V. DAILY PROCEEDINGS
240th Session
The Virginia Annual Conference
Hampton Roads Convention Center | Hampton, Virginia
June 16-18, 2022

Prior to the opening of the Annual Conference, the Cabinet held a Question and Answer session in regards to the District Initiative in Halls B and C. The Virginia Annual Conference opened in the Hampton Roads Convention Center with the Clergy Executive Session in Ballrooms D, E, F and G and the Laity Session in Halls B and C.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 16, 2022
CLERGY EXECUTIVE SESSION

At 10:27 AM, Bishop Sharma D. Lewis, resident bishop of the Richmond Episcopal Area, announced that there were many clergy that still had not yet registered. And so, to keep us orderly, we will postpone the beginning of our session to 11:00 AM. Bishop Lewis called the Clergy Executive Session to order at 11:01 AM. She welcomed the members of the clergy session. Bishop Lewis announced that Rev. Jessie Colwell, Director, Center for Clergy Excellence, will not be able to be with us for family reasons and thanked Rev. Crystal Sygeel, Associate Director for Call and Candidacy, Center for Clergy Excellence, for filling in for her. Bishop Lewis encouraged, in the midst of the disaffiliation and withdrawal of members from The United Methodist Church, that the clergy continue to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Bishop Lewis announced that we will be having a Jurisdictional Conference this year and that we will have the opportunity to “reaffirm” Rev. Tom Berlin, Floris UMC, Arlington District, as an Episcopal Candidate in the Annual Conference session later this Saturday. Bishop Lewis Page recognized those retiring, the incoming classes of ordinands and the Center for Clergy Excellence.

Opening worship was led by the chairs of Orders: Rev. Lyndsie Blakely, Chair, Order of Deacons; Rev. Gary Miller, Chair, Fellowship of Associate Members and Local Pastors; and Rev. Darcey Johnson, Chair, Order of Elders. Music was provided by Rev. Drew Willson. Rev. Johnson shared a message from the scriptures Isaiah 6:1-8 and Luke 9:1-6, “Preparing to Reaffirm Our Ministry.” Rev. Johnson shared a message which reflected upon the meaning of our calling that had begun with baptism. The sign language interpreters for the session were Ms. Elaine Hernandez and Ms. Virginia Bryant. Marshals were Rev. Alan Combs, Full Membership; Rev. Christian White, Provisional Membership; Rev. Brian Johnson, Licensed Local Pastors; Rev. MiKang Kim, Other Fellowship.

Bishop Lewis introduced Rev. Tammy Estep, Chair, Board of Ordained Ministry, to lead us through the Minute Questions. Rev. Estep shared that the candles would remain lit as a reminder of God’s presence during our time of Holy Conferencing. She referred to the printed booklet of Minute Questions and the addendum sheet and pointed out the page for submitting corrections. She noted which clergy and lay have voice and vote in the clergy session.

Rev. Estep made the motion for the bar of the clergy session to be set as ballrooms D and E. The motion was seconded and was approved. Rev. Estep moved that staff members for the bishop and from the Center for Clergy Excellence, the sign language interpreters, diaconal ministers, Mr. Scott Diamond, Chair, Rules Committee, Mr. Michael Wagner Diggs, professional parliamentarian, and Mr. Steven Brown, Conference Chancellor, be admitted into the clergy session with voice but without vote and to admit our safety officer without voice or vote. The motion was approved.

Rev. Estep led the members in the presentation of the Minute Questions. The entire printed booklet of Minute Questions, with additions and corrections distributed separately, was presented in an itemized manner. Bishop Lewis asked the historic questions of those persons who were to be ordained. Candidates for commissioning, ordination, recognition of orders and transfer into the conference from other denominations were presented and approved. Persons receiving their first appointment as local pastors in all categories were invited to the platform to be recognized by the members with the following corrections: Elaine Brown was added to the list of those being licensed for the first time not listed in the Minute Questions nor the addendum. Appropriate recognition was given to all persons being received into a new relationship with the Annual Conference at the current session. All retirees were asked to stand and be recognized.

All other Minute Questions were passed with the required majorities as written in the Clergy Session booklet and addendum, with the following corrections: Minute Question 71.a add Justin Hicks; Minute Question 71.b add Carla J. Warnick PL.

Rev. Estep asked the Board of Ordained Ministry to stand and thanked the Board for their work over the past year. She thanked the staff of the Center for Clergy Excellence: Rev. Jessie Colwell, Rev. Crystal Sygeel and Ms. Sherry MacLaughlin. Bishop Lewis closed with remarks from Ecclesiastes 3 and reminded the clergy that there is a time for everything. She recognized the varied responses to the announcement of the launch of the Global Methodist Church. Bishop Lewis asked clergy to allow congregations the space to pray and discern their own futures and she plans to share the same message with the laity later this week. Bishop Lewis announced that many clergy have been recently diagnosed with COVID-19 and lifted them up in prayer.

Bishop Lewis dismissed the Clergy Executive Session at 12:40 PM.

LAITY SESSION

The Laity Session began with gathering music led by the Worship Team from Christ United Methodist Church in Fairfax Station, Alexandria District. The meeting was opened by Ms. Martha Stokes, Conference Lay Leader, at 10:45 AM.

Ms. Stokes welcomed the laity and recognized the District Lay Leaders. After brief announcements, Mr. Abebayo Ogungbade, Ramsey Memorial UMC, Richmond District, offered an opening prayer.

Ms. Stokes introduced the keynote speaker for the Laity Session, Ms. Kay Kotan, a wellknown author, coach and consultant. Her presentation focused on the call and mobilization of laity for the future church. Ms. Kotan closed the session with these words from John Wesley and a prayer that it may be so for this current season:

“I continue to dream and pray about a revival of holiness in our day that moves forth in mission and creates authentic community in which each person can be unleashed through the empowerment of the Spirit to fulfill God’s creational intentions.”

The Christ Church Worship Team sent the laity out with a closing song. Ms. Stokes dismissed those gathered at 12:05 PM.

The sign language interpreters for this session were Ms. Lindsey Bomba-Holcomb and Ms. Amanda Reilly.

PLENARY SESSION

Bishop Sharma D. Lewis, resident bishop of the Richmond Episcopal Area, called the first plenary of the 240th Session of the Virginia Annual Conference to order at 2:05 PM.

Mr. Gerald Ricks, Prince Frederick, Maryland (National City Christian Church) and House Band (Dr. Rod Vester, Winchester, Virginia - Shenandoah University; Jerome Stephens, Decatur, Georgia–Antioch Lithonia Baptist Church; Antonio Bush, Memphis, Tennessee; Johnny Lindsay Jr., Leesburg, Virginia–Maple Street Baptist Church; Ashley Herring, Atlanta, Georgia–Elizabeth Baptist Church; Tasheina Canty White, Statesboro, Georgia–Magnolia Baptist Church & Mt. Moriah Baptist Church; Lucan James Jr., Marietta, Georgia - Shiloh Seventh Day Adventist Church) led the members and guests in singing the Charles Wesley hymn, “And Are We Yet Alive.” This hymn has been sung by persons gathering for holy conferencing since the beginning of the Wesleyan movement. Rev. James B. Godwin Sr., Retired Elder, Rappahannock River District, and Mr. Luke Batarseh, Dulin UMC, Arlington District, opened the Annual Conference in prayer. This was Rev. Godwin’s 73rd year as a member of the Annual Conference and Mr. Batarseh’s first Annual Conference.

Bishop Lewis then led our Conference in a time of worship. She preached a sermon titled, “It’s Necessary,” that was based on the scripture, John 4:24. If there was ever a time for worship, in all that is happening in our world, that time is now, and it is necessary. The liturgists were: Rev. James B. Godwin Sr., Retired Elder, Rappahannock River District; Mr. Luke Batarseh, Dulin UMC, Arlington District; Rev. Donald Williams, Remington UMC, Rappahannock River District; Rev. Sung Yoo, Granbery Memorial UMC, Staunton District.

Bishop Lewis formally welcomed and thanked members of the Annual Conference Planning Committee, and its Chair, Rev. Eric Vaudt, Fox Hill Central UMC, York River District, for their preparatory work. Bishop Lewis shared words of appreciation for the York River District and Mr. Gerald Ricks and the House Band. Bishop Lewis also expressed appreciation to Mr. Neal Wise, Conference Meeting Planner, and Rev. Steven Summers, Director of Connectional Ministries; and to Mr. Scott Diamond, Chair, Conference Rules Committee, and Mr. Michael Wagner-Diggs, Professional Parliamentarian, for serving as parliamentarians as well as other Rules Committee members for assisting. Bishop Lewis thanked Rev. Joshua King, Conference Secretary, and Ms. Martha Stokes, Conference Lay Leader.

Bishop Lewis recognized York River and Rappahannock River District Superintendent Rev. Charles Ledlum-Bates who welcomed the assembly to Hampton and the York River District. Rev. He acknowledged the retired Virginia Conference bishops and their spouses: Bishop Ray and Ms. Martha Chamberlain; Bishop C. P. Minnick; Bishop H. Hasbrouck and Ms. Mera Hughes; Bishop Tim and Ms. Melba Whitaker; and Bishop Young Jin and Rev. Kiok Cho. None of the Bishops were able to be present. Rev. Ledlum-Bates moved to establish the bar of the conference as consisting of the platform and all seats in the hall with the exception of the first three rows in the front right section and the two sections in the rear right of the hall marked with orange flags and orange tape. Be it further resolved that the technical and camera platforms be considered part of the bar. The motion was approved.

Rev. Ledlum-Bates moved that the agenda be approved as printed on pages six through eight of the Book of Reports with the addition of the election of our Episcopal nominee during the Saturday morning session. The motion was approved. Bishop Lewis recognized Rev. Joshua King, Conference Secretary, who moved the election of Rev. According to Conference Rules, removal of an individual item from the Consent Agenda requires 30 signatures accompanying the request. Motion forms to request removal of items from the Consent Agenda are at the front of the stage and must be returned to the “secretarial inbox” at the corner of the stage by the established deadline.

Rev. King reminded the members to bring to the secretary’s desk a written copy of all motions made from either the podium or the floor or they may be emailed to Motion@vaumc.org after the motion has been officially made.

Rev. King also announced that those sitting in a section with yellow tape around it should please wear a mask.

Ms. Martha Stokes, Conference Lay Leader, presented the Laity address to the Annual Conference. Ms. Stokes focused on the word “voice” as she spoke about losing one’s voice, sometimes accidentally and other times on purpose. She quoted Psalm 137 in speaking about the losing of one’s voice to sing. Ms. Stokes reminded the conference about the need to learn a new song together, that we must learn to commit to work with one another despite our differences. Ms. Stokes then sang with the House Band, “Lo, How a Rose E’er Blooming.”

Mr. Scott Diamond, Chair, Rules Committee, presented the report of the Rules Committee located on page 37 with recommendations on pages 37-39, Book of Reports. Grace Han, Trinity UMC, Alexandria District, preached on the theme, "There is a Balm in Gilead," based on Jeremiah 8:18-9:1. Her message asked the question, "What does it mean to remember in a season of grief and loss?" and proclaimed, "just as God's presence was a balm for the people of Israel, God's presence is still a balm for us today."

Following the message, Bishop Lewis led the assembly in the Blessing of the Seeds for the families of the deceased. After the blessing Mr. Gerald Ricks and House Band sang "There is a Balm".

Mr. Gerald Ricks and House Band led the music. The liturgists were: Rev. Ileana Rosario, Benn's UMC, York River District, and Rev. Marcus Stallworth, Mathew's Chapel UMC, York River District. Lisa Greenwood, Vice President for Leadership Ministry for the Texas Methodist Foundation, guest of the Virginia Annual Conference. Rev. Greenwood quoted Walter Brueggemann who wrote that "The church has to invite people to think about and experiment with the fact that neighborly relations are not the pursuit of commodity, they are the goal of our life." She proclaimed the importance of inviting people to entertain an alternate mindset and culture in the church.

Bishop Sharma D. Lewis, resident bishop of the Richmond Episcopal Area, called the Annual Conference to order at 9:08 AM.

Bishop Lewis spoke to the power of prayer. Rev. Kimberly Barker-Brugman, Lawrenceville UMC, Farmville District, then led the annual conference in prayer.

Bishop Lewis then returned to the postponed cabinet motion from the afternoon session of June 16, 2022, "Rev. Bates moved that the number of districts for the Virginia Conference be set by the Annual Conference to eight (8), effective July 1, 2022." This motion was debated. The question was called by Ms. Cindy Martin, Cave Spring UMC, Roanoke District, and was approved. Rev. Bates, Dean of the Cabinet, asked Rev. Charles Ledlum Bates, Rappahannock River and York River District Superintendent, to pray before the assembly voted on the District Initiative motion. The motion was approved.

Rev. Rob Vaughn, Community of Faith UMC, Arlington District, moved to suspend the rules to return to the Cabinet report to receive a motion. It was seconded. The motion passed by 2/3 vote.

Rev. Vaughn moved that the Virginia Annual Conference petition the Judicial Council for the following declaratory decisions:

- 1) Request for a Declaratory Decision from the Virginia Annual Conference on the Meaning, Effect and Application of Paragraph 362.1(e) and Paragraph 2701.5 and Paragraph 2704.2 and Paragraph 2706.5, in determining if, and under what circumstances, the supervisory process can be extended beyond the 90-day limit of Paragraph 362.1(e), as well as what role a bishop has in facilitating a timely resolution of a complaint, as well as what role a bishop has in bringing about a just resolution after the matter has been referred to the counsel for the church as a judicial complaint, and whether the complainant and respondent and counsel for the church may reach a just resolution without the bishop's involvement.
- 2) Request for a Declaratory Decision from the Virginia Annual Conference on the meaning, effect, and application of Paragraph 362.1, in determining the permissibility of a bishop, having received a signed written complaint, to solicit a second complaint on the same matter from a different complainant, as well as whether the complaint may be continued even after the original complainant withdraws that complaint.
- 3) Request for a Declaratory Decision from the Virginia Annual Conference on the meaning, effect and application of Paragraph 362.1, in determining the proper course for remediation when the process outlined in the Book of Discipline is not followed, and whether the annual conference may have some way to intervene along the lines of Judicial Council Memorandum 1189, which states in part, "In instances where appropriate process were not observed, the annual conference should consider taking appropriate steps to resolve any deviation from disciplinary process."

After consulting with Mr. Steve Brown, Chancellor, Mr. Scott Diamond, Chair, Rules Committee, and Mr. Michael Wagner-Diggs, Professional Parliamentarian, (Chancellor and Parliamentarians) Bishop Lewis "ruled that this motion falls outside the purview of this body and is affected by law and we will not be able to hear this motion. So, at this time, I would like to call Rev. Alan Layman, Chair, Minutes Committee."

Rev. Andrew Ensz, Director, Arise Campus Ministry, George Mason University, Alexandria District, raised a Point of Order "appealing the decision of the chair" and was seconded. Bishop Lewis ruled, "It is not appealable."

Another Point of Order was raised by Rev. Ryan Ware, Wesley Chapel-Rock Springs, Danville District. "The Judicial Council [being] that only parliamentary oversight the body has is to appeal the decision of the chair, therefore we need to take a vote as that has been validly brought before the body and seconded." Bishop Lewis responded that she has not made a decision that is appealable. She further stated that, "it is a hierarchy issue that law trumps parliamentary procedure."

Rev. Timothy Barth, Floral Hills-Mount Olivet Cooperative Parish, Danville District, raised a Point of Order, "According to the Book of Discipline this body does have the right to ask for a declaratory decision. There is no law on the books right now. Drew Ensz is not in a court of law. And so, this is a matter for the church to decide. And a matter for this body to discern. And to request a ruling of law, because it is not in the court system." After consulting with the Chancellor and Parliamentarians, Bishop Lewis ruled, "This is not the business of the Annual Conference." Bishop Lewis further ruled that she cannot discuss a pending complaint.

Rev. Ensz raised a Point of Order appealing the decision of the Chair and was seconded. In consultation with Chancellor and Parliamentarians, Bishop Lewis ruled again that this is not an appealable decision.

After hearing further requests for Points of Order called out, Bishop Lewis paused the session for a word of prayer. During the prayer, a gathering of people came forward in front of the stage in support of Rev. Vaughn's motion.

Following the prayer, Rev. Barth called out Point of Order three times with no response from the Chair.

Bishop Lewis stated, "at this time I understand that the group before you is in support. I would like to pray for this group and then ask this group to take a seat. We need to move on."

Rev. Barth again called out for a Point of Order with no response from the Chair.

Bishop Lewis responded with prayer.

Bishop Lewis requested the gathering in front of the stage to now disperse and requested Mr. Gerald Ricks and House Band to play music to change the atmosphere.

Rev. Barth called out Point of Order with no response from the Chair. He further shouted, "You cannot ignore a point of order!"

Rev. Tom Berlin, Floris UMC, Arlington District, appealed to the Bishop to allow the decision to go to Judicial Council,

"Bishop, we're at an important moment here and here's, part of this is it's an issue of power because it's an issue of how we understand our rules. I believe that Robert's Rules of Order allow all decisions of the chair to be appealed, and I believe a request for declaratory decision or an appeal of the decision that was shared, doesn't have anything to do with the decision of law. And so, having said that, I believe that this is all under the purview of the Annual Conference, because the complaint is in fact in the Annual Conference and Bishop, this is only our only session. So this is the only chance that these people, that Rob gets to bring a motion...(People Applaud) People please don't applaud. (Bishop Lewis: Please don't applaud.) Please do not applaud because friends were trying to resolve something. (Bishop Lewis: Do not applaud.) OK? And so, if it's not under the purview of the Annual Conference, whose purview is it under? And it's not just under the purview of the Episcopal officer, it's uh, it's of the body. And so, Bishop, the other thing I wanna say is, if this goes on to the Judicial Council, that's all that happens. Either Rob's right or he's not, and all of us trust the Judicial Council. We trust our system, Bishop. And if the Judicial Council says, 'Hey, Rob's points are correct, then we'll make a correction.' And if they say, 'no, Rob, your points are wrong.' We will then understand why, and it'll help this body to understand why. But this has been going on for years now, and this body would like to see some either, 'better understanding' or a 'resolution' and Bishop, none of us has anything to fear. And that's why I'm inviting us, I'm inviting you as the chair, to simply allow this to go to the Judicial Council. Because I think if you do, your credibility will be enhanced, our issues will feel like they've got a proper place of resolution, and our lovely United Methodist system, which we sometimes complain about, will actually work on our behalf. And that is my request to the chair, is to please allow this to go forward because none of us has anything to fear here, and all of us wants a sense of resolution. And I think this does belong to the body and I think we are in order in a parliamentary sense and I do not understand what your Chancellor and others fear. And Bishop, one last thing, I wasn't gonna stand here. But you said, 'let's pray' and the Holy Spirit brought me to this microphone. And I, I need you as my Bishop and, and as someone I respect, and as a colleague in a ministerial profession, to understand that the Holy Spirit works in that way as well."

Bishop Lewis replied, "And I do agree. Thank you for your comment."

After consulting with the Chancellor and Parliamentarians, Bishop Lewis called for a ten minute recess for further consultation.

Rev. Alphonso Irving, Agape UMC, Winchester District, called for a Point of Order and offered a word of prayer for Bishop Lewis.

Following the prayer, the assembly recessed at 10:31 AM.

Bishop Lewis called the body back to order at 10:41 AM from recess. Bishop Lewis asked the body to be seated, and those that had gathered at the front were invited to remain if they wished. Bishop Lewis explained her position that she believes she is following the Book of Discipline as she vowed to uphold it.

"Annual Conference, if we can take a seat for me to share after prayer and consultation. And for you all, if you all would still like to stand right here, you, you can or you can go back to your seat. The one thing, if you can just give me a moment. Just a moment, the one thing that I want this annual conference to know. Whether we agree or disagree, I always want to do the best. And I hope y'all really, I hope y'all really, really know that. (Clapping ensued) Please, please don't clap. I know you wanna clap, but sometimes try not to clap. I also wanna share with you. But as your Bishop, I do believe, and I took a vow, on July 16th of 2016 to follow the Book of Discipline. This denomination has been in a crossroad for years. I also want you to know that the reason why I follow the Book of Discipline, like many of you out there that are married. When you take a vow, whether things are good, bad, ugly or indifferent, you don't run from the vow. You stand up. (From the Body: Amen) You do. You stand up for the vow. The other thing that I want you all to know, and for the ones who are standing here. You may not believe this, but I know you are passionate, about full inclusion. (From the Body: No, not what it's about.) Hold on. Hold on. But what I also want you to know I'm not your enemy. As your Bishop, I'm not your enemy. First of all, I love you. And if you remember, yesterday, I asked you for forgiveness. I asked you for anything that I may have ever said or done that you disagree with, I asked you for forgiveness. So, in prayer and consultation with our parliamentarian and the Chancellor, what I wanna share with you, as your spiritual and temporal leader, I want to again, and before you say anything, just listen to me. I want again to say that I do not believe that the standing in which you have asked, I do not believe that this is properly before the business of the annual conference. But what I would like to do is that Rev. Joshua King, I would like for you to add into the records of what Rev. Vaughn has put before us. I will send Rev. Vaughn's declaratory decision to the Judicial Council, for them to decide on the standing of the three declaratory decisions. Again, what I wanna say to you, this is where we disagree, that I do not feel that this is properly before the business of the annual conference. And we will let our Judicial Council decide. I hope that you all will be in agreement with me, that we will do this. I will do this. They will take my side and look at it as we will have to prepare briefs, also they will look at Rev. Vaughn's. But what I also want to say to you again, I am not your enemy. I just wanna make sure we do things decent and in order. Amen? And can you please go back to your seats? So that we can continue with the work of our annual conference, and I'm gonna ask Rev. Alan Layman if he will come forward and that you return to your seats."

Bishop Lewis requested Rev. Alan Layman, Chair, Minutes Committee, to give the Minutes Committee Report. Rev. Layman began his report.

Rev. Rob Vaughn, Community of Faith UMC, Arlington District, raised a Point of Order. "So that the Judicial Council receives it appropriately...A declaratory decision takes a 50% vote for the motion to be put before the Judicial Council. I respectfully ask that we have a vote of the Annual Conference so that it may be rightly before them, then the Judicial Council can decide what is the right way to interpret the questionable sections of the discipline."

Bishop Lewis ruled that the Point of Order was in order and called for the vote.

The motion to request declaratory decisions was approved and the gathering in front of the stage began to disperse back to their seats.

Bishop Lewis then requested again the report of the Minutes Committee.

Rev. Alan Layman, Chair, Minutes Committee, moved the acceptance of the minutes for yesterday's Clergy Executive Session, Laity Session, the Plenary Session, and last night's Service of Remembrance. The minutes were approved.

Mr. Neal Wise, Site Selection Committee, presented the committee's report located on page 45, Book of Reports. The Site Selection Committee recommended the 2025 Annual Conference be held in Roanoke on June 12-14. The recommendation was approved.

Rev. Thomas Durrance, Chair, Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation, presented the report found on the first page of the addendum. The committee on Equitable Compensation recommended that an increase is to be made to the current Minimum Compensation Schedule for 2023. This would set the Minimum Compensation Schedule for 2023 at $45,000 for Full Connection Pastors, $40,500 for Provisional and Associate Members and $38,000 for Local Pastors. This would also set the Floor Schedule at $30,000 for Full Connection Pastors, $27,000 for Provisional and Associate Members, and $25,000 for Local Pastors. Rev. Durrance moved for the recommendation's approval. Debate ensued. The recommendation was approved.

Rev. Ryan Schaeffer, Ghent UMC, Elizabeth River District, moved to suspend the rules in order to change the standing rule that we may change the number of youth delegates and young adults from two (2) to four (4) per district.

After debate Rev. Ryan Ware, Wesley Chapel-Rock Springs, Danville District, called the question.

Rev. Victor Gomez, Harrisonburg and Winchester District Superintendent, raised a point of order that there was no second nor vote to suspend the rules. Bishop Lewis ruled that there was a second and took a vote to suspend the rules.

The vote to suspend the rules was approved.

Rev. Timothy Barth, Floral Hills-Mount Olivet Cooperative Parish, Danville District, moved to amend the motion to suspend the rules in order to change the standing rule that we may change the number of youth delegates and young adults from two to four per district. Mr. Scott Diamond, Chair, Rules Committee, asked for clarification about the ages "as the Book of Discipline states that only one youth may be a member from their district per the Book of Discipline, and one additional youth member from the conference."

Rev. Schaeffer cleared up the motion as he moved we amend standing rules I.B.3.n in order to change the standing rule that we may change the number of young adults to read "at least three (3) additional youth between the ages of 12 and 18 and at least three (3) additional young adults between 18 and 30 from each district, to be selected by the District Council on Ministries or equivalent body." This motion was seconded.

After debate, Rev. Mark Ogren, Retired Elder, Richmond District, called the question. The debate was closed by a vote in approval. The motion was approved.

Bishop Lewis moved us into a time of worship.

The morning session was dismissed at 11:36 AM in preparation for worship.

At 11:47 AM, Rev. Marcela Jarman, Sterling UMC, Arlington District, led us in the call to worship for the Mission Service. The total number of missional kits donated exceeded 18,650, an equivalent of over $298,724. In addition, a total of 12,611 pounds of food was donated. Preaching were Rev. Kendra Grimes, Chair, Missional Ministries Board, and Rev. Seungsoo (RJ) Jun, Associate Director of Serving. They together shared a message, "Mission is Relational," based on Mark 2:1-12. In comparison to those who dug through the roof to get their friend to Jesus, it was a message that we need one another in mission together.

Rev. Jim Driscoll, Chaplain, Chesapeake Regional Hospital and Special Assistant to the President of Wesley Theological Seminary, introduced Rev. David McAllister-Wilson, President, Wesley Theological Seminary, who spoke about the fund which the conference offering will be supporting. Rev. Clarence Brown, Chair, Partnerships of Hope, gave thanks to the conference for being able to make this difference through this offering. The 2022 Conference Offering was collected by the ushers and Holy Rollers, cyclists who ride to Annual Conference to raise awareness of the offering. The members of the Annual Conference gave their conference offering to benefit the following ministries: the Doctorate of Ministry Program for chaplains at Wesley Theological Seminary, whose graduates serve to nurture soldiers all over the world and Partnerships of Hope's leadership programs in Brazil, Mozambique, Cambodia, other countries, and Native Americans. Bishop Lewis offered a prayer over the offering.

The liturgists were Rev. David Magruder, Zion UMC, York River District; Rev. Marcela Jarman, Sterling UMC, Arlington District; Rev. Evelyn Penn, Bethel-Emmanuel UMC, Rappahannock River District; Ms. Kayana Cloud, Fredericksburg UMC, Rappahannock River District.

The worship service was concluded with a benediction by Rev. Grimes at 12:43 PM.

The plenary session recessed for lunch for one hour at 12:44 PM.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 17, 2022 PLENARY SESSION

At 1:48 PM, Bishop Sharma D. Lewis, resident bishop of the Richmond Episcopal Area, called the afternoon plenary session to order.

Ms. Stacey Anthony, President, Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc. (VUMPI) presented the Board's report found on pages 47-55, Book of Reports. Ms. Anthony presented five recommendations that began on page 51, Book of Reports. The preceding recommendations were presented for approval.

There was no discussion. The recommendations were approved.

Rev. Steven Summers, Director of Connectional Ministries, Chair, The Common Table for Church Vitality, presented the report of Common Table, pages 56-57, Book of Reports. Rev. Summers encouraged the reading of all the reports that fall under the umbrella of Common Table found on pages 58-93, Book of Reports. Rev. Summers stated that the Common Table continues to diligently align the ministry resources of the Annual Page 32 of 48 Conference with God's vision for us, "to be disciples of Jesus Christ who are lifelong learners who influence others to serve." Rev. Summers stated that though there are a lot of fruitful ministries happening, they are most excited about the 2021 Annual Conference approved full time staff position that is being created. This staff position will work in the areas of justice, equity, diversity, and inclusion. Common Table offers their thanks for those that have participated in the listening sessions around the hiring of this position. Rev. Summers made two recommendations, found on page 57, Book of Reports, on behalf of Common Table. After no discussion the recommendations were approved.

Rev. Summers asked Bishop Lewis for a moment of personal privilege. It was granted. Rev. Summers recognized the conference staff retirements of Mr. Bryan Compton, Manager of Technology; Ms. Brenda Capen, Webmaster/Database Manager; and Ms. Beverly Myers, Executive Assistant to the Director of Connectional Ministries; who together have a combined 81.5 years of service to the conference. Bishop Lewis offered a prayer for these staff members retiring.

Ms. Martha Stokes and Rev. Steven Summers, Co-Chairs, Conference Nominations Team, presented their report, pages 93-97, Book of Reports, and in the Addendum found in the official packet. Together, they offered for election the nominations to committees, commissions, boards and agencies of the annual conference found on pages 93-97, Book of Reports and those listed in the Addendum, and in addition the names James Hill and Cynthia Huber to the Committee on Investigation. The motion was approved without discussion.

Bishop Lewis asked all persons serving in leadership through all conference boards and agencies to stand as they were able. She prayed over the conference leadership and consecrated them for the work before them.

Bishop Lewis introduced a video presentation on behalf of Heart Havens. The video presentation was offered by Ms. Jennifer Boyden, CEO, and Ms. Rebecca Huff, COO. Ms. Boyden shared a verbal report about the ministries of Heart Havens.

Mr. Gerald Ricks and House Band led the Annual Conference in Singing Our Faith.

A service celebrating the ministry of clergy who were retiring at the 240th Session of the Virginia Annual Conference was held. They were recognized along with their spouses. Rev. Young Je Kim, Melrose UMC, Rappahannock River District, led the congregation in a call to worship to begin the service. Rev. Clarence Brown, Saint Luke's UMC, York River District, delivered a message based on Philippians chapters 2 and 4. Rev. Brown thanked the conference for allowing himself and these retirees to live life and serve alongside the many lives that have been with them and have blessed them. Rev. Brown spoke about the term "Whatever" as a sign of giving in to whatever the other wants. Rev. Brown relates this to the message the Apostle Paul writes in Philippians 4:8, "Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things." (NRSV) Bishop Lewis greeted the retirees and spouses on stage as statements from the retirees were read.

The liturgists for the service were: Rev. Young Je Kim, Melrose UMC, Rappahannock River District; Rev. Jenny Day, Dayton UMC, Harrisonburg District; Mr. John Fuller, Executive Director, Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc.; Rev. Nilse FurtadoGilliam, Clarendon UMC, Arlington District; Rev. Josh Blakely, Director of Brock Experiences, Longwood University, Farmville District.

The Passing of the Mantle was given from Rev. Sandra Stanley, Deacon Retiree Class of 2022 to Rev. Jonathan Fuller, Deacon Ordinand Class of 2022; and from Rev. B. Failes, Elder Retiree Class of 2022 to Rev. Lauren Wright, Elder Ordinand Class of 2022.

Bishop Lewis introduced Team Jeremiah and the UMC Disaffiliation Team. Bishop Lewis read from Jeremiah 29 and lifted up that God can work through any hardship. Bishop Lewis formed Team Jeremiah to meet and discuss proactive strategies and discuss the effects upon the Virginia Annual Conference in light of the 2020 postponed General Conference.

Bishop Lewis introduced the UMC Disaffiliation Team which was formed to discern and outline the process the conference will utilize from the Book of Discipline to assist congregations wishing to disaffiliate from the Annual Conference.

The membership of these two teams can be found in the Book of Reports, pages 116-117.

Bishop Lewis prayed for these teams and their work.

Rev. Kathy Gochenour, Chair, Board of Discipleship, presented the Harry Denman Evangelism Awards. The Denman Award is given to persons who are recognized by the Annual Conference for the impact their lives and personal ministry have on those around them. The Laity award recipients this year were a couple in ministry together, Mr. Earl and Ms. Geneice Kemper, Bethel UMC, Alexandria District. Their faithfulness to ministry has been made evident in how they freely share with others about the power of God. This has been most seen in their devotion to caring for a woman with many health, financial and social problems. Mr. Kemper also serves on the Board of Fauquier Community Coalition, a coalition that helps people in sub-par housing. Together they have worked on homes and have influenced others to serve with them as well. There were no nominations for the youth Denman award. The Clergy award was given to Rev. Elizabeth "Betsey" Davis, Journey UMC, Farmville District. Rev. Davis is also the Director of Journey Community Center. Through her leadership there, they have been able to offer many innovative ministries throughout this time of COVID, which included vaccine clinics, free weekly dinner, small groups, and a renovation project to a motel to create short-term housing.

Rev. Gochenour introduced Rev. Tim Hazlett, incoming Chair, Board of Discipleship. Bishop Lewis congratulated each recipient in turn and thanked Rev. Gochenour for her service.

Mr. Brian Christoffersen, Chair, Creation Justice Ministries Team, Board of Church and Society, presented the Green Church award to Ivey Memorial United Methodist Church, James River District, and their pastor, Rev. Anita Mays-Lucord. Accepting this award was Ms. Janice Ganoe. David Lord. Accepting this award was Ms. Anne Marie Smith.

Rev. Ryan LaRock, Chair, Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries, presented the Francis Asbury Award. This award goes to someone who has made significant contributions to Higher Education and Campus Ministries within our Conference. Rev. LaRock first recognized last year's award winner, Rev. Justin Allen, former Vice President of Student Life at Shenandoah University, since the Board was unable to do so in-person. This year's award was presented to Rev. Deborah Lewis, Director, Wesley Foundation at The University of Virginia.

Dr. Robert Lindgren, President, Randolph-Macon College, representing United Methodist College Presidents, recognized college presidents and our relationships with them. Our Common Table along with the Board of Ministries will be looking at future ministry opportunities. Because of this, our financial team will be looking at ways over the course of the next ten years to phase out our Virginia Higher Education Fund. Dr. Lindgren shared his great appreciation for the support of the Virginia Conference, and detailed examples of the fruitfulness of this support at numerous schools' campuses.

Bishop Lewis introduced two Relationship Partners via video presentations: Mr. Larry Dickenson, President, Virginia United Methodist Housing Development Corporation, Inc., and Rev. Seungsoo (RJ) Jun, on behalf of Wesley Housing.

Mr. Dickenson mentioned that the Virginia United Methodist Housing Development Corporation provides the needs of low-income Virginians by providing affordable housing. After 47 years since last providing a verbal report to the Annual Conference, they are now a statewide ministry providing affordable housing. They are continuously looking for sites in the Commonwealth of Virginia to develop into affordable housing.

Rev. Jun spoke on behalf of Wesley Housing and President Shelley Murphy. Wesley Housing serves more than 25,000 people in need. They can host 3,200 residents in housing. This has been done because of the work of the churches that support them.

Rev. King, Annual Conference Secretary, made the following announcements:

1. Please remove all items from seats in preparation for the evening's worship.
2. The youth delegation will be receiving an offering for the Youth Service Fund prior to Saturday morning's worship service.

5. There are graduation ceremonies in the Hampton Coliseum tonight at 7:00 PM and tomorrow at 9:00 AM. Please plan accordingly and use your green parking sheet to help guide parking attendants.

Bishop Lewis recessed the conference at 4:10 PM until Saturday at 9:15 AM for business.

Serving as American Sign Language interpreters for this session were Ms. Lindsey BombaHolcomb, Ms. Elaine Hernandez, and Ms. Christina York.

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 17, 2022 A SERVICE FOR THE ORDERING OF MINISTRY

Bishop Sharma D. Lewis, resident bishop of the Richmond Episcopal Area, presided at the Service for the Ordering of Ministry, beginning at 7:35 PM. Bishop Lewis prayed over the classes of 2020 and 2021 as they were not able to have an in-person service before the full Annual Conference for the ordering of ministry in their respective years. Bishop Lewis then called the conference to remember their baptism and be thankful. She delivered the sermon, "The Called," based on Jeremiah 1:4-10, Psalm 42, and Ephesians 4:11-13. Rev. Layman announced that the Minutes Committee would meet on June 30, 2022 at 10:00 AM to complete the review and certification of the minutes and moved that the minutes be approved as certified. The motion was approved. Rev. Layman named and thanked the Minutes Committee and Rev. Joshua King, Conference Secretary, and Rev. Claire Miller, Assistant Secretary.

Bishop Lewis announced that the Q&A Session for Team Jeremiah will be held as a Zoom webinar within the next 30 days. The date and time will be announced via the Conference Communications.

Mr. David Dommissie, Conference Statistician and Treasurer, presented the report of the statistician, page 98, Book of Reports. Mr. Dommissie reported that in the last year there were 1,251 professions of faith, 1,087 baptisms, 43,000 small group participants, 40,000 served in missions, reaching over 1,300,000 people. Financially in this last year, we have seen a total revenue increase of 0.7% in ministry. Collective church financial strength was reported as $150 million in cash reserves, $180 million in investments, and $2.2 billion in real estate. Mr. Dommissie shared the report of the Treasurer, pages 99-105, Book of Reports. There were 850 churches that paid fully their priority one apportionments and a total of 480 churches satisfied their full apportionments. The percentage of the budget collected was more than anticipated with 80.66% received. The Second Mile giving, for ministries around the world, increased this past year by more than 35% as $1,139,815 was received. The conference finished the year with $3,451,000 in unrestricted reserves which exceeded the minimum level set by CFA by more than $1.6 million. Approximately $1 million of this excess was approved to fund the potential commitment to the Boy Scout Bankruptcy Case by the Annual Conference at the Special Called Annual Conference Session in January 2022. As of this date, the judge in the bankruptcy court has not yet approved the plan. Mr. Dommissie thanked the retiring conference staff, Ms. Bev Myers and Mr. Bryan Compton, "for the years we've worked together," as well as the staff from the Treasurer's office.

Mr. William "Bill" Talley, IV, Chair, Council on Finance and Administration (CFA), recognized his team and then presented the Council's report found on pages 106-115, Book of Reports. Mr. Talley presented section one of six found on pages 106-108, Book of Reports.

Rev. Joshua McCauley, Director, Wesley Foundation at ODU, Arlington District, moved that we remove $50,000 from the legal defense fund in order to establish a children and youth fund.

Bishop Lewis ruled that this motion was out of order per Rules II.A.2.

Rev. Andrew Ware, Beech Grove UMC, Elizabeth River District, raised a Point of Order, "If this is a budget neutral request, is it then in order?"

Bishop Lewis deferred to Mr. David Dommissie who answered that this is in fact two changes to the budget and therefore still needed to be reviewed by the CFA.

Rev. Phil Woodson, Springfield UMC, Arlington District, moved that beginning in 2023, the Statistician's report, Treasurer's report, and Council on Finance and Administration Report be presented on the first day of Annual Conference.

Bishop Lewis ruled that this was not properly before the body as it needs to come during unfinished business.

Rev. McCauley moved to suspend the rules in order to move that “we remove $50,000 from the legal defense fund in order to establish a children and youth fund.”

The motion to suspend the rules did not pass.

Ms. Lori Valentine de Segovia, Main Street UMC, Staunton District, moved that the $50,000 proposed from the legal fund be considered by the district revisioning process for children/youth to be properly before the next year’s budget is finalized in accordance with the spirit. The motion was seconded.

During the debate, many people stood up pledging money to a youth fund.

Rev. Ware asked for pledges to be placed on the altar table and called the question for the Segovia motion to be voted on. This was approved.

Rev. Don Jamison, Sydenstricker UMC, Arlington District, raised a Point of Order that the Segovia motion is out of order as it is requesting money that breaches our rules as previously ruled.

Bishop Lewis ruled that this was a breach of the rules and ruled the motion out of order.

Mr. David Domnisse, Conference Treasurer, moved that CFA apply any unused funds from the legal expense budget for 2023 to be used for the youth fund.

Ms. Cynthia Huber, Mount Olivet UMC, Arlington District, raised a Point of Order stating that the motion from the conference treasurer was out of order as there was already a motion on the floor.

Bishop Lewis ruled that the previous motion from Ms. Segovia had already been ruled out of order.

Rev. Lisa Nordan, Kenwood UMC, Richmond District, called the question. It was seconded. It was approved by a 2/3 vote.

Rev. McCauley raised a Point of Order, the original intent was to ask for new initiatives, a new line item for conference to use as new initiatives for youth funds.

Bishop Lewis ruled that this was not a Point of Order, but it was taken and asked Rev. Summers to respond, which he did.

Bishop Lewis asked the youth to stand prior to the vote. The motion passed.

Section one of the CFA report was approved.

Mr. Talley then proceeded to report on sections two through six.

Rev. Jonathan Page, Herndon UMC, Arlington District, moved to amend CFA policy 5.K, found on page 115, Book of Reports, to read as follows:

“The Annual Conference shall not pay for the legal expenses for local church or district matters such as non-appointed personnel, churches seeking disaffiliation, property issues, etc., nor shall the Annual Conference pay for the legal expenses for the Annual Conference related to complaints held against clergy for performing same gender weddings.”

Bishop Lewis ruled the motion out of order. Bishop Lewis called upon Mr. Steven Brown, Chancellor, to speak as to why. Chancellor Brown stated, “The conference cannot restrict her [Bishop Lewis] ability to protect the conference from liability concerns.”

Mr. Bill Brown, St. Luke’s UMC, Richmond District, called the question to close the debate. The motion was approved by 2/3 vote.

Sections two through six were approved together.

Mr. Talley shared that CFA was asked to support the District Initiative by providing $110,000 to each district over a three-year period. CFA agreed to do this using the federal grant from the PPP loan forgiveness as well as a grant from the Southeastern Jurisdiction as the source for these funds.

Mr. Warren Harper, Head Lay Delegate, 2020 General Conference Delegation, nominated Rev. Tom Berlin, Floris UMC, Arlington District, for endorsement by the Annual Conference as a candidate for the episcopacy. Rev. Berlin was endorsed for the office of Bishop by an overwhelming majority vote from the delegation. Mr. Harper shared that Rev. Berlin’s biography is on the conference website in the official packet. Mr. Harper introduced Rev. Berlin, who recognized the 2020 Virginia Delegation and asked them to stand. He also requested that the Annual Conference pray for this delegation for wisdom to choose a leader who will lead us in this liminal time to “Make disciples of Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the World.”

Rev. Sarah Calvert, Arlington and Alexandria District Superintendent, moved that we suspend the Rules in order to vote on the endorsement, by acclamation, of Rev. Tom Berlin as the Virginia Conference’s Episcopal Nominee.

The motion to suspend the rules was approved by a 2/3 vote.

Bishop Lewis called for a show of hands to see if the body clearly met the affirmative vote of 60% or more on Rev. Berlin’s nomination as the Virginia Conference’s Episcopal Nominee.

The nomination was approved by acclamation.

Bishop Lewis then opened the floor for unfinished conference business.

Ms. Christiane Roehler, Walker Chapel UMC, Arlington District, moved that the Bishop appoint an advisory group of four to eight lay persons to make recommendations on how the Annual Conference is run with a view to make it more transparent and focused on missions. The members should be nominated by the District Superintendents and be fresh voices, i.e., who have served at district level or higher at most five years. The term should span to August 2023, and duties should include making recommendations before and a “lessons learnt” report after the 2023 Annual Conference.

Bishop Lewis ruled this motion out of order and called upon Mr. Scott Diamond, Chair, Rules Committee, to speak. Mr. Diamond shared that there are already two bodies that fulfill this requirement. Bishop Lewis called upon Rev. Summers, Chair, Common Table, to respond to the missional aspect of this motion. Rev. Summers stated that the Common Table is the appropriate body to care for this business. He shared that all are welcome to reach out to his office and also requested that everyone share their reflections of the Annual Conference with him.

Rev. Jay Carey, Farmville and James River District Superintendent, asked for a moment of personal privilege to pray for the Franklin family and all our members of the Virginia Conference who are battling COVID-19.

Rev. Rob Vaughn, Community of Faith UMC, Arlington District, presented a resolution for the Virginia Annual Conference’s support of The United Methodist Church’s Social Principle on Abortion.

Whereas, on May 2, 2022 Politico released a leaked draft opinion written by Supreme Court Justice Samuel Alito that, when it is likely passed, could effectively overturn the judicial precedent of Roe v. Wade (1973) and Planned Parenthood v. Casey (1992), and

Whereas, the judicial precedent of Roe v. Wade and Planned Parenthood v. Casey established a constitutional right to abortion that countless women have relied on since for safe, proper, and medically sound abortion procedures by certified medical providers, and

Whereas, the United Methodist Church’s social principles provides guidance on our denomination’s ethical standards regarding abortion, stating: “We recognize tragic conflicts of life with life that may justify abortion, and in such cases we support the legal option of abortion under proper medical procedures by certified medical providers.” (Book of Discipline ¶161.K), and

Whereas, our faith compels us to approach abortion with nuance and care, recognizing that absolute prohibition against abortion is not a moral stance we can support, even if we mourn the realities that lead to abortions—especially in lateterm pregnancies where clear “conflicts of life with life” emerge and,

Whereas, we also affirm from our social principles that “a decision concerning abortion should be made only after thoughtful and prayerful consideration by the parties involved, with medical, family, pastoral, and other appropriate counsel,” and that government edict is not a sufficient guide for an incredibly personal, theological, and medical decision such as this, and,

Whereas, abortion is a vital form of healthcare for all persons who have a uterus, whether they intend to give birth or not, and

Whereas, Roe v. Wade emerged in the context of a public health crisis where abortion was so unsafe that 17 percent of all deaths due to pregnancy and childbirth were the result of illegal abortions due to lack of access to medically sound abortion procedures and,

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Virginia Annual Conference re-commit to follow our Social Principles when it calls on us to “to provide nurturing ministries to those who terminate a pregnancy, to those in the midst of a crisis pregnancy, and to those who give birth” and to engage in “ministries to reduce unintended pregnancies such as comprehensive, age-appropriate sexuality education, advocacy in regard to contraception, and support of initiatives that enhance the quality of life for all women and girls around the globe,” and,

BE IT RESOLVED that we call upon the governor and general assembly members to preemptively oppose any universal ban on abortion in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Bishop Lewis interrupted the resolution and ruled it out of order as this conference previously had voted to no longer receive resolutions.

Bishop Lewis reminded the conference about the Youth Service Fund Offering at the doors.

Bishop Lewis recessed the conference at 11:27 AM to prepare for worship.

CLOSING WORSHIP

Bishop Lewis presided over the closing worship. Rev. Tizzy Von Trapp Walker, Marquis Memorial UMC, Staunton District, taught the congregation American Sign Language for the opening song, “Together We Serve”, which was then sung. Rev. Katie Phillips, Vine UMC, Arlington District, led us into worship with the call to worship. The Galilee United Methodist Church liturgical dance team gave a gift of dance. Rev. HeeWon Cho, Korean UMC of Greater Washington, Arlington District, read the scripture passage, Ephesians 2:1- 10. Rev. Steven Summers, Assistant to the Bishop and Director of Connectional Ministries, was introduced by Bishop Lewis. He began by thanking the planning committee, Rev. Eric Vaudt, Chair, Planning Committee, Ms. Beverly Myers, Executive Assistant to the Director of Connectional Ministries and Ms. Terri Biggins, Executive Assistant to the Bishop. He thanked our worship director Mr. Gerald Ricks and House Band, Mr. Neal Wise, Annual Conference Planner, and Bishop Lewis for picking this theme, and expressed thanks for all the conference staff and all those who are behind the scenes making this Annual Conference happen. Rev. Summers titled the message, "From Mess to Bless." The theme of this sermon was that the good news of Jesus Christ is always with us no matter the challenges surrounding and within us.

Rev. Summers announced that the spontaneous offering for the youth that was raised was at that time $66,200. This is an example of moving from Mess to Bless. In addition, the Annual Conference offering is currently over $125,000.

Rev. Summers concluded in his prayer that we do not get blessed, but rather that we are blessed. And quoted Jesus, "I have said this to you so that in me you may have peace. In the world you face distress, but take courage: I have conquered the world!" Amen.

The liturgists were: Rev. Katie Phillips, Rev. HeeWon Cho, Rev. Jonathan Fuller, Coordinator for Peer Leadership, Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond District. The Liturgical Dance team was provided by Aysha Conley & Galilee UMC, Rappahannock River District. The sign interpreter for instruction and practice was Rev. Tizzy von Trapp Walker.

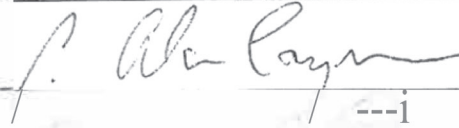

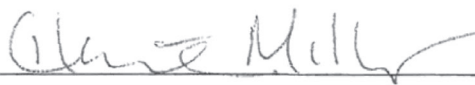

Bishop Lewis announced that the appointment listings can be found on the conference website at www.vaumc.org/2022appointments. Bishop Lewis invited the District Superintendents to present the appointments for their newly formed districts. Bishop Lewis presented the new Coastal Virginia District Superintendent, Rev. Cecelia Brooks. Rev. Seonyoung Kim, Eastern Shore and Elizabeth River District Superintendent, placed a stole on the shoulders of the newly-appointed superintendent Rev. Brooks. The appointments were fixed as presented on the website with the following correction: Rev. Jay Carey, James River District Superintendent, announced Monumental United Methodist Church of the James River District is now "TBS".

Bishop Lewis anointed with oil the District Superintendents, both new and previous. She further thanked the cabinet for their work.

With the "Sending Forth,, by Bishop Sharma D. Lewis, the 240th Session of the Virginia Annual Conference was adjourned at 12:57 PM.

American Sign Language Interpreters were Ms. Lindsey Bomba-Holcomb, Ms. Christina York, and Ms. Virginia Bryant.

We, the undersigned members of the Minutes Committee and Conference Secretaries, have read, corrected, and approve these Daily Proceedings on today's date, June 30, 2022.

VIII. REPORTS OF CONFERENCE BOARDS AND AGENCIES

COMMITTEE ON RULES

The Rules Committee of the Virginia Annual Conference met several times since the 2021 Annual Conference. We welcomed two new members and addressed numerous questions and issues presented to us from the Cabinet, other boards and committees. We have reviewed the Virginia Conference Standing Rules of Order and Procedure, and this year's proposed amendments and the rationale for each amendment follow:

RECOMMENDATIONS

Proposed amendments to the Standing Rules of Order and Procedure as recommended by the Rules Committee:

Rule 1.A.: Rule I.B.3.m and I.B.3.n : Strike the words “young person” as referenced in these subsections and in its place insert the words “youth” and “young adult” as appropriate for the referenced age groups. As amended, these subsections would read:

- m. one youth between the ages of 12 and 18 and one young adult between the ages of 18 and 30 from each district, to be selected as set forth in 2016 Book of Discipline, ¶ 602.4;
- n. one additional youth between the ages of 12 and 18 and one additional young adult between the ages of 18 and 30 from each district, to be selected by the District Council on Ministries or equivalent body.

Rationale: It was brought to our attention that the use of “young person” was repetitive and, perhaps, confusing given the different age categories covered. Our committee concurred with this assessment and further noted that the Book of Discipline at the cited paragraph uses the clarifying terms “youth” and “young adult.”

Rule I.B.3: beginning at “And by annual conference formula ...” to end – reorganize the end section of this rule for clarity. Move current Rule I.B.x and insert it in the opening clause of Rule I.B.3 so that it reads, “Lay Membership. The lay membership of the annual conference shall conform to the requirements for membership of the 2016 Book of Discipline in ¶ 602.4, and consist of the following (or designated alternate), if lay persons:”

Then, reorganize the remainder of current Rule I.B.u to I.B.w. As amended, the end of this section would read:

- u. conference scouting coordinator
- v. the president or chairperson of the following annual conference agencies: Commission on Archives and History; Board of Church and Society; Church Development Team; Commission on Disabilities; Board of Discipleship; Commission on Equitable Compensation; Commission on Ethnic Minority Concerns and Advocacy; Council on Finance and Administration; Missional Ministries Board; Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries; Board of Ordained Ministry; Rules Committee; Site Selection Committee; Commission on Status and Role of Women; Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc.; Trustees of the Virginia Annual Conference, Inc.; and Virginia Conference Board of Communications and Virginia United Methodist Foundation.
- w. And by annual conference formula to equalize the number of lay and clergy members of the annual conference (¶ 32, 2016 Book of Discipline), additional lay members to be elected by the lay members of the district conference of each district in such numbers as to provide that the total number of lay members from that district shall bear the same ratio to the total lay membership of the annual conference as the church membership of that district bears to the total church membership of the annual conference. Each district conference shall also elect alternates to those elected under this paragraph in number to equal at least one-third of the numbers provided under this subparagraph. The computations that form the basis for the determination of the additional lay membership to be elected by each district hereunder shall be based on the various membership categories as of the adjournment of the preceding annual conference. In making these computations, a lay person shall not be counted in more than one membership position. The Director of Connectional Ministries shall furnish to the Bishop by September 1 of each year the totals of each category of members together with the number of additional lay members to be elected by each district.

Rationale: To be clear, with this proposed reorganization, the Rules Committee has not removed any categories of lay membership from this section of our Standing Rules. It was felt that clarity was needed after several past amendments and additions were simply added to the end of this rule. As a result, we believe it is best to move existing Rule I.B.x to the opening paragraph of this rule as it is a defining requirement for all text that follows regarding lay membership. Next, the statement, “And by annual conference formula to equalize the number of lay and clergy members of the annual conference (¶ 32, 2016 Book of Discipline), the following: ...” should not be a standalone statement but belongs with the text that is currently at Rule I.B.3.v regarding additional lay members in order to ensure the proper conference formula to equalize the number of lay and clergy membership.

Rule I.B.5.a.i and I.B.5.a.ii: Strike the word “young persons” and in its place insert the words “youth” and “young adult” as appropriate for the referenced age groups. As amended, these subsections would read:

- i. two youth between the ages of 12 and 18;
- ii. two young adults between the ages of 18 and 30;

Rationale: This change is recommended for the same reasons as noted in the rationale for changes to Rule I.B.3.m and I.B.3.n, above.

Rule V.B.4.e: Strike from the sentence concerning ex officio members the words “an additional District Superintendent” from the roll as such a member.

Rationale: After conferring with the leadership of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries it was agreed that the one “Liaison District Superintendent” was sufficient for this ex officio role.

Rule V.C.14: In the first sentence strike the text “ ... this has been ... “ as unnecessary. In the second sentence, insert after “Book of Discipline”, the following cite (2016 BOD ¶635.2). Revise the third sentence to include new text as underlined, “The Board of Ordained Ministry shall have no more than sixty-seven (67) persons nominated by the bishop, (2016 BOD ¶635.1a) in consultation with the Board Chair and Cabinet, and elected by the annual conference at the beginning of each quadrennium. Insert a new fourth sentence as follows: “The Board shall elect from its membership officers deemed necessary to fulfill its duties (2016 BOD ¶635 1c).” In the next sentence, after the word “serve” insert “as members of” and continue the sentence. Revise the next sentence to strike the word “should” and include new text as underlined, “If during the course of the quadrennium a district loses its representation on the Board, an additional person shall be appointed ad interim to the Board by the bishop in consultation with the Board Chair and the Cabinet, ensuring inclusive representation from each district. Add the following concluding sentence, “ Ad interim members will be voted on at the next annual conference.”

As amended, Rule V.C.14 would read: Ordained Ministry – The Board of Ordained Ministry in cooperation with the General Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministries and the Common Table for Church Vitality, shall develop programs to assist districts and local churches in preparing and aiding persons to fulfill their ministry in Christ as historically understood by United Methodism. The Board of Ordained Ministry shall perform all the duties and functions as set forth in the Book of Discipline (2016 BOD ¶635.2) and shall be directly amenable to the annual conference. The Board of Ordained Ministry shall have no more than sixty-seven (67) persons nominated by the bishop, (2016 BOD ¶635.1a) in consultation with the Board Chair and Cabinet, and elected by the annual conference at the beginning of each quadrennium. The Board shall elect from its membership officers deemed necessary to fulfill its duties (2016 BOD ¶635 1c). The annual conference registrar and at least one District Superintendent appointed by the bishop shall also serve as members of the Board of Ordained Ministry. At least one person from each district shall be included on the Board. If during the course of the quadrennium a district loses its representation on the Board, an additional person shall be appointed ad interim to the Board by the bishop in consultation with the Board Chair and the Cabinet, ensuring inclusive representation from each district. Ad interim members will be voted on at the next annual conference.

Rationale: The Board of Ordained Ministry requested these changes in order to provide clarity to this rule.

Rule V.C.20: In the second sentence strike “one representative” and insert “up to two representatives.” As amended, this sentence would read “The membership shall consist of up to two representatives from each district plus six persons at large elected by the annual conference.”

Rationale: The Commission on the Status and Role of Women in the Church requested this change to allow more flexibility in its membership.

Rule VI.B: Pertaining to the term of the district lay leader, strike the phrase “for a term of not less than four years and not more than six years” and replace it with “to serve a four-year term, not to exceed two consecutive terms.” As amended, this sentence would read: “Members of the district conference shall elect the district lay leader (¶660.2) to serve a four-year term, not to exceed two consecutive terms.”

Rationale: It was brought to our attention by the conference lay leader that this term of service in our Standing Rules is inconsistent with the Bylaws of the Board of Laity regarding terms of service for district lay leaders. It was agreed that this inadvertent oversight has likely been in place since action of the 2012 General Conference when that body changed the term of service of the conference lay leader from a three-year term to a four-year term. The Virginia Conference's terms of service for district lay leaders mirrors the term of the conference lay leader. While the length of possible service of the conference lay leader was changed in our Standing Rules at Rule V.B.4.f, there was no change made to the statement of election and service of the district lay leaders at Rule VI.B to reflect the change from a three-year to four-year term. This recommended change addresses this inconsistency.

CABINET REPORT

Alexandria

The Alexandria District continues to partner with and equip local churches as they seek to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. The first half of the year we focused on a smooth transition for clergy and laity to a new District Superintendent while the second half of the year we focused on how to create a new, agile, visionary district out of the Alexandria and Arlington District. The Board of Missions offered Digital Evangelism grants to encourage experimentation and innovation in reaching and engaging new people online and the Do No Harm Initiative was rolled out focusing on issues around Race, Culture and Ethnicity.

Arlington

The Arlington District continues to partner with and equip local churches as they seek to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. The Arlington District Trustees have worked tirelessly to assist local churches who decided to close and to assist with the sale of District property. The Board of Missions offered Digital Evangelism grants to encourage experimentation and innovation in reaching and engaging new people online and the Do No Harm Initiative was rolled out focusing on issues around Race, Culture and Ethnicity.

District Initiative

A team made up of leaders from both the Alexandria and Arlington Districts have spent the last year listening to our laity and clergy about their needs from the District and from that work, they have created something new - The Northern Virginia District. After years of partnering with each other, the area that encompasses the two Districts will now form one brand new District, with the same vision - to partner with and equip the local churches of The Northern Virginia District as they seek to make disciples and transform the world. This new district will have a totally new structure built around three key areas—Administration, Strategy, and Leadership Development. You will see some new staff around to help with this as well—a District Director of Operations, and a team of two Administrators (both of whom are already in place!). We will also be innovating in each of the four geographic regions of the new district with a new position— District Connectors —elders who will be helping with communication, chaplaincy, and connecting to district resources.

Danville

The churches of the Danville District continue to faithfully serve their communities even amidst the challenges of the pandemic. Examples of this commitment are found throughout the district, including at the Henry Fork Service Center as staff continues its work to provide excellent care in a Christian setting, in ways that safeguard the health of the children, staff and community; the partnership at Redwood with Lake Christian Ministries to offer a warming shelter for Franklin County, along with the partnership of churches supporting the warming shelter in Martinsville/Henry County. The Danville District churches are blessed to be the hands, feet and heart of Christ in our communities.

Lynchburg

Lynchburg District churches have continued their deep caring commitment to those on the margins throughout this challenging time of pandemic. Parkview Community Mission provides life-saving, life-transforming ministry that engages the churches of our district in both financial and hands-on support. Church and community partnerships are at work to bring food, housing, clothing and care to our neighbors, sharing the love of Christ in all that we do.

District Initiative

Our districts have and will continue to be blessed as we work together on the “new wineskin” that God is creating through the District Initiative. Our Bi-District Lightning team, comprised of 6 laity and clergy leaders from each district and our district staff set about prayerful discernment, discussion and design centered on the overarching purpose for district initiative: To create a framework for the new district that would best support and resource our churches and communities to share the love of Christ in real, tangible and transformative ways. We worked together from October 26 through December 7, sharing about each district, clarifying our contexts, and discovering the pathway forward for our new Mountain View District (pending Annual Conference approval of 8 districts). The purpose of the Mountain View District is to joyfully bringing people and gifts together to see all as neighbors and share God's abundant love in tangible and transformative ways. We look forward to the design continuing as we structure to support and resource local churches (laity and clergy) to share the love of Christ in tangible and transformative ways with their community, by building relationships, seeing and caring for the needs of our neighbors, both near and far.

Eastern Shore

The Eastern Shore District has been blessed by the shared ministry of clergy and laity amid ongoing multilayered challenges. In partnership with other districts, several churches participated in various learning opportunities including virtual district trainings, Ministry in a Digital Age, Both/And: Maximizing Hybrid Worship Experiences for in-person and online engagement, and How to Launch a Breakthrough Prayer Initiative. During the Charge Conference season, people celebrated God's faithfulness in their personal life and congregational life by sharing stories in various forms of art. To God be the glory!

Elizabeth River

The Elizabeth River District was deeply grateful for clergy and laity who embraced challenges and opportunities presented in various forms and committed to the call that God has placed in their life. Ongoing focused trainings offered them encouragement and resources to address their personal needs and to stay engaged in ministry to make disciples: virtual district trainings, Ministry in a Digital Age, Both/And: Maximizing Hybrid Worship Experiences for in-person and online engagement, Post-Pandemic Church, Anxiety as Opportunity (for Clergy), Healing Past and Present Trauma (Clergy webinar), and How to Launch a Breakthrough Prayer Initiative. In life together with Jesus the Christ, we bear witness on God's unfailing love. Great is God's faithfulness!

District Initiative

The District Initiative Team (DIT), composed of seven clergy, seven laity, and the District Superintendent of the Eastern Shore and Elizabeth River Districts, proposes to create a new district from the current two districts to increase missional opportunities in making disciples of Jesus Christ. A major concern raised from district-wide conversations is how the new district might foster a sense of cohesion when separated through the middle by a 17.6-mile barrier, and solutions under consideration include investments in technology that will facilitate hybrid in-person/virtual meetings, hosting of broadcast events at centralized locations, etc. Recognizing that local United Methodist churches are on the front lines of making disciples, reaching out to all with the love of Jesus Christ, the newly created district will equip, empower, and bridge our Christian faith communities. Significant focus will be placed on initiatives of Lay Servant development and on Children and Youth Ministries. The proposed structure of the new district includes a new District Board of Ministries to oversee a new Board of Laity along with the other various ministries across the region; also newly created are two part-time district staff to further resource clergy and laity, and to increase vitality in mission and ministry of local churches.

Harrisonburg

Mission Central is a ministry of the Harrisonburg District that provides clothing, diapers and medical supplies to those in need in the community. The ministry continues to grow as well as the need. We also have a partnership with Just Neighbors, providing legal assistance to those who qualify in adjusting their immigration status. In addition, since last year, the District moved from a Council of Ministries to a Common Table format, and now making the transition to a Simplified Accountable Structure. May we continue to be the hands and feet of Jesus.

Winchester

We have a partnership with Just Neighbors, providing legal assistance to those who qualify in adjusting their immigration status. During the winter months, several churches participated with the Winchester Area Temporary Thermal Shelter, which provides a safe, temporary, overnight, cold-weather shelter for the homeless, in addition two of our churches also provided shelter during the summer months by providing a place to stay cool. May we continue to be the hands and feet of Jesus.

District Initiative

In the Fall of 2021, the Harrisonburg and Winchester Districts created a Workteam of 10 individuals plus the District Superintendent, which included clergy and laity, with equal representation from both districts, to create a plan for the District Initiative. The Workteam invited both Districts to be in intentional fasting and prayer as The Workteam met several times in open meetings for anyone to attend and offer feedback and suggestions. It came up with the Shenandoah River District that is alive in Christ through ministries of connection, empowerment and transformation. In the plan, the Workteam came up with an Administrative Board and a Discipleship Board to take care of the work and ministry of the Shenandoah River District. A new position was identified that will assist, especially small and mid-size churches to develop plans to offer streaming worship services, the use of Zoom, internet access, etc. May God continue to lead us as we are the hands and feet of Jesus.

Farmville

The churches of the Farmville District have been able to maintain worship, ministry and mission outreach in many ways throughout the past Conference year in spite of the ever-changing pandemic. Most all churches have determined safe procedures to hold worship, meetings and other ministry gatherings. Food pantry ministries have been started or expanded in almost every corner of the District and there is a sense of renewal in most of our churches/charges that are revealed through increased giving, ministry renewal and worship gatherings.

James River

The churches of the James River District have been resilient in offering ministry in many different forms: worship, mission and outreach during the pandemic. We celebrate the work of The Gathering in Petersburg as it began its new journey in ministry. Food pantry ministries, care packages, backpack ministries in schools and other outreach continues in local churches and within the various geographical “branches” where community needs are being met with grace and hope.

District Initiative

The Living Waters District name is based on how water is prevalent throughout this district and flows into, and out of, every county - and like the living waters that flow into us all through faith in Jesus, we too are called to “flow out” into our community and world sharing the love and grace of Christ. The Living Waters District Initiative team has been meeting regularly to identify and design ways these two districts will be in ministry together that will empower geographically connected local churches to be “the church in ministry, mission and worship together” in their communities where lives are changed, needs are addressed and met and new revival emerges! The 15 geographic groups of churches in this new district will be known as “streams” that will have clergy and lay leadership working side-by-side together in their communities. There is a self-identified call for revival, and a need for renewed teaching of how to be disciples in each community so that the church can live into our Conference Vision to be Disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world who are life-long learners who influence others to serve.

Rappahannock River District

The irony about the unavoidable disruptions of everyday life due to COVID-19 is that it created opportunities to be connected and remain committed to the Spiritual disciplines. Even though the year was plagued by one of the greatest challenges (the pandemic), 2021 will be remembered as a year that offered some of the greatest opportunities to worship and be in a relationship. Overall, there is an excitement and eagerness from pastors and laity alike about getting back to a “normal” in-person worship.

York River District

Our churches were hit hard with the pandemic, but pastors spent numerous hours providing pastoral care and wonderful worship experiences. Even though they were tired, they were committed to servant leadership, while the laity offered adaptive, innovative, and creative support. One noticeable factor is that we continue to be excited about the increase in the number of online worshippers. God is working in disguise because a new way of doing church has emerged and has birthed wonderful opportunities. We now have new ways of reaching the unchurched through various platforms.

District Initiative

Our goal is to create a new district that is infused by the Holy Spirit and empowered by our laity and clergy in a shared ministry context. The laity must return as a major catalyst in this future endeavor through fervent prayer, support, partnership, collaboration, and innovation, that enrich our methods, ministry, and mission. The capacity and bandwidth to handle a steady flow of conversation with divergent opinions, theological and biblical persuasions, is an understatement, and are gifts to the Rappahannock and York River Districts in particular, and to the Virginia Annual Conference in general. Our proposed new district will be one that reconnects our communities to our churches, promote collaborative learning and training opportunities through the well-established Lay Servant Ministries program to BETTER prepare us as followers of Jesus Christ that lead others to Him.

Richmond

The Richmond District has been working together to bring revitalization and new expressions of faith to our churches that faithfully serve their communities. We have strategically implemented coaching for simplified accountable structure, break through prayer, shift, NLI, and other revitalization tools. We have also begun the work of Fresh Expressions both in teaching and implementation.

Charlottesville

In 2021 Charlottesville District said farewell to our beloved DS Rev. Danny Kesner and his wife Barbara and welcomed our new DS

Rev. Dr. Hyo Lee and his wife Kay. Since then, we have been working closely in the Richmond District in offering training for clergy and ministry resources for local churches. In doing so, we continue to be focused on providing Christ and Christ's love to the world needing hope and healing.

District Initiative

Charlottesville and Richmond District came together and worked on new ways of doing ministry. To be nimble and relevant to the needs of our local church and community, first, we plan on simplifying our district-level administrative committees. This simplification will free us to engage in actual ministry and mission on the ground rather than sitting at many meetings. Second, we plan on exploring collaborative ways of doing ministry by piloting cluster groups. The cluster groups will learn together, support one another, and pray and execute ministry together in their local churches and communities to make disciples for Jesus Christ.

Staunton

In 2021, the Staunton District bid farewell to our District Superintendent, the Rev. Jay Carey, as well as Beth Christian, our Director of Congregational Vitality. However, we welcomed our new DS, the Rev. Douglas Forrester and our new Director of Congregational Excellence, the Rev. Dr. Dale White. Doug and Dale have spent the last year forming relationships with our staff, our congregations' laity and their clergy, all while seeking to build upon all of the wonderful existing work done before their arrival.

Roanoke

The Roanoke District continued its work forming "lifelong learners who influence others to serve" through working with the Staunton District to develop bi-district ministries, such as our bi-district training with Bishop William H. Willimon as our keynote speaker, and creating bi-district communications plans and ministries, including a new website for both districts and new ways to be present on social media. All of this has transpired while learning new ways of working as we share our district superintendent with the Staunton District and realigning our district staff with the retirement of our office assistant, Jan Failes.

District Initiative

And yet, no reflection on the last Conference year would be complete without celebrating the work of our District Initiative workgroups. These two teams have done exciting work envisioning what a new Valley Ridge district could look like, one that encompasses what is now the Roanoke and Staunton District. We have met, made plans, debated great ideas, asked good questions, and thought in great depth about all ministry can be in our unique context at the western edge of our Conference. We have also partnered with Kay Kotan and the Rev. Blake Bradford to design a new simplified structure for our new district, one that balances administrative tasks with visioning and thinking strategically about the work of our 144 congregations. All in all, we celebrate all that has come before us, give thanks for all God is doing in our midst today, and look to the future with eager anticipation for all God will do in and through us in the years to come.

–Rev. Denise P. Bates, Dean

RECOMMENDATION: In order to create a framework for the new districts that would best support and resource our churches and communities to share the love of Christ in real, tangible and transformative ways; and, to address the need for nimble and efficient district structures that faithfully resource and support the ministry and mission of the laity and clergy through their local churches, to and in their community context, the Cabinet makes the following recommendation:
That there be 8 districts beginning July 1, 2022.

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION COMMISSION

The Equitable Compensation Commission continues to provide financial aid to those churches requiring supplementation to strengthen their ministries in the communities in which they are located and to provide minimum salary or salary supplementation for the pastors. Equitable Compensation support in the amount of $172,133 was provided to 28 charges in 2021. A schedule of salary supplementation appropriations for 2021 has been provided to the conference secretary for publication in the Journal.

VIRGINIA UNITED METHODIST PENSIONS, INC.

Section I: Reports

■ Report 1: Role & Responsibilities of Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc.

The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church directs each annual conference to establish a conference board of pension, auxiliary to Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath), to have charge of the interests and work of providing for and contributing to the support, relief, assistance, and pensioning of clergy and their families, other church workers, and lay employees of the United Methodist Church, its institutions, organizations, and agencies within each annual conference except as otherwise provided for by Wespath.

On June 22, 1965, the Virginia Annual Conference (VAUMC) established and incorporated the Virginia Methodist Pensions, Incorporation, (subsequently renamed on February 2, 1971 to Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc., or “VUMPI,”) as its conference board of pension.

VUMPI, in conjunction with Wespath, develops and administers the numerous employee pension and benefit plans sponsored by the Virginia Conference. Some plans are employer-paid, while others are voluntary and 100 percent participant-paid:

VUMPI Plans
Health
Dental Vision
Supplemental Life
Voluntary Life
Long Term Care
Healthcare Flexible Spending Account
Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account

Wespath Plans
Ministers Reserve Pension Fund (Pre-82)
Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)
Clergy Retirement Security Program – Defined Benefit (CRSP-DB)
Clergy Retirement Security Program – Defined Contribution (CRSP-DC)
United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP)
Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

■ Report 2: Virginia Conference-Sponsored Health Plans

VUMPI administers health plans for full time clergy of the Virginia Conference, as well as retired clergy who meet eligibility requirements based on years of ministry in the Virginia Conference. Details of the Conference-sponsored health plans follow:

Active Clergy Health Plans

Health plans recommended to be made available in 2023 are unchanged from the plans offered in 2022. Health plans available to clergy serving in full time appointments in the Virginia Conference include the following:

- PPO Core: $1,000 individual deductible, $2,500 family deductible, 20% coinsurance
- PPO Buy-Up: $750 individual deductible, $1,875 family deductible, and 20% coinsurance
- HSA plan: a plan with a higher deductible ($2,250 individual, $4,500 family) as required by Internal Revenue Service rules for HSAs, a Conference contribution to the Health Savings Account ($750 for individual tier enrollees, $1,500 for all other tier enrollees), 20% coinsurance

A fourth PPO health plan with a $500 deductible, which is made available only to clergy on medical leave with CPP disability benefits and surviving spouses and children of clergy, will continue to be offered in 2023 with no plan design changes.

The vision plan will continue to be offered in 2023, with no changes in the plan design.

The two dental plan options currently administered by VUMPI will also continue to be offered in 2023 with no plan design changes.

The majority of the cost of the health plans made available to Virginia Conference clergy is funded through a Conference apportionment, as described in Recommendation 1. The remainder of the cost of the plans is funded by participant contributions, as described in Recommendation 2.

Retired Clergy Health Plans

VUMPI administers health plans for eligible retired clergy of the Virginia Conference. The eligibility requirements include a minimum of ten years of full time ministry in either Virginia Conference church appointments or Extension Ministry appointments with enrollment in the Conference-sponsored health plans.

Plans made available to eligible retirees are coordinated with Medicare eligibility. Specific plans for retirees who are not yet eligible for Medicare and the program for Medicare-eligible clergy are described below:

Conference-sponsored health plan for pre-Medicare-eligible retirees: retirees who are eligible to enroll in the Conference-sponsored retired clergy health plan but who are not yet eligible to enroll in Medicare may enroll in the self funded PPO Core or PPO Buy-Up plans administered by VUMPI. Pre-Medicare-eligible retirees may also enroll in the self funded dental insurance program and the fully insured vision program made available to active clergy. The majority of the cost of the health plans made available to Virginia Conference clergy is funded through a Conference apportionment, as described in Recommendation 1. The remainder of the cost of the plans is funded by participant contributions, as described in Recommendation 2.

Conference-sponsored health plan for Medicare-eligible retirees: retirees who are eligible to enroll in the Conference-sponsored retired clergy health plan and who are also enrolled in Medicare have two options for retiree medical coverage.

The first option is the Group Plan, which is a group Medicare Advantage plan created specifically for Virginia Conference retirees. The Group Plan integrates the retiree's Medicare benefit and includes prescription drug coverage. The majority of the cost of the Group Plan is funded through a Conference apportionment, as described in Recommendation 1. The remainder of the cost of the plans is funded by participant contributions, as described in Recommendation 2.

The second option made available to eligible retirees who are enrolled in Medicare is the Connector option. Under the Connector option, Medicare-eligible retirees are able to select any Medicare Supplement plan or Medicare Advantage plan, and any Part D prescription drug plan, offered by United Healthcare. The Conference will provide funding through a Retiree Reimbursement Account ("RRA"), and those funds can be used to partially or fully offset the cost of the coverage elected through the Connector option. The RRA funding made available to retirees who elect coverage through the Connector option is funded through a Conference apportionment, as described in Recommendation 1. The remainder of the cost of the elected health plan coverage, if any, is paid by the retiree directly to United Healthcare.

■ Report 3: Pension Plan Structure

There are four components to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP):

- A. Ministers Reserve Pension Fund (Pre-82) for service and benefits accrued on and/or prior to December 31, 1981.
- B. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) for service and benefits accrued on and/or after January 1, 1982 through December 31, 2006.
- C. Clergy Retirement Security Program - Defined Benefit Plan (CRSP-DB) for service and benefits accrued on and/or after January 1, 2007.
- D. Clergy Retirement Security Program - Defined Contribution Plan (CRSP-DC) for service and benefits accrued on and/or after January 1, 2007.

Wespath refers to plans A – C above as defined benefit ("DB") pension plans. That is, each year an eligible clergy member of the Virginia Conference served/serves and received/receives pension credit, the applicable plan will pay a certain benefit, or “defined” monthly income during retirement. Hence, the term “defined benefit.” Defined benefit plans do not maintain participant account balances since the employer, or in our case, Wespath, has the responsibility to manage the funds in a manner sufficient to pay the monthly defined benefit.

Simultaneous to Wespath calculating each participant’s defined benefit, it calculates each annual conference’s cost to provide these defined benefits. Wespath bills each annual conference the amount due. Each annual conference, or in our case, VUMPI, then bills our local churches for the cost of these plans.

In addition to these defined benefit plans, annual conferences provide their clergy pension benefits from the CRSP-DC, a defined contribution (“DC”) plan. Each year an eligible clergy member of the Virginia Conference serves and receives pension credit, the Virginia Conference determines how much pension contribution each clergy participant will receive in his/her pension account. VUMPI bills local churches for the required amount of pension contribution, then makes monthly contributions into the clergy CRSP-DC accounts.

■ Report 4: Welfare Plans Structure

The welfare plans made available to Virginia Conference clergy include the Comprehensive Protection Plan (“CPP”) sponsored by Wespath, as well as supplemental benefits sponsored independently by VUMPI.

The CPP disability benefits are as follows:

- For Clergy disabled on or after Jan. 1, 2002, the CPP disability benefit equals 70 percent of Plan Compensation, with compensation capped at 200 percent of the DAC.
- For Clergy disabled prior to Jan. 1, 2002, they will continue to receive the same CPP disability benefit per the plan document in-force at the time their disability claim originated.

The following generally describes the death benefit amounts payable under the CPP to eligible participants and their beneficiaries:

Active Participant Death Benefits: payable upon the death of an eligible active CPP participant, as follows:

- Participant: $50,000, payable in 12 monthly installments or one lump sum
- Spouse of active participant: 20% of the Denominational Average Compensation (“DAC”) in the year of death
- Surviving spouse of active participant: 15% of DAC in the year of death
- Child of active participant: 10% of DAC in the year of death
- Annual surviving spouse annuity benefit of 20% of DAC, less the annuity benefit payable from CRSP and other Church-related sources
- Annual surviving child benefit of 10% of DAC, payable in 12 monthly installments (for those age 17 and younger; benefits are paid through the month in which the child attains age 18)
- Annual surviving child educational benefit up to 20% of DAC, payable in equal installments (for those age 18 through 24 and attending school full-time)

Retired Participant Death Benefits: to be eligible for death benefits in retirement, a clergyperson must have been covered in CPP for a specified number of years. The 2012 General Conference approved a change to the CPP program which increases the length of service requirement for retirees. Retirees with 25 or more years of enrollment in CPP are eligible for the death benefits in retirement, and the eligibility criteria for those with fewer than 25 years in CPP was phased in with one-year increments, as detailed in the table below:

Retirement Year	CPP Enrollment Requirement for Death Benefit Eligibility
2013	6 of last 10 years
2014	7 of last 10 years
2015	8 of last 11 years
2016	9 of last 12 years
2017	10 of last 13 years
2018	11 of last 14 years
2019+	12 of last 15 years

The death benefit amounts associated with retired participants are detailed in the table below:

Plan Provision	Clergy Who Retired Before Jan. 1, 2013	Clergy Who Retire Jan. 1, 2013 or Later
Death of retired participant	30% of DAC in the year of death	$20,808
Death of retiree's spouse	20% of DAC in the year of death	$15,606
Death of retiree's surviving spouse	15% of DAC in the year of death	$10,404
Death of retiree's child	10% of DAC in the year of death	$8,323
Annual surviving child benefit, payable in 12 monthly installments	10% of DAC	10% of DAC
Annual surviving child educational benefit, payable in installments	20% of DAC	20% of DAC

The Conference Supplemental Death Benefit for active eligible clergy under episcopal appointment, and who are enrolled in CPP, is $25,000. The Conference Supplemental Death Benefit is payable in addition to the CPP death benefit. During retirement, a $5,000 Conference Supplemental Death Benefit will be payable to CPP participants, in addition to the CPP death benefit. The beneficiary will receive the Conference Supplemental Death Benefit payable in one lump sum.

In combination, the CPP and Conference Supplemental Death Benefit provide total death benefits as follows:

- $75,000 to beneficiaries of active clergy participants
- $25,808 (or 30% of the DAC + $5,000 for clergy who retired prior to January 1, 2013) to beneficiaries of retired clergy participants

Gift Benefit

VUMPI currently elects to provide a one time $1,500 gift at the time of retirement or disability (once awarded disability benefits under the Comprehensive Protection Plan) to each clergyperson who has served at least ten years of service in a full-time Virginia Annual Conference episcopal appointment in the Virginia Conference with pension credit. Further, a gift to the family of each clergyperson meeting the eligibility criteria above who dies in active service is paid in the same amount as the gift to retired or disabled clergypersons.

■ Report 5: Denominational Average Compensation

Several of the pension and welfare plans incorporate the Denominational Average Compensation (“DAC”) into the formula for determining the plan benefit. The formula VUMPI uses for funding those plans relies on the DAC, as well.

As reported by Wespath, the DAC is projected to increase from 2022 to 2023 as follows:

Denominational Average Compensation
$75,570	$76,221

Section II: Recommendations for Annual Conference Approval

■ Recommendation 1: 2023 Clergy Benefits Apportionment Recommendations

For 2023, VUMPI recommends total Clergy Benefits Apportionments of $16,000,000. This represents no change from the 2022 clergy benefits apportionments. The total benefits apportionment amount includes funding for the Active Clergy Health Plan (which includes health care coverage for eligible clergy on medical leave and widowed spouses of active clergy) and the Retired Clergy Health Plan. The apportionment total is allocated between these components as follows:

Clergy Benefits Apportionment Recommendations - 2023
Active Clergy Health	$ 10,000,000
Retired Clergy Health	6,000,000
TOTAL CLERGY BENEFIT APPORTIONMENTS	$ 16,000,000

VUMPI recommends the above Active Clergy Health and Retired Clergy Health apportionments as part of its broad strategy focused on maintaining adequate health plans for Virginia Conference active and retired clergy, while moderating the financial impact on local churches and individual participants to the extent possible.

VUMPI makes the Conference-sponsored health plans available to clergy serving in Conference-related extension ministries that do not pay apportionments. For clergy appointed to such extension ministries who are enrolled in the health plans in 2023, VUMPI will bill the Conference Health Plan Fee. The amount billed will be $988 per month for each enrolled clergyperson, plus their applicable Participant Contributions for active clergy as noted in Recommendation 2: 2023 Participant Contribution Recommendations.

■ Recommendation 2: 2023 Health Plan Participant Contribution Recommendations

In administering the Conference-sponsored self-insured health plans, an element of VUMPI's strategy is to maintain plans that are similar to national average employer-sponsored health plans. In addition, VUMPI recommends participant contributions that are similar, as a percentage of the total health plan cost, to national employer-sponsored plan averages. As overall health care costs tend to increase each year, and as the actual cost trends among each of the health plans can change year-to-year, VUMPI periodically recommends changes in the recommended participant contributions. For 2023, VUMPI is recommending no change in the participant contributions the Conference-sponsored health plans.

Following are the 2023 participant contribution recommendations for the Conference-sponsored health plans:

Active Clergy:

	Medical Plans			Dental Plans
	PPO Core	PPO Buy-Up	HSA	Core	Major
Clergyperson Only	$104	$137	$80	$13	$34

Clergyperson + Child(ren)	$318	$375	$269	$51	$100
Family	$332	$408	$280	$60	$109

Note: Active clergy have the opportunity to earn a $15 reduction in the monthly participant contribution through participation in the Virginia Conference wellness program. Clergy spouses who are enrolled in the Conference health plans can also receive a $15 reduction in the monthly participant contribution, for a total potential monthly reduction of $30 in a non-individual coverage tier.

Clergy on Voluntary Leave, Sabbatical, or Retired Under ¶358.2.a (With Twenty Years of Service) or ¶358.3 (Prior to Age 62 With Fewer Than Thirty Years of Service):

Optional Voluntary Vision Benefit Plan for Clergy and Lay Employees Enrolled in a Conference-sponsored Anthem Medical Plan

Retired Clergy Age 65 or Over – Retired Under ¶358.1, ¶358.2b, ¶358.2c, or ¶358.3

Under the Conference-sponsored medical plan for Medicare-eligible retirees of the Virginia Conference, there will continue to be two coverage options, as described below.

Group Plan Option: The group plan is a group Medicare Advantage plan. The group plan has a required participant contribution based on full time years of service in the Virginia Conference. The recommended 2023 participant contributions for the group plan coverage option are as follows:

Medicare-eligible Retirees - Monthly Personal Contributions
Years of Service	Individual	Family
10-14	$375	$750
15-19	$310	$620
20-24	$245	$490
30+	$115	$230

Connector Option: The Connector option allows qualifying clergy to select any available Medicare Supplement or Medicare Advantage plan, and any Part D prescription drug plan, offered by United Healthcare. Retirees electing coverage through this option receive Retiree Reimbursement Account (“RRA”) funding, which can be used to offset the cost of the selected coverage. VUMPI recommends 2023 monthly RRA funding based on qualifying years of Virginia Conference service as follows:

Connector Option - Monthly RRA Funding
Years of Service	Retiree Only	Retiree and Spouse
20-24	$150	$300
30+	$250	$500

The monthly RRA funding amounts will be prorated for qualifying retirees and/or spouses of qualifying retirees who gain Medicare eligibility or otherwise gain eligibility for retiree coverage within a calendar year. Any RRA funds remaining at the end of a calendar year will roll over into the subsequent year for use by the enrolled retiree and/or spouse for qualifying medical expenses.

General Virginia Conference Health Plan Information

For participants enrolled in the Anthem health plans, either as active clergy or as a retiree not yet eligible for Medicare, 2023 health plan selections will be made during the open enrollment period in the fall of 2022. If an eligible clergyperson does not elect coverage options during the annual open enrollment period, the default enrollment option is the prior year’s plan selections (except for Flexible Spending Account or Dependent Care Spending Account contributions), and enrollees will be subject to the associated individual personal contribution rates.

If not selected during the open enrollment period, no Flexible Spending Account contributions can be made during 2023, in accordance with federal laws.

All who are eligible to enroll in a Virginia Conference health plan are strongly encouraged to participate in online open enrollment in the fall of 2022. Details will be distributed through normal annual open enrollment means.

Virginia Conference clergy members earn a year of service towards his or her Total Years of VAUMC Service as indicated in the coverage options above for each year that Virginia Annual Conference health plan eligibility is met.

Eligibility for the Conference-sponsored retiree medical plans requires a minimum of ten years of full time ministry in the Virginia Conference. Virginia Conference clergy on approved leave or serving in an Extension Ministry appointment earn credit towards retiree medical plan eligibility only if enrolled in the Conference-sponsored health plan while on leave or while serving an Extension Ministry appointment.

■ Recommendation 3: 2023 Pre-82 Pension Past Service Rate

The Pre-82 pension provides a benefit to all eligible clergy who have served in the Virginia Conference prior to 1982. This program pays the greater of the following:

- An annual benefit equal to the Past Service Rate (PSR) times years of pre-1982 service, or
- An annuity amount based upon the participant’s cash balance in his or her Defined Benefit Service Money Account

The Virginia Annual Conference establishes the PSR each year. For 2023, VUMPI recommends that the PSR be increased from $585 to $600.

■ Recommendation 4: 2023 CRSP/PPP/Supplemental Plan Funding Recommendations

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)

The 2023 CRSP Contribution from the local churches and/or salary-paying-units for each appointed eligible clergy member under episcopal appointment at that location shall be:

- For the Defined Contribution component of CRSP: Plan Compensation (base salary plus housing allowance or parsonage rate in accordance with the Internal Revenue Service), times 3%.
- For the Defined Benefit component of CRSP: Plan Compensation (base salary plus housing allowance or parsonage rate in accordance with the Internal Revenue Service, up to 135% of the Denominational Average Compensation (“DAC”)) times 9%

Local churches and salary-paying units are to make their monthly CRSP payments to VUMPI.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

The 2023 CPP contribution from the local churches and/or salary-paying-units for each appointed eligible clergy member under episcopal appointment at that location shall be:

Plan Compensation (base salary plus housing allowance or parsonage factor, up to 200% of the Denominational Average Compensation) times 4.4%.

Local churches and salary-paying units are to make their monthly CPP payments to VUMPI.

If, for any reason, CPP contributions are more than 30 days in arrears, participation in the CPP is suspended. If contributions are more than six consecutive months in arrears, participation in the CPP is terminated. For terminated participants, readmission into the CPP requires payment of seven months of contributions and submission of medical statement of good health.

Erroneously enrolled clergy who are ineligible to participate in the CPP have no right to benefits under the CPP. Eligible clergy who have not been properly enrolled in the CPP have no rights under the CPP until after proper enrollment.

■ Recommendation 5: 2023 Housing Allowance/Exclusion

Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired, Disabled, or Former Clergypersons of the Virginia Conference

The Virginia Conference (the “Conference”) adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, terminated, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the “Church”), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church (“Clergypersons”);

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as an appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension, severance, or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the “Discipline”), which includes all such payments from Wespath Benefits and Investments, during the period January 1, 2023 through December 31, 2023 by each active, retired, terminated, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from Wespath and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespath plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such an active, retired, terminated, or disabled Clergyperson’s pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson’s gross income in any year for federal (and, in most cases, state) income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2), and regulations thereunder, to the least of: (a) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson’s employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (b) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (c) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Each clergyperson or former clergyperson is urged to consult with his or her own tax advisor to determine what deferred compensation is eligible to be claimed as a housing allowance exclusion.

COMMON TABLE FOR CHURCH VITALITY

This past Conference year has been an active and fruitful season for the Common Table for Church Vitality. Our Annual Conference Standing Rules state our charge, “The Common Table for Church Vitality (“Common Table”) exists to resource mission and ministry to fulfill the conference mission and vision. As a diverse body of representatives, the Common Table coordinates with Boards and Agencies, assists in the disbursement of ministry and program grants, and oversees the personnel of the Annual Conference offices that are under its guidance.” (Rule V.A)

We continue to do all that we can, in the power of the Holy Spirit and through the grace of God, to fulfill the objectives of this bold Godly purpose.

To that end, the Common Table spent a significant amount of time in the last conference year working on:

1....our continued spiritual formation and organizational refinement as a team. Our meetings are full of creative energy, a willingness to speak the truth in a positive spirit of love, and a yearning for the fulfillment of God’s realm on earth through ministry on behalf of the Annual Conference. We are thankful to Bishop Sharma D. Lewis for her ongoing presence with, and episcopal guidance to, the Common Table as we endeavor to incarnationally embody the vision of the Virginia Annual Conference within all God’s children “to be disciples of Jesus Christ who are lifelong learners who influence others to serve.”

2....resourcing. Through a variety of communications and other channels, technical and strategic resources are provided to Boards, Agencies, and the larger body of the Virginia Annual Conference through our Connectional Ministries staff and other partners in ministry. Such resourcing is shaped by resources ranging from the economic (such as $240,000 in grant funding) to the relational (expressions of learning, influencing, and serving).

3....being nimble and calibrating for effective ministry systems that address new realities. The Common Table is acutely aware that the combined consequences of the COVID-19 global pandemic and the current denominational strife surrounding questions around full inclusion of persons in the LGBTQ community are creating significant levels of ministry disorientation within our conference and denomination. Often our conversations and decisions are undergirded by a desire to honor a set of axioms often attributed to John Wesley, “Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, in all the places you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can, so long as ever you can.”

4....seeking fundamental ways to effectively serve the holistic needs of the clergy, laity, and churches of the Virginia Annual Conference in collaborative ways with all ministry partners.

We are especially thankful for the entire 13-member Connectional Ministries staff who serve under the leadership umbrella of the Common Table. Our Connectional Ministries staff are hardworking faithful servants of Christ. They seek to work with passion, efficiency, and excellence without sacrificing the relational joy of what it means to be on a journey together on the same path. We lament the coming retirements of Brenda Capen, Bryan Compton, and Bev Myers, but we also rejoice that their ministries will be expressed in new ways in retirement; they have served the Virginia Annual Conference a combined total of more than 81 years! Please join Common Table in expressing thanks to them.

We also offer our thanks for the sacrificial leadership we see accomplished through the Boards, Agencies, and all the diverse ministries of the Virginia Annual Conference. Most of these ministries are offered in “quiet” unspoken ways but are a profound transformational presence in the cause of Christ.

As the Common Table, we joyfully share that our work has been filled with a deep sense of Hope for all that is to come for the Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church – all to the glory of God!

RECOMMENDATIONS

On behalf of the Missional Ministries Board:

That the Relationship Agreements as presented to the Missional Connections Team of the Conference Missional Ministries Board between the Virginia Conference and Heart Havens, Inc.; UMFS; Pinnacle Living; Virginia United Methodist Housing Development Corporation; and Wesley Housing Development Corporation, be continued.

On behalf of the Board of Discipleship:

That Gregory B. West be recommended and endorsed as a General Evangelist according to the standards set by the General Board of Discipleship.

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The United Methodist Book of Discipline (1629) specifies the purpose of the Conference Board of Church and Society. The Conference Board is to help the conference, districts and congregations employ our Social Principles to connect our faith communities to the world around us. This work is both individual and societal. We are called to invite faithful disciples of Christ to lead the church prayerfully into the world.

We have organized our board to follow the issues raised by our United Methodist Bishop's letter: "God's Renewed Creation: Call to Hope and Action." In this 2009 letter, UMC bishops raised virtually the same issues, as did Catholic Pope Francis in 2015, namely that the world is awash in violence, environmental destruction and poverty.

The following also need to be addressed these three interconnected disasters, we have organized three work areas: Peace and Non-Violence, Caretakers of God's Creation, and Eradicating Poverty/Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministries.

After the 2020 self-evaluation on our relevance in the conference, we concluded that we were not as relevant as we had been in the past. So, we have intentionally started seeking ways to include ways of listening to the needs of the conference. By teaming up with other groups that are involved in the same mission we are we can do a better job in advocating for our basic principles.

Peace with Justice Sunday:

The Conference Board promotes the Peace with Justice Sunday Special Offering, one of the six church-wide offerings that The United Methodist General Conference asks of each local church. In 2020, because of the pandemic, we did not do well with our churches giving to this Special Offering, but their giving has allowed the conference to fund key ministries within the conference. We expect the 2021 total will show more churches taking the offering. One half of the offering stays in the annual conference, the other half is used by the General Board.

Caretakers of God's Creation:

- ❖ The Board's Caretakers of God's Creation developed a partnership with Virginia Interfaith Power and Light to help educate and provide advocacy opportunities to the Annual Conference in support of climate and environmental justice efforts
- ❖ Revised the Green Church Initiative to GCI 3.0 <https://doc.vaumc.org/ChurchSociety/GreenChurchInitiative.pdf>
- ❖ Prompted the Green Church Initiative and recognized Monumental UMC, Portsmouth for the Green Church Award <https://youtu.be/B0w0ueZLQZY>
- ❖ Virginian Methodist also participated in learning and networking opportunities with the UMC Creation Justice Movements UMC Annual Conference Organizing Workshops. <https://umcreationjustice.org/annual-conference-organizing-workshops/>

Peace and Non-violence Work Area:

Blessed are the peacemakers. The Peace & Non-Violence (PNV) work group supports the Virginia Conference and its congregations in learning about and acting to foster peace in our world and address the causes and impacts of violence. Activities include raising awareness and providing learning resources, advocating for legislation and public policies, and PNV-related initiatives across the Conference. In 2021, we supported the end of the death penalty in Virginia, advocated for equitable support of immigrants and refugees, advocated for the end of predatory payday lending, and supported an initiative for compassionate care of veterans and their families dealing with the impacts of PTSD. In 2022, the PNV work group is continuing advocacy for immigrants and refugees, including support of the VAUMC response to assisting Afghan allies being resettled in Virginia. The work group is exploring new focus areas, especially as international tensions and the threat of war increase, as Taliban leadership in Afghanistan heighten oppression of women, and as black history and diversity/equity/inclusion programs are being challenged in our state. We encourage others to join us in this important work.

Eradicating Poverty/Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministry:

The Eradicating Poverty Work Area are exploring way to better serve our brothers and sisters who have been incarcerated and to help them to be functional in society again. We are working with other prison ministries to understand the impact on our communities.

We are also exploring opportunities to partner with groups that are focused on poverty in our communities.

United Methodist Day at the General Assembly:

This year was the 30th anniversary of United Methodist Day at the General Assembly. We partner with the Virginia Interfaith Center on Public Policy to hold the United Methodist Day at the General Assembly. Each year, United Methodist Day at the General Assembly is held on the first Thursday in February. We hold this event jointly with the United Methodist Women and the Conference Legislative Network. With emphasis this year on ending solitary confinement and a bill to better utilize refugee talent to strengthen our education system. We look forward to Bishop Lewis helping to lead the event in future years.

– James Page, Clergy Co-Chair

THE CHURCH DEVELOPMENT TEAM

The Church Development Team (CDT) continues in its mission to fulfill the All Things New vision of the Virginia Annual Conference. Using Conference resources, CDT provides grants, guidance, and accountability to new faith communities and supports leadership opportunities that disciple more people, more young people, and more diverse people for Jesus Christ in Virginia United Methodism.

During the Annual Conference of 2008 members voted to begin 250 new faith communities in 30 years. While we are not on track to establish 250 new faith communities by 2036, to date we have begun 56, and two new communities will launch July 1, 2022. Of these 73 percent are still open. This is above the overall denominational average. Additionally, 25 of these are ethnic new faith communities that have a robust record of vitality and growth in the Virginia Conference.

For the next Annual Conference year, the two new faith communities planned are: multisites from Sydenstricker and Ghana Wesley. This will be Ghana Wesley's second multisite.

I want to thank the talented and gifted clergy and laity who serve on CDT. Their experiences and passion for church development will continue to bear fruit in the Virginia Conference. Additionally, I want to thank our Conference staff person, Dwayne Stinson, Associate Director of Influence Ministries. Dwayne's abilities, passion and creative thinking continues to serve CDT well. Finally, I want to thank all the local churches in the Conference. Apportionments paid through the sacrifices of local United Methodists provides the funding that makes great things happen with Church Development in Virginia.

THE BOARD OF COMMUNICATIONS

The pandemic helped create dramatic changes in communications and related technology needs for local churches. In 2021 the Board of Communications conducted an updated communications survey to help us better understand the areas that are most important and most challenging for local churches in the Virginia Conference. The survey revealed that the three most challenging areas are live streaming, video production, and social media.

To help equip local churches, the board created several how-to guides on key topics identified in the communications survey. The guides are part of the helpful communications resources available on the conference website at VAUMC.org/digitalhub.

To help further equip local churches, the board developed a virtual training day focused on digital communications ministry in March 2022. We invested the majority of our board's budget to cover the expenses so the training could be provided free of charge. We selected Phil Bowdle as the keynote speaker. Phil is a leading national voice in the area of church communications and author of "Rethink Communication: A Playbook to Clarify and Communicate Everything in Your Church." The training included breakout sessions on building a social media plan and moving from reactive to proactive communications.

We will utilize feedback from the March training event to help develop our plans for the coming year. The board is committed to identifying additional ways we can equip local churches to continue to improve their communications ministries.

– Jill W. Gaynor, President

BOARD OF DISCIPLESHIP

The Board of Discipleship desires to be a resource for all congregations of the conference to become better at making disciples of Jesus Christ who are life-long learners influencing others to serve. Our mission is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. This challenge may be met as each congregation identifies their discipleship system.

For the last two years the Discipleship Ministries Operational Team (a sub-team of the Board of Discipleship) has been on a journey that has been first and foremost a relational journey. Zooming together for over 8 hours per month the team has been busy discovering new directions, as well as, a renewed purpose for the Board of Discipleship. Together this team grew in relationship with God and with each other by:

- ❖ Building trust and developing a covenant
- ❖ Engaging in Spiritual Formation
- ❖ And spending time in worship.

Our Operational Team began the journey with studying works by Patrick Lencioni on organizational health. We explored our context (the "where are we now – really") through three lenses: 3rd Place Visits (observing how other organizations work), Virginia Conference Demographics, Internal/External Factors related directly to the Board of Discipleship.

In so doing, we unearthed the following discoveries:

1. Observed from 3rd Place Visits

- a. Relational, walk-along-side leadership development models seem to work better than teacher/student.
- b. Developing multiple levels of engagement so that new leaders could “level-up” as they go.
- c. Creating space for relationship building in the context of leadership development is important.
- d. And clarity of “pathways” helps leaders know what to look forward to.
- 2. By examining our demographics
 - a. A large number of small churches demand unique solutions and resources.
 - b. High, and rising, number of Licensed Local Pastors offers challenge and opportunities for resourcing and development in the area of disciple making.
 - c. And different cultural contexts have differing resource needs.
- 3. By studying our Internal and External factors that have bearing upon the work of the Board of Discipleship
 - a. Currently our resources/programs are not sought out by leaders
 - b. Re-districting offers new opportunity to engage with district developers and lay leaders
 - c. Potential UMC split creates enormous distractions away from the mission
 - d. 70%+ of Virginians are Christians. We believe lack of participation signals a gap in discipleship. Our own churches are a mission field
 - e. Our churches are, generally speaking, not making DLIS’s [Disciples who are Life-ling learners Influencing others to Serve.]
 - f. There is a “new program phobia” among local church leaders. If it smells like a new program, they run!

After we had completed our findings, we then began to define the problem by identifying the roots of outcomes. The chart on the next page best illustrates the process we took in defining those problems:

Root 1	Root 2	Root 3	Outcome
We don't have firm sense of identity in Christ	Communities aren't being transformed	Well-worn, easier paths	We are not forming DLISs
Leaders are not engaged in relational accountability	Systems are unhealthy	Major in the minors	Gifted and called leaders who have not been disciplined
Leaders personally disengaged from disciple making	We don't "have" to change	Internal congregation conflicts	Members, not disciples
Leaders missing out on fullness of Christ-led life	Low trust among leaders to handle big questions that require vulnerability		Content, not formation

Upon our completion of naming the problems we then proceeded to discern a vision; a vision that would include, but not be limited to, the following points of clarity:

- 1. A realization that we are part of the problem.
- 2. A vision that supports the conference vision.
- 3. A vision that supports the board’s overall purpose.
- 4. The Board would be charged with the responsibility of communicating the vision.

By September of 2021 we had given birth to the vision: “Deeply formed spiritual leaders, in community, holding each other accountable for spiritual and missional growth.”

What is a deeply formed spiritual leader?

- ❖ Deeply formed spiritual leaders are both clergy and laity.
- ❖ Deeply formed spiritual leaders can be identified by the people in each congregation with questions like: Who do you call to pray with you, if the pastor is not available? When you have a question about Scripture, who do you call, if the pastor is not available? There may be many names given in responses.
- ❖ Deeply formed spiritual leaders are experienced in facing adversity with faith as well as doubts.
- ❖ Deeply formed spiritual leaders understand that we wrestle with principalities and powers,
- ❖ Deeply formed spiritual leaders regularly practice the Wesleyan Means of Grace.

Our work was not yet complete. Once the vision had been planted within our hearts the Board of Discipleship chose to use a garden metaphor as an organizational health model based on the Parable of the Sower found in the Gospels. The Operational Team; as well as a newly created team, called the Educational Team; has been working with this metaphor, in order to create an understandable framework for developing disciples of Jesus Christ who are life-long learners influencing others to serve. Even though much work remains to be done our metaphor looks something like this:

Sow, Grow, Show!

The goal is a fruitful garden - disciples of Jesus Christ making disciples.

- ❖ Tending the Garden
- ❖ Balancing the Garden Soil
- ❖ Growing the Garden
- ❖ Nourishing the Garden
- ❖ Maintaining the Garden

Coaches are available to work with churches as they learn how to navigate from a membership focus to a discipleship focus. Along with the three Denman awards, the Board of Discipleship endorses candidates for the work of evangelism in the United Methodist Church. The General Conference of the UMC offers the One Church Matters Award to each annual conference in recognition of a congregation's turn around success in growth, professions of faith and fruitfulness. We want to remember that the One Church Matters award celebrates the effectiveness a congregation's intentional discipleship system. We work closely with the Office of Bishop by facilitating conference wide activities like the Bishop's Convocation of Prayer. Members of the Board continually work with the Conference Staff and Cabinet in the area of Learning.

I want to thank all the team members for their time and willingness to share their gifts in our work. It has been my honor to serve as Chair this year as we focus on being disciples of Jesus Christ who are life-long learners influencing others to serve.

Older Adult Council

Twenty twenty-one presented the ongoing challenges of the pandemic, especially impacting older adults in difficult and harmful ways. Isolation, separation from church families, and decreased accessibility to medical, community and spiritual support contributed to declines in mental, physical, emotional and spiritual health for all ages, but especially those advanced in years. The pandemic required the Council to change how we serve both older adults and those, who serve them. The physical restrictions of the pandemic foreclosed our ability to have in-person gatherings such as regional Olde Time Revivals and the interdenominational Faithful Aging Conferences cosponsored with the Beard Center on Aging at the University of Lynchburg. Instead, we utilized technology to provide education and training for ministry. Sacred Circle Dance, a multigenerational instruction program continued by Zoom. With the assistance of Conference staff and again with the use of Zoom, we were able to offer our first recorded worship service for Older Adult Recognition Sunday and to make that service available for any Sunday through the Conference website. We provided for the first time a video on Grief Ministry, which is available for local churches to encourage outreach to those, who are grieving whether from the loss of a loved one, loss of a job or relationship, the loss of the church and community as we have known it, or any of the myriad of losses experienced over a lifetime. The Council continues the efforts to raise awareness of the enormous negative impact of ageism within our churches and the world at large. We encourage and promote the "Dementia Friendly" program for our churches and communities through which people can receive training and certification on how best to welcome those afflicted with dementia-related problems and those who provide care.

There is no retirement from Discipleship. For this reason, the Council continues its efforts to make our contribution to the Conference website an effective resource for ministry to, for, by and with older adults.

CONFERENCE MISSIONAL MINISTRIES BOARD

"Engaging, Connecting and Equipping Clergy and Laity of the Virginia Conference for God's mission."

The Missional Ministries Board is living into our new structure with three subcommittees: Missional Discipleship and Engagement, Missional Connection, and Partnerships of Hope. It is our hope to connect more effectively at the District level by having a designated person in each District whose role is to communicate missional needs to the MMB and Office of Serving Ministries AND to share missional discipleship opportunities to churches across their district. Reports from our areas of ministry follow:

Partnerships of Hope

Grace and peace in the name of our Savior! As I write this, I give thanks to God for the continuing commitment of the Virginia Annual Conference to the initiative we took some years ago to be in partnership with those who serve our neighbors in faraway places. The relationships we have developed and maintained over the years have blessed thousands of men, women and especially children in Mozambique, Brazil, Cambodia, and at home with our Native American brothers and sisters. This work continues to bear great fruit and draws people to Christ.

As we reported last year, our engagement with our friends around the world has been greatly impeded by the constrictions of the pandemic. Mission teams have had to be cancelled. Efforts on the ground have been hampered because of quarantining. That notwithstanding, our work has continued.

This year we have supported the efforts of enhancing church leadership through undergirding the teaching of pastors in Mozambique; we have enabled women in Cambodia to develop means of self-sustaining through leadership development and training; children at risk are being protected, educated, and served through the Brazilian Shade and Fresh Water program; and our Native American friends had an outstanding virtual “Nitapewak” (FRIENDS) Family Camp.

Of course, we acknowledge that there are great needs across the globe. We also acknowledge that COVID restrictions currently prohibit our being able to send mission teams to those places. But we rejoice in the fact that through partnership with the church in those places, we can make a difference. This year, the Partnerships of Hope group is recommending and placing before the Annual Conference the request to add two more partners: Haiti and Viet Nam. We for years have been engaged in mission with Haiti, and their needs have escalated due to the recent catastrophe. We also have engaged in mission opportunities with the Methodist Church of Korea in reaching out to young adult populations in Viet Nam. And that, perhaps, is the appeal of this annual report. In this day of declining revenues, the thing that is needed more than anything else is the transformation of lives into fuller discipleship. And I know of nothing more transformative than meeting Jesus as we serve others. The relationships developed, the satisfaction of helping the kingdom come into fuller view, the extension of generosity, the extending and receipt of hospitality fostered by missional engagement may indeed be the place that invites a disbelieving world into life-saving relationships with Christ.

In addition, we continue to seek partner congregations that have passion for this important work and have made investments, both human and capital, to those places of passion. We are inviting you to connect with us, to share your stories, and to help us communicate those life giving and sharing ministries with others.

In closing, the Partnerships of Hope committee would like to thank you for partnering with Christ in this endeavor. We also thank our conference staff person, Rev. Seungsoo ‘RJ’ Jun for his great work and constant encouragement. Partner with us, my Friends, as we go beyond borders and boundaries in becoming learners and influencers, serving our brothers and sisters around the globe.

Virginia Conference Disaster Response Team

The Virginia Conference Disaster Response Team has spent the majority of the year upgrading and maintaining Disaster Response and Recovery Equipment. The Conference Disaster Response Team (CDRT) did provide logistical support to the Virginia Department of Emergency Management (VDEM) with the deployment of our 30’ Shower and Laundry Unit 2 to Blackstone VA during the re-settlement of Afghan refugees. There were not any deployments of ERT Teams in support of disaster response missions. This is of concern in that our ERT Teams are needed to support other conferences, through our UMC connection, in their time of need. As pandemic restrictions decrease I hope and pray that our wonderful, dedicated and trained ERT personnel will once again feel comfortable in answering God’s call to serve. Early Response Team Training has once again started. We have the ability to provide basic ERT and recertification classes via zoom or in person. Churches desiring this training should contact the CDRC Rev. Bob Pihlcrantz at vacdrt1@gmail.com. Our 6 UMCOR certified ERT Trainers are up to date on their certifications and are all chomping at the bit to get back into a training cycle once it is safe to do so.

In the event that a disaster strikes within the Annual Conference of Virginia it will be incumbent upon all of us to step up and step out in faith to do the ministry and mission of the church. We will need to do more with less; that includes people and financial resources.

Remember; “The King will reply, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me’” (Matt 25: 40, NIV)

Disasters can happen anywhere and anytime. The VAUMC CDRT strives to provide the training, equipment and leadership across the Annual Conference when we respond to disasters and by staying for the long-term helping both communities and survivors recover. We can’t do it alone. It takes the entire church to support this ministry with its prayers, gifts and service. Help us to be prepared for the future and give generously to Advance Special #5037. Your donations allow us to continue to train and equip you for this ministry. For what you have done and will do in the future; Thank you.

–Bob Pihlcrantz, Conference Disaster Response Coordinator

Volunteers in Mission (UMVIM)

There were no formally declared UMVIM teams from Virginia during the first three quarters of 2021. At least four small construction teams (3-4 people each) traveled to Guatemala and Honduras during the winter of 2021-22, along with one full medical mission team in March 2022.

2021 became a period of preparing for teams to return to the field. Our first focus was training and recertification of team leaders.

In Summer 2021, all five Team Leader Trainers from the VAUMC participated in 3 weekends of online “Train the Trainer” event hosted by the Jurisdictional UMVIM Directors. Each participant took a section of our team leader manual and made a video or power point presentation online.

Team Leader Training events were held:

July 31, 2021 Williamsburg UMC

March 12, 2022 Harmony UMC, Hamilton

April 2, 2022 St. John’s UMC, Buena Vista

June 4, 2022 Ebenezer UMC, Stafford

There has been a massive surge in interest since the western Kentucky tornadoes of December 2021. Several construction teams are organizing for Kentucky and North Carolina this summer. An event is the planning stages for a training class in Glen Allen, to focus specifically on international mission. Any district or charge interested in hosting an UMVIM Team Leader Training event should contact Terri Morgan at tlynmorgan@icloud.com or (757) 902-2967.

Mission Itineration

Missionaries sent out by Global Ministries “from everywhere to everywhere” thrive in Covenant relationships with congregations and individuals. Whereas generally a missionary would visit their supporting congregations every three years, with the limitations in travel from the global pandemic, Global Ministries have provided #StillInMission virtual visits every month. In these programs, a selection of 4 missionaries share with participants about how God’s mission is expressed in their site: their joys, needs and prayers. Most of these virtual contacts have been recorded and can be viewed to continue to build relationships between missionaries and congregations.

Some of the missionaries that participated in #StillInMission in 2021 that are related to churches in the Virginia Conference are: Andrew Lee (serving in Cambodia), Helen Camarce (Cambodia), Elizabeth “Lisa” Nichols (Jubilee Project, TN), Tendai Manyeza (Sierra Leone) and others. John Elmore (Chile) will be completing his term of service with Global Ministries in 2022. Scheduled presenters in 2022 are John Nday (Mozambique) on June 2 at noon, and Jennifer Moore (North Macedonia) on Nov. 3. Watch conference notices for the registration links to these presentations.

You can view most of these missionaries’ videos at the Global Ministries Vimeo Channel: <https://vimeo.com/gbgm>

The Serving Office can help a congregation initiate or renew a missionary Covenant Relationship which helps build understanding of the role of missionaries in God’s mission across the globe. The benefit of a Missionary Covenant is not only to provide financial support for Global Ministry Missionaries, but also to grow a church’s partnership in God’s mission with individual missionaries by sharing prayer concerns, increasing mutual communication, and perhaps enabling visitation of mission sites. <https://umcmission.org/covenantrelationships/>

Mission Encounter

Mission Encounter prepares United Methodists for faithful living and action by participating in a transformative educational program based on biblically grounded curricula in order to be in ministry for a more just and equitable world—locally and globally. Mission Encounter lives out the Virginia Conference vision, “to be disciples of Jesus Christ who are lifelong learners who influence others to serve.” This conference annual event is supported by the VA Conference United Methodist Women and the VA Conference Office on Serving. It is provided for the laity and clergy throughout the conference. Until 2016, it was the Conference School of Mission and was usually held at Blackstone Assembly Center.

For 2022-2023, there are two virtual events with the theme being Who Can We Be Together? Building Communities of Hope and Joy, a study of Luke 13, curriculum provided by the National United Methodist Women. Eight adult classes are offered in English, Korean and Spanish. Through the Serving Office, there are an additional three classes: Serving 101, Caring Communities and Doing Theology are being offer. CEU credits are given for fulfillment of course requirements for Clergy, Lay Servant participants and other conference leaders requiring credit. A youth course, Community in the Midst of Changing Times and a children’s course, The Growing Tree, both based on Luke 13 will be offered in the spring of 2023. These courses promote learning through intergenerational practice to reinforce respect, individual competences, a more inclusive society and active citizenship.

In Luke 13:18, Jesus said, “How Can I picture God’s kingdom for you?” (The Message) Studying and worshipping together, taking communion together, leads us as Virginia United Methodists to better view the Kingdom of God.

Conference Committee on Mission Personnel (CCMP)

The Conference Committee on Mission Personnel (CCMP) reviewed no applications for full time mission service during the past year. CCMP is seeking communication of a wider audience of folks who may wish to consider full time mission service in cooperation with the needs of the General Board of Global Ministries.

PARTNERSHIP REPORTS

Heart Havens

Heart Havens continues its mission of empowering people with a developmental disability to live and thrive in their community. This year we continued to follow CDC guidelines and found ways to successfully empower people to live their best life.

We continue to operate group homes across the Conference. This past year, we contracted for many upgrades in our homes including two new roofs and three new floors. We also started a robust volunteer program, holding a day for each home in the spring and fall. Many UMCs, some neighbors and a few companies participated. With this work, our homes have a new shine inside and out! This program will be carried forward and we already have some commitments planned.

We are blessed with the support of congregations and small groups throughout the Conference. With your vital support, Heart Havens continues to empower people with a developmental disability by doing more than just providing the basics but also enabling them to live vibrant, independent lives. As brothers and sisters in Christ, we invite you as the church to continue to advocate for Heart Havens and support people with a developmental disability.

Your financial gifts and volunteer engagement make our mission of empowerment possible!

Pinnacle Living

As the last two years of living through a pandemic have altered the programs and outreach of local churches, Pinnacle Living has faced the same changing landscape. COVID-19 has brought many changes to operations, but one priority that will not change is our commitment to meeting the shifting needs of older adults through innovation and mission-driven services.

Residents and team members of our five communities have navigated another year of living and working with the pandemic with resilience. Team members have worked diligently to offer excellent support considering ever-changing federal and state guidance related to variants of the coronavirus and global workforce challenges. Hermitage Community Guild and other volunteers have provided hours of service, engaging with residents and team members in creative and inventive ways given restrictions for onsite activities and visitation. We are especially grateful for the dedication of volunteers from local United Methodist churches.

Pinnacle Living has much to celebrate since our last Annual Conference as we continue our focus on person-centered culture, resident engagement, and social accountability.

- ❖ We were honored to be recognized as the 1st Place Recipient of the Large Company 2021 Best Place to Work Award in the Richmond Region. Given by the Richmond Times Dispatch Top Workplaces program, this award for our Richmond communities – Cedarfield and Hermitage Richmond - along with the Innsbrook corporate office was especially meaningful following the stress our team has been under due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- ❖ Pinnacle Living entered a joint venture agreement with LifeSpire of Virginia, formerly Virginia Baptist Homes, Inc., to provide home health and other support services. through Senior Living Partners of Virginia, LLC (SLP). The newly formed organization will allow both organizations to formally collaborate and expand their mission-focused growth to serve those who currently do not reside inside the walls of a retirement community. The home health company, operating as Affirmation Home Health, is initially providing home health services in the greater Richmond area and will be expanding to Newport News and Williamsburg soon.

- ❖ Our communities (residents, community volunteers, team members) in partnership with seventy-eight local organizations continued to do amazing work which impacted the broader community. From recording books for a local elementary school to collecting food for area food banks and pantries, from hosting neighborhood events on the lawn to packing UMCOR kits, our residents and team members positively impacted citizens of all ages in their localities.
- ❖ Efforts continue to enhance support for those living with Alzheimer's and other dementias through partnership with Dementia Friendly Community efforts, Dementia Friends Virginia, and the Alzheimer's Association.
- ❖ Pinnacle Living is committed to offering opportunities for education and training in professional and vocational fields of all levels related to aging services and health care leadership. These workforce and leadership development initiatives are purposeful: to meet both current needs and to secure the future of aging services. On-site internships and training, partnerships with local higher education programs, and our Pinnacle Scholars program which provides scholarship assistance for team member continuing education and training are examples of this commitment.
- ❖ Emphasis continues to be placed on respecting and honoring diversity. Each community named three Ambassadors to serve on an organization-wide Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) Team. The Team is tasked with helping to further develop our DEI programming and education at each community.

The generosity of churches and individual donors has been overwhelming amid the pandemic. Individual gifts, bequests and other ways of giving have provided support for the Samaritan Program, resident engagement, and community-specific initiatives. We offer our deepest appreciation to all the local churches that included the Samaritan Program in your second mile giving. This benevolent assistance has been offered in Pinnacle Living communities since the organization was founded in 1948. The following Samaritan Award Churches were recognized for the highest level of giving among congregations in the Virginia Annual Conference during FY2021.

- ❖ Trinity (Richmond District)
- ❖ Fairfax (Alexandria)
- ❖ Markham (Winchester)
- ❖ Fairmount (Richmond)
- ❖ Walker Chapel (Arlington)
- ❖ Rocky Mount (Danville)
- ❖ Clarendon (Arlington)
- ❖ Gainesboro (Winchester)
- ❖ Westover Hills (Richmond)
- ❖ Annandale (Arlington)

Thank you to all the local churches that maintain connections with our residents, volunteer to make our communities stronger and continue to support the Samaritan Program. As we look to the future, Pinnacle Living is enthusiastic about new, market-driven opportunities to continue to enrich life's journey for older adults. We look forward to our work together as relational partners in the mission outreach of the Virginia Conference.

UMFS - United Methodist Family Services of Virginia

In 2021, UMFS continued to live out our mission as unwavering champions for high-risk children and families, collaborating with communities to help them reach their full potential. We serve children in foster care and children struggling with mental health and behavioral challenges through foster and adoption programs, specialized education schools, and residential treatment programs. In 2021 we served 1,912 children and teens. We strive to support the entire family, helping us touch the lives of 8,710 high-risk children and family members in 132 communities across Virginia.

Since our founding in 1900, the churches of the Virginia Conference have partnered with us as advocates for high-risk children and families. Churches help recruit and support foster and adoptive families, serve as volunteers in UMFS programs, provide much-needed financial support, and donate countless gifts-in-kind. Church partners and the UMFS Auxiliary are critical resources for the children and families we serve.

We continue to invest to upgrade our facilities and technologies to build capacity for our programs to address some of the most pressing challenges facing our communities today. The Be a Champion Capital Campaign is our first comprehensive effort to revitalize our 33-acre Richmond campus since the 1950s. We are funding this project through charitable gifts, a long-term land lease on the front of our property, and internal refinancing and debt reduction.

We are excited to share that Phase 1 of the Be a Champion Capital Campaign was concluded in December 2021 with the completion of the new UMFS Child & Family Healing Center building. This beautiful new facility serves youth ages 11 - 18 who are struggling with acute mental health challenges. Youth from across Virginia live on our campus for 3 - 18 months while participating in customized therapeutic treatment to help them heal. This state-of-the-art facility provides many meaningful upgrades to both the living space and therapy space. Each child has a private room which includes a private bathroom. Group and family therapy spaces are dramatically expanded, and all spaces have modern, soothing décor.

We will break ground on Phase 2 of the campaign in spring 2022 to build an expansion for the UMFS Charterhouse School building. The addition includes 10 new classrooms, a cafeteria and kitchen for our new dining program and a recreational therapy room for students. We are grateful for the generous support of the Be a Champion Campaign donors who have helped make this possible.

In April 2021, Greg Peters retired as President and CEO after 40 years of service. I am grateful to Greg for his leadership. It is an honor and a privilege to have been appointed by the Board as the new President and CEO, after 15 years of service to the agency. The values of UMFS mirror my own, and I look forward to building on the firm foundation Greg created for us.

We are grateful for the support of the Virginia Conference and for your partnership with us as unwavering champions for high-risk children and families. We ask for your continued advocacy for high-risk children, youth, and families. Together, we can create a world where caring, opportunity and generosity are passed on from generation to generation, empowering all children to contribute to society as engaged citizens.

Virginia United Methodist Housing Development Corporation

The Virginia United Methodist Housing Development Corporation (“VUMHDC”) is an affiliated entity with the Virginia Annual Conference, having a mission to expand the supply of affordable housing to the disabled, low-income and senior populations in Virginia. VAUMHDC has an annual goal of developing, renovating, partnering in, and/or refinancing at least one new facility a year.

VUMHDC currently owns and operates sixteen (16) apartment properties and is the non-profit minority partner of an additional seventeen (17) properties. Totaling these 33 properties, VUMHDC has approximately 2000 apartment units across the conference. These apartment properties serve over 3000 residents, equally mixed between seniors and families. All of the apartments are classified as “affordable”, meaning that all receive some form of subsidization through HUD or Virginia Housing.

Since our founding in 1975, VUMHDC’s program has been accomplished without operating support or allocations from the Virginia Annual Conference. Our projects and operating costs are funded entirely through governmental grants, low-income housing tax credits (LIHTC), community partnerships, and income/distributions from our project operations.

VUMHDC is led by President Larry Dickenson, a lay member of Raleigh Court UMC in Roanoke. He is assisted by the corporate officers making up the Executive Committee, and the other eight (8) Directors.

VUMHDC has identified a multi-year priority of strengthening the corporate capabilities, as we evolve toward a new, sustainable business model. This direction will require some added Directors, employees and consultants with applicable industry credentials, providing the necessary expertise to aid in expansion of our program.

During the period 2018-2021 we completed a series of transactions, including renovations, & expansions of existing properties and sale of targeted assets. Those transactions significantly strengthened our balance sheet, preparing VUMHDC for the next stage in its evolution. In 2021, we received approval from the IRS for our affiliated entity, Momentum Housing Corp, a 501.C (3) non-profit, enabling us to receive donations of property and/or contributions and extend a tax deduction to the donors. We also initiated a series of eleven transactions to refinance and renovate much of our portfolio over the next five (5) years. We see our best years are still ahead of us!

– Larry Dickenson, President

THE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY (BHECM)

I continue to be amazed at the resilience of our campus ministers, chaplains, and students in what have been 2 years of insurmountable challenge. It goes without saying that campus restrictions affected student morale, but it would be a mistake to overlook the many other lamentable matters that have taken place during this time; many of our campus buildings have had damage due to flooding, students have been increasingly in need of resources surrounding mental health, several of our ministries have been the targets of anti-LGBTQ+ rhetoric, some have lost board members to COVID-19 and students to tragedy, others have experienced gun violence, and the sins of racism and white supremacy continue to permeate in various facets of student life and academia.

And yet, there is never a more opportune time to celebrate God's faithfulness as these ministries continue to be vessels for justice and prophetic witness in response to the powers and principalities of this world. Our students have brought the community together through vigils, prayer walks, daily encouragement, and community action. They have launched mentor programs, support groups to speak to the various needs of our students, partnered with local schools, participated in ministry with Afghan refugees, and supported on-campus efforts to meet students who are living with food insecurity. Beyond our regular allocation of salary and property grants contingent upon the fruit-bearing work of our ministries, we have also begun reimagining the nature of local church partnerships as we reignite the work of our local boards.

At the start of the year, our board voted to honor the leadership of the Rev. Dr. Justin Allen for his ministry with the students at Shenandoah University, presenting him with the Francis Asbury Award, given to individuals who have contributed significantly to higher education ministry. We additionally made the exciting decision to reinstate funding to United Campus Ministries at Christopher Newport University as it continues to rebuild and renew under the leadership of Rev. Michael Burnett.

It is no secret that our denomination is in a precarious position with all that is ahead of us, but I believe this liminal space is an invitation to reshape what I have perceived to be a narrative surrounding campus ministry as simply a "youth group" for young adults. Our Conference has the responsibility to change that story! We are a Conference that places tremendous support, both financially and formationally, toward our campus ministries. If you were to survey our Annual Conference body, you would witness just how many of our clergy and laity first responded to a call to serve in the local church, as lay leaders, as youth directors, worship leaders, General Conference delegates and more because of their campus ministry experience. One of the ways we have been emphasizing this vital missional pulse beyond the local church is through consulting work with the United Methodist Commission, a coaching model based out of the North and South Georgia Conferences.

As I complete my first year as chair, I extend my gratitude to the ministry of our recent board chair, John Dunning, as well as our outgoing property chair, Bill Pike, both of who have poured their hearts into not only ensuring the vitality of our campus ministry spaces, but more importantly, the Conference's commitment to this invaluable mission of the church universal. Our team is indebted to the incredible staff support we have in Becky Tate and Rev. Nickie Moreno Howard, both having handled transitions and the changing Conference landscape with grace and patience.

WESLEY FOUNDATIONS

The Wesley Foundation at Longwood University & Hampden-Sydney College

The Wesley Foundation at Longwood University and Hampden-Sydney College in Farmville, VA has spent the past year working to provide a place where college students feel safe, valued, and loved. We have seen great need to give students a space to not just explore faith but also rest their bodies and minds.

Covid-19 has been a challenge (for everyone) and we continue to provide Ministry to our college students. We have enjoyed our worship times together as well as our small group times during the week. We have spent more time not only on campus with our students but out in the community as well. We have also been able to safely provide dinner for our students this past year and are also excited to bring back our spring break mission trip. We are partnering with Farmville UMC and the Episcopal Campus Ministry to work here in Farmville together. We are excited to serve where we are. This has been a piece of our ministry that took a break during the pandemic and we are all excited to see it back.

We thank the Annual Conference for their support and prayers for Campus Ministry and the work that is being done here in Farmville and around the state on our college campuses to provide a place for students to explore their faith.

– Justin A. Hicks, Director

Wesley Foundation at Old Dominion University

This past year has been one of preparation, change, and building relationships as we launch the newest campus ministry in the Virginia Conference. The Wesley Foundation at Old Dominion University will launch this coming fall to be in ministry with the students, faculty, and staff of ODU.

Since the last Annual Conference, our focus has been to build the foundations of the ministry in order to ensure a successful launch. This has included establishing a strong local board that has been hard at work building the structure of the ministry. The ministry has been blessed by their leadership and hard work. We inherited a building with an incredible location to campus but one that's needed lots of love and attention to get ready for students. While it's been a lot of work to prepare the space it has offered us several opportunities to build relationships with local churches, community members, and our district youth who spent a day painting most of the building.

While we have not launched yet, we have already been engaging the community on campus by partnering with other campus ministries and connecting with students in common spaces. We are full of hope and excitement as we get closer to fall and the return of students to campus. If you are unfamiliar with Old Dominion University it is a campus full of potential. ODU is home to over 24,000 students and is one of the most diverse college campuses in the US.

As we launch we are hopeful that we will find ourselves with the bulk of the pandemic behind us, giving us greater opportunities to connect with these students and build a ministry that reflects the incredible diversity found on campus. We look forward to the ways we will continue to partner with local churches and community members. Thank you Virginia Conference for your continued prayers and partnership as we launch this new ministry on the campus of ODU.

—Rev. Joshua McCauley, Director and Campus Minister

The Wesley Foundation at UVA

Wesley has a long tradition of gathering for weekly Communion. Over the decades, this has happened in different ways, from short services held on UVA grounds in between classes, to our more recent practice of Sunday evening worship with preaching, singing, prayers, and the sacrament. Many alumni name our practice of weekly Communion – and especially serving one another around the circle – as one of the most formative parts of their time in the Wesley community.

As I write this, it's almost exactly two years to the day since the university sent students home in March for the rest of the 2020 spring semester. Since then, we have continued to worship together weekly, but the format, location, and liturgy have changed four times and counting. We have worshipped entirely online, we have gathered outside, and, once we could safely bring back student dinners last fall, we moved to a dinner church model. We have been on a “temporary” pause in weekly Communion for the past two years, celebrating the sacrament sporadically in person (outside) and even online a couple of times.

Now, only the fourth-year students have experienced an entire “normal” academic year. They graduate in May, and the current third-year students will be the only students left who are able to remember a time when Wesley gathered in person every week to receive bread for the journey, handling the elements, and serving them to one another in a close circle.

As I prepare to leave this appointment after 17 years serving as Campus Minister, what I will miss most is celebrating and receiving weekly Communion. Even though I haven't been able to do so for two years already. That practice has formed me into the Christian and the pastor I am. Just as it has formed many generations of students. It has fed us, challenged us, nurtured us, and changed us. Thanks be to God!

My hope for Wesley as we all emerge from the pandemic, is that this community will be able to recover this central and formative weekly practice. I will be praying for the next campus minister and the many new generations of students who will find their home and their calling within this circle. And I will be praying for our Conference, who once had the vision to begin campus ministries where none existed, and whose leaders are very often those who were formed in and called from campus ministries like this one. Lives are changed—transformed for Christ—here, by simple things like bread and wine, water and cups of coffee, retreats and spring break service trips. May this Church and our Conference continue to see, fund, and bless these students and this vital mission field.

Wesley Foundation at Virginia Commonwealth University | PACE

The Pace Center is VCU's Wesley Foundation at Virginia Commonwealth University. At Pace, the unity and diversity of the Body of Christ found in 1 Corinthians 12 is the vision through which we see our community. Pace believes The Kingdom of God is a reality to be experienced by all and emphasizes the following values: Every individual is created with infinite value and lives more fully in the Kingdom when they are empowered to use their gifts to help their communities thrive. All are created to live in deep relationships with one another, not in isolation.

What does this look like on the ground? In 2021, Pace worked with more than 40 student leaders who learned servant leadership principles. They learn to identify their own gifts, to listen deeply to the ideas, passions, and gifts of those on VCU's campus, and then work with others to bring those assets to life. In 2021, these students led an average of 18 weekly events and almost 2,000 unique students walked through Pace's doors to experience community and a place where they felt valued.

Deeply listening and responding lovingly takes on many shapes at Pace. At the weekly Community Café, students learned about the culture and food of the weekly student chef. At Open Mic Night, students share their stories through music and poetry. At weekly Stories and Lunch, students share heartbreaking challenges and funny anecdotes over a homemade meal provided by a church or community member. At Walk-A-Dog, students share ways they are homesick and meet others looking for community. At Mindfulness, students share practices that give them rest from the hectic rhythm of life. At Belmont Community Resource Services, students share their time and energy to help feed nearly 400 families a week alongside members of Belmont United Methodist Church. And at Scripture and Conversation students share how they see God's story intersect with theirs and the story of their community, as well as the doubts and fears they have in their faith-journey.

In addition to student-led programs, Pace is focused on caring for our students. Pace has begun to partner with VCU's Presbyterian and Episcopalian campus ministers which has significantly increased our capacity to offer worship service, bible study, and pastoral care to students who are struggling with increased feelings of anxiety, depression, and uncertainty. Pace's Mentorship Program helps students explore their desired career path, by connecting them with professionals in the Richmond community and especially to United Methodist Church Members. And our new Student Circles ministry provides an intentional space for holistic care and an opportunity for students to develop a relationship with a non-student adult who they can rely upon for guidance and support as they navigate college life, often a local-church pastor or counselor.

VCU is incredibly diverse racially, culturally, and economically. More than 30% of VCU students are the first in their families to attend post-secondary education, 32% qualified for Pell Grant funding, and more than 25% of VCU students identify as queer. 40% of VCU students experience food insecurity at some point while on campus. VCU is a majority-minority campus. The students at Pace reflect VCU's diverse community. This community is filled with needs and gifts. It is rich in culture and experience. It has students from all over the world, including refugees and affluent international students. It has students from more than a dozen faiths and world views, including the most predominant of "none." At Pace, diversity is not something to overcome but something that makes us all stronger, richer – more reflective of the Kingdom of God.

In all that Pace does, it seeks to be a foretaste of the Kingdom of God. Pace is humbled to have been able to provide deep intentional community and a sense of value and worth to nearly 2,000 students during a pandemic that has had a devastating impact on their mental and spiritual health. Pace has only able to reach so many students in such profound ways because of the power of the Holy Spirit and the support of the Virginia United Methodist Church. Thank you.

F.L.O.W. has been thriving in spite of the pandemic, as each of you all know the pandemic has had its ups and downs, and its effects on all of us. I am elated to report that F.L.O.W. has been still moving strongly in our mission of Fellowship, Love, Outreach, and Worship. We have been able to continue our work with each other and in the community throughout these past few months. One of our biggest projects that we participated in this semester has been our annual freshmen move in day. During this time F.L.O.W. along with students who are currently a part of the ministry, we move freshmen into their dorms and help them get registered and make sure that everything is well with them as some of them are away from their families, guardians, friends, and loved ones. We let them know who we are, and we give away prizes to them, and inform them of how they can become involved in Campus Ministries. During this time we have had the opportunity to ease the fears of students who are just moving away from home.

Another ministry opportunity has been F.L.O.W. partnering with the St. Stephens Episcopal Church, Good Shepherd Baptist Church, Virginia NAACP, various different Virginia State Organizations in packing boxes to feed the surrounding communities who are facing food insecurities. During this time we all meet at Good Shepherd Baptist Church along with organizations and we pack down boxes of food to give to the community. Each month the 1st Wednesday the ministry in conjunction with other organizations give away over 150 boxes to the community. We as a ministry have been able to live out our mission of outreach to those who are facing food insecurity. We understand and know that our mission in this world is in conjunction with Matthew 25:34-40.

In conclusion, as we continue to make disciples in ministry we are growing in numbers and our intentions for this upcoming year is to celebrate more marginalized groups within our own community and we are excited to work with our Rainbow Organization at Virginia State University to show the love of Christ to those who are apart of LGBTQIA+ community.

Wesley helped me stay connected during the time of COVID while in school. Being in my apartment all day everyday was not good for my mental health and going to Wesley or seeing my friends that are a part of Wesley was a breath of fresh air! Wesley made me feel like I was doing something important and not forgotten during this time of COVID! - Justin Davies (Sr.)

“Wesley created an atmosphere of community during COVID that we were not able to find in any other clubs or organizations. It took away the feelings of isolation and allowed me to create meaningful relationship in time that not many others were.” – Abby Michaelson (Sr.)

“Wesley has been a rock for me in an otherwise uncertain time. At Wesley I know I can always find people who will support me unconditionally and are supportive of any struggle large or small. I love the community here and having these connections was essential at a time when we were forced, by COVID, to physically distance.” – Kevin Cover (Sr.)

Over this past year I am extremely proud of our students' ability to adapt and maintain a positive sense of community in the midst of a challenging time for people on campuses. As you can see from the quotes above, Wesley continues to be a safe place where students find community, live into their faith, and provide a sense of normalcy in an arduous context. In a time where it would have been easy to shut down and say it was just too hard to do ministry, the students at Wesley continued to provide meaningful and safe space for students to grow in their faith, thrive in fellowship, and lead through adversity.

By no means was this easy, but it is a tribute to our team-based model of leadership that our students figured out ways to do Youth Retreats virtually, mission projects on days they had off from school (they did not have a true Spring Break Week this past year), worship virtually and outside in person, run a food pantry (209 Marketplace) for college students who are food insecure, tutor/mentor middle and high school students, hang out in our building, have small groups (Communities of Grace), and even reach out to new students to get them connected.

Our Outreach Ministry had to look incredibly different than in years past. Our community still was able to connect with new students and get them involved in the ministry through tabling on campus (providing “Cake in a Mug”) and being a place that students felt comfortable due to our COVID safe atmosphere. To start this year, we were able to do some of the same events as before, but we added a few more; Water Wars after the first day of classes to let students toss water balloons and shoot water cannons at each other, a Tie-dyed night where students made t-shirts, socks, and bandanas, and lots of outreach to the new dorm across the street were several of the more than 12 events in 20 days to start the semester!

Being a community that ALL PEOPLE feel affirmed and welcomed is a hallmark of our ministry on campus. New students are continually sharing how Wesley makes them feel loved and how it is a witness to the love of Christ. As we seek to “Love Out Loud” in all that we do, Wesley will not let any hate or intimidation (like what happened in August as our Pride flags were torn down and replaced with Confederate flags) stop us from sharing the abundant love of God to all we meet. We will continue to live into our Vision “to be an affirming, grace-filled community that develops and sends out disciples rooted in faith.”

What a blessing it is to be in ministry on this campus and we are grateful for the ways our Annual Conference partners with us in this ministry by your prayers, your presence, your gifts, and your service! We could not do this without you and thank you for being a blessing to so many students through our connection!

The Wesley Foundation at William & Mary

When I look back over 2021, I could not be prouder of our students, our board, and our community. Because of the amazing support and commitment of so many, we lived out God’s call just as powerfully, as any previous year. All of this is possible because we are clear on who God is calling us to be, and we continue to follow God’s vision for us.

Wesley continues to be a vital ministry and lifeline for so many students during the pandemic. with online and in-person ministry, all focused on meeting students where they are, and keeping them as safe as possible. With all our ministries, Wesley continues to have hundreds of interactions with students, as well as faculty and staff each year.

Since January 2020, the Wesley House has continuously been providing housing for students. When the campus is open, we are housing the students who have applied, interviewed, and been accepted to live at Wesley. When campus is closed to residents, we are full of students who do not have a safe place to live with the dorms shut down. With these students, we are not only providing housing, but groceries, transportation, and vital community for folks who do not have a network of support. When there were more students than we could house, we networked with trusted folks in the community to find them housing. In 2021 we provided housing and support to those students for a total of 18 weeks.

But don’t take my word for it, listen to what one student new to Wesley has to say: “I was struck by the warm, welcoming, unconditionally accepting atmosphere of the group. I was impressed by how meetings managed to blend lighthearted fun and friendship and serious conversations, and I left them all feeling both joyful and contemplative. I was also really moved by how the Wesley House functions as a campus pantry and as a sanctuary for students who don’t have anywhere else to go. Above all, I really liked Wesley’s attitude of striving to do good without being self-congratulatory, always exploring the systemic roots of issues; embracing Christian values of doing good while examining how Christianity has been used for nefarious purposes, and emphasizing “loving your neighbor” while taking a stand against injustice and discrimination.”

We are so grateful for the continuing support of the annual conference, Williamsburg UMC, Wellspring UMC, and so many groups throughout the York River District. We continue to grow into a community as our vision statement says, “Through following Jesus, we embrace God’s radical hospitality for all.”

Rise U/Rise United Methodist Faith Community

Much like the first year of this pandemic, this year with RISE U has been marked by great resilience. Through Zoom meetings, delivering distanced pick-me-ups, and eventual in-person gatherings, RISE U has been guided by the Holy Spirit to find a way through this time as a community when it often felt there was no way through. We came into the year with a lot of hope for new programs and in-person festivities, and while we were able to do quite a bit, some stuff just couldn’t come to fruition due to the nature of the pandemic. Nevertheless, we were resilient in revisioning, revitalizing, and relaunching the college ministry. When the College

Outreach Coordinator Abby stepped into this role, she often referred back to and thought back on her time with Arise Campus Ministry in her college days. The intentional community and constant showing up for people who needed it was a big influence in what she hoped to accomplish with RISE U.

Like most communities in 2021, we spent the first part of 2021 virtual. RISE U, our college ministry, spent many months meeting over Zoom. Even though students already had most of their classes online and felt Zoom Fatigue, they still made time and consistently showed up for one another through conversations on vulnerability, reading a spiritual book together, and discussing hard topics like racism together.

In the spring of 2021, our College Outreach Coordinator Abby Butler-Cefalo realized that students really needed a pick-me-up after a rather gloomy winter. With the help of community volunteers, Bags of Sunshine filled with sweets, mini pots, soil, and spring flowers were made to deliver love to students that were otherwise having to stay alone in their dorms. This was a beautiful way to usher in a new season of hope. In the same vein, in the fall of 2021 James Madison University allowed professors to have Saturday classes despite dining halls not opening until mid-morning. To combat frustration around this, Abby along with a student leader and community volunteer made breakfast for multiple students and hand delivered breakfast to students before they had to go to class.

As the hard winter melted away into a hopeful spring, RISE U finally had its first in-person event. At the end of the spring semester, we had a Senior Celebration at a local park where we celebrated and honored our graduating seniors. Despite the fact we spent most of our time only knowing each other from the chest up through a computer screen, students still showed up and already felt deeply rooted within the community. Through masks, we could still feel and see the love that students already had for one another.

Moving into the fall semester of 2021, the College Outreach Coordinator really wanted to focus on what set RISE U apart - thus, our fall campaign of #LoveHitsDifferent was born. Abby spent the entire semester doing intentional outreach and sharing how our love “hits different” - a Gen Z term that means “better than average.” We focused hard on being a vibrant and healthy community and celebrating our diverse identities and life experiences. This drew a lot of interest, and RISE U bloomed. Our numbers significantly increased, as did the energy and joy within RISEU. Indeed, a message rooted in God’s unconditional love can change lives!

Throughout this challenging year, one consistent silver lining in an otherwise grim world has continued to be a program called Love Packs. Love Packs partners with local elementary schools to provide families with meals intended to provide nutrition throughout the weekend. Without Love Packs, many community members and children could go to bed hungry. This program has continually connected with different aspects of the JMU community, including the gymnastics team, the softball team, and various other sports teams. This has been one way we have been able to mix our college communities with the greater RISE Community. We are excited about the potential to keep growing Love Packs.

We also celebrate that we went on our first college student retreat in several years. We took a group of students, all of whom came from different faith backgrounds and experiences, and spent the weekend at Camp Alta Mons unplugging from technology and connecting with creation and our Creator. At the end of the retreat, multiple students asked to be baptized because of how impactful the weekend away with RISE U was to them. After how successful our first retreat was, we look forward to turning this into a regular event.

RISE celebrates a year of growth, tenacity, and resilience! We are indescribably grateful for the ongoing support of our friends at the Annual Conference level and beyond. We joyfully anticipate whatever the next year may bring, and we trust that our ministry partners and the Holy Spirit will encourage and sustain us in and through it all.

—Abby Butler-Cefalo, Campus Outreach Coordinator

ECUMENICAL CAMPUS MINISTRIES

ARISE at George Mason University

The past academic year, 2021 – 2022 has been a year of rebuilding and resilience at Arise Campus Ministry. Three quarters of our students had not completed a full academic year on campus, and we were unsure what this year would hold for us. We prepared our hearts and minds for another rebuilding effort, focusing on prayer, discerning what the Holy Spirit wanted from us, readying our hearts to meet students where they are, and committing ourselves to continue to be the inclusive and affirming Christian campus ministry at George Mason University and Northern Virginia Community College. Unsurprisingly, God showed up and so did our amazing students, board members, donors, partner churches and staff. We have more students than we thought want to come out and be a part of our beautiful Arise Campus Ministry faith community.

This year we have met more new students and continued our campus ministry and the Life-groups that have characterized our ministry. We currently have Life-groups that study the Bible, reach out to the community, focus on racial and social justice, and a thriving worship podcast which is seeing hundreds of listens and downloads a month. These groups and programs continue to help form a community at GMU and NOVA CC that is focused on our values of loving Jesus, inclusivity, diversity, compassion, equity, and authenticity. Our student leaders and staff members continue to make a difference on campus and in the community to advocate for justice and inclusion of all persons.

We are so thankful for our partnership with members and churches in the Virginia Annual Conference and for the love we have received. We continue to be a place that see a great number of LGBTQ+ students and their aspiring allies who want to come to experience God’s love and we then connect them to our partner churches. We are so thankful for our partners who say yes to our students' lives and affirm their calling and value to God. We continue to live into the agreement we have with the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church, the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, the National Capital Presbytery, the Potomac Association of the United Church of Christ, and the Mid-Atlantic region of the Disciples of Christ and live into all their religious expressions and traditions which include striving to be anti-racist, celebrating same-gender weddings, journeying with LGBTQ+ members and others as they discern their call onward to ordination.

We will continue to be and refuse to be anything less than the campus ministry that will welcome all, share God's universal love, and compassionately live out our faith on campus, and in the community. We could not do so without the members of this Annual Conference that inspire, embolden, and spur us forward to love fiercely and boldly all persons, just as Jesus calls us to do. So, thank you to all the amazing volunteers, donors, supporters, local churches, pastors, board members and Virginia Conference partners. Without the Virginia Conference and the many faithful and loving persons who care about young adults throughout our Conference, we would not be doing God's work on campus. On behalf of myself, our staff, volunteers, students, and others thank you for assisting us to build God's family, God's Kingdom at George Mason University and Northern Virginia Community Colleges.

–Drew Ensz, Ministry Director

Campus Christian Community at the University of Mary Washington

This year at the CCC has been one to remember! While we still had to balance the surges of COVID variants and various guidelines we still were able to meet and continue to grow in faith. Flexibility was key when it comes to programming, but thankfully we handled that well! This year we met lots of new students and were able to grow our community! We are thankful that we can still meet new people during chaotic times. We have several things to celebrate this year including the baptism of a student who is on our student ministry team and creating deeper connections with faculty and staff of the University of Mary Washington. We've continued to meet and worship together, have conversations, practice def care, and so much more. We are thankful for the support of the VAUMC and many local churches. We were able to have two retreats where we stayed local and got to know our community better. We are continuing to see how God continues to call us as a campus ministry and how we can better love our neighbors.

Community College Ministries of Southwest Virginia

Fifty years ago, a pastor in Little Rock asked me to help build pig pens for Heifer International in rural Arkansas. I was 15. All it took was a simple invitation and I've been answering that call ever since. I serve as your campus minister with community colleges, a vibrant witness to the Gospel of Jesus Christ sponsored by the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church and the Presbytery of the Peaks, PCUSA. If we made a movie, here are a few excerpts.

Angie lives in Danville. She told me not long ago, "It just breaks my heart to go to so many funerals" so she organized an after-school basketball program for youth at risk of gang violence. Games begin with a prayer circle and a hundred young people come every weekday. One day at Green Street Park, intervention specialist Jeff May ask the group, "How many will go home tonight and be the ones to take care of your younger brothers and sisters?" Two out of three young people raised their hands, because more likely than not the parent is working a second or third job to pay the rent. Later, a young man begged Jeff to help him stay out of the gangs. Danville Community College counselors, students, and local pastors stood by to help. I discovered something that day. At-risk youth are not just at-risk for violence or dropping out of school. They are also at-risk of hunger, yes hunger. Many don't get food at home and they are ostracized if they get a free school lunch, so they don't eat. A local vendor gives us $3 pizzas and churches bring sandwiches to the games. Do you want to hear more? Angie and I will come to your church.

Peggy is a community college counselor. Peggy and I were chatting one morning when I noticed her desk and filing cabinet were open but nary a file in sight. The drawers were full of bread. Peggy explained, "Students don't have enough money for both school and food. Food is the best help I can provide." We put together a proposal and the General Board of Global Ministries sent Community College Ministries $25,000 for food and fuel assistance to students. Today, many community colleges have fully stocked food pantries. You'll find them near the counseling office!

Felicia was a student at Virginia Western Community College. A single parent, Felicia helped us launch a partnership with the Black Church called Alliance for Excellence in 1986. Distinguished Professor of Systematic Theology at Columbia the Reverend Dr. James Cone gave the inaugural address. Alliance for Excellence is still going strong and has involved more than 22,000 students in awards, service, motivational seminars, tutoring, mentoring, strategies to expand opportunities in higher education and, in 2018, a new partnership with the Office of Racial Healing & Transformation at Duke University. In 2016, 22 students visited the Obama White House. In 2022, a dozen of our students will serve as Duke-Danville Fellows and share their story at the Racial Healing Institute in Atlanta. One young graduate is now an executive at the National Institute of Health and another student is a lifetime, full-ride Gates Scholar. Community college and church partnerships plant seeds of hope and bear fruits of the Spirit!

Our campuses have about 50,000 students – Virginia Western, Central Virginia, Danville, Patrick & Henry, Dabney Lancaster, New River, Blue Ridge, Wytheville, Virginia Highlands, Southwest Virginia, and Mountain Empire. The student you meet in the courtyard will likely be 30 years old, a single parent, working two jobs, service club president, and taking classes to qualify for a new job. Some will work in health care, some engineering. Some come from foster care. Some are victims of domestic violence. Some need care for their children. Some need care for their parents. Others are moving on to advanced degrees. All have a unique and compelling story to share. Whenever I walk on campus, I look around and think, "All it takes is a simple invitation."

Weekly Events

“Lydia’s Table” Encouragement Ministry (engages ~55 students weekly)

Two days a week from 11 AM – 2 PM, our students and campus minister maintain a table in the Student Union. At the table, we offer information about our ministry and a sign-up sheet for our email distribution list, prayer cards and devotionals, and wearables such as stickers and buttons bearing messaging consistent with our Christian values. There is also a box for students to write anonymous prayer requests, and another box where students can take and/or leave small written messages of encouragement and affirmation for one another. Of course, we are on hand if anyone needs in-person prayer or just wants to talk. In the past, we have also offered complementary beverages at the table – tea and lemonade in warm weather, coffee and cocoa in cold weather. We hope to resume beverage service once COVID subsides and we can resume safely.

Weekly Worship Gatherings (attended by ~6 students)

Each Thursday evening we gather in the campus Chapel for a little over an hour for a liturgical, prayer-oriented worship service including Holy Communion. Rather than having a sermon preached at these gatherings, there is a time set aside for open discussion and sharing whatever the Spirit moves in our students’ hearts and minds. Last semester we were blessed with a new student who has the gifts and graces for leading praise music, and by the end of this semester we hope to have a student-led worship team providing music for these gatherings.

Group Study (attended by ~5 students)

Each semester (and occasionally over the Summer) we take on a new group study. Examples of previous studies include but are not limited to the following:

- ❖ Sermon on the Mount: A Beginner’s Guide to the Kingdom of Heaven by Amy-Jill Levine 1 Corinthians by N.T. Wright
- ❖ Embracing an Adult Faith by Marcus Borg
- ❖ Being Christian: Baptism, Bible, Eucharist, Prayer by Rowan Williams This semester we plan to take on Parables of Jesus by J. Ellsworth Kalas.

Semesterly Events

Exam Snacks Ministry (engages ~300 students daily over the course of a week)

During Finals week, we partner with volunteers from several local churches to provide a three-table- long spread of snacks, drinks, and exam materials (“scantron” bubble sheets and “blue book” examination books) for 4-6 hours each day (broken into 2-hour “shifts”). During a stressful week in which it’s easy for students to forget to eat, hydrate, and rest, this ministry provides a crucial outreach at a crucial time. It also provides a wonderful opportunity for members of local congregations to meet and interact with students on campus.

Service Projects (engagement varies)

In the past, we have partnered with THRIVE Peninsula to help participate in a campus-wide shoe drive, with the Society of St. Andrew to facilitate a “potato drop” on campus, RISE Against Hunger to help package food for hungry people, and others. COVID has made arranging and executing service projects a little tricky, but we hope to resume these as soon as possible.

Past and Future Events

Prayer Walks (Engaged ~4 students weekly)

Pre-COVID, we would meet weekly in a public place to read scripture rooted in a certain current event/issue or theme, discuss it, and walk around the Great Lawn once or twice in silent walking/breath prayer before returning to our starting point to share our experiences during the prayer walk. This seemed to be very fruitful for our students and we look forward to bringing it back in future semesters.

Movie Nights (Engaged ~2 students every other week)

During virtual-only learning, when students were at home, we offered screenings of “The Chosen” on alternating Fridays over Zoom. The engagement was never high, and it is questionable whether or not we will try to revive this particular activity.

Traveling Supper Church (Engaged ~4 students and ~4 local church members weekly)

Pre-COVID, we partnered with a handful of local churches so that each Sunday evening our students were invited to a different local church to prepare and share a meal with a contingent of that church’s members (and clergy) in the spirit of the Early Church. The churches were encouraged to offer some sort of program, which took varying forms, from a brief presentation on the church’s denomination, history, and polity, to Communion, to a full-on Taize Vespers service. This was a wonderful opportunity to connect our students with the members of local churches on a more personal level than simply showing up on a Sunday morning, and a great opportunity for our local congregations to meet our students. We look forward to reviving this program once we can do so safely.

Wesley-Westminster Foundation at Norfolk State University

The Wesley-Westminster Foundation (WWF) at Norfolk State University (NSU) continues to be the largest and most active campus ministry at NSU. WWF Campus Ministry is an ecumenical ministry of the United Methodist and Presbyterian Churches seeking to impact the College, the Community, and the Current Culture with Christian Principles, Open Hearts and Open Minds. It is our mission to provide a safe place to explore and to experience one's faith, while offering a respectful and non-threatening environment of love, service to others and learning.

The last two years have been tumultuous trying to provide exceptional ministry, support, and love as well as staying safe and healthy. While much of this safe space has been relegated to zoom, one to one telephone and Facetime calls, and small group meetings, we continue to prevail. It is our goal to reach as many students as possible and therefore we participate in all school sponsored events. Some of our regular events on campus have been cancelled or postponed due to Covid. This has negatively impacted our ability to meet and to attract students. Many of the classes are being taught online and not in person. Therefore, some students suffer from zoom fatigue. These students who do not attend our Bible Study via zoom receive email or texted copies of the Bible Study manuscript.

This year has been laden with bomb threats on our university and other Historically Black Colleges and Universities further exacerbating the feelings of anxiety, stress, and depression that many campus ministry students have expressed. I have tried to keep students encouraged by offering telephone calls, encouraging texts, check ins and when possible, face to face meetings. We continue to provide Bible Study with limited meals and or take out. Small groups meet, we worship together, and we have corporate prayer.

We have established several partnerships. One provides a Food Pantry for our students. Another offers fresh food for distribution, and supplies such as sanitizer and disinfectant wipes. We participated in Food Share Distribution for the holidays as well as providing more than 300 meals to food insecure persons. Students helped with Food Baskets to be distributed as well. New Horizons Presbyterian Church allowed us to have our Annual Thanksgiving Dinner by opening their doors to our students and community supporters. Our toy drive for Christmas was a success offering toys to at least 50 families. Additionally, we distributed hand sanitizer, disinfectant wipes, masks, and other supplies to more than 75 households.

The members of the WWF Board continue to be consistent in prayer and concern for the students as well as for me. Other Campus Ministers have been quick to offer support and encouragement considering the recent racist and other threatening events targeting people of color. We therefore solicit prayers for strength and continued fortitude. Our prayer is that things will get better in the world as well as in our individual lives.

BOARD OF LAITY

Since March of 2020, we as the church have been in a season of transformation. Some may choose to say this time has been filled with more trauma or disruption than positive change. Others may focus on the grief of a lost sense of normalcy or on the anxiety of having to reimagine the ministry of the church moving forward. Whether we personally sense the days ahead filled with excitement or trembling, church as we know it has been permanently transformed. All of us, laity and clergy, are called to embrace new ways of being church in the world. More than ever, we laity are being summoned to reclaim our role as ministers, each called by our baptism to bear witness to the good news of God in Christ through our holiness of heart and life. That is the power of the laity to transform lives, not just the ministry and mission we call “church.”

Just as each congregation is being transformed, the Board of Laity is in a time of transition. District Lay Leaders and Associates have begun to build stronger communication networks over this last year which will impact how we learn and serve together. In October 2021, a retreat of the District Lay Leaders, Associates, and District Superintendents was held virtually. The retreat was the first step in building a new culture of communication and support between the District Lay Leaders and District Superintendents, especially as we live into the context of the District Initiative. In preparation for the retreat and in response to numerous questions about the roles of Local Church and District Lay Leaders, members of the Board of Laity assisted with development of a Lay Leader Handbook. The handbook is available on the VAUMC website under the “Ministry of the Laity” section.

In January 2022, a time of conversation and learning between Bishop Lewis and the District Lay Leaders and Associates began that we are calling the Lay Council. This time together will: (1) enhance communication, (2) support our efforts to share vital information with the local churches, and (3) provide opportunities to learn directly from Bishop Lewis, the Connectional Ministries team and other Conference staff. Meetings of the Lay Council will be held on the second Monday of the first month of each quarter (January, April, July and October). It is the goal of the Lay Council meetings to strengthen the connection between the annual conference, districts and local churches. This regular communication with Bishop Lewis will allow Board of Laity meetings to transform to a more adaptive leadership focus on how district lay leadership can support the work of Lay Servant Ministries, Scouting, United Methodist Women, and United Methodist Men.

The Board of Laity continues to be represented on the Bishop's Work Group on Racial Reconciliation and Justice. We eagerly anticipate the inclusion of laity in teams from the Board of Ordained Ministry trained to work with congregations receiving cross-cultural/cross-racial pastoral appointments.

Our Conference Lay Servant Ministry (LSM) team offered virtual Lay Servant Academy (LSA) trainings in August 2021 and February 2022. In August, a total of 138 individuals registered for eight course sessions. This LSA included our first orientation to Certified Lay Ministry. In February, more than 130 participants attended one of six course sessions. The next training session will be a hybrid event on August 5-6, 2022. Several districts offered training sessions during the last conference year, with some dates already scheduled for this fall. The “Learning on Demand” program available through BeADisciple.com is an excellent source of online courses. As we prepare for future training opportunities, help is needed to build a list of potential instructors. Please share the names of laity and clergy who are willing to be instructors or assistants with Richard Speirs, Conference Director of Lay Servant Ministries (richard.speirs@yahoo.com). We offer praise to God for all the laity who have participated in Lay Servant Ministry courses. Certified Lay Speakers and Certified Lay Ministers continue to fill and support pulpit requirements across the conference. Others who have taken part in this vital training serve in leadership roles of all types in the local church. Lay Servant Ministries are vital to developing strong, equipped leaders for the church in this time of constant change. The LSM catalog available on the Discipleship Ministries website (<https://www.umcdiscipleship.org/resources/lay-servant-ministries-catalog>) offers descriptions of approved courses and information about roles and requirements for Certified Lay Servants, Certified Lay Speakers, and Certified Lay Ministers.

As our denominational and conference UMC Scouting Leadership Teams continue to address how best to structure The UMC’s relationship with scouting over the long term, it is important to share some of the positive impacts of Scouting Ministries over the last year. There are five Girl Scouts of the USA Councils and eight Boy Scouts of America (BSA) Councils serving youth in the Virginia Conference. Along with a connection on the General Church level with Big Brothers Big Sisters (Amachi Partnership for children of incarcerated parents) and CampFire USA, these agencies offer a unique opportunity for the church to be in ministry to and with young people. The Programs of Religious Activities with Youth (P.R.A.Y.) organization is small in numbers but great in strength to Scouting as well as to the local churches. P.R.A.Y. is a non-profit organization aimed at fostering the Christian growth of children, youth, and families through churches and youth serving agencies. This program is available to the local church whether or not you have scouting programs. Five scouting leaders from Virginia offered leadership in late April for a mission team to work on renovations for the Protestant Chapel at Philmont, the BSA high adventure camp in New Mexico.

On behalf of the Board of Laity, thank you for all that you do as authentic followers of Jesus Christ to continually grow in your faith, to make disciples, to multiply leaders and to transform the world.

– Martha E. Stokes, Conference Lay Leader

UNITED METHODIST MEN

1 Corinthians 12:12 – 14; 27 - 31

Unity and Diversity in the Body

12 Just as a body, though one, has many parts, but all its many parts form one body, so it is with Christ. 13 For we were all baptized by[c] one Spirit so as to form one body—whether Jews or Gentiles, slave or free—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink. 14 Even so the body is not made up of one part but of many.

27 Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it. 28 And God has placed in the church first of all apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, of helping, of guidance, and of different kinds of tongues. 29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? 30 Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues[d]? Do all interpret? 31 Now eagerly desire the greater gifts.

In the above passage, Saint Paul was writing to his church at Corinth—a church which he had established—a church that he loved—but a church that had problems. So Saint Paul wrote, giving them guidance—to get them on the right path again.

One of their problems was spiritual pride—Paradigms. Each of the various Christians in Corinth had different gifts—different talents—and some of them were acting as if they were more important than the others because of their gifts and talents.

The various gifts and talents seemed to be giving the greatest problem between the people of Corinth. We are faced with several issues today. We are facing the challenge of moving to 8 District Superintendents. With the combined districts, we as the VAC UMM are faced with new District Officers. We are asking Each fellowship to discuss the nomination of new combined District officers. The timely transition of will allow the new officers time to modify the Bylaws so that we as a Unit will be better prepared to focus on Advocacy, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion within the VIRGINIA CONFERENCE UNITED METHODIST MEN specifically and the UNITED METHODIST CHURCH in general.

The Virginia Conference of United Methodist Men are answering the call of the Bishop to form cluster groups and Men’s Ministry Teams for those churches who have limited UMM membership or financial support. To partner with them to establish and or strengthen their Men’s Ministry Team.

We have taken a good hard look at the overall Methodist Church during this post COVID time frame. We have particularly looked at the UMC’s in the rural areas. Many of these smaller churches in rural areas are unable to have active Men’s Ministry Team fellowship, yet they still wish to be part of their community and VAC UMM.

The Officers of VAC UMM are recommending that these small Methodist churches {or UMC’s with very few members in their UMM}, in a proximity to each other. form “Cluster Groups” and that these Cluster Groups be called ‘Men’s Ministry Teams’.

These clusters maybe made up of local Methodist churches or UMC branches, and or various other church denominations in the local area.

These UMC branches which would include the Pan-Methodist groups. Encouraging a relationship with African Methodist Episcopal, African Methodist Episcopal Zion and Christian Methodist church’s to be part of these cluster groups. Sharing many gifts and talents in Christian fellowship within these cluster groups.

The next few paragraphs are from an article written by Robert Longworth published in The Beacon. The Virginia Conference United Methodist Men believe in The Power Of WE as we focus on Advocacy, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion within the Virginia Conference United Methodist Men.

The Methodist Church is also made up of many body parts and many tongues.

The health of the Church is dependent on the health of all of its parts. When your Church is hurting, your Church’s other body parts hurt. It is not ONE whole Church.

Therefore, we the Church should share each other’s’ sorrows and rejoice in each other’s’ joys—because we, the Church, are all ONE BODY.

But all the pieces fit together to form ONE BODY—meaning the Church. Every part of the body needs every other part, and if one-part hurts, they all hurt.

Many other Church’s / denominations are also made up of many other parts. Yet they all are ONE Church.

There isn’t a single Methodist denomination. It’s comprised of different denominations. Different “Body Parts.” BUT ALL ONE Church – right?

There are seven World Methodist Council denominations in the United States: the African Methodist Episcopal Church; the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church; the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church; Church of the Nazarene; Free Methodist Church; Wesleyan Church; and the United Methodist Church. And did you know there is a church called Primitive Methodist Church – a small branch of Methodism.

If there is only one Methodist Church in the area – then we are asking UMM’s to reach out to those neighboring churches of other Christian faiths - Presbyterian; Episcopalian. Lutherans, etc. To form a ‘Christian Men’s Ministry Team’. Again sharing Christian fellowship with each other.

We would then have active UMM fellowships serving various communities, and other faith churches. All sharing their ‘gifts’ and ‘talents’ with one another. Each UMC’s and other Christian denominations would then be one united faith body and with a ‘gift’ or ‘talent’ for each other.

Forming Men’s Ministry Team clusters so we can share the many spiritual gifts, diverse talents and tongues each one has. One Body – One Church of Christian faith. You are the Methodists; someone else is the Presbyterian; someone else is the Episcopalian. Other body parts include Lutherans and Baptists & other denominations.

Saint Paul said to the Corinthians, “we were all baptized into ONE body—Christ’s body—the church. We are all part of ONE another. Therefore, let us not lord it over other Christians because of our gifts. Instead, let us rejoice together over each other’s gifts.” The church’s one foundation. Rejoice as ONE Church with many gifts.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The Virginia Conference United Methodist Women is moving forward with the rest of the Conferences in the United States. We are embracing the “New Wineskins” of Mark 2:21-22 by not pouring new wine into old wineskins, but rather, pouring new wine into new wineskins.

Throughout the history of United Methodist Women since 1869, change has occurred and so have the women of our organization, for we are resilient, courageous, forward-thinking women. Our history shows that we recognize when something needs to change. Our world, our nation, and our church is changing, and so are we. It is exciting and exhilarating to be looking forward to new programs, new resources, new initiatives, new energy. Because of the recognition that who we serve is paramount, our commitment to women, children, and youth is steadfast.

Adjusting to Zoom meetings in 2021 is just one example of our willingness to keep our eyes on the prize, and yet not to endanger our members by meeting in-person. We are ever diligent about the health and well-being of our members.

We successfully held not only organizational Zoom meetings, but the Spiritual Life Retreat, Annual Conference Brunch, Mission Encounter, Young Women’s Event, and the 49th Annual Meeting. We have faithfully continued to support with deed and finances our United Methodist Women missions. We have honored commitments and reached beyond ourselves to serve faithfully to those in need.

We are a community of women; we know what God expects of us. We follow Jesus and are in fellowship with each other and with those we serve. We are ever willing to support women, children, and youth near and far. We have a new name; we are now United Women in Faith. Thanks be to God.

COMMISSION ON DISABILITIES

Members of the Commission On Disabilities (COD) committee strive to uphold their mission statement by providing advocacy, education, and direct service on behalf of persons with challenging conditions. We affirm the responsibilities of the Church to be in ministry with all persons regardless of their physical and/or mental conditions in the life of the local church and the VA Annual Conference.

The committee normally meets at least three times annually and is made up of numerous clergy and laity throughout our VA Conference and the goal is to have a representative from each district from our VA Conference. We stay connected with the Camp Rainbow committee and Heart Havens through a representative from COD. We have grants for local churches to help with church programs and accessibilities to their buildings and we share this information on the VA Conference website and at Annual Conference at our table in the exhibit room.

We would like to thank all our clergy and laity for their support toward our COD committee, and if you would like to be a member or have any questions please feel free to contact me.

THE COMMISSION ON ETHNIC MINORITY CONCERNS AND ADVOCACY (CEMCA)

The Commission on Ethnic Minority Concerns and Advocacy (CEMCA) is called to advocate for the full and equal participation of all ethnic and racial constituents into the total life and mission of the Virginia Annual Conference, to make their concerns known to the church, and to guide the conference in its fight against evil in all of its forms, including racism. Our mission is to be a voice for those who cannot or do not speak to make sure that each voice is heard.

In our monthly meetings, focus groups, and ongoing work, we represent and listen to the voices of:

- ❖ African-American Ministries,
- ❖ Asian-American Ministries,
- ❖ Native American Ministries,
- ❖ Black Methodists for Church Renewal (BMCR),
- ❖ Methodists Associated for the Cause of the Hispanic-American (MARCHA),
- ❖ Hispanic-Latino Caucus, VAUMC's Latino Clergy Caucus

As we transition into new leadership, we have been reviewing the charge given us by the Book of Discipline (§ 632)

- a) Keeping the vision of ethnic local church concerns before the annual conference;
- b) Providing guidance and resources to churches in the annual conference as they minister with and to ethnic constituencies;
- c) Coordinating annual conference strategies related to ethnic local church concerns including general church emphases and initiatives;
- d) Providing a forum for dialogue among the ethnic constituencies, as well as with annual conference agencies;
- e) Providing training for annual conference and congregational leaders;
- f) Promoting and interpreting ethnic local church concerns to the annual conference; and
- g) Working with annual conferences to identify and nurture leaders, lay and clergy, of ethnic communities.

In this time of heightened consciousness about the sin of racism in America and the global community, we are praying for guidance from the Holy Spirit moving across the church to a new awakening to that fundamental challenge. The United Methodist Church in Virginia is uniquely positioned to catalyze consciousness and reconciliation, given its institutional resources and membership that crosses racial and cultural lines and includes grassroots and elites in its congregations. Conference leadership, CEMCA, and the General Commission on Religion and Race (GCOR) have responded to the need for difficult conversations and resources for local churches to come to terms with our history, the current wave of white supremacy, and the mobilization of people of faith for justice.

Commission members have had our own training in the intercultural competency that the conference is offering to congregations with cross-cultural, cross-racial churches and are working in focus groups to discern our mission in the conference and the world. We have participated in Bishop Lewis's Call to Action initiative, provided a voice for racial and ethnic concerns at the Common Table, and assisted with the Diversity Kitchen project to educate church members about the blessings of our multiple cultures. We continue our conference monitoring efforts yearly in collaboration with CoSROW, to ensure that all voices are heard, present, and represented in our annual conference deliberations. We are in a strategizing place, trying to discern the best way to educate and mobilize our local churches and congregants, complement larger cultural discussions of justice (e.g., heritage months and political discourse around race), and listen to God's guidance.

The various ministries CEMCA represents and advocates for have been thriving this year. One highlight has been a series of meetings with Bishop Lewis, who has been listening and responding to concerns, especially of pastors; she has also suggested participating in town halls to talk about injustice and racism in the conference. Increased efforts to prepare both pastors and congregations for cross-racial, cross-cultural appointments has been an important step toward racial reconciliation and healing in the conference. CEMCA members worked with the General Commission on Religion and Race to develop a race and reconciliation curriculum and participated in intercultural competency training.

Our conference is hosting Southeastern Jurisdictional meetings of Black Methodists for Church Renewal (BMCR) and Methodists Associated for the Cause of the Hispanic-American (MARCHA). African American clergy have been meeting about every other month for fellowship and discussion of mutual concerns. BMCR celebrated its 50th anniversary Asian-American clergy have regular meetings as well and hosted an orientation for people with a call to ministry. Native American Ministries held a successful “Virtual Family Camp,” based on a tribal gatherings tradition in the culture, to build community and provide support. The Hispanic-Latino caucus and Latino Clergy Caucus had a well-attended retreat that included the bishop, is supporting undocumented immigrant members sensing a call to ministry, and trying to facilitate a broader membership that includes laity.

We look forward to serving our ethnic minority communities and educating ourselves and the wider conference about issues of racial justice and diversity in the coming year.

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN (COSROW)

The Commission on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW) encourages participation of all women in the full life of the United Methodist church. We believe it is important to find women to work in all areas of the church. There should be at least one woman on every committee of the church, if not a more balanced representation. Women are called to be Lay Servants. Remember that as young women and girls see women leading in the church, you are inspiring future leaders.

At each Annual Conference, COSROW works with the Committee on Ethnic Minority Concerns and Advocacy (CEMCA) to observe and record the participation of women, minorities, youth and young adults, and persons with disabilities in the leadership roles of the church. This data collection continues at Annual Conference 2022.

At the 2021 Annual Conference, COSROW and CEMCA worked together to collect demographic data on Lay members of the Conference. (Statistics on Clergy members are published by the Office of Clergy Excellence.) Approximately 1,300 Lay members attend Annual Conference each year. Here are the results of our survey:

Comparison of Lay Members at Annual Conference by Year (according to Survey Responses)

Year	Completed Surveys (#/%)	Women	Men	White	Black or African American	Asian	Hispanic or Latino/a	American Indian	Pacific Islander	Youth	Young Adult	Adult	Older Adult	75+
2021	513 (40%)	70%	29%	90%	5%	1%	1%	1%	0%	1.5%	6%	39%	53%	no data
2020	264 (20%)	62%	37%	85%	7%	2%	2.3%	.4%	0%	1%	5%	37%	43%	15%
2019	462 (35%)	64.5%	35%	90%	4%	1.3%	2.3%	1.8%	.22%	4%	4%	36%	39%

In 2021, we received 513 survey responses from 1277 registered lay members, or about 40%. Surveys were completed anonymously and requested basic demographic information: Gender, Ethnicity, and Age. Over time, we strive for more ethnic diversity and more delegates in the 18-34 age range.

Of the 513 people responding, 70% were women, 29% were men. Under Ethnicity, 90% were White (Not Hispanic or Latino/a), 5% were Black or African American; 1% were Hispanic or Latino/a; 1% were Asian; 1% American Indian. In 2020, we added a 75+ age range. Respondents were 1.5% under 18; 6% age 18-34; 39% age 35-64; 53% age 65-75+.

Again we notice that lay delegates are majority white, majority women, and ages 35-64. We are beginning to build observations for comparison.

COSROW members also worked to monitor the Annual Conference online. There were not enough observation reports received. We have no report at this time.

We commend to you the book, Nevertheless She Preached: The Story of the Two Earliest Methodist Clergywomen in Virginia by Rev. Margaret T. Kutz. Rev. Marg Kutz has researched and written a book about Rev. Lillian Russell and Rev. Mildred Long, the first two women to be ordained in the Virginia Annual Conference and appointed to serve churches in and near Petersburg, VA. See our display this year for more information and a copy of the book.

CAMP RAINBOW CONNECTION

We are excited to share that Camp Rainbow Connection will return this year after a hiatus due to Covid-19 and will be held at Richard Bland College in Petersburg, VA July 16-22, 2022. The staff and volunteers of CRC are dedicated to providing a wonderful and enriching summer program for each camper, along with a week of respite for families and caregivers.

Campers participate in a variety of activities including Bible class, music, science, arts and crafts, games, dancing and special activities. Our mission is one of healing and acceptance towards all God's people. Because we are a ministry of the Virginia Conference of the UMC, participation of people of all backgrounds, ability levels, heritages and faiths is encouraged. Our theme this year is Cruisin' with Christ and we can't wait to experience the love of God with each other while we're "at sea!"

EMBRACE—A CENTER FOR COMMUNITY

There's no better time to embrace hope than now. Thanks to the generous support of congregations and individuals across the Staunton District and the Virginia Annual Conference, the people of Embrace – A Center for Community in Waynesboro are doing just that as we extend the compassionate embrace of Christ to thousands of people in our community and beyond. Founded in 2018 as a district-level experiment in repurposing congregational facilities, Embrace is a mission and ministry outpost, laboratory, and incubator. Thanks to your support during 2021-22, we:

- ❖ Gained recognition as an Advance Special Partner of the Virginia Annual Conference.
- ❖ Expanded and strengthened our community garden ministry through deeper engagement with community partners like Virginia Cooperative Extension, Allegheny Mountain Institute, and Blue Ridge Area Food Bank. As a result, we will be able to supply more fresh produce to our sister food pantry at Main Street UMC while launching a produce delivery ministry, offering neighbors the opportunity to cut and share fresh flowers, expanding our cooking classes for underserved populations, adding new educational opportunities, and developing health and wellness classes in conjunction with the gardens. We also extended our production to include fruit with the planting of the first trees in our orchard, and broke ground on a community pumpkin patch and sunflower field.
- ❖ Welcomed a new not-for-profit partner to our campus. Sin Barreras ("Without Barriers") advocates for and provide legal services to members of the Hispanic and Latino immigrant community. After recognizing a sharp increase in service requests from Waynesboro and Augusta County, this Charlottesville-based organization opened an office in our building to better serve our neighbors. As part of this partnership, Embrace is working with Sin Barreras to launch a cultural festival, health and wellness events, a financial assistance program, and a community health work program.
- ❖ Announced the launch of free Mobile Health Clinics in conjunction with Augusta Health and Sin Barreras. These on-site clinics are staffed by health care professionals from our local hospital system and provide access to clinical services for persons regardless of income or residency status. Through our community health work program and in conjunction with CHWs from Augusta Health and the Central Shenandoah Health District, we will provide linkage to wrap-around services for some of the most vulnerable members of our community.

- ❖ Expanded our Green Hanger Project clothing ministry to include providing clothing for government agencies (ie Valley Community Service Board and others) and stocking closets in low-income residential care communities. We also strengthened our partnership with our area school systems by providing clothing for their back-to-school events, expanding our pandemic-response clothing care package ministry for middle- and high-school students, and preparing for the re-launch of our in-person Secret Boutique clothing distribution events in fall 2022.
- ❖ Launched a series of district level volunteer workdays and service workshops where groups can get hands-on experience with our ministries and programs and take what they learn back to their communities for possible implementation.

Embrace welcomes visitors and the opportunity to share what we have learned with other congregations and groups. For information, to schedule a visit, or plan a workshop contact Rev. Jenelle Watson, Embrace Director: JenelleWatson@vaumc.org or (540) 649-7149.

Ms. Wenda Singer, Member at Large (VAUMC, Huguenot Road UMC)

In 2022, GraceInside celebrates 102 years of mission ministry to incarcerated men and women. Our ministry brings the transformative love of Jesus Christ to inmates in the facilities of the Virginia Department of Corrections (VADOC). By offering the GRACE of Jesus Christ through our Chaplains, we endeavor to transform lives INSIDE the prisons. Our ministry is only possible with the continued support of our valuable partners such as the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church. The VAUMC support is a lifeline for our mission field. Through our partnership with the VAUMC, GraceInside ensures that essential resources are available for our 34 Chaplains as they minister to the 25,000 inmates in the 42 prisons of the VADOC.

The COVID-19 pandemic upended the structure and nature of faith-based activities throughout the VADOC. A 16-month lockdown of all facilities ended in July 2021. During the lockdown, Chaplains and religious volunteers were denied admittance to the prisons. By the Grace of God, the Chaplains were allowed to telework, maintain email contacts with inmates at their assigned facilities (free of charge), and conduct crisis/pastoral care phone calls in emergencies. When obstacles arose, Jesus Christ tore them down and made a way when there seemed no way! Finally, in July 2021, the Chaplains were readmitted into the prisons and religious activities resumed.

The pandemic has not gone away, however. The surge of the Omicron variant has also impacted prisons and resulted in a fresh wave of lockdowns at those facilities where infection rates soared. So far, GraceInside's Chaplains have been allowed to remain on duty, most at their own request. Their dedication has come at a cost: to date five of our 34 chaplains (5% of our prison-based workforce) have tested positive for this new form of COVID-19. Please know that it will take more than a virus to deter our Chaplains from bringing the Word and Presence of Christ behind prison walls. With the VAUMC's support, we follow the injunction of the writer of Hebrews: "Let mutual love continue... Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them (3:1-3)." Again we thank you for your many years of support and for walking with us in an often forgotten mission field.

Our 2022 report would be incomplete if we did not honor the ministry of a veteran Chaplain that we lost during the Christmas season. Rev. Robby Burke served as GraceInside's Chaplain at Augusta Correctional Center. He combined unique gifts of caring, compassion, wisdom and humor in his ministry to the nearly 1,300 incarcerated men that made up his "flock" at this large state prison. During the 16 long months that COVID-19 shut our chaplains out of the state prison facilities, Robby labored away, doing his best to provide “ministry from a distance” to the men at Augusta. He spent endless hours writing and sending emails to the inmates. These outreach efforts were not in vain. Letters from inmates at Augusta reveal that many hearts, once formerly hardened, were softened from stony to spiritual.

In the days before Christmas, Robby underwent an emergency quadruple coronary bypass surgery. Within days, insurmountable complications appeared. He passed away on December 30, 2021. Though sorely missed, Robby loved Jesus Christ, and his ministry was part of a great circle of God’s love that started in Heaven, brightened this world for a time, and returned Home. Indeed, “Will the circle be unbroken...by and by Lord...by and by.”

Again, many thanks for your generous support and the priceless gift of your prayers.

JOY HOUSE RVA

Mission

Joy House RVA provides stable housing and comprehensive support services for single unaccompanied women experiencing homelessness so they may secure a permanent home.

Joy House RVA is grateful for the grant provided by the VAUMC for the 2022 year.

Joy House RVA provides transitional housing for previously homeless single women along with skills taught to maintain independence.

As Joy House RVA grew we recognized the need to provide the expertise of a social worker to guide our volunteers and the women at Joy House. We needed a trained, consistent presence to guide the day-to-day progress of each unique woman.

On faith, Joy House hired a part-time social worker in November of 2021. Alyssa B. has been a very valuable asset in working with each woman to evaluate her strengths, weakness and needs as each one makes a plan to move toward independent living. Thanks to this Common Table Grant, we are able to offer her a competitive wage and she is an integral part of our team.

Joy House is currently looking for additional housing for the women, and Alyssa has been helpful in planning and looking for housing.

Joy House just completed a Silent Auction and lunch on March 27, as we continue to explore ways to stay financially healthy.

SOCIETY OF ST. ANDREW

Over the last 42 years, the Virginia Conference has been an important partner in the work of the Society of St. Andrew. In that time, you’ve helped SoSA grow from a home-based intentional Christian community to a nation-wide gleaning and food recovery network that has engaged more than a half million volunteers in simple hands-on service to feed hungry neighbors. Thank you for being part of this ministry from its inception, for sharing with us a vision for a world without hunger, in which faith and stewardship meet God’s abundance—and good food is shared with people in greatest need every day.

In 2021, 290 congregations of the Virginia Conference provided financial support to the Society of St. Andrew. 26 congregations and more than 2,000 Virginia United Methodists took part in “crop drops” or field gleaning.

Through the Virginia Gleaning Network and the Potato & Produce Project, 209 feeding agencies (soup kitchens, shelters, emergency food assistance programs, food pantries, and large food banks) across the state received more than 2.8 million pounds of nourishing food to share with their clients—providing more than 11.2 million servings of health and hope to our hungry brothers and sisters. The Seed Project (a “hand up” endeavor that provides seed potatoes and vegetable seeds to poor, land-owning Appalachian families) shared an additional 3 million servings of good food with hungry Virginians. All this is work made possible because you care.

Nationwide, 46.5 million pounds of food (186 million servings) reached millions of hungry Americans in 2021 through the work of the Society of St. Andrew, through crops donated by more than 910 farmers/producers and through the gleaning and volunteer efforts of 21,660+ individuals. The Board of Directors is actively working to build the capacity in both funding and partnerships with farmers and feeding agencies to expand SoSA’s work into new areas over the next few years. United Methodist congregations across the United States will be integral to SoSA’s growth, and the Virginia Conference has paved the way for relationships that now extend across the continent.

We’re grateful for all the Virginia Conference congregations that join with the Society of St. Andrew through its spiritual life programs, including seasonal devotional materials, Vacation Bible School curriculum, and Bible studies. In 2021, 24 VAUMC congregations participated in SoSA’s “Abundance Orchard” VBS; 253 congregations used SoSA’s Advent devotional resources, and 219 congregations utilized SoSA’s Lenten devotions or Good Friday Fast programs. As COVID finally wanes, we look forward to bringing back SoSA’s longstanding Harvest of Hope mission workcamp program in 2023.

The Society of St. Andrew’s mission fields are just that, fields and orchards. The need for volunteers throughout the year is great, and the opportunities are plentiful. Congregations that partner with SoSA have found the partnerships transformative, spurring deeper faith, greater support for local missions, and an abiding concern for those our Savior called “the least of these.”

VIRGINIA INTERFAITH CENTER FOR PUBLIC POLICY (VICPP)

The Virginia Interfaith Center for Public Policy (VICPP) values its partnership with the Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. VICPP engages people of faith and good will in advocating economic, racial, and social justice in Virginia’s policies and practices.

Policy Highlights

Below is the policy work from the 2022 General Assembly, although much of the work to achieve the victories was done throughout 2021.

- ❖ Affordable housing. As this report is being submitted, the final budget numbers for affordable housing through the Virginia Housing Trust Fund are not available because the General Assembly adjourned without having finished the budget. VICPP activists have been pushing to increase the money for affordable housing. The final number will likely be between the House figure of $110 million and the Senate figure of $300 million. This will provide approximately thousands of extra affordable housing units. Your advocacy mattered.
- ❖ Solitary confinement. The final bill created a study group process to look at how Virginia can safely limit the use of solitary confinement to no more than 14 days. Although we were disappointed not to establish the limits this year, we are optimistic that with continued education and advocacy we can make the needed changes next year. Your advocacy mattered.
- ❖ Unconscious bias training for healthcare workers. This bill was carried over to next year and assigned for more work to a taskforce. We generated enormous bipartisan interest in the importance of this education. Your advocacy mattered.
- ❖ Paid sick days. Even though we got two great paid sick day bills out of the Senate, they were both killed in the House. Given the current House leadership’s adamant opposition to any core standards, including paid sick days, we will be exploring other ways we might expand paid sick day coverage for workers in Virginia. More ideas to come. Your advocacy kept the issue alive, but we have a lot of work to do on this issue.
- ❖ Defended past gains. Despite proposals to reinstate the death penalty, halt the minimum wage, and remove the prohibition on guns in worship, none of these bills moved forward. In addition, there was only one effort to roll back all the wage theft enforcement reforms we passed in the last few years. So even though it is more exciting to go forward, defending past gains is important too.

Organizing and Congressional Highlights

- ❖ Supporting UMC advocacy. VICPP again had the honor of supporting the United Methodist Day at the General Assembly, which was virtual. We also had quite a few United Methodists involved in our Day for All People week-long virtual advocacy program.
- ❖ Campus Advocacy Day. VICPP hosted its second campus advocacy day, with 105 young advocates registered. UMC Chaplain Rev. Katie Gooch was one of the planners. VICPP has just hired an organizer, Terri Erwin, to work more with seminarians and college students. Please email Terri@virginiainterfaithcenter.org.
- ❖ Living Wage Certification programs. VICPP continued throughout 2021 to build its living wage certification programs in Richmond, Charlottesville, Harrisonburg, and Alexandria. A statewide certification program was also launched to accommodate businesses that wanted to be certified in other locations. To learn more about these programs or help with one of the local committees, email Jase Hatcher at Jase@virginiainterfaithcenter.org.
- ❖ Recruiting Congregational Liaisons. VICPP continues to recruit Congregational Liaisons to better help connect congregations with VICPP. VICPP has liaisons in 16 United Methodist Congregations (up from 8 the previous year – yeah!!) If you’d like to serve in this role, email Sheila Herlihy at Sheila@virginiainterfaithcenter.org.
- ❖ Racial Equity. VICPP uses a racial equity lens for all its policy work. VICPP is also providing educational tools and resources to assist congregations in looking at racial justice and what faith communities can do to address the inequities caused by racism.
- ❖ Strategic Plan. The VICPP Board of Directors led a strategic planning process that resulted in a strategic plan for work from 2022 through 2026. Visit www.virginiainterfaithcenter.org for a copy of the plan.

Recommendation:

1) Congregations in the Virginia Conference are encouraged to identify congregational liaisons that can help connect congregations with the ministry of VICPP.

2) Individuals are encouraged to sign-up to get VICPP action alerts so you can be an effective advocate. Sign up at www.virginiainterfaithcenter.org.

WESLEY COMMUNITY SERVICE CENTER

Program Update:

The Wesley Community Service Center (WCSC) has grown immensely in the past few months in our ability to effectively serve more individuals and families in Portsmouth, Virginia.

The WCSC is proud to provide low- and extremely low-income individuals in our community with nutritious food to mitigate food scarcity and improve health outcomes. To this end, we were fortunate to become the Food Bank hub for Portsmouth which included funding to improve our Food Pantry. The expansion of our Food Pantry also included the hiring and onboarding of a new Food Pantry Manager who has been incredibly helpful in terms of our food distribution program. We have also become a site for healthy cooking classes in partnership with the American Heart Association. This partnership has allowed us to reach a highly vulnerable population with education about how to care for themselves through cooking healthy and nutritious meals.

Education continues to be a focus of the WCSC. In 2021, we were selected to become the Head Start site for Portsmouth (pending grant approvals). In this process, we will also look to renovate our education wing in 2022, which will include installing ADA-approved bathrooms and elevators, a sensory room, administrative offices, classrooms, and other essential needs which will allow us to best serve students through education programming.

Outcomes:

Food Distribution

Anticipated: Serve 810 people per month via our weekly food distributions, Meals on Wheels and emergency food services. 80% of those served will self-report decreases in household hunger

Actual: Served 817 people per month via our weekly food distributions, Meals on Wheels and emergency food services. 11% of those served self-reported decreases in household hunger

Mental Health Services

Anticipated: In partnership with Life's Journey, connect 15 people per month to critical mental health services.

- 60% of those served will self-report improved access to mental health services

Actual: In partnership with Life's Journey, connected 17 people per month to critical mental health services. 48% of those served self-reported improved access to mental health service. Some of the individuals we referred were placed into inpatient treatment. We have found that tracking these outcomes is difficult. Because of this, we may discontinue the tracking of this outcome.

Community Clothes Closet

Anticipated: Provide 62 people per month with essential donated, gently used clothing items.

- 80% of those served will self-report increased confidence due to ability to access appropriate clothing

SECTION III — Apportionment ProceduresA. APPORTIONMENT FORMULA:

- All Apportionments except for the Active Clergy Health Benefits

Apportionments are calculated using the last year of available statistics of each local church (i.e. 2023 apportionments are calculated using 2021 statistics). The formula is based on total net paid expenses which are the total expenditures of the church minus expenditures for benevolent causes, apportionments, capital improvements, and payments on loans and mortgages. The apportionments for each church are sent to each district based on decimal calculations from the formula below:

Individual Church Net Paid/Total of all Conference Churches Net Paid = Church Decimal

- Active Clergy Health Benefits Apportionment Formula

The costs of the active clergy health benefits will be apportioned using a two-tier calculation. The first tier will consist of a fixed dollar amount ($5,500) per health plan eligible clergy based upon the July 1, 2022 appointment list. The remaining costs after the tier one calculation will be apportioned to the churches based upon total clergy (regardless of classification) compensation (salary plus accountable reimbursement) paid by a church divided by the total clergy compensation paid in the last year of available statistics (2021 for 2023 apportionments).

- The district then passes the apportionments on to the local church according to recommendations developed by the district superintendents and the district stewards.
- The Council on Finance and Administration, in consultation with the Church Development Team and Cabinet, has the authority to set a policy for apportioning newly chartered churches, Legacy churches, and 2nd sites of chartered churches.
 - Effective January 1, 2016, the policy will be to phase in the apportionments for new chartered churches over a five year period with the first year beginning at 20% and increasing 20% for each subsequent year until the church is at 100%.
 - Effective January 1, 2016, for a Legacy church as determined by the Church Development Team and the Cabinet, the district superintendent may present a projected budget of expenses to be used in the Legacy church's apportionment calculation for the first 18 months of its classification as a Legacy church.
 - Effective January 1, 2016 for a 2nd site (satellite & multi-site) locations that are recognized as new faith communities by the Church Development Team and the Cabinet, the existing chartered church may exclude direct expenses of the second site from the apportionment calculation based upon the following schedule:

0-42 months	100%
43-54 months	80%
55-66 months	60%
67-78 months	40%
79-90 months	20%

- Effective January 1, 2017, for a Renewal church location as determined by the Church Development Team and the Cabinet, the existing chartered church will be treated in the same manner as a newly chartered church.
- Effective January 1, 2020, Ecumenical (multi-denominational) churches will be direct billed for health insurance when they are served by an eligible United Methodist pastor and will not be subject to the 407 apportionment.

B. REPORTING GUIDELINES:

- District superintendents will report the apportioned amounts for each church to the Conference treasurer and the apportioned amounts will be shown on the monthly Treasurer's report sent to each church.
- Apportionments are to be calculated and distributed annually rather than on a quadrennial basis.
- The Annual Conference will raise World Service funds only through contributions from the local churches. CFA urges that district superintendents, pastors, and local church leaders seek to fully implement Section 812 of the 2016 Discipline.

C. IMPORTANCE OF WORLD SERVICE:

- The importance of World Service to the life of the Church is lifted up to the Annual Conference. “The World Service Fund is basic in the financial program of The United Methodist Church. The World Service apportionment represents the minimum needs of the general agencies of the Church. Payment in full of these apportionments by local churches and annual conferences is the first benevolent responsibility of the Church.” (Section 812 of the 2016 Discipline).

SECTION IV - Annual Conference Special Offerings

Annual Conference offerings provide important and life-giving support for key Conference programs. The following are recommended for approval for 2023:

- United Methodist Family Services. It is recommended that December be designated as United Methodist Family Services Month and that each church promote an offering during this time for this purpose.
- Pinnacle Living (Samaritan Fund). It is recommended that the period between Mother’s Day and Father’s Day be designated in support of the Pinnacle Living (Samaritan Fund), and that local church offerings collected during that period be dedicated to this ministry.
- Heart Havens. It is recommended that February be designated as Heart Havens Month and that each church promote an offering during this time for this purpose.
- Partnerships of Hope. It is recommended that September be designated as Partners of Hope Month and that each church promote an offering during this time for this purpose.
- Annual Conference Offering. CFA recommends continued support for this important offering.

SECTION V - PoliciesA. DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS FUND

Overall Policies for the Fund:

- In compliance with the Book of Discipline, the current salaries and expenses for district superintendents (DS), and those under special appointment, will be published in the Conference Journal with each DS’s salary individually calculated and assigned each year as part of the appointive process, using the following criteria:
 - Each District Superintendent’s salary shall be $95,000.
 - Each year, the annual salaries of the District Superintendents are to be recommended by CFA to the Annual Conference.
 - CFA also administers salary-related expenses, to include such items as pensions, supplemental benefits, travel by voucher, continuing education, and other Cabinet-related expenses.
 - The total cost of salaries and related expenses apportioned to Districts are to be based on the current approved decimal system (upon recommendation of CFA).
 - All other District Superintendents’ costs, such as housing, district office expenses and staff, are to be paid at the district level.

B. TRAVEL & MEETING EXPENSES

Board and Agency members and staff engaged in Conference business are provided and are to be managed as follows:

- The mileage reimbursement rate is set at 50 cents for Conference staff. The mileage reimbursement rate for volunteers is set at half the IRS rate for volunteers (currently 29 cents) for those serving boards and agencies of the Conference.
- Meals are to be reimbursed at actual costs, but not to exceed $35 per 24-hour period. (Breakfast on the date of departure from home/office is not accepted; dinner on the date of return is not accepted, except when the arrival to home/office is after 7 p.m.).

- Reimbursement for daily room charges is set at $200, if the travel incurred extends to a period over three hours prior to the starting time of 10 a.m. on the day of the meeting.
- Spouse expenses are not part of allowable expenses.
- To encourage stewardship in this area, CFA suggests: (1) that advance reading materials be provided for study prior to meetings; and (2) that there be use of teleconferencing, where feasible.

C. INDIVIDUAL EXPENSES FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Provided for and managed as follows:

- Each charge is responsible for the expenses of both the clergy and lay members (including diaconal ministers) from that charge to the annual conference, working out its own plan of compensating for actual expenses.
- Persons not covered through local church appointment shall receive annual conference reimbursement not to exceed $200 a night for mileage, meals and lodging; the Conference treasurer shall reimburse the claimant through voucher of approved expenses. Coverage under this section extends to:
 - (a) retired clergy who retired with pension under one of the Disciplinary options and who are not serving full-time;
 - (b) clergy on medical leave;
 - (c) clergy on sabbatical leave who are members of the Virginia Annual Conference;

- Each board, agency or committee is responsible for the expenses of its chairpersons, if that person is not a clergy or lay member whose costs are covered by their charge or district.

D. CONFERENCE RESERVE FUNDS

Policies on the Maintenance of Reserve Fund Levels:

- The Council monitors the Conference Reserves to ensure the ability to cover future contingencies including,
 - a) Reserve funds for emergencies and catastrophic needs related to the maintenance of Conference property held by the Conference trustees, and include: (1) Virginia United Methodist Center; (2) Wesley Foundation buildings; and (3) the Episcopal residence. [The total value of these properties is estimated at more than $15 million.]
 - b) Reserve funds for cash flow purposes.
 - c) Reserve funds for economic and financial downturns.
 - d) Council on Finance and Administration has the authority to utilize reserves in excess of the minimum to preserve the Conference’s financial stability.
- The Council has set the following target for Conference Reserve Funds:

Core Reserves:
A. 20% of the Conference Budget that closes to reserves	$ 1,220,000
a. 401 – Conference Mission and Ministries
b. 402 – Conference Services
c. 403 – District Superintendents Fund
d. 404 – Equitable Compensation Fund
B. 15% of Invested Assets	624,000
	$ 1,844,000

At December 31, 2021 the Annual Conference had reserves greater than the target amount.

- Consistent with approved Annual Conference policies (effective January 1992), the use of investment income is authorized to maintain reserve levels. (At the discretion of CFA, excesses may be used to: (1) meet shortfalls in Conference benevolences; (2) meet shortfalls in Conference Services; and/or (3) reduce apportionments from the Annual Conference to local churches.

- The status of Conference reserves at the end of the prior actual year is to be reviewed each year by CFA and included in the Treasurer's Report to the Annual Conference Session.

E. PASTOR RELOCATION TRANSITION FUND

1. By action of the June 2003 Annual Conference, CFA has established Pastor Relocation Transition Fund and has provided funding through the Conference Services apportionment.
2. Churches/charges which are served by fulltime clergy appointed to their charge as pastor may request reimbursement on the following schedule for an incoming pastor, if the previous pastor served two years or less in the appointment to their charge:
 - One-year appointment – Seventy-five percent of the verified moving expenses up to a maximum of $3,000 reimbursement.
 - Two-year appointment – Fifty percent of the verified moving expenses up to a maximum of $2,000 reimbursement.
3. No moving expenses will be reimbursed that are not in compliance with the Virginia Annual Conference Guidelines for Moving Expenses as printed in the Journal of the Virginia Annual Conference.
4. Payment will be made at the end of the year based on a pro-rata share of the apportionment receipts from the churches.

F. CONFERENCE JOURNAL

The 2022 Journal, as sections are finalized, will be posted on the Virginia Conference website (www.vaumc.org) as a PDF file. Please note that going forward the Journal publication will only be printed through Amazon rather than the conference accepting print orders. It will still be available for free on the conference website. When the whole publication of the Journal is completed, notifications will be sent out to the conference and conference members as well as posted to www.vaumc.org/AC2022 about when and where to order a print copy.

G. AUDIT REPORTS

The Council on Finance and Administration reminds all district offices, agencies, institutions, and organizations receiving any financial support from conference funds or from any authorized conference-wide appeal to be in compliance with the 2016 Book of Discipline 617.2 and 617.3 to submit audited financial statements to the Conference Treasurer no later than six months after the end of the organization's fiscal year.

CFA reminds all church and/or charge treasurers to comply with the IRS regulations.

I. REQUESTS FOR BUDGET FUNDING

K. LEGAL EXPENSE POLICY

The Annual Conference shall not pay for the legal expenses for local church or district matters such as non-appointed personnel, churches seeking disaffiliation, property issues, etc.

SECTION VI – A Church in Mission

We are a Church in Mission and a three-pronged focus of teaching, communication, and recognition enriches us as a Conference and as Christians. With it, we are able to share and learn further what it means to enter into the vision and share concerns with many people. But more importantly, it sets out a focus throughout our Conference on the value and importance of the unique connectional relationship we have as United Methodists.

Our charter has already been defined for us and it is set out in Scripture: “Just as in the human body, though it is made up of many parts, is a single unit, because of these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ.” (1 Corinthians 12:12). And that body is composed of all of God’s children, including the rich and poor, found and lost, and secure and dispossessed. For as Jesus said, “Truly, I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.” (Matthew 25:40).

As part of that body, we are called to serve our brothers and sisters in mission throughout the connection. Because of our covenant with God and with each other, it is our goal to fund the basic missional witness of the United Methodist Church.

We have much to be proud of as a Conference, as we live out the full meaning of the Stewardship of the Gospel. Our connectional giving — the important life blood of the work we all do together — is a reflection of the great commitment that Virginia United Methodists have to the mission and ministry work of our Lord. The budgets we draw up, while important, are more than a series of numbers. They reveal the very character of the people who build them, support them, and act through them. They are Christ’s work in the world, put into a plan for receiving and spending — collective understandings of commitments to fulfilling ministries and mission priorities. It’s no small thing we do individually, when collectively we are making such big impacts beyond our church doors.

The Stewardship of our Conference is part of our response to the needs we know about, as well as those not yet seen. Seeing the need, then doing what Jesus would do. That’s true Stewardship! It’s our faith in action!

William H Talley IV, President

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

As the Board of Ordained Ministry of the Virginia Conference, we seek to enable individuals and churches to hear the call of God upon their lives to be in ministry in their communities for the transformation of the world. In the fall of 2021, the Board and Cabinet met with Rev. Rachel Gilmore, an Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI) Coach. After taking the IDI, a cross cultural assessment, each Board member and Cabinet member had one on one opportunities with a coach to build cultural competency across the conference. The Board also enabled several conference leaders and Board members to be trained as IDI Coaches. These coaches are available to local churches and districts to offer assessment and coaching for cultural competency. Contact the Center of Clergy Excellence for the name of IDI coaches. In March 2021, the Spirit Vitality Committee inaugurated “Simple Presence”- 20 minutes of scripture and silent prayer every weekday morning at 6 am. We pray for pastors, laity, candidates, conference leaders, local churches, and our world. Know that you have been prayed for during this holy time. The Spiritual Vitality also launched its first 3 day Clergy Soul Care Retreat in May at Richmond Hill Retreat Center with Margaret Benefiel, Executive Director of the Shalem Institute and author of the book “Crisis Leadership”. This was a time for clergy to rest and restore their spirits through worship, contemplative prayer, embodied spiritual practices, connection with each other, and spiritual direction. With funding from the Conference Church and Development Committee, the Board sponsored the 2nd Cohort of Creating a Culture of Renewal (CCR) for selected pastors and local churches and is preparing for Cohort #3. In the fall of 2022, the Board will sponsor the 6th cohort of the VA Leadership Institute. The Board continues to offer scholarships for Licensing School, Course of Study, Clergy Development, and Continuing Education for our clergy. The Board offered ethics training, training for all district committees on ministry (dcom), bi-annual candidacy summits, Licensing School, provisional mentoring and retreats, interviews of candidates - all to enable individuals to deepen/renew/remember God’s call upon their lives so they can grow in effective leadership in our local churches, communities and in the world. If you want to know more about any of these program, please go to the Center for Clergy Excellence on the VAUMC website.

The Board is grateful to the staff of the Center for Clergy Excellence who support and undergird our work and ministry: Rev. Jessie S. Colwell, Director; Rev. Crystal R. Sygeel, Associate Director for Call and Candidacy, and Ms. Sherry MacLaughlin, Administrative Coordinator.

TEAM JEREMIAH

“... For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.”

Jeremiah 29:11

This is a familiar passage of Scripture where Christians can take comfort in knowing that God has a plan for our lives regardless of our current situation. Also, Jeremiah 29:11 points out that God can work through any hardship to prosper and give us hope as believers.

Bishop Sharma D. Lewis, in recognizing the uncertainty surrounding issues of LGBTQ inclusion in The United Methodist Church, the challenges of a global pandemic and a further postponed General Conference, wanted to focus on the future of churches in the Virginia Conference by forming Team Jeremiah.

The goal of this group is to meet monthly to discuss proactive strategies and effects upon the Virginia Annual Conference in light of a postponed General Conference. The group began meeting on a monthly basis beginning in January 2022.

Team Jeremiah is composed of a total of 15 theologically and ethnically diverse clergy and laity within the annual conference. In addition, there are three resource members who will resource on an as needed basis.

Members of Team Jeremiah

Bishop Sharma D. Lewis
 Rev. Denise Bates
 Rev. Tom Berlin

UMC DISAFFILIATION TEAM

In 2022, Bishop Lewis also formed the UMC Disaffiliation Team in the Virginia Conference to discern and outline the disaffiliation process that the conference will utilize based upon the disciplinary paragraphs.

The members of this team include:

CALL TO ACTION WORK GROUP (CAWG)

The Call-to-Action Work Group (CAWG) was designed and put into action after Bishop Lewis' calls for action against systemic racism. The original call was to address the following three elements of concern.

1. To inform clergy and laity to have an authentic conversation on race and reconciliation in their houses of worship, communities, and workplaces. We need to acknowledge racism as a sin and actively pursue whatever is necessary to dismantle the injustices.
2. Community policing: emphasizes working with neighborhood residents as partners in creating public safety. We can offer our support and involvement with law enforcement agencies that work in our community to identify problems and to collaborate on implementing solutions that produce meaningful results for the community.
3. We can encourage civilian participation in oversight of law enforcement training to strengthen trust with the community. Every community should define the appropriate form and structure of civilian oversight to meet the needs of that community.

In order for these items to be implemented, the Call-to-Action Work Group was formed. The group has representatives from each Board, Agency, and committee. With this representation from throughout the Annual Conference we can be in a dialogue on these three issues and to help expand the conversation to other areas of concern in the Annual Conference and the Commonwealth as a whole.

From the moment we started until now we have implemented 16 different events to help better understand each other. One of these events is the Diversity Kitchen that explores other culture's foods and times of celebration.

On the conference website under A Call to Racial Reconciliation and Justice you can see all the activities the group has been working on over the past year. In 2022 our focus will be having an authentic conversation with the laity. We are finding that the more we learn and know about each other the more we have in common and less differences we have. We first must learn to be honest with ourselves and others to accomplish an authentic conversation.

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

The Committee on Episcopacy (COE) is responsible for the review and evaluation of the resident bishop as required by the Book of Discipline. A process for this review has been created and is used by all Conferences in the Southeastern Jurisdiction (SEJ). This process has been adjusted for the unique circumstances related to the pandemic. The Virginia Conference COE meets with Bishop Lewis two to three times a year to engage in conversation around this process and to discuss matters present in the Virginia Annual Conference and larger connection. The COE communicates the results and insights of this review with the SEJ COE for use in their assignment process.

At the time of this writing the plans for a 2022 Jurisdictional Conference remain uncertain. If a Jurisdictional Conference is held for the purpose of elections this year, the SEJ COE will assign bishops to their areas of service. Five bishops retired during 2021 and a sixth plans to retire in 2022. A committee of the SEJ COE and College of Bishops is considering how many bishops should be elected given potential changes ahead in the UMC. Information about these matters will be updated on the Southeastern Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church website (www.sejumc.org).

– Tom Berlin, Chair

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Virginia Conference Board of Trustees held their two regularly schedule meetings, virtually, in September of 2021 and March of 2022. In addition, Special Called Meetings were held to address proposed requests from churches to exit the denomination under Book of Discipline defined procedures. Further communications via conference calls occurred during the Conference year to follow-up on other issues.

The Board continues to address property issues related to discontinued and/or abandoned United Methodist churches in the Virginia Conference. This is time-consuming, but important work in the stewardship of Conference church properties. The Board continues its ongoing management of the Episcopal residence jointly with the Episcopal Residence Committee as well as the management of the Conference Center.

The Board continues to review requests for exiting the denomination by way of a church closure under Paragraph 2549 of the Book of Discipline, together with a transfer of the local church property to a new, independent church corporation, in consultation with the Cabinet. In assessing the proposed terms of any property transfers, the Board considers, among other factors, the value of the subject property, and requires terms no less favorable to the Annual Conference than those provided for in a disaffiliation under Paragraph 2553, including the payment of the existing church's share of unfunded pension liabilities, unpaid apportionments for the 12 months prior to disaffiliation, and an additional 12 months of apportionments, plus the Conference's attorneys' fees. As of this report, three church requests for exiting have been completed and three more have been approved and are in the process of closing, in each case involving a closure under the terms of Paragraph 2549 and transfer of property to the new church corporation. Certain others are under consideration at the time of this report. It is our prayer that General Conference scheduled for August 2022 can go forward so that these issues can be resolved, and an orderly process created to deal with property issues.

The Board of Trustees is directly supported by the Williams Mullen firm, which provides expert attorney services and counsel on Board of Trustees and Annual Conference matters. The firm, and Andrew White, integrate well into the total work of the Board, providing expert counsel to us in our current and ongoing work. During our review of disaffiliation requests, the attorney support of the Williams Mullen firm has been especially helpful.

The current slate of officers for the Conference Trustees is Carl L. Moravitz, president; Kathy Lutman, vice president; Clyde T. Nelson, secretary; David Domnisse, treasurer.

I am thankful for the dedication of all the members of our Board as we work to meet the important tasks set out for the Board by the Conference and the Discipline. I am especially thankful for the continued leadership of our Vice President, Kathy Lutman, who has stepped in many times over the past year to help me in the numerous tasks of our Board.

– Carl L. Moravitz, President

THE BISHOPS' FOUNDATION

The Bishops' Foundation provides funding for leadership development of both laity and clergy in the areas of evangelism, spiritual formation, preaching, congregational leadership, spiritual leadership in the Wesleyan Spirit. Funding comes from donations received in honor of retired bishops who select the Foundation as the trustee. The foundation is led by a board of directors (five clergy and four laity) nominated by the Cabinet. Endowment funds are invested with the Virginia UM Foundation. In 2014, the foundation was dissolved as a corporation and is now a board reporting to the annual conference.

As an event-sponsoring or co-sponsoring agency providing funding for clergy and laity leadership development, the foundation supported in 2020, the 5 Talent Academy, and in 2022 Learning Ministries Office to support campus ministries. The Bishop's Foundation remains interested in supporting conference ministry programming that fosters opportunities for young adult laity and clergy to help the church in reaching all generations. Grant application forms can be found on the conference website under the tab for Resources/Bishops' Foundation

UNITED METHODIST-RELATED SCHOOLS

Ferrum College

The 2020-2021 academic year demonstrated the Ferrum College community's resolve and determination to not only persevere, but to thrive in the face of daunting obstacles. The continued challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic presented the College with a number of opportunities to explore new ways of working with our students.

Some of 2021's highlights include May 1, 2021, when the College's first graduate students received their degrees. The eight students received either a Master's of Science in Psychology or an Education Specialist degree in Leadership and Coaching. An additional pathway to advanced degrees was opened for our students through a partnership with the Appalachian School of Law, which permits students to enroll at ASL after three years at Ferrum College.

With adherence to safety protocols, the campus was able to resume athletics, and enjoyed a successful year with several of its teams. Both men's and women's wrestling teams participated in national championships; our basketball teams advanced to the ODAC semifinals; and our soccer teams qualified for the ODAC playoffs as well. In its very first year of NCAA Division III competition, our men's track and field team competed in at the NCAA championships. The College's Norton Outdoor Adventures became the first college-level recreation program in the state to be awarded a Virginia Wildlife Grant from the Virginia Department of Wildlife Resources. The grant will benefit the Ferrum College Hunters and Anglers Group, and help our students connect to Virginia's rich tradition of outdoor sportsmanship.

Staffing changes and promotions included Dr. Kevin P. Reilly, who was promoted to Vice President for Academic Affairs, and Mrs. Laura Robinson, hired as the College's new campus minister. Additionally, Dr. Angie Dahl, was named Vice President of Student Development and Campus Life; Vanessa Stone assumed the role of the Dean of Students, and Mrs. Jill Adams transitioned to Campus Life and Title IX Coordinator. Justin Muse, '05 was named the chair of the Committee for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion.

To better meet the needs of our student and campus community, we have increased the availability of mental health services and programming. Faculty and staff participated in training to help identify students in crisis. The College received a grant to support these efforts from the Jed Foundation to fund mental health training and awareness for the next four years.

Academic program changes and enhancements include the opening of the College's Internet of Things Laboratory, funded by the Virginia Tobacco Region Revitalization Commission. The lab hosts an array of robotics, sensors, and other advanced computer technology. The Division of Nursing enrolled its first two cohorts in January and August of 2021. The next step for this program will be construction of new educational space in the lower part of Vaughn Chapel, to begin in spring 2022.

The College's strategic plan, Fulfill the Promise, set the course for the next five years with this promise: "At Ferrum College, we have one priority - to fulfill the promise of college by providing pathways to meaningful work, making education attainable, and staying connected for a lifetime."

The College's first to second year retention rate has increased, and initiatives to increase overall retention are ongoing, including the formation of a Persistence, Retention, and Completion Committee, which will oversee advising, student engagement, outreach, college processes, and technology needs. We look forward to sending graduates into the world to pursue their dreams and build their lives, and we look forward to welcoming a new class of Panthers for fall 2022. Each year provides new opportunities to live out our motto, "Not Self, But Others", a motto that resonates with the grace and power of the spirit of Wesley.

Randolph-Macon Academy

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

When I wrote to you last year, none of us could have known how much more challenging the second year of the Pandemic would be. R-MA has met that challenge in ways that humble and inspire me. We have operated safely on-campus and in-person continuously since August of 2020 and our students' determination to pursue their education has been as impressive as at any point in the Academy's 130-year history. Our enrollment this year included the largest increase in new students since 2003.

Highlights of the year include our re-accreditation by The Falcon Foundation and by the Virginia Association of Independent schools, our re-entry into varsity sports, and changes in our state rankings, as released by Niche.com:

- ❖ #4 in the Most Diverse Private High Schools in Virginia category (up from #5 last year)
- ❖ #6 in the Best Boarding High Schools in Virginia category (down from #4 last year)
- ❖ #10 in the Best Private High Schools in Virginia category (up from #13 last year)

Our Unmanned Systems Lab earned a $307,000 grant from the Federal Aviation Administration and we conducted our first-ever President's Weekend on Kiawah Island, SC, to better inform long-time donors and friends of the Academy about the work we are doing to prepare our students for lives of meaning and success. Examples of that program can be seen here:

Power of Rise

Rise Above

Our Chapel services and programs continue to be an important part of the way we prepare our students for life after high school and we are grateful to the Conference for providing temporary Chaplain and teaching support while we searched for a new Chaplain. We are excited to welcome Rev. Monica Reynolds when she arrives to take that post this summer.

In closing, I would say that Virginia's Methodist High School continues to do what she was created to do: prepare young people to make a difference in an indifferent world and we thank the Bishop for supporting that important work.

God bless you and God bless America.

Randolph-Macon College

Founded in 1830, Randolph-Macon College is a selective, co-educational, nationally ranked liberal arts college located in Ashland, Virginia, just north of Richmond and 90 miles south of Washington, D.C. The college achieves its mission of “developing the minds and character of each student” by balancing rigorous academics with individualized attention between our exceptional faculty and students. Though classes were offered in a mix of formats due to the pandemic, the school maintained a student-faculty ratio of 11 to 1 and average class size of 14 students. The college has an outstanding reputation for academics, national and international internships, study abroad programs and undergraduate research opportunities.

The College is now in our 192nd year, and welcomed a class of 353 freshmen this year. The College has experienced significant growth in our student body in recent years and is more diverse than at any point in our history. The 2021-22 academic year opened with 1501 students from 28 states (including the District of Columbia) and 32 countries. Of these students, 55% are female and 45% are male.

R-MC prides itself on an exceptional sense of responsibility for student success and offers a Four-Year Degree Guarantee, which pledges in writing that freshmen who meet all necessary requirements will graduate within four calendar years. If not, Randolph-Macon will waive tuition costs for R-MC courses needed to complete the degree.

Randolph-Macon celebrates our strong alumni giving record. This year, we were ranked #23 in the nation for the percentage of our alumni who give back to the college. The generosity of our alumni has allowed us to continue improving and expanding the campus. This winter, students and faculty will begin using our Center for the Performing Arts, which now includes two theaters as well as new studio and rehearsal spaces. We are also underway with construction on Duke Hall, which will be home to our Masters in Physician Assistant Studies program as well as new facilities for our athletics teams.

Diversity, and creating a culture of belonging, is in focus this year. Senior administration has received, and is acting on, 31 strategic recommendations from the Racial Equity and Opportunity Commission, appointed in 2020.

R-MC has been educating Christian clergy throughout its history. Randolph-Macon College currently has more than 240 living alumni who are clergy, two-thirds of whom are United Methodist Clergy. We are proud of our pre-ministerial program that includes Bailey Scholars, Pre-Ministerial Grant recipients, and others. A. Purnell Bailey Pre-Ministerial Scholarship Program was established in 2004 to support students who express an interest in ordained ministry in the Christian tradition. Students awarded this scholarship receive half-tuition for the first two years and full tuition for the junior and senior years. The program includes weekly mentoring, two internships in ministry settings, and support selecting and applying to theology school. There are 12 recent pre-ministerial graduates in seminaries across the country.

Randolph-Macon values youth ministry across the Virginia Conference and was honored to host a Va Conference Youth Rally in December 2021. We are also supporting Duncan Memorial UMC’s new Connections program to help area youth groups come together, making use of resources on the college campus. 2021 was the final year of our leadership, diversity, and call youth event known as Valuing the Voices in the Church. Despite the challenges of the pandemic, we completed our fifth year and are continuing to offer our summer event: Convergence: A Youth Theology Institute on Faith and Science. We also are excited that Pathways to Science (an opportunity for rising sophomore Hispanic girls to meet scientists and explore STEM related activities) continues to be a significant program in our summer schedule.

As the oldest continuously operating Methodist college in the country, Randolph-Macon College appreciates our historic and ongoing relationship to the Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

– Robert Lindgren, President

Shenandoah University

From its inception, John Wesley instilled into the Methodist movement a permanent passion for education.[1] This commitment to educating minds and nurturing spirits manifested itself through Methodism’s denominational offshoots, establishing numerous colleges and universities. Founded in 1875 by the Church of the United Brethren, Shenandoah University is proud to inherit that rich heritage. We are driven by a mission to “educate and inspire individuals to be critical, reflective thinkers; lifelong learners; and ethical, compassionate citizens who are committed to making responsible contributions within a community, a nation, and the world.” I am grateful to report great strides in advancing this mission, a number of which I believe will be of interest to the people of the Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Thanks to the dedicated work of our students, faculty, and staff, Shenandoah University was fully open for in-person operations since summer of 2020. Case counts of COVID-19 have remained low throughout our student body, and we continued to utilize innovative testing strategies developed by our School of Pharmacy. I can now report that, in partnership with Valley Health professionals, over 70,000 COVID-19 vaccines were administered in our Wilkins Athletics & Events Center to members of the community. At our peak, we administered more than 3,000 shots per day! I expressed hope in the past of hosting sessions of the Virginia Annual Conference in this facility on our Winchester campus in years to come. Experiencing God using us to bless our Northern Valley community through this mass vaccination effort renews my conviction that our campus community is more than ready to welcome VAUMC delegates in a future year.

We progressed toward making college more affordable and accessible through expanding discounted J-Term and Summer Term course offerings. Students can make progress on their degrees during breaks between semesters at a rate of $495 per class – a discount of 80% and less than community college classes! We served 2,407 students in the Summer of 2021, and we served 359 students during our 2022 J-Term. In addition, we opened the opportunity for rising high school seniors to take summer courses online so they can earn transferable college credit at this discounted rate while immersing themselves in the rhythms and requirements of college coursework.

We welcomed 22 youth from across Virginia and throughout the Mid-Atlantic region into the final cohort of the Shenandoah University Youth Theology Institute (SUYTI) last summer. During this immersive program, students learned how current Christian vocation calls for participation in sustainability efforts, embracing religious pluralism, and celebrating diversity – all while earning college credit. Throughout its existence, SUYTI walked alongside 71 youth from 48 congregations across four cohorts, and many of this program’s alumni continue to discern calls to ordained ministry in the United Methodist Church. To that end, our first student to enroll in our 3+3 partnership with Wesley Theological Seminary (WTS) has completed his coursework at Shenandoah and started work on his M.Div. at WTS.

Our Office of Spiritual Life serves our university community through meaningful and impactful worship celebrations and opportunities for scriptural study and service in mission around Winchester, the country, and the world. It is a hub for spiritual formation for persons of all faiths, embracing a commitment to celebrating religious diversity which is rooted in our United Methodist heritage. We opened a dedicated prayer room on campus for Muslim members of our community, assisting them as they live out and practice their faith. Spiritual Life not only serves our primarily Christian students, but also helps strengthen student-led Jewish, Muslim, and Hindu communities on campus. Lastly, I am happy to inform you that I appointed Rev. DeLyn Celec to the role of Interim University Chaplain to provide oversight and leadership for this office. She brings with her fourteen years of experience serving the student body here at Shenandoah, and she possesses invaluable gifts and graces for leadership that will serve her and her team in this new role. To deepen partnerships across the Virginia Annual Conference, she can be reached at spirituallife@su.edu.

I remain grateful for the support and prayers for Shenandoah University by the Virginia Annual Conference, along with its districts and congregations. We are the “Big Little University Rising”, with a passion for education rooted in our shared Wesleyan heritage

– Tracy Fitzsimmons, Ph.D., President

Virginia Wesleyan University

Virginia Wesleyan University was proud to offer in-person instruction for the 2021-22 academic year. While COVID-19 has affected every aspect of campus life, we continue to offer courses, opportunities for student engagement, and intercollegiate athletics in the safest way possible during these challenging times.

Addressing national trends, affordability remains a top priority. Virginia Wesleyan offers a multi-faceted plan of affordability that combines multiple consecutive years of freezing tuition costs, the endowed Batten Honors College, an expanded donor-funded Work & Learn Program for student employment, a concurrent enrollment program and fair transfer agreement with Virginia community colleges, affordable out-of-semester 12-month course options, and a fifth-year tuition guarantee.

Since our 2017 transition to University status, we have added new graduate programs and several thriving online programs. Academic programs have been expanded to include a joint Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree with Sentara College of Health Sciences and a Master of Education (M.Ed.) online, which will begin in the fall of 2021 and continue to grow. The University will add a Leadership concentration to the online Master of Business Administration program in 2022.

Despite all the challenges of the last two years, the University was able to finish several projects on campus. Thanks to a grant, Clarke Hall was given an overhaul of its spaces with new technology added for enhanced teaching and learning. Brock Commons, which was completed in February 2022, has been added to the Boyd Dining Center to finish a multi-year modernization project of all dining spaces on campus. The original academic building on campus, formerly the Fine Arts Building, is now Susan T. Beverly Hall. Beverly Hall’s renovation was completed and the building was dedicated in September 2021. DeFord Manor, the president’s residence, was constructed throughout 2021 and completed in December. The building is named for longtime benefactors and Trustees Bob and Nancy DeFord. The locker rooms and restrooms in the Trinder Center of the newly named Tassos Paphites Soccer Complex were updated. The Betty S. Rogers Track and Field Center added a new digital scoreboard.

Our Greer Environmental Sciences Center and highly selective Batten Honors College, both opened in 2017, continue to be national niche programs. The Greer Environmental Sciences Center has enhanced prominence in the natural sciences programs and has earned multiple accolades, including 2018 Conservationist of the Year from the Chesapeake Bay Foundation and recognition from the Elizabeth River Project for Sustained Distinguished Performance at the River Stars Model Level again for 2021.

The Batten Honors College welcomed its fifth class in fall 2021 and continues to operate at full capacity with 160 students. In December 2021, the University announced the Louis and Prudence Ryan Research Symposium and Excellence in Research Prize to enhance the Batten Honors College. This new program will begin in Spring 2023.

A third national-niche program of VWU is the Center for the Study of Religious Freedom which was renamed the Robert Nussbaum Center in April 2020 for the Center’s founding visionary. The center aims to create a civil society through education, respectful dialogue, and mutual understanding, and it equips students and community members to address difficult and urgent problems. We are dedicated to diversity and inclusion, and named the University’s first chief diversity officer in early 2020. In fall 2020, we became an inaugural member of the Liberal Arts Colleges Racial Equity Leadership Alliance (LACRELA).

Religious life on campus is vibrant as Marlin Ministries serves students of all faiths, interests, and backgrounds. Socially-distanced ecumenical services are offered weekly in the Monumental Chapel and Beazley Recital Hall and in-person and virtual gatherings are held each week for students, faculty, and staff with various interests and journeys in their faith. Due to changes in financial support from the Church, our Chaplain, Marie Porter, is serving in a part-time capacity while also directing youth ministry at a local church. VWU students, faculty and staff are active members of the congregation at that local church. The donor-funded Boyd Fellows program provides opportunities for student leaders to assist with the administrative, visionary, and programmatic aspects of religious life on campus. Agreements with the Boston University School of Theology, Candler School of Theology at Emory University and the Duke University Divinity School provide early assurance opportunities for students interested in pursuing careers in the ministry.

RETIRED CLERGY HOUSING CORPORATION

Retired Clergy Housing Corporation (RCHC) has been serving clergy and their families since 1932 by providing housing following retirement for those who qualify.

This has been a year of blessings for RCHC. First, The Virginia Annual Conference accepted RCHC as an Advance Special which gives us more visibility throughout the Conference. Second, The Virginia Annual Conference awarded RCHC a grant from the Conference Benevolences Fund which will give the opportunity to update some properties. Third, RCHC received a bequest from a very special friend, supporter, and former board chair, James Hodges, Jr.

I would like to thank Les “Burk” Hershey for his 14 years of leadership and service to our Board of Directors. I would also like to welcome to our Board of Directors, Mrs. Mary Jeffries, member of Mount Vernon UMC, Charlottesville District; Rev. RJ Jun, Associate Director of Serving Ministries, Virginia Annual Conference; and Mr. David Dommissie, Conference Treasurer, Virginia Annual Conference.

As exciting as the above information is, RCHC was greatly saddened by the death of Rev. Dr. Tom Coffman. Tom served as the Executive Director of RCHC for over 27 years. He and his wife, Nancy, have been vital to the work of RCHC. Their love and dedication for all retirees and especially those participating in RCHC shaped this ministry into what we have today. Tom’s wisdom and guidance will be greatly missed.

Through the Covenant of Gratitude, you are able to support retired clergy and their families who have given so much to the local churches and now reside in RCHC housing. The Covenant of Gratitude requests a commitment of a $1 minimum per commissioned Provisional Elder and Deacon at this Annual Conference session. We appreciate the past support of our Covenant of Gratitude family, but we are asking those who can, to do a bit more! If you are a current Covenant of Gratitude supporter, or if you have never supported our ministry before, please consider a gift to $2, $5, or even $10 per commissioned Provisional Elder and Deacon at this Annual Conference. Your donation will help offset basic operations and unexpected repairs. We also invite you to make RCHC a part of your estate planning. If you are interested in learning more about how to support this mission, please contact Rev. Charles Wickham at 804-474-8724 and he will be happy to meet with you.

On behalf of the Board, I thank you in advance for any assistance you give. What an honor and privilege it is to talk with the families we serve and hear them say, “We are all more than grateful for the comfort and security of this house...it is full of TLC! Thank you to the Board and persons who keep this ministry going!” Our clergy and their families have given themselves to the service of God and what an honor to now help support them with housing.

– D. Michael Houff, RCHC Board of Directors, Chair

THE UNITED METHODIST CREDIT UNION

Serving members in North Carolina, Maryland, DC, West Virginia, and of course Virginia, The United Methodist Credit Union (TUMCU) offers savings and checking accounts, loans, credit cards, online services, and personal financial management resources, as well as:

- ❖ SnapLoans that provide educational lines of credit for college students attending a United Methodist affiliated college or seminary;
- ❖ Jubilee Assistance Funds in partnership with local churches to help people with financial emergencies;
- ❖ A partnership with a financial services firm to assist with college planning, annuities, long term care, and saving for retirement;
- ❖ Church loans to help with parsonage repairs, van or bus purchases, and the refinancing of current loans for better rates and terms; and
- ❖ Project loans (up to $50,000 unsecured) and Visa rewards credit cards for church business.

During the Covid-19 pandemic, TUMCU provided the following assistance:

- ❖ Helped more than two hundred churches secure first-round, forgivable loans totaling over 4.7 million dollars under the Small Business Administration's (SBA) Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) that was part of the federal government's CARES Act.

- ❖ Also assisted a number of United Methodist related organizations, ministries, camps, and missions with PPP funding.
- ❖ Have begun the PPP Forgiveness process for all first-round funding.
- ❖ Is actively participating in PPP Second-Draw funding, with nearly two million dollars of additional church financial assistance as of February 15 this year.
- ❖ Offered quick issue, low interest emergency COVID loans and 0% interest on new credit card purchases for six months.
- ❖ Instituted "no-fee" credit card transfers, and an easy, "skip-a-pay" feature on all consumer loans for all members in good standing.

In the past year, TUMCU has also increased its internet presence, allowing members to do even more with the credit union online, such as completing loan and new membership applications, loan disbursements, and information requests.

A new stewardship resource for member churches was also introduced when the Rev. Burt Brooks joined the credit union team as Director of Stewardship & Outreach. His tasks include consulting with churches about annual giving, capital campaigns, and stewardship planning. His services are free to congregations as part of TUMCU's commitment to help churches grow in their mission and ministry. The Rev. Brooks has already launched a multi-week "Stewardship Academy" to assist newer pastors, and will be offering it periodically throughout the coming year.

A new missional project to assist members with adoptions has also been implemented. The program is designed to assist prospective adoptive parents with the legal, travel, and extraordinary expenses that are unique to each of their adoption situations.

As a result of its continued assistance to its member churches and individuals, the credit union has grown to become a financial institution with more than twenty million dollars in deposits. Needless to say, this has been a very busy and fruitful year for The United Methodist Credit Union as we have helped our members gain all they can, and save all they can, so they can give all they can.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Again, the fall and the spring meetings of the Trustees of the Virginia Conference Historical Society have been held online via Zoom. The October 2 program was a video lecture on E. Stanley Jones by his granddaughter Anne Mathews-Younes.

In the February 28 meeting, Marg Kutz spoke about her recently-published book on the two earliest clergy women in the Virginia Conference. A memorial to Raymond Wrenn was presented by Bishop Hasbrouck Hughes. No one has done more to document, promote and subsidize the history of the Virginia Conference than Raymond. We will miss him.

The organizations that fall under the Historical Society continue to be very active as you can see from the following reports.

– Mike Browder, President

Virginia United Methodist HERITAGE

First published in 1973, HERITAGE is the bi-annual scholarly journal of the Virginia Conference Historical Society of the United Methodist Church.

This spring, we welcomed our new circulation manager, the Rev. Linda Crabbs, who will track subscriptions and process the HERITAGE booklets for mailing.

The Fall 2021 issue featured William Duke: The Boy Who Studied More Than His Head Could Bear, written by the late Fern Stukenbroeker. The story is about an early Methodist circuit rider who, in 1774, founded today's Trinity United Methodist Church in Alexandria. The issue also included an article called George Arnold: Asbury's Good Friend. Arnold was the friend in whose home in Spotsylvania County Asbury died in 1816.

Our Spring 2022 issue will feature The Rev. Dr. Raymond Fitzhugh Wrenn, a short biography of our wonderful friend, Raymond Wrenn, who died in February at the age of 103. This bio was composed by the Rev. Levi Stroud and is based on Wrenn's memoirs. We will also feature Highlights of My UMVIM Journey, by the Rev. Dr. John T. "Jack" Martin, Jr., in which Jack discusses some of the many memorable events he has witnessed and been a part of while serving over 40 years in mission with United Methodist Volunteers in Mission.

The Spring 2022 issue of HERITAGE is targeted for mailing in early May. We advertised HERITAGE on ClergyNet and LaityNet briefly last fall and received a great response. We will again appeal to potential subscribers on these email groups in time for them to receive the Spring 2022 issue. We are currently unable to take subscriptions online and are looking for a new subscription portal on which to take those orders soon.

Archives Committee

As discussed at the October 2021 VCHS meeting, the Archives Committee submitted a grant request to the Common Table for funds to support additional operating hours for the Conference Archives in 2022. This request was necessitated by the additional workload placed on the Archivist, Stephanie Davis, that includes ensuring the proper management and disposition of additional records due to closing churches, and merging districts, providing guidance to Conference historians and archivists, searching references and assisting requestors (with specific requests from members of the Conference History Book Committee), and responding to other requests within and outside of the Virginia Conference.

This grant request was denied and the Archives Committee was referred to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration for staff funding. The Committee is pursuing this suggestion.

Meanwhile the Committee has discussed various ways to most efficiently allot the Archivist's 15-hour work week. Suggestions include: prioritize request responses so that the most crucial record requirements of the Conference are addressed; set regular operating hours for researchers and ensure they understand that the Archivist is not available outside of these hours; and determine what how the jobs required by the Book of Discipline can be most effectively addressed within the time restraint. Currently the Archives will be opened on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, with Thursday being reserved for researchers.

The donated church bench acquired from the Southeast Jurisdictional Museum will be transferred to the Conference Building in March. Dr. Jack Martin has prepared a short service of dedication to honor Cathy Morgan. This has been delayed due to COVID concerns. Once a date has been determined, Cathy's family and VCHS members will be invited to attend in person or via Zoom.

Stephanie recently participated in a podcast interview for the e-Advocate with Madeline Pillow White. In the podcast, Stephanie provided information about her job as Archivist, the importance of the Archives in the Virginia Conference, and items contained in the records collections, and described other archival-related topics. The podcast is available online at vaumc.org/audioadvocate and clicking on Episode 24, February 1. The Committee strongly encourages all members of the VCHS listen to it to discover more, and interesting, information about Stephanie and the Archives.

Laurie Preston, Associate Professor and Head of Reference, McGraw Page Library at Randolph Macon College and an Archives Committee member, is currently on sabbatical and is visiting various repositories of antebellum-era records of the United Methodist Church and its predecessors. While reviewing and inventorying the records, she will also identify those that should be transferred to and stored in the Virginia Conference Archives and has invited Stephanie to accompany her to local sites if time allows.

Stephanie continues to receive and process new records, provide guidance and assistance to researchers, answer questions from Virginia Conference Offices and churches about the proper maintenance and disposition of records, plus take on-line archival courses as time allows. The Committee continues to be pleased with Stephanie's accomplishments and commends her for her dedication to the Archives.

History Update Committee

Since the last report of this committee to the Trustees in October 2021, we have had two ZOOM meetings. The members of the committee have been preparing outlines and drafts of topics to be treated in the proposed historical update of the Virginia United Methodist Conference. The COVID-19 pandemic protocols continue to hamper research efforts in archives and libraries. However, we are continuing with our work.

Last October, we applied to the Conference Common Table Grants Committee for a program grant to assist with start-up funding of our project. The Committee approved a grant of $5,000 for this year with the caveat that we could reapply for more funding when a more detailed budget is developed, such as the costs of digital/print publication and editorial services.

Our current thinking is that we would like to enlist several people to form an "editorial board" rather than to have a single general editor.

We welcome the interest and support of any who can join us in this enterprise in whatever capacity.

Selected listing of topics to be considered for the history update:

- ❖ A brief overview of 100 years
- ❖ 1939 union of the Methodist Episcopal, Methodist Episcopal South and Methodist Protestant Churches
- ❖ 1968 union of the Evangelical United Brethren, Methodist Church, Central Jurisdiction Dissolution
- ❖ Race and Civil Rights
- ❖ Theological Trends
- ❖ Spiritual Formation and Renewal
- ❖ Women's issues (ordination, full clergy rights, organizations for missions)
- ❖ Growing racial diversity – Asian, Latino/Hispanic, Native American
- ❖ The Church faces War – support, protest, peacemaking
- ❖ Social Justice Issues

- ❖ Reconceptualizing the mission of the church
- ❖ Christian Higher Education in the Virginia Conference
- ❖ Church and Community
- ❖ Ecumenical Relations
- ❖ Changing views of art, architecture, liturgy and music
- ❖ Evolution of thinking on pastoral ministry, appointment processes, etc.
- ❖ Historic churches that have survived (appendix)
- ❖ Archives and Historical Societies
- ❖ Historic sites and land marks in Virginia
- ❖ The Virginia Advocate
- ❖ Emerging issues, i.e. COVID-19 pandemic, church division
- ❖ Changing Conference structures and the impact on the mission of the church
- ❖ Notable Virginia Methodists

The Old Brunswick Foundation

The Old Brunswick Foundation (TOBCF) is a 501(c)3 tax -exempt, non-profit organization formed in 2004. While seeking to preserve and interpret key historical sites along the 18th and 19th century Methodist Brunswick Circuit, it shares its legacy of faith history and education with the public. TOBCF emphasizes this diverse local heritage by using the following sites as learning laboratories and cultural facilities for social interaction for all.

Ebenezer Academy Memorial Park—the site of the first Methodist school in America.

Canaan—The Dromgoole House—home of an early, Irish- born Methodist Circuit Rider, the Rev. Edward Dromgoole, later the home of his son, an early 19th Century US Congressman.

The Original Campus of Randolph-Macon College in Boydton, VA—the oldest Methodist- related College in continuous operation in the United States. After the college relocated to Ashland, the campus was opened in 1879 as Boydton Academy and Bible Institute, an impactful school for African Americans, educating several prominent Civil Rights Leaders during its 50-year History.

Significant accomplishments this year include receiving a grant in the amount of $199,605, funded by in part by the Emergency Supplemental Historic Preservation Fund and administered by the National Park Services Department of Interior in partnership with the Virginia Department of Historical Resources. The purpose of the Grant is two-fold and includes:

- * Completion of the nomination process to have the Dromgoole House listed on the Virginia Historic Landmark Register (VDHR) and the National Historic Places (NPS)
- * To obtain a Historical Structure Report of the Dromgoole House.
- * To obtain an Engineering Assessment
- * Stabilize the Chimneys
- * Restore and/reinforce the foundation for preservation

The second part of the grant award (TOBCF) funds are targeted for the Randolph-Macon and Boydton Academy/Bible Institute site. These funds will finance work done by VDHR to contract for and manage a

- * Historic Resource Survey and to
- * Complete a National Registration of Historic Properties nomination to have this site and several other properties associated with the historical campus designated as an historic district.

Other noteworthy activities in 2021

Through the efforts of Carol and Tom Corker a large 60' trailer home was purchased and installed on the Dromgoole site to serve as a tenant's home and gathering center. During a recent violent wind storm, a Tree fell on the trailer and damaged the roof. It is slated for repair.

Another significant project to the Randolph-Macon/Boydton Institute project has been the awarding of contracts to stabilize the Helensha Cottage, raise the building and facilitate a new foundation under it. The Cottage is slated to become a visitor/learning center/museum for the History of the site.

An important aspect of the Work of the OBCF is promotion and interpretation, sharing the story of the significance of these sites, such as the lecture by Bill Bynum archivist from the Library of the Virginia who gave a scholarly presentation for the Annual Meeting on the topic "Edward Dromgoole, Sr.- Emancipator& Enslaver on November 13,2021 an expansion on the topic by Dr. Art Thomas, Board Member and professor at Wesley Theological Seminary.

The OBCF Publications Committee, led by Patricia Ellis with much help from Ann Keeling and Art Thomas, has regularly provided press releases on work being done by the foundation. These have been published in many local newspapers including Emporia News and Muhlenberg Sun. In addition, the OBCF was approached by the editor of Cooperative Living Magazine, a life style magazine published in Virginia, Maryland, and Delaware Association of Electric Cooperatives reaching 580,000 customers to publish an article on the Dromgoole House in their March 2022 issue.

The official newsletter of the “OBCF” was initiated last year and is titled “The Cradle.”

We are grateful to Board Member Rev. Larry House for maintaining the ground around the Ebenezer Academy Site.

The entire Board of Directors of the OBCF have been in these projects, but special thanks to OBCF President Jim Mott, Ann Keeling, Tom & Carol Corker for outstands visionary service.

Final word of gratitude is given to Dr. Bill Olson and Walter Beales Board Members of the OBCF and their wisdom, determination and gratitude to move (OBCF) forward.

With their help OBCF did raise $126,000 to support the new Helensha Cottage Restoration/Learning Center Project and it’s initial goals.

The William Watters Foundation

The William Watters Foundation seeks to preserve and interpret the gravesite of William Watters, the first American-born Methodist itinerant preacher, officially appointed to his first circuit in 1773. The William Watters Gravesite, United Methodist Historic Site No. 7 lies in McLean, Virginia.

With the continuing Covid epidemic, the William Watters Foundation once again held our annual meeting via Zoom, on September 19, 2021. Myra Lindsey gave a presentation about the Thomas Run Church/Watters Meeting House, a meetinghouse established by William Watters’ brother, Henry Watters, near Bel Air, Maryland. This was the site of the fifth annual American Methodist Conference, held in May 1777. At that conference, a committee of five preachers was selected to lead the American Methodist Movement if British preachers had to return to England or stop preaching due to the Revolutionary War. These five men were instrumental in sustaining the movement through the war so that we have a United Methodist Church today.

The foundation approved its board of directors at the annual meeting, and the directors were confirmed by the Virginia Conference Historical Society at its fall meeting on October 2, 2021. The officers were reelected at our first board meeting of the new year, also held via Zoom, on February 11, 2022.

We continue to care for the gravesite. In doing so, we welcomed two new volunteer lawncare providers last year: Brenda Royden, a resident of the neighborhood in which the gravesite exists, and Rudy Tucker, a retired Virginia Conference pastor who lives in the Manassas area. Also, Vice President David Meyers removed a tall leaning tree from the property last fall. Future projects include repairing the driveway and the fence surrounding the cemetery, as well as developing a deterrent to trespassers who walk down the driveway and cross through neighbors’ yards to access other parts of the neighborhood.

The Old Stone Church Foundation

It has been a difficult two years for everyone due to COVID restrictions, including the membership of the Old Stone Church. We have limited to online meetings. Still, the Old Stone Church is open for business. We have maintained the property and any who would like to visit are free to do so. Additionally, brick orders will still be accepted for future expansions of our prayer walk. If all goes well we plan to return to our in-person annual meeting/dinner in September.

VIRGINIA UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION

Faithfully partnering since 1971, the Virginia United Methodist Foundation exists to serve local United Methodist churches and Conference agencies throughout the Virginia Conference in the expansion of their programs and ministries through asset management, investing, endowments and planned giving. As such, the Foundation seeks to be in compliance with the Socially Responsible Investing principles of the United Methodist Book of Discipline. As a servicing organization of the Virginia Conference, we consider ourselves to be your partner in ministry. Our commitment is to live out our core values with a vision for relevant ministry that leaves a lasting legacy for generations to come.

Our values: Integrity, Connection, Excellence

Our vision: To be the preferred financial services partner of the Virginia Conference

Our mission: To serve, steward and minister in the spirit of Christ while focusing on achieving excellence in both customer service and our fiduciary responsibilities.

In 2021, the Foundation celebrated fifty years of financial service to the Virginia Conference. As of December 31, 2021, there are over $87 Million in assets under management across 657 investment accounts. These accounts include churches, districts, the Virginia United Methodist Conference and United Methodist agencies. The $87 Million is invested in five different funds: the Balanced Fund, the Balanced Plus Fund, the Stock Fund, the Bond Fund, and Charitable Gift Annuities. Our investment advisors include the Humphrey-Kelly Group, a designated institutional investment consulting team with Merrill Lynch's Global Institutional Consulting group with a focus on non-profit faith based organizations.

Foundation staff members visit local churches to assist in starting endowment programs to support the long-term funding of mission projects. For example, scholarship funds are popular and ensure that younger generations will have the education needed to proclaim the message of Christ. The Foundation currently manages over 90 endowments.

Since 2015, the Foundation's Grant ministry has awarded grants to Virginia United Methodist Churches and affiliated agencies across the Virginia Conference. The program's focus is on unifying mission, ministry and impact to better assist and equip ministries in their projects, as well as help them to build a future. Grants are given from three funds: Foundation Grants Fund, Dr. William J. and Frances Hanna Memorial Grant, and Micah 6:8/No Harm Do Good Endowment Grant. In October 2021, many different ministries across the Virginia Conference applied for a grant. After thorough consideration by the Grant Committee, the Foundation Board of Directors awarded grants to 21 ministries totaling $59,100 in December 2021.

Throughout 2022 and beyond, our commitment to serving every local church and dedication to helping all God's children, both present and forthcoming generations, is steadfast. We stand ready to help your church or your members design a program that will grow and serve others.

Virginia United Methodist Development Company

Founded in 2014, the Virginia United Methodist Development Company ('DevCo') exists as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Virginia United Methodist Foundation, a supporting organization of the Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. DevCo fulfills its mission by providing loans to churches and affiliates for ministry expansion through investments made by individuals, churches and United Methodist agencies.

DevCo loan services include new construction loans, facility expansion loans, capital improvement loans, debt refinancing, as well as loans for building purchase and land acquisition. As of December 31, 2021, the Development Company has 38 loans totaling approximately $32 Million throughout the Virginia Conference.

As part of the connection, DevCo makes loans to United Methodist churches and related entities, funded by savings and investment certificates from United Methodist churches, related ministries, members and family or friends. DevCo acts as a conduit for missional investing and is able to provide financing to move God's kingdom forward. With the help of over 900 DevCo investors totaling $42 Million, loans are made for a variety of situations, such as providing a church the opportunity to buy an adjacent piece of property for additional parking, opening a preschool in an underserved community, or saving the church thousands of dollars by refinancing its mortgage. Through missional investing, a church can redirect funds to the community and "open hearts, open minds, and open doors."

At DevCo, we consider ourselves to be your partner in ministry. Our team takes a personal interest in the ministries of the churches we serve. We are concerned about the spiritual health of local church ministry, not just financial health. Our desire is to equip local church leaders in understanding how to serve their community through strategic planning and missional engagement. Additionally, DevCo has a fiduciary responsibility to protect our investors' money, which funds church loans, but we also have a strong desire to see local churches fulfill their God-given mission.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

1. The Philosophy of and the Purpose for the Equitable Compensation Program.
 - a. “Ordained ministers are called by God to a lifetime of servant leadership in specialized ministries among the people of God. Ordained ministers are called to interpret to the Church the needs, concerns, and hopes of the world and the promise of God for creation. Within these specialized ministries, deacons are called to ministries of Word, Service (§328), Compassion, and Justice and elders are called to ministries of Service, Word, Sacrament, and Order (§332). Through these distinctive functions, ordained ministers devote themselves wholly to the work of the Church and to the up building of the ministry of all Christians. They do this through the careful study of Scripture and its faithful interpretation; through effective proclamation of the gospel and responsible administration of the sacraments; through diligent pastoral leadership of their congregations for fruitful discipleship; and by following the guidance of the Holy Spirit in witnessing beyond the congregation in the local community and to the ends of the earth. The ordained ministry is defined by its faithful commitment to servant leadership following the example of Jesus Christ, by its passion for the hallowing of life, and by its concern to link all local ministries with the widest boundaries of the Christian community.” The Book of Discipline 2016 (§139)
 - b. “It is the purpose of the commission on equitable compensation to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference by: (a) recommending conference standards for pastoral support; (b) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (c) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations; (d) submitting an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference. For pastors receiving equitable compensation, once the base compensation supplementation has been paid by the annual conference, and the minimum base compensation and base compensation supplementation has been received by the pastor, the annual conference shall have no further financial obligation or responsibility to the pastor, the charge or anyone else regarding the pastor’s compensation.” The Book of Discipline 2016 (§625.2)
 - c. Assumption of the obligations of the itinerancy, required to be made at the time of admission into the Conference, put the church under the counter obligation of providing support for the entire ministry of the church. In view of the expectation which the church holds for its clergy in the area of professional separation and competence, it is incumbent upon the church to see that compensation is adequate for the professional and personal requirements of its clergy, and that they are determined and administered in a manner appropriate to a professional understanding of the ministerial vocation.
2. Types of Equitable Compensation Support.
 - a. Minimum Compensation Support: The commission annually proposes to the Annual Conference a schedule of minimum compensation for ministers by the various statuses of conference relationship and floor schedule to be met by the charge. In approving this schedule, the Conference guarantees each of its ministers a certain minimum compensation. Unless a minister voluntarily waives this right, he/she is entitled to an appointment where the compensation, including supplements from the conference, district, and other sources will be at least the minimum for his/her category.
 - b. Compensation supplementation is support provided to charges which require support in addition to that called for by the Minimum Compensation program. Such charges fall into two groups:
 - (1) Charges with part-time or retired pastors.
 - (2) Charges where there is a need for compensation higher than the minimum.
3. Money for the Equitable Compensation Fund.
 - a. The grants and administrative expenses of the commission are borne by the Equitable Compensation Fund.
 - b. Annually the commission estimates the amount needed for Equitable Compensation grants, and with the concurrence of the Council on Finance and Administration, recommends an amount to the Annual Conference to be apportioned to the districts and charges of the conference.
 - c. As set forth in The Book of Discipline 2016 (§622) “When the apportionments for bishops, district superintendents, conference claimants, and the Equitable Compensation Fund for the several districts and charges have been determined, payments made to the same in each pastoral charge shall be exactly proportional to the amount paid on the clergy base compensation. (§818.3) The treasurer or treasurers of each pastoral charge shall accordingly make proportional distribution of the funds raised in that charge for the support of the ordained ministry and shall remit monthly if practicable and quarterly at the latest the items for bishops, district superintendents, conference claimants, and the Equitable Compensation Fund to the proper treasurer or treasurers.”
4. For Equitable Compensation purposes, the term “compensation” includes the amounts of ministerial support designated as salary and accountable reimbursement.
5. The Minimum Compensation Schedule, including the Floor, shall be recommended by the commission and the schedule, as approved by the Annual Conference, shall be published in the conference Journal.
6. Eligibility for Minimum Compensation Support.
 - a. The clergy must be rendering full-time service, that is their efforts must fully satisfy the Disciplinary description of the office of the minister and they must, in the judgment of his/her district superintendent, be rendering full-time service to the charge to which they have been appointed as pastor or associate pastor.
 - b. The “floor” is the minimum the charge must pay (obtained from sources other than Equitable Compensation Fund) in order to be eligible to receive minimum salary support.
7. Eligibility for Salary Supplementation.
 - a. All charges are eligible with special considerations made for ethnic pastors serving ethnic ministries.
 - b. The application must be supported by a recommendation of the district superintendent.
 - c. The commission strongly discourages applications from charges whose compensation is above the Conference Average Compensation (CAC).
8. Charges receiving support from the Equitable Compensation Commission are encouraged to take steps regularly toward becoming self-supporting and toward the increasing of the total level of support of their ministers. The following actions should encourage these steps:

- a. The district superintendents will annually review each application for Equitable Compensation aid with the appropriate charge conference.
 - b. Equitable Compensation aid to each full-time pastor will be reduced $1 for each $2 increase established and paid by the charge. When salary paid by the church exceeds the minimum applicable level the Equitable Compensation support will cease, unless the Equitable Compensation Commission waives this requirement under special circumstances.
9. How applications for aid are submitted.
- a. All applications shall be submitted on forms provided by the commission.
 - b. Applications shall include the name and district of the charge, the number of churches on the charge, the name and ministerial category of the minister, a statement of whether the minister is serving full or part time, together with all amounts of ministerial support listed by source both for the period ending and the period beginning. The application shall state the total salary needed for the minister and the amount of aid necessary to obtain that total.
 - c. Applications shall be prepared, signed by the chair of the staff-parish relationship committee of the charge and the district superintendent.
 - d. A copy of the current church/charge budget must be submitted with the application along with a copy of the most recent audited financial statements.
 - e. Applications shall be submitted to the conference treasurer who shall provide each member of the commission with a copy of each application at least one week before the meeting at which the application will be considered.
 - f. Applications are generally submitted in February and May for support to begin on July 1st. Mid-appointment year requests are submitted by October 31st. The deadline for such applications is listed each year in the Conference Calendar.
10. How appropriations are made.
- a. The Commission meets twice during the appointment-making process in conjunction with the Cabinet's schedule to review applications for Equitable Compensation Grants. The Commission also meets in November to review any mid-appointment year requests.
 - b. Requirements which a charge must meet in order to receive Minimum Compensation Support may be waived by a two-thirds vote of the commission.
 - c. Compensation Supplementation will be granted by action of the commission on recommendations of the district superintendent in the categories described in Paragraph 7.
11. Methods of Payment.
- a. Minimum compensation support and supplementation will be paid through Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) by the conference treasurer to the charge receiving aid by the 10th day of each month.
 - b. If a charge fails to maintain a current status on Pension payments to VUMPI, the Conference Treasurer's Office shall send the Equitable Compensation Support directly to VUMPI until such arrearages are satisfied.
 - c. The commission chairperson shall keep the conference treasurer regularly informed as to the appropriations made by the commission and any changes in payments which may be necessary because of appointments or changes in ministerial status.

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION GUIDELINES

The commission, at the request of the Bishop and the Cabinet, developed guidelines for requests, approval and time periods for supplementation provided by conference funds. It is felt that these guidelines will provide a uniform standard across the conference in support of the various charges that may require funds.

I. New Requests

A. New Growth Situation Request/New Churches

1. Request must be approved by the District Board of Church Location and Building.
2. Request with the written District Board of Church Location approval giving rationale for the request should be received by the

November Equitable

Compensation meeting in order to be approved for the following appointment year.

3. Will be funded according to the following formula:
 - 100% for first 18 months (e.g., July 2006 through Dec. 2007)
 - 80% second full calendar year
 - 60% third full calendar year
 - continued reduction at 20% per year

B. New Mission/Ethnic Churches

1. Request must be approved by the District Board of Church Location and Building.
2. Request with the written District Board of Church Location approval giving rationale for the request should be received by the November Equitable Compensation meeting in order to be approved for the following appointment year.

3. Will be funded according to the following formula:
 - 100% for first 30 months (e.g., July 2006 through Dec. 2008)
 - 85% third full calendar year
 - 70% fourth full calendar year
 - continued reduction at 15% per year

It is suggested that if a new church or mission is not expected to be self-sufficient at the end of this time, that alternate funding sources be identified (i.e. district or sponsoring churches) while a new church is in the planning stages.

II. Ongoing Requests

All churches requesting Equitable Compensation assistance, who are presently receiving Equitable Compensation assistance, must have a yearly stewardship campaign, and submit Table I and II of the Year-End Reports, the Dec. 31 year-end treasurer's report and are asked to adhere to the following schedules:

A. Ongoing "Maintenance" churches

All churches in the "Maintenance Category" should make every attempt to be off Equitable Compensation at the end of five years. In order to do this, the commission asks that any request be reduced at least 20% from the present year's request as follows:

- 100% (present year)
- 80% second year
- 60% third year
- 40% fourth year
- 20% fifth year

If a church cannot adhere to this schedule, letters detailing the reasons must be submitted each year by the District Superintendent and the Church Council of the church/charge receiving Equitable Compensation assistance.

B. Ongoing Ethnic Minority/Mission Churches

All churches in the "Ethnic Minority/Mission Categories" should make every attempt to be off Equitable Compensation at the rate of 10% a year, whether by becoming self-sufficient or by developing new forms of funding. The suggested schedule is as follows:

- 100% (present year)
- 90% second year
- 80% third year
- Continued reduction at 10% per year

If a church cannot adhere to this schedule, letters detailing the reasons must be submitted each year by the District Superintendent and the Church Council of the church/charge receiving Equitable Compensation assistance.

MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR THE PARSONAGE

The 2016 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church states that the Church Council shall "review the recommendation of the committee on pastor-parish relations regarding provision of adequate housing for the pastor(s), and report the same to the charge conference for approval. Housing provisions shall comply with the annual conference housing policy and parsonage standards. Housing shall not be considered as part of compensation or remuneration." (§252.4e)

The Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee also has consultative power and responsibilities for the parsonage (§258.2g(16)). This committee is to consult with the Church Council to provide for "housing (which may be a church-owned parsonage or housing allowance in lieu of parsonage if in compliance with the policy of the annual conference)." This paragraph also includes these words: "The parsonage is to be mutually respected by the pastor's family as the property of the church and by the church as a place of privacy for the pastor's family. The committee will follow up to assure timely resolution of parsonage problems affecting the health of the pastor or pastor's family. The chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, the chairperson of the board of trustees, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to assure proper maintenance."

The Board of Trustees of the local church is charged with supervision, oversight and care of property, including the church-owned parsonage. The Charge Conference may assign some of these duties to the chair of a Parsonage Committee.

I. The House

A. Ownership: The parsonage is acquired and maintained by the charge, subject to the direction of the Charge Conference. The location, purchase, and/or building of a parsonage must be approved by the District Board of Church Location and Building. (§2544)

B. Title to Property: The parsonage property must be held by the charge Board of Trustees in trust for the use and occupancy of pastors in the United Methodist Church. (§2503.2)

C. Location: The parsonage of a station church should be located within the geographical parish of the church. The parsonage of a charge should be near the center of the charge and accessible to members. It should be convenient to a school, a shopping area, and church of the charge. Preferably parsonages should not be located immediately adjacent to the church, so that the pastor's family will be ensured reasonable privacy. Such location also facilitates resale.

D. Planning and Financing: The purchase or building plan must be approved by the Charge Conference after 10 days' notice of the meeting. The pastor, district superintendent, and the district Board of Church Location and Building must consent to the purchase. Provisions of the Book of Discipline must be observed. The sale or relocation must conform to guidelines in the Discipline.

E. Administration: The Discipline requires the Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee to see that the Trustees provide adequate and comfortable residence for the pastor and maintain its proper upkeep and furnishings. "The chairperson of the Trustees or the chairperson of the parsonage committee if one exists, the chairperson of the committee on pastor-parish relations, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to ensure proper maintenance." (§2533.4 and §258.2g(16)). The pastor's family should be consulted in the selection of equipment, fixtures, and color schemes. (See Annual Review Inventory form). The Annual Review Inventory Report shall be submitted to the District Superintendent and will be reviewed by the Parsonages' Support Committee.

The Trustees' annual budget should be adequate to provide maintenance of the parsonage and necessary replacement of furnishings for which the Trustees have responsibility.

Since insurance carried by the church will not cover personal effects of the parsonage family, the family is urged to secure a tenant's policy.

F. Inventory: A complete inventory of all furnishings, and equipment shall be maintained, one copy with the Pastor-Staff Parish Relations Committee and/or the Trustees, a second copy with the parsonage family, and a third copy for the district superintendent attached to the Annual Review Inventory. This inventory should include the purchase date of items listed, purchase price, and any major repair work done on each. Condition of furnishings at the time of the annual review should be noted. (See Parsonage Inventory Form)

II. House Arrangement and Equipment

A. Minimum Size: The living room shall measure at least 280 square feet; or living and dining room combination shall be 330 square feet. Bedrooms shall measure no less than 144 square feet each, with one not less than 168 square feet.

B. Rooms: The parsonage should have a minimum of seven rooms: at least three bedrooms with ample closet space in each, living room, dining room, kitchen, study (if not furnished outside the parsonage), at least 1½ baths, and ample dry storage space large enough for major pieces of furniture and large packing boxes. An additional bedroom, a family room, a utility room, and a garage are also desirable.

If a pastor's office is included, it should be on the first floor with an outside entrance or entry from front hall or both or on the terrace level with outside entry. Usual office furnishings, telephone, bookshelves, and a storage closet for supplies should be provided.

Newly constructed or newly purchased parsonages shall include on the ground floor level one room which could be used as a bedroom by a person with a handicapping condition, a fully accessible bathroom and laundry facilities. (§2533.6)

C. Housing Necessities:

- Central heating plant
- Complete insulation, including weather stripping, storm windows, ceiling, sidewall and floor insulation. Carpeting is desirable as a further means of insulation.
- Central air conditioning is desirable everywhere, and a necessity in some areas of the conference.
- Annual servicing of all heating and air conditioning equipment.
- At least one telephone jack on each floor.
- Dead bolt locks on all exterior doors.
- Smoke detectors and fire extinguishers.
- Housing must be maintained free of health hazards.
- Exterminator/pest control service and an annual termite inspection.
- All major appliances, including washer, dryer, stove, refrigerator, automatic hot water heater.
- Kitchen: sink, built-in cabinets, a storage or supply closet, counter work surfaces, adequate electrical outlets properly grounded. Where possible, a garbage disposal and dishwasher should be provided.
- At least one telephone permanently in the house.

D. Furnishings and Maintenance:

1. Provided by the Church/Charge:

- Furniture for the parsonage living room, foyer, dining room, and kitchen shall be provided. If a parsonage has more than three bedrooms, the church/charge shall provide furnishings for all bedrooms over three. All parsonage wall-to-wall floor coverings or rugs shall be furnished by the church/charge. Regular professional cleaning shall be the responsibility of the church/charge for all living spaces furnished by church/charge.
- Window shades or blinds shall be provided in all rooms. Window treatments, and the responsibility for their maintenance/cleaning, shall be provided for the living room, dining room, and foyer.
- Adequate light fixtures/lamps shall be provided for all living spaces furnished.

2. Provided by the Pastor:

- Furniture as desired for all rooms except living room, foyer, dining room, kitchen, and bedrooms more than three.
- Window treatments as desired for rooms other than living room, foyer and dining room, as well as their maintenance/cleaning.
- Bed, bath, and kitchen linens.
- Cookware, utensils, and small appliances.
- China, crystal/glassware, flatware.
- Additional accessories such as pictures, lamps, family pieces, etc. which personalize a home.

E. Exterior

- Trees and shrubbery should be provided where needed.
- Landscaping and normal fertilization shall be the responsibility of the church/charge.
- Cutting of the lawn and trimming of the shrubs is the responsibility of the residents.
- A lawn mover, adequate for the size of the lawn, shall be provided by the church/charge.
- A TV antenna or cable hook-up should be provided.

III. General Guidelines

A. Privacy and Care: Since the parsonage is the home of the pastor and his/her family, their rights and privacy should be respected by the congregation. The occupants must ensure that the parsonage receives proper care.

B. Gifts: A written statement should accompany any gift of furniture or furnishings, designating whether the gift is to permanently remain at the parsonage or is a personal gift to the pastor's family. Gifts shall be received without conditions and with right of refusal.

C. Placement of Furniture: Use and placement of church-owned furnishings within the parsonage shall be at the discretion of the parsonage occupants.

D. When a move occurs, refer to the "Policy at the Time of Change of Pastors" below.

Updated by Cabinet, July 2002, revised 12/2009, updated 1/2013

POLICY AT THE TIME OF CHANGE OF PASTORS

I. The Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee will supply to the district superintendent the list of people serving on the Local Church Parsonage Committee with the chairperson's address and telephone number.

IX. CONFERENCE RULES AND POLICIES

II. The district superintendent will contact the chairperson of the Local Church Parsonage Committee asking that the committee meet at the parsonage with the pastor, pastor's spouse (if applicable), and if requested by the district superintendent, a representative from the Parsonages Support Committee to inspect the parsonage, using the following guidelines:

- A. Check complete inventory (see Inventory for Leaving the Parsonage).
- B. Inspect each room for needed repairs, refurbishing, paint, etc. with attention to who is accountable beyond normal wear and tear.
- C. Inspect electrical, heating, cooling, and plumbing systems.
- D. Evaluate conditions of structure, inside and outside, including church-owned furnishings, appliances and systems.
- E. Pastor shall provide information about condition of appliances and systems known only to occupant.

III. After parsonage inspection by the Local Church Parsonage Committee and the pastor:

A. The Committee will:

- Work with the Church Council to arrange for needed repairs, refurbishing, painting, etc.
- Floors cleaned and waxed, rugs shampooed.
- Keep the district superintendent informed concerning condition of the parsonage.

- Have a representative of the Committee at the parsonage as the parsonage family moves.
- Make necessary last minute corrections to the parsonage before the new family arrives.
- Make sure that all utilities remain connected, the deposit for public utilities having been made by the church/charge.

B. The pastor will:

- Leave the parsonage clean. The outgoing parsonage family is responsible for leaving the house and furnishings clean and in move-in condition. This means at least:
 - No items should be left in storage areas (attic, garage, basement, shed, closets, etc.)
 - Windows washed.
 - Refrigerator emptied and cleaned.
 - Bathrooms scrubbed.
 - Stoves and vent hoods thoroughly cleaned.
 - Fireplace cleaned.

- Assure uninterrupted utility service for the incoming pastor. Utilities should be in the church's name, with the parsonage address, to avoid termination of services.
- The parsonage family shall leave for the successor: a list of whom to call in case of.....; how to fix.....; where to find.....; and a file of guarantees, operating instructions, manuals, etc..

IV. In those instances when a clergy moves out of a parsonage and leaves the house inadequately cleaned and/or damaged, and the parsonage requires work, the expense of which is clearly the responsibility of the outgoing clergy, then the expense for such cleaning/repair shall be billed to the outgoing minister.

A. The Local Church Parsonage Committee and two members of the Parsonages Support Committee shall inspect the parsonage on moving day or as soon as possible and decide how much of the required cleaning/repair work, if any, is the responsibility of the outgoing pastor.

B. The outgoing pastor shall be notified immediately by telephone and registered mail. The decision should be communicated to the pastor immediately, and if the pastor be deemed wholly or partially responsible, then the cleaning/repair bill should be sent to the outgoing pastor.

C. If, after 30 days, this bill is not paid, or arrangements made to pay it, a second notice shall be sent. If, by the end of 45 days, the bill remains unpaid, a copy of the bill and the reasons for it shall be sent to the minister's current district superintendent for assistance in securing payment.

VIRGINIA CONFERENCE STATEMENT OF INVESTMENT POLICY

Introduction

The purpose of this Statement of Investment Objectives and Guidelines is to assist in the monitoring and supervision of the assets of the Virginia United Methodist Conference ("Conference"). The funds represent the Conference funds, Foundation funds, and the funds of various local churches.

- General Investment Principles
- Objectives
- Asset Allocation Guidelines
- Investment Manager Guidelines
- Investment Performance Objectives
- Performance Monitoring
- Investment Manager Responsibilities

Investment styles covered in this document include traditional investments (e.g., bonds, large cap growth and value equity) but do not include alternative investments (e.g., hedge funds, private equity, timberland).

General Investment Principles

- The funds shall be invested with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person would use in the investment of a Foundation of like character and with like aims.
- Investments shall be so diversified so as to minimize the risk of large losses.
- The trustees may employ one or more investment managers of varying styles and philosophies to attain their objectives.
- Cash is to be employed productively at all times by investment in short-term cash equivalents to provide safety, liquidity, and return.

Investment Management Policy

- Preservation of Capital - Consistent with their respective investment styles and philosophies, investment managers should make reasonable efforts to preserve capital, understanding that losses may occur in individual securities.
- Risk Aversion - Understanding that risk is present in all types of securities and investment styles, the trustees recognize that some risk is necessary to produce long-term investment results that are sufficient to meet the stated investment objectives. However, the investment managers are to make reasonable efforts to control risk, and will be evaluated regularly to ensure that that risk assumed is commensurate with the given investment style and objectives.
- Adherence to Investment Discipline - Investment managers are expected to adhere to the investment management styles for which they were hired. Managers will be evaluated regularly for adherence to investment discipline.

Objectives

The primary objective for the funds is to achieve an average annual net rate of return of CPI + 5.5%. The investment horizon of the funds is fairly long-term in nature. However, the trustees are sensitive to severe short-term losses in the funds on an absolute and relative basis.

Social Responsibility

As defined in the 2008 Book of Discipline the Council on Finance and Administration ("Council") shall develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures, and management services for the Annual Conference including

- Policies governing the investment of Conference funds (except for pension funds) whether in debt or equity, short-term or long-term instruments, with the aim of maximizing funds available for mission in a manner consistent with the preservation of capital and with the Social Principles of the Church. A statement of such policies shall be presented in the conference Journal.
- Authorizing the Conference Treasurer to invest in funds in accordance with policies' and procedures established by the Council. A listing of securities held shall be printed annually in the conference Journal.

Investment Manager Guidelines

Note: The investment manager guidelines pertain to separately manager accounts. In the case of mutual funds or commingled funds, the guidelines are outlined in the fund's prospectus or offering memorandum.

General Guidelines

Restricted Transaction

- Purchasing of securities on margin or speculative short sales.
- Borrowing of money.
- Pledging, mortgaging, or hypothecating of any securities except for loans of securities that are fully collateralized.
- Purchase of the securities of the investment managers, its parent, or its affiliates.
- Purchase or sale of futures or options for speculation or leverage.
- Purchase or sale of commodities, commodity contracts, or illiquid interest in real estate or mortgages.
- Socially Responsible Investments - It shall be the policy of The United Methodist Church that all general boards and agencies, including the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and all administrative agencies and institutions, including hospitals, homes, educational institutions, Annual Conferences, foundations, and local churches, shall, in the investment of money, make a conscious effort to invest in institutions, companies, corporations, or funds whose practices are consistent with the goals outlined in the Social Principles; and shall endeavor to avoid instruments that appear likely, directly or indirectly, to support racial discrimination, violation of human rights, sweatshop or forced labor, gambling, or the production of nuclear armaments, alcoholic beverages or tobacco, or companies dealing in pornography. The boards and agencies are to give careful consideration to shareholder advocacy, including advocacy of corporate disinvestment.

Diversification

Investment managers are responsible for achieving a level of diversification in their portfolio that is prudent and consistently applied. Concentrations in individual securities, industries and economic sectors should not be so high as to subject the overall portfolio to undue risk.

Liquidity

When purchasing a security to place in a portfolio, it is expected that each manager will consider their aggregate holdings among all of their accounts to ensure that their total position in the security will not be so large as to inhibit rapid liquidation of the security.

Cash

It is expected that the managers will run fully invested portfolios. It is not the policy of the Conference and Foundation to try to time the market. It is understood that frictional cash can be a result of the buy and sell process. However, if cash exceeds 10% of the manager's portfolio, the manager should communicate to the Foundation, Conference and its consultant in writing the reasons for the high cash level and the time frame needed to get the portfolio fully invested.

Domestic Equity Manager Guidelines

- The majority of the holdings in these portfolios should consist of domestic (U.S.) common stock. Large to medium capitalization issues are preferred. Other acceptable investments on a limited basis include preferred stock, convertible securities and cash equivalents.
- Portfolios should be diversified. Specifically, 75% of each investment manager's portfolio should be diversified to the extent that no individual security makes up more than 5% of the total assets at the current market value. Discretion may be taken in the remaining 25% of a portfolio, but the manager should not allow any one position to exceed 8% of the portfolio's total market value.

- A concentration in one economic sector (e.g., transportation) should not be so great as to exceed 30% of the manager's portfolio measured at market value or two times the benchmark index, whichever is greater.
- The manager should follow a clearly defined sell discipline.

Fixed Income Manager Guidelines

- Holdings should consist primarily of domestic (U.S.) fixed-income securities with adequate liquidity. The portfolio should maintain a weighted average portfolio quality rating of at least "A." Securities that are issued or guaranteed by the U.S. Treasury or Government agencies and instrumentalities will be considered AAA.
- The maximum position in a single issuer's securities should not exceed 5% of the portfolio's assets measured at cost or 8% of the portfolio measured at market value. Holdings in securities issued or guaranteed by the U.S. Treasury or U.S. Government agencies and instrumentalities are excepted from this restriction.
- The duration of the portfolio should be targeted to that of the Lehman Brothers Intermediate Aggregate Index. The duration may range within 20% of the duration of this index.
- Purchases should be limited to readily marketable securities.
- Purchases of securities rated below investment grade are limited to 10% of the portfolio, measured at market value, and area limited to a rating of "B" or better.
- Foreign (non-U.S. domiciled) securities denominated in U.S. dollars are limited to 10% of the portfolio, measured at market value.
- Non-U.S. dollar denominated securities area prohibited.

Investment Performance Objectives

Investment managers will be reviewed on a quantitative basis in the form of quarterly reports to be provided by the consultant. Qualitative factors will also be considered such as adherence to each manager's stated investment process, and to the policy guidelines stated in this document. Managers will be reviewed on a net of fees basis.

Large Cap Value Manager

Over a rolling three-year period, the annualized total return of the manager should exceed the annualized total return of the Russell 1000 Value Index. The manager should rank in the upper 25th percentile of a universe of similar managers for the rolling three-year period

Large Cap Growth Manager

Over a rolling three-year period, the annualized total return of the manager should exceed the annualized total return of the Russell 1000 Growth Index. The manager should rank in the upper 25th percentile of a universe of similar managers for the rolling three-year period.

Bond Manager

Over a rolling three-year period, the annualized total return of the manager should exceed the annualized total return of the Lehman Brothers Intermediate Aggregate Index. The manager should rank in the upper 25th percentile of a universe of similar managers for the rolling three-year period.

Performance Meeting

The consultant and the Investment Committee shall monitor the overall performance of the funds to insure its meeting of its objectives. Individual manager monitoring will include the following:

Maintaining both a short-term and long-term perspective, the Consultant will evaluate whether each manger has:

- Performed satisfactorily when compared with the specific objectives for its portfolio;
- Produced results that compare favorably to other investment managers with similar portfolios; and
- Adhered to the relevant policies and objectives.

Among the events that the consultant will examine closely in its review of the investment managers are:

- Poor performance relative to objectives over a three- to five-year period,
- A change in the portfolio manager;
- The departure of one or more key investment professionals;
- Violation of an investment guideline; and
- A change in the ownership or control of the investment management organization.

Any of the above factors will result in a discussion of whether to retain an investment manger. The consultant will provide input in the discussion, but final decisions for any changes rest with the Investment Committee.

Investment Manager Responsibilities

- Submit a written request to the trustees whenever the investment manager feels that the Statement of Investment Objectives should be changed
- Provide quarterly reports describing portfolio holdings, transactions, and performance.
- Vote proxies received after careful assessment of the issues involved.
- Promptly inform the trustees and its consultant of all significant matters pertaining to the investment management of the assets of the Foundation. For example, significant changes in the ownership, affiliation, organizational structure, financial condition, and staffing of the firm.
- Be available to meet with the trustees on a reasonable basis.
- Manage the funds in accordance with the policy guidelines and objectives expressed in this document, or in a separate written agreement that has received approval from the trustees when deviation is deemed prudent and desirable.

BENEFIT PLANS PROVIDED TO CLERGY IN THE VIRGINIA CONFERENCE

Benefit plans provided to clergy in the Virginia Conference are primarily administered by Virginia United Methodist Pensions, Inc. (VUMPI), an independent agency of the Virginia Conference. Several of the denominational plans are administered by Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath), which is the administrative agency of The United Methodist Church charged with supervising and administering retirement plans, investment funds and health and welfare benefit plans for the benefit of active and retired clergy and lay employees of the Church. VUMPI assists Wespath with the administration of the denominational plans and serves as an advocate and resource for Virginia Conference clergy enrolled in those plans. VUMPI (or its vendors, if applicable) is responsible for determining if a participant qualifies to receive a benefit under programs administered by VUMPI. Wespath is responsible for determining if a participant qualifies to receive a benefit under one or more of the denominational pension, disability or life insurance plans, and what level of benefits will be payable to the participant or his or her beneficiaries.

Funding, eligibility and plan designs of the various clergy benefit programs are recommended by VUMPI for Virginia Conference approval. The following plans are administered for the benefit of Virginia Conference Clergy and eligible lay employees:

- Active Clergy Health Plan
- Retired Clergy Health Plan
- Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)
- Supplemental Life Insurance Plan
- Denominational Pension and Savings Plans
 - Pre-1982 Plan
 - Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)
 - Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)
 - United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP)
- Gift Benefit

Following are details regarding eligibility, administration and funding of the benefit programs administered by VUMPI:

Active Clergy Health Plan

The Active Clergy Health Plan is a self insured health plan administered by VUMPI for the benefit of Virginia Conference clergy and eligible lay employees. The following are eligible for enrollment in the Active Clergy Health Plan:

- Full time clergy, including Elders, Deacons and Local Pastors, serving under episcopal appointment
- Clergy serving in full time Extension Ministry appointments in organizations controlled by The United Methodist Church, as determined by VUMPI
- Widowed spouses of active clergy that were enrolled in the active clergy health plan at the time of death are eligible to continue enrollment in the active clergy health plan until age 65, at which time their eligibility will be determined for the retired clergy health plan
- Eligible dependents of deceased active clergy that were enrolled in the active clergy health plan at the time of death are eligible to continue enrollment in the active clergy health plan until age 26
- Clergy on Medical Leave and receiving long-term disability income benefits from Wespath are eligible for the health plan designed for clergy on medical leave with CPP benefits, subject to payment of the required participant contribution for that plan
- Clergy on Medical Leave who are not receiving long-term disability income benefits from Wespath are eligible for the Active Clergy Health Plan for up to one year, subject to payment of the required participant contribution for the Active Clergy plan
- Clergy on Voluntary Leave of Absence or Sabbatical Leave may participate in the active clergy health plan for up to one year, provided they pay 100 percent of the Active Clergy Health Plan cost
- Student Local Pastors may participate in the active clergy health plan for up to one year, provided they pay 100 percent of the Active Clergy Health Plan cost
- Clergy appointed to attend seminary may participate in the active clergy health plan for up to one year, provided they pay 100 percent of the Active Clergy Health Plan cost

A Virginia Conference clergyperson who has retired from The United Methodist Church under ¶357 (or succeeding paragraph) of the 2016 Book of Discipline is no longer eligible to enroll in the Active Clergy Health Plan. If the clergyperson terminates his/her retired relationship to the Virginia Conference and returns to full time active appointment under an active Conference relationship status, that clergyperson and his/her spouse and eligible dependents may regain eligibility for enrollment in the Active Clergy Health Plan.

Clergy on Medical Leave and receiving long term disability income benefits from Wespath must file for and enroll in Medicare Parts A and B as soon as they become eligible in order to remain enrolled in the Active Clergy Health Plan.

The Active Clergy Health Plan is administered by VUMPI. The plan is self insured and is primarily funded by Conference resources through apportionments and contributions from plan participants. The continuation of this plan depends largely upon the ongoing ability of the Virginia Conference to finance the plan benefits. Plan design changes and participant contributions are recommended for Annual Conference approval. Due to ongoing increases in general health care costs, it should be expected that VUMPI will periodically recommend increases in the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment and personal contributions. Similarly, reductions in plan benefits may be recommended in order to reduce the overall cost of the Active Clergy Health Plan. The adoption of the Active Clergy Health Plan is not considered binding upon the Conference for more than one year at a time.

Eligible clergy and lay employees who wish to enroll in the Active Clergy Health Plan may enroll through VUMPI. Prospective enrollees may contact VUMPI at 804-521-1100.

Summary plan descriptions and additional program details regarding the Active Clergy Health Plan are available at www.vumpi.org.

Retired Clergy Health Plan

The health plan made available to eligible retirees of the Virginia Conference includes a plan for those retired clergy who are not yet eligible for Medicare and a separate plan for those who are eligible for and enrolled in Medicare. The plan for pre-Medicare-eligible retirees is a self insured health plan. The plan for Medicare-eligible retirees consists of a fully insured Medicare Advantage plan option and a Conference-funded Retiree Reimbursement Account option. The following are eligible for enrollment in the Retired Clergy Health Plan:

- A retired Virginia Conference clergyperson whose retirement date was effective prior to January 1, 2019, is eligible to participate in the Retired Clergy Health Plan if paragraphs 1 and 2 below are satisfied.
 1. A Clergy satisfies the requirements of this paragraph if he or she retires in connection with the Virginia United Methodist Conference under ¶357.1-3 of the 2016 Book of Discipline.
 2. A Clergy or Diaconal Minister satisfies the requirements of this paragraph if he or she meets the criteria in either subparagraph a, b or c below:
 - a. This subparagraph is satisfied if a Clergy or Diaconal Minister was age 62 or above on the date of retirement, or had at least 30 years of service on the date of retirement, and had served the Virginia United Methodist Conference during the 10 consecutive years immediately prior to retirement in full time Episcopal appointments where the salary paying units had contributed towards the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment, or
 - b. This subparagraph is satisfied if a Clergy or Diaconal Minister was age 62 or above on the date of retirement, or had at least 30 years of service on the date of retirement, and had served the Virginia United Methodist Conference a minimum of 30 years in full time Episcopal appointments where the salary paying units had contributed towards the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment, or
 - c. This subparagraph is satisfied if a Clergy or Diaconal Minister who had served 10 years in full time Episcopal appointments with the Virginia United Methodist Conference where the salary paying units had contributed towards the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment, retired prior to age 62 with fewer than 30 years of service, or was appointed to Approved Leave, e.g., Sabbatical, Family Leave or Voluntary Leave of Absence, or was appointed to Extension Ministry (to an agency that is not eligible to participate in the Active Clergy Health Plan), or was appointed On Loan to another United Methodist Conference. A Clergy or Diaconal Minister meeting the requirements of this subparagraph maintained eligibility to enroll in the Retiree Health Plan by paying a monthly Retiree Health Plan Access Fee until the date of enrollment in the Retiree Health Plan. Additional years of credit for eligibility or the vesting and contribution schedule are not accrued while the Retiree Health Plan Access Fee is paid.

There was a one time open enrollment period (January 1-31, 2004) for those described in this paragraph who were not enrolled in the Active Clergy Health Plan, and who wanted to freeze their eligibility for the Retired Clergy Health Plan.

If retirement occurs prior to age 62 and the retiree does not have 30 years of service, the retiree may continue enrollment in the Active Clergy Health Plan until attaining the age of 62, by paying 100 percent of the Active Clergy Health Plan cost.

For clergy retiring on or after January 1, 2019, the following years are to be counted towards determining eligibility for the Conference-sponsored retiree health plans:

- All years of full time ministry in Virginia Conference churches, plus
- All years of full time ministry other than in appointment to Virginia Conference churches but with enrollment in the Virginia Conference-sponsored health plan

Beginning January 1, 2019 there was no longer be a requirement to have ten consecutive years of full time ministry immediately preceding retirement. With this change, the Retiree Health Plan Access Fee is no longer be required.

Clergy retiring under ¶357.2.a of the 2016 Book of Discipline (voluntary retirement with twenty years of service) may remain enrolled in the Conference-sponsored health plan for active clergy, and are required to pay the full rates for lay employees. At the age of 62, the retiree becomes eligible for enrollment in the Retired Clergy Health Plan, with plan eligibility and participant contributions consistent with their years of credit at retirement.

Additional points of clarification:

1. Years of credit will be determined at retirement.
2. A Year of credit equals a year served in the Virginia United Methodist Conference in a full time Episcopal Appointment where the salary paying unit was contributing towards the Active Clergy Health Plan apportionment.
3. Years of service in other United Methodist conferences are not qualifying years of credit toward eligibility for the Virginia Conference Retired Clergy Health Plan.
4. Retired Clergy and Diaconal Ministers who were participating in the Virginia United Methodist Conference Retired Clergy Health Plan, as well as those active clergy who had met the Retired Clergy Health Plan eligibility criteria on or before January 1, 2004, are considered vested with 30+ total years of credit. Therefore they are eligible to enroll in the Retired Clergy Health Plan with personal contributions according to the 30+ total years of credit contribution rate.
5. Eligible dependents are those who were eligible for coverage at the time of the participant's date of retirement.

6. Retired clergy and/or their dependents that are participating in the Retired Clergy Health Plan must file for and enroll in Medicare Parts A and B as soon as they become eligible in order to receive and continue their health benefits under the Retired Clergy Health Plan.

The Retired Clergy Health Plan is administered by VUMPI. The plan is primarily funded by Conference resources through apportionments and contributions from plan participants. The continuation of this plan depends largely upon the ongoing ability of the Virginia Conference to finance the plan benefits. Plan design changes and participant contributions are recommended for Annual Conference approval. Due to ongoing increases in general health care costs, it should be expected that VUMPI will periodically recommend increases in the Retired Clergy Health Plan apportionment and personal contributions. Similarly, reductions in plan benefits may be recommended in order to reduce the overall cost of the Retired Clergy Health Plan. The adoption of the Retired Clergy Health Plan is not considered binding upon the Conference for more than one year at a time.

Eligible retirees who wish to enroll in the Retired Clergy Health Plan may enroll either through VUMPI or directly with the insurer administering the health plan for Medicare-eligible retirees, depending on the Medicare eligibility status of the retiree. Prospective enrollees may contact VUMPI at 804-521-1100 for additional details regarding enrollment in the plan.

Summary plan descriptions and additional program details regarding the Retired Clergy Health Plan are available at www.vumpi.org.

Comprehensive Protection Plan

The CPP is the denominational long term disability and life insurance program administered by Wespath. Program details are as follows:

The following are eligible for long term disability and death benefits through the CPP program, subject to the limitations and exclusions specified in that program:

1. Full time Elders, Deacons and Local Pastors with compensation of at least 25% of the Denominational Average Compensation
2. Elders and Deacons appointed to 75% appointments with compensation of at least 25% of the Denominational Average Compensation
3. Clergy on Medical Leave who were actively enrolled in CPP immediately prior to entering Medical Leave status may remain enrolled in CPP at the Conference's expense for up to one year if not receiving disability benefits under CPP; clergy receiving disability benefits under CPP remain enrolled until disability benefits are terminated
4. Clergy on Sabbatical Leave or Voluntary Leave, or appointment to attend school, and who were actively enrolled in CPP immediately prior to taking the approved leave or appointment, are eligible to remain enrolled in CPP at the Conference's expense for up to one year

Continuation of CPP disability benefits is subject to ongoing evaluation of the recipient's medical condition and prognosis.

Retirees meeting certain eligibility requirements receive an ongoing CPP death benefit in retirement. To be eligible for death benefits in retirement, a clergyperson must have been covered in CPP for a specified number of years. Retirees with 25 or more years of enrollment in CPP are automatically eligible for the death benefits in retirement, and the eligibility criteria for those with fewer than 25 years in CPP is phased in with one-year increments, as detailed in the table below:

Retirement Year	CPP Enrollment Requirement for Death Benefit Eligibility
2013	6 of last 10 years
2014	7 of last 10 years
2015	8 of last 11 years
2016	9 of last 12 years
2017	10 of last 13 years
2018	11 of last 14 years
2019+	12 of last 15 years

Supplemental Life Insurance Plan

VUMPI administers a Supplemental Life Insurance Plan to augment the death benefits provided through CPP. The Supplemental Life Insurance Plan includes a supplemental death benefit for qualifying active and retired clergy, as well as a voluntary life insurance plan that is fully funded by the enrollee. Clergy eligible for and enrolled in CPP are eligible for the supplemental death benefit and the voluntary life insurance plan through the Supplemental Life Insurance Plan.

The supplemental death benefit for active clergy enrolled in CPP is $25,000. This Conference Supplemental Death Benefit is payable in addition to the CPP death benefit. During retirement, a $5,000 Conference Supplemental Death Benefit will be payable to retired clergy who are eligible for a CPP death benefit in retirement, in addition to the CPP death benefit.

The voluntary life insurance benefit available to active clergy enrolled in CPP is available in amounts from $25,000 to $300,000. The cost of the voluntary life insurance benefit is 100% participant paid, and is subject to underwriting. The voluntary coverage is portable for those enrollees who leave the ministry or retire. In addition, dependent life is available in amounts from $10,000 to $50,000 for spousal coverage, and from $5,000 to $10,000 for children.

VUMPI will automatically enroll those who are eligible for the CPP and Supplemental Life Insurance Plan. Those desiring to enroll in voluntary life insurance coverage can enroll during VUMPI's annual open enrollment in the 4th quarter of each calendar year. Unless otherwise elected by the participant, the beneficiary will always be the spouse.

Summary plan descriptions and additional program details regarding CPP are available at www.wespath.org. Additional detail regarding the supplemental and voluntary life insurance programs is available at www.vumpi.org.

Denominational Pension and Savings Plans

VUMPI assists with the administration of the denominational pension and savings plans, which are primarily administered by Wespath. The pension and savings plans include the following:

- Pre-1982 Plan: for years of ministry served prior to 1982
- Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP): for years of ministry served from 1982 through 2006
- Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP): for years of ministry served beginning in 2007 and thereafter
- United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP): an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement savings plan for clergy and lay employees of The United Methodist Church

Participants are immediately vested in all denominational pension programs. The Pre-1982 Plan and the MPP are closed plans; no additional credit is being earned under the provisions of those plans. All clergy appointed at least 50% to a local church earn pension credit under CRSP, unless such credit is waived (clergy appointed less than full time may waive pension credit under CRSP). Clergy appointed to Extension Ministry appointments do not earn pension credit under CRSP.

Personal contributions toward a participant's UMPIP account can be made on a pre-tax, after-tax or Roth basis. Personal contributions are invested in the investment options selected by the participant.

Summary plan descriptions and additional program details regarding the denominational pension and savings programs are available at www.wespath.org.

GIFT BENEFIT

VUMPI currently elects to provide a one time $1,500 gift at the time of retirement or disability (if awarded disability benefits under the Comprehensive Protection Plan) to each clergyperson who has served at least ten years of service in a full time Virginia Annual Conference episcopal appointment in the Virginia Conference with pension credit. Further, a gift to the estate of each clergyperson meeting the eligibility criteria above who dies in active service is paid in the same amount as the gift to retired or disabled clergypersons.

Benefits provided are subject to annual review. Therefore, the continuation of this plan depends largely upon the ability of the Conference to finance it. Benefits provided are approved at each Annual Conference. The adoption of this plan should not be considered binding upon the Conference for more than one year at a time. Accordingly, the terms of the Gift Benefit are subject to change by approval by Annual Conference.

THE REV. DR. JUDITH A. BENNETT
1934 - 2022

Let us remember with thanksgiving the life and ministry of Rev. Judith Ann Bennett, 87, of Shelton, CT who died February 26, 2022. Judy was born September 7, 1934 in Portland, OR.

Judy attended Portland State University, studying English and elementary education, and Willamette University in Salem, OR, where she studied philosophy and religion. She married David W. Bennett in 1953 and they moved to the east coast. She received a B.A. from Mount Saint Mary College in Newburgh, NY, while working as a news editor, reporter and photographer for a weekly newspaper, The Cornwall Local, and raising her four children.

During her years in Cornwall, NY, she founded The Wesleyan Dancers, a liturgical dance ensemble. They performed in churches throughout the Hudson Valley. She also taught modern dance at the Storm King School in Cornwall-on-Hudson, NY. Judy felt called to ministry and attended Drew Theological School in Madison, NJ, while serving as pastor at Gladstone UMC in Gladstone, NJ. She received her Master of Divinity in 1977. She later returned to Drew and in 1993 earned a doctorate in sociology of religion.

In 1976, Judy became a provisional member of the New York Conference, and in 1979, she was ordained an elder. From 1977 to 1989, she served as pastor of four NY Conference churches: Inwood UMC, Fourth Avenue UMC in Brooklyn, First UMC in Jamaica, Queens and Goshen UMC.

In 1989, Judy moved to Richmond, VA and was appointed in extension ministry as Associate Program Director for the Virginia Council of Churches, later becoming Associate General Minister for that organization. She also worked as executive director of The Ecumenical Resource Center. In 1997, Judy transferred to the Virginia Conference, where she continued to serve the Virginia Council of Churches until her retirement in 2000.

Beginning in 2001, Rev. Dr. Bennett was adjunct faculty at the Samuel DeWitt Proctor School of Theology at Virginia Union University, where she taught curriculum theory and design, philosophy of education, and church and community for students in the M.Div., MACE and D.Min. programs. Her “passion for the life-giving, life-renewing nature of the gospel” led her to offer leadership to many organizations around the Commonwealth of Virginia, notably the Elizabeth Project, the Center for Women in Christian Leadership, and Friends of Incarcerated Women, working to call attention to issues affecting women and children. She was passionate about causes pertaining to gender, racial and social justice, and the environment, and was a role model and mentor.

Judy retired from teaching in 2015. The following year she moved to Shelton, CT and was honored with the title “Theologian in Residence” at Mary Taylor Memorial United Methodist Church, where she remained active through 2020. Although she spent many years in Virginia, Judy remained beloved by those in the New York Conference.

Judy is survived by her four children: Stephen Bennett, John Bennett, Joanna Bennett, and Jim Bennett, and their spouses, seven grandchildren, one great grandchild, and her beloved cat, Louie. She was preceded in death by her sister, Lucille Sheets, and brothers, Arthur Marshall and Rex Fagalde, as well as a parade of dogs and cats she met and loved along the way.

Judy was one of a kind. She was a trailblazer, fierce friend, powerful witness and a teacher to her core. She loved learning and teaching, believing that there was freedom in learning. Judy experienced the Gospel as liberation and believed this good news needed to be taught in ways that all of God’s people could find their place in the story. The love and presence of God transformed her life and she believed deeply it could and would transform the world. Through her teaching, Judy offered her students the opportunity to make up their own minds, forge their own path and she breathed life into gifts she saw within people that even they had overlooked. She had a deep sense of call to love and include others who normally would have been left out and not given a seat at the table. She deeply valued hospitality, often serving meals as part of her classes and educational experiences. She had a heart for justice and a penchant for saying exactly what was on her mind. In her courage, she empowered others to find their voice and to be heard. Her legacy undoubtedly lives on in those who were fortunate enough to call her teacher.

THE REV. G. THOMAS BROWN, JR.

Tom fought the good fight for many years. He always said, "I want to go be with Jesus, but not today". He was born and reared in Roanoke, graduated from William Fleming HS, Bridgewater College in 1969, and then completed his Master of Divinity at Wesley Theological Seminary. He served 7 appointments over the next 40 years. (see below). Tom got to know and love each of his congregations, and mostly they loved him back. Besides his sermons in the relentless return of every Sunday, and the tons of church meetings experienced by all, he taught many Disciple Bible classes, visited in hospitals, performed many baptisms, weddings and funerals, as do all. Baptisms were his favorite. He could be handed a crying baby, and for some reason it would stop crying while Tom held it.

He also cared about each general community. He volunteered in rescue squads, (fought a few fires along the way), and acquired quite a bit of training, which came in very handy. He is credited (with God on his shoulder) with saving two lives by CPR. When rescue squads stopped using volunteers he became a hospital chaplain and most recently a police chaplain. He always cared about the human condition and made improvements wherever he could.

Since 1993, Tom was very active as a spiritual director in the Walk to Emmaus, both in the Southside Community and the Richmond Community. He served on Emmaus weekends, Chrysalis (for youth) and Epiphany (for incarcerated youth) a total of 67 times. From 2008 to 2018 he served as the Richmond Community Spiritual Director. He will always be remembered for his ever-expanding stories (with a great point), and his self-deprecating humor.

Tom and Ann were able to do some traveling to England and Scotland (John Wesley tour in 1995), Alaska, Hawaii twice, Colorado, Viking Rhine Cruise. More was planned but in retirement (2010) they were joined by their beautiful newborn granddaughter and family. Again, she would stop crying for him if no one else. She has been the light of his life.

In his last years he struggled with many health issues. He always kept a positive attitude with a minimum of complaint, surely enabled by his everlasting faith. Thanks be to God for this life.

Tom is survived by Ann, his wife of 51 years and two children Matthew Brown (Carrie Beth Hensley Brown) of Bridgewater and Sarah Bush (David Bush) of North Chesterfield, one grandchild (Rachel Ann Nelson).

He served:

Gainesville/Bethel of Northern Virginia 1972-1976

Providence/Woodland of Suffolk 1976-1980

Washington Farm of Alexandria 1980-1985

Southview of Roanoke 1985-1992

Main Street of South Boston 1992-1996

St. Luke's of Richmond 1996-2003

Ivey Memorial of Colonial Heights 2003-2010

Retired 2010 and lived in Midlothian

THE REV. TOM LEE COFFMAN
1927 - 2021

Tom Coffman was born in Elkins, West Virginia on January 15, 1927. He was a marine veteran of both World War II and the Korean Conflict. He was a graduate of Bridgewater College and United Theological Seminary in Dayton. He was awarded an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Shenandoah University. Tom's ministry began in the EUB tradition in 1952. While working in youth ministry he provided major leadership for the development of Camp Overlook on the Harrisonburg District. He was an especially well-loved pastor in serving Clinton, Roanoke, Verona, Parkview, Dulin and Asbury Church. On 2 occasions Tom was appointed to serve as District Superintendent, first at Farmville and later at Winchester. After the loss of his devoted wife Marie and mother of their 3 children, Tom was devastated. But by the grace of God he was doubly blessed to marry Nancy Bowlin who supported and shared in ministry. They were especially invested and committed to the work of the Retired Clergy Housing Corporation. Tom served the Virginia Conference in many capacities for 64 years. During the time in which he worked with the Board of Missions he provided exceptional leadership in the development of Ashburn and Wellspring UMC. Tom will always be remembered for his great love of the church's hymns. He was a fine trumpeter and loved to sing. Many of us were supported and mentored by this dedicated servant of Christ who so loved the church and gave himself untiringly to the church's ministry.

THE REV. JOHN CHARLES DAMERON 1943 - 2021

The Rev. John Charles Dameron was peacefully called home to the Lord on June 22, 2021. A lifelong servant of God, he was predeceased by his parents, Willmore M. Jr. & Hazel J. Dameron and brother, James A. Dameron.

He answered a persistent calling from the Lord that led to his career change from business to ordained elder with the Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church. He faithfully served small membership churches in numerous churches in Virginia—Hawkinstown, Mt. Clifton, Mt. Hermon, & Otterbein Chapel (1976); Irvington & White Marsh (1981); Wesley Chapel (1985); Whaleyville & Somerton (1988); Grace-Providence & Emmanuel (1993); and Andrew Chapel & Edgewater (2000). Charles is remembered for his inspired sermons and preaching without notes; his caring visitation to those in need; his special calling to small membership churches, and his fun-loving sense of humor. He retired in 2004 and went on to serve as Pastor Emeritus at Irvington UMC. He performed countless baptisms, weddings, and funerals over his career. He continued preaching and serving in his retirement when called upon, including at Kilmarnock UMC; his childhood church home, Mila UMC; and others.

Charles—Dad, Grandpa, Granddad—is survived by his devoted wife Sue, who stayed by his side and cared for him throughout his battle with cancer; his two loving daughters and their husbands, Stephanie & John Clark and Shari & Russ Laraway; his four grandchildren, Matthew, Kendall, Russell, & Hudson; his brother Willmore Dameron, III (Susan) and numerous other relatives and friends. He was a dedicated husband, father, and friend.

Charles lived a life of public service, including leadership positions over the years with multiple PTAs and the Ruritans; as first chair of the Suffolk Meals on Wheels; and board member/treasurer of the Northern Neck-Middlesex Free Health Clinic; in numerous community activities; and quietly serving behind the scenes, helping so many along with his wife, Sue.

His favorite scripture was John 3:16: For God so loved the world that he sent his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

THE REV. RICHARD N. GALBREATH 1934 - 2022

Richard's earth-journey began in Winamac, Indiana, in the winter of 1934 as the son of the late Merl and Olive Galbreath. Boyhood days were spent poling his boat on the Tippecanoe River, searching the sandhills for his vast collection of Native American artifacts, earning merit badges that would lead him to be Indiana's youngest Eagle Scout at the time and earning paper carrier of the year on his bicycle paper route. His father's death when he was only 13 led him into an early world of work after school at the local drug store as he helped his mom with household expenses.

A bigger world opened to him at Purdue University where he earned a degree in mechanical engineering and participated in the Navy ROTC. Upon graduation, he left for the Naval Flight School in Pensacola, FL. Through his years of active and reserve duty, he attained the rank of Commander.

In the world of business, he moved to Richmond, Virginia, and became involved with Reveille UMC where he and his wife worked with the MYF. A move to Dinwiddie County in 1978 and to a new little church, Grace UMC, began a new chapter in his spiritual life. He began teaching Sunday School, lay speaking and often serving as the speaker on third Sundays when the charge church did not have a minister.

Richard's sphere of faith and care expanded into the work as he and Diane volunteered in villages in India, Indonesia, the Philippines, on the island of Majuro, and in a number of vulnerable cities and towns in the U.S. through their volunteer work with the Institute of Cultural Affairs. The world was invited their home as exchange students from Germany, Japan, Spain, Brazil, and Russia came to be a part of their family.

At age 55, he began a new way of connecting with his faith as a second career Methodist minister. He served churches on the Nottoway Charge (Bethel and St. John's) and the Nottoway-Lunenburg Charge (St. Mark's, Thrifts Chapel, and Laurel Hill). In retirement he and Diane came back to Grace UMC. He enjoyed a number of years serving on the ARMS Board as well as endless hours enjoying gardening, mowing fields, tinkering in his workshop and enjoying leisure traveling. His greatest treasure was his love for his four children, 13 grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren with his wife of 57 years by his side.

Health concerns did not begin moving into his life until 2020. Although there were only several months of illness, he completed his earth journey on Sunday, April 24. It was orthodox Easter—a new beginning for Richard Galbreath.

THE REV. LENARD DOUGLAS HILL
1940 - 2021

Doug Hill was born in Miami, Florida but as a young man moved to Rockbridge County in Virginia where he grew up and attended school until 1958 before a year at Virginia Tech where he was a part of the corps. His plan was to study architecture, only to discover that he really couldn't draw. After a single year he decided to return to Rockbridge County where he attended and graduated from Washington and Lee University in the class of 1962. Following his undergraduate studies, he attended Union Seminary where he studied theology receiving a Master's degree in Theology and prepared for a career in the United Methodist Church. His career would span five decades including a stint as a student pastor at Bethel Methodist Church in Caroline County and five years pastoring Fairmount UMC in Richmond followed by an appointment as associate pastor (Arlington Forest UMC) which was followed by as long pastorate of more than 12 years at The Bethel-Emmanuel Charge on the Rappahannock District and back to Richmond (Beulah UMC) followed by serving as the District Superintendent of the Petersburg District and finally concluding his career at Asbury UMC in Harrisonburg.

During his ministerial career, Doug served multiple conference and district committees, including once being chair of the conference Board of Ordained ministry, which oversees the recruitment and training of new clergy for the Virginia Annual Conference. He mentored and befriended dozens of our upcoming clergy, including this writer. He continued this kind of ministry serving on the Conference Board of Ethics well into retirement. In many ways he was a pastor's pastor, seeing his supervisory roles as an extension of his ministry. He was a strong advocate of Women in Ministry even back to the time when it was not as accepted as it is today.

He loved his vocational volunteerism taking great pleasure in his work with United Family Services for several decades and the PACE student ministry at VCU. Both organizations have sought out ways to remember his contribution to their respective ministries.

Doug enjoyed most of the activities of being a pastor. He never seemed to meet a stranger and if he did, he was sure to try to make a friend out of them. He was a gifted pastor, preacher, story teller, worship leader, scholar, theologian, and pastoral counselor; a package rarely found in a single individual. All that being said, where he probably excelled the most was as a family man. In 1962 he married Janet Anderson. Together they had two children: Amy and David. Both children would become excellent students and go on to graduate college retaining excellent relationships with their father. Together they combined for five grandsons, Clay, Drew, Dylan, Porter, and Aiden. As the family expanded, Doug was careful not to make his in-laws feel like in-laws but a genuine part of the family. In his spare time, what little there was of it, he enjoyed his family a great deal. He loved to read, watch a good movie on television, take the family out for special dinners, keep up with old friends, collect fountain pens, and visit his favorite men's clothing store. It is hard to write a memoir without including that he was always one of the best dressed clergy in the conference. But that probably paled in comparison to how his colleagues held him professionally. He was a true man of God, a priest in the order of Melchizedek.

Doug retired from active ministry in 2005 but continued his work in the parachurch volunteerism that he always enjoyed until his death in September of 2021.

THE REV. DR. GARLAND K. HINES, JR.

The Rev. Dr. Garland K. Hines, Jr. transitioned peacefully into eternal life Sunday morning, July 4, 2021, at Sentara Obici Hospital in Suffolk where he had recently completed radiation and chemotherapy treatments. He was 73 years of age.

Born in Norfolk on August 21, 1947, he was the first of six children born to Garland and Lillie (Hewitt) Hines. Garland was five years old when his father received the call into ministry. The family moved to California where his father began ministerial training. As a "P.K.," Garland attended elementary school in South Bend, Washington and high school in Portland, Oregon where he met the forever love of his life, Leslie Norcross, at the ripe old age of 12. Four years later his family moved back to Virginia where his father pastored in Leesburg. After primarily a U.S. Mail courtship, Garland returned to Oregon where he and Leslie were married in 1966.

In the early years of their marriage Garland worked in various construction and sales jobs by day and with his father in ministry on weekends, playing his trumpet and singing. By 1977 they had moved to Virginia Beach where Garland and his father launched an interdenominational ministry that thrived for nearly ten years until his father's health required him to retire. Garland felt he was not prepared to lead the congregation alone, so after much prayer and reflection the decision was made to close the church, complete his college education, and prepare himself for seminary.

Though his father had been raised in Duck Methodist Church in North Carolina, the family was no longer joined to the United Methodist Church when Garland enrolled at Virginia Wesleyan. The Chaplain there encouraged him to participate as a student speaker in the Ministry in Higher Education Sunday program, and he liked what he experienced. Leslie (a former E.U.B.), encouraged him to investigate a United Methodist ordination. In pursuit of more information, he made an appointment with then President Lambuth Clarke. President Clarke was totally encouraging, telling him, "The United Methodist Church needs ministers like you."

The very day in June 1987 when Garland graduated with a degree in Religious Studies from Virginia Wesleyan, he drove to Shenandoah University for licensing school. In September, he began his Master of Divinity studies at Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C. A whirlwind experience.

At W.T.S. he was one of eight students in the Student Pastor Track program where he pastored three churches (Culpeper Circuit-Charlottesville District) for the next four years. In 1991, with his M.Div. completed, he was appointed to Trinity Circuit-Portsmouth District while he fulfilled his two-year probationary period, along with all the writing assignments required for ordination.

In June 1993 Garland was ordained Full Elder in the United Methodist Church, and he was delighted that Lambuth Clarke, his still strong supporter, was standing with him on the platform in Hampton. When Bishop Stockton draped the white ordination stole over his shoulders, Garland said he felt the weight of the responsibility of which he was being bestowed. At once scary and glorious.

His first appointment as Elder was to Beech Grove on the Portsmouth District. He served eleven productive years at "The Easter Egg Church." Under his watch, Beech Grove experienced major growth in attendance, spiritual growth through the Disciple Bible Study series and other enriching studies, learned more about their Methodist heritage, performed comprehensive restoration and renovations to the sanctuary, and purchased ten acres of surrounding land to assure space for future growth. Meanwhile, Garland completed his Doctor of Ministry at Wesley Theological Seminary.

Other appointments include Messiah-Norfolk District, Asbury and St. James-Peninsula District, and Providence-James River District. In retirement, his final part-time appointment was to Boykins Charge in Southampton County.

Service to the Virginia Conference included chairing the Platform Committee and serving as a member of the Communications Committee. He held numerous district level positions, among them as a longtime member of the District Council on Ordained Ministry, the District Committee on Superintendency, and the District Communications Committee.

Garland was an excellent teacher as well as pastor. His mid-week Bible Studies were enlightening, motivating and often fun. Garland was an encourager. Those who knew him well witness to his ability to minister hope, comfort, and inspiration. He was kind and sensitive and had a gift for building the faith of those around him. But he also loved to tease and have fun. His quick smile and warm personality were memorable traits. It was often said that Garland's personality was bigger than life and his presence filled a room—even when he was trying to be demure.

In his spare time, Garland enjoyed camping with Leslie, golfing, spending time with their children and grandchildren, traveling to the west coast to visit family, working in their yard and flower gardens, hanging bird feeders and identifying feathered visitors, listening to classical music, and playing with their miniature dachshund. They were joyfully anticipating full retirement in the next year.

Garland's funeral at Beech Grove Church was attended by parishioners from nearly all his former churches, colleagues, former classmates, friends, neighbors, and many from his large family. The service was concluded with a recording of Garland singing "The Lord's Prayer" that had been performed at his daughter's wedding. His remains will be interred at Austin Cemetery in Kitty Hawk in the company of literally hundreds of his paternal ancestors.

THE REV. BILLY GENE JOHNSON SR. 1935 - 2021

The Rev. Billy G. Johnson, Sr., age 85, of Danville, VA, passed to his heavenly home on Thursday, August 5, 2021. Bill was loved and respected by all who knew him as a kind, gentle and learned man with a great sense of humor and love of life. He also took great care in the preparation and delivery of his sermons and lessons, which blended his deep intellectual understanding of Scripture with a homespun delivery that drew on his life and experiences.

Billy Gene Johnson was born October 10, 1935, to Z. Truman and Anna Belle Raymond Johnson in Bessemer, Alabama. His dad was a foreman in the coal mines. The 3rd of 4 children, he helped to raise his much younger sister after their mother died prematurely. He attended public school until graduation with honors in 1954 from McAdory High School in McCalla, Alabama. He was Vice President of the National Honor Society and voted “Most Likely to Succeed.” Although offered a scholarship to Auburn University, he chose to devote his life to the Lord and entered the Salvation Army’s School of Officers Training in Atlanta, GA, to become a pastor. Shortly after, on January 10, 1958, he married the love of his life, Joyce Eleanor Cowham Johnson, who was also a young Salvation Army officer.

Together, Bill and Joyce served in that denomination for almost 25 years throughout the Southeastern United States including appointments in Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Florida, North Carolina, Maryland and ultimately in Danville, Virginia. During this time, they raised four children: Billy G. Johnson, Jr. (Gisele), Columbia, SC; Gloria Anderson (Dwayne), Waynesboro, VA; Melanie Clark (James), La Cañada Flintridge, CA; and Arthur Johnson (Dara), Ringgold, VA. They also have seven grandchildren (Robin, Peirce, Cody (Brittany), Marshall, Nicholas, Cassidy, and Ashley) and several nieces and nephews.

In 1979, Bill transitioned to The United Methodist Church as a local pastor. Always devoted to continuing education and learning, he went back to school part time to earn his BA from Averett University and then relished his continuing studies at Duke University’s summer program to become an Elder with The United Methodist Church. During this period and his remaining years of service, he pastored numerous churches in Virginia including the Axton charge in Henry County, Grace Design United Methodist and Schoolfield United Methodist in Danville, Nolan Memorial in Hampton, and Grottoes UMC, Mt. Pisgah, Stephens City and Clover Hill, all in the Shenandoah Valley. He retired from active ministry in 2002, but continued to serve later at Calvary UMC as well as many Sunday School and Bible classes.

Throughout his life, he enjoyed spending time outdoors with sports, fishing, canoeing, and other activities. He shared these passions with young people by serving for many years as a Scout Master with the Boy Scouts of America, working at various church summer camp programs, and helping to establish youth programming and facilities in communities through the Boys & Girls Club of America.

Though never able to do as much as he would have liked, Bill also loved to travel, especially touring historical sites. He was able to visit Germany, France, Italy and England as well as two trips to the Holy Land, once as a spiritual guide. In addition, he and his bride enjoyed a Caribbean cruise for their 50th wedding anniversary.

Having learned woodworking from his dad, Bill always enjoyed working with his hands whether for building and nurturing wonderful gardens, or building tree houses, gazebos, or other improvements to various parsonages or his retirement homes or those of his children over the years. He even learned to make stained glass windows after being inspired by the great cathedrals in Europe.

Overall, he was a simple man who worked tirelessly to serve his God, his family and his congregants and communities no matter where that led him. While greatly missed, he died peacefully and ready to meet his Maker. He knew, as in the lyrics of his favorite hymn Amazing Grace, “T’was Grace that brought us safe thus far And Grace will lead us home.” Surely, when he arrived, the Lord greeted him warmly, “Well done, good and faithful servant.”

THE REV. JOHN WESTFALL MORRISON JR. 1939 - 2021

John Westfall Morrison, Jr., (Jack) was born on June 20, 1939, at the Medical College of Virginia in Richmond. His parents, John W., Sr., and Jane Selecman Morrison, lived in Waverly, Virginia, where John served a Methodist church. As the son and grandson of Methodist ministers, Jack knew about itinerancy throughout his formative years. After Waverly, he lived in Whaleyville, Newsoms, Urbanna, Back Bay, and Charlottesville, where his father served as minister. The oldest of four children, Jack always considered himself as protector of his three sisters. It was at Urbanna that he fell in love with all things related to water, especially excursions on his family’s 39-foot retired oyster boat.

Jack was always industrious and hard-working. In Urbanna, he delivered newspapers from his bike, followed by his trusted Cocker Spaniel, Buffy. He would rise early, pick up papers, and have them delivered before school started. In his senior year in high school, he drove a school bus. Again, he had to rise early to pick up students from the Back Bay area and make a long drive to Princess Anne High School. This was quite a responsibility for a high school senior, and it showed how he was trusted. While at Randolph-Macon College, for summer employment, he and a college friend sold Bibles door-to-door. He was doing this in Fulton, Kentucky, when he met his future wife, Marion Blackstone. They were married in 1961, and Jack entered Union Theological Seminary.

Important to Jack was his love of music. He played several instruments, but his love was String Bass. He and some friends formed a dance band in high school, called “The Stardusters.” He earned a good portion of his college expenses playing in a jazz ensemble. Music provided a creative outlet for Jack, throughout his ministry and life.

Jack began serving Virginia churches while in seminary. He and Marion served in Mineral, Charlottesville, and Hampton. In 1974, he became a U.S. Army chaplain, and over the course of 26 years in the Army, he served in various assignments at Fort Bragg, Korea, Key West, Fort Devens, Frankfort, Germany, Arlington National Cemetery and Fort Belvoir, Virginia. Always industrious and hard-working, Chaplain Morrison graduated from the Airborne Jumpmaster, Special Operations, and the Command and General Staff College military courses. He received a Doctorate of Ministry in Psychology and Clinical Studies from Andover Newton Theological School in Boston. His last assignment was as the Family Life chaplain at Fort Knox, Kentucky, where he retired in 2000 as a Lieutenant Colonel. Upon his retirement, he opened Good Shepherd Counseling Ministries, from which he retired in 2018.

Jack always loved his family. He and Marion had three daughters, Rae, Angela, and Pamela, and three grandchildren, Cameron, Lauren, and Erin. They decided to make their retirement home in Elizabethtown, KY, to be near them. Memorial United Methodist Church became their church home. While on a Caribbean cruise in 2000, Marion died following a snorkeling incident. The tragic loss was sudden and shocking for the whole family.

In 2002 Jack married another Kentucky girl, Sheryl McPherson Radford, a retired high school counselor from Cumberland County, Kentucky. Christian faith, common interests, and a love of learning brought them together.

Jack and Sheryl enjoyed attending Christian Counselor and marriage and family workshops in different parts of the country. With Good Shepherd Counseling Jack and Sheryl conducted couple workshops for a few years. As a marriage & family therapist, Jack continued his individual counseling as well as supervising others until his retirement in 2018.

In 2007 Jack and Sheryl were blessed to be asked to participate in a mission trip to Brazil with Shade and Fresh Water of Virginia. Thus began Jack's keen interest in serving the underprivileged. On a mission trip to Haiti in 2009 to serve at Sonlight Academy in Port-a-Paix, they saw the tremendous need for clean water. Subsequently, Jack was trained in Mississippi as an administrator through Living Waters of the World and with great passion led future mission trips to install a total of nine water purification systems, not only at Sonlight Academy and Baraca Hospital, but in and around the Port-a-Paix area. There he was loved and known as Pastor Jack.

Jack and Sheryl loved to travel. They were fortunate to experience Italy, Greece, Turkey, Nova Scotia, Scotland and Brazil. A favorite family beach was Surf City, NC, where his sisters, nieces, nephew and extended family members would gather. How Jack enjoyed fishing, crabbing, jazz music, and good food! Family was important to Jack and he so looked forward to time with his children and grandchildren. Attending family reunions and celebrations brought him such joy.

Even with Jack's physical disabilities and compromised immune system, he never complained and pushed himself to always be productive. His love of Jesus and his Christian faith were continuously demonstrated by his many generous works for social justice.

In July of 2021 Jack was diagnosed with stage 4 bladder cancer. Even though vaccinated, he and Sheryl both contracted Covid during the second week of August. On August 21, Jack went Home to be with his loved ones who had gone on before. Our hearts were broken.

Micah 8:11 is a wonderful scripture to describe Jack's life journey. "And what does the Lord require of you? To act justly, and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God." NIV

Today Jack walks in the Garden with Him.

THE REV. JETHRO WADE MUNFORD 1934 - 2022

Rev. Jethro Wade Munford, known to most as Wade, touched more lives than his family and friends ever knew. It seems that you cannot fully know someone until they are gone. For it is then that people call or write to tell you stories about their experiences with that person. Many of these you will have never heard. It seems that his love of people, children and adults alike, was something that led him throughout his life to be inclusive of others. Impacting many who felt blessed to know him.

Wade said often that his parents were not full of advice, but he learned how to treat people and his strong work ethic by watching them. They led by example. He was a good student throughout all of his school years. He applied for and was awarded the opportunity to go to Boys State in Virginia during high school. He had a paper route from an early age, and he was a state champion swimmer, twice. He was a great one for organizing pick-up ball games or an afternoon swim.

After high school, while working in a local hardware store, Wade decided to enlist in the Army knowing it was his best chance of furthering his education through the GI Bill. The Army recognized his aptitude for engineering and problem-solving and placed him in the signal corp for decoding. His love of tinkering, taking things apart to see how they worked, would be an asset to him in the military. His love of people and service would be an asset for what would be his true calling.

Although Wade grew up in church and attended regularly, his role had always been as a member and steward, doing small jobs around the building. In his early 20s he received the call he had been trying to ignore. It was God's call. He went to his pastor to talk. Soon thereafter, he made the decision to follow that call into the ministry. How all this made him ready for the ministry, he did not understand, but God did. It seems certain that this is what God had in mind for him all along. His pastor lost no time in getting him involved in youth ministry and then on to a congregation.

He found he loved and did it well. One thing was consistent throughout his career. He followed God's word, he followed church and conference guidelines, long meetings and all. And he led his congregations with love and understanding. This is evident in the testimonies the family has received over the last few months from his former congregations. His ability to listen and to lead, touched many in those fellowships and in their communities.

It seems Wade was called to become involved in the extended community of the places where he served. He believed that this could further the mission and impact of the church. He would eat locally, shop locally, and eventually, in most areas, coffee groups were formed.

Because he kept a trust and was a good listener, many friendships were formed. He loved meeting new people and sharing in life events such as weddings or funerals that in many cases he would be asked to perform by those that were unchurched. The local funeral homes would call him and ask him to perform services for those who had no pastor.

Wade was careful to be a person of trust and a good listener for the youth in those same communities. He worked in the conference YES program for 16 years. This conference program produced more ministers than any other. It is likely that the experience of growing the YES program, led him to the creation of Rock, a summer program for youth in Staunton, Va. After seeing and talking with some kids who were standing on the street downtown, the program was born. This program engaged the younger children in activities and Christian awareness and taught the older youth about service and to lead and mentor. He strongly wanted other churches to also work in this program. Rock lasted many years.

Wade loved to travel. After retirement he was able to achieve a completed bucket, building an address book full of friendships. He loved playing cards, by the book of course, and doing sudoku and crossword puzzles. He loved attending his grandchildren's sporting events, many times driving hours to be there. Family was always a priority with him, as was his God. Even after retirement and some of his health issues began, Wade continued as a visitation pastor part time and then, just as a good steward of the church. Ministering to others, either within his family, or on the road in travels, or in a congregation, was his passion... his calling.

Looking at the last 20 years of Wade's life, one may be stunned that he survived some of the health issues he faced. Certainly his family was. It was, on occasion, pretty miraculous. But at each event, the Lord was not ready have him stop his work on earth. Wade knew God had a plan and he was willing to continue until God was finished with his work here. His family loved him very much. We will all miss him terribly, but we know that he is rejoicing at home with his Lord.

THE REV. GEORGE M. PEARSON JR. 1946 - 2021

The Rev. George M. Pearson, Jr., 75, went to heaven on a beautiful Sunday, December 12, 2021. George was born and raised in Emporia, Va. and was a Methodist from birth. After spending some time at William and Mary with the idea of becoming a high school math teacher, George felt God calling him to teach for Him instead. George ended up graduating from VCU and Union Theological Seminary in Richmond. He served God and the United Methodist Church in the Virginia Conference for 37 years including Chester UMC, St. Matthias UMC, Mt. Tabor UMC and his final 14 years at Southview UMC in Roanoke. He was very active in youth work in the earlier years of his ministry, but his real passion was teaching the Bible to the many who attended his Bible classes where he mentored many individuals of all ages in the importance of having a strong foundation based on the scripture so that they would see what it meant when they claimed the name of Christ as Christians.

Those left to treasure wonderful memories are his wife Lynn Bryant of Roanoke, his son Chris Pearson of Cookeville, Tennessee, his sister and brother-in-law, Mary Jo and Jimmy Doyle of Emporia, Va., lots of cousins and the many friends that he made along the way. In fact, many will always remember him for his challenge to view life through the Serenity Prayer.

THE REV. MYLES EDWARD PIERSON 1942 - 2022

Myles was born in Warsaw, Virginia, on March 1, 1942. He was a graduate of Farnham High School and received an Associate in Arts at Louisburg College in 1970. In 1974, he received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Virginia Commonwealth University, and in 1980, a Master of Divinity from Virginia Union University.

Myles served churches across the Virginia Conference. Following his retirement from Highland Springs UMC, he served three congregations on a part-time basis, remaining at Asbury UMC in Newport News for 7 years.

The highlight of his ministry was working with Virginia's native tribes. This began with his organizing a work team to roof the United Rappahannock Tribal Center building. Learning there were children in need, he began to help the tribal councils financially provide Christmas gifts for the children. Next it was school supplies. Both of these projects were supported financially by the churches he served. Work teams were organized to repair homes on the reservations. To raise funds for these projects, he would prepare what became known as "The Preacher's Brunswick Stew", Chili, and Fresh Apple Cake. Church members would volunteer their time to prepare the ingredients or to stir the pots, giving Myles the opportunity to know them better.

Not only did he enjoy cooking, he enjoyed eating! He looked forward to the church sponsored meals. The highlights were spaghetti suppers and éclair cake. In retirement, he enjoyed the Golden Corral where he and Nancy met many people, some from other states, who became dear friends, as well as many of the staff. He and Nancy enjoyed entertaining in their home as well.

For years, Myles had fought a battle with Alzheimer's. On February 9th, 2022, Myles went home to be with the Lord. His earthly body, at his request, was donated to science in hopes of finding a cure for Alzheimer's. A memorial service was held on February 12th at Corinth UMC in Sandston. The Rev. Dr. Teresa Smith officiated. Music was provided by his step-daughter, Charlene Romano, flutist, and her husband, John Romano, arranged the hymns and accompanied his wife on clarinet. Both are graduates of Shenandoah University.

Surviving are his mother, Wilma Pierson of Farnham; his brother, Lynwood and his wife, Linda, of Warsaw; a sister, Elizabeth Reedy and her husband, David, of Mt. Crawford; as well as sisters Norma and Waverley Pierson of Farnham. He is also survived by his children Ed, Tony, Joe, and Theresa and their spouses, nine grandchildren and one great granddaughter; his wife Nancy and his two step-children, Charlene Romano and John Alan Baughan and their families.

THE REV. JEFFRY JOEL ROBERTS

Jeffry Joel (Jeff) Roberts was born on November 29, 1959 and died on September 21, 2021. The 61 years of his life were filled with love for the Lord, love for his family, love for his nation, and especially, love for the unloved.

Jeff is survived by his wife, partner in ministry, and best friend, Lori, whom he met at Wesley Woods, a United Methodist retreat center at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. They were married in May, 1983. He had two sons, Ian, married to Laura Shaffner, and granddaughter, Ivy; and son, Andrew. He also is survived by six brothers and sisters, several nephews and nieces, and scores of friends. His parents, Rev. William T. and Betty Roberts, predeceased him.

Jeff was born in Chicago, Illinois, and except for four years in Rockford, Illinois, he grew up in Chicago. He loved everything about Chicago, especially his beloved Cubs. As his father was a United Methodist pastor, Jeff lived in parsonages in various neighborhoods in his hometown. He graduated from the University of Illinois with a bachelor's degree in political science and skill in the Russian language.

He began his career at the National Security Agency at Ft. Meade MD where he was able to put his Russian skills to work. For three years, he was posted in London where his children were born. After 10 years, and the fall of the Soviet Empire, he determined a career change was in order.

Jeff and Lori were dedicated members of Burke UMC. He was a full-time stay at home dad and it was there that he finally answered the call to ministry under the guidance of Rev. Ed Pruitt. He entered Wesley Theological Seminary as a part-time student in 1995 and graduated in 2000, when he was ordained as a deacon. In 2002, he was ordained as an elder. He served as a student pastor at Bethel UMC in Warrenton for two years, at the time considered the best student appointment in the conference! The Chicago boy, who had never lived in a rural area, was then appointed to a two-point charge in Mount Jackson, Virginia. He stayed there for six years, and then moved to Bethany church in Purcellville. After six years there, he was appointed to his last appointment at Springfield UMC. He was an effective and fun-loving pastor who was loved in rural, small town, and suburban churches.

Jeff was known and appreciated for his lively Wesleyan sermons, his loving care for his congregations, and his willingness take stands, even when unpopular, for justice and mercy. He loved to preach and teach. His sense of humor, including his quick wit, stories, cartoons, and satirical hymns, were loved by all. After futilely trying to master golf, he took up hiking, and with clergy friends hiked over a thousand miles on the Appalachian Trail and other trails.

Jeff was loyal to family, friends, and his denomination. He loved Wesleyan theology and practice, other clergy, and his congregations. He served on many district and conference committees, including COSROW and District Boards of Ordained Ministry. He also served on many Emmaus and Chrysalis teams as a Spiritual Director. He and Lori were an effective team for the Lord.

Jeff's life was cut short by cancer, but he never lost his love, his humor, his dedication, and his confidence in the eternal life with Jesus Christ. He was a model for all who knew him of a life well-lived, even when suffering from a terrible disease. He always preached the Great Commandment, and emphasizing the challenges simply to love each other and to love everyone. That is what Christians are called to do.

THE REV. ANGELITO G. SAMSON 1946 -2021

United Methodist Elder, Reverend Angelito “Gel” Samson, 75, went peacefully with our Lord, surrounded by family & friends, in Virginia Beach, VA on Sept 8, 2021. Son of Vicente Samson, a farmer, & Miguela Gueco, a homemaker, he was the eldest of 3, born on January 9, 1946 in Concepcion, Tarlac, Philippines.

His father passing away at a young age, Angelito was raised by his mom, in his Uncle Antonio's home, alongside his siblings & cousins, in a faith centered household. With fond memories of singing hymns & nightly devotionals, his Uncle, Pastor Antonio Gueco became a strong father figure. During his youth, wherever his Uncle was appointed as pastor, Gel followed to witness his Uncle's service.

His elementary years were in Capas, Tarlac & graduated High School with honors from Lubao Institute in Lubao, Pampanga.

Working hard, he supported himself while earning his Bachelor's degree. He attended Union Theological Seminary, where he met Emma as she studied at Philippine Christian University. They wed in Cavite, Philippines in 1976. Pastor Samson earned his Master of Divinity from Union Theological Seminary & studied at Asbury Seminary in Kentucky for his postmasteral work, also receiving his Certification in Marriage & Family Therapy from Menninger.

Gaining servant leader reputation, he had a gift for building relationships, uniting people, encouraging teamwork, & empowering others to share their talents. These passions were shown through his ecumenical & interfaith engagements. Pastor Gel was appointed to various churches, large & small. These became among the most active, growing with members, leading faithful worship, teaching the congregation, & delivering community outreach.

Pastor Gel was appointed to the Kansas United Methodist Conference in the USA, becoming the second Filipino pastor in the state. His work led him to the Virginia United Methodist Conference, becoming the first Filipino pastor of a 2-point charge for Resurrection UMC & Princess Anne Plaza UMC. Pastoring both churches simultaneously, his strong faith & passion to help others kept him energized despite time constraints. During his tenure, these churches experienced remarkable membership growth. Though he was largely responsible, he credited his congregation for their outstanding outreach & ability to work together. He was pivotal in establishing & maintaining a strong financial acumen at both churches. In Virginia, he established a loving home, surrounding himself with friends that became family. Witnessing his children marry, then proudly watching his grandchildren grow.

Pastor Samson served the United Methodist Church faithfully for 47+ years. Having various appointments in the Philippines, Kansas, & Virginia; & also a noted professor at Union Theological Seminary & Harris Memorial College.

Loving various perspectives of theology, he sat for hours with seminary students discussing ideas. Having a deep interest in interfaith dialogue, he knew it was a positive way of building community & promoting diversity & understanding.

Throughout his life, Pastor Gel remained a strong social justice advocate. He supported & marched for issues including political freedom, women's rights, climate sustainability, & LGBT inclusion. Much of his sermons took from his cultural experiences, as he championed that differences were bridges to connecting with others. His outreach work prioritized those less fortunate. Known to inspire with his welcoming spirit, he treated all with respect, dignity, compassion, & kindness that characterized his life regardless of background & beliefs. Pastor Gel was respected for leading a life of humility, not by words but by how he lived.

Enthusiastic about mission service, he often hosted missionaries & invited them to speak at his churches. He also served in Brazil, taught in the Philippines, assisted healthcare teams for migrant workers on the Eastern Shore, & led several vacation bible schools & extended pastoral care. He helped organize a community Peace Festival, encouraging several interfaith groups to connect and cooperate, including Islam, Buddhist, Jewish, Hindu, Shinto & Christian, to support and raise money for an orphanage in East Africa.

Pastor Gel was a delegate to the United Methodist Church General Conference. He served in Virginia UMC's General Global Ministry, Board of Ordained Ministry, & General Board on Church and Society. He was involved in the Tidewater interfaith group, & PAGLAGO - an endeavor to revitalize existing Fil-AM UM churches, & National Association of Filipino Methodists (NAFAUM) in the US.

Though intimately involved in the lives of thousands, leaving a legacy of inspired, friends, students & parishioners, Pastor Gel's greatest love was his family, wife, children, & grandchildren. Much of his retirement was spent caring for his grandchildren, tending to his garden, & writing inspirational reflections. He began each day with God while tending his garden. His garden was a reflection of his devotion to his Creator God. He took pride in babysitting his grandchildren daily, from driving them to school & reading to them, to teaching them our Lord's love.

A voracious reader & writer, he enjoyed fishing, camping, traveling & coffee from all parts of the world. He loved the University of Kansas Jayhawks, Kansas City Royals, and the Kansas City Chiefs Football Team. Self-taught in ukelele, he formed a group, and enjoyed performing at churches, senior living communities & children's birthday parties.

Reverend Samson's legacy lives on through his wife of 45 yrs, Emma, daughter Pristine (Sophie), son Domini (Bernadette), granddaughters (Bianca and Brianna), his daughter Bea (Brian), grandchildren (Zion, Czab, & Czef), his mother-in-law Mely, younger brother Rico, & a loving extended family & community. His legacy will continue through the many lives he has influenced.

THE REV. EDWIN HOWARD SATTERWHITE 1928 -2021

The Reverend Dr. E. Howard Satterwhite departed this earth to be with his Heavenly Father on July 21, 2021. The legacy that he leaves proves worthy of that reward.

Born January 16, 1928 in Beaverdam, Virginia, Howard was the youngest son of Maurice and Grace Satterwhite. After graduating from high school, he served in the United States Navy during World War II. He came home to marry his high school sweetheart, Agnes Flippo. They moved to Richmond, Virginia where he worked as an accounting clerk for Crawford Manufacturing and started a family.

It wasn't until 1962 that Howard received the call to the ministry. He, his wife and three children moved into the parsonage at Mount Pisgah United Methodist Church where he became a full time minister and student. He would complete his accounting degree from Richmond Professional Institute, and a bachelor's degree from Union Theological Seminary. Howard would later attain a master's degree from Scarritt College and a Doctor of Divinity from Drew University.

Howard faithfully served the people of the Virginia United Methodist Conference for the next half century. He pastored churches from Midlothian to Parksley, Lawrenceville, Hopewell, Alexandria, Great Bridge, Mechanicsville and Spotsylvania.

Howard was a true believer in the God-centered family. For this reason he was actively involved in the youth programs wherever he served. Young people were drawn to him, and he never passed up an opportunity to spend time with them. The true impact of his ministry became apparent upon his retirement. One individual recently wrote upon Howard's passing that their time spent together at camp placed him upon a path to the ministry. In addition, many of these young people returned to him to perform their weddings. He was honored to do so even when his body was failing, having to hold onto a table to remain erect. Recently Howard and Agnes celebrated their 70th anniversary. At the party when asked how many wedding ceremonies Howard had performed, dozens of hands were raised.

Howard never let his own family forget the importance of a close-knit family. He insisted upon family gatherings even as we drifted further apart geographically. Each of these events was always prefaced by a mini sermon. These are memories that will live on.

Upon retirement Howard built a workshop and took up woodworking. He particularly enjoyed restoring old furniture. He often said that his favorite part was stripping the piece down to see the beauty of the wood underneath. In part that was his philosophy of life, too. So many have said that he helped them see light during their darkest times.

After a battle with cancer, Howard passed away at home, surrounded by his family. We are reminded of Paul's letter to Timothy: "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race. I have kept the faith." (2 Tim 4:7). Few among us can make that claim, but Howard surely can. God Speed in your next journey. You will be missed but not forgotten.

THE REV. EMERSON LEVAN SHELTON 1937 -2021

Emerson Levan Shelton was born in Buckingham, VA and was the second oldest child of Harvey Allen Shelton and Elise Shelton Gray. He was the best man who ever lived, but we may be biased.

Emerson was married to Sandra (Sandy) Shelton for more than 59 years. He loved her more than anyone might be able to imagine and he treated her like the Queen that she is. His daughters, Deidra and Karen were both his favorites and he loved them so much. They never doubted his love for God, his wife, or them. He provided for them, he believed in them, he advised them, he cheered for them, he led them, he spent time with them, he went to every single recital, he told them jokes, and he scrutinized their boyfriends with proper skepticism.

Emerson accepted Jesus as his Lord and Savior at the age of seven. The Jerusalem Baptist Church in Buckingham was his very first church home, and his faith grew there. In his community, he served as a substitute teacher, school bus driver, thespian, choral and band member (he played the clarinet), babysitter to his little sisters, assistant shopkeeper in his family's general store, and so much more.

Emerson went to Virginia State College and graduated with a degree in Business Administration. After graduation, he married Sandy and they moved to Germany where Emerson was a Captain in the US Army and was a helicopter pilot. After his military service, Emerson worked as an executive for Reynolds Metals Company until his retirement. In response to a call from God and love for people, he served as a Lay Minister in the United Methodist Church. He pastored a four point charge in Fluvanna and Albemarle Counties in Virginia, until the mandatory retirement age of 71.

Emerson and Sandy joined Richmond's First Baptist Church in 2016 and Emerson served as a Sunday School teacher.

He loved God from the core of his being. He loved people with everything he had. He did not believe in hate. He loved to be outside. He loved plants and outer space. He loved food. Any kind of food. He did not love to cook. He loved traveling with Sandy and their friends, Bill and Nancy Keuhl. He loved his family. He was exponentially proud of his grandchildren and he loved them fiercely. He was funny, even if you didn't notice.

Our hearts and minds, bodies and souls resonate with Love. Emerson "got" this. He knew that Love is what we were made for.

Emerson always ended every phone call, every visit, every voice mail by saying, "I love you. OK?" He never skipped it. During the last weeks of his life, he took it up a notch and started saying, "I love you so much. OK?" If he were standing here today, I'm sure it's the one thing he would want you to take away from knowing him, and he'd want you to share it with the world, "You," he would say, "are loved, So much."

THE REV. RAYMOND FITZHUGH WRENN 1918 - 2022

On June 25, 1918, as the WWI Battle of Belleau Wood wound down with American soldiers showing their mettle under fire, Raymond Fitzhugh Wrenn entered the world, born to Winnie and Raymond N. Wrenn in pacific and rural Herndon, VA. The oldest of three sons, the first marker event in his journey of faithful discipleship occurred when he was baptized on June 1, 1919, at Centreville ME Church, South.

A voracious reader, at 15 Raymond graduated valedictorian from high school to attend American University on full scholarship, where he was involved in the school newspaper, yearbook, and literary magazine, and graduated with a degree in English with minors in German and Education.

Raised in the Congregational Church, in the late 1930s he was drawn to the Wesleyan tradition as the 1939 merger of three denominations (MEC, MECS, and MP) led to the formation of The Methodist Church. The next significant event in his faith journey came as he discerned a call to ordained ministry, leading him to Emory University's Candler School of Theology, where he received his divinity degree in 1942; he was ordained Deacon in 1942 and Elder in 1944. For 80 years, Raymond would have a profound, lasting impact on the Virginia Conference.

In his first 11 years of ministry, Raymond served the five-point Fauquier Charge, Christ (Norfolk, where he was founding pastor), Wesley Memorial (Richmond), Crozet, and Bethany (Purcellville). In those 11 years, the congregations he pastored received 561 new members, 40% of them new Christians. Another life-changing event during these years occurred while at Crozet, when he met and married Rena DeShazo Lynch, who would be his life partner for nearly 60 years; together they raised their children, Richard, Elizabeth, and Katharine (at his death Raymond's family had broadened to include a daughter-in-law and son-in-law, three grandchildren, two step grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, and two step great-grandchildren).

1953 brought new change to Raymond's ministry, when he was appointed as the first Executive Secretary for the Northern Virginia Board of Missions, with primary responsibility for developing new congregations in underserved communities in the burgeoning DC suburbs. He served in the capacity until 1968, when he was appointed Associate Program Director for Planning for the Conference. He served in this capacity until retirement in 1982, guiding and facilitating new church starts, Conference mission funding and activities in communities facing missional challenges and opportunities, and providing positive leadership for the innovative Churches in Transitional Communities project, and the Revealing Christ campaign to fund new congregations across the Conference. His leadership was recognized in many ways, including being awarded an honorary doctorate by Randolph-Macon College in 1980.

In the words of a colleague, "There was never a church anywhere in the Virginia Conference that he did not know, could not comment on, or had not been by." Raymond's familiarity with the churches of the Conference was also aided by his keen interest in Conference history. For many years he served on the Board of the Conference Historical Society. His anecdotes about people, events, and congregations of the Conference were an endless source of entertainment, inspiration, and delight for many; he was a founding member of the Ethelbert Drake Society, a semi-secret and completely comical organization none took seriously. More importantly and interestingly, in William Warren Sweet's Virginia Methodism: A History, Raymond served as editorial secretary, chauffeur for the illustrator, and posed as "George Whitfield Preaching at Bruton Parish Church" and "The Pensive Sinner."

"Retirement" was defined loosely for Raymond. Throughout his ministry, he was an advocate for young clergy and took a keen interest in their lives. He once advocated for new clergy to be paid $100,000 their first year, with the salary decreased by $10K each year until it leveled at $50,000, because in his opinion, "That's when clergy really need the money." His encouragement for the next generation of clergy continued once he ended his life under appointment. For 13 years, he served as Adjunct Professor of Field Education at Wesley Theological Seminary—two of which he served as Director. He continued to serve in many offices, boards, and agencies in the church and community. His experience, knowledge, and creativity were especially critical in the restructuring of the Virginia Conference from 18 districts down to 16; the absence of his wisdom and institutional memory in this current season of restructuring is grievous. And this year his poetic, serene, and calm prayer to begin sessions of the Annual Conference, a task he performed annually since 2009, will be greatly missed.

Raymond died peacefully in the presence of family and in the hope of resurrection on February 10, 2022. His service of Death and Resurrection on February 17, 2022, was led by Revs. Jason Micheli and Levi Stroud at Annandale United Methodist Church, where he and Rena were wed in 1949 and celebrated their 50th anniversary in 1999. Following the service, his seven cherished and long-ago recruited pall bearers (Raymond was quite the planner) bore his body to its final resting place, next to his beloved Rena in the Annandale Church cemetery.

Scholar, musician, advocate for justice, generous philanthropist, poet, man of wit, dapper wearer of bowties, delight in family, friend: a great tree has fallen in our forest of faith, friendship, and family. We will not see his like again. How blessed we are that once, he walked among us.

XII. HISTORICAL STATEMENT

The Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church is the direct descendant of the original annual conference of the United Brethren in Christ and of one of the six original conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The present conference was formed in 1970, by the merger of the Virginia Conference, formerly Methodist, with the former Evangelical United Brethren Conference of the same name. It is the successor to 39 Annual Conferences of eight denominations. Since the oldest of these dates back to the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1784, the 1970 session was declared to be the 188th session of the Conference (two “annual” sessions having been held in 1791 and 1841).

These 39 antecedent conferences are as follows:

THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Virginia (1784-1844), Baltimore (1784-1939), Philadelphia (1784-1869), North Carolina (1836-1844), Washington (1864-1939), Delaware (1864-1939), Virginia and North Carolina Mission (1864-1868), Virginia (1868-1906), North Carolina (1869-1939), Wilmington (1869-1939), East Tennessee (1880-1939), Holston (1906-1939), West Virginia (1906-1939), Atlantic Mission (1906-1912), Blue Ridge-Atlantic (1912-1939)

THE CHURCH OF THE UNITED BRETHREN IN CHRIST

Original (“Old” or “Mother”) (1800-1829), Hagerstown (1829-1830), Virginia (1830-1946)

THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH

East Virginia (1829-1834), Maryland (1829-1939), Virginia (1834-1870), North Carolina (1860-1939)

THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH

INDEPENDENT CONFERENCE

Baltimore (1861-1866)

THE METHODIST CHURCH

Virginia (1939-1968), Washington (1939-1965), Delaware (1939-1965), East Tennessee (1939-1965), North Carolina-C.J. (1939-1965), North Carolina-Virginia (1965-1968)

THE EVANGELICAL UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH

Virginia (1946-1968), Central Pennsylvania (1948-1964), Susquehanna (1964-1968)

THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Virginia-M (1968-1970), Virginia-E (1968-1970), Susquehanna (1968-1969)

Virginia was the scene of the ministries of many of the pioneers of the Methodist and United Brethren churches, most notably among them Francis Asbury, one of the first two Methodist bishops; William Watters, Methodism’s first Native American minister; Philip William Otterbein, bishop and leader in the founding of the United Brethren in Christ; and Christian Newcomer, United Brethren pioneer in Virginia and later bishop.

Twenty bishops of the denominations now comprising the United Methodist Church were born within the bounds of the Virginia Conference. They are: William McKendree, Enoch George, John Early, Samuel Hiestand, Beverly Waugh, David S. Doggett, William Taylor, John C. Granbery, William W. Duncan, James W. Hott, Collins Denny, William B. Beauchamp, Paul B. Kern, Paul Neff Garber, Edgar A. Love, Walter C. Gum, Carlton P. Minnick, Jr., R. Kern Eutsler, H. Hasbrouck Hughes, Jr., and Timothy W. Whitaker.

January 3, 1970: Present Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church organized at Madison College, Harrisonburg.

THE NUMBERING OF CONFERENCE SESSIONS

The Virginia Conference was organized in May of 1785. That was its first session. It was one year old at its second session in 1786, and so on, so that its age would always be one less than the number of that year’s session. Then, two annual sessions were held in April and December of 1791 and in January and November of 1841, so that in 2022, the 240th annual session, the conference was 236 years old.

Independent Auditor's Report

Council on Finance and Administration
The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church
Glen Allen, VA

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church (a division of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not absolute assurance, and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Notes to the Financial Statements

1. Organization and Nature of Activities

The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church (Central Treasury) is a division within the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church (Conference). The Central Treasury receives and disburses, in accordance with the actions of the Conference, remittances from local church treasurers for all duly authorized general, jurisdictional, Conference, and district causes. It also implements administrative and fiscal policies and procedures as directed by the Council of Finance and Administration.

The purpose of the Council on Finance and Administration is to develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures and management services for the Annual Conference.

The purpose of the Conference is to coordinate the relationship between the general program boards and commissions and the conference, districts, and Virginia United Methodist churches.

These financial statements include only the accounts of the Central Treasury and are not intended to present the financial position and results of the whole Conference.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Classes of net assets

The financial statements of the Central Treasury have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("U.S. GAAP"), which require the Central Treasury to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to the following net asset classifications:

Net assets without donor restrictions: Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and may be expended for any purpose in performing the primary objectives of the organization. These net assets may be used at the discretion of the Central Treasury's management and the Council on Finance and Administration for use in the Central Treasury's operations. Approximately $6.5 million and $1.1 million of these net assets at December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively are board-designated funds.

Net assets with donor restrictions: Net assets subject to stipulations imposed by donors and grantors. Some donor restrictions are temporary in nature; those restrictions will be met by actions of the Central Treasury or by the passage of time. Other donor restrictions are perpetual in nature, whereby the donor has stipulated the funds be maintained in perpetuity.

Revenues and support are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions unless use of the related assets is limited by donor-imposed restrictions. Expenses are reported as decreases in net assets without donor restrictions. Gains and losses on investments and other assets or liabilities are reported as increases or decreases in net assets without donor restrictions unless their use is restricted by explicit donor-imposed stipulation or by law. Expirations of restrictions on net assets with donor restrictions (i.e., the donor stipulated purposes have been fulfilled and/or the stipulated time period has elapsed) are reported as reclassifications between the applicable classes of net assets.

Notes to Financial Statements

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expense during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents includes items such as short-term, highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less at the date of purchase.

Investments

Purchased investments are initially recorded at cost. Investments received by gift are initially recorded at fair value at the date of the donation. The Central Treasury's investments are pooled into larger investment funds. The Central Treasury's pooled investments are valued at fair value based on net asset value of each fund as provided by the investment holder or other observable information.

Church receivables and bad debts

Church receivables are reported at their estimated realizable value, net of an estimated allowance for doubtful accounts. The allowance is based on management's estimate of the amount of receivables that will actually be collected. It is the Central Treasury's policy to charge off uncollectable accounts receivable when management determines the receivable will not be collected. As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, management determined that no allowance was necessary.

Loans receivable

Loans receivable are stated at their principal amount outstanding less the related allowance for loan losses and are collateralized by buildings and land. Interest rates on loans are subject to review and adjustment on a periodic basis.

Allowance of loan losses

The allowance for doubtful loans is maintained at a level that, in management's judgment, is adequate to absorb probable loan losses. The amount is based upon an analysis of the loan portfolio by management including, but not limited to, review of the collectability of the loan portfolio, adverse situations that may affect the borrower's ability to repay, estimated value of any underlying collateral and prevailing economic conditions. The analysis is also based on a periodic review of payments and other factors based on the Central Treasury's historical experiences. To date, no loans have been in arrears or default and no loan has required modification to acclimate to a borrower's adverse circumstances or ability to repay. This process is based on estimates and ultimate losses may vary from current estimates. As changes in estimates occur, adjustments to the level of the allowance are recorded in the provision for loan losses in the period in which they become known. In addition, the net realizable value of the property serving as collateral for delinquent loans will be assessed on an annual basis.

The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church Notes to Financial Statements

A loan is considered impaired when, based upon current information and events, it is probable that the Central Treasury will be unable to collect all amounts due according to the contractual terms of the loan agreement. Loans are classified as delinquent when payments are 30 days overdue. Loans will continue to accrue interest when a loan is delinquent; however, all accrued interest may be included in the allowance for doubtful loans. Payments for delinquent or impaired loans are treated as a payment of interest due until all accrued interest has been paid. Interest income on delinquent loans is recognized according to the original amortization schedule (accrual method). The accrual of interest income is discontinued when, in management's judgment, the scheduled interest may not be collectible within the stated term of the loan. Interest income is recognized on a cash basis for loans classified as nonaccrual loans, with subsequent payments applied first to interest and fees, if any, and then to principal. Loans classified as nonaccrual loans are returned to accrual status when all the principal and interest amounts contractually due are brought current and future payments are reasonably assured. At December 31, 2021 and 2020, the Central Treasury has no loans it considered impaired. As a result, management has elected not to record an allowance for loan losses.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost or the estimates fair value at the date of contribution. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over estimated useful lives as follows:

Buildings and improvements	15 - 40 years
Furniture, fixtures, and equipment	5 - 7 years
Computer equipment and software	3 - 5 years

Maintenance, repairs, and minor renewals are expensed when incurred. When property and equipment are sold or otherwise disposed of, the asset account and related accumulated depreciation account are relieved, and any gain or loss is included in the current year's operations.

The Central Treasury reviews its long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to undiscounted expected cash flows. Future events could cause the Central Treasury to conclude that impairment indicators exist and that long-lived assets may be impaired. To date, no impairment losses have been recorded.

Recognition of contributions

Revenue recognition

Revenues from contracts with customers include registrations and administrative service fees. The nature of the Central Treasury's exchange contracts generally do not include variable consideration that require significant judgments to estimate the transaction price or related constraints due to risk of significant reversal.

Registrations

The Central Treasury organizes and hosts various events and trainings for United Methodist churches and members. Fees are charged to attendees at the time of registration. In some cases, the Central Treasury may receive payment prior to the recognition of revenue. These contract liabilities are reported as unearned revenue on the statements of financial position. Revenue is recognized at a point in time, upon completion of the event. Registrations revenue is included in other income on the accompanying statements of activities.

The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church Notes to Financial Statements

Administrative services revenue

The Central Treasury provides accounting and bookkeeping services for various related and affiliated entities. The Central Treasury bills these entities in equal monthly installments based upon the annual agreed upon fee. As the Central Treasury has agreed to perform these activities throughout the year, revenue is recognized over time, ratably per month. As this recognition corresponds with billings, there are no amounts recorded as contract liabilities or assets related to administrative services revenue. Administrative services revenue is included in miscellaneous program income on the accompanying statements of activities.

Disaggregation of revenue from contracts with customers

The following table disaggregates the Central Treasury's revenue based on the timing of satisfaction of performance obligations for the years ended December 31:

Over time	$ 142,752	$ 133,807
Point-in-time	293,924	166,836
	$ 436,676	$ 300,643

For registration revenue, the Central Treasury's obligation is completed at the time of the event.

For performance obligations related to administrative services revenue, completion of the Central Treasury's obligation occurs over time throughout the term of the agreements. The Central Treasury uses the output method measured by a month of service delivered compared to the total months agreed to under the contract to recognize revenue over time.

Income taxes

The Central Treasury is a division of the Conference, which is a not-for-profit organization and is exempt from federal and state income taxes under Internal Revenue Code, Section 501(c)(3) and the tax statutes of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements.

Reclassifications

Certain items from the prior year financial statements have been reclassified to conform to current year presentation. Such reclassifications had no effect on change in net assets or ending net assets.

Advertising costs

Advertising costs are expensed when incurred. There were no advertising costs for the year ended December 31, 2021. Advertising costs were $384 for the year ended December 31, 2020.

Concentration

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Central Treasury to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of investments and cash. The Central Treasury places its investments and its cash and cash equivalents with creditworthy institutions and diversifies its holdings among entities, thereby limiting the amount of credit exposure to any one entity. As of December 31, 2021, the Central Treasury had $5,708,699 of cash deposits in excess of federally insured limits being held by a federally insured financial depository institution.

The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church Notes to Financial Statements

The Central Treasury's investments, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit and overall market volatility risks. In addition, due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the statements of financial position.

Functional expenses

The Central Treasury allocates its expenses on a functional basis among its program and supporting services. Expenses that can be identified with a specific program or supporting service are allocated directly. Other expenses that are common to several functions are allocated between program and administrative expenses based on an estimate of time expended.

Subsequent events

In preparing these financial statements, the Central Treasury has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through December 5, 2022, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

3. Availability and Liquidity

The following represents the Central Treasury's financial assets at December 31:

	2021	2020
Financial assets at year-end:
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 5,858,613	$ 2,881,799
Church receivables, net	1,798,868	1,914,177
Other receivables	75,080	31,436
Investments	4,158,103	6,400,627
Financial assets at year-end	11,890,664	11,228,039
Less:
Financial assets with donor restrictions	(3,808,931)	(3,646,674)
Financial assets available to meet general expenditures over the next twelve months	$ 8,081,733	$ 7,581,365

The Central Treasury's policy is to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures and other obligations come due. Included in the available financial assets shown above are board-designated funds totaling approximately $6.5 million and $1.1 million of net assets at December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively that would require approval by the Council on Finance and Administration to be made available.

4. Investments

Investments are carried at fair value and consist of the following at December 31:

	2021		2020
	Amortized Cost	Fair Value	Amortized Cost	Fair Value
Alternative investments	$ 2,962,218	$ 4,158,103	$ 4,796,910	$ 6,400,627

Notes to Financial Statements

Investment income consisted of the following for the years ended December 31:

	2021	2020
Interest and dividend income	$ 199,932	$ 205,112
Realized and unrealized gains	469,334	348,912
Investment management fees	(28,076)	(25,589)
Investment income, net	$ 641,190	$ 528,435

Alternative investments are valued using the practical expedient at the Central Treasury's pro-rata interest in the net assets of these entities. Investments held by these entities are valued at prices which approximate fair value. The fair value of certain investments in the underlying entities, which may include private placements and other securities for which values are not readily available, are determined in good faith by the investment advisors of the respective entities and may not reflect amounts that could be realized upon immediate sale, nor amounts that may be ultimately realized. Net asset valuations are provided daily, monthly, or quarterly by these entities. Appreciation (depreciation) of investments in these entities is net of all allocations to the investment advisors. The Central Treasury invests for the long-term, guided by its investment policy which reflects its macroeconomic views and expectations regarding the drivers of future economic growth.

5. Funds Held by United Methodist Church

Funds held by United Methodist Church is comprised of funds collected to establish an education fund named the Francis Asbury Fund. The United Methodist Church, through its General Board of Higher Education, controls the investments and directs the use of the funds, which are used primarily for extending Francis Asbury Educational Loans to qualifying United Methodist students. At December 31, 2021 and 2020, the fund had loans outstanding of $351,802 and $436,721, respectively. Loan terms require payment of principal and interest (at 4%) within six years of graduation or withdrawal.

6. Property and Equipment

Major classes of property and equipment consist of the following at December 31:

	2021	2020
Land	$ 793,019	$ 793,019

Property and equipment, net	$ 3,932,005	$ 4,117,383

7. Loans Receivable

The Church Development Team of the Conference makes loans to districts of the Conference for acquisitions and improvements. Loans receivable consist of a Charlottesville District loan of $127,728 and $129,728 as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively. The loan due from the Charlottesville District is non-interest bearing and there is no set maturity date.

The Central Treasury provides an allowance for doubtful collections that is based upon a review of outstanding receivables, historical collection information, and existing economic conditions. Delinquent receivables are written off based on individual credit evaluation and specific circumstances of the borrower. No allowance for doubtful collections is deemed necessary by management as of December 31, 2021 and 2020.

8. Payroll Protection Program Loan

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security (CARES) Act was signed into law on March 27, 2020. The CARES Act provides for the establishment of the Payroll Protection Program (PPP), a new loan program under the Small Business Administration's 7(a) program providing loans to qualifying businesses. Additionally, loans originated under this program may be forgiven, in whole or in part, if certain criteria are met.

In May 2020, the Central Treasury received PPP loans totaling $682,160 which were accounted for in accordance with ASC Topic 470, Debt. In order to be forgiven, funds from these loans may only be used to satisfy payroll costs, costs used to continue health care benefits, mortgage payments, rent, utilities, and interest on certain other debt obligations. The Central Treasury believes it has used the proceeds of the loan for qualifying expenses under the PPP, prepared a forgiveness calculation, and submitted an application of forgiveness to its lender. In September 2021, the Central Treasury received a notice of Paycheck Protection Program forgiveness payment from the Small Business Administration approving forgiveness of the entire loan balance, which has been recognized as a gain on extinguishment of debt in the accompanying financial statements.

9. Commitments/Subsequent Events

At December 31, 2021, the Church Development Team of the Conference has committed grants to churches for approximately $807,000 in connection with the Church Development Team Church Extension and Development Fund, which will be funded with Central Treasury assets.

In February 2022, the Central Treasury committed support of $966,456 to the Conference.

10. Retirement Plans

Ministerial and lay employees of the Conference are eligible to participate in pension plans offered by the United Methodist Church through Wespath, Inc. Conference clergy members and local pastors under Episcopal appointment are eligible for pension coverage under the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP).

In addition to the CRSP, certain ministerial employees are provided disability and death benefits as well as certain minimum benefits related to pension coverage through participation in the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP).

The Central Treasury of the Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church Notes to Financial Statements

CRSP and CPP are defined contribution plans which currently encourage a one percent employee contribution and call for a 16.4 percent employer contribution (12 percent for CRSP and 4.4 percent for CPP). The contribution is limited to approximately $66,300 of employee wages. CRSP and CPP pension expense for the Central Treasury amounted to approximately $327,796 and $361,619 for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

Conference lay employees are eligible for pension coverage under the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP). UMPIP is a defined contribution plan which calls for a nine percent employer contribution but does not currently call for an employee contribution. UMPIP pension expense for the Central Treasury amounted to approximately $99,804 and $112,271 for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

11. Net Assets with Donor Restrictions

Net assets with donor restrictions consist of the following at December 31:

	2021	2020
Donor-restricted	$ 1,746,337	$ 1,669,741
Church Extension Fund	1,638,866	1,309,567

There were no net assets with donor restrictions under permanent restriction at December 31, 2021 and 2020.

12. Related Party Transactions

The following is a summary of transactions with the Foundation, which is affiliated with the Central Treasury, for the years ended December 31:

As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, $2,114,462 and $4,366,667, respectively, of the investments of the Central Treasury are administered by the Foundation.

The Central Treasury holds congregation savings certificates with the Virginia United Methodist Development Company in the amount of $2,043,641 and $2,033,960 at December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively. These savings certificates earned $9,681 and $11,141 during the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

13. Richmond Area Episcopal Fund

Historically, the Richmond Area Episcopal Fund (Episcopal Fund), which operates the Bishop's office for the United Methodist Church for the Richmond area, has operated separate from the Central Treasury. Effective January 1, 2020, those charged with governance of the Episcopal Fund contributed the net assets of the Episcopal Fund to the Central Treasury to operate as a fund within the Central Treasury. As no consideration was transferred in exchange for these net assets, the Central Treasury has recorded a contribution of $119,959 in 2020, which represents the fair value of assets received. As these funds are restricted for the purposes of the Episcopal Fund, this has been reported on the statement of activities as a contribution with donor restrictions.

The financial activity of the Episcopal Fund is recorded in the Central Treasury's financial statements; however, as requested by the General Council on Finance and Administration (GCFA), the table below represents the transactions of the Episcopal Fund during the year ended December 31, 2021:

Beginning Episcopal Fund net assets, January 1, 2021	$ 116,841

XVII. STATISTICAL TABLES

For the year JANUARY 1, 2021, through DECEMBER 31, 2021
DAVID DOMMISSE, Conference Statistician

Each of these tables, based on the pastors' reports, has been carefully proofread. In those dealing with finances, there are a number of instances in which amounts reported by several churches within a charge do not add up to the total which is given. In most of these cases, the total was changed on the original statistical sheets to correspond to the amount actually received by the conference treasurer. Differences in financial totals listed and those of the conference treasurer are due to payments made in fractions of dollars, whereas statisticians calculate to the nearest dollar. For questions concerning the statistical tables, contact the conference statistician, David Dommisse, P.O. Box 5606, Glen Allen, VA 23058; by phone at (804) 521-1109 or via email at DavidDommisse@vaumc.org.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS

2022 SPECIAL CALLED ANNUAL CONFERENCE

THE VIRGINIA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The business of this session and the COVID-19 global pandemic made this called session of the Virginia Annual Conference unique. The purpose of the called Annual Conference session was to address matters related to the Boy Scouts of America bankruptcy proceedings. The conference session was held using telecommunications technology for distance participation. Specific accommodations were used, in accordance with CDC safety guidelines, to protect members of the Virginia Annual Conference.

SATURDAY MORNING PLENARY SESSION

SATURDAY, JANUARY 29TH, 2022

VIRGINIA UNITED METHODIST CONFERENCE CENTER

GLEN ALLEN, VIRGINIA

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic the plenary session was held in an online webinar format. Annual Conference began at 9:00 am with music.

At 9:31 am, Bishop Sharma D. Lewis, bishop of the Richmond Episcopal Area, called to order this special session of the Virginia Annual Conference. Bishop Lewis acknowledged those who were there in person and assured the conference they were following their COVID-19 guidelines. Bishop Lewis welcomed the members of the Annual Conference and reminded the body of our sacred duty to protect our children. Bishop Lewis thanked the members of the Annual Conference for their work and prayers. Bishop Lewis recognized Ms. Martha Stokes, Virginia Conference Lay Leader, to offer words of welcome and opening prayer.

Ms. Stokes thanked Bishop Lewis and led us in prayer.

Bishop Lewis recognized Rev. Denise Bates, Dean of the Cabinet, for organizing motions.

Rev. Bates made a motion to permit this special session of the Virginia Annual Conference to take place in the virtual format.

Rev. Timothy Barth, Mount Olivet - Floral Hills Cooperative Parish, Danville District, raised a point of order that there were no instructions as to how the votes would be taken and further, a question about proper credentialing for those who were present. Bishop Lewis asked Rev. Steven Summers, Director of Connectional Ministries, to respond to the point of order. Rev. Summers stated that voting will be done using the Zoom polling option. Rev. Summers explained how to use that feature. As to credentialing, the webinar requires a specific link to obtain access. If you have access to that link, you have been invited specifically due to your office as a member of the Annual Conference. These invites were sent out via email addresses derived from input received from the EVC database. In addition, we have access to see who has come in and will be reviewed.

Rev. Andrew Ware, Beech Grove UMC, Elizabeth River District, raised a point of order that there was no password required to gain entry. In addition, he was aware of links that were not sent out and were improperly shared with others to help them gain access. Rev. Summers responded by stating that we trust our clergy and laity to not share their credentials. In addition, the conference will review those who had gained access.

The motion was seconded. The motion was approved.

Rev. Bates moved that the virtual bar of the Conference be set at the specific locations of the sites of members, and members at the host site, who have been provided with the appropriate Zoom log-in. The motion was seconded. The motion was approved.

Bishop Lewis recognized Rev. Joshua King, Conference Secretary. Rev. King moved that the minutes for this special Annual Conference Session be approved in advance. The motion was seconded. The motion was approved.

Bishop Lewis recognized Mr. David Dommissie, Conference Treasurer, to present to the Annual Conference the purpose of the called Annual Conference.

Mr. Dommissé presented a PowerPoint explaining the history and the work to support the survivors of sexual abuse and the work that has been done to settle the Boy Scouts of America lawsuits regarding sexual misconduct. In addition, Mr. Dommissé presented the motion, including two options, that will be before this conference in a few moments.

Bishop Lewis opened the floor to questions for Mr. Dommissé. Questions were answered by Mr. Dommissé.

Bishop Lewis recognized Ms. Kathy Lutman, Vice-chair, Conference Board of Trustees. Ms. Lutman spoke on behalf of the conference trustees in support of the Virginia Annual Conference plans to fund our portion of this settlement after reviewing the agreements. The board voted to authorize Ms. Lutman to sign the Survivor Trust Fund Contribution and Commitments Form.

Bishop Lewis recognized Rev. Denise Bates who spoke on behalf of the cabinet. The cabinet unanimously supports the commitment of the Virginia Annual Conference to participate in The United Methodist Church's proposed settlement agreement with the Boy Scouts of America (BSA). Such a settlement would provide healing and support to survivors of child sexual abuse.

Bishop Lewis recognized Mr. William Talley IV, President, Council on Finance and Administration (CFA). Mr. Talley spoke on behalf of CFA as to how the Virginia Annual Conference plans to fund our portion of this settlement. CFA also voted unanimously to support this commitment and has signed the Survivor Trust Fund Contribution and Commitments Form.

Mr. Talley made the following motion: The Council on Finance and Administration moves that the Annual Conference vote to approve either Option 1 or Option 2 as the funding choice for the Conference's commitment to the Survivors Trust as part of the BSA bankruptcy.

Option 1—the entire $988,456 will be paid 100% from Conference reserves in 2022; or Option 2 — $988,456 will be paid from the Conference reserves in 2022 and the local churches will pay $494,228 (50% of the $988,456) as part of a special apportionment over a 2-year period (2023 and 2024) to reimburse the reserve account.

Rev. Jim Ullian, Retired Clergy, Elizabeth River District, raised a point of order: Is there an option to vote no? Mr. David Dommissé responded that there is not an option to not pay this amount.

Carl Perez, Galilee UMC, Rappahannock River District, moved to call the question. The motion was seconded. The motion to close debate was approved.

Ryan Ware, Wesley Chapel - Rock Springs Charge, Danville District, raised a point of order stating that he had a motion on the floor before the question had been called. (The motion was in the Queue and not recognized because it was determined to be out of order.) Mr. Scott Diamond, Conference Rules Chair, stated that this motion to postpone was out of order, as per Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised. His rationale was that a motion to postpone a decision more than three months from the time of the current meeting would be out of order.

Rev. Denise Bates, Dean of the Cabinet, prayed for the body prior to the vote.

Rev. Thomas James, Washington Street UMC, Alexandria District, raised a point of clarification: Was this vote to approve the motion for two options or voting on the two options themselves? Bishop Lewis stated that this motion has two options for which you will be choosing one.

Option 1 of the motion was approved after discussion.

Bishop Lewis began to share the non-monetary items suggested by the UMC BSA Leadership Team.

Rev. William Bearden, Collierstown UMC, Staunton District, raised a point of order. The vote should have been to vote on the motion of the two options and then a vote on which option to choose, but we just voted the two options without a vote on the motion.

Bishop Lewis consulted with the parliamentarian. Bishop Lewis then ruled that the recommendation was in order. We were voting on the funding mechanism of these two options.

Bishop Lewis again shared the non-monetary items suggested by the UMC BSA Leadership Team: 1) Train leaders to meet with and hear the experience and hopes of any survivor who participated in Scouting activities connected with a United Methodist congregation. 2) Review all Safe Sanctuaries/Ministry Safe policies and update as necessary. 3) Develop a series of articles about how to ensure safe youth programming. 4) Participate in a survivors' justice and healing working group formed by survivors who filed claims.

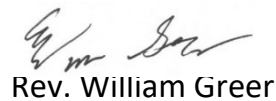

Bishop Lewis prayed for the survivors, thanked the members of the Annual Conference, and closed this 2022 Called Annual Conference at 11:00 a.m.
