. In 1972, he took the family on a 10-day backcountry canoeing trip in Quebec. He was adventurous and taught his family to be.

Earle was characterized by complete and total honesty and integrity. He modelled these traits for his family and church members. He could also be a bit mischievous at times and enjoyed stirring up discussions. Earle loved to laugh with people and enjoy time together.

Earle was always insightful (not this spelling: inciteful – it means bad) and observant of the well-being of others. He would initiate time together to help family or church members to process their life events. He would listen and care.

He cared for his children in the same way. Their spiritual and emotional health were priorities of his. Academics mattered. High standards were to be upheld. He wanted the best for them in every way. He was always there to share their significant events. He celebrated all their successes with them and supported them in time of need.

In 1975, he and Edna invested in some remote property in the mountains of Madison County, Virginia, next to the National Park. This was an outward expression of his love of nature. For Edna, it was a return to her childhood roots when she spent so much of her time in West Virginia. Ten years later they were able to build a small cabin where the family has congregated ever since. It is a great place for birds, bears, campfires, and friends.

In 2004, tornadoes tore through the area and over half of the trees on the property were leveled all around the cabin. As Earle surveyed the damage he turned to God and asked, "Lord, where were You?" The answer he immediately heard back was, "Saving your cabin." For years afterward the locals would say, "That's the preacher's house." God has been good to our family in so many ways.

In January 2021, Earle tested positive for COVID. He recovered quickly from the respiratory distress but there was a gradual cognitive decline that quickly followed. In the last weeks he was not able to clearly communicate. But several weeks before going home he called Edna one morning and very clearly said, "I'm dying, please tell my children that I love them dearly." That was perhaps the last thing he was able to communicate and on April 7, he went to be with his Lord and Savior. He is now enjoying peace, joy, and happiness. We all miss him and will be so happy when we see him again.

GENE CARTER TATUM1946-2020

The Rev. Gene Carter Tatum was born August 29, 1946, in Dinwiddie, Virginia, the son of James F. and Cecil C. Tatum. At an early age, he felt the leading of God to serve Him. After graduating from Dinwiddie High School in 1964, he joined the staff of Gould Funeral Homes and attended Richard Bland College. During this time, God's leading gave him the desire to preach and to be more active in the work of the church.

On September 1, 1966, Gene received his Local Preacher's License. At the age of 20, he received his first appointment October 1, 1966, to fill a vacancy at Surry. How appropriate that his first Sunday in the ministry was World Wide Communion Sunday, a day that was very sacred and special to him. After Surry, he served the following appointments: Associate Pastor at Washington Street, Petersburg 1967-1968, Cartersville 1968-1972, Burkeville 1972-1976, Waverly 1976-1979, Amelia 1979-1987, Wood's on the Petersburg District 1987-1993, Ocran on the Petersburg District 1993-2009. In retirement, he served the West Dinwiddie Charge from January 2010 through June 2013.

In addition to Richard Bland College, Gene attended VCU and Duke University. He was ordained a Deacon in 1971, completed the United Methodist Church Ministerial Courses of Study at Emory University in 1974, and became an Associate Member of the Virginia Annual Conference in 1975.

In the summer of 1971, Gene went on a tour of England and the Holy Land with Dr. Harry Coffey. In England, he was privileged to preach the worship service for the group from the pulpit in Wesley's Chapel that John Wesley used. His sermon topic was "A Burning Heart." In the fall of 1978, he returned to England and attended one of the services on November 1 celebrating the Re-Opening of Wesley's Chapel after its restoration.

On June 29, 1996, while serving Ocran Church, Gene married Mary Nell Blanton. Bishop Carl J. Sanders performed the wedding ceremony. Gene met Mary Nell when he was her pastor at Tabernacle Church in Amelia. He is the only pastor who has married while serving Ocran. Mary Nell faithfully supported her husband in his ministry.

During his 16 years at Ocran, plans for a new sanctuary and addition were drawn, the building project was completed, and within 20 months after completion, the almost $2 million project was paid off. In reference to the project, Gene said "God has been good to us. We certainly wouldn't have been able to do this on our own."

When Gene retired in 2009, he had served 42.75 years in the ministry. In 2010, he was asked to fill a vacancy on the West Dinwiddie Charge until June and he stayed three more years. After that, he filled pulpits as long as his health allowed. Gene considered it a privilege to preach the Word of God and shared his love and devotion to Jesus Christ through his ministry.

Gene and Mary Nell moved to Amelia when he retired. Gene died at home on August 19, 2020. He is survived by his wife of 24 years, Mary Nell Blanton Tatum. Gene was a loving and faithful husband and will always have a special place in Mary Nell's heart. A graveside service was conducted on August 22, 2020, at Southlawn Memorial Park in Prince George, Virginia with the Reverend Timothy A. Beck officiating.

The Rev. Timothy Beck, a friend in the ministry, wrote of Gene's life and ministry: "I remember him as a faithful and thoughtful friend who was always thinking about others. Gene loved the Lord and was a humble servant. He was a compassionate pastor, but most of all he loved to share the Gospel through preaching. God gifted Gene as a preacher who spoke with passion and used creative and enlightened stories that grounded his points. Throughout his life, Gene was an amazing steward of the resources God had given him and wanted others to do the same. The world changes, people come and go, they live and die, but very few leave an indelible mark that lasts for generations. What Gene Tatum did in his life and ministry still reverberates in the hearts and through the lives of all those he touched."

—Mary Nell B. Tatum

CLAY BRANSCOME TUCKER1932 - 2020

The Rev. Dr. Clay Branscome Tucker went to be with the Lord on October 2, 2020 at the age of 88. He died at his home with his family by his side. Dr. Tucker, known as Clay to his friends and family, was a loving and caring husband, father, and grandfather. He is loved and missed greatly by his childhood sweetheart and wife, Violet, of 70 years, his daughters Lorkit and Lenoir, his son-in-law, Jim, and his grandchildren, Zachary and Markeshia. He was a generous man, never met a stranger and never failed to help anyone in need.

He was different in many ways to each one of the family, sweetheart, and the love of her life to our mother Violet, knight in shining armor to his daughters, Lorkit and Lenoir, with who he shared tenderness and partnership as well as direction, buddy to his grandson, Zachary, protector from all harm to his granddaughter, Markeshia and dad to his son-in-law, Jim.

Our father loved his horses as a progression of his God-given personality and spending time with his family. He was our rock and the foundation of this family. Dad you are missed more than words can express, but because of the love and strength you gave us, we will carry on until we meet again. Love is forever and you will be in our hearts forever.

It became known as The Fisherman's Players, a renowned theatre company in the 60s and 70s. Reaching from Maine to Florida, The Fisherman's Players toured the eastern seaboard each winter and performed up to five plays in repertory each week to the diverse summer crowds of Cape Cod. Focusing on subject matter as diverse as race relations, the war in Vietnam, the environment, woman's issues and politics in the church, these were the early social justice issues of the day.

Following retirement, Maria met the second love of her life, Laurie Levy and they traveled and carved a rich, full, joy filled life for themselves with the blessing of all their children. She is remembered for her quick wit, intuitive insight, her compassion, her well read and informed take on life and her ability to always think of others before she thought of herself.

MARY MURTON WILKINS 1939 - 2021

The Rev. Mary Wilkins has gone to be with God and is buried in the Zirkle Cemetery of New Market, VA, across the Shenandoah River from where she was born near Quicksburg, VA. A gravestone telling of her life and ministry will be placed there by this time next year. She is buried beside her mother, Mabel Hess Lowry Wilkins, who also heard the call to ministry but married first and died young of cancer shortly after having Mary and her sister, Barbara. Her father, Gilbert Wilkins later remarried and after spending several years being raised by her father assisted by Aunts, she found a new mother in Zelma Trivett Moore Wilkins and a new big sister in Phyllis Moore Hughitt. She is survived by Phyllis Hughitt who lives part of the year in Virginia and the other in Florida, three nephews and one niece plus numerous great-nephews and nieces and several great-great nieces and nephews in the Hughitt family. She is also survived by her younger sister Barbara Wilkins Bonner, her husband Kenneth Bonner, of Reston, a nephew Kenneth Bonner Jr., and a niece Lisa Bonner Hanusiak, three great-nieces, Lauren and Lacy Bonner, Barbara Hanusiak and a great-nephew, Michael Hanusiak. In addition, she is survived by a brother, the Rev. Ed Wilkins and his wife the Rev. F. Darlene Wilkins of New Market, VA, a nephew Michael Thweatt and his wife Joyce, a niece Janene Thweatt Whitmore and her children, Kellen Breeden and Glenna DeHart, a nephew Paul Wilkins and his daughter Amelia Wilkins, a niece Erin Wilkins Fletcher and her husband Henry Fletcher.

The family moved from the Valley when Mary was very young and after her mother's death settled in South Arlington where the aunts that cared for her and her future mother lived. The family moved again her freshman year in high school to Annandale where she graduated. Mary excelled in women's athletics, specifically basketball and softball, and in music where she played the violin and French horn. After graduating she worked for Riggs Bank saving her money to attend Ferrum College. In her memoirs, "Mary remembers feeling called to church work as a child and by adolescence she felt called to the ministry, but kept it to herself because women weren't supposed to be ministers according to general consensus in the early 1950s." It was at Ferrum that Mary found confirmation for her calling. A faculty adviser heard her speak in Chapel and asked if she had considered entering the ministry. She confessed she had. Mary participated in a program in which pre-ministerial students preached and conducted worship in small rural churches which were without a regular minister. She says, "This experience confirmed my interest in ministry." She graduated from Ferrum with an Associate Degree in 1960. Mary transferred to American University where she completed a B.A. degree in Sociology. In the fall of 1962 she enrolled in Wesley Theological Seminary. She often took jobs and spent a couple years teaching weekday religious education in Winchester again to save money to finish her education. She also worked primarily with youth in local churches and after taking several years to earn money to return to Seminary she was ordained a deacon in the Virginia Conference in 1968, graduating seminary in 1969.

Mary's first appointment was to the Potomac Charge in Stafford County. During this appointment, helping her parishioners through various family and life crises, she was invited to serve as a volunteer counselor on the staff of a pastoral counseling center nearby. The supervisor of this program was a Clinical Pastoral Educator (CPE) from Medical College of Virginia in nearby Richmond. The next year she attended her first CPE class at Medical College of Virginia. This led to a scholarship to be a yearlong intern in CPE at Rush-Presbyterian St. Luke's Medical Center in Chicago Illinois.

Mary was ordained elder in 1971. She resigned her appointment at annual conference and received an appointment to study CPE. After that year she was invited to take another year in training to be a CPE Supervisor. Mary spent the rest of her career in Chicago as a Hospital Chaplain and supervisor teaching other CPE students. She maintained her membership in the Virginia Conference by reporting to her charge conference at her home church Annandale United Methodist. Mary served in numerous hospital clinical CPE settings including a stint at the University of Chicago. Later, when funds for CPE in the Chicago Area became short because of hospital funding cut backs, she and her supervisor formed and received funding for a consortium of chaplains called "Advocate Healthcare" to cover the hospitals in the Chicago area so Chaplaincy Services could be provided as needed. This unburdened each individual hospital from running their own Chaplaincy Program. After her supervisor retired she became the director of this program until she retired. During her time in Chicago, Mary also had the opportunity to travel to Rome and Africa and taught CPE at a hospital in India for a year.

Her ministry took her far and wide, reminiscent of John Wesley's "The World is My Parish." But, in the end Mary returned to her native Virginia in 2010 to serve God in her retirement. She joined a local United Methodist church and taught classes on various religious subjects at Ashby Pond near Ashburn, Virginia. She was able to be near her sister's and brother's families. Mary resided at Ashby Pond until her death and then returned home to her birthplace in the Shenandoah Valley. "Servant of God Well Done!"

RICHARD LEE WORDEN1936 - 2020

The Rev. Richard Lee Worden, 84, of Harrisonburg, formerly of Luray, passed away December 17, 2020, at Virginia Mennonite Retirement Community, where he received kind and compassionate care. He was born on June 13, 1936, and was the son of the late Russell and Eva Amos Worden.

Richard was born and raised in Pikeville, Kentucky, the youngest of seven children. He graduated as valedictorian at age 16 from Pikeville Academy. He attended Pikeville College for his freshman year, then transferred to Speed Scientific School at the University of Louisville. During this time, he answered the call to the ministry and transferred to Kentucky Wesleyan College where he was elected President of the student body. Richard graduated from Kentucky Wesleyan with top honors as valedictorian.

On August 24, 1957, he married the former Elizabeth Reeves Gamble of Louisville, KY. They relocated to Atlanta where Richard graduated with a Master's Degree from Candler School of Theology at Emory University. Richard began his career in the Virginia United Methodist Conference as Associate Minister of Annandale UMC in 1960. In 1963, Richard was assigned to start a church in the neighboring community of Burke. There was no parsonage, no land, and no core congregation. He spent the summer knocking on doors and inviting people to help start the new church. The first service was held September 1963 in the hallway of the new elementary school. St. Stephens UMC, a thriving, growing church in Northern Virginia, celebrated its 50th anniversary in 2013.

Richard served as pastor of South Roanoke UMC, then returned to Annandale as Senior Minister. He was also Senior Minister of Reveille UMC in Richmond and District Superintendent of the Alexandria and Roanoke Districts. In 1983 he was honored with a Doctor of Ministry Degree from Emory and Henry College.

Upon retirement from the Virginia United Methodist Conference, Richard and Elizabeth moved to Luray where he continued to develop his "informal ministry," exemplifying the gifts of gratitude, generosity, and good humor. He delighted in sharing his many varied interests which included travel, philosophy, trains, toy collecting, classical music, circuses, travel trailers, donuts, and ice cream. His expansive toy collection is now housed at Luray Caverns in the Toy Town Junction. While retired, Richard visited the Mediterranean, the Baltic, Antarctic and Arctic regions, and he and Elizabeth generously hosted many family cruises to Europe and the Caribbean.

Richard was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Elizabeth, on December 7, 2016. He and Elizabeth were married 59 years and were blessed with a vibrant family life that affirmed the joy of "living in grace."

He is survived by his three daughters, Beth Mallalieu and husband, Mark, of Luray, Becky Echard and husband, Mark, of Harrisonburg, and Amy Slaubaugh and husband, Todd, of Dayton; eight grandchildren; five great-grandchildren with two more on the way.

In addition to his parents, six older siblings and wife, Richard was preceded in death by a great-grandson.

"Well done, good and faithful servant." Matthew 25:21

XII. HISTORICAL STATEMENT

The Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church is the direct descendant of the original annual conference of the United Brethren in Christ and of one of the six original conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The present conference was formed in 1970, by the merger of the Virginia Conference, formerly Methodist, with the former Evangelical United Brethren Conference of the same name. It is the successor to 39 Annual Conferences of eight denominations. Since the oldest of these dates back to the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1784, the 1970 session was declared to be the 188th session of the Conference (two "annual" sessions having been held in 1791 and 1841).

These 39 antecedent conferences are as follows:

THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Virginia (1784-1844), Baltimore (1784-1939), Philadelphia (1784-1869), North Carolina (1836-1844), Washington (1864-1939), Delaware (1864-1939), Virginia and North Carolina Mission (1864-1868), Virginia (1868-1906), North Carolina (1869-1939), Wilmington (1869-1939), East Tennessee (1880-1939), Holston (1906-1939), West Virginia (1906-1939), Atlantic Mission (1906-1912), Blue Ridge- Atlantic (1912-1939)

THE CHURCH OF THE UNITED BRETHREN IN CHRIST

Original ("Old" or "Mother") (1800-1829), Hagerstown (1829-1830), Virginia (1830-1946)

THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH

East Virginia (1829-1834), Maryland (1829-1939), Virginia (1834-1870), North Carolina (1860-1939)

THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH

INDEPENDENT CONFERENCE

Baltimore (1861-1866)

THE METHODIST CHURCH

Virginia (1939-1968), Washington (1939-1965), Delaware (1939-1965), East Tennessee (1939-1965), North Carolina-C.J. (1939-1965), North Carolina-Virginia (1965-1968)

THE EVANGELICAL UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH

Virginia (1946-1968), Central Pennsylvania (1948-1964), Susquehanna (1964-1968)

THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Virginia-M (1968-1970), Virginia-E (1968-1970), Susquehanna (1968-1969)

Virginia was the scene of the ministries of many of the pioneers of the Methodist and United Brethren churches, most notably among them Francis Asbury, one of the first two Methodist bishops; William Watters, Methodism's first Native American minister; Philip William Otterbein, bishop and leader in the founding of the United Brethren in Christ; and Christian Newcomer, United Brethren pioneer in Virginia and later bishop.

Twenty bishops of the denominations now comprising the United Methodist Church were born within the bounds of the Virginia Conference. They are: William McKendree, Enoch George, John Early, Samuel Hiestand, Beverly Waugh, David S. Doggett, William Taylor, John C. Granbery, William W. Duncan, James W. Hott, Collins Denny, William B. Beauchamp, Paul B. Kern, Paul Neff Garber, Edgar A. Love, Walter C. Gum, Carlton P. Minnick, Jr., R. Kern Eutsler, H. Hasbrouck Hughes, Jr., and Timothy W. Whitaker.

SOME LANDMARK DATES OF THE CONFERENCE

November 14, 1772: Missionary work carried on during 1772 in Southern Virginia by Robert Williams, William Watters and Joseph Pilmoor results in organizing, in Portsmouth, what is now Monumental Church, the oldest church now in existence in the Conference.

May 19, 1778: The Sixth American Methodist Conference held in Leesburg.

May 13, 1781: Harry Hosier preaches first recorded Methodist sermon by a Negro, at Fairfax Chapel in Falls Church.

May 1, 1785: First Session of the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church held at home of William Mason in Brunswick County.

1792: Virginia was the center of the first schism of American Methodism, led by James O'Kelley, a member of the Virginia Conference. It resulted in the formation of the Republican Methodists, now a part of the United Church of Christ.

March 29, 1827: First native American itinerant, William Watters, died at his home in McLean.

May 1, 1846: First General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, met at Union Street Church, Petersburg.

November, 1870: Virginia Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church merged with the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Lynchburg.

October 16, 1939: Virginia Conference of The Methodist Church organized, including all or parts of nine previous conferences, at Richmond.

June 10, 1968: Virginia Conference and North Carolina-Virginia Conference, formerly of The Methodist Church, are merged to form the Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church, at Richmond.

January 3, 1970: Present Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church organized at Madison College, Harrisonburg.

THE NUMBERING OF CONFERENCE SESSIONS

The Virginia Conference was organized in May of 1785. That was its first session. It was one year old at its second session in 1786, and so on, so that its age would always be one less than the number of that year's session. Then, two annual sessions were held in April and December of 1791 and in January and November of 1841, so that in 2021, the 239th annual session, the conference was 235 years old.

Independent Auditors' Report

Council on Finance and Administration
The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church
Glen Allen, VA

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church (a division of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to the Financial Statements

1. Organization and Nature of Activities

The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church (Central Treasury) is a division within the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church (Conference). The Central Treasury receives and disburses, in accordance with the actions of the Conference, remittances from local church treasurers for all duly authorized general, jurisdictional, Conference, and district causes. It also implements administrative and fiscal policies and procedures as directed by the Council of Finance and Administration.

The purpose of the Council on Finance and Administration is to develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures and management services for the Annual Conference.

The purpose of the Conference is to coordinate the relationship between the general program boards and commissions and the conference, districts, and Virginia United Methodist churches.

These financial statements include only the accounts of the Central Treasury and are not intended to present the financial position and results of the whole Conference.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Classes of net assets

The financial statements of the Central Treasury have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("U.S. GAAP"), which require the Central Treasury to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to the following net asset classifications:

Net assets without donor restrictions: Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and may be expended for any purpose in performing the primary objectives of the organization. These net assets may be used at the discretion of the Central Treasury's management and the Council on Finance and Administration for use in the Central Treasury's operations.

Net assets with donor restrictions: Net assets subject to stipulations imposed by donors and grantors. Some donor restrictions are temporary in nature; those restrictions will be met by actions of the Central Treasury or by the passage of time. Other donor restrictions are perpetual in nature, whereby the donor has stipulated the funds be maintained in perpetuity.

Revenues and support are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions unless use of the related assets is limited by donor-imposed restrictions. Expenses are reported as decreases in net assets without donor restrictions. Gains and losses on investments and other assets or liabilities are reported as increases or decreases in net assets without donor restrictions unless their use is restricted by explicit donor-imposed stipulation or by law. Expirations of restrictions on net assets with donor restrictions (i.e., the donor stipulated purposes have been fulfilled and/or the stipulated time period has elapsed) are reported as reclassifications between the applicable classes of net assets.

Notes to Financial Statements

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expense during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents includes items such as short-term, highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less at the date of purchase.

Investments

All investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values are valued at fair value as determined by the investment management firm holding the assets. Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Unrealized gains and losses are recognized in the period in which they occur. Interest and dividends are recognized in the period earned, and realized gains or losses on securities are recorded in the period of sale.

Church receivables and bad debts

Church receivables are reported at their estimated realizable value, net of an estimated allowance for doubtful accounts. The allowance is based on management's estimate of the amount of receivables that will actually be collected. It is the Central Treasury's policy to charge off uncollectable accounts receivable when management determines the receivable will not be collected. As of December 31, 2020 and 2019, management determined that no allowance was necessary.

Loans receivable

Loans receivable are stated at their principal amount outstanding less the related allowance for loan losses and are collateralized by buildings and land. Interest rates on loans are subject to review and adjustment on a periodic basis.

Allowance of loan losses

The allowance for doubtful loans is maintained at a level that, in management's judgment, is adequate to absorb probable loan losses. The amount is based upon an analysis of the loan portfolio by management including, but not limited to, review of the collectability of the loan portfolio, adverse situations that may affect the borrower's ability to repay, estimated value of any underlying collateral and prevailing economic conditions. The analysis is also based on a periodic review of payments and other factors based on the Central Treasury's historical experiences. To date, no loans have been in arrears or default and no loan has required modification to acclimate to a borrower's adverse circumstances or ability to repay. This process is based on estimates and ultimate losses may vary from current estimates. As changes in estimates occur, adjustments to the level of the allowance are recorded in the provision for loan losses in the period in which they become known. In addition, the net realizable value of the property serving as collateral for delinquent loans will be assessed on an annual basis.

A loan is considered impaired when, based upon current information and events, it is probable that the Central Treasury will be unable to collect all amounts due according to the contractual terms of the loan agreement. Loans are classified as delinquent when payments are 30 days overdue. Loans will continue to accrue interest when a loan is delinquent; however, all accrued interest may be included in the allowance for doubtful loans. Payments for delinquent or impaired loans are treated as a payment of interest due until all accrued interest has been paid. Interest income on delinquent loans is recognized according to the original amortization schedule (accrual method). The accrual of interest income is discontinued when, in management's judgment, the scheduled interest may not be collectible within the stated term of the loan. Interest income is recognized on a cash basis for loans classified as nonaccrual loans, with subsequent payments applied first to interest and fees, if any, and then to principal. Loans classified as nonaccrual loans are returned to accrual status when all the principal and interest amounts contractually due are brought current and future payments are reasonably assured. At December 31, 2020 and 2019, the Central Treasury has no loans it considered impaired. As a result, management has elected not to record an allowance for loan losses.

The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost or the estimates fair value at the date of contribution. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over estimated useful lives as follows:

Buildings and improvements	15 - 40 years
Furniture, fixtures, and equipment	5 - 7 years
Computer equipment and software	3 - 5 years

Maintenance, repairs, and minor renewals are expensed when incurred. When property and equipment are sold or otherwise disposed of, the asset account and related accumulated depreciation account are relieved, and any gain or loss is included in the current year's operations.

The Central Treasury reviews its long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to undiscounted expected cash flows. Future events could cause the Central Treasury to conclude that impairment indicators exist and that long-lived assets may be impaired. To date, no impairment losses have been recorded.

Recognition of contributions

Revenue recognition

Revenues accounted for under Topic 606 include registrations and administrative service fees. The nature of the Central Treasury's exchange contracts generally do not include variable consideration that require significant judgments to estimate the transaction price or related constraints due to risk of significant reversal.

Registrations

The Central Treasury organizes and hosts various events and trainings for United Methodist churches and members. Fees are charged to attendees at the time of registration. In some cases, the Central Treasury may receive payment prior to the recognition of revenue. These contract liabilities are reported as unearned revenue on the statements of financial position. Revenue is recognized at a point in time, upon completion of the event.

Administrative services revenue

The Central Treasury provides accounting and bookkeeping services for various related and affiliated entities. The Central Treasury bills these entities in equal monthly installments based upon the annual agreed upon fee. As the Central Treasury has agreed to perform these activities throughout the year, revenue is recognized over time, ratably per month. As this recognition corresponds with billings, there are no amounts recorded as contract liabilities or assets related to administrative services revenue. Administrative services revenue is included in miscellaneous program income on the accompanying statements of activities.

The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church

Notes to Financial Statements

Subscription and advertising

The Central Treasury produced a monthly publication to which individuals could subscribe for an annual fee. Payment for these subscriptions was received in full at the start of an individual's subscription, which was offered in one, two, and three-year increments. Upon receipt of funds, unearned revenue was recorded. As the monthly publications were issued, the Central Treasury recorded revenue over time, ratably per month as each magazine was published. This publication was discontinued at the end of 2019 and therefore there is no unearned subscription revenue recorded at December 31, 2020 or 2019.

Advertising revenue was earned from various other church related organizations which advertised within this monthly publication. Revenue was recognized when the publication was mailed to subscribers. Subscription and advertising revenue was included in other income on the accompanying statement of activities.

The following table disaggregates the Central Treasury's revenue based on the timing of satisfaction of performance obligations for the years ended December 31:

Over time	$ 133,807	$ 155,317
Point-in-time	166,836	275,906
	$ 300,643	$ 431,223

Performance obligations

For registration revenue, the Central Treasury's obligation is completed at the time of the event.

For performance obligations related to administrative services revenue, completion of the Central Treasury's obligation occurs over time throughout the term of the agreements. The Central Treasury uses the output method measured by a month of service delivered compared to the total months agreed to under the contract to recognize revenue over time.

Income taxes

The Central Treasury is a division of the Conference, which is a not-for-profit organization and is exempt from federal and state income taxes under Internal Revenue Code, Section 501(c)(3) and the tax statutes of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements.

Reclassifications

Certain items from the prior year financial statements have been reclassified to conform to current year presentation. Such reclassifications had no effect on change in net assets or ending net assets.

Advertising costs

Advertising costs are expensed when incurred. Advertising costs were $384 and $1,673 for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively.

Concentration

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Central Treasury to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of investments and cash. The Central Treasury places its investments and its cash and cash equivalents with creditworthy institutions and diversifies its holdings among entities, thereby limiting the amount of credit exposure to any one entity. As of December 31, 2020, the Central Treasury had $2,633,612 of cash deposits in excess of federally insured limits being held by a federally insured financial depository institution.

The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church

The Central Treasury's investments, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit and overall market volatility risks. In addition, due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the statements of financial position.

Functional expenses

The Central Treasury allocates its expenses on a functional basis among its program and supporting services. Expenses that can be identified with a specific program or supporting service are allocated directly. Other expenses that are common to several functions are allocated between program and administrative expenses based on an estimate of time expended. The Central Treasury has no fundraising expenses.

New accounting pronouncements

In August 2018, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2018-13, Fair Value Measurement (Topic 820): Disclosure Framework-Changes to the Disclosure Requirements for Fair Value Measurement. The ASU removes, modifies, and adds certain disclosures required under Topic 820, Fair Value Measurement. The ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019, with early adoption permitted. The amendments to disclosure requirements on changes in unrealized gains and losses, the range and weighted average of significant observable inputs used to develop Level 3 fair value measurements, and the narrative description of measurement uncertainty should be applied prospectively. All other amendments should be applied retrospectively to all periods presented. The Central Treasury has adopted this guidance for the year ended December 31, 2020. The adoption of this ASU did not have a impact on the Central Treasury's financial statements.

Subsequent events

In preparing these financial statements, the Central Treasury has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through January 11, 2022, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

3. Availability and Liquidity

The following represents the Central Treasury's financial assets at December 31:

Notes to Financial Statements

The Central Treasury's policy is to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures and other obligations come due. Included in the available financial assets shown above are board-designated funds totaling approximately $1.1 million of net assets at December 31, 2020 that would require approval by the Council on Finance and Administration to be made available.

4. Investments

Investments are carried at fair value and consist of the following at December 31:

	2020		2019
	Amortized Cost	Fair Value	Amortized Cost	Fair Value
Alternative investments	$ 4,796,910	$ 6,400,627	$ 4,988,613	$ 6,243,417

Investment income consisted of the following for the years ended December 31:

	2020	2019
Interest and dividend income	$ 205,112	$ 247,104
Realized and unrealized gains	348,912	649,345
Investment management fees	(25,589)	(27,146)
Investment income, net	$ 528,435	$ 869,303

Alternative investments are valued using the practical expedient at the Central Treasury's pro-rata interest in the net assets of these entities. Investments held by these entities are valued at prices which approximate fair value. The fair value of certain investments in the underlying entities, which may include private placements and other securities for which values are not readily available, are determined in good faith by the investment advisors of the respective entities and may not reflect amounts that could be realized upon immediate sale, nor amounts that may be ultimately realized. Net asset valuations are provided daily, monthly, or quarterly by these entities. Appreciation of investments in these entities is net of all allocations to the investment advisors. The Central Treasury invests for the long-term, guided by its investment policy which reflects its macroeconomic views and expectations regarding the drivers of future economic growth.

5. Funds Held by United Methodist Church

Funds held by United Methodist Church is comprised of funds collected to establish an education fund named the Francis Asbury Fund. The United Methodist Church, through its General Board of Higher Education, controls the investments and directs the use of the funds, which are used primarily for extending Francis Asbury Educational Loans to qualifying United Methodist students. At December 31, 2020 and 2019, the fund had loans outstanding of $436,721 and $501,016, respectively. Loan terms require payment of principal and interest (at 4%) within six years of graduation or withdrawal.

6. Property and Equipment

Major classes of property and equipment consist of the following at December 31:

	2020	2019
Land	$ 793,019	$ 793,019
Buildings	5,132,247	5,132,247

Property and equipment, net	$ 4,117,383	$ 4,298,757

7. Loans Receivable

Loans receivable consist of the following as of December 31:

	2020	2019
Arlington District	$ -	$ 479,900
Charlottesville District	129,728	140,728
	$ 129,728	$ 620,628

The Church Development Team of the Conference makes loans to districts of the Conference for acquisitions and improvements. The loan due from the Charlottesville District is non-interest bearing and there is no set maturity date. The loan due from the Arlington District bears a 5.25% interest rate with interest only payments beginning January 1, 2020. The loan was paid in full before December 31, 2020.

The Central Treasury provides an allowance for doubtful collections that is based upon a review of outstanding receivables, historical collection information, and existing economic conditions. Delinquent receivables are written off based on individual credit evaluation and specific circumstances of the borrower. No allowance for doubtful collections is deemed necessary by management as of December 31, 2020 and 2019.

8. Payroll Protection Program Loan

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security (CARES) Act was signed into law on March 27, 2020. The CARES Act provides for the establishment of the Payroll Protection Program (PPP), a new loan program under the Small Business Administration's 7(a) program providing loans to qualifying businesses. Additionally, loans originated under this program may be forgiven, in whole or in part, if certain criteria are met.

The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church

Notes to Financial Statements

In May 2020, the Central Treasury received PPP loans totaling $682,160 which were accounted for in accordance with ASC Topic 470, Debt. In order to be forgiven, funds from these loans may only be used to satisfy payroll costs, costs used to continue health care benefits, mortgage payments, rent, utilities, and interest on certain other debt obligations. The Central Treasury believes it has used the proceeds of the loan for qualifying expenses under the PPP, prepared a forgiveness calculation, and submitted an application of forgiveness to its lender. On September 26, 2021, the Central Treasury received a notice of Paycheck Protection Program forgiveness payment from the Small Business Administration approving forgiveness of the entire loan balance. At December 31, 2020, the Central Treasury has elected to classify the outstanding balance of the loan as a current liability in the accompanying statement of financial position given it has received forgiveness subsequent to year-end.

9. Commitments

At December 31, 2020, the Church Development Team of the Conference has committed grants to churches for approximately $822,000 in connection with the Church Development Team Church Extension and Development Fund, which will be funded with Central Treasury assets.

10. Retirement Plans

Ministerial and lay employees of the Conference are eligible to participate in pension plans offered by the United Methodist Church through Wespeth, Inc. Conference clergy members and local pastors under Episcopal appointment are eligible for pension coverage under the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP).

In addition to the CRSP, certain ministerial employees are provided disability and death benefits as well as certain minimum benefits related to pension coverage through participation in the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP).

CRSP and CPP are defined contribution plans which currently encourage a one percent employee contribution and call for a 16.4 percent employer contribution (12 percent for CRSP and 4.4 percent for CPP). The contribution is limited to approximately $66,300 of employee wages. CRSP and CPP pension expense for the Central Treasury amounted to approximately $361,619 and $388,000 for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively.

Conference lay employees are eligible for pension coverage under the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP). UMPIP is a defined contribution plan which calls for a nine percent employer contribution but does not currently call for an employee contribution. UMPIP pension expense for the Central Treasury amounted to approximately $112,271 and $103,015 for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively.

The Central Treasury holds congregation savings certificates with the Virginia United Methodist Development Company in the amount of $2,033,960 and $2,261,257 at December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively. These savings certificates earned $11,141 and $32,401 during the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively.

13. Richmond Area Episcopal Fund

Historically, the Richmond Area Episcopal Fund (Episcopal Fund), which operates the Bishop's office for the United Methodist Church for the Richmond area, has operated separate from the Central Treasury. Effective January 1, 2020, those charged with governance of the Episcopal Fund contributed the net assets of the Episcopal Fund to the Central Treasury to operate as a fund within the Central Treasury. As no consideration was transferred in exchange for these net assets, the Central Treasury has recorded a contribution of $119,959, which represents the fair value of assets received. As these funds are restricted for the purposes of the Episcopal Fund, this has been reported on the statement of activities as a contribution with donor restrictions.

The financial activity of the Episcopal Fund is recorded in the Central Treasury's financial statements; however, as requested by the General Council on Finance and Administration (GCFA), the table below represents the transactions of the Episcopal Fund during the year ended December 31, 2020:

Beginning Episcopal Fund net assets, January 1, 2020	$ 119,959
Income:
GCFA quarterly allowance	75,471
Central Treasury support	26,500
GCFA expense reimbursement	8,231
Interest income	119
Total income	110,321
Expenses:
Personnel	77,769
Travel	8,196
Rent and occupancy	15,600
Office expenses	8,974
Audit	2,900
Total expenses	113,439
Change in net assets	(3,118)
Ending Episcopal Fund net assets, December 31, 2020	$ 116,841

Central Treasury support is eliminated as interfund activity in the overall financial statements.

XVIII. STATISTICAL TABLES

For the year JANUARY 1, 2020, through DECEMBER 31, 2020
DAVID DOMMISSE, Conference Statistician

Each of these tables, based on the pastors' reports, has been carefully proofread. In those dealing with finances, there are a number of instances in which amounts reported by several churches within a charge do not add up to the total which is given. In most of these cases, the total was changed on the original statistical sheets to correspond to the amount actually received by the conference treasurer. Differences in financial totals listed and those of the conference treasurer are due to payments made in fractions of dollars, whereas statisticians calculate to the nearest dollar. For questions concerning the statistical tables, contact the conference statistician, David Dommis, P.O. Box 5606, Glen Allen, VA 23058; by phone at (804) 521-1109 or via email at DavidDommis@vaumc.org.
